LXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to abridge or alter any of the Powers or Authorities vested in the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Street, and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Eighth Year of the Reigne of Queen Elizabeth, entitled An Act concerning Sea Men and Mariners; nor shall any Mariner or Mariners licensed or to be licensed by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House to row or use any Boat or Wherry on the said River Thames, or any of the Men employed by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House, in rowing or using any Ballast Lighters or Boats on the said River, be subject, by reason of any Matter, Clause, or Thing herein contained, to the Rules, Orders, or Government of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or of the said Mayor, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Company, or to any Penalty imposed by this Act, except as herein-after is mentioned.

Dispensation of the Trinity House to have the same Power to make Bye Laws for their Mariners, as is vested in the Court of Aldermen with respect to Watermen.

LXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Street shall have such and the like Power and Authority to make and act down in Writing, alter, amend, repeal, and make void, Rules and Bye Laws for the Government and Regulation of the Mariners licensed or to be licensed by them, and the Men employed by them on the said River, and the Boats, Vessels, and other Craft to be rowed and worked by such Mariners and Men, as is heretofore given to the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen with respect to the Government and Regulation of the Freeman of the said Company, and their Wives and Apprentices; and such Rules or Bye Laws shall be approved or altered, and enforced, in the like Manner as is heretofore required with respect to the Rules or Bye Laws to be made by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen.

Copy of intended Bye Laws and Alterations of the Trinity House to be sent to the Town

LXXII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Rules or Bye Laws shall be made or altered by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity House as aforesaid, a Copy of such intended Rules and Bye Laws, or Alterations, shall be sent to and left with the Town Clerk of the City of London, or at his Office, and another Copy thereof with the Clerk for the Time being of the said Company, or at Watermen's Hall, for the Perusal of the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and the said Court of Master, Wardens, and Assistants respectively, at least Thirty Days before the same shall be allowed by the Justices or Barons aforesaid, or any One or more of them as aforesaid, afforesaid, in order that the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and the said Court of Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or either of them, may submit their Objections (if any) to such intended Rules and Bye Laws, or Alterations, to the Consideration of the said Justices or Barons, or any One or more of them, who shall have been requested as aforesaid to perceive and examine the same, before such intended Rules, Bye Laws, or Alterations shall be allowed as aforesaid.

LXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Prices or Fares to be limited and fixed by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and allowed and advertised as aforesaid, shall be binding upon the Masters, Boatmen, or to be licensed by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Trinity House; and they shall be subject to the like Penalties for demanding and taking more than such Prices or Fares as are hereby inflicted on the Freeman of the said Company for the like Offence.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Freeman of the said Company, or any Apprentice or other Person or Persons, shall offend against this Act, or any Rules or Bye Laws which shall be made by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or by the said Court of Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or by the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Trinity House, and respectively appeared in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any One Alderman of the said City of London, or for any Justice of the Peace for the respective Counties and Places next adjoining to the said River of Thames, as and between Yealod Creek and Washley, and every of them, within his several and respective Jurisdiction, and for any Justice of the Peace acting in and for the Corporation, Villages, and Parishes of Gravesend and Melton within his Jurisdiction, (which shall include for the Purposes of this Act any Part of the said River between Broadland Point in the Northfleet Regis, in the said County of Kent, and Yealod Creek aforesaid,) and he respectively is hereby required, upon Complaint made of any such Offence or Misdemeanour committed within his said respective Jurisdiction, within Thirty Days after the Commission of any such Offence or Misdemeanour, to cause the Offender or Offenders to be summoned personally, or by leaving such Summons at his, her, or their last or usual respective Place of Abode, to appear and answer the said Complaint; and if any Freeman, Apprentice, or other Person, being duly summoned as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to appear and answer to any Complaint or Complaints made against him, her, or them, for any Offence or Offences committed by him, her, or them against this Act, or the said Rules or Bye Laws, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, in his respective Jurisdiction as aforesaid, to issue his Warrant for apprehending such Freeman, Apprentice, or other Person, upon Oath being made of the Service of such Summons, and to cause the Party so offending or misbehaving to be brought before him; and the Party accused being before such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, either by means of such Summons or of such Warrant or Warrants as aforesaid, he respectively is hereby authorized and required to examine upon Oath the Complainant, or any Witness or Witnesses, touching such Offence or Misdemeanour: and if the Party or Parties accused shall be convicted of any such Offence or Misdemeanour, either by his, her, or their own Confession, or by the Oath, or Affirmation, of a Quorum of the Complainant, or of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, to impose a Fine upon such Offender or Offenders for the said Offence, not exceeding the Penalty or Penalties inflicted or to be inflicted by this Act, or the said Rules or Bye Laws to be made and approved of as aforesaid, or any of them, and if the Person or Persons so convicted shall not forthwith pay the Penalty or Penalties so imposed upon him, her, or them, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, and he is hereby required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the same to be levied, together with the Costs attending the Information, Summons, Warrant, and Conviction, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party offending, and the Overplus (if any) after such Penalty or Penalties and Costs, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, are deducted, shall be returned upon Demand unto the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels; and in case such Penalty or Penalties and Costs shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, then it shall be lawful for such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, to order the Offender or Offenders so convicted to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the Offender or Offenders shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, for his or their Appearance on each Day or Days as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day or Days not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, is hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon, then it shall be lawful for such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the City, County, Liberty, or Place where the Offender shall be or reside, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures and Costs, and all reasonable Charges attending the same, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

LXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Constable or other Officer shall, by virtue of any such Warrant, apprehend or take any Freeman, or Apprentice, or Mariner, out of any Boat or Craft, which they respectively may happen to be on board of, rowing or navigating, until such Boat or Craft shall be safely moored, unless there shall be sufficient Hands on board to row or navigate or take care thereof;

Clerk of London and the Watermen's Company to pay the Salaries allowed by the Statute.

Mariners, licensed by the Trinity House to be licensed to the same Place as Watermen.

Lord Mayor, Aldermen, &c. may examine and apprehend Watermen and others, and punish them by Fine or Imprisonment.

Constables not to take Watermen, &c. out of their Boats, till moored.

thereof; and Notice of this Provision shall be inserted in every such Warrant, for the Information of the Constable or other Officer who may have the Execution thereof.

Lord Mayor,
&c. to summon Persons refusing to pay their
Rate, and order
Payment, &c.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall refuse to pay any Freeman of the said Company, or any Apprentice, or any Mariner licensed or so to be licensed by the said Corporation of Trinity House as aforesaid, the Money justly due to him or them for carrying any such Person or Persons in his Boat or Boats, according to the Rates or Prices which shall be fixed, allowed, and published as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman or Justice as aforesaid, within whose Jurisdiction as aforesaid such Refusal shall be made, and he is hereby required, upon Complaint made of any such Refusal, to summon such Person or Persons to answer the said Complaint, by causing such Summons to be served personally, or by leaving the same at his, her, or their last or usual respective Place of Abode; and if any Person or Persons, being duly summoned as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to appear and answer to any Complaint or Complaints made against him, her, or them, for refusing any such Payment as last heretofore is mentioned, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, in his respective Jurisdiction as aforesaid, and he is hereby required to issue his Warrant for apprehending such Person or Persons, upon Oath being made of such him, her, or their Refusal as aforesaid, and Service of such Summons, and so cause the Party or Parties so offending to be brought before him or them; and the Party or Parties accused being before such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, either by means of such Summons or of such Warrant as last heretofore is mentioned, he respectively is hereby authorized and required, upon due Proof made of such Refusal of Payment unto any Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, of the Money justly due to him for carrying the Person or Persons accused in his Boat or Boats, upon Oath, or upon Confession of the Party or Parties, to order Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money which any such Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, shall appear to be entitled to, and also to award reasonable Satisfaction to be made to him or them for his or their Loss of Time and Costs, in the Discretion of the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively; and if the said Person or Persons so offending shall not pay such Sum or Sums of Money, and make such reasonable Satisfaction (if awarded) as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively, to commit the Person or Persons so refusing to some Prison within the said City of London, or the said several Counties or Places adjoining to the said River of Thames, there to remain for any Space of Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, unless the Sum or Sums of Money ordered and awarded as aforesaid shall be sooner paid.

Persons refusing to give their Names, or giving fictitious Names, to be punished.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall refuse to pay any such Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, the Money demanded by him or them for carrying any such Person or Persons in his or their Boat or Boats, and shall also refuse to give to such Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, upon Demand, the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode of him, her, or them so refusing, or instead thereof shall wilfully give any false Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, for the Purpose of preventing him, her, or them from being summoned as aforesaid, every Person refusing to make such Payment, or to give his or her real Name or Place of Abode, or giving such false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and such Offender or Offenders shall or may themselves be summoned and otherwise proceeded against, not only for the Recovery of the Money justly due to such Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, and reasonable Satisfaction for his or their Loss of Time and Costs, but also for enforcing the Payment of the Penalty or Forfeiture lastly heretofore inflicted, in such and the same Manner and in all respects as is heretofore mentioned and directed for the Recovery of Money due to any Freeman or Apprentice, or Mariner, for carrying any Person in his Boat, and of such reasonable Satisfaction as aforesaid.

Form of Complaint by Lord
Mayor, &c.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, or any such Rules or Bye Laws as aforesaid, may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect: (that is to say)

‘ I, BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord 18____ A.D. is convicted before me [as the Case may be] Lord Mayor, Recorder, or Alderman of the City of London, or One of His Majesty’s Justices of the Peace for the County, or incorporated Village and Parishes of Greenwich and Abbeey, for [as in and to the Office] contrary to an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [as in and to the Title of this Act], or some Rule or Bye Law made as therein is mentioned; and I do adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the Sum of _____ being the Penalty by him forfeited, and also the Sum of _____ for Loss of Time and Costs [if awarded, as the Case may be], or to be committed to _____ for the Space of _____ Given under my Hand and Seal the Day and Year aforesaid.’

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Freeman, or the Widow of any Freeman, or any Apprentice of a Freeman or of the Widow of a Freeman of the said Company, shall make Complaint to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the Time being of the said Company, or any Two or more of them, against any other such Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice, for any Offence or Mischbehaviour against this Act, or any of the said Rules or Bye Laws to be made and approved of as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, (as well as for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, respectively hereby authorized as aforesaid) and they are hereby required to hear and determine concerning any such Offence or Mischbehaviour, and convict the

the Offender, or hereinafter is mentioned and directed; (that is to say), in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, upon Complaint made by any such Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice as aforesaid, of any such Offence or Mischaviour, within Thirty Days after the Commission thereof, to cause the Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice offending as aforesaid to be summoned personally, or by leaving such Summons at his, her, or their last or usual Place of Abode, to appear and answer to the said Complaint, and the Party accused being before the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, to hear and examine upon Oath the Complaint, or any Witness or Witnesses, touching such Offence or Mischaviour, and defence concerning the same; and if the Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice accused shall be convicted of any such Offence or Mischaviour, it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, and they are hereby required to impose a Fine upon each Offender for the said Offence or Mischaviour, not exceeding the Penalty or Penalties inflicted or to be inflicted by this Act, or the said Rules or Bye Laws to be made and approved of as aforesaid, or any of them; and if the Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice convicted shall not forthwith pay the Penalty or Forfeiture so imposed upon him, her, or them, it shall be lawful for the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman or Justice as aforesaid, within whose Jurisdiction as aforesaid the said Offence or Mischaviour shall have been committed, and he is hereby required, upon Production to him or them respectively of such Conviction drawn up in Writing, to issue his Warrant for apprehending such Freeman, Widow, or Apprentice, and to cause such Penalty or Forfeiture to be paid or ruled, or to commit the Party convicted, in the same Manner in all respects as hereinafter is expressed with respect to any Party who shall be convicted by or before the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice respectively; and such Conviction by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, shall be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect: (that is to say),

To wit, } BE it remembered, That on this Day of in the Year of His Majesty's Reign, A.D. is convicted before us (subscribe the Master, Wardens, or Justices, as the Case may be) of the Company of Woollen and Linnenmen of the River Thames, for [here set forth the Offence], and we do adjudge him to pay and forfeit for the same the Sum of £ Given under our Hands and Seals the Day and Year aforesaid.

LXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Party summoned by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, shall refuse or neglect to appear and answer the Comptroller made against him or her, without assigning a reasonable Cause for such Refusal or Neglect; to be allowed by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, he or she shall be forthwith and without further delay and save any Sort of Homage put in execution Twenty Shillings.

XXIII. Provided also, and he is further covenanted, that the Jurisdiction or Authority hereby given to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, or any Two or more of them, shall not be construed to extend to the Conviction of any Offender who shall not be a Freeman of the said Company, or the Widow of such Freeman, or the Apprentice of any such Freeman or Widow.

TAKER. And he further covenanted, That every Apprentice to any Freeman, or to the Widow of any Freeman, who shall be imprisoned for any Offence against this Act, or any of the Rules or Bye Laws as aforesaid, shall serve as an Apprentice to his said Master or Mistress, not only till the Expiration of the Term for which such Apprentice ought to serve according to the Laws and Customs already existing, or this Act, and any Agreement which may have been made in that Behalf, but also for and during such further Space of Time, to be computed from the End of the said Term, as shall be equal in Duration to the Time during which such Apprentice shall have been imprisoned as aforesaid; and that as such Apprentice shall be considered as having served a legal Apprenticeship, or entitled to the Privileges and Benefits of serving as an Apprenticeship, until he shall actually have served such further Space of Time, any Agreement concerning such Apprenticeship, or any Law, Usage, or Customs to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Oath is by this Act directed to be made or taken, or any Matter or Thing is directed to be proved by Oath, the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman or any Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Justices respectively, or the said Master, or One of the Wardens or Assessors present at any Court of Master, Wardens, and Assessors, or any Court for Apprentices and the Admission of Freeman, or any Two or more of the said Master, Wardens, and Assessors, before whom such Oath is hereby directed to be made or taken, or such Matter or Thing to be proved, shall have full Power to administer the Oath, or instead thereof to receive a solemn Affirmation by any of the People called Quakers, as the Case may require.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Information, Complaint, Dispute, Suit, or Litigation, in anywise relating to any Offence against this Act, any Freeman of the said Company, or the Associates of any Freeman, shall be competent to give Evidence thereon.

LXXXV. And he is further enacted, That if any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before any Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, or any Mayor, Wardens, or Assistants, respecting any Matter of Fact relating to any Information or Complaint for any Offence against this Act, or any such Rules or Bye Laws as aforesaid, either as the Part of the Prosecutor or the Person or Persons accused, shall, after a reasonable Sum for his or her Costs shall have been paid or tendered to him or her, refuse or neglect to answer at the Place and Time by such Barristers appointed, without LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of August next after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall do or commit any Damage, Injury, or Spoil to or upon any Lighter, Barge, Boat, Wherry, or other Vessel or Craft within the Limits of this Act, and shall be thereof convicted within Three Months next after the committing of such Injury, before the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman or Justice within whose Jurisdiction as aforesaid such Offence shall have been committed, either by the Conviction of the Party offending, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or of the Party aggrieved in the Premises, every Person so offending, and being thereof convicted as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay to the Person aggrieved such a Sum of Money as shall appear to such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice, to be a reasonable Satisfaction and Compensation for the Damage, Injury, or Spoil so committed, not exceeding in any Case the Sum of Five Pounds, which said Sum of Money shall be paid to the Person or Persons aggrieved; but in case such Conviction shall take place on the sole Evidence of the Party aggrieved, then and in such Case such Satisfaction and Compensation shall be paid to the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place where the Offence was committed; and in default of Payment of the Sum of Money in which the Offender or Offenders shall have been so convicted as aforesaid, immediately, or within such Time as such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice shall appoint at the Time of Conviction, together with all Costs, Charges, and Expenses attending the Conviction, such Lord Mayor, Recorder, Alderman, or Justice shall and may commit such Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty, Costs, and Charges, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the
Sessions.

XC. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Conviction of the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, or any Alderman or Justice, or any of the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, respectively, on account of any Offence committed or supposed to have been committed against this Act, or against any of such Rules or Bye Laws as aforesaid, such Person or Persons may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Sessions to be holden for the Place where such Cause of Appeal shall arise, or if such Sessions shall be holden within Ten Days after such Conviction, then such Person or Persons may appeal either to such next General or Quarter Sessions, or to the Sessions following such next General or Quarter Sessions, provided the Person or Persons at the Time of such Conviction shall enter into a Recognizance, with One sufficient Surety, in the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to prosecute such Appeal with Effect, and to abide by the Order or Orders which shall be made on such Appeal; and the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to take cognizance thereof, and to hear and determine such Appeal, and and shall and may, if they see Cause, by Order of such Justices, mitigate, at their Discretion, all or any Part of the Penalties or Forfeitures laid upon or incurred by the Party or Parties appealing, or vacate or set aside the Commission or Warrant, or otherwise may satisfy or compound the same, with such Costs as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, and levy by their Order or Warrant such Penalties or Forfeitures and Costs awarded, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons who shall refuse to pay the same, and for Want of such Distress to commit such Person or Persons to the Common Gaol for the said County or Place where the Cause of Appeal shall arise, for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, or until Payment of such Penalties or Forfeitures and Costs.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That no Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders against this Act, or any Manner or Thing to be done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, shall be vacated or quashed for Want of Form only, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action to be commenced against any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, until Notice in Writing, signed by his, her, or their Attorney, specifying the Cause of Action, shall have been given to the Defendant or Defendants, or left at his or their usual or last Place or Places of Abode or Meeting, at least Fourteen Days before the same shall have been commenced; nor shall the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs recover in any such Action, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made to him, her, or them, or to his, her, or their Attorney, by or on the Behalf of the Defendant or Defendants, before such Action brought, nor if such Tender of Amends shall be made after the said Action brought and before the Trial thereof, together with Costs of Suit, at the Time of such last-mentioned Tender; but on Proof of such Tender, at any Trial to be had in such Action, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall not recover Judgment as in Cases of Nisi, with Double Costs, to be recovered in the same Manner as any Defendant or Defendants may recover Costs in any other Case by Law; and in case no such Tender of Amends shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants, by Leave of the Court, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum or Sums of Money as he, she, or they shall think fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders, and Judgments shall be made and given in and by such Court, as in other Actions wherein Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

XCIII. And be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, after Three Calendar Months next after the Cause of such Action shall have arisen; and every such Action or Actions shall be brought in the County, City, or Place in which the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may, at his, her, or their Option, either plead specially or plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial or Trials which shall be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to have been so done, or that such Action or Suit was brought without Fourteen Days Notice thereof having been given as aforesaid, or after sufficient Amends ordered as aforesaid, or if any such Action or Suit shall not be commenced within the Time lastly before limited, or shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place than where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, then and in any of such Cases the Jury or Jurors shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become Nonsuit, or shall discontinue his or their Action or Actions after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, then and in any of the Cases aforesaid the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or may have for his or their Costs in any other Cases by Law.

XCIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or derogate from the Rights, Privileges, Franchises, or Authorities of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London or their Successors, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to prohibit, delay, alter, or diminish any Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction which at the Time of making this Act the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, or the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, as Conservator of the River Thames, did or might lawfully claim, use, or exercise.

XCV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the lessening, taking away, abridging, hindering, prejudicing, or otherwise howsoever impeaching of any Right belonging to or lawfully claimed by the late Charles Duke of Richmond and Lennox, Lord of the Manor of Greenwich, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for the holding of a certain Court within the said Manor called Coria Curia Apud, or the Court of the Watercourse, for the better Government of Harpors, Boats, and Vessels using the Ferry or Passage from the Town of Greenwich to London, and of the Persons owning or working the same, or of any other Rights, Liberties, Powers, and Privileges whatsoever belonging to the said late Duke, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, relating to the said Ferry or Passage, or to the Harpors, Tith Boats, or other Boats and Vessels using the said Ferry or Passage, or plying at the Bridge of the said Town of Greenwich, or the Persons owning or working the same, or others as howsoever.

XCVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to the lessening, taking away, abridging, hindering, prejudicing, or impeaching of any Customs, Liberties, Franchises, Penalties may be mitigated.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

Saving the Liberties of the Inhabitants of Greenwich.

Freedoms, Customs, Privileges, or Unges, now or heretofore lawfully used, held, or enjoyed by the Mayor, Jurats, and capital Inhabitants of the Villages and Parishes of Gornemund and Mitten in the County of Kent, touching, concerning, or relating to the Passage and Ferry upon the said River Thames from the said Villages and Parishes to the said City of London, or touching or concerning the Government of the said Passage or Ferry; but that the said Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants, and their Successors, shall and may do and execute all and every such lawful Act and Acts, Powers and Authorities, touching the said Passage and Ferry, and the Government thereof, as they might or could have done if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXVII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to hinder or prevent the Watermen of the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John, Westminster, from plying or working cross the River Thames from Westminster Bridge to Strandgate, and from the Horse Ferry to Lambeth Bridge, on every Sunday, and taking the Fare of One Penny for each Passenger, in their several Turns, as they have been accustomed and used to do; and the Money soaved by them or any of them on that Day, is hereby directed to be from time to time employed for the Use of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed Watermen and their Widows, of the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John, Westminster; and any Two Jurats of the Peace of the said Parishes are hereby authorized from time to time to call the Watermen so working to account for the Money by them earned on the Sunday so aforesaid, and cause the same to be applied and disposed of as aforesaid; and that the said Watermen of the said Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John for the Time being shall choose Two Stewards and a Clerk on the Twenty third Day of April in every Year, yearly, unless such Day shall happen to be on the Lord's Day, and in such Case on the following Day; and such Watermen of the said Parishes, or the major Part of them which shall be present at a Meeting of their Society, shall and have hereby Power to appoint such of the Watermen of the said Parishes as shall in their respective Turns work on the Sunday so aforesaid; and no Freeman or Apprentice shall ply or work cross the said River at either of the said Places on a Sunday, except the Watermen of the said Parishes, and the Watermen to be appointed by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Company, on aforesaid Sundays.

XXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to take away, lessen, abridge, hinder, prejudice, impeach, interfere with, or in any Manner affect any Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Liberty, Privilege, Power, or Authority, which the Commissioners of Westminster Bridge have or are entitled to in or in anywise relating to the Three several and respective Sunday Ferries across the River Thames from Westminster Bridge to Strandgate, and from the Horse Ferry to Lambeth, and from Millbank to Fenchurch, or any or either of them, or any other Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Liberty, Privilege, Power, or Authority whatsoever, of, belonging, or in anywise appertaining to the said Commissioners, but that all Estates, Rights, Titles, Interests, Liberties, Privileges, Powers, and Authorities whatsoever, of, belonging, or in anywise appertaining to the said Commissioners, shall and may be held, used, occupied, possessed, and enjoyed by the said Commissioners in such and the same Manner in all respects, as if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prejudice or affect the Rights and Privileges to which the Owner or Owners of any Ferry or Ferries over or across the said River Thames, within the Limits of this Act, are now entitled to by Law.

C. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to interfere with, lessen, or abridge the Rights and Privileges of any Company of Proprietors of any Docks or Canals within the Limits of this Act, or any of their Officers, with respect to the Navigation in the said Docks or Canals respectively, or in anywise relating thereto.

CII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained (except the Provisions for compelling the Makers of the Barges or Craft, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Owner, to be painted and preserved thereon as aforesaid,) shall extend to any Western Barges; and that all flat-bottomed Boats and Barges navigated from the Town of Kingston in the County of Surrey, or any Place or Places beyond the said Town, shall be deemed Western Barges, and shall and may be navigated on the said River of Thames as far as London Bridge; and that nothing in this Act shall extend to any Ferry Boats worked or rowed at any Ferry or Ferries over or across the said River or between the said Town of Kingston and any Place or Places between the same and New Windsor aforesaid, and on Person or Persons navigating such Western Barges or Ferry Boats as last aforesaid shall in respect thereof be subject or hold to any Penalties or Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or by any Rules or Bye Laws to be made as aforesaid, (except as aforesaid).

CIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Person or Persons from keeping, and using and rowing, by their Servants, any Lighter or Lighters, or other large Craft for carrying their own Goods, provided such Servants be Freeman, or Apprentices to Freeman, or to the Widows of Freeman of the said Company.

An Act for applying a Sum of Money for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight. [18th February 1825.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WH, Your Majesty's most devoted and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in the Session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the Sum hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

£400,000. arising from former Aids to be applied for 1825.

C A P. II.

An Act for raising the Sum of Twelve Millions, by Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight. [19th February 1825.]

C A P. III.

[21st March 1825.]

[This Act is in the same as T & S C.A. c. 6. except as to Dates and the Clauses here inserted;—and that the Powers given by that Act to the Commissioners of the Admiralty are given by this Act to the Lord High Admiral or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing that Office;—and that Sections 25. & 26. and Sections 42. & 43. of that Act, are respectively transposed on this.]

LVI. And Whereas several Marines, who being duly entered, may afterwards desert, and be found wandering, or otherwise absconding themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service; it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman of the Town, Parish, Township, or Place, where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or of any adjoining Town, Hamlet, Township, or Place, or if no such Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Marine, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, and acting for the same or any adjoining County, who is lawfully empowered and required to examine such suspected Person; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear as he found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly entered, and ought to be with the Company to which he belongs, whether such Company shall be employed on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or quartered on Shore, or employed on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty not being in Commission, or any Convict Hulk or Ship, such Justice of the Peace shall, without Fee or Reward to himself or his Clerk, forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Gaol or the House of Correction or other Public Prison in such Town or Place where such Deserter shall be so brought before such Justice of the Peace, or if there be no Gaol, House of Correction, or other Public Prison in such Town or Place, then, at the Discretion of such Justice of the Peace, to the nearest or most convenient Gaol, House of

Correction, the said suspected Deserter, and carry them before a Justice, and transmit an Account to the Secretary of the Admiralty, the Correction, or other Public Prison in the same or any next adjoining County, and transmit an Account thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being, with a Description of the Person of such Detainer, and the Name of the Division to which he may belong, to the end that he may be prosecuted against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or Prison, shall receive such Substantive-Money, for the Maintenance of such Detainer during the Time he shall continue in his Custody, as shall from time to time be directed in that Behalf by the said Lord High Admiral, or Two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, but shall not be entitled to any Fee or Reward on account of the Imprisonment of any such Detainer; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that a shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for the Time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, to or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during or after the Expiration of his Period of Imprisonment in any Gaol or House of Correction or other public Prison.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, from any Marine, or Marine Detainer, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or any such Articles belonging to any Marine, or Marine Detainer, as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Customs of the Royal Marine Corps (being provided for the Marine, and paid for by the Deductions out of his Pay), or cause the Colour of such Clothes to be changed, every such Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hands of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by District and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; one Moneys thereof to be paid to the Informer, if not a Soldier or Marine, and the other Moneys to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, who shall report the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and credit the same in his Public Accounts; and in every Case in which the Informer shall be a Soldier or a Marine, the Moneys of the said Penalty shall be paid to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and shall be applied as a Fund for the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of proceeding for the Recovery of such Penalties, in Cases in which no sufficient Goods and Chattels shall be found, whereby such Penalties and Costs can be levied by District and Sale as aforesaid; and a Report of such Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justices of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender, who shall be so convicted, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Distress may be made to the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Calendar Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully, and designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Form of Oath marked (A.) in the Schedule annexed to this Act, before the Justice of the Peace at the Time of his Attestation, for the Purpose of obtaining, and shall thereupon obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty or Part of the Bounty, for enlisting into His Majesty's Royal Marine, or any other Military, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relating to Larceny, and other Offences committed thereunto; and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who attempt or attempt to attain Possession of Money or Goods by false Pretences or Threats; and the Production of each Oath, and Proof of the Justices Handwriting thereon, shall, in any Prosecutions to be instituted against the enlisting Person or Persons therein named, be sufficient Evidence of such Person having represented the several Particulars contained in such Oath at the Time of his being attested; and that Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, that the Person so prosecuted hath freely and voluntarily declared or acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Corps or Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Royal Navy or Royal Marine, or that he was an Apprentice, shall be deemed and taken as sufficient Evidence of the Fact so by him declared or acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and in case such Person shall be an Apprentice, or shall belong to the Militia, he shall, immediately after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, or other manner Determination of it, or at the Expiration of the Period of his Service in the Militia, whether he shall have been convicted and punished or not, be deemed duly enlisted, and be liable from thenceforth to serve as a Marine; and if, on the Expiration or other sooner Determination of his Apprenticeship, or at the Expiration of the Period of his Service in the Militia, he shall not deliver himself up to some Officer at the Head Quarters of one of the Divisions of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or to some Royal Marine Officer authorized to receive Recruits, he shall be liable to be apprehended and dealt with as a Detainer from His Majesty's said Royal Marine Forces. Provided always, that every such Person belonging to the Militia shall be liable to serve, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Division of the Royal Marine Forces in which he shall have enlisted, during all the

Time

That the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Division into which he shall have so enlisted, if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Division.

C A P. IV.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [14th March 1828.]

[Number of Forces, 31,075.]

[The Schedule to this Act which is marked C is the same as that to 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 4. which is marked D D, and is referred to in the Body of the Act accordingly. In all other Respects, except Date and the Sections here inserted, the Two Acts are the same.]

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall intend any Sentence of a Court-martial of Transportation to be carried into execution, or shall be graciously pleased to extend his Mercy, upon Conditions of Transportation, to any Offender liable to the Punishment of Death by the Sentence of a Court-martial, such Sentence, together with His Majesty's Pleasure upon the same, shall be notified in Writing by the Commander in Chief for the Time being of His Majesty's Forces in Great Britain and Ireland, or by the General Officer commanding in chief for the Time being His Majesty's Forces in Great Britain and Ireland, or in the temporary Absence of such Commander in Chief, or such General Officer, then by the Adjutant General for the Time being, to any Justice of the King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Baron of the Exchequer of the Degree of the Court to be tried, or to any Justice of the King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland; and thereupon such Justice or Baron shall make an Order for the Transportation of such Offender, upon the Terms and for the Time which shall be specified in such Notification, and shall also make such other Order or Orders, and do all such other Acts consequent upon the same, as any such Justice or Baron is authorized to make or do by any Act or Acts in force at the Time of making any such Order in relation to the Transportation of Offenders, and such Order and Orders as he is made, and all such Acts as shall be so done as aforesaid, shall be obeyed and done by such Person in whose Custody such Offender shall at that Time be, and all other Persons whom it may concern, and shall be as effectual, and have all the same Consequences, as any Order made under the Authority of the said Act with respect to any Offender in the said Act mentioned; and every Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper, Governor, or Superintendent whom it may concern, and all Constables, and other Persons, shall be bound to obey the aforesaid Order and Orders, be assistant in the Execution thereof, and be liable to the same Punishment for Disobedience, or interrupting the Execution of the same, as they would be if the same had been made under the Authority of the aforesaid Act; and every Person so ordered to be transported as aforesaid shall be subject respectively to all and every Provision and Provisions made by Law, and now in force, concerning Persons convicted of any Crime, and sentenced to be transported, or receiving His Majesty's Pardon on Condition of Transportation.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court-martial shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commitment during the Time of such Imprisonment; and also, that during the Continuance of any Imprisonment in any Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction in Great Britain, and Ireland the Inspector under whose immediate Inspection such House of Correction, Gaol, or Prison shall be, shall receive and apply in the Maintenance of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier the Sum of Sixpence per Diem out of the Subsidience of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier during the Time that such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier shall continue in Custody; which said Sum the Secretary at War is hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid to the said Gaoler or Keeper, or Inspector respectively as aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison, or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier was confined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War, if he shall think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment in any Prison, Gaol, House of Correction, or Place of Military Confinement.

LVI. And for the better preventing Absence in Hiding, and counteracting such Offences and Soldiers in the said City and Liberties of Westminster, and Parts adjacent, lying in the said County of Middlesex, and in the said County of Surrey, and in the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, be it enacted, That the Petty Constables, Headboroughs, and Tithingmen of their respective Parishes, Wards, Hamlets, and Divisions within the same, shall at every General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties of Westminster, in the said County of Middlesex, and in the said County of Surrey, and the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Sessions assembled, upon Oath, which Oath they the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to administer, true Lists signed by them respectively of all such Houses, together with the Number of all such Persons respectively inhabiting the same, within his or their Parish, Ward, Hamlet, or District respectively, so as to be subject and liable by this Act to receive such Offences and Soldiers, together with the Names and Rank of all such Officers and Soldiers as are Sentence of Transportation, he shall be notified by the Commander in Chief or the Adjutant General to any Justice of the King's Bench, &c. who shall make an Order for the Transportation of such Offender.

quartered and billeted in each House respectively; and such Lists shall remain with the Clerks of the Peace of the said City and Liberties of Westminster, the said County of Middlesex, the said County of Surrey, and the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, respectively, to the intent that all and every Person and Persons may be at Liberty to inspect the same without any Fee or Reward; and each Clerk shall forthwith from time to time make and deliver to every or any Person or Persons who shall require the same, true Copies of all and every or any such Lists, upon being paid Two-pence a Sheet for each and every such Copy as taken, each Sheet to be computed at and contain One hundred and fifty Words; and if Default or Neglect shall be made by any Petty Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman, of any such Parish, Ward, Hamlet, or District, in the delivering such Lists to the Justices at their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, or if he or they shall to deliver or cause to be delivered in any false or defective List, not including and specifying therein all and every such House and Houses to be let by this Act to receive such Officers and Soldiers, or the Names and Rank of all such Officers and Soldiers as are quartered and billeted in each House respectively: such Petty Constable, Headborough, and Tithingman, or any of them so offending therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to the Use of the Poor of such respective Parishes, Wards, Hamlets, and Districts: to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of Heads and Seals of One or more of His Majesty's Justices or Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberties of Westminster, for the said County of Middlesex, and for the said County of Surrey, and for the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, respectively, (which Warrant or Warrants the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and required to make and issue); and for Want of sufficient Distress to be found for that Purpose, the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and required, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal or Heads and Seals, to commit the Person or Persons so offending to the Common Goal of the said City of Westminster, the said County of Middlesex, the said County of Surrey, or the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, there to remain for any Time to be limited by such Justice or Justices, not exceeding Three Calendar Months nor less than One Calendar Month, without Bail or Mainprize.

LXXXV. And Whereas, from various local Circumstances, the Notes of Carriage in Ireland cannot be regulated in the same Manner as the Notes in England: Be it therefore enacted, That the same to be paid in that behalf in Ireland shall be as follows; (that is to say,) for every Hundred Weight which the Owner or Owners of any Wheel Carriage shall take as Loading on such Wheel Carriage, the Sum of One Halfpenny for every Mile or repeated Mile he or they shall therewith march; or if the Price of Hay and Oats shall render a further Allowance necessary, then such further Sum as shall be fixed by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, not exceeding One Halfpenny a Mile for every Three hundred Weight which such Carriage shall take, but such further Allowance shall not continue in force longer than until the next succeeding General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, unless it be then continued by the Justices at such Sessions: and that the said Signs respectively shall be paid to such Owner or Owners respectively, or to their Carman or Draymen respectively; and that every such Payment shall, if required, be made in the Presence of a Justice of the Peace, Constable, or Petty Constable.

T. 6 G. 4. c. 23.
25 G. 4. c. 17 (1).
(This Act, 25 G. 4. c. 23, is repealed by 2 G. 4. c. 26, and Persons guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences remain punishable under 2 G. 4. c. 64.)

MCVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully, and designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths respectively marked (A.) and (B.) and Certificates marked (C.) and (D.) in the Schedule to this Act respectively contained and sworn, before the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Time of his Attestation, for the Purpose of obtaining and shall obtain any Enlisting Money or any Bounty for entering into His Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretence, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who obtain or attempt to obtain Possession of Money or Goods by false Pretences or Threats; and the Production of such Certificate, and Proof of the Handwriting of the Justice of the Peace giving such Certificate, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oath sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice, at the Time of his being attested; and then Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath freely and voluntarily declared or acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Navy or Marines, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him declared or acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same.

Penalty on Persons advertising for Recruits without Authority.

CIX. And Whereas various Persons are in the Habit of advertising for Recruits for Regiments of the Line, the Embedded Militia, or for the Service of the Honourable East India Company, and also under the Pretence of procuring Substitutes for the same, to the great Detriment of the Service: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Persons whosoever who shall advertise, post, or dispense, or cause to be advertised, posted, or dispensed, Bills for the Purpose of procuring Recruits or Substitutes, or shall open or keep any House or Place of Rendezvous purporting in any Manner whatever to be connected with the Recruiting Service or Department, for the Line, Embedded Militia, or East India Company, or shall interfere or be concerned directly or indirectly in any Manner or Way therewith (except such Recruiting Parties as may be stationed under the Command and Direction of the respective Field Officers of Districts, without the express Permission in Writing of the Adjutant General, if for the Line or Embedded Militia, or of the Court of Directors if for the Honourable East India Company's Service), or shall receive any Person or Persons as aforesaid at his House or Office under any such Bill or Advertisment on any Proclamation whatever, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered on Conviction before a Magistrate, One Moiety to the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the Parish where such Information shall be laid; and on Default of Payment thereof shall be committed to the Common Gaol or other Public Prison, at the Discretion of the Magistrate, for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months, and not less than One Calendar Month, for each and every such Offence.

CIII. And he is further enacted, That if any Person duly bound as an Apprentice shall enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, and shall appear on the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate before whom he shall be carried that he is not an Apprentice, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction, and kept to Hard Labour for Two Years, may be indicted and punished for obtaining Money under false Pretences under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, and shall after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship, whether such Person shall have been so convicted and punished or not, be liable to serve as a Soldier in any Regiment of His Majesty's Regular Forces; and if on the Expiration of his Apprenticeship he shall not deliver himself to some Officer authorised to receive Recruits, may be taken as a Deserter from His Majesty's Forces.

CIV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That no Master in Scotland shall be concluded from claiming any Apprentice who shall hereafter enlist, by reason of the Contract or Indenture not having been produced to a Justice of the Peace in the manner directed by the Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated As Act for punishing Offences and Desertions, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, within the Time therein limited, provided the same shall be produced to any Justice of the Peace of the County wherein the Parties reside, and be indorsed as therein directed, at any Time within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act.

CKIX. And Whereas several Soldiers, being duly enlisted, do afterwards desert, and are found as wanderers, or otherwise absconding themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service: It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman of the Town, Parish, Township, or Place where any Person who may be reasonably suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or of any adjoining Town, Parish, Township, or Place, if no such Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, and acting for the same or any adjoining County, who hath barely Power to examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear to be found that such suspected Person is a listed Soldier, and ought to be with the Troop or Company to which he belongs, such Justice of the Peace shall, without Fee or Reward to himself or his Clerk, forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Gaol, or the House of Correction or other Public Prison in such Town or Place, when such Deserter shall be so brought before such Justice of the Peace, or if there be no Gaol, House of Correction, or other Public Prison in such Town or Place, then at the Discretion of such Justice of the Peace to the nearest or most convenient Gaol, House of Correction, or other Public Prison, in the same or any next adjoining County; or to the Prison Marshal in case such Deserter shall be apprehended within the City or Liberties of Dublin, or Place adjacent; and transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act marked (N.), to the Secretary at War for the Time being in London; or if the Deserter be apprehended in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary to the Chief Governor or Governors thereof; to the end that such Person may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary at War, or Chief Governor or Governors, and proceeded against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or Prison, in which such Deserter shall at any Time be confined, shall receive such Subsistence for the Maintenance of such Deserter during the Time that he shall continue in his Custody, as by His Majesty's Regulations is or shall from time to time be directed in that Behalf; and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or other Public Prison of the City, Town, or Place, at or in which the Party or Person conveying such Deserter shall halt on the March, shall and he is hereby required to receive and receive every such Deserter who shall be delivered into his Charge and Custody by any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall be conveying such Deserter under any lawful Order, Warrant, or Authority, while on the Road from the Place where he was apprehended to the Place to which he is to be conveyed, without any other Warrant or Authority for so doing than the Production of the Warrant of the Justice of the Peace on which such Deserter shall have been taken, or some Order from the Office of the Secretary at War, or of the Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and shall be entitled to One Shilling for the safe Custody of the said Deserter while the Party or Person conveying him shall halt on the March; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CKXII. Provided always, and he is enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal, or assist any Deserter from His Majesty's Service, knowing him to be such, is deserting or is concealing himself from such Service, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; one Moiety of the said Penalty to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Agent of the Regiment or Corps to which any such Deserter did belong, and shall be credited by such Agent to Penalty on Persons receiving any Arms, Ammunition, Cloths, Caps, &c. of Soldiers or Deserters, &c.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive from any Soldier or Deserter, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, any Arms, Ammunition, Cloths, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, or any Meat, Drink, Beer, or other Provisions, or any Sticks or other Articles used in Barracks, provided under any Regulations relating thereto, or any such Articles belonging to any Soldier or Deserter as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, according to the Customs of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or cause the Colour of any such Cloths to be changed, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with Treble the Value of the Arms, Ammunition, Cloths, Caps, or other Furniture or Provisions, Sheet, or other Article so detained, bought, exchanged, or otherwise received; or if any Person shall buy or receive any Coat, Hays, Straws, or other Forage provided for the Use of any Horses or Harnes belonging to His Majesty's Service, from any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, or shall move, procure, counsel, solicit, or entice any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Coat, Hays, Straws, or other Forage as aforesaid, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with Treble the Value of the Coat, Hays, Straws, or other Forage so bought, received, sold, or otherwise disposed of; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said respective Penalties of Ten Pounds, and Ten Pounds, shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Detachment and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, one Moiety of the said first-mentioned Penalty of Ten Pounds to be paid to the Informer if not a Soldier, and one Moiety of the said last-mentioned Penalty of Ten Pounds to be paid to the Informer if not a Soldier, and the Residue of the said respective Penalties to be paid to the Agent of the Regiment or Corps to which any such Deserter or Soldier did belong, who shall report the same to the Secretary at War, and credit the same in his public Accounts; and in every Case in which the Informer shall be a Soldier, the Moiety of the said Penalties shall be paid to the Secretary at War, and shall be applied as a Fund for the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of proceeding for the Recovery of such Penalties, in Cases in which no sufficient Goods and Chattels shall be found whereby such Penalties and Costs can be levied by Detachment and Sale as aforesaid; and a Report of the said respective Penalties being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary at War by the Justices of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender who shall be convicted as aforesaid of having knowingly received any Arms, Ammunition, Cloths, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, or any such Meat, Drink, Beer, or other Provisions, or Sheets, or other Articles used in Barracks, or any such Articles generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, or of having caused the Colour of such Cloths to be changed, or of having bought or received any Coat, Hays, Straws, or other Forage provided for the Use of any Horses or Harnes belonging to His Majesty's Service, from any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, or of having moved, procured, counselled, solicited, or enticed any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Coat, Hays, Straws, or other Forage as aforesaid, contrary to the tenor of this Act, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon Damages may be made to the Value of the Penalties recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalties upon such Conviction, or give sufficient Security for Payment thereof within the Space of Four Days from such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice of the Peace shall and may by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, either commit such Offender to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Calendar Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice.

In what Cases this Act shall extend to Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Alder, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Provisions therein for mustering and paying, and as to the Provisions for the Trial and Punishment of Officers and Soldiers who shall be charged with Murky and Desertion, or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a General, or Garrison, or Detachment, or Regimental Court-martial; and also to the Provisions which relate to the Punishment of Persons who shall conceal Deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Cloths, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, or any such Articles generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, from any Soldier or Deserter, or who shall cause the Colour of any such Cloths to be changed.

Form of Conviction.

CXLII. And for the more easy Conviction of Offenders against this Act, be it enacted, That in case any Person shall be convicted of any Offences by which they shall become liable to any of the pecuniary Penalties under this Act, the following shall be the form of Conviction:

" I, BE it remembered, That on the Day of the Year of our Lord
 " at in the County aforesaid, A. B. came before me, (or us) One (or Two) of " His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said County, and informed us (or us) that G. H. of of on the Day of now last past, at in the said County, did there set forth the Fact in the Manner described in the Statute¹, whereupon the said G. H. after being duly summoned to answer the said Charge, appeared before me [or us] the said Justice [or Justices] on the Day of at in the said County, and having heard the Charge contained in the said Information, declared that he was not guilty of the said Offence; but the same being fully proved upon the Oath of J. K. a credible Witness, it manifestly appeared to me [or us] the said Justice [or Justices] that he the said G. H. is guilty of the said Offence charged upon him in the said Information: It is therefore considered and adjudged by me [or us] the said Justice [or Justices] that he the said G. H. be convicted, and I [or we] do hereby convict him of the Offence aforesaid; and I [or we] do hereby declare and adjudge that the said G. H. hath forfeited the Sum of for the Offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the Law directs, according to the Statute in that Case made and provided.

C A P. V.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty for One Year certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight. [26th March 1828.]

[The 1st, 2d, and 3d Sections of this Act are respectively the same (except as to Dates) as the 1st, 2d, and 3d Sections of 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 7.]

IV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, One Book of Register, in which all the Money that shall be paid into the said Exchequer for the said Estate and Duties hereby granted or continued on Personal Estates, and on Offices and Employments of Profit, Pensions, Annuities, and Stipends, shall be entered and registered apart and distinct from all other Monies paid and payable to His Majesty, and shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to issue and apply the same from time to time to such Services, as shall then have been voted by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in this present Session of Parliament.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. VI.

C A P. IX.

An Act, to enable the Justices of the Peace for Westminster to hold their Sessions of the Peace during Term and the Sitting of the Court of King's Bench. [2d April 1828.]

WHEREAS by the present Law of this Realm the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberties of Westminster are not authorised to hold their Sessions during the Sitting of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster or elsewhere in the County of Middlesex, and it is expedient that the said Justices should have such Power and Authority, for the more speedy Trial of Offenders, and the more effectual Dispatch of Business; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberties of Westminster to begin and continue, or to continue

An Act to exempt Vessels propelled by Steam from the Penalties to which Vessels are liable, under various Acts, for having Fire on board in the Ports, Harbours, Rivers, Canals, and Lakes of Ireland. [3d April 1828.]

" WHEREAS by various Acts passed in the Parliament of Ireland, certain Provisions were introduced therein respectively, whereby Ships and Vessels are prohibited from the Use of Fire in certain Ports, Rivers, and Harbours within that Kingdom: And Whereas it is expedient to exempt Ships, Barges, or Vessels propelled by Steam from such Prohibition: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful to light and set Fires on Board all Ships, Vessels, Boats, or Barges propelled by Steam, in or upon any Port, Harbour, River, Canal, or Lake, or any Part thereof, in Ireland; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fires may be used on board Vessels propelled by Steam, on any River, &c. in Ireland.

C A P. XII.

An Act to indemnify Witnesses who may give Evidence, before the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, on a Bill to exclude the Borough of Peterborough from sending Members to serve in Parliament. [18th April 1828.]

C A P. XIII.

An Act for further regulating the Payment of the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps on Insurances from Loss or Damage by Fire. [9th May 1828.]

" WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Bonds, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Fire Insurances, and on Legacies and Successions; and Personal Estate upon Intestates, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; a Duty is imposed in Great Britain as follows; that is to say, for and in respect of every Insurance from Loss or Damage by Fire only, which shall be made or renewed or continued by any Public Company, or other Person or Persons, named or who ought to be named as in the said Act is mentioned, or by the Royal Exchange or London Assurance Corporation, a Duty of Three Shillings for every One hundred Pounds insured for a Year, and at and after that Rate for any fractional Part of One hundred Pounds insured, and for any fractional Part of a Year, as well as for any Number of Years, for which the Insurance shall be made or renewed or continued: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and to make more official Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties, certain Duties are imposed in Ireland as follows; that is to say, for any Assurance or Insurance for or upon any Sum of One hundred Pounds, or any lesser Sum, that is or shall be insured by any Person or Persons, in or by any Policy of Insurance for insuring Houses, Goods, Furniture, Warehouses, Merchandises, or other Property, from Loss by Fire, yearly, a Duty of Two Shillings and Sixpence; and for every Hundred Pounds of such Insurance after the first Hundred, a like Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence; and where the Sums insured shall exceed One hundred Pounds, or any progressive Sums of One hundred Pounds each, by any fractional Part of One hundred Pounds,

55 G.3. c.124.

56 G.3. c.56.

• Pounds, a Duty in proportion to such fractional Part, and as in proportion for any shorter Period than a Year, in all the said Cases of Insurance from Loss by Fire; And Whereas in certain Cases several distinct Subjects or Parcels of Risk have been insured collectively in One Sum, specified as payable in case of the Destruction by Fire of any One of such Subjects, and a Premium equal in Amount to the Aggregate of the several Premiums which would be payable for the Insurance of all such separate Subjects or Parcels by separate and distinct Insurances, has been received by the Insurers, but the Duty payable to His Majesty under the said recited Acts in respect of such Insurance has been charged and paid only on the Amount of the single Sum specified to be so insured, and has not been increased in like Manner as the Premium has been increased, although such collective Insurance has been made to effect the Purpose of several separate and distinct Insurances, to the manifest Injury of His Majesty's Revenue; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, in every Case where any Insurance from Loss or Damage by Fire shall be made or renewed or continued upon Two or more detached Buildings, or upon Two or more Buildings so separated from each other as to occasion a Plurality of Risks, or upon any Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other moveable Property contained in Two or more such Buildings as above described, or lying or being in two or more Places so separated from each other as to occasion a Plurality of Risks (except the Implements and Stock upon any One Farm), then and in any of the Cases aforesaid every such separate Building shall be separately valued, and a distinct and separate Sum shall be insured thereon, and in like Manner at least One distinct and separate Sum shall be insured upon the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other moveable Property contained in every such separate Building, or lying or being in every such separate Place as aforesaid, and it shall not be lawful to insure One great Sum upon Two or more such separate Subjects or Parcels of Risk as aforesaid taken collectively.

Detached Buildings or Goods consisting of or such Buildings, containing a Plurality of Risks, shall be valued and insured separately.

II. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, any Policy of Insurance shall be granted or renewed or continued, whereby any Insurance from Loss or Damage by Fire shall be made of or upon Two or more such separate Subjects or Parcels of Risk as aforesaid collectively in One Sum, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Policy of Insurance shall be void and of none Effect, and shall be deemed and taken to be a fraudulent Contrivance to evade the Duties by the said recited Acts respectively imposed; and the Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, by whom or by which any such Policy of Insurance shall be granted, renewed, or continued, contrary to this Act, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty for Insuring separate Subjects of Risk collectively in one Sum.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the Insuring from Loss or Damage by Fire collectively, in One Sum for the whole, any Number of separate and distinct Buildings, or the Goods, Wares, Merchandise, or other moveable Property contained in any Number of separate and distinct Buildings, or lying or being in any Number of separate and distinct Places; provided that in the Policy whereby such Insurance shall be made there shall be contained a Clause stipulating that in the Event of any Loss or Damage by Fire happening to such Property, or to any Part of such Property thereby insured, the Insurer or Insurers in such Policy shall be liable to pay or make good such Proportion only of the said Loss or Damage as the Sum insured shall bear to the whole collective Value of the said Property at the Time when such Fire shall first break out or happen.

Not to prevent separate Buildings, or Property lying thereon, from being insured collectively, if an Average Clause be contained in the Policy.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which it shall be necessary that new Policies should be granted in lieu of others now existing, in order to enable the Parties in Possession of the same to comply with the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorised and required, to remit the Duty upon the Stamp of the Policy so required to be renewed.

The Duty is to be remitted on Policies granted in order to comply with this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to or affect any Contracts or Policies of Insurance made or to be made on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or any of the Terms, Conditions, or stipulations thereof.

Not to affect Policies made before 5th April 1828.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture which shall or may be incurred under the Provisions of this Act shall and may be recovered for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts, to be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in England or Ireland, or of His Majesty's Advocates or Solicitor General for Scotland, (as the Case may be,) in England, Ireland, or Scotland respectively.

Recovery of Penalties.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered.

Factors or Servants, all Actions of Debt grounded upon any Lending or Contract without Speciality, and all Actions of Debt for Arrears of Rent, should be commenced within Three Years after the End of the then present Session of Parliament, or within Six Years next after the Commencement of such Action or Suit, and not after: And Whereas a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First: And Whereas various Questions have arisen in Actions founded on Simple Contract, as to the Proof and Effect of Acknowledgments and Promises offered in Evidence for the Purpose of taking Cases out of the Operation of the said Enactments; and it is expedient to prevent such Questions, and to make Provision for giving effect to the said Enactments and to the Intention thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in Actions of Debt or upon the Case grounded upon any Simple Contract or Acknowledgment or Promise by Words only shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of a new or continuing Contract, whereby to take any Case out of the Operation of the said Enactments or either of them, or to deprive any Party of the Benefit thereof, unless such Acknowledgment or Promise shall be made or contained by or in some Writing to be signed by the Party chargeable thereby; and that where there shall be Two or more Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, or each Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the Benefit of the said Enactments or either of them, so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written Acknowledgment or Promise made and signed by any other or others of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the Effect of any Payment of any Principal or Interest made by any Person whatsoever: Provided also, that in Actions to be commenced against Two or more such Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators, if it shall appear at the Trial or otherwise that the Plaintiff though barred by either of the said recited Acts or this Act, as to One or more of such Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators, shall nevertheless be enabled to recover against any other or others of the Defendants, by virtue of a new Acknowledgment or Promise, or otherwise, Judgment may be given and Costs allowed for the Plaintiff as to such Defendant or Defendants against whom he shall recover, and for the other Defendant or Defendants against the Plaintiff.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Defendant or Defendants in any Action on any Simple Contract shall plead any Matter in Abatement, to the Effect that any other Person or Persons ought to be jointly sued, and Issue be joined on such Plea, and it shall appear at the Trial that the Action could not, by reason of the said recited Acts or this Act, or of either of them, be maintained against the other Person or Persons named in such Plea, or any of them, the Issue joined on such Plea shall be found against the Party pleading the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Indorsement or Memorandum of any Payment written or made after the Time appointed for the Act to take effect, upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other Writing, by or on the Behalf of the Party to whom such Payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Payment, so as to take the Case out of the Operation of either of the said Statutes.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Acts and this Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Case of any Debt on Simple Contract alleged by way of Set-off on the Part of any Defendant, either by Plea, Notice, or otherwise.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Action shall be maintained whereby to charge any Person upon any Promise made after full Age to pay any Debt contracted during Infancy, or upon any Ratification after full Age of any Promise or Simple Contract made during Infancy, unless such Promise or Ratification shall be made by some Writing signed by the Party to be charged therewith.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Action shall be brought whereby to charge any Person upon or by reason of any Representation or Assurance made or given concerning or relating to the Character, Conduct, Credit, Ability, Trade, or Dealings of any other Person, to the Intent or Purpose that such other Person may obtain Credit, Money, or Goods upon a Promise, unless such Representation or Assurance be made in Writing, signed by the Party to be charged therewith.

VII. And Whereas by an Act passed in England in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for the Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, it is, among other Things, enacted, that from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand six hundred and seventy-seven, no Contract for the Sale of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, for the Price of Ten Pounds Sterling or upwards, shall be allowed to be good, except the Buyer shall accept Part of the Goods so sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the Bargain, or in part of Payment, or that some Note or Memorandum in Writing of the said Bargain be made and signed by the Parties to be charged by such Contract, or their Agents thereto lawfully authorized: And whereas a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King William the Third: And Whereas it has been held, that the said recited Enactments do not extend to certain Executory Contracts for the Sale of Goods, which nevertheless are within the Statute thereby intended to be provided; and it is expedient to extend the said Enactments to such Executory Contracts: Be it enacted, That the said Enactments shall extend to all Contracts for the Sale of Goods of the Value of Ten Pounds Sterling and upwards, notwithstanding the Goods may be intended to be delivered at some future Time, or may not at the Time of such Contract be actually made, procured, or provided, or fit or ready for Delivery, or some Act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for Delivery.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Memorandum or other Writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an Agreement within the Meaning of any Statute relating to the Duties of Stamps.

IX. And

IX. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

Not to extend to Scotland.

An Act to prevent a Failure of Justice by reason of Variances between Records and Writings produced in Evidence in support thereof. [9th May 1828.]

WHEREAS great Expenses are often incurred, and Delay or Failure of Justice takes place at Trials, by reason of Variances between Writings produced in Evidence and the Record or setting forth thereof upon the Record on which the Trial is had, in Matters not material to the Merits of the Case, and such Record cannot now in any Case be amended at the Trial, and in some Cases cannot be amended at any Time: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for every Court of Record holding Plea in Civil Actions, any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, and any Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery in England, Wales, the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and Ireland, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the Record on which any Trial may be pending before any such Judge or Court in any Civil Action, or in any Indebtedness or Information for any Misdemeanor, when any Variance shall appear between any Matter in Writing or in Print produced in Evidence and the Record or setting forth thereof upon the Record, whereas the Trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such Particular by some Officer of the Court, on Payment of such Costs (if any) to the other Party as such Judge or Court shall think reasonable; and thereupon the Trial shall proceed as if no such Variance had appeared, and in case such Trial shall be had at Nisi Prius, the Order for the Amendment shall be entered on the Portia, and returned together with the Record; and thereupon the Papers, Bills, and other Records of the Court from which such Record issued, shall be amended accordingly.

In Case where a Variance shall appear between written or printed Evidence and the Record, the Court may order the Record to be amended on Payment of Costs.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the well governing and regulating of Corporations: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for preventing Dangerousness which may happen from Popish Recusants: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act to indemnify Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments within the Time limited by Law, and for allowing farther Time for that Purpose: and also for amending so much of an Act made in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intitled 'An Act for preventing Dangerousness which may happen from Popish Recusants', as relates to the Time for receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper now limited by the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the said several Acts of Parliament as imposes the Necessity of taking the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, for the Purposes therein respectively mentioned, should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much and such Parts of the said several Acts passed in the Thirteenth and Twenty-fifth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and of the said Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, as require the Person or Persons in the said Acts respectively described to take or receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, for the several Purposes therein expressed, or to deliver a Certificate or make Proof of the Truth of such his or their receiving the said Sacrament in manner aforesaid, or as impose upon any such Person or Persons any Penalty, Forfeiture, Incapacity, or Disability whatsoever for or by reason of any Neglect or Omission to take or receive the said Sacrament, within the respective Periods and in the Manner in the said Acts respectively provided in that Behalf, shall, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

In such of recited Acts as require the Persons therein described to receive the Sacrament, for certain Purposes, repealed.

Declaration to be made in lieu of the Sacramental Test.

II. And Whereas the Protestant Episcopal Church of England and Ireland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, and the Protestant Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Government thereof, are by the Laws of this Realm severally established, permanently and irrevocably: And Whereas it is just and fitting, that on the Report of such Parts of the said Acts as impose the Necessity of taking the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, as a Qualification for Office, a Declaration to the following Effect should be substituted in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That every Person who shall hereafter be placed, elected, or chosen in or to the Office of Mayor, Alderman, Recorder, Bailiff, Town Clerk or Common Councilman, or in or to any Office of Magistracy, or Place, Trust, or Employment relating to the Government of any City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port within England and Wales or the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall, within One Calendar Month next before or upon his Admission into any of the aforesaid Offices or Trusts, make and subscribe the Declaration following:

Form of Declaration.

I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely, in the Presence of God, profess, testify, and declare, upon the true Faith of a Christian, That I will never exercise any Power, Authority, or Influence which I may possess by virtue of the Office of _____ as Mayor or Bailiff or Recorder of the Protestant Church, or as it is by Law established in England, or to disturb the said Church, or the Bishops and Clergy of the said Church, in the Possession of any Rights or Privileges to which such Church, or the said Bishops and Clergy, are or may be by Law entitled.

III. And

III. And be it enacted, That the said Declaration shall be made and subscribed as aforesaid, in the Presence of such Person or Persons respectively, who, by the Charter or Usage of the said respective Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, and Cinque Ports, ought to administer the Oath for due Execution of the said Offices or Places respectively, and in default of such, in the Presence of Two Justices of the Peace of the said Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, and Cinque Ports, if such there be, or otherwise in the Presence of Two Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, or Franchises wherein the said Cities, Corporations, Boroughs, and Cinque Ports are; which said Declaration shall either be entered in a Book, Roll, or other Record, to be kept for that Purpose, or shall be filed amongst the Records of the City, Corporation, Borough, or Cinque Port.

IV. And be it enacted, That if any Person placed, elected, or chosen into any of the aforesaid Offices or Places, shall omit or neglect to make and subscribe the said Declaration in manner above mentioned, such Placing, Election, or Choice shall be void; and that it shall not be lawful for such Person to do any Act in the Execution of the Office or Place into which he shall be so chosen, elected, or placed.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall hereafter be admitted into any Office or Employment, or who shall accept from His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, any Patent, Grant, or Commission, and who by his Admission into such Office or Employment or Place of Trust, or by his Acceptance of such Patent, Grant, or Commission, or by the Receipt of any Pay, Salary, Fee, or Wages by reason thereof, would, by the Laws in Force immediately before the passing of this Act have been required to take the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the Rites or Usage of the Church of England, shall, within Six Calendar Months after his Admission to such Office, Employment, or Place of Trust, or his Acceptance of such Patent, Grant, or Commission, make and subscribe the aforesaid Declaration, or in Default thereof his Appointment to such Office, Employment, or Place of Trust, and such Patent, Grant, or Commission, shall be wholly void.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid Declaration shall be made and subscribed in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, or in the Court of King's Bench, or at the Quarter Sessions of the County or Place where the Person so required to make the same shall reside; and the Court in which such Declaration shall be so made and subscribed shall cause the same to be preserved among the Records of the said Court.

VII. Provided always, That no Naval Officer below the Rank of Rear Admiral, and no Military Officer below the Rank of Major General in the Army or Colonel in the Militia, shall be required to make or subscribe the said Declaration, in respect of his Naval or Military Commission; and that no Commissioner of Customs, Excise, Stamps, or Taxes, or any Person holding any of the Offices concerned in the Collection, Management, or Receipt of the Revenues which are subject to the said Commissioners, or any of the Officers concerned in the Collection, Management, or Receipt of the Revenues subject to the Authority of the Postmaster General, shall be required to make or subscribe the said Declaration, in respect of their said Offices or Appointments: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to require any Naval or Military Officer, or other Person as aforesaid, upon whom any Office, Place, Commission, Appointment, or Promotion shall be conferred during his Absence from England, or within Three Months previous to his Departure from thence, to make and subscribe the said Declaration until after he Returns to England, or within Six Months thereafter.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons now in the actual Possession of any Office, Command, Place, Trust, Service, or Employment, or in the Receipt of any Pay, Salary, Fee, or Wages, in respect of or as a Qualification for which, by virtue of or under any of the before-mentioned Acts or any other Act or Acts, they respectively ought to have hitherto taken or ought hereafter to receive the said Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, shall be and are hereby confirmed in the Possession and Enjoyment of their said several Offices, Commands, Places, Trusts, Services, Employments, Pay, Salaries, Fees, and Wages respectively, notwithstanding their Omission or Neglect to take or receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in manner aforesaid, and shall be and are hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged from all Incapacities, Disabilities, Forfeitures, and Penalties whatsoever, already incurred or which might hereafter be incurred in consequence of any such Omission or Neglect; and that no Election of or Act done or to be done by any such Person or under his Authority, and not yet avoided, shall be hereafter questioned or avoided by reason of any such Omission or Neglect, but that every such Election and Act shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if such Person had duly received the said Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in manner aforesaid.

IX. Provided nevertheless, That no Act done in the Execution of any of the Corporate or other Offices, Places, Trusts, or Commissions aforesaid, by any such Person acting or neglecting as aforesaid, shall by reason thereof be void or voidable as to the Rights of any other Person not privy to such Omission or Neglect, or render such last-mentioned Person liable to any Action or Indictment.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, who are to provide several Regulations in force relating to the said Duties, and to the Exportation of Cards and Dice, should be repealed, and that other Duties should be granted, and other Regulations made in lieu thereof: He it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Duties on Cards and Dice granted and made payable in Great Britain by an Act made in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal the several Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Villain, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof; and also the Duties on Cards and Dice granted and made payable in Ireland by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties; and all Licences which at any Time before the Commencement of this Act shall or may have been granted to any Makers of Cards or Dice, under the Authority of the said Acts, or of any of the Acts heretofore mentioned, shall cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act so much and such Parts of the said recited Acts of the Forty-fourth and Fifty-sixth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, as relate or relate to the Duties on playing Cards and Dice, and also so much and such Parts of the several Acts heretofore mentioned, or any of them, and all such Clauses and Provisions contained in the said Acts, or any of them, as any way relate or relate to the said Duties, and to the Collection and Regulation thereof, and to the Exportation of Cards and Dice, shall also be repealed; that is to say, in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, for the Purpose, among other Things, of charging certain new Duties on stamped Villain, Parchment, and Paper, and on Cards and Dice; and also in an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of the said Queen Anne, for the Purpose, among other Things, of charging certain Stocks of Cards and Dice, and for better securing Her Majesty's Duties to arise in the Office for the Stamp Duties; and also in an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intitled An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Publick Revenue of Excise, Customs, Stamp Duties, Post Office, and House Money; and also in an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty an additional Duty on Cards and Dice; and also in an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for altering the Stamp Duties on Almanacs into Corporations or Companies, and for further securing and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain; and also in an Act made in the Sixteenth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, among other Purposes, for granting to His Majesty several Duties on Cards, Dice, and Newspapers; and also in an Act made in the Forty-first Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Stamp Duties on Cards and Dice, on Products of Wills, on certain Indentures, Letters, Bonds, or other Deeds, and on All Licences; and also in an Act made in the Fifty-fifth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to regulate the Collection of Stamp Duties on Matters in respect of which Licences may be granted by the Commissioners of Stamps in Ireland; and so much and such Parts as aforesaid of and in all the recited Acts or any of them, and all Duties on Cards and Dice, and all Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations contained in the said Acts or any of them, or in any other Act or Acts in Force immediately before the Commencement of the Act, relating to such Duties, or to any Licences to any Makers of Cards or Dice, or to the Exportation of Cards and Dice, are hereby repealed accordingly; save and except so far as the said Acts or any of them, or any Thing therein contained, may repeal the Whole or any Part of any other Act or Acts; and also save and except such Duties on Cards and Dice, or any Part or Parts thereof, as may be or become or remain payable, and every or any Penalty which may have been or may be imposed under any of the said Acts at any Time before the Commencement of this Act, all which said Duties and Penalties shall be recoverable, and shall and may be used for in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made; and also save and except so far as relates to the several Bonds which shall have been given in pursuance of any of the said Acts, all which Bonds shall continue and be in full Force and Effect until the Conditions of such Bonds shall have been duly performed and fulfilled.

II. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties following: that is to say,

For and upon every Licence to be taken out annually by every Maker of playing Cards or Dice in the United Kingdom, the Sum of Five Shillings:
 And for and in respect of every Pack of playing Cards which shall be made fit for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, the Sum of One Shilling:
 And for and in respect of every Pair of Dice which shall be made fit for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

III. And he it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Stamps for the United Kingdom, for the Time being; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required and empowered, to provide proper Stamps, Dies, Marks, or Plates, with such Devices as they shall think proper, as well for denoting or expressing the several Duties hereby granted, as for marking and distinguishing Cards made for Use in the Isle of Man, or for

Exportation

Exportation respectively; and from time to time to alter, renew, or add to such Stamps, Dies, Marks, or Plates, as they shall think proper; and also to appoint or employ such Officers and Persons under them, and to do all such other Acts and Things as shall be deemed necessary or expedient for putting this Act into execution, and for fully and effectually collecting the Duties hereby granted, in the like and in as full and ample Manner as they or any former Commissioners are or have been authorized to do for the raising and collecting of any former Stamp Duties, or for putting into execution any Act relating thereto.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duty by this Act imposed on playing Cards shall be denoted or marked on the Ace of Spades of each Pack of Cards.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act every Person who shall intend to make, or who shall engage or be concerned in the Trade or Employment of making, any playing Cards or Dice, whether for Use in the United Kingdom, or for Exportation, or otherwise, shall, before making or beginning to make, or being concerned or engaged in the Trade or Employment of making, any playing Cards or Dice, apply in Writing to the Commissioners of Stamps for a Licence to make such Cards or Dice, specifying in such Application, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, every House, Building, Room, or Place where such Cards or Dice are intended to be made; and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, under their Hands and Seals, and they are hereby required, to grant a Licence to such Person so applying for the making of playing Cards or of Dice in such Premises only as shall be described in such Licence, and every such Licence shall be dated on the Day on which the same shall be granted, and shall have Effect and continue in Force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Fifth Day of July following, and no longer, and shall be renewed in like Manner from Year to Year, so long as such Person shall continue to make, or shall be engaged or concerned in the Trade or Employment of making, any such Cards or Dice; and if any Person shall make or begin to make, or shall engage or be concerned in the Trade or Employment of making any such Cards or Dice, without such Licence first had and obtained and then in Force, or in any other Place than such as shall be particularly described in such Licence, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, together with all playing Cards and Dice made or begun to be made by such Person, or on his Account, or for his Benefit; and all Materials, Implements, Tools, and Utensils for making such Cards or Dice, which shall be found in the Possession of or subject to the Control or Disposition of any such Offender, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be taken, seized, and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, or other Person authorized for that Purpose by the said Commissioners of Stamps, and shall and may be lodged and deposited by the Person so seizing the same in any Place appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, or by any Person authorized by them in that behalf, and shall be sold or destroyed by the Direction and at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any Person shall receive any such Licence, such Person shall, with One or more sufficient Surety or Sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, or by such Officer as may be by them appointed in that behalf, execute a joint and several Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the penal Sum of Five hundred Pounds, conditioned for the due Performance by the Person so to be licensed of all Things required by any Act then in Force, or at any future Time to be in Force, relating to Duties of Stamps on playing Cards or Dice, to be by such Person done, observed, performed, or fulfilled, and also conditioned that the Person so to be licensed, or his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of such Person, shall answer and pay to His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, all such Duties as such Person shall be liable to on account of making any playing Cards or Dice during the Time such Person shall carry on or be concerned in the Trade or Employment of a Maker of playing Cards or Dice, and shall also pay and satisfy every such Fine or Penalty as shall be incurred by or adjudged to be paid by such Person under any Conviction or Judgement, for any Thing so be done or omitted by such Person contrary to any Act relating to the Duties on playing Cards or Dice in Force at the Time of or at any Time subsequent to the Date of such Bond, and also conditioned, in the Case of a Maker of Cards, to answer and pay to His Majesty the Sum of One Shilling for every Ace of Spades delivered to such Maker of Cards, which shall not be produced or duly accounted for upon any Inspection of his Stock by any Officer of Stamps: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized, whenever and as often as they shall see reasonable Cause so to do, to require any new Bond to be given and entered into by any Maker of playing Cards or Dice, according to a Notice in Writing, to be signed by One of the Officers of the said Commissioners, to be delivered to such Maker, or left at some House or Place mentioned in the Licence last granted to such Maker; and if any such Maker shall not, within Seven Days after the Delivery of such Notice, enter into such Bond, with a Surety or Sureties, in the Manner and Form directed by this Act, the Licence granted to any such Maker shall be and is hereby declared to be revoked and utterly void.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Licence shall be granted to any Person making playing Cards or Dice, nor shall any Person set up or exercise the Trade or Employment of making playing Cards or Dice, nor make or cause to be made any playing Cards or Dice, in any Part of Great Britain except in the Cities of London and Westminster, or in the Borough of Southwark, nor in any Part of Ireland, other than in the Cities of Dublin and Cork, or in the respective Liberties of the said Cities of Dublin and Cork; and that from and after the Expiration of Three Years after the Commencement of this Act, no Person shall set up or exercise such Trade or Employment of making, or shall make or cause

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Maker of playing Cards in the United Kingdom shall send to the Commissioners of Stamps, or to their proper Officer, a sufficient Quantity of Paper, in order to have so many Aces of Spades marked or impressed thereon as such Maker shall desire, and no Pack of playing Cards made for Sale or Use in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in the Isle of Man, or made for Exportation, shall be sold, or used in play, or shall be exported, without One of such Aces of Spades marked or impressed as is by this Act directed: Provided always, that there shall be one distinguishing Mark in the Ace of Spades intended for Cards made for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, one other distinguishing Mark in the Ace of Spades intended for Cards made for Use in the Isle of Man, and one other distinguishing Mark in the Ace of Spades intended for Cards made for Exportation.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Maker of playing Cards shall from time to time send to the said Commissioners of Stamps, or their Officer, Duplicate Forms or Patterns of the Wrappers (commonly called Jaws) which such Maker may be desirous to use for enclosing the Packs of playing Cards intended to be made by him, with his Name and such other particular Word or Thing printed thereon as the said Commissioners shall direct and approve, which Approval shall be testified by the Signatures of Two or more of the said Commissioners informed on each Duplicate Form of Wrappers, one of which, when so endorsed, shall from time to time be sent and remain with the said Commissioners or their Officer, and the other, when so endorsed, shall remain with the Maker whose Wrapper it may be: Provided always, that there shall be such separate distinguishing Mark or Device upon each of the respective Wrappers made to enclose Cards intended for Use in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, or intended for Exportation, as the said Commissioners shall think proper to direct and appoint; and if any Maker of Cards shall use or cause or permit to be used, in any Manner whatever, any Wrapper or Jaw, with any Device, Mark, Letter, or Figure thereon, for enclosing Cards, without the Approbation of the said Commissioners first had and obtained as aforesaid, such Maker shall forfeit for every such Wrapper or Jaw so used, or permitted to be used, the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted, That every licensed Maker of playing Cards shall, on the Completion of each and every Pack of Cards made by him for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, enclose the same in a Wrapper or Jaw, the Device of which shall have been approved of by the said Commissioners of Stamps in the Manner directed by this Act, and shall fasten on the each Wrapper with Thread, and give Notice thereof to the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners shall thereupon direct their Officer to attend at the House or Place where such Cards shall have been made; and such Officer shall affix to each Pack of Cards, enclosed and fastened as aforesaid, a Label, in such Manner, and with such Mark or Device thereon, as the said Commissioners shall direct.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no playing Cards made or begun to be made, or in any Stage of making, shall be removed from the House or Place where the same shall have been so made or begun to be made or wrought, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners of Stamps, or any Two of them, first had and obtained, until such Cards shall have been completed in Packs, and fastened or tied in Wrappers, and the Labels affixed, and the Duties paid or secured in the Manner directed by this Act; and if the Maker of any such Cards, or any other Person, shall remove or attempt to remove, or shall cause or permit to be removed, or shall assist in the removing, without such Consent as aforesaid, any such Cards so made or begun to be made, or in any Stage of making, not being completed in Packs, and fastened or tied, and duly labelled, and the Duties paid or secured, all such Cards shall be forfeited, and may be seized, and each Maker or other Person so offending shall forfeit Treble the Value thereof; and any Materials whatsoever begun or intended to be wrought far or towards the making of playing Cards shall not be removed from the Place wherein such Materials shall have been begun to be wrought, without such Consent as aforesaid, until the same shall have been completely made or wrought up into perfect playing Cards, nor until the Duties payable by Law for the Cards intended to be made, or which could be made therewith, shall be paid or secured, upon pain that all such Materials shall be forfeited and may be seized; and any Person who shall remove or attempt to remove, or shall cause or permit to be removed, or shall assist in the removing, any such Materials, without such Consent as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall forfeit Double the Value thereof; and the Amount of such Treble and Double Value respectively shall be a Debt to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and shall be recoverable accordingly, with full Costs of Suit.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Maker of Dice shall, on the Completion of each and every Pair of Dice made by him for Sale, or for Use or Play, in the United Kingdom, bring the same to the Head Office of Stamps in London or Dublin respectively, for the Purpose of being stamped or marked with the Stamp or Mark provided to denote the Duties payable on Dice; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby required, to cause each and every such Pair of Dice to be wrapped and enclosed, after the same shall have been duly stamped or marked, in a Paper Wrapper, marked with any Device or Mark provided for that Purpose, and fastened with a Thread or Seal, as the said Commissioners shall direct; and that before or at the Time of the Delivery of any Dice so stamped or marked and wrapped and fastened as aforesaid, by any Officer of Stamps, to the Maker thereof, or to any Person on his Behalf, such Officer of Stamps shall sign his Name on the Outside of each Wrapper enclosing such Dice; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners, in every Case where the same shall be required by the Maker of any such Dice, to provide any additional Stamp or Mark, containing the Name of such Maker, or any other Mark to distinguish the Maker of such Dice, as such Commissioners may think fit.

Makers may be affixed if required.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Maker of playing Cards or Dice shall, on the first Day, which shall not be a Sunday or Holiday, of the Calendar Month next following the Date of his Licence, make and deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamps, or their proper Officer in that Behalf, a true and particular Account in Writing of each and every Pack of playing Cards, and of each and every Pair of Dice, made by him, or for his Use or on his Account, since the Date of his Licence; and shall also, on the first Day, which shall not be a Sunday or Holiday, of every succeeding Calendar Month, make a similar Account of every Pack of playing Cards and Pair of Dice made by him, or for his Use or Account, during the Calendar Month next preceding; and every such Account by any such Maker in London, Westminster, or Southwark, shall be delivered at the Stamp Office in London; and every such Account by any such Maker in Dublin shall be delivered and made at the Stamp Office in Dublin, to and with such Officer as shall be appointed in that Behalf by the said Commissioners, and every such Account by any such Maker in Card shall be delivered to and with the Distributor of Stamps of the District, and every such Maker shall, at the Time of making and delivering such Account, verify the same by a Solemn or Affirmation in the following Form:

XVII. And

Allowance to be made for Cards remaining on hand at Commencement of this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Maker of playing Cards in the United Kingdom to produce to the Commissioners of Stamps, or to their Officer, any Number of Packs of Cards, enclosed in Wrappers and Labels, on which the full Duties granted by the several Acts remedied by this Act, or any of them, shall have been paid before the Commencement of this Act; and all such Cards shall be so produced on a Day to be fixed by such Commissioners, within Three Calendar Months next after the Commencement of this Act; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to send Notice in Writing, signed by One of their Officers, to every Maker of playing Cards in the United Kingdom, stating the Day, Time, and Place, when and where such Cards are to be produced and inspected; and after such Cards shall have been examined by the Officer appointed for that Purpose, the said Commissioners shall direct to be made to every such Maker the following Allowances, under such Regulations and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct; that is to say, the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Pack of playing Cards made by such Maker for Sale or Use in Great Britain, containing a Duty Ace of Spades, with a Wrapper and Label, all duly stamped according to the Laws in force in Great Britain before the Commencement of this Act; and the Sum of Two Shillings for every Pack of Cards made by such Maker in Ireland, containing a Duty Ace of Spades, with a Wrapper and Label, all duly stamped according to the Laws in force in Ireland before the Commencement of this Act: Provided always, that every such Ace of Spades, Wrapper, and Label shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners or their Officer to be cancelled, and that an Allowance shall be made in respect of any Pack of Cards, the Thread, Wrapper, or Label whereof shall appear to have been broken.

Officers of Stamps may enter and search Houses, &c. where Cards or Dice are made.

Penalty on Refusal, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer thereto appointed by the said Commissioners, to enter into any House or Place where any playing Cards or Dice are or shall be made or sold, or exposed to Sale or uttered, and shall be suspected to be made or sold, or to be exposed to Sale or uttered, and there to search and see whether any and what Quantity of such Cards or Dice shall be therein, either made or in the Progress of being made, or sold or exposed to Sale, or uttered, and whether any Cards or Dice which may be there found, made or in the Progress of being made, or sold or exposed to Sale, or uttered, be duly stamped, and to take an Account thereof; and if any Person shall refuse Entrance or Liberty of Search for the Purpose aforesaid to such Officer, or shall molest him in such Search, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Officers of Stamps, in the Possession of a Constable, and authorized by a Warrant, may break open Doors and Places where Cards or Dice Making is suspected to be illegally carried on.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever there shall be Cause to suspect that any Person shall make or cause to be made any playing Cards or Dice in any House or Place whatsoever in any Part of the United Kingdom, without Licence duly obtained as by this Act required, upon Affidavit being made of such Suspicion by any Person before any Justice of the Peace for the County or Place where such Cards or Dice shall be or shall be suspected to be making or made, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer employed by and acting under the Commissioners of Stamps, in the Day-time, and in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace (who is hereby required to be aiding and assisting therein), by Warrant from such Justice of the Peace before whom such Affidavit shall be made, to be directed to such Officer of Stamps as aforesaid, which Warrant the said Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized and required to grant, to break open the Door or any Part of such House or Place in which any such Cards or Dice shall or as so aforesaid be suspected to be so made or making, and thereupon to enter into such House or Place, and to seize all Cards or Dice which shall be therein found made or begun to be made, and all the Tools, Materials, and Utensils for making such Cards or Dice which shall be there found; and all such Cards, Dice, Tools, Materials, and Utensils shall be seized and carried away, and shall be detained and lodged in any Place appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners or their proper Officers, and shall be absolutely forfeited, and shall and may be sold or destroyed by the Direction and at the Discretion of the said Commissioners.

Packs of Cards to contain 52 playing Cards of the Four usual Suits, including an Ace of Spades duly stamped.

Penalty on Debauch.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Pack, Parcel, or Quantity of playing Cards, whether made for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, or for Exportation, shall contain more than Fifty-two playing Cards, and that every Pack shall consist of the Four usual Suits, and shall include one Ace of Spades duly stamped, and shall be tied up together in a Pack, in the Manner directed by this Act; and that no Pack or Parcel of playing Cards containing more than Fifty-two such Cards as aforesaid, or not including an Ace of Spades duly stamped, shall be sold or exposed to Sale, or uttered or parted with for Use in Play, in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, or exported; and if any Person shall sell or expose to Sale, or shall export or offer to export, any Pack of Cards containing more than Fifty-two Cards, or not containing an Ace of Spades duly stamped, every such Person, being a licensed Maker of Cards, shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and every such Person, not being a licensed Maker of Cards, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and all such Cards shall be forfeited, and may be seized and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, and shall and may be sold or destroyed by the Direction and at the Discretion of the said Commissioners of Stamps.

Penalty on licensed Makers selling an Ace of Spades, or Wrappers, or Labels, before used, or selling Cards or Dice not duly stamped.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any licensed Maker of playing Cards shall enclose or make up in any Pack of playing Cards, or shall sell or expose to Sale, or part with for Use in Play, or shall buy or have in his Possession or Control, any Ace of Spades duly stamped, which shall have been at any Time or in any Manner previously used or removed out of the Premises of such Maker, or any other licensed Maker, or used in making up or completing any other Pack, or Parcel of Cards, whether with or without the Knowledge of such Maker; or if any licensed Maker of Cards or Dice shall fraudulently enclose any Pack of playing Cards or any Dice in any Wrapper fastened by a Label, and in which any other playing Cards or Dice shall have been previously wrapped up, enclosed, sealed, or fastened, or shall buy or have in his Possession any such Label as previously used as aforesaid, whether with or without his Knowledge; or shall sell, or expose or offer for Sale, any Cards or Dice not stamped, marked, wrapped, tied, and fastened as by this Act is directed; every such licensed Maker of Cards or Dice shall for every such Pack of Cards, Ace of Spades, Die, Label, or Wrapper, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, together with all such Cards, Dice, Wrappers, and Labels; and such Cards, Dice, Wrappers, and Labels shall and may be seized and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, and shall be sold or destroyed as the Commissioners may direct.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Pack of playing Cards, or any Dice, not duly stamped as by Law required, or the Duties upon which shall not have been paid, being payable, shall be found in the House, Shop, Room, or other Place of any licensed Maker of Cards or Dice, or of any other Person who shall sell or expose to Sale Cards or Dice, any and every such Pack of Cards and Pair of Dice shall be forfeited, and may be seized and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, or by any other Person duly authorized for that Purpose under Warrant and Seal by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or by Warrant from any Justice of the Peace, and any Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction is hereby authorized and required to grant such Warrant; and every such licensed Maker of Cards or Dice, or other Person, in whose House, Shop, Room, or other Place such Cards or Dice shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for each and every Pack of playing Cards, and for each and every Pair of Dice, not duly stamped as aforesaid, so found in the Possession of or in or upon the Premises of such Person as aforesaid; and if any Person, not being a licensed Maker or Seller of Cards or Dice, shall have in his Possession or upon his Premises in any Part of the United Kingdom, or shall use or permit to be used therein, any Pack of Cards, or any Dice, not duly stamped for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, as is directed by this Act, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for each and every Pack of playing Cards, and for each and every Pair of Dice, not duly stamped as aforesaid, as being in his Possession or upon his Premises, or used or permitted to be used therein.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ace of Spades or any Number of Aces of Spades, which shall have been delivered to and charged on the Account of any licensed Maker of playing Cards, shall be damaged, defaced, or spoiled in making the same, so as to be rendered unfit for Use, then, on Oath made thereof by such Maker before any One of the said Commissioners of Stamps, or before their proper Officer, and which Oath such Commissioner or Officer is hereby empowered to administer, and upon the Delivery up to such Commissioner or Officer of every such Ace of Spades so damaged, defaced, or spoiled, such Maker shall be allowed Credit in his Accounts for every such Ace so damaged, defaced, or spoiled, and delivered up as aforesaid.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no playing Cards shall be sold as waste Cards, unless a Corner of every such Card shall be cut off at least Half an Inch in Depth, nor unless the same shall be sold or exposed to Sale in Barrels, without being varnished in any Wrapper or Paper or other Cover; and if any licensed Maker of Cards shall sell or expose to Sale as waste Cards any Cards enclosed in any Wrapper, Paper, or Cover, or which shall not be cut in manner aforesaid, such Maker of Cards shall be liable to the Penalties, and shall incur all the Forfeitures notified for selling or exposing to Sale unstamped playing Cards; and if any Person, not being a licensed Maker of Cards, shall sell or expose to Sale any waste Cards, or any Cards as waste Cards not being cut as aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person, not being a licensed Maker of playing Cards, to sell or expose to Sale any Pack of playing Cards, notwithstanding that the same may have been previously sold, and opened, used, or played with, if every such Pack shall be sold without the Wrapper or Jew of any licensed Maker, and shall contain not more than Fifty-two Cards, including an Ace of Spades duly stamped for Use within the United Kingdom, and shall be enclosed in a Paper or Wrapper, with the Words "Second Hand Cards" printed or written in distinct and legible Characters on the Outside thereof; and if any Person, not being a licensed Maker of Cards, shall sell or expose to Sale in any Part of the United Kingdom any playing Cards which shall have been previously sold and opened, used or played with, not being in such Packs as aforesaid, or not including in such Pack an Ace of Spades duly stamped for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, or any Pack not being enclosed in a Paper or Wrapper with the Words "Second Hand Cards" printed or written thereon in distinct and legible Characters on the Outside thereof, or if any such Pack shall be sold with a Wrapper or Jew of any licensed Maker, every Person so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Pieces of Ivory, Bone, or other Matter, made or used for any Game or Play, with any Letters, Figures, Spots, or other Marks thereupon, to denote any Chances or Chances, shall be assayed, deemed, and adjudged, and are hereby declared to be Dice; and if more than Six Chances shall be signified on any One of such Pieces of Ivory, Bone, or other Matter, then such One Piece shall be chargeable with the full Duty payable for a Pair of Dice; and if more than the Number of Chances usually signified in or by a Pair of Dice shall be signified on any One such Piece of Ivory, Bone, or other Matter, then such One Piece shall be and is hereby charged with a further Duty, in proportion to the Number of Chances exceeding those signified in or by One Pair of Dice.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall die or square or now upon any Die, or shall cause or procure any Die to be filed, squared, or now upon, after such Die has been stamped as by Law required, or if any Die shall be found in the Possession of any Person, filed, squared, or now upon,

XVIII. ' And Whereas it is expedient to permit the Exportation of playing Cards and Dice, without the same being stamped for Use in the United Kingdom, and without having paid the Duties imposed by this Act, and that Regulations should be made with respect to such Exportation: Be it therefore enacted, That playing Cards or Dice, not being stamped for Use in the United Kingdom, and not having paid the Duties imposed by this Act, may be exported under the Conditions and Regulations hereinafter mentioned and set forth: that is to say, before such playing Cards or Dice, not having been stamped for Use in the United Kingdom, and not having paid the Duties imposed by this Act, shall be removed from the licensed House or Place of any Maker thereof, for the Purpose of being exported from the United Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, or to the Isle of Man, Three Days Notice in Writing shall be given to the proper Officer at the Head Office of Stamps in London or Dublin respectively, or at the Office of the Distributor of Stamps at Cork (so long as it shall be lawful to make Cards at Cork), by the licensed Maker thereof, of the Quantity intended to be exported, the Port or Place in the United Kingdom from whence the same are intended to be exported, the Name of the Ship or Vessel, and of the Master thereof, in which the same are intended to be exported, and the Port or Place and Country to which the same are intended to be carried and conveyed; and such Maker shall within such Space of Three Days enter into a Bond, with sufficient Surety, to be approved by the Commissioners of Stamps or their Officer, to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in a penal Sum of Treble the Amount of all the Duties which would be payable on such Cards or Dice respectively if the same had been made or intended for Use or Sale in the United Kingdom, conditioned to export such Cards or Dice, in the Ship or Vessel to be named in such Bond, to some Port or Place beyond the Seas, to be mentioned in such Bond, within a Time to be limited in such Bond, and to land the same (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) in such Port or Place, and not to land or put any such Cards or Dice on Board any other Ship or Vessel, either in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or elsewhere, or at open Sea, and that such Cards or Dice, or any Part thereof, shall not be re-landed in any Part of the United Kingdom, and also conditioned to produce to the said Commissioners, within the respective Times hereinafter mentioned, a Certificate that such Cards or Dice have been duly landed, or such Port or Place; and after the Expiration of such Three Days mentioned in such Notice, a Certificate under the Hand of some Officer of Stamps shall be given, expressing the several Matters required in such Notice, and also certifying that such Bond has been given according to the Provisions of this Act for the Exportation of any such Cards or Dice, and shall be delivered to the proper Officer of the Customs at such Port or Place in the United Kingdom from which such Cards or Dice are intended to be exported, and such Certificate shall be given and received without Fee or Reward; and after such Notice shall have been given, and such Bond as hereinbefore mentioned shall have been duly made and executed, and such Certificate granted (that not otherwise), it shall and may be lawful for any licensed Maker to remove such playing Cards or Dice intended for Exportation, when completely finished for Use, from the House or Place where the same shall be made, without Payment of any Indemnity for the same; provided that every Pack of such playing Cards shall contain an Ace of Spades duly marked or stamped with the proper Mark or Stamp appointed to be used for Cards to be exported; and provided also, that such Cards or Dice shall, before being so removed, be respectively enclosed in Packs or Pairs in such Wrappers or Jewels as the Commissioners of Stamps shall approve, and shall be tied and fastened by a Label or Thread or Seal marked with the proper Mark, Stamp, or Device appointed to be used for Cards or Dice to be exported; and all such Cards or Dice so entered for Exportation shall be laden or put on board the Ship or Vessel mentioned in such Bond as aforesaid in the Presence of the proper Officer of Customs.

How Bonds shall be discharged.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That such Bond hereinbefore directed to be given with relation to Cards and Dice exported shall be discharged upon producing to the said Commissioners of Stamps, within the respective Times hereinafter limited, a Certificate that the Cards or Dice in such Bond mentioned were duly landed in the proper Port or Place beyond the Seas; that is to say, within Six Months from the Date of such Bond, in the Case of Cards or Dice entered to be landed in any Port or Place in the Isle of Man; and within Twelve Months from the Date of such Bond, in the Case of Cards or Dice entered for or landed in any other Port or Place in Europe; and within Eighteen Months from the Date of such Bond, in the Case of Cards or Dice entered for or landed in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or Asia, or in any of the Territories of the United States of America; and within Twenty-four Months from the Date of such Bond, in the Case of Cards or Dice entered for or landed in any Port or Place at or beyond the Cape of Good Hope; and every such Certificate for such Cards or Dice as aforesaid, which shall be landed at any Port or Place where any Officer of His Majesty's Customs shall be resident, shall be signed by the proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there; and if no Officer of His Majesty's Customs shall be resident there, then by the British Consul, or other Person acting as such there; and if no Officer of Customs or British Consul, or other Person acting as such, shall be there resident, then such Certificate shall be under the Seal of the Chief Magistrate in such Port or Place, or under the Hands and Seals of Two Known British Merchants, then living at such Port or Place: Provided always, that if in any Case, it shall be proved that such Cards or Dice so exported were taken by Enemies, or were lost in the Seas or by Fire, the Exemption.

Examination and Proof whereof shall be left to the Judgment of the Commissioners of Stamps, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to discharge such Bond.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all playing Cards and Dice which shall be exported contrary to the Directions of this Act, or which, after Entry thereof for Exportation, shall be landed at or found in any Place in the United Kingdom, or which shall be landed at or found in the Isle of Man after Entry thereof for Exportation elsewhere than to the said Isle (except for the Purpose of exporting the same under the Regulations of this Act), shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise, and may be proceeded upon to Condemnation, according to any Laws of Customs or Excise then in force, or may be seized and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, or Person duly authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps, and shall and may be lodged and secured in any Place appointed by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, and shall be sold or destroyed as the Commissioners shall direct; and if any Person shall sell or expose to Sale, or shall offer for Use, in any Part of the United Kingdom, or shall knowingly have in his Possession or upon his Premises, or shall use or permit to be used in any Place in the United Kingdom, any playing Cards marked, stamped, and distinguished as Cards for Use in the Isle of Man, or for Exportation, such Cards shall be forfeited, and may be seized and carried away, and lodged and secured as above in this Act provided; and every Person so offending, for every Pack of Cards so sold or exposed to Sale, or offered for Use, or used as permitted to be used, or in the Possession of such Person, contrary to this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall reland, or shall cause or procure to be relanded, or shall assist in the relanding, in any Part of the United Kingdom, any Parcel of Cards or Dice after the same shall have been entered and shipped for Exportation from any Part of the United Kingdom, or shall land such Cards or Dice, or cause the same to be landed, in any Port or Place other than the Port or Place to which such Cards or Dice shall be assigned and named in the Certificate to be delivered by the Officer of Stamps to the Officer of Customs in pursuance of this Act, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to put on board any Ship or Vessel for Exportation to the Isle of Man, or to import into or to use in that Island, any playing Cards, unless in Packs each containing an Ace of Spades stamped or marked with the Stamp or Device appointed by the Commissioners of Stamps for Cards intended for Use in the Isle of Man, in the Manner by this Act directed, or an Ace of Spades duly stamped or marked for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom; and all playing Cards not being in Packs each containing an Ace of Spades duly stamped and marked for use in the Isle of Man or in the United Kingdom, which shall be put on board, or shall be brought to any Wharf or Place to be put on board, any Ship or Vessel, for Exportation to the Isle of Man, or which shall be imported into or found in the Isle of Man, shall be forfeited; and all playing Cards which, having been duly put on board, or brought to any Wharf to be put on board, any Ship or Vessel, for Exportation to the Isle of Man, or having been duly imported into or found in the Isle of Man, shall be relanded or found in any other Part of the United Kingdom, except for the Purpose of shipping the same under the Regulations of this Act, shall also be forfeited; and all Cards so forfeited shall and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise, and shall and may be proceeded upon to Condemnation, according to any Laws of Customs or Excise in force at the Time, or may be seized and carried away by any Officer of Stamps, or Person duly authorized thereto, and lodged and secured in any Place appointed for that Purpose; and every Person who shall sell or expose to Sale, or shall offer for Use, or shall use or permit to be used, in any Part of the Isle of Man, or shall knowingly have in his Possession or upon his Premises within the said Island, any playing Cards or Ace of Spades made within the United Kingdom for Exportation, or any Pack of Cards, not containing an Ace of Spades stamped or marked for Use in the Isle of Man or in the United Kingdom as aforesaid, shall for every such Pack of Cards or Ace of Spades forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be paid for and recovered in the same Manner as any Penalty incurred in the said Island under any Act relating to the Revenue of Customs may be used for and recovered under such Act: Provided always that nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect any Thing respecting the Exportation of playing Cards to the Isle of Man, contained in an Act made and passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Trade of the Isle of Man.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That any playing Cards which, having been made out of the United Kingdom, shall be imported into any Part thereof, shall be deposited in any Warehouse pursuant to an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Warehousing of Goods, unless the Name and Place of Residence of the Foreign Maker of such Cards be printed or marked in distinct and legible Characters on One Card of every Pack of such Cards, and on every Wrapper thereof; and if any One or more of such Cards, or any Wrapper, Jew, Label, or other Paper, Matter, or Thing, enclosing, annexed to, or deposited with any One or more of such Cards, shall be printed or marked in any way with the Name of any Maker of Cards duly licensed within the United Kingdom, such Cards shall not be permitted to be warehoused under the said intitled Act, any Thing in the said Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and all such Foreign Cards, Wrappers, Jew, Labels, and other Things on which the Name and Place of Residence of the Foreign Maker thereof shall not be printed or marked in distinct and legible Characters as aforesaid, or on any of which shall be printed or marked the Name of any Maker of Cards duly licensed within the United Kingdom, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs or Excise, and proceeded upon to Condemnation, according to any Laws of Customs or Excise then in force.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time the Commissioners of Stamps shall deem it expedient to alter any Stamp, Mark, Plate, Device, or Label directed to be used for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, under such Regulations and in such Manner as they shall think fit, to make an Allowance to every licensed Maker of playing Cards on his Accounts for each and every Act of Spades which shall have been delivered to any such Maker respectively, and which in consequence of such Allowance shall be returned by him to the said Commissioners to be cancelled; provided that no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Act of Spades which shall have been placed in any Pack of Cards made up, enclosed, and fastened in Manner directed by this Act.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Type, Die, Seal, Stamp, Mark, Plate, or Device, or any Part of any Type, Die, Seal, Stamp, Mark, Plate, or Device, which shall be at any Time provided, made, or used by or under the Authority of the Commissioners of Stamps in pursuance of this Act; or shall counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be counterfeited or assembled, the Impressions of any such Type, Die, Seal, Stamp, Mark, Plate, or Device, or any Part thereof, upon any playing Card or Dice, or upon any Label, Thread, or Paper; or shall forge or counterfeit the Name, Handwriting, or Signature of any sealing Officer, or other Officer of Stamps, to or upon any Wrapper, Paper, or Material in which any Dice shall be actually enclosed; or shall forge or counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Mark or Name, or any Part of any Mark or Name, directed to be used by the Commissioners of Stamps in pursuance of this Act, in order to distinguish the Maker of any such Cards or Dice respectively, and printed or marked on or affixed to or making Part of the Wrapper, Label, or Paper in which any playing Cards or Dice shall be actually enclosed, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties at any Time by Law payable upon Cards or Dice; or shall utter, or sell or expose to Sale, or part with for Use in Play, any Card, Die, Act of Spades, Label, Wrapper, or Jew whatsoever, with such counterfeit Seal, Stamp, Mark, Device, Impression, Name, or Signature, knowing the same to be counterfeit; or shall privately or fraudulently use any Seal, Stamp, Mark, Plate, Device, or Label at any Time provided, made, or used, by or under the Authority of the Commissioners of Stamps in pursuance of this Act, with Intent to defraud His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, of any of the Duties at any Time by Law payable upon Cards or Dice; every Person convicted of any such Offence in due Form of Law shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the Buyer or Seller, or any Person concerned in the buying or selling, or exposing to Sale, or uttering, any Act of Spades, Playing Cards, Dice, Label, or Wrapper, contrary to this Act, or if any Person concerned in the unlawful vending of any Cards or Dice shipped for Exportation under this Act, or concerned in any other Offence against this Act, shall give Information to the Commissioners of Stamps of any like Offence committed by any other Person concerned in any such Offence, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to direct that such Informer shall be admitted to give Evidence against such other Person; and in case of such Direction such Informer shall be admitted to give Evidence, and shall be deemed a competent Witness accordingly, and shall be indemnified against all Penalties previously incurred by such Informer under this Act.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be sued for and recovered in a manner following; that is to say, if such Penalties or Forfeitures be incurred in Great Britain, the same shall and may be sued for and recovered in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, in the same Manner as Penalties incurred under any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties may be sued for and recovered in such Courts respectively; and if such Penalties or Forfeitures shall be incurred in Ireland, the same shall be sued for and recovered in the same Manner as Penalties incurred or sued for under the Regulations rectified Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Kings of the late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof; and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties, may be sued for and recovered under such Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to mitigate or compound any such Penalty or Forfeiture, or to stay any Proceedings in any such Prosecution commenced by their Direction, on such Terms as the said Commissioners shall judge proper and expedient; and also, at their Discretion, to give all or any Part of any Sum paid by way of Penalty or Compromise to the Person informing them of the Offence in respect of which such Sum shall be paid.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever in this present Act, in describing or referring to any Offence or other Matter or Thing, any Word or Words in or are used importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only, such Word or Words shall be understood and shall be construed and applied to include several Matters as well as One Matter, and several Persons as well as One Person, and Females as well as Males, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect on and from the Fifth Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

EL. And

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

An Act for prohibiting, during the present Session of Parliament, the Importation of Foreign Wheat into the Isle of Man; and for levying a Duty on Meal or Flour made of Foreign Wheat imported from the Isle of Man into the United Kingdom. [13th May 1828.]

" WHEREAS an Act was passed in the First and Second Years of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to repeal certain Acts passed in the Thirty-first, Thirty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Years of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour, into and from Great Britain, and to make further Provision in that behalf; and whereas, among other Things, it was enacted, that whenever the Ports of the United Kingdom should be shut against the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour, for Home Consumption, the Ports of the Isle of Man should, in like Manner, be shut against the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour, for Home Consumption; And Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to make Provision for ascertaining, from time to time, the Average Prices of British Corn, the said first-mentioned Act was repealed; and other Provision not having been made for preventing the Importation of Corn into the Isle of Man, in manner provided by the said Act, large Quantities of Flour made from Foreign Wheat in the said Island have been imported from thence into the United Kingdom without any Restriction; and it is expedient to apply some Remedy to such Evil, until general Provision shall have been made for more effectually regulating the Importation of Foreign Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour into the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, and until the End of the present Session of Parliament, the Importation of Foreign Wheat into the Isle of Man shall be prohibited; and such Prohibition shall be enforced and obeyed, in like Manner as if the same were contained in a certain Act passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, for regulating the Trade of the Isle of Man.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, and until the End of the present Session of Parliament, there shall be paid a Duty of Five Shillings for every Hundred Weight of Meal or Flour made of Foreign Wheat imported into the United Kingdom from the Isle of Man; and such Duty shall be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid in like Manner as any Duties of Customs are or can be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

Aldersay, or Sark, or in the Isle of Man, unless and until there shall be actually laden and on board such Ship good and wholesome Provisions, for the Use and Consumption of the said Passengers, to the Amount or in the Proportion following: (that is to say,) a Supply of pure Water to the Amount of Fifty Gallons for every Person on board such Ship, the Master and Crew included, such Water being carried in sweet Casks; and a Supply of Bread, Bacon, Outmeal, or Bread Stuffs, to the Amount of Fifty Pounds Weight at the least for every Passenger on board such Ship.

III. And he is further enacted, That no Ship proceeding on any such Voyage as aforesaid, and having on board the whole Number of Passengers allowed by this Act, shall carry any Part of her Cargo, Provisions, Water, or Sea Stores between Decks; but that it shall be lawful for any such Ship, not having on board the whole Number of Passengers so allowed, to carry between Decks, in respect of every Passenger wanting of that Number, any Goods, Provisions, Water, or Sea Stores, not occupying more than Three Cubical Feet in Space.

IV. And he is further enacted, That the Master of every Ship carrying Passengers on any such Voyage as aforesaid shall, before clearing out his said Ship for such Voyage from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Aldersay, or Sark, or in the Isle of Man, deliver to the Collector or other principal Officer of His Majesty's Customs at such Port or Place a List in Writing, specifying as accurately as may be the Names, Ages, and Professions or Occupations of all and every the Passengers on board such Ship, with the Name of the Port or Place at which he the said Master shall be contracted to land each of the said Passengers; and each Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs shall thereupon deliver to the said Master a Counterpart of such List, signed by him the said Collector or other Chief Officer as aforesaid; and the said Master shall exhibit the said Counterpart of his said List to the Collector or other Chief Officer of His Majesty's Customs at each and every Port or Place in His Majesty's Possessions at which the said Passengers, or any of them, shall be landed, and shall deposit the same with such Collector or Chief Officer of Customs at his final Port of Discharge in the said Possessions.

V. And, for the Prevention of Frauds which might be practised upon Persons emigrating from the United Kingdom in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, he is further enacted, That if the Master of any Ship carrying any Passengers on any such Voyage as aforesaid shall, without their, his, or her previous Consent, land or put on shore, or cause to be landed or put on shore, any Passenger or Passengers at any Port or Place, other than the Port or Place at which he may have contracted to land or put such Passenger or Passengers on shore, he the said Master shall incur and become liable to a Penalty of Twenty Pounds for each and every Passenger so landed or put on shore, to be recovered in a summary Way before any Two Justices of the Peace in and for any Province, District, County, or Place in any of His Majesty's Possessions on the Continent or Islands of North America, on the Complaint of any such Person or Persons, and to be levied, by Warrants under the Hand and Seal of such Justices, upon the Goods of any such Offender.

VI. And he is further enacted, That if any Ship carrying Passengers on any such Voyage as aforesaid from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Aldersay, or Sark, or in the Isle of Man, to or for any Port or Place in His Majesty's Possession on the Continent or Islands of North America, shall carry any Number of Passengers exceeding by more than One Person in Fifty the Proportion authorized and allowed by this present Act; or if the Cargo, Provisions, Water, or Sea Stores of any such Ship, or any Part thereof, shall be carried between Decks, contrary to the Provisions hereinafore in that Behalf made; or if any Ship shall clear out or put to Sea, not having on board such Water and good and wholesome Provisions as aforesaid, for the Use and Consumption of the said Passengers, to the Amount or in the Proportion hereinafore required; or if any such Ship shall be cleared out from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom before such Lists of Passengers as hereinafore mentioned have been delivered, in manner and form aforesaid, to such Officer as aforesaid, or if any such List shall be wilfully false; the Master of the said Ship shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall and may be prosecuted, tried, and convicted for the same, either in the County in the United Kingdom from which the Ship shall have sailed on such Voyage, or in any other County of the United Kingdom, or in either of the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Aldersay, or Sark, or in the Isle of Man, from which the Ship shall have sailed on such Voyage, or in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad to which such Ship shall have sailed on such Voyage: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall take away or abridge any Right of Suit or Action which may accrue to any Passenger in any such Ship as aforesaid, or to any other Person, in respect of any Breach of any Contract made by or on the Behalf of any such Passenger or other Person with the Master or Owner thereof.

VII. And for the more effectually securing the due Observance of the aforesaid Rules, and the Payment of the Penalties aforesaid, he is further enacted, That before any Ship carrying Passengers shall clear out for any such Voyage as aforesaid from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Aldersay, or Sark, or in the Isle of Man, to or for any Port or Place in His Majesty's Possession on the Continent or Islands of North America, the Master of the said Ship shall enter into a Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with one good and sufficient Surety, to be approved by the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at such Port, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds, the Condition of which Bond shall be, that the said Ship is sea-worthy, and that all and every the Rules and Regulations made and prescribed by this Act for the Carriage of Passengers shall be well and truly performed before and during such intended Voyage, and that all Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures which the Master of such Ship may be sentenced or adjudged to pay for or in respect of the Breach or Non-performance, before or during such Voyage, of any such Rules and Regulations, shall be well and truly truly paid: Provided always, that such Bond as aforesaid shall be without Stamp; and that no such Bond shall be put in Suit; and that no Prosecution, Suit, Action, or Information shall be brought under or by virtue of this Act, or upon or by reason of the Breach of any of the Provisions thereof, in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next succeeding the Commencement of any such Voyage as aforesaid, nor in the United Kingdom or any of the Islands before mentioned, after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Return of the Master to the Port or Place from which he sailed on such Voyage.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Ship in the Service of His Majesty's Postmaster General.

IX. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Bahama Islands, and His Majesty's Possessions in the West Indies, are not and shall not be deemed or taken to be comprised within the Provisions aforesaid, or any of them.

C A P. XXII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament. [25th May 1828.]

WHEREAS great Benefit has been found to arise from the Regulations of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to regulate the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament: And Whereas several Acts have subsequently been passed to amend and extend the same: And Whereas it is expedient to consolidate, and in some Respects to amend and simplify, the Laws relating thereto: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to regulate the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament; also an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled 'An Act to regulate the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament'; also an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act for making perpetual Two Acts passed in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament; also so much of an Act, passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled *An Act to limit the Qualification of Polls and Scrutinia, and for making other Regulations touching the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Places within England and Wales, and for Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also for removing Difficulties which may arise from want of Returns being made of Members to serve in Parliament, as relates to the Appointment of a Select Committee to take into Consideration the Petition of any Person claiming to have had a Right to vote, or to have been entitled to have been declared duly elected, where no Return has been made in any Writ issued for the election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, on or before the Day on which such Writ is made returnable, or within fifty-two Days after the Day, on which such Writ begins Date, if such Writ be issued during any Session or Prorogation of Parliament, or where the Return be not according to the Requirement of the Writ, but contains special Matters only concerning the Election; as to the Notices to be given of the Meeting of such Committees, and to the Manner in which the Trials of such Petitioners are to be regulated, and the Mode in which Parties entitled to be returned may proceed against any Sheriff or Returning Officer, or case a Select Committee shall have determined that such Sheriff or Returning Officer had wilfully delayed or neglected or refused to make such Return; also an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, except in so far as the same relates to the Recall of so much of an Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual preventing Bribes and Corruption in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, as enacts that such Votes shall be deemed legal which have been so declared by the last Determination in the House of Commons; and that such last Determination concerning any County, City, Borough, or Town, shall be final; also an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to extend the Provisions of certain Acts of Parliament made to regulate the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament; also an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to explain so much of an Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled 'An Act for the further Regulation of the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament', as relates to the Time of presenting certain renewed Petitions, and referring the same into Consideration; also an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Execution of several Acts of Parliament, made for the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament; also an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, and for expediting the Proceedings relating thereto; also an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled *An Act to revive and make perpetual, and to amend, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of His present Majesty, for the further Regulation of the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, and for expediting the Proceedings relating thereto; also as much of an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled *An Act to amend several Acts for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as the same relate to Ireland, as enacted, that the Order for taking into Consideration any Petition relative to the Trial of any controverted Election or Return in Ireland shall not be discharged until the Expiration of Twenty-eight Days after such Petition shall have been presented to the House of Commons, by reason that the Recognitions required by an Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the further Regulation of the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament, was not received by the Speaker under the Provisions of the said recited Act; also an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for amending and rendering more effectual the Laws for the Trial of controverted Elections and Returns of Members to serve in Parliament; be hereby repealed.*

II. And be it enacted, That whenever a Petition complaining of an undue Election or Return of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament (or complaining that no Return has been made to any Writ issued for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament on or before the Day on which such Writ is made returnable, or if such Writ be issued during any Session or Prorogation of Parliament, that no Return has been made to the same within Fifty-two Days after the Day on which such Writ bears Date, or that any Return is not according to the Regulation of the Writ, or complaining of the special Matters contained in any such Petition,) shall be presented to the House of Commons within such Time as shall be from time to time limited by the House, a Day and Hour shall be appointed by the said House for taking the same into Consideration, and Notice thereof in Writing shall be forthwith given by the Speaker to all Parties so petitioning, and to the sitting Members, and to any Parties who may have petitioned to be permitted to defend any such Election or Return, and where no Return has been made, or the special Matter of the Return, or the Conduct of any Returning Officer, is complained of, to the Returning Officer or Officers, accompanied with an Order to the Parties to attend the House at the Time appointed, by themselves, their Counsel or Agents.

III. And be it enacted, That the House may after the Day and Hour so appointed for taking any such Petition into Consideration, and upon some subsequent Day and Hour for the same, on Occasion shall require, giving to the respective Parties the like Notice of such Alteration, accompanied with an Order to attend on such subsequent Day and Hour as aforesaid; and if within One Hour after the Time fixed to the manner hereinafter directed for calling in the respective Parties, their Counsel or Agents, for the Purpose of proceeding to the Appointment of a Select Committee, the Petitioner or Petitioners, or some one or others of them who shall have signed any such Petition, shall not appear, by himself or themselves, or by his or their Counsel or Agents, the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall thereupon be discharged, and such Petition shall not be any further proceeded upon.

IV. And be it enacted, That no such Petition shall be proceeded upon, unless the same, at the Time it is presented to the House, shall be subscribed by some Person or Persons claiming therein to have had a Right to vote at the Election to which the same shall relate, or to have had a Right to be returned as duly elected thereat, or alleging himself or themselves to have been a Candidate or Candidates at such Election, or claiming therein to have had a Right to vote at the Election of any Deputee or Commissioners for choosing a Burgess for any District of Burghs in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland to which the same shall relate.

V. And be it enacted, That no Proceeding shall be had upon any such Petition, unless the Person or Persons subscribing the same, or some one or more of them, shall, within Fourteen Days after the same shall have been presented to the House, or within such further Time as shall be limited by the House, personally enter into a Recognizance to our Sovereign Lord the King, according to the Form hereto annexed, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds, with Two sufficient Sureties in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds each, or Four sufficient Sureties in the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds each, for the Payment of all Costs, Expenses, and Fees which shall become due to any Witness summoned in behalf of the Person or Persons so subscribing such Petition, or to any Clerk or Officer of the House, upon the Trial of such Petition, or to any Party who shall appear before the House, or any Committee of the House, in opposition to such Petition, in case such Person or Persons shall fail to appear before the House at such Time or Times as shall be fixed by the House for taking such Petition into Consideration; or in case such Petition shall be withdrawn by the Permission of the House; or in case such Committee shall report to the House, that such Petition appears to them to be frivolous or vexatious; and if at the Expiration of the said Fourteen Days such Recognizance shall not have been entered into, or shall not have been received by the Speaker of the House of Commons, or the Time for entering into or receiving such Recognizance shall not previously have been enlarged, the Speaker shall report the same to the House, and the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall thereupon be discharged, unless upon special Report of the Examiners into the Sufficiency of the Sureties, or upon Motion specially stated and verified upon Oath to the Satisfaction of the House, the House shall in any case, either to enlarge the Time for entering into such Recognizance, or to allow the Names of any such Sureties to be changed; and whenever such Time shall be so enlarged, or Name of any such Surety shall be changed, the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall, if necessary, be postponed, so that no such Petition shall be taken into Consideration till after such Recognizance shall have been entered into and received by the Speaker: Provided always, that the Time for entering into such such Recognizance shall not be enlarged more than once, or for any Number of Days exceeding Thirty, nor the Name of any proposed Surety be more than once changed.

VI. And be it enacted, That on the Day when any such Petition shall be presented, or on the next Day at furthest, the Petitioner or Petitioners shall deliver or cause to be delivered, in Writing, to the Clerk of the House of Commons, the Names, together with the Additions and usual Places of Residence, of the Persons who are proposed to become such Sureties, which Names shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the said Clerk in his Office, open to the Inspection of all Parties concerned.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said Recognizances shall be entered into before the Speaker of the House of Commons, who is hereby authorized and empowered to take the same; and the Sufficiency of the Sureties named therein shall be judged of and allowed by the said Speaker, or the Report of Two Persons appointed by him to examine the same, of which Two Persons the Clerk or one of the Clerks Assistant of the House of Commons shall always be one, and one of the following Officers, not being a Member of the said House, shall be the other; (that is to say, Masters of the High Court of Chancery, Clerks in the Court of King's Bench, Prothonotaries in the Court of Common Pleas, and Clerks in the Court of Exchequer; and the said Persons so appointed are hereby authorized and required to examine the same, and to report their Judgment thereupon, and are also hereby authorized to demand and receive such Fees for such Examination and Report as shall be from time to time fixed by any Resolution of the House of Commons: Provided always, that Seven clear Days at the least shall intervene between the Day on which the Names shall have been delivered in and entered in a Book kept in the Office of the Clerk as aforesaid and the Day on which the Sufficiency of the Sureties shall be examined as hereinafter directed.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if the Party or Parties who are to enter into such Recognizance, or his or their Sureties, or either of them, shall reside at a greater Distance from London than Forty Miles, it shall and may be lawful for such Party or Surety respectively to enter into such Recognizance before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or any of them, is and are hereby authorized and empowered to take the same; and such Recognizance, being duly certified under the Hand of such Justice, and being transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Commons, shall have the same Force and Effect as if the same had been entered into before the said Speaker: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the Persons to whom it is entered by the Speaker to examine the Sufficiency of the Sureties, to receive in Evidence in their said Examination any Affidavits relating thereto which shall be sworn before any such Person, or any Master of the High Court of Chancery, or before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who are hereby each of them respectively authorized to administer such Oath, and to certify such Affidavits under his Hand.

IX. And be it enacted, That the House of Commons shall not permit any such Petition to be withdrawn, except so far as the same may relate to the Election or Return of any Member who shall, since the same shall have been presented, have vacated his Seat by Death or in any other Manner, or in consequence of some Matter which shall have arisen since the same was presented, and which shall be specially stated and verified upon Oath to the Satisfaction of the House.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, at any Time within Fourteen Days after the Day on which any such Petition shall have been presented, for any Person or Persons claiming to have had a Right to vote at the Election, or at the Election of Delegates or Commissioners for making such Return, to which the same shall relate, to petition the House of Commons, praying to be admitted as a Party or Parties to defend such Return, or to oppose the Prayer of such Petition, and such Person or Persons shall thereupon be admitted as a Party or Parties, together with the sitting Member, and shall be considered as such to all Intents and Purposes whosoever.

XI. And be it enacted, That if at any Time before the Day appointed for taking any such Petition into Consideration the Speaker of the House of Commons shall be informed, by a Certificate in Writing subscribed by Two of the Members of the said House, of the Death of any sitting Member whose Election or Return is complained of in such Petition, or of the Death of any Member returned upon a double Return whose Election or Return is complained of in such Petition, or that a Writ of Summons has been issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain to summon any such Member to Parliament as a Peer of Great Britain; or if the House of Commons shall have resolved that the Seat of any such Member is by Law become vacant; or if the House of Commons shall be informed, by a Declaration in Writing, subscribed by any such Member, and delivered in at the Table of the House within Fourteen Days after the Day on which any such Petition shall have been presented, that it is not the Intention of such Member to defend his Election or Return: In every such Case Notice thereof shall immediately be sent by the Speaker to the Sheriff or other Returning Officer for the County, City, Borough, District of Burghs, Port, or Place to which such Petition shall relate; and such Sheriff or other Returning Officer shall cause a true Copy of the same to be affixed on the Doors of the County Hall or Town Hall, or of the Parish Church nearest to the Place where such Election has usually been held; and such Notice shall also be inserted by Order of the Speaker in one of the Two next London Gazettes; and the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall, if necessary, be adjourned, so that at the least Thirty Days may intervene between the Day on which such Notice shall be inserted in the said Gazette and the Day on which such Petition shall be taken into Consideration.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, at any Time within Thirty Days after the Day on which such Notice shall have been inserted in the said Gazette, for any Person or Persons claiming to have had a Right to vote at such Election, or at the Election of Delegates or Commissioners

Notice of Petition to be delivered to the Clerk of the House of Commons.

Recognizances to be entered into before the Speaker, and the Sufficiency of Sureties to be allowed by him, or the Report of the Persons herein mentioned.

Seven Days to be allowed before the Sureties are examined.

Persons or Sureties living more than 40 Miles from London may enter into Recognizances before Justices.

Evidence as to sufficiency of Sureties.

In what Cases Petitions may be withdrawn.

Witness, upon Petition, may become a Party to oppose or defend the Return.

When the Seat becomes vacant, or the sitting Member declines to defend his Return before the House, Notice is taken into Consideration.

Notice to be sent by the Speaker to the Sheriff or other Returning Officer of the Place to which the Petition relates.

Notice to be affixed to the Doors of the County Hall, the undisplayed in the London Gazette, and the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration of the Petition adjourned.

Notice to be sent by the Speaker to the Sheriff or other Returning Officer of the Place to which the Petition relates.

Thirty Days after the Notice, Voters, &c. may be allowed to admitted as Parties to defend the Returns.

Members having given Notice of their Intention not to defend, shall not be admitted as Parties.

Lists of Votes intended to be objected to, to be delivered to the Clerk of the House of Commons.

for making such Election, to petition the House, praying to be admitted as a Party or Parties in the Room of such Member; and such Person or Persons shall thereupon be so admitted as a Party or Parties, and shall be considered as such, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XIII. And be it enacted, That whenever the Member whose Election or Return is so complained of in such Petition shall have given such Notice as aforesaid, of his Intention not to defend the same, he shall not be admitted to appear or act as a Party against such Petitioner in any subsequent Proceedings thereupon; and he shall also be restrained from sitting in the House of Commons, or voting on any Question, until such Petition shall have been decided upon.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament for Great Britain, all the Parties complaining of or defending such Elections or Returns shall, by themselves or their Agents, deliver in to the Clerk of the House of Commons Lists of the Votes intended to be objected to, to be by the said Clerk kept in his Office, open to the Inspection of all Parties concerned, giving in the said Lists the several Heads of Objections, and distinguishing the same against the Names of the Voters intended to; and that such Lists shall be so delivered in, upon all controverted Elections and Returns for Scotland, or for any County in England or Wales, Ten Days at least before the Day appointed for the Consideration of the Returns complaining of such Election or Return; and upon all other controverted Elections or Returns for England or Wales, Five Days at least before the Day appointed for the Consideration of such Returns: Provided always, that if the Consideration of any such Returns shall be postponed by Order of the House during the same Session, or shall be renewed at the Commencement of another Session, it shall be sufficient if such Lists shall be so delivered within such Periods as are hereby directed before the Commencement for the Trial of such Returns shall be actually appointed; or if any Person or Persons shall have been admitted as aforesaid to defend the Return in the Room of any sitting Member or Members returned in a Double Return, who before such Petition is taken into Consideration shall have died, or been called by Writ of Summons to Parliament as a Peer of Great Britain, or whose Seat shall have become vacant by Law, or who shall in the Meanes aforesaid have declared his Intention not to defend his Election or Return, then it shall be sufficient if such Lists shall be so delivered within such Periods as are herebybefore directed before the Time to which the taking such Petition into Consideration shall be adjourned.

Evidence to be produced to the Select Committee appointed for the Trial of the Returns upon which such List shall have been delivered in, against the Validity of any Vote, upon any Head of Objection to such Voter other than one of the Heads so specified and particularized against him in such List as aforesaid; and if any Ground of Objection shall be stated against any Voter in such Lists, and no Evidence shall be produced before such Select Committee to substantiate such Objection, and if such Select Committee shall be of opinion that such Objection was frivolous or vexatious, the said Committee shall report the same to the House of Commons, together with their Opinions on the other Matters relating to the said Returns, and the opposite Party shall in such Case be entitled to recover, from the Party or Parties by whom or on whose Behalf any such Objections were made, the full Costs and Expenses incurred by reason of such frivolous or vexatious Objections, which Costs and Expenses shall be ascertained and recovered in the same Manner and Form as in heretofore provided for the Recovery of Costs and Expenses in Cases of frivolous or vexatious Petitions.

XV. And be it enacted, That no Evidence shall be adduced before the Select Committee appointed for the Trial of the Returns upon which such List shall have been delivered in, against the Validity of any Vote, upon any Head of Objection to such Voter other than one of the Heads so specified and particularized against him in such List as aforesaid; and if any Ground of Objection shall be stated against any Voter in such Lists, and no Evidence shall be produced before such Select Committee to substantiate such Objection, and if such Select Committee shall be of opinion that such Objection was frivolous or vexatious, the said Committee shall report the same to the House of Commons, together with their Opinions on the other Matters relating to the said Returns, and the opposite Party shall in such Case be entitled to recover, from the Party or Parties by whom or on whose Behalf any such Objections were made, the full Costs and Expenses incurred by reason of such frivolous or vexatious Objections, which Costs and Expenses shall be ascertained and recovered in the same Manner and Form as in heretofore provided for the Recovery of Costs and Expenses in Cases of frivolous or vexatious Petitions.

On Days appointed for taking Petitions into Consideration, Members are permitted to sit in the Order of the Day for that Purpose before any other Business, except as herein is excepted.

XVI. And be it enacted, That on the Day appointed for taking any such Petition into Consideration the House shall not proceed to any Business previous to the Reading of the Order of the Day for that Purpose, except to swear in any Member, or to receive any Report from any Select Committee appointed in pursuance of this Act, and to enter the same upon their Journals, and to give the necessary Orders and Directions thereupon; or to admit the Clerk of the Crown to alter or amend any Return, in pursuance of an Order made on a preceding Day or on that Day; or to attend His Majesty or His Majesty's Commissioners in the House of Lords, in consequence of any Message from His Majesty, or from His Majesty's Commissioners, signified to the House in the usual Manner; or to receive any Message or Messages from the Lords; or on Days appointed for the Trial of any Articles of Impeachment exhibited or to be exhibited by the Commons before the Lords in Parliament, to proceed to any Business that may be necessary for the Purpose of carrying on the Prosecution of such Impeachment.

Serjeant at Arms, before the Reading of the Order, to require the Attendance of Members. House to be adjourned, and if there are not 100 Members present at the House on said Journs, &c.

XVII. And be it enacted, That on the Time appointed for taking any such Petition into Consideration, and previous to the Reading of the Order of the Day for that Purpose, the Serjeant at Arms shall be directed to go with the Mace to the Places adjacent, and require the immediate Attendance of the Members on the Business of the House; and that after his Return the House shall be counted, and if there be less than One hundred Members present, the Order for taking such Petition into Consideration shall be immediately adjourned to a particular Hour on the following Day, (Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday always excepted,) and the House shall not proceed to any other Business whatsoever, except as herebefore provided, but shall then adjourn to the said Day; and the Proceedings of all Committees, subsequent to such Notice from the said Serjeant, shall be void, and on the following Day the House shall proceed in the same Manner, and so from Day to Day, till there be an Attendance of One hundred Members at the Reading of the Order of the Day to take such Petition into Consideration: Provided always, that if, after reading the Order of the Day for taking any such Petition into Consideration, on any Day immediately preceding Christmas Day, (or if Christmas Day falls on a Monday, on the preceding Saturday) Wednesday, or Good Friday, it shall be found that there are not One hundred Members present, or that the Number of Thirty-three Members, not so made or expected, cannot be completed, it shall and may be lawful for the House, if they shall think fit, to direct that the said Order shall be adjourned journey for any Number of Days, and the House shall then immediately be adjourned to the Hour and Day to which such Order shall be so adjourned.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if after summoning the Members, and counting the House, as aforesaid, One hundred Members shall be found to be present, the Parties, their Counsel or Agents, shall be ordered to attend at the Bar, and then the Door of the House shall be locked, and no Member shall be suffered to enter into or depart from the House until the Parties, their Counsel or Agents, shall be directed to withdraw, as hereinafter is mentioned; and when the Door shall be locked as aforesaid, the Order of the Day shall be read, and the Names of all the Members of the House, written on distinct Pieces of Paper, being all as near as may be of equal Size, and folded up in the same Manner, shall be put into Six Glasses, to be placed on the Table for that Purpose; and then the Clerk or Clerk Assistant attending the House shall publicly draw out of the said Six Glasses the said Pieces of Paper, and deliver the same to the Speaker, to be by him read to the House, and so shall continue to do until Thirty-three Names of the Members present be drawn: Provided always, that the Names of all the Members so written and folded up shall, previous to the Time appointed for taking any such Petition into Consideration, be prepared by the said Clerk or Clerk Assistant, and by him put into a Box in the Presence of the Speaker, together with an Attestation, signed by the said Clerk or Clerk Assistant, purporting that the Names of all the Members were by him put therein the

in the Year Day of which said Box the Speaker shall seal or cause to be sealed, in his Presence, with his own Seal, and to the Contents thereof shall annex or cause to be annexed an Attestation, signed by himself, purporting that the said Box was, on the Day of made up in his Presence, in the Manner directed by this Act: and that as soon as the Parties shall be withdrawn as aforesaid, and before the House shall enter on any other Business, any Member may require that the Names of all the Members which remain undrawn shall be drawn and read aloud by the said Clerk or Clerk Assistant.

XIX. And be it enacted, That when Two or more such Petitions are ordered to be taken into Consideration by the House on the same Day, it shall and may be lawful, after summoning the Members and counting the House, in the Manner heretofore directed, to order all the Petitioners and other Parties, by themselves, their Counsel or Agents, to attend within the House at the same Time, before the Door shall be locked, and after the List of the Thirty-three Names of the Members present hath been drawn by Lot and completed, in order to form the First Committee, as hereinafter is directed, it shall and may be lawful to proceed forthwith, and before the Door of the House shall be opened, except for the Purpose hereinafter mentioned, to draw by Lot, and complete in like Manner, out of the same Glasses, another List of Thirty-three Names of the remaining Members present, in order to form the Second Committee, according to the said Directions, and in the same Manner to draw by Lot and complete successive Lists of Thirty-three Names of the remaining Members present, in order to form a Third or Fourth Committee, according to the said Directions.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to proceed in manner aforesaid to form successive Lists, in order to form more than One of such Committees, unless One hundred and twenty Members shall be present in the House at the Time of counting the same; nor to form successive Lists, in order to form more than Two such Committees, unless One hundred and eighty Members shall then be present in the House; nor to form successive Lists, in order to form more than Three such Committees, unless Two hundred and forty Members shall then be present in the House.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if the Name of any Member who shall have given his Vote at the Election complained of as aforesaid, or who shall be a Petitioner complaining of an undue Election or Return, or against whose Return a Petition shall be then depending, or whose Return shall not have been brought in Fourteen Days, shall be drawn, his Name shall be set aside, and not be entered on the List of Names drawn.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if the Name of any Member of Sixty Years of Age or upwards be drawn, he shall be excused from serving on any Select Committee to be appointed by virtue of this Act, if he require it, and verify the Cause of such Excuse upon Oath.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if the Name of any Member who has served on One such Select Committee during the same Session be drawn, he shall, if he require it, be excused from serving again in any such Select Committee, unless the House shall, before the Day appointed for taking the said Petition into Consideration, have resolved that the Number of Members who have not served on any such Select Committee in the same Session is insufficient to fulfil the Purpose of this Act respecting the Choice of such Select Committee.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That no Member, who, after having been appointed to serve on any such Select Committee, shall, on account of Indisability or Accident, have been excused from attending the same throughout, shall be deemed to have served on any such Committee.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any other Member shall offer any other Excuse, the Substance of the Allegations shall be taken down by the said Clerk, in order that the same may afterwards be entered on the Journals, and the Opinion of the House shall then be taken thereon; and if the House shall resolve that the said Member ought not to be compelled to serve on such Select Committee, he also shall be excused from such Service: Provided always, that the said Member shall thereupon verify upon Oath the Allegations so taken down by the Clerk.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in case the House shall proceed in manner aforesaid to form successive Lists, in order to form Two or more such Committees, and any Member whose Name is drawn shall

XXVII. And be it enacted, That instead of the Members so set aside and excused, the Name of other Members shall be drawn, who may, in like Manner, be set aside or excused, and others drawn to supply these Places, until the whole Number of Thirty-three Members not liable to be so set aside or excused shall be complete; and of the Number of Thirty-three Members, not set aside nor excused, cannot be completed, the House shall proceed in the Manner they are heretofore directed in case there be less than One hundred Members present at the Time prescribed for counting the House, and so from Day to Day, as often as the Case shall happen: Provided always, that if Two or more such Petitions are to be taken into Consideration on the same Day, and it shall happen, by reason that a sufficient Number of Members liable to serve are not present in the House, that successive Lists cannot be formed, in manner aforesaid, upon all such Petitions, yet the House may nevertheless proceed to form the List or Lists, and appoint the Select Committee or Committees upon One or more of such Petitions, as far as they are enabled so to do by the Number of Members present, and may, after such Appointment, proceed to any other Business; and the Order or Orders for taking the remaining Petition or Petitions into Consideration shall be adjourned, as heretofore is directed in case there be less than One hundred Members present at the Time prescribed for counting the House.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That as soon as Thirty-three Members shall have been so chosen by Lot, the House may proceed to take any other such Petition into Consideration as may have been appointed to be considered on that Day, and if there be none such, then the Doors of the House shall be opened, and the House may proceed upon any other Business.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if after counting the House in the Manner heretofore mentioned there be less than One hundred Members present, or if Thirty-three Members, not set aside or excused, cannot be completed, as heretofore is provided, the House shall not proceed upon any Business whatever, except to adjourn the Order of the Day for taking any such Petition into Consideration, in manner heretofore directed, or to proceed upon any Order of the Day for the Call of the House, which shall have been previously fixed for that Day, and to direct that the House, in pursuance of such Order, be then called over, if they shall so think fit, or to direct that such Order of the Day for the Call of the House shall be adjourned to such future Day as they shall appoint, and in either of such Cases to come to such Resolutions, and to make such Orders relating thereto, as to the House shall seem meet: and in case on Order of the Day for a Call of the House shall have been previously fixed for that Day, then to order that the House shall be called over on such future Day as they shall appoint, and to make such Orders relating thereto as they shall think necessary, and in such Case to make such other Orders as to them shall seem expedient, for enforcing the Attendance of the Members upon the Business of the House, and that the House shall then adjourn to the same Day to which the Order or Orders for taking into Consideration any such Petition or Petitions shall have been adjourned, and so from time to time, as Occasion shall require; and in case no such Proceedings with respect to any Call of the House, or other the Matter before mentioned, shall take place, or if in the Course of these Proceedings the House shall be adjourned for Want of Members, the House shall be deemed and taken, and shall be declared to be adjourned to the same Day to which such Order or Orders shall have been adjourned:
Provided always, that in case the Thirty-three Members not set aside or excused cannot be completed, it shall not be lawful for the House to proceed upon any of the Matters before mentioned until the Door of the House is unlocked, and the Parties, their Counsel and Agents, are withdrawn from the Bar.

XXX. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said Thirty-three Members shall have been so chosen by Lot, the Petitioners and sitting Member or Members, or any Party who may have been admitted to defend the Return, or to defend any Right of Election, and all the Parties, their Counsel or Agents, shall immediately withdraw, together with the Clerk appointed to attend the said Select Committee, which Clerk shall furnish a List of the Thirty-three Members to each of the Parties; and the Petitioners and sitting Member or Members, or such Party as may have been admitted as aforesaid to defend the Return or Right of Election, their Counsel or Agents, beginning on the Part of the Petitioners, shall alternately strike off One of the said Thirty-three Members, until the said Number shall be reduced to Eleven; and the said Clerk, within One Half Hour at farthest from the Time of the Parties withdrawing from the House, or if the Doors of the House shall on the Expiration of such Half Hour be closed, then immediately after they shall be opened, shall deliver in to the House the Names of the Eleven Members then remaining, and the said Eleven Members shall be sworn at the Table well and truly to try the Matter of the Petition referred to them, and a true Judgment to give according to the Evidence, and shall be deemed and taken to be a Select Committee legally appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Return or Election appointed by the House to be by them taken into Consideration, from and after the Time of any such Select Committee having been sworn at the Table; and the House shall order the said Select Committee to meet at a certain Time, to be fixed by the House, which shall be within Twenty-four Hours of the Appointment of the said Select Committee, unless a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday shall intervene; and the Place of their meeting and sitting shall be some convenient Room or Place adjacent to the House of Commons, properly prepared for that Purpose.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That on the Parties withdrawing as aforesaid, the House shall continue sitting, and the said Thirty-three Members so chosen by Lot shall not depart the House till the Time for the Meeting of such Select Committee shall be fixed.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if Two or more such Petitions are to be taken into Consideration on the same Day, it shall be lawful for the Parties, their Counsel or Agents, to withdraw from the House as soon as the List of Thirty-three Names shall have been drawn, in order to form the Committee for the Trial of such Petition respectively, and for the Clerk appointed to attend the said Committee to return the reduced List in the Time intervening between say Two Halfs; and the Members remaining upon any of the said reduced Lists shall be sworn at the Table, and shall be at liberty forthwith to depart from the House.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That if, on a Complaint by Petition of an undue Election or Return, there shall be more than Two Parties before the House on distinct Issues, or complaining or complained of upon distinct Grounds, whose Right to be elected or returned may be affected by the Determination of any such Select Committee, each of the said Parties shall successively strike off a Member from the Thirty-three Members chosen by Lot, until the same Number be reduced to Eleven, in the same Manner as is heretofore directed for the striking off of a Member by such Party, and the List of the Thirty-three Members chosen by Lot shall for this Purpose be given to all the said Parties, and the Order in which the said Parties shall so strike off the said Members shall be determined by Lot after they are withdrawn from the Bar, and in like Manner shall be determined the Order in which the Parties in Petitions complaining of the same Double Returns shall strike off the said Members; and the Eleven Members remaining on the said reduced List shall be sworn at the Table, and be a Select Committee for the Purpose aforesaid.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That if within One Hour after the Time appointed for taking any Petition complaining of an undue Election or Return, or Objection to make a Return, into Consideration, the aforesaid Member or sitting Members, or other Party opposing the Petition, shall not appear, by himself or themselves, or his or their Counsel or Agents, or if at the Time so appointed as aforesaid there shall be no Party before the House opposing such Petition, or any Petition touching a Right of Election, the House shall proceed to appoint a Select Committee to try the Merits of such Petition, in the following Manner; (that is to say) that the Names of Thirty-three Members shall be drawn in the Manner heretofore prescribed; but in reducing the List of such Names to Eleven, the Place of the Party opposing the Petition shall be supplied by the Clerk appointed to attend the said Committee, who shall, as often as it shall come to his Turn, as supplying the Place of such Party, strike out that Name which then shall be first on the said List.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the same Method of reducing the List of Members drawn to Eleven shall be followed whenever any Party shall waive his Right of striking off Names from the said List.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if the Returning Officer or Officers by whom any Return ought to have been made or has been made shall attend the House when any Petition complaining of any undue Election or Return, or Objection to make a Return, is ordered to be taken into Consideration, in consequence of such Order and Notice as is hereafter described, and in case there shall be more Returns than One presented on distinct Issues, or complaining upon different Grounds, the House shall determine, from the Nature of the Case, whether the Returning Officer or Officers, his or their Counsel or Agents, shall, together with such Petitioners, be entitled to strike off from the List of Members drawn by Lot, in the Manner heretofore directed in Cases where there shall be more than Two Parties before the House, or whether such List shall be reduced by the Parties severally presenting such Petitions only; and if such Officer or Officers cannot be found to be served with such Notice or Order, or being served, shall not appear, by himself or themselves, his or their Counsel or Agents, at the Day and Time appointed for taking such Petition into Consideration, the House may permit or authorize any Person to appear in the stead of him or them, and in like Manner shall decide whether the Person so nominated or appointed to appear in the Place of such Returning Officer or Officers shall be entitled to strike off from the said List of Thirty-three Members so drawn by Lot as aforesaid, as it might do in case the Returning Officer or Officers had appeared.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall on their meeting elect a Chairman; and if in the Election of a Chairman there be an equal Number of Voices, the Member whose Name was first drawn in the House shall have a casting Voice; as likewise, in case there should ever be Occasion for electing a new Chairman, on the Death or necessary Absence of the Chairman first elected.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That every such Committee shall or may be attended by a Person well skilled in the Art of writing Short-hand, who shall be specially appointed by the Clerk of the House of Commons for the Time being, and sworn by the Chairman faithfully and truly to take down, in Short-hand, the Evidence adduced before such Committee, and from Day to Day, at Occasion may require, to transcribe or cause the same to be transcribed, in Words at Length, for the Use of such Committee.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records, and to examine any Person who may have subscribed the Petition which such Select Committee shall have been appointed to try and determine, except it shall otherwise appear to such Committee that such Person is an interested Witness, and shall examine all the Witnesses who come before them upon Oath; and if any Person summoned by such Select Committee, or by the Warrant of the Speaker of the House of Commons, shall disobey such Summons, or if any Witness before such Select Committee shall give false Evidence, or perjure, or shall otherwise misbehave in giving or refusing to give Evidence, the Chairman of such Select Committee, by their Directions, may at any Time during the Course of their Proceedings report the same to the House, for the Interposition of their Authority, or Censure, as the Case may require, and may by a Warrant under his Hand

When several Petitions are taken into Consideration, Parties may reduce Lists to Eleven, and Committees may leave.

If more than Two Parties on distinct Issues, each Party to strike off the Name of a Member from the 33 members, strictly until reduced to Eleven.

directed to the Sergeant at Arms attending the House of Commons, or to his Deputy or Deputies, commit such Person (not being a Peer of the Realm or Lord of Parliament) to the Custody of the said Ser-jeant, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, if the House shall then be sitting, and if not, then for a Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours after the Hour to which the House shall then be adjourned.

XL. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall try the Merits of the Return or Election, or both, and shall determine, by a Majority of Voices of such Select Committee, whether the Petitioners or the sitting Members, or either of them, be duly returned or elected, or whether the Election be void, or whether a new Writ ought to issue, which Determination shall be final between the Parties (except as is hereinafter provided) to all Intents and Purposes; and the House, on being informed thereof by the Chairman of the said Select Committee, shall order the same to be entered in their Journals, and give the necessary Directions for confirming or altering the Return, or for ordering a Return to be made, or for issuing a new Writ for a new Election, or for carrying the said Determination into Execution, as the Case may require; and every such Committee, at the same Time that they inform the House of their final Determination on the Merits of the Petition which they were sworn to try, shall also report to the House whether such Petition did or did not appear to them to be frivolous or vexatious, and in like Manner report with respect to every Party who shall have appeared before them in opposition to such Petition, whether the Opposition of such Party did or did not appear to them to be frivolous or vexatious; and if no Party shall have appeared before them in opposition to such Petition, they shall then report to the House whether such Election or Return, or such alleged Denial of a Return, as shall be complained of in such Petition, (according as the Case may be,) did or did not appear to them to be vexatious or corrupt.

XLI. And be it enacted, That if any such Select Committee shall come to any Resolution other than the Determination above mentioned, they shall, if they think proper, report the same to the House for their Opinion; at the same Time that the Chairman of such Select Committee shall inform the House of such Determination; and the House may confirm or disagree with such Resolution, and make such Orders thereon as to them shall seem proper.

XLII. And be it enacted, That every such Select Committee shall sit every Day (Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday only excepted), and shall never adjourn for a longer Time than Twenty-four Hours, unless a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday intervene, and in such Case not for more than Twenty-four Hours, exclusive of such Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, without Leave first obtained from the House, upon Motion, and special Cause assigned for a longer Adjournment; and in case the House shall be sitting at the Time to which such Select Committee is adjourned, then the Business of the House shall be stayed, and a Motion shall be made for a further Adjournment, for any Time to be fixed by the House; Provided always, that if such Select Committee shall have occasion to apply or report to the House in relation to the Adjournment of such Select Committee, the Absence of the Members thereof, or the Non-attendance or Misbehaviour of Witnesses summoned to appear or appearing before them, and the House shall be then adjourned for more than Twenty-four Hours, such Select Committee may also adjourn to the Day appointed for the Meeting of the House.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That no Member of any such Select Committee shall be allowed to absent himself from the same without Leave obtained from the House, or an Excuse allowed by the House at the next Sitting thereof, on special Cause shown and verified upon Oath, and such Select Committee shall never sit until all the Members to whom such Leave has not been granted, nor Excuse allowed, are met; and in case they shall not all meet within One Hour after the Time to which such Select Committee shall have been adjourned, a further Adjournment shall be made, in the Manner as before directed, and reported, with the Cause thereof, to the House.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the Chairman of every such Select Committee shall at the next Meeting of the House always report the Name of every Member thereof who shall have been absent therefrom without such Leave or Excuse as aforesaid, and each Member shall be directed to attend the House at the next Sitting thereof, and shall then be ordered to be taken into the Custody of the Sergeant at Arms attending the House, for such Neglect of his Duty, and otherwise punished or corrected, at the Discretion of the House, unless it shall appear to the House, by Facts specially stated and verified upon Oath, that such Member was, by a sudden Accident, or by Necessity, prevented from attending the said Select Committee.

XLV. And be it enacted, That if more than Two Members of any such Select Committee shall on any Account be absent therefrom, such Select Committee shall adjourn in the Manner hereinafter directed, and so from time to time, until Nine Members are assembled, except as is hereafter provided.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That in case the Number of Members able to attend any such Select Committee shall, by Death or otherwise, be unavoidably reduced to less than Nine, and shall so continue for the Space of Three sitting Days, such Select Committee shall be dissolved, and another chosen in its place, and determine the Matter of such Petition in manner aforesaid; and all the Proceedings of such former Select Committee shall be void and of no Effect. Provided always, that whenever any such Committee shall have sat for Business Fourteen Days, not including those Days on which they shall have adjourned on account of the Absence of any Member, nor including Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, it shall and may be lawful for them to proceed to Business, if a Number of Members not less than Eight be present; and in such Case the Committee shall not be dissolved by reason of the Absence of the Members, unless the Number of Members able to attend the same shall, by Death or otherwise, be unavoidably reduced to less than Eight, and shall so continue for the Space of Three sitting Days; and whenever any such Committee shall in like Manner have sat for Business Twenty-five Days, or shall have directed any Commission to be issued for the Examination of Evidence in Ireland, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and intitled An Act for regulating the Trial of controversial Witnesses or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for them to proceed to Business, if a Number of Members not less than Seven be present; and in such Case the Committee shall not be dissolved by reason of the Absence of the Members, unless the Number of Members able to attend the same shall, by Death or otherwise, be unavoidably reduced so less than Seven, and shall so continue for the Space of Three sitting Days.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Select Committee shall think it necessary to deliberate among themselves upon any Question which shall arise in the Course of the Trial, or upon the Determination thereof, or upon any Resolution concerning the Matter of the Petition referred to them as aforesaid, as soon as such Select Committee shall have heard the Evidence and Counsel on both Sides relative thereto, the Room or Place in which they shall sit shall be cleared, if they shall think proper, while the Members of such Committee consider thereof, and all such Questions, as well as such Determinations, and all other Resolutions, shall be by a Majority of Voices; and if the Voices shall be equal, including the Voice of such Chairman, the Chairman shall have a casting Voice.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That no Determination shall be made by any such Committee on any Question whatsoever, save and except such as may arise in consequence of the Absence of any Member, unless the Number of Members hereinbefore required be present: Provided always, that an Member shall be entitled to vote on the Determination of any Question, who has not attended during every Sitting of such Committee, except such at which the Committee shall have met and adjourned in manner lawfully directed, in consequence of the Absence of such Member.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Oaths by this Act directed to be taken in the House shall be administered by the said Clerk or Clerk Assistant, and that the Oaths directed by this Act to be taken before any Select Committee shall be administered by the Clerk attending such Select Committee; and that all Persons who shall be guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury in any Evidence which they shall give before the House or such Committee, in consequence of the Oath which they shall have taken by the Direction of this Act, shall on Conviction thereof incur and suffer the like Pains and Penalties in which any other Person convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury is liable by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

L. And be it enacted, That whenever any Committee appointed to try the Merits of any such Petition as aforesaid shall be of Opinion that the Merits of such Petition do wholly or in Part depend on any Question or Questions which shall be before them respecting the Right of Election for the County, City, Borough, District of Burghs, Port, or other Place to which such Petition shall relate, or respecting the Right of choosing, nominating, or appointing the Returning Officer or Returning Officers who is or are to make Returns of such Election, the said Committee in such Case shall require the Counsel or Agents for the several Parties, or if there shall be none such before them, shall then require the Parties themselves, to deliver to the Clerk of such Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election, or of choosing, nominating, or appointing Returning Officers, for which they respectively contend; and the Committee shall come to distinct Resolutions on such Statements, and shall, at the same Time that they report to the House their final Determination on the Merits of such Petition, also report to the House such Statement or Statements, together with their Judgment with respect thereto; and such Report shall thereupon be entered in the Journals of the House, and Notice thereof shall be sent by the Speaker to the Sheriff or other Returning Officer of the Place to which the same shall relate, and a true Copy of such Notice shall, by such Sheriff or other Returning Officer, be forthwith affixed to the Doors of the County Hall or Town Hall, or of the Parish Church nearest to the Place where such Election has usually been held, and such Notice shall also be inserted, by Order of the Speaker, in One of the Two great London Gazettes.

LI. And be it enacted, That whenever any such Report with respect to such Rights, any or either of them, shall be made to the House, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons within Six Months next after the Day on which such Report shall have been made to the House, or in case such Six Months shall end between the Time when the present or any future Parliament shall be dissolved or shall expire and the Day on which the next Parliament shall meet, or in case such Six Months shall expire during any Recess, either by the Prorogation of Parliament, or by the Adjournment of the House of Commons for Fourteen Days intervening between the Day of Adjournment and the Day to which the House shall be so adjourned, then within Fourteen Days next after the first Day of the next Parliament, or of the next Session of the same Parliament, or of the next Meeting of the House of Commons, as the Case may be, to petition the House to be admitted as a Party or Parties to oppose those Rights, any or either of them, which shall have been deemed valid in the Judgment of such Committee; and that such Petition, when presented, shall be ordered by the House to lay on the Table all such Six Months, or such Fourteen Days as aforesaid, shall be expired; and that within Twenty-one sitting Days after the Expiration of such Six Months, or Fourteen Days, a Day and Hour shall be appointed by the House for taking the same into Consideration, so that the Space of Fourteen Days at the least shall always intervene between the Day on which such Order shall be made and the Day appointed by the House for taking the same into Consideration; and such Day and Hour may from time to time be altered as to the House shall seem fit; and Notice of such Day and Hour, and of such Alteration thereof, shall be sent to the several Persons who have petitioned the House respecting such Rights, in like Manner as is done in other Cases: Provided always, that if on such Petition shall be so presented within the Times above limited for presenting the same, the said Judge(s) of such Committee on such Questions or Questions shall be held and taken to be final and conclusive in all subsequent Elections of Members of Parliament for that Place to which the same shall relate, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

LII. And be it enacted, That whenever a Day or Hour shall be appointed by the House for taking any such Petition into Consideration, Notice of such Day and Hour shall be inserted, by Order of the Speaker, in One of the Two next London Gazettes, and also shall be sent by him to the Sheriff or other returning Officer for the Place to which such Petition shall relate; and a true Copy of such Notice shall, by the said Sheriff or other Returning Officer, be forthwith affixed to the Doors of the County Hall or Town Hall, or of the Parish Church nearest to the Place where such Election has usually been held.

LIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, at any Time before the Day so appointed for taking such Petition into Consideration, to petition the House to be admitted as a Party or Parties to defend such Right of Election, or of choosing, nominating, or appointing the Returning Officer or Officers; and such Person or Persons shall thereupon be so admitted, and shall be considered as such to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

LIV. And be it enacted, That at the Hour appointed by the House for taking such Petition into Consideration, the House shall proceed to appoint a Select Committee to try the Merits thereof, in the same Manner as Select Committees are heretofore by this Act directed to be appointed: Provided always, that if the Name of any Member shall be drawn who shall have served on the Select Committee whose Determination forms the Subject of Complaint in the Petition then about to be taken into Consideration, the Name of such Member shall not be entered in the List of Names drawn; and such Select Committee shall be sworn to try and determine the Merits of such Petition, so far as the same relate to any Question or Questions respecting the Right of Election for the Place to which the Petition shall relate, or respecting the Right of appointing, nominating, or choosing the Returning Officer or Returning Officers who are to make Returns of such Election; and the Determination of such Committee on such Question or Questions shall be entered in the Journals of the House, and shall be held and taken to be final and conclusive in all subsequent Elections of Members of Parliament for that Place to which the same shall relate, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

LV. And be it enacted, That all and every the Rules, Regulations, Authorities, or Powers presented and given by this Act to Select Committees for the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns, shall be in full Force and Effect with respect to Select Committees hereby appointed for the Trial of such Question or Questions of Right as aforesaid: Provided always, that the several Rules and Regulations heretofore mentioned, by which certain Persons are directed to enter into Recognizances, and by which certain Persons are made liable to the Payment of Costs, in the particular Manner and in the several Cases heretofore specified, shall not be construed to apply to the Case of any Petition presented to oppose or defend the Determination of any Select Committee on any Question or Questions respecting the Right of Election, or of choosing, nominating, or appointing a Returning Officer or Returning Officers.

LVI. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that Parliament shall be prorogued, after any Petition complaining of an undue Election or Return, or of the Omission to return, shall have been presented, but shall not have been taken into Consideration, the House shall, within Two Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, appoint a Day and Hour for taking the same into Consideration; and if the Parliament shall be prorogued while any Select Committee appointed under the Authority of this Act shall be sitting for the Trial of any such Petition as aforesaid, and before they shall have reported to the House their Determination thereon, such Committee shall not be dissolved by such Prorogation, but shall be thereby adjourned to Twelve of the Clock on the Day immediately following that on which Parliament shall meet again (for the Dispatch of Business (namely, Good Friday, and Christmas Day, always excepted); and all former Proceedings of such Committee shall remain and continue to be of the same Force and Effect as if Parliament had not been so prorogued; and such Committee shall meet on the Day and Hour to which it shall be so adjourned, and shall thenceforward continue to sit from Day to Day, in the Manner heretofore provided, until they shall have reported to the House their Determination on the Merits of such Petition.

LVII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Committee appointed to consider the Merits of any Petition complaining of an undue Election or Return, or of the Omission to return any Member or Members to Parliament, shall report to the House with respect to any such Petition (except as is heretofore excepted), that the same appeared to them to be frivolous or vexatious, the Party or Parties, if any, who shall have appeared before the Committee in opposition to such Petition, shall be entitled to recover from the Person or Persons, or any of them, who shall have signed such Petition, the full Costs and Expenses which such Party or Parties shall have incurred in opposing the same, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner hereinafter directed.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever such Committee shall report to the House, with respect to the Opposition made to such Petition by any Party or Parties who shall have appeared before them, that such Opposition appeared to be frivolous or vexatious, the Person or Persons who shall have signed such Petition shall be entitled to recover from such Party or Parties, or any of them, with respect to whom such Report shall be made, the full Costs and Expenses which such Petitioner or Petitioners shall respectively have incurred in prosecuting their Petition, such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner hereinafter directed.

LIX. And be it enacted, That whenever any Party shall have appeared before any such Committee in opposition to such Petition, and such Committee shall report to the House, with respect to the Election or Return, or to the alleged Unlawfulness of a Return, or to the alleged Insufficiency of a Return, complained of in any such Petition, that the same appeared to them to be venous and corrupt, the Person or Persons who shall have signed such Petition shall be entitled to recover from the sitting Member or sitting Members (if any) whose Election or Return shall be complained of in such Petition (such sitting Member or sitting Members not having given Notice as aforesaid of his or their Intention not to defend the same), or from any other Person or Persons whose the House shall have admitted or decreed to be made a Party or Parties to oppose such Petition, the full Costs and Expenses which such Petitioner or Petitioners shall have incurred in prosecuting their Petition; such Costs and Expenses to be ascertained in the Manner hereinafter directed.

LX. And be it enacted, That the Costs and Expenses of prosecuting or opposing any Petition presented under the Provisions of this Act, and the Costs, Expenses, and Fees which shall be due and payable to any Witness summoned to attend before such Committee, or to any Clerk or Officer of the House of Commons, upon the Trial of any such Petition, shall be ascertained in manner following; (that is to say), that on Application made to the Speaker of the House of Commons within Three Months after the Determination of the Merits of such Petition, by any such Petitioner, Party, Witness, or Officer, as before mentioned, for recovering such Costs, Expenses, or Fees, the Speaker shall direct the same to be taxed by Two Persons, of whom the Clerk or One of the Clerks Assistant of the House shall always be one, and One of the following Officers, not being a Member of the House, shall be the other; (that is to say), Masters in the High Court of Chancery, Clerks in the Court of King's Bench, Prothonotaries in the Court of Common Pleas, and Clerks in the Court of Exchequer; and the Persons so authorized and directed to tax such Costs, Expenses, and Fees shall and they are hereby required to examine the same, and to report the Amount thereof, together with the Name of the Party liable to pay the same, to the Speaker of the said House, who shall, upon Application made to him, deliver to the Party or Parties a Certificate, signed by himself, expressing the Amount of the Costs, Expenses, and Fees allowed in such Report, together with the Name of the Party liable to pay the same; and the Persons so appointed to tax such Costs, Expenses, and Fees, and report the Amount thereof, are hereby authorized to demand and receive for such Taxation and Report such Fees as shall be from time to time fixed by any Resolution of the House; and such Certificate so signed by the Speaker shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount of such Demands, in all Cases and for all Purposes whatsoever; and the Witness, Officer, or Party claiming under the same shall, upon Payment thereof, give a Receipt at the Foot of such Certificate, which shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same.

LXI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases the Persons hereinafter authorized and directed by the Speaker of the House of Commons to tax such Costs and Expenses shall allow all reasonable Costs as between Attorney and Client.

LXII. And be it enacted, That each of the Persons so authorized as aforesaid by the Speaker of the House of Commons to tax such Costs, Expenses, or Fees, and also any Master of the High Court of Chancery, or any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall be, and they and each of them are hereby authorized and empowered to take any Affidavit relative to such Costs, Expenses, or Fees, or the Taxation or Nonpayment thereof, and to administer the Oath for taking such Affidavit; and all and every Person convicted of wilfully false swearing in any Affidavit authorized to be made by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of and under the Penalty on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties entitled to such Costs and Expenses, or for his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, to demand the whole Amount thereof, so certified or shown, from any one or more of the Persons respectively who are hereinafter made liable to the Payment thereof in the several Cases hereinafter mentioned, and in case of Nonpayment thereof to recover the same by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which Action it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to declare that the Defendant or Defendants is or are indebted to him or them in the Sum to which the Costs and Expenses, ascertained in manner aforesaid, shall amount, by virtue of this Act; and the Certificate of such Amount, so signed as aforesaid by the Speaker, shall have the Force and Effect of a Warrant to confound Judgment; and the Court in which such Action shall be commenced shall, upon Motion, and on the Production of such Certificate, enter up Judgment in favour of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs named in such Certificate, for the Sum specified therein to be due from the Defendant or Defendants in such Action, in like Manner as if the said Defendant or Defendants had signed a Warrant to confound Judgment in the said Action to that Amount.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That in every Case where the Amount of such Costs and Expenses shall have been so recovered from any Person or Persons, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons to recover in like Manner, from the other Person, or any of them (if such there shall be), who are liable to the Payment of the same Costs and Expenses, a proportionable Share thereof, according to the Number of Persons so liable.

Costs, where in. current where no Party appears to oppose a Petition, &c.

Costs, how to be ascertained.

Costs to be taxed.

Persons appointed to tax Costs empowered to take Affidavits.

Oath to be taken.

Speaker's Certificate to have the Effect of a Warrant to confound Judgment.

Persons paying Costs may recover a Proportion thereof from other Persons so liable thereto.

Recognizances, when in the interest, &c.

LXV. And be it enacted, That if any Petitioner or Petitioners who shall have entered into such Recognizances as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse, for the Space of Seven Days after Demand, to pay to any Witness who shall have been summoned on his or their Behalf, before the House or such Select Committee, on the Trial of such Petition, the Sum so certified as aforesaid by the Speaker to be due to such Witness, together with the further Sum of Forty Shillings per Diem for every Day during which such Petitioner or Petitioners shall delay to satisfy the same; or if such Petitioner or Petitioners shall neglect or refuse, for the Space of Six Months after Demand, to pay to any Officer of the House, or to any Party who shall appear in opposition to the said Petition, the Sum so certified by the Speaker as aforesaid to be due to such Officer or Party, for their Fees, Costs, or Expenses, and that such Neglect or Refusal shall be proved to the Speaker's Satisfaction, by Affidavit sworn before any Member of the High Court of Chancery (and such Master is hereby authorized to administer such Oath, and is authorized and required to certify such Affidavit under his Hand), in every such Case such Person or Persons shall be held to have made Default in his or their said Recognizance; and the Speaker of the House of Commons shall thereupon certify such Recognizance unto the Court of Exchequer, and shall also certify that such Person or Persons have made Default therein; and such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of such Default: and the Recognizance, being so certified, shall have the same Effect as if the same were extracted from a Court of Law: Provided always, that such Recognizance and Certificate shall in every such Case be delivered by the Clerk or One of the Clerks Assistant of the House of Commons into the Hands of the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, or of One of the Barons of the Exchequer, or of such Officer as shall be appointed by the said Court to receive the same.

Returning Officer may be used for neglecting to return any Persons duly elected.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Sheriff or other Returning Officer or Officers shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any Person who ought to be returned to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, District of Burghs, Port, or Place within Great Britain, every such Person may, in case it shall have been determined by a Select Committee appointed in the Manner herebefore directed, that such Person was entitled to have been returned, sue the Sheriff or other Officer or Officers having so wilfully delayed, neglected, or refused duly to make such Return at his Election, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or of his Court of Session in Scotland, and shall recover Double the Damages he shall sustain by reason thereof, together with full Costs of Suit, provided such Action is commenced within One Year after the Conclusion of any Proceedings in the House of Commons relating to such Election.

Commencement of Act.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the last Day of the present Session of Parliament.

Form of Recognizance referred to in this Act.

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ before us A. B. (Speaker of the House of Commons) or (One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of _____) came C. D., E. F., & J. G. (H. K., & L. M.) and severally acknowledged themselves to owe to our Sovereign Lord the King the following Sums: that is to say, the said C. D. the Sum of One thousand Pounds, and (the said E. F. and the said J. G. the Sum of Five hundred Pounds each), [or, in case there should be Four Parties, the said E. F., J. G., H. K., & L. M. the Sum of Two hundred and Fifty Pounds each]; to be levied on their respective Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements, to the Use of our said Sovereign Lord the King, His Heirs and Successors, in case the said C. D. shall fail in performing the Condition hereunto contained:

The Condition of this Recognizance is, That if the said C. D. shall well and truly pay all Costs and Expenses and Fees which shall be due and payable from the said C. D. to any Witness who shall be summoned to give Evidence in his Behalf, or to any Clerk or Officer of the House of Commons, upon the Trial of the Petition signed by the said C. D. [completing of an under Election or Return for the [here state the Place], or [completing that no Return has been made for the said _____ within the Time limited by Act of Parliament], or [completing that the Return made for the said _____ is not a Return of a Member or Members, according to the Regulation of this writ]; and if the said C. D. shall also well and truly pay the Costs and Expenses of the Party who shall appear before the House in opposition to the said Petition, in case the said C. D. shall fail to appear before the House at such Time or Times as shall be fixed by the House for taking such Petition into Consideration; or in case the said C. D. shall withdraw his said Petition by the Permission of the House; or in case the Select Committee appointed by the House to try the Matter of the said Petition shall report to the House that the said Petition appears to them to be frivolous or vexatious; then this Recognizance to be void, otherwise to be of full Force and Effect.

C A P. XXIII.

An Act to enable Bankers in England to issue certain unstamped Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, upon Payment of a Composition in lieu of the Stamp Duties thereon.

[18th June 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to permit all Persons carrying on the Business of Bankers in England (except within the City of London, or within Three Miles thereof), to issue their Promissory Notes

Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, or to Order within a limited Period after Sight, and to draw Bills of Exchange payable to Order on Demand, or within a limited Period after Sight or Date, on unstamped Paper, upon Payment of a Composition in lieu of the Stamp Duty which would otherwise be payable upon such Notes and Bills respectively, and subject to the Regulations hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons carrying on the Business of a Banker or Bankers in England, (except within the City of London, or within Three Miles thereof) having first duly obtained a Licence for that Purpose, and given Security by Bond in manner hereinafter mentioned, as in and upon unstamped Paper, Promissory Notes for any Sum of Money amounting to Five Pounds or upwards, expressed to be payable to the Bearer on Demand, or to Order, at any Period not exceeding Seven Days after Sight, and also to draw and issue, on unstamped Paper, Bills of Exchange, expressed to be payable to Order on Demand, or at any Period not exceeding Seven Days after Sight, or Twenty-one Days after the Date thereof; provided such Bills of Exchange be drawn upon a Person or Persons carrying on the Business of a Banker or Bankers in London, Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, or provided such Bills of Exchange be drawn by any Banker or Bankers, at a Town or Place where he or they shall be duly licensed to issue unstamped Notes and Bills under the Authority of this Act, upon himself or themselves, or his or their Copartner or Copartners, payable at any other Town or Place where such Banker or Bankers shall also be duly licensed to issue such Notes and Bills as aforesaid.

Commer-Bankers may issue unstamped Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, subject to the Regulations hereinafter mentioned.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners of Stamps to grant to all Persons carrying on the Business of Bankers in England (except as aforesaid), who shall require the same, Licences authorizing such Persons to issue such Promissory Notes, and to draw and issue such Bills of Exchange as aforesaid, on unstamped Paper, which said Licences shall be and are hereby respectively charged with a Stamp Duty of Thirty Pounds for every such Licence.

Commissioners of Stamps may grant Licences to issue on unstamped Notes and Bills.

III. And be it further enacted, That a separate Licence shall be taken out in respect of every Town or Place where any such unstamped Promissory Notes or Bills of Exchange as aforesaid shall be issued or drawn: Provided always, that no Person or Persons shall be obliged to take out more than Four Licences in all for any Number of Towns or Places in England; and in case any Person or Persons shall issue or draw such unstamped Notes or Bills as aforesaid, at more than Four different Towns or Places, then, after taking out Three distinct Licences for Three of such Towns or Places, such Person or Persons shall be entitled to have all the rest of such Towns or Places included in a Fourth Licence.

A separate Licence to be taken for every Place where such Notes or Bills shall be issued, but not to exceed Four Licences for any Number of such Places.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Licence granted under the Authority of this Act shall specify all the Particulars required by Law to be specified in Licences to be taken out by Persons issuing Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, and allowed to be re-issued; and every such Licence which shall be granted between the Tenth Day of October and the Eleventh Day of November in any Year shall be dated on the Eleventh Day of October, and every such Licence which shall be granted at any other Time shall be dated on the Day on which the same shall be granted; and every such Licence shall (notwithstanding any Alteration which may take place in any Corporation of Persons to whom the same shall be granted) have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Tenth Day of October then next following, both inclusive, and no longer.

Regulations respecting Licences.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Banker or Bankers shall have obtained the Licence required by Law for issuing Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, at any Town or Place in England, and during the Continuance of such Licence shall be desirous of taking out a Licence to issue at the same Town or Place unstamped Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps to cancel and allow as spoiled the Stamp upon the said first-mentioned Licence, and in lieu thereof to grant to such Banker or Bankers a Licence under the Authority of this Act; and every such last-mentioned Licence shall also authorize the issuing and re-issuing of all Promissory Notes payable to the Bearer on Demand, which such Banker or Bankers may by Law continue to issue or re-issue at the same Town or Place, on Paper duly stamped.

Commissioners may cancel Licences already taken out, and grant Licences under this Act in lieu thereof.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Banker or Bankers, who shall take out a Licence under the Authority of this Act, shall issue, under the Authority either of this or any other Act, any unstamped Promissory Notes for Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, such Banker or Bankers shall, as long as he or they shall continue licensed as aforesaid, make and issue on unstamped Paper all his or their Promissory Notes for Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, of whatever Amount such Notes may be; and it shall not be lawful for such Banker or Bankers, during the Period aforesaid, to issue for the first Time any such Promissory Note as aforesaid on stamped Paper.

Bankers who licensed under this Act shall not issue, for the first Time, Notes on stamped Paper.

VII. And be it further enacted, That before any Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons to issue or draw any unstamped Promissory Notes or Bills of Exchange under the Authority of this Act, such Person or Persons shall give Security, by Bond, to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with a Condition, that if such Person or Persons do and shall from time to time enter or come to be entered in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose, an Account of all such unstamped Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange as he or they shall or as aforesaid issue or draw, specifying the Amount or Value thereof respectively, and the several Dates of the issuing thereof; and in like Manner also, a similar Account of all such Promissory Notes as, having been issued as aforesaid, shall have been cancelled, and the Dates of the cancelling thereof, and of all such Bills of Exchange as, having been drawn or issued issued as aforesaid, shall have been paid, and the Dates of the Payment thereof, and do and shall from time to time, when thereto requested, produce and shew such Accounts to, and permit the same to be examined and inspected by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or any Officer of Stamps appointed under the Hand and Seal of the said Commissioners for that Purpose, and also do and shall deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamps Halfyearly, (that is to say,) within Fourteen Days after the First Day of January and the First Day of July in every Year, a just and true Account in Writing, verified upon the Oaths or Affirmations (which any Justice of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer,) to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of such Person or Persons, and of his or their Cashier, Accountant, or Chief Clerk, or of each of them as the said Commissioners shall require, of the Amount or Value of all unexchanged Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, issued under the Provisions of this or any former Act, in Circulation within the Meaning of this Act on a given Day, (that is to say,) on a Saturday in every Week, for the Space of Half a Year prior to the Half-yearly Day immediately preceding the Delivery of such Account, together with the Average Amount or Value of such Notes and Bills as is in Circulation, according to such Account; and also do and shall pay or cause to be paid to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties in Great Britain, or to some other Person duly authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps to receive the same, as a Compensation for the Duties which would otherwise have been payable for such Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange issued or in Circulation during each Half Year, the Sum of Three Shillings and Sixpence for every One hundred Pounds, and also for the fractional Part of One hundred Pounds, of the said Average Amount or Value of such Notes and Bills in Circulation, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and so due Performance thereof such Bond shall be void, but otherwise the same shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

VIII. And he is further enacted, That every unstamped Promissory Note payable to the Bearer so Decreed, issued under the Provisions of this Act, shall, for the Purpose of Payment of Duty, be deemed to be in Circulation from the Day of the issuing to the Day of the cancelling thereof, both Days inclusive, excepting nevertheless the Period during which such Note shall be in the Hands of the Banker or Bankers who first issued the same, or by whom the same shall be expressed to be payable; and that every unstamped Promissory Note payable to Order, and every unstamped Bill of Exchange so as aforesaid issued, shall for the Purpose aforesaid be deemed to be in Circulation from the Day of the issuing to the Day of the Payment thereof, both Days inclusive: Provided always, that every such Promissory Note payable to Order, and Bill of Exchange so aforesaid, which shall be paid in less than Seven Days from the issuing thereof, shall, for the Purpose aforesaid, be included in the Account of Notes and Bills in Circulation on the Saturday next after the Day of the issuing thereof as if the same were then actually in Circulation.

18. And be it further enacted, That in every Band to be given pursuant to the Directions of this Act the Person or Persons intending to issue or draw any such antedated, Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange as aforesaid, or each and to every of the said Persons as the Commissioners of Stamp shall require, shall be the Obligors; and every such Band shall be taken in the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or in such larger Sum as the said Commissioners of Stamp may judge to be the probable Amount of the Composition or Duties that will be payable from such Person or Persons, under or by virtue of this Act, during the Period of One Year; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to fix the Time or Times of Payment of the said Composition or Duties, and to specify the same in the Condition to every such Band; and every such Band may be required to be renewed from time to time, as the Discretion of the said Commissioners, and as often as the same shall be forfeited, or the Parties to the same, or any of them, shall die, become bankrupt or insolvent, or reside in Parts beyond the Seas.

And, be it further enacted, That if any Alteration shall be made in any Copartnership of Persons who shall have given any such Security by, from or by this Act is directed, whether such Alteration shall be caused by the Death or Retirement of One or more of the Partners of the Firm, or by the Accession of any additional or new Partner or Partners, a fresh Bond shall be given by the remaining Partner or Partners, or the Persons composing the new Copartnership, as the Case may be, which Bond shall be taken as a Security for the Duties which may be due and owing, or may become due and owing, in respect of the unstamped Notes and Bills which shall have been issued by the Persons composing the old Copartnership, and which shall be in Circulation at the Time of such Alteration, as well as for Duties which shall or may be or become due or owing in respect of the unstamped Notes and Bills issued or to be issued by the Persons composing the new Copartnership; provided that no such fresh Bond shall be rendered necessary by any such Alteration as aforesaid in any Copartnership of Persons exceeding Six in Number, but that the Bonds to be given by such last-mentioned Copartnerships shall be taken as Securities for all the Duties they may incur so long as they shall exist, or the Persons composing the same, or any of them, shall carry on Business in Copartnership together, or with any other Person or Persons, notwithstanding any Alteration in such Copartnership: saving always the Power of the said Commissioners of Stamps to require a new Bond in any Case where they shall deem it necessary for better securing the Payment of the said Duties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall have given Security, by Bond, to His Majesty, in the Manner heretofore directed, shall refuse or neglect to renew such Bond when forfeited, and so often as the same is by this Act required to be renewed, such Person or Persons so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons who shall be licensed under the Provisions of this Act shall draw or issue, or cause to be drawn or issued, upon unstamped Paper, any Provisionary Note payable to Order, or any Bill of Exchange which shall bear Date subsequent to the Day on which it shall be issued, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Note or Bill so drawn or issued, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt or relieve from the Forfeitures or Penalties imposed by any Act or Acts now in Force, upon Persons issuing Provisionary Notes or Bills of Exchange not duly stamped as the Law requires, any Person or Persons who under any Colour or Pretence whatsoever shall issue any unstamped Provisionary Note or Bill of Exchange, unless such Person or Persons shall be duly licensed to issue such Note or Bill under the Provisions of this Act; and such Note or Bill shall be drawn and issued in strict Accordance with the Regulations and Restrictions herein contained.

XIV. And he it further enacted, That all pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties which may be incurred under any of the Provisions of this Act shall be recovered for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in England.

XV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice, alter, or affect any of the Rights, Powers, or Privileges of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

XVI. And Whereas it may happen that Bankers who may be desirous to issue unstamped Provisionary Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, under the Provisions of this Act, may have provided themselves with Stamps for such Notes, which may not have been issued, and which may by this Act be rendered useless or unnecessary, and it is expedient to enable the Commissioners of Stamps to cancel and allow such Stamps in manner hereinafter mentioned, Be it therefore enacted, That where any Banker or Bankers, who shall take out a Licence under the Authority of this Act, shall have in his or their Possession Stamps for use in issuing Provisionary Notes payable to the Bearer on Demand, which shall be rendered useless or unnecessary in consequence of such Banker or Bankers electing to issue such Notes on unstamped Paper under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cancel and allow such Stamps as so farwarded rendered useless or unnecessary, and to repay the Amount or Value thereof in Money, deducting therefrom the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Sum than One hundred Pounds of such Amount or Value; provided Proof be made by Affidavit or Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that such Stamps have not been issued; and provided Application be made for such Allowance within Six Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C. A. P. XXIV.

An Act to repeal certain Acts, and to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Bills of Exchange and Provisionary Notes in Ireland. [18th June 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Acts relating to Bills of Exchange and Provisionary Notes in Ireland should be consolidated and amended, so that the Law in relation thereto may be uniform to that of England; and also that the Form payable to Notaries Public in Ireland, for noting and protesting such Bills and Notes, should be regulated and defined: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the better Payment of Ireland Bills of Exchange, and making Provisionary Notes more obligatory; and also an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, to explain and amend the said Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne; and also an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to regulate Acceptances of Bills of Exchange; and also an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His present Majesty's Reign intitled An Act for altering the Law in relation to Bills of Exchange and Provisionary Notes becoming payable on Good Friday or Christmas Day, so far as the said Two last-mentioned Acts or either of them relate to or are in force in Ireland, shall, from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, be and the same are hereby repealed; except so far as any of the said Acts may repeal any former Act or Acts, and except as to Persons or Sums hereinafter mentioned and prosecuted upon any of the said so hereby repealed Acts respectively.

II. And he it enacted, That when any Note in Writing commonly called a Provisionary Note shall at any Time after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight be made and signed by any Person or Persons, Banker or Bankers, Goldsmith or Goldsmiths, Merchant or Merchants, Trader or Traders, or by any Clerk, Servant, or Agent usually employed by him, her, or them to sign such Provisionary Notes for him, her, or them, whereby the Maker or Makers of such Note, each or do or shall promise to pay, any Sum of Money mentioned therein to any other Person or Persons, his, her, or their Order, or unto Bearer, such Note shall be taken and construed to be, by virtue thereof, due and payable to the Person or Persons to whom the same is made payable, or to the Bearer thereof respectively; and every such Note payable to any Person or Persons, or to his, her, or their Order, shall be stamped Notes or Bills.

Then Act not to exempt from Provision any Person issuing unstamped Notes or Bills not in accordance herewith.

Recovery of Penalties.

Not to affect the Privileges of the Bank of England.

Where any Banker taking out Licence under this Act shall have Stamps in their Possession which will become useless, the Commissioners may cancel such Stamps, and make Allowance for the same.

Act may be altered.

After the 1st Sept. 1828, the Irish Acts Anne and Geo 3. relating to Provisionary Notes, and so much of 1 Geo 5. c. 6. 7. 8. and 7 Geo 3. c. 15. (U.K.) as relate to Provisionary Notes in Ireland, repealed.

Provisionary Notes need be negotiable as Bills of Exchange.

assignable or indorsable over in the same Manner as inland Bills of Exchange are or may be according to the Custom of Merchants; and the Person or Persons to whom such Sum of Money is or shall be by any such Note or Indorsement be made payable, or to whom such Note shall be indorsed or assigned, or shall be payable, shall and may maintain an Action for the same, in such Manner as he, she, or they might do upon any inland Bill of Exchange made or drawn according to the Custom of Merchants, either against the Person or Persons by whom or by whose Servant or Agent as aforesaid the same was signed, or against any of the Persons having indorsed such assignable or indorsable Note, in like Manner as in Cases of inland Bills of Exchange; and so every such Action the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover his, her, or their Damages and Costs of Suit; and if such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be convicted, or a Verdict shall be given against him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Costs against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; and every such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, respectively recovering, may sue out Execution for such Damages and Costs by Capias, Peri facias, or Writ.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Action shall be commenced, sued, and brought within such Time as is appointed for commencing or suing Actions upon the Case, by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, intitled An Act for Limitation of Actions, and for avoiding of Suits at Law.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, in all Cases where any inland Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note for the Sum of Five Pounds and upwards respectively shall be dishonoured by Non-acceptance of such Bill, or Nonpayment of such Bill or Note, it shall be lawful for the Holder or Holders of such Bill or Note, to cause the same to be protested for such Non-acceptance or Nonpayment, as the Case may be, by a Notary Public, and in default of such Notary Public, by any other substantial Person of the City, Town, or Place where such Bill or Note shall be so dishonoured, in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses; which Protest shall be made and written under a fair written Copy of such Bill or Note, in the Form or to the Effect following:

Form of Protest.
 "KNOW all Men, That I A. B. on the Day of have which the above is a Copy, which the said did not pay, [or accept]; Wherefore I the said do hereby protest the said Bill [or Note]. Dated as this Day of "

Notice of Protest to be given.
 Which Protest so made as aforesaid shall be sent, or otherwise due Notice of such Dishonour shall be given, by or on behalf of the Party holding or protesting such Bill or Note, to the Party from whom such Bill or Note was received, and whom it is sought to make chargeable therewith, and such Party shall thereupon pay the said Bill or Note, together with all Interest and Charges from the Day when such Bill or Note was protested; and there shall be paid to the Notary or other Person protesting any such Bill or Note a Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for any Bill or Note not amounting to Twenty Pounds, and a Sum of Four Shillings for any Bill or Note amounting to Twenty Pounds and upwards, over and above all Stamp Duty upon such Protest, and also of the Fee of One Shilling, hereinafter provided, for registering and copying such Bill; and in case such Protest shall be made and sent, or such due Notice of the Dishonour of such Bill or Note shall be given as aforesaid, to any Person liable to the Payment thereof by reason of such Dishonour, the Person so receiving such Protest or Notice, and failing or neglecting to pay the Amount of such Bill or Note so protested or dishonoured, together with the Costs of such Protest, shall be liable to all Costs, Damages, and Interest which may and shall accrue thereby.

Expenses of Protest.
 V. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall happen that any Bill or Note shall be lost or mis-carried before the same shall have been presented for Acceptance, or within the Time limited for Payment of the same, then the Drawer of such Bill, or the Maker of such Note, shall be obliged to give another Bill or Note of the same Tenor with the Bill or Note first given, the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be so delivered giving Security, if demanded, to the said Drawer or Maker, to indemnify him against all Persons whatsoever, in case the Bill or Note so alleged to be lost or mis-carried shall be found again.

When a Bill or Note is lost, the Drawer to give another, on certain Conditions.
 VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, if any Person doth or shall receive any such Bill or Note, for and in Satisfaction of any former Debt, or of any Sum of Money formerly due unto such Person, the same shall be accounted and returned, at Law and in Equity, a full and complete Payment of such Debt, if such Person so receiving any such Bill or Note for his Debt shall not use due Diligence to obtain Payment thereof by underscrowing to get such Bill accepted and paid, or such Note paid, and also make his Protest as aforesaid, either for Non-acceptance or Nonpayment thereof, or otherwise give due Notice of the Dishonour thereof as aforesaid; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to satisfy or discharge any other and different Security or Remedy that any Person using such due Diligence as aforesaid may have for the same Debt against the Drawer, Acceptor, or Indorser of such Bill, or the Maker or Indorser of such Note.

IDs accepted in satisfaction of any former Debt, to be deemed a full Payment.
 VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, if any Person shall accept a Bill of Exchange payable at the House of a Banker or other Person, without further Expression in his Acceptance, such Acceptance shall be deemed

and unless to be, to all Intents and Purposes, a general Acceptance of such Bill; but if the Acceptor shall in his Acceptance express that he accepts the Bill payable at the House of a Banker, or of any other Person only, or not otherwise or elsewhere, such Acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, a qualified Acceptance of such Bill, and the Acceptor shall not be liable to pay such Bill, except in default of Payment when such Payment shall have been duly demanded at the Time when such Bill shall have become payable, and at the House of such Banker, or other Place where such Bill shall have been made payable.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, no Acceptance of any Inland Bill of Exchange shall be sufficient to charge any Person or Persons, unless such Acceptance shall have been made in Writing upon such Bill, or if there be more than One such Bill of the same Tenor and Date, then on One of the said Bills.

IX. And Whereas the Bank of Ireland, and Banks in general, and other Persons in Ireland, are in effect under the Necessity of transacting Business on Good Friday, Christmas Day, and Days appointed by His Majesty's Proclamation for solemn Fasts or Days of Thanksgiving, for the Purpose of receiving Money for Foreign and Inland Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes becoming payable on those Days respectively, in consequence whereof many Persons are prevented observing the same with due Solemnity: And Whereas Doubts have existed in Ireland, whether Foreign and Inland Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes falling due on any Sunday are properly payable on the Saturday next before such Sunday, or on the Monday next after such Sunday: Now therefore, for the better Obvi-ance of such Doubts, and such Days of Fast and Thanksgiving as aforesaid, and also for the removing such Doubts as aforesaid, and maintaining the Law of Ireland to that of England in such respects, Be it enacted, That in all Cases where any such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note in Ireland shall fall due on any Sunday, or on any Good Friday, or on any Christmas Day, or on any such Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving, the same shall be payable on the Day next preceding such Sunday or such Good Friday, or on the Day (not being a Sunday) next preceding such Christmas Day or Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving respectively: and that in case of Nonpayment of such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note, the same may be noted and protested on such preceding Day as if the same were payable on such Day; and that whenever such Christmas Day shall fall on, or such Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving shall be appointed on a Monday, every such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note, which would be payable on such Christmas Day or Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving, shall be payable on the Saturday preceding such Christmas Day or Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving respectively, and in case of Nonpayment, being first duly demanded, may be noted and protested for Payment on such preceding Saturday.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, in Cases of Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes falling due on any Sunday, Good Friday, or any Christmas Day, or on any Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving as aforesaid, as well as in the Cases of Foreign or Inland Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes falling due in Ireland on the Day preceding any Sunday, or any Good Friday, or any Christmas Day, or any such Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving, it shall not be necessary for the Holder or Holders of such Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes to give Notice of the Dishonour thereof until the Day next after such Sunday, or Good Friday, or Christmas Day, or Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving; and in case such Christmas Day shall fall, or such Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving shall be appointed on a Saturday, it shall not be necessary for the Holder or Holders of such Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes to give Notice of the Dishonour thereof until the Monday next after such Christmas Day or Day of Fast or Thanksgiving; and that whenever such Christmas Day shall fall on, or such Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving shall be appointed on a Monday, it shall not be necessary for the Holder or Holders of such Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes, to shall either, by virtue of this Act or otherwise, be payable on the preceding Saturday, to give Notice of the Dishonour thereof until the Tuesday next after such Christmas Day or Day of Fast or Day of Thanksgiving respectively; and that every such Notice so given as aforesaid shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, Good Friday and Christmas Day, and every such Day of Fast and Thanksgiving as appointed by His Majesty, be and shall, for all other Purposes whatsoever as regards Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes, be treated and considered in Ireland as the Lords Day commonly called Sunday.

XII. And Whereas it is the Usage and Custom of Ireland for Bankers and Banking Companies, and Merchants and other Persons having Offices of Business, to attend therein daily until the Hour of Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, for the Purpose of receiving Payment (should the same be offered) of such Foreign or Inland Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes whereof they are the Holders, as had been presented for Payment at some earlier Hour of the Day upon which the same became payable, and which had not then been paid upon such Presentation: and in such Cases the Holder of such Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes when such Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes are not paid at or before the said Hour of Six of the Clock on the said Day of Payment, have been used to send the same to a Notary Public, in order that the same may be by him again presented for Payment, and in case of Nonpayment noted for Protest: And Whereas Doubts have existed whether the Acceptors of Bills of Exchange, and the Makers of Promissory Notes, have not by Law till the last instant of the Day upon which the same respectively may become due to pay the same; and by reason of such Doubts Notaries Public in Ireland have been required, at late and unreasonable Hours of the Good Friday, &c. for the Purpose of this Act, to be considered throughout as Sunday.

• Night, to receive Payment of such Bills or Notes as might come previous Hour of the same Day has • been presented for Payment as aforesaid; And Whereas it is expedient that such Bills should be • removed, and that the said convenient Places aforesaid thereby should be discontinued; Be it
 • therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred
 • twenty-eight, in any Case where any Notary Public as aforesaid shall present any Bill of Exchange, whether • Foreign or Inland, or Promissory Note, for Payment thereof as aforesaid, and Payment of the same shall
 • not be made on or before the Hour of Nine of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Day of such Presentation,
 • it shall not be necessary for such Notary Public, or any Person for him at his House or Office, as he or

XV. And be it enacted, That all Public Notaries practicing in the City of Dublin, shall keep a Public Office in some known and convenient Street or Place in the said City, on which the Name of each Notary and his Profession shall be set forth in legible Characters: and that the said Notaries shall keep their Offices open from Six of the Clock in the Afternoon until Nine of the Clock in the Evening of every Day (Sunday, Good Friday, Christmas Day, and Days of Fast and Days of Thanksgiving as aforesaid excepted).

XVI. And it is hereby further declared and enacted, That all Places within the City or County of Dublin over which the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for paving, cleansing, and lighting the City of Dublin, commonly called the Paving Board, extends, pursuant to an Act passed in the Forty-seventh Year of His late Majesty George the Third, entitled An Act for the more effectual Improvement of the City of Dublin and the Liberties thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be for the Purposes of this Act within the Bounds or Limits of the said City of Dublin.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal or alter the Provisions of any Act relating to Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes now in force in Ireland, saving so far as the same are repealed or altered by the express Provisions of this Act.

C A P. XXV.

An Act to authorize the Appointment of Persons to act as Solicitors on behalf of His Majesty in any Court or Jurisdiction in Revenue Matters. [1828, June 1828.]

WHEREAS it has been found greatly conducive to the Public Interest that Persons specially appointed by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or by the several Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue, to be Solicitors or Attorneys on behalf of His Majesty, should act and practice as such Solicitors or Attorneys without being admitted and enrolled as Solicitors or Attorneys, and without being subject, by reason of such acting or practicing, to any of the Regulations in force in any Part of the United Kingdom relating to Solicitors or Attorneys: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Person has been or is or shall be appointed to be Solicitor or Attorney on behalf of His Majesty, under the Orders and Directions of the Commissioners of the Treasury, Customs, Excise, or Straits, or under the Orders and Directions of any Commissioners or other Persons or Persons having the Management of any other Branch of His Majesty's Revenue, for the Time being, it is and shall and may be lawful for such Person to act and practice as such Solicitor or Attorney under such Orders and Directions in all and every Court and Cause, Jurisdiction, and Jurisdiction, Place and Places, in any and every Part of the United Kingdom; any Thing in any Act of Parliament, or in any Order or Rule of any Court of Justice, or any Law, Usage, or Custom in force in any Part of the United Kingdom relating to Solicitors or Attorneys, or to the Admission or Practice of such Solicitors or Attorneys, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall or may have acted as such Solicitor or Attorney under or in pursuance of or in obedience to any such Appointment, Orders, and Directions as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby respectively indemnified for and an account of the same, and of any Act or Thing done in pursuance of or in obedience to or in conformity with such Appointment, Orders, and Directions; and of any Action, Suit, Prosecution, or Proceedings hath been or shall be commenced against any Person, for or in respect of any Act, Matter, or Thing done under such Appointment, Orders, or Directions as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defender in any such Action, Suit, Prosecution, or Proceedings, in or before whatever Court the same may be commenced or laid, to apply to such Court by Motion in a summary Way to stay all Proceedings whatever against such Defendant or Defender, and such Court is hereby required to make Order for that Purpose accordingly.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act to regulate the Office of Keeper of the General Register of Births and Deaths in Scotland. [1828, June 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to abolish certain Offices, and to regulate others, in Scotland, it is enacted, that from and after and upon the Termination respectively of the then existing Interests in certain Offices therein mentioned, viz. the Office of Auditor of the Exchequer in Scotland, the Office of King's Remembrancer in Exchequer in Scotland, the Office of Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer in Exchequer in Scotland, the Office of Presenter of Signatures in Exchequer in Scotland, the Office of Keeper of the General Register of Sessions in Scotland, the Office of Clerk to the Administration of Mortgages in Scotland, the Office of Director of the Chancery in Scotland, the Office of Clerk of the Chancery in Scotland, and the Office of the Clerk of the Court of Admiralty in Scotland, and as soon as the said Offices, or any or either of these respectively, should become vacant, the Duties thereof should be discharged by the Officer appointed to hold the same in Person; and from time to time as any of the said respective Offices should become vacant, it should be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, and they were thereby authorized and required to regulate the Duties and Establishments of the said Offices respectively, as they respectively became vacant, so as that the several Duties to be discharged therein respectively should

to be performed in Persons; and thereupon and thereafter such and such Number of fit and proper Persons should be appointed, or should be authorized and directed to be appointed, as might be sufficient and necessary to perform and execute the Duties to be done, performed, and executed in the said Offices respectively, as the said Commissioners should deem fit, with such Salaries and Allowances as should be ordered and appointed by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury in that Behalf, regard being had in every such Case to the Nature and Extent of the Duties to be performed, and to the Responsibility which might attach or belong to the several or respective Offices or Persons executing the Duties of said Offices respectively: and all such Regulations, Appointments, Salaries, and Allowances, when so made and established, should become and be in full Force and Effect in relation to the said Offices respectively, any Thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law, or Laws, or Usage, Custom, or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding: provided always, that any Fees then charged or chargeable for or in respect of any of the said Offices, or received or receivable, according to Law, in any of the said Offices respectively, should continue to be received, and the same should be applied in Payment of the Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, authorised by the said recited Act to be granted or made in each of the said Offices in which such Fees should be received; and if any Balance of such Fees should remain, after paying and satisfying such Salaries or Allowances respectively, the same should be paid at least twice in Three Months to the Receiver General of Scotland, and should by him be paid and accounted for in the same Manner with any Public Money received and accounted for by him: And Whereas the Office of Keeper of the General Register of Harbours and Indulgences in Scotland is now vacant, and it is expedient that this Office should be regulated, and that the whole Provision of the said recited Act hereto set forth should extend and apply to the said Offices: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Provisions of the said recited Act hereto set forth shall all of them extend and be held to apply to, and shall apply to, the Office of Keeper of the General Register of Harbours and Indulgences in Scotland.

II. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That all Matters and Things relative to the Regulation of the said Office, the Discharge of its Duties in Person, its Establishment, Allowances, Payment of Fees, and the Application thereof, shall all of them be judged of, fixed, and determined in the same Manner in all respects as if the said Office of Keeper of the General Register of Harbours and Indulgences had been established in the said recited Act along with the other Offices enumerated in the Provision thereof hereto set forth.

An Act to repeal the Allowances made to Stationers on the Purchase of Stamps for Receipts at the Head Office in London, and to grant an Allowance to Persons purchasing such Stamps in a certain Amount of the Commissioners of Stamps or of the Distributors of Stamps in Great Britain. [10th June 1828.]

44 G. 2. c. 26. WHETHERAS by an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties under the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper in Great Britain, and to grant new and additional Duties in lieu thereof, certain Allowances, not forth in the Schedule marked (G.) to the said Act enacted, are directed to be made, and amongst others to every Person who at one and the same Time should produce at the Head Office for Stamps in London to be stamped, or shall buy of the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, charged with any Stamp Duty to the Amount in the Whole of Thirty Pounds or upwards, an Allowance after the Rate of One Pound Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds, and to Stationers who shall Purchase Stamps for Receipts to the Amount at one and the same Time of Ten Pounds, on the Terms in the said Schedule mentioned, an Allowance after the Rate of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds, over and above the usual Allowance on the present Payment of Stamp Duties to the Amount of Twenty Pounds and upwards: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Allowance of One Pound Ten Shillings per Centum, so far as the same relates to the Stamp Duty on Receipts, and also to repeal the said Allowance of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum by the said Act directed to be made to Stationers on the Purchase of Stamps for Receipts; and in order to encourage and promote the Purchase and Distribution of Stamps for Receipts in Places remote from the Head Office for Stamps, it is also expedient that in lieu of the said Allowances so to be repealed a liberal Allowance should be made to all Persons who shall at one and the same Time purchase Stamps for Receipts, to the Amount hereinafter mentioned, of the Commissioners of Stamps, or of any Distributor or Sub-distributor of Stamps in any Part of Great Britain, and that the said Commissioners should be authorized and directed to issue Stamps for Receipts upon Paper provided by them, without making any Charge upon the Persons to whom such Stamps shall be issued for the Paper upon which the same shall be impressed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight the said Allowance of One Pound Ten Shillings per Centum granted by the said recited Act, so far as the same relates to the Duty upon Receipts, and also the said Allow-

Certain Powers of recited Act to extend to the Office of Register of Harbours and Indulgences in Scotland: Office to be under the same Regulations as if it had been included in the recited Act.

From the 20th July 1828, the Allowance granted by the sum of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum by the said Act directed to be made to Stationers on the Purchase of Stamps for Receipts, shall be and the same are hereby respectively repealed: and in lieu of the said Allowance hereby repealed, and of all other Allowances on the Purchase of Stamps for Receipts, there shall be made to every Person who at one and the same Time shall buy of the Commissioners of Stamps, at their Head Office for Stamps in London, Stamps for Receipts to the Amount of Five Pounds or upwards, or who at one and the same Time shall buy of any Distributor or Sub-distributor of Stamps in any other Part of Great Britain, not being within the Distance of Ten Miles from the said Head Office, Stamps for Receipts to the Amount of One Pound or upwards, an Allowance of the Sum of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds, and so in proportion for any greater or less Sum than One hundred Pounds of such Stamps so purchased, not under Five Pounds or One Pound respectively: Provided always, that no Allowance shall be made for any fractional Part of the Sum of One Pound.

11. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized and required, to issue Stamps for Receipts upon Paper provided by them, without making any Charge upon the Person or Persons to whom such Stamps shall be issued for the Paper upon which the same shall be impressed.

12. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in such Cases as they shall think proper, to grant to any Person who shall at one and the same Time purchase, at the Head Office for Stamps in London, Paper or Parchment to be stamped for Receipts to the Amount of Five Pounds or upwards, on which any Special Form shall be printed, such Form being applicable solely to the Business of any One Person or Firm, the said Allowance of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of the Amount of the Duty on such Stamps for Receipts, and so in proportion for any greater or less Sum than One hundred Pounds.

13. And Whereas it is highly improper that any Vendor of Stamps for Receipts should, upon the Sale thereof, make any Charge for the Paper upon which such Stamps are impressed, seeing that such Paper is by this Act directed to be supplied gratis by the Commissioners of Stamps: Be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, upon the Sale of any Stamp or Stamps for a Receipt or Receipts, shall make any Charge to the Purchaser of such Stamp or Stamps for the Paper whereon the same shall be impressed, or shall, under any Colour or Pretence whatever, demand or receive a greater Price or Sum than the Amount of the Stamp Duty denoted by such Stamp or Stamps, every such Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be used for and recovered, levied and applied, in such and the same Manner as any Penalties under any other Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties may be used for, recovered, levied, and applied.

14. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any Person or Persons from making any Charge for any bound Book containing Stamps for Receipts, or for any Folio Sheet of Paper containing not more than One Stamp, or for any Slip or Piece of Vellum or Parchment whereon any such Stamp or Stamps may be impressed, nor to inflict any Penalty or Penalties by reason of the making of any such Charge as aforesaid.

15. And Whereas many Tradesmen, Shopkeepers, and other Persons have, through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertence, written Receipts upon Paper not duly stamped as the Law requires, whereby they have unwittingly incurred divers pecuniary Penalties: and it is expedient to relieve all Persons from such pecuniary Penalties so incurred before the passing of this Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who may have written or signed, or caused to be written or signed, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper not duly stamped as the Law requires, any Receipt, Discharge, or Acquittance, for or upon the Payment of Money, shall be and is and are hereby relieved and indemnified from and against all pecuniary Forfeitures and Penalties incurred by reason of any such Offence as aforesaid committed at any time or times before the passing of this Act: and that all Actions, Informations, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been commenced, filed, or prosecuted, and are now pending, or which shall or may hereafter be commenced, filed, or prosecuted, against any Person or Persons, for the Recovery of any such pecuniary Forfeiture or Penalty as aforesaid incurred before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby discharged and made void.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act to enlarge the Powers granted to His Majesty under an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of His late Majesty, to enable His Majesty to recompense the Service of Persons holding, or who have held, certain high and efficient Civil Offices. [15th June 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled "An Act to enable His Majesty to recompense the Service of Persons holding, or who have held, certain high and efficient Civil Offices, with a View to enable His Majesty to recompense the meritorious Services of Persons who may fill high efficient Civil Offices, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to grant to any Person who shall have served His Majesty, for any Period not less than Two Years in the whole, as First Lord of the Treasury, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or as Chancellor of the Exchequer, a Pension for Life not exceeding Three thousand Pounds per Annum: And Whereas His Majesty was further empowered by the said Act to grant one other like Pension, enacted Act to enable His Majesty to recompense the Service of Persons holding, or who have held, certain high and efficient Civil Offices, with a View to enable His Majesty to recompense the meritorious Services of Persons who may fill high efficient Civil Offices, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to grant to any Person who shall have served His Majesty, for any Period not less than Two Years in the whole, as First Lord of the Treasury, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or as Chancellor of the Exchequer, a Pension for Life not exceeding Three thousand Pounds per Annum: And Whereas His Majesty was further empowered by the said Act to grant one other like Pension, Commissioners to issue Stamps for Receipts without any Charge for Paper.

Commissioners authorized to grant the Allowance on stamping Special Forms.

Penalty on Vendors of Stamps charging for the Paper, &c.

Not to prevent one Charge for the Stamp of the Value or Performance.

Persons relieved from all pecuniary Penalties incurred by giving unstamped Receipts prior to the passing of this Act.

not subject to such Limitations and Restrictions as aforesaid: And Whereas His Majesty was pleased by a Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, bearing Date the Sixth Day of February One Thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, to grant a Pension of Three thousand Pounds to the Right Honourable George Canning, who had filled the Office of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: And Whereas the said Right Honourable George Canning, having during his Life held various high and effective Civil Offices, and having served His Majesty and the Country with the most eminent Talents, and the most distinguished Zeal and Integrity, died on the Eighth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, holding on the Time of his Death the Offices of First Lord of the Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer: And Whereas the said Right Honourable George Canning never received any Payment on account of the said Pension so granted to him by His Majesty in consideration of his Services; and it is therefore just and fitting, under the special Circumstances of this Case, so far to extend the Powers granted to His Majesty under the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, as to enable His Majesty to make Provisions for the Family of the said Right Honourable George Canning: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, if He shall so think fit, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, signed and countersigned in the Manner required by the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, subject to the Regulations and Provisions of the said Act, to grant to any Person who may be nominated by His Majesty as Trustee in Trust for the Benefit of the Family of the late Right Honourable George Canning, and for the Life of Charles Canning, Second Son of the late Right Honourable George Canning, one of the said Pensions of Three thousand Pounds as aforesaid, which His Majesty, in by the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of His late Majesty empowered to grant, and in the Warrant granting the same to make such Provision and Regulations, as to the Application of the said Pension by the said Trustee for the Benefit of the said Charles Canning, or of his Brother William Pitt Canning, or of Viscountess Canning, or of all or either of them, as to His Majesty may seem fit.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if His Majesty shall be graciously pleased to grant such Pension accordingly, the Pension so granted to the said Trustee as aforesaid shall be deemed, considered, and counted as one of the Number of Pensions allowed by the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and that so long as the said Charles Canning shall live, it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to grant more than Five other such Pensions, exclusive of the superannuated Pensions which His Majesty is, under the said Act, empowered to grant; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to authorize additional Circuit Courts of Justiciary to be held, and to facilitate Criminal Trials, in Scotland. [18th Jan 1828.]

WHEREAS from the great Increase of Criminal Offences in Scotland it is expedient that Provision should be made for holding additional Circuit Courts of Justiciary, and that Means should be taken for facilitating Criminal Trials, in Scotland: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, and the said Court is hereby authorized and required, on or before the Twentieth Day of November in every Year, to do, by Act of Adjournment, a Day for holding a Circuit Court of Justiciary at Glasgow, for trying Criminal Causes during the Recess of the Court of Session, in the End of December and beginning of January yearly, and to name Two of the Judges of the said High Court to discharge the Duty of the said Circuit Court; and such Circuit Court shall be held at Glasgow accordingly, and shall be continued from Day to Day, until the whole Criminal Business to be brought before the Court at that Time is concluded, and no longer:
 Provided always, that the Judges so named, and each of them, shall possess, as they are hereby vested with, all Powers which belong to and can be exercised by any Lord Commissioner of Justiciary in any other Circuit Court.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Judge or Judges of the Court of Justiciary to discharge the Duty of the Circuit Court hereby appointed, or of any other Circuit Court, notwithstanding such Judge or Judges may not have been specially named for that Duty.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by an Order to be made in His or Their Privy Council, from time to time, as Occasion may require, to direct that additional Circuit Courts shall be held in any Town at which Circuit Courts are in use to be held, and at such Time or Times of the Year as to His Majesty may seem meet, and upon such Order being communicated to the High Court of Justiciary, the said Court shall, and they are hereby required and empowered, by Act of Adjournment, to give all necessary Directions for carrying such Order into Effect.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if, in consequence of the Diminution of Criminal Offences, such Circuit Courts, or any of them, shall be deemed unnecessary, it shall in like Manner be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by an Order to be made in His or Their Privy Council, from time to time to dispart with the holding of the additional Circuit Court at Glasgow hereby directed to be held, and with any other Circuit Courts which His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by Order made in His or Their Privy Council, may have directed to be held in any Place in Scotland.

V. And be it enacted, That ~~as much as is contained in the English Year of the Fifth of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, entitled An Act for discharging the Attendance of Noblemen, Barons, and Freeholders, upon the Lords of Justiciary in their Courts as that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for abolishing the Method of exhibiting Criminal Informations by the Petitioners Bail, as relates to Proceedings of Crimes to be tried in the Circuit Courts, and the Transmissions of the same, with Writs and Evidence, to the Lord Justice Clerk, or his Deputies, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and it is hereby enacted, that hereafter all Crimes may be tried before any Circuit Court of Justiciary by Indictment, in the same Manner as before the High Court of Justiciary, at Edinburgh.~~

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the Twenty-seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, instead of a short Copy of Citation being left with a Person accused, every Copy of a Criminal Libel served on such Person shall have marked upon it a Notice to be subscribed by the Officer of the Law who serves the same, and by One Person who shall witness such Service, in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and therein designated by the Letter A, which Form of Notice shall be observed in the Service of all Criminal Libels in Scotland; and it shall not be necessary for such Officer to subscribe any other Part of such Copy of a Libel.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be no Objection to such Service, or to the Citation of any Juror or Witness, that the Officer who discharged the Duty was not at the Time presented of the Warrant of Citation; and it is hereby provided that the Execution of Citation of all Criminal Libels shall be in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and designated by the Letter B, which Execution it shall not be necessary to produce, unless Sentence of Purgation or of Forfeiture of a Bond of Caution, granted for Appearance is moved Trial, shall be moved for, but without Prejudice to such Execution being exhibited to disprove Objections to Service when stated to the Court; and it shall be no Objection to the Admissibility of the Officer or Witness who served such Libel, to give Evidence respecting such Service, that their Names are not included in the List of Witnesses served on the Accused.

VIII. And be it enacted, That Copies of Criminal Libels served on Persons accused, and all Notices of Compurgance or Attendance, whether left with Parties accused, or Jurors or Witnesses, and all Executions of Citation, may be either printed or in Writing, or partly both.

IX. And be it enacted, That when the Charge of Act and Part is set forth in the Outset of a Criminal Libel, it shall not be necessary to repeat that Charge in the latter Part thereof, according to the Form usually observed in the Charge commencing with the Words "at least," and that it shall be competent altogether to omit the said Charge; any Law or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And Whereas Objections and Exceptions are raised to the Form and Mode of citing Witnesses and Jurors, and of setting forth the Executions of such Citations: Be it enacted, That it shall not be competent in any Criminal Cause or Prosecution whatsoever for any Prosecutor or Person accused to state any Objection to any Juror or to any Witness, on the Ground of such Juror or Witness appearing without Citation, or without having been duly cited to attend.

XI. And be it enacted, That if, owing to any Error in the Name or Designation of a Witness, as given in the List served along with the Criminal Libel, a Person accused can make it appear that he has been unable to find out such Witness, or that he has been misled or deceived in his Inquiries concerning such Witness, the same shall be stated to the Court before the Jury is sworn, and the Court shall thereupon give such Remedy as may be just, and no Objection of that Description shall be afterwards received.

XII. And be it enacted, That when a Person accused, on being brought to the Bar, shall say that he means to plead Not guilty, and does not desire that the Criminal Libel exhibited against him should be read over, it shall not be necessary to read over such Libel before proceeding to the Trial of such Person.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every Quaker who shall be required to give Evidence in any Criminal Cause or Prosecution shall, instead of taking the Oath in the usual Form, be permitted to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration, in the Words following: witness, 'I do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm:' which Affirmation or Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect, in all Courts of Justice, as if such Quaker had taken an Oath in the usual Form; and if any Quaker making such Affirmation or Declaration shall be convicted of having affirmed and declared any Matter or Thing in such a Way as if the same had been sworn to in the usual Form it would have amounted to Perjury, every such Offender shall be subject to the same Punishment in which Persons convicted of Perjury are liable; and if any Quaker shall refuse to make such Affirmation and Declaration, or having made the same shall refuse to give Evidence, or shall wilfully conceal the Truth, or be guilty of wilful Persecution, such Quaker shall be liable to the same Parts of Law which apply to such Offences respectively when an Oath is administered.

XIV. And be it enacted, That when, after an Interdictor of Relevancy shall have been pronounced, a Person indicted before any Criminal Court shall plead Guilty to the Crime or Crimes of which such Person is accused, it shall no longer be necessary to name a Jury for the Purpose of deciding on the Guilt of such Person, but the Court before which such accused Person shall be tried shall, upon such Confession being made, have Power forthwith to pronounce the Sentence of the Law in the same Manner as if a Verdict of Guilty had been returned: Provided always, that such Plea of Guilty shall be made in open Court, and shall then and there be subscribed by the Pleader, or by the Pleader's Procurator, and shall be authenticated by the Signature of the Judge.

XV. And

So much of 5 Ann. c. 16. as relates to Proceedings of Crimes in the Lord Justice Clerk, repealed.

Crimes may be tried before any Circuit Court.

Instead of a short Copy of Citation being left with the Party, a Notice in the Form of Schedule A shall be served.

Form of Notice or Citation of Criminal Matters.

Libels and Notices may be printed or in Writing.

Exception in the Case of a Charge of Act and Part.

Witnesses or Persons appearing without Citation may be objected to.

Objections as to Error shall be stated to the Court before the Jury is sworn.

If Perjury be pleaded, the Libel need not be read over.

Affirmation of Quakers to be admitted.

Verdict of Jury
how to be recorded.

XV. And be it enacted, That Verdicts in Writing shall be discontinued in all Cases where the Verdict is returned before the Court adjourns; and when on a Trial before the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, a Jury shall return as assiders of their Verdict, it shall be sufficient, that One Judge shall remain in Court to receive the Verdict, which Judge shall have Power to see the Verdict duly recorded when delivered, and to dismiss the Jury, and to authenticate the Panel, if not assisted by such Verdict; but if the Panel shall be found guilty, or the Terms of the Verdict be such as may appear to require Consideration by the Court, such Judge shall continue the Diet, and commit the Panel to Prison.

the Court.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the cumulative Jurisdiction of the High Court of Justiciary, with that of the High Court of Admiralty, shall extend to all Crimes and Offences whatsoever now competent to be tried in the said Court of Admiralty.

Admiralty and Sheriff's Courts to proceed on Trial without reducing the Evidence to Writing.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the High Court of Admiralty and for the Court of the Sheriff respectively, to proceed in, try, and determine all Causes and Prosecutions for Crimes before them, where the Trial is by Jury, by Verdict of such Jury, upon examining and hearing the Evidence of the Witness or Witnesses in any such Cause or Prosecution oral and viva, without reducing into Writing the Testimony of any such Witness or Witnesses, in the same Manner and according to the same Rules as are observed in Trials before the Court of Justiciary; and it is hereby provided, that the Judge trying such Causes or Prosecutions shall preserve and duly authenticate the Notes of the Evidence taken by him in such Trial, and shall exhibit the same, or a certified Copy thereof, in case the same should be called for by the Court of Justiciary.

Judges to pre-
thenticate their

to the Qualification of Sheriff's Substitutes.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no Fees or Expenses of any Description shall be exigible by the Clerks or other Officers of a Criminal Court, from any Person on whom a Criminal Libel shall have been served, unless the same shall form Part of the Sentences of the Court; but the Fees exigible from the Prosecutor by such Clerks and Officers shall not be affected by the Provisions of this Act; and on Trials before the Circuit Court of Justiciary by Indictment, where before the passing of this Act the same must have proceeded on Criminal Letters, the same Fees shall be payable by the Prosecutor on such Indictment as if Criminal Letters had been used as heretofore.

closing of any Criminal Court, Returns to be made of Persons committed and remaining in Goal.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That before any Circuit Court shall be declared ended, the Sheriffs of the Counties included therein shall respectively lay before the Court a Return, shewing, to as late a Date as it can be made up, the Names of all such Persons as may stand committed to the several Goals within their respective Counties on Warrants of Detention, and sheweth in due Course of Law, and who have not been brought to Trial before the said Court, and are still remaining in Goal; which Return shall specify the Crimes or Crimes of which such Persons are accused, and the Date of such Warrants of Commitment respectively: and the said Court is hereby required to call for such Returns for their Inspection, and to cause the same to be presented in open Court, and thereafter to direct the Clerk of Court to lodge the same in the Judiciary Office at Edinburgh, for Preservation.
species,

XXV. And be it enacted, That Records shall be kept in every Gaol in Scotland, respecting the Commitment and Liberation of Prisoners committed under Criminal Warrants, according to the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and therein designated by the Letter D, which Records the Magistrates of Burghs and Keepers of Gaols are hereby ordered and required accurately to keep; and the Keepers of Gaols in Scotland are hereby ordered and required at all Times to exhibit to the Sheriff of the County within which such Gaols may be respectively situated, without Fee or Reward, such Records, when so required.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the Provisions of an Act made in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to render Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Duty, shall extend to all inferior Judges and Magistrates in Scotland, in regard to any Sentence pronounced or Proceeding had in any Criminal Trial.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That this Act, and the Matters therein contained, shall commence and take effect from and after the passing of this Act, unless in so far as it is otherwise therein specially provided.

Records of Commitments and Liberations to be kept.

' rages with their former Wives and former Husbands be dead'; and so much of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act to prevent Obstructions in the free Passage of Grains within the Kingdom, as relates to any Person who shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to any Person as Driver, and so much thereof as makes any Second Offence Felony; and an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for the further Prevention of malicious shooting, and attempting to discharge loaded Fire Arms, stinking, cutting, wounding, poisoning, and the malicious using of Mines to procure the Murthering of Women, and also the malicious setting fire to Buildings; and also for repealing a certain Act made in England in the Twenty-first Year of the late King James the First, intitled 'An Act to prevent the drugging and murthering of Barren Children'; and also an Act made in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, also intitled 'An Act to prevent the de-
' drugging and murthering of Barren Children'; and for making other Provisions in law thereof; and an Act passed in the same Forty-third Year, intitled An Act for the more effectually providing for the Punishment of Offences in fully ending, burning, or damaging Ships and Vessels, and for the more convenient Trial of Accusations in Ireland, and for extending the Powers of an Act made in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, as far as relates to Murder, to Accusations to Murderers, and to Murtherers; and an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Preventing of Child-stealing; and so much of an Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act to extend and render more effectual the present Regulations for the Relief of suffering Men and Boys, Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Foreign Parts, as relates to the Trial of Offences against the Act of King William the Third, heretofore mentioned; and so much of an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to remove Doubts and to remedy Defects in the Law, with respect to certain Offences committed upon the Sea or within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty, as refers to the Act of the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, heretofore first mentioned; and an Act passed in the same First Year, intitled An Act to extend so much of the several Acts passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of Elizabeth, the Fourth of George the First, the Fifth and Eighth of George the Second, as relate Capital Punishment on certain Offences therein specified, and to provide more suitable and effectual Punishment for such Offences; and so much of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the present Reign, intitled An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Rapes, as relates to the Offences of assaulting, beating, and wounding therein mentioned; and an Act passed in the Third Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act for the further and more adequate Punishment of Persons convicted of Murthering, and of Servants convicted of robbing their Masters, and of Accusations before the Just of Great Livery, and certain other Persons; and so much of an Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act to provide for the more effectual Punishment of certain Offences by Imprisonment with hard Labour, as relates to any of the Offences therein mentioned; shall continue in force until and throughout the*

the last Day of June in the present Year, and shall thence and after that Day, as to that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and as to Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, be repealed, except so far as any of the said Acts may repeal the Whole or any Part of any other Acts, and except as to Offences committed before or upon the said last Day of June, which shall be dealt with and punished as if this Act had not been passed; and this Act shall commence and take effect (except as is hereinafter excepted) on the First Day of July in the present Year.

II. And be it enacted, That every Offence, which before the Commencement of this Act would have amounted to Petit Treason, shall be deemed to be Murder only, and no greater Offence; and all Persons guilty in respect thereof, whether as Principals or as Accessories, shall be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished as Principals and Accessories in Murder.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Murder, or of being an Accessory before the Fact to Murder, shall suffer Death as a Felony; and every Accessory after the Fact to Murder shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Four Years.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Murder shall be executed according to Law on the Day next but One after that on which the Sentence shall be passed, unless the same shall happen to be Sunday, and in that Case on the Monday following; and the Body of every Murderer shall, after Execution, either be dissected or hung in Chains, as to the Court shall seem meet; and Sentence shall be pronounced immediately after the Conviction of every Murderer, unless the Court shall see reasonable Cause for postponing the same; and such Sentence shall express not only the usual Judgment of Death, but also the Time hereby appointed for the Execution thereof, and that the Body of the Offender shall be dissected or hung in Chains, whichever of the Two the Court shall order: Provided always, that after such Sentence shall have been pronounced, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to stay the Execution thereof, if such Court or Judge shall so think fit.

V. And be it enacted, That whenever Dissection shall be ordered by such Sentence, the Body of the Murderer, if executed in the County of Middlesex or City of London, shall be immediately conveyed by the Sheriff or Sheriffs, or his or their Officers, to the Hall of the Surgeons' Company, or to such other Place as the said Company shall appoint, and shall be delivered to such Person as the said Company shall appoint, for the Purpose of being dissected; and the Body of the Murderer, if executed elsewhere, shall in like Manner be delivered to such Surgeon as the Court or Judge shall direct, for the same Purpose.

VI. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Murder shall, after Judgment, be confined in some safe Place within the Prison, apart from all other Prisoners, and shall be fed with Bread and Water only, and with no other Food or Liquor, except in case of receiving the Sacrament, or in case of any Sickness or Wound, in which Case the Surgeon of the Prison may order other Necessaries to be administered; and no Person but the Gaoler and his Servants, and the Chaplain and Surgeon of the Prison, shall have access to any such Convict, without the Permission in Writing of the Court or Judge before whom such Convict shall have been tried, or of the Sheriff or his Deputy: Provided always, that in case the Court or Judge shall think fit to require the Execution of such Convict, such Court or Judge may, by a License in Writing, relax, during the Period of the Request, all or any of the Restraints or Regulations hereinafter directed to be observed.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects shall be charged in England with any Murder or Manslaughter, or with being accessory before the Fact to any Murder, or after the Fact to any Murder or Manslaughter, the same being respectively committed on Land out of the United Kingdom, whether within the King's Dominions or without, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the County or Place where the Person so charged shall be, to take Cognizance of the Offence so charged, and to proceed therein as if the same had been committed within the Limits of his ordinary Jurisdiction; and if any Person so charged shall be committed for Trial, or admitted to Bail to answer such Charge, a Commission of Oyer and Terminer under the Great Seal shall be directed to such Person, and into such County or Place as shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, for the speedy Trial of any such Offender; and such Person shall have full Power to acquire of, lease, and determine all such Offences, within the County or Place limited in their Commission, by such good and lawful Men of the said County or Place as shall be returned before them for that Purpose, in the same Manner as if the Offences had been actually committed in the said County or Place: Provided always, that if any Person of the Realm, or Person entitled to the Privileges of Foreigners, shall be indicted of any such Offences, by virtue of any Commission to be granted as aforesaid, they shall be tried by their Peers in the Manner heretofore used: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any Person from being tried in any Place out of this Kingdom for any Murder or Manslaughter committed out of this Kingdom, in the same Manner as such Person might have been tried before the passing of this Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person, being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt upon the Sea, or at any Place out of England, shall die of such Stroke, Poisoning, or Hurt in England, or being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt at any Place in England, shall die of such Stroke, Poisoning, or Hurt, upon the Sea, or at any Place out of England, every Offence committed in respect of any such Case, whether the same shall amount to the Offence of Murder or of Manslaughter, or of being accessory before the Fact to Murder, or after the Fact to Murder or Manslaughter, may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the County or Place in England in which

* Difficulty of the Proof which has been required of the Completion of these several Crimes; for Remedy thereof be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary, in any of these Cases, to prove the actual Emigration of Seed in order to constitute a carnal Knowledge, but that the carnal Knowledge shall be deemed complete upon Proof of Penetration only.

XIX. And be it enacted, That where any Woman shall have any Interest, whether legal or equitable, present or future, absolute, conditional, or contingent, in any Real or Personal Estate, or shall be an Heiress presumptive or next of Kin to any one having such Interest, if any Person shall, from Motives of Lucre, take away or detain such Woman against her Will, with Intent to marry or defile her, or to cause her to be married or defiled by any other Person, every such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Four Years.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully take, or cause to be taken, any unmarried Girl, being under the Age of Sixteen Years, out of the Possession and against the Will of her Father or Mother, or of any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of her, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to suffer such Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall maliciously, either by Force or Fraud, lead or take away, or decoy or entice away, or detain, any Child under the Age of Ten Years, with Intent to deprive the Parent or Parents, or any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of such Child, of the Possession of such Child, or with Intent to steal any Article upon or about the Person of such Child, to whatsoever such Article may belong; or if any Person shall, with any such Intent as aforesaid, receive or harbour any such Child, knowing the same to have been, by Force or Fraud, led, taken, decoyed, enticed away, or detained as heretofore mentioned; every such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and, if a Male, to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person who shall have claimed to be the Father of an illegitimate Child, or to have any Right to the Possession of such Child, shall be liable to be prosecuted by virtue hereof, on account of his getting Possession of such Child, or taking such Child out of the Possession of the Mother, or any other Person having the lawful Charge thereof.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person, being married, shall marry any other Person during the Life of the former Husband or Wife, whether the Second Marriage shall have taken Place in England or elsewhere, every such Offender, and every Person counselling, aiding, or abetting such Offender, shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and any such Offence may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the County where the Offender shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if the Offence had been actually committed in that County: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Second Marriage contracted out of England by any other than a Subject of His Majesty, or to any Person marrying a Second Time, whose Husband or Wife shall have been continually absent from such Person for the Space of Seven Years then last past, and shall not have been known by such Person to be living within that Time, or shall extend to any Person who at the Time of such Second Marriage shall have been divorced from the Bond of the first Marriage, or to any Person whose former Marriage shall have been declared void by the Sentence of any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall arrest any Clergyman upon any Civil Process, while he shall be performing Divine Service, or shall, with the Knowledge of such Person, be going to perform the same, or returning from the Performance thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer such Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall assault and strike or wound any Magistrate, Officer, or other Person whatsoever lawfully authorized, on account of the Exercise of his Duty in or concerning the Preservation of any Vessel in Distress, or of any Vessel, Goods, or Effects wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore, or lying under Water, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for such Term as the Court shall award.

XXV. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged with and convicted of any of the following Offences as Misdemeanors; that is to say, of any Assault with Intent to commit Felony, of any Assault upon any Peace Officer or Revenue Officer in the due Execution of his Duty, or upon any Person acting in aid of such Officer; of any Assault upon any Person with Intent to resist or prevent the lawful Apprehension or Detention of the Party so assaulting, or of any other Person, for any Offence for which he or they may be liable by Law to be apprehended or detained, or of any Assault committed in pursuance of any Conspiracy to raise the Rate of Wages; in any such Case the Court may sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and may also (if it shall so think fit) fine the Offender, and require him to find Sureties for keeping the Peace.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and with Force hinder any Seaman, Ketchman, or Cutter from working at or exercising his lawful Trade, Business, or Occupation, or shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to him, with intent to deter or hinder him from working at or exercising the same; or if any Person shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to any Person, with intent to deter or hinder him from selling or buying any Wheat or other Grain, Flour, Meal, or Malt, in any Market or other Place, or shall beat, wound, or use any other Violence to any Person having the Care or Charge of any Wheat or other Grain, Flour, Meal, or Malt, whilst on any Way to or from any City, Market Town, or other Place, with intent to stop the Conveyance of the same, every such Offender may be convicted thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, and imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months: Provided always, that no Person, who shall be punished for any such Offence by virtue of this Provision, shall be punished for the same Offence by virtue of any other Law whatsoever.

XXVII. 'And Whereas it is expedient that a summary Power of punishing Persons for Common Assaults and Batteries should be provided under the Limitations hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That where any Person shall unlawfully assault or beat any other Person, it shall be lawful for Two Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint of the Party aggrieved, to hear and determine such Offence, and the Offender, upon Conviction thereof before them, shall forfeit and pay such Fine as shall appear to them to be meet, not exceeding, together with Costs (if ordered), the Sum of Five Pounds, which Fine shall be paid to some One of the Overseers of the Poor, or to some other Officer of the Parish, Township, or Place in which the Offence shall have been committed, to be by such Overseer or Officer paid over to the Use of the general Rate of the County, Riding, or Division in which such Parish, Township, or Place shall be situate, whether the same shall or shall not contribute to such general Rate; and the Evidence of any Inhabitant of the County, Riding, or Division shall be admitted in Proof of the Offence, notwithstanding such Application of the Fine incurred thereby; and if such Fine as shall be awarded by the said Justices, together with the Costs (if ordered), shall not be paid, either immediately after the Conviction, or within such Period as the said Justices shall at the Time of the Conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for them to commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Fine and Costs be sooner paid; but if the Justices, upon the Hearing of any such Case of Assault or Battery, shall deem the Offence not to be proved, or shall find the Assault or Battery to have been justified, or so trying as not to merit any Punishment, and shall accordingly dismiss the Complaint, they shall forthwith make out a Certificate under their Hands, stating the Fact of such Dismissal, and shall deliver such Certificate to the Party against whom the Complaint was preferred.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person against whom any such Complaint shall have been preferred for any Common Assault or Battery, shall have obtained such Certificate as aforesaid, or having been convicted shall have paid the whole Amount adjudged to be paid under such Conviction, or shall have suffered the Imprisonment awarded for Nonpayment thereof, in every such Case he shall be released from all further or other Proceedings, Civil or Criminal, for the same Case.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Justices shall find the Assault or Battery complained of to have been accompanied by any Attempt to commit Felony, or shall be of Opinion that the same is, from any other Circumstances, a fit Subject for a Prosecution by Indictment, they shall abstain from any Adjudication thereupon, and shall deal with the Case in all respects in the same Manner as they would have done before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize any Justices of the Peace to hear and determine any Case of Assault or Battery in which any Question shall arise as to the Title to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Interest therein or accruing therefrom, or as to any Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or any Execution under the Process of any Court of Justice.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if any Master of a Merchant Vessel shall, during his being Abroad, force any Man on Shore, or wilfully leave him behind in any of His Majesty's Colonies or elsewhere, or shall refuse to bring Home with him again all such of the Men whom he carried out with him, as are in a Condition to return when he shall be ready to proceed on his homeward-bound Voyage, every such Master shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be imprisoned for such Term as the Court shall award; and all such Offences may be prosecuted by Indictment or by Information, at the Suit of His Majesty's Attorney General, in the Court of King's Bench, and may be alleged in the Indictment or Information to have been committed at Watermark, in the County of Middlesex; and the said Court is hereby authorized to issue One or more Commissions, if necessary, for the Examination of Witnesses Abroad, and the Depositions taken under the same shall be received in Evidence on the Trial of every such Indictment or Information.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That every Accessory before the Fact, to any Felony punishable under this Act, for whom no Punishment has been heretofore provided, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Three Years; and every Accessory after the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act, (except Murder) shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and every Person who who shall commit, aid, or abet the Commission of any Misdemeanour punishable under this Act, shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as a principal Offender.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That all indictable Offences mentioned in this Act, which shall be committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, shall be deemed to be Offences of the same Nature, and liable to the same Punishments, as if they had been committed upon the Land in England, and may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, and determined in the same Manner as any other Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or affect any of the Laws relating to the Government of His Majesty's Land or Naval Forces.

XXXIII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible Witness before any Justice of the Peace with any such Offence, the Justice may summon the Person charged to appear before any Two Justices of the Peace at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, then (upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person by delivering the same to him) the Justices may either proceed to hear and determine the Case ex parte, or may issue their Warrant for apprehending such Person and bringing him before them; or the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made may (if he shall so think fit) issue such Warrant in the first instance, without any previous Summons.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That the Justices before whom any Person shall be summarily convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; (that is to say),

"BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the County of _____ (or Riding, Division, Liberty, City, etc. as the Case may be), A. G. is convicted before us [naming the Justice], Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County (or Riding, etc.), for that he the said A. G. did (specify the Offence, and the Time and Place when and where the same was committed, or the Case may be); and we the said Justices adjudged the said A. G. for his said Offence to be imprisoned in the _____ and there to be bound Labour for the Space of _____ [or, we adjudge the said A. G. for his said Offence to forfeit and pay the Sum of _____ (here state the Amount of the Fine imposed), and also to pay the Sum of _____ for Costs; and in default of immediate Payment of the said Sum, to be imprisoned in the _____ for the Space of _____ unless the said Sum shall be sooner paid;] [or, and we order that the said Sum shall be paid by the said A. G. on or before the _____ Day of _____], and we direct that the said Sum of _____ [i. e. the Amount of the Fine] shall be paid to _____ of _____ aforesaid, in which the said Offence was committed, to be by him applied according to the Directions of the Statute in that Case made and provided; and we order that the said Sum of _____ for Costs shall be paid to C. D. [the Party aggrieved]. Given under our Hands the Day and Year first above mentioned."

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That on such Conviction shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be thereto alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect or alter any Act, so far as it relates to the Crime of High Treason, or to any Branch of the Public Revenue, or shall affect or alter any Act for the Persecution of Seafaring, or any Part of the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the present Reign, intitled An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Commission of Workmen, and to make other Provisions in that behalf.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to Scotland or Ireland.

An Act to declare and settle the Law respecting the Liability of the Real Estates of British Subjects and others, situate within the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Supreme Courts in India, as Assets in the Hands of Executors and Administrators, to the Payment of the Debts of their deceased Owners.

[27th June 1829.]

WHEREAS since Doubts have arisen whether, and to what Extent, the Real Estates of British Subjects and others (not being Mahomedans or Gentooes), situate within or being under the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature in India, are liable, as Assets in the Hands of Executors and Administrators, to the Payment of the Debts of their deceased Owners; And Whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed; Be it therefore and it is hereby declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, he and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
That whenever any British Subject shall die seized of or entitled to any Real Estate in Houses, Lands, or Hereditaments, situate within or being under the general Civil Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, or whenever any Person just being a Mahomedan or Gentoo shall die seized of or entitled to any such Real Estate, situate within the local Limits of the Civil Jurisdiction of the same Courts respectively, such Real Estate of such British Subject or other Person as aforesaid (not being a Mahomedan or Gentoo) is and shall be deemed Assets, in the Hands of his or her Executor or Administrator, for the Payment of his or her Debts, whether by Specialty or Simple Contract, in the ordinary Course of Administration.

II. And it is further declared and enacted, That it is and shall be lawful for such Executor or Administrator of such British Subject or other Person as aforesaid (not being a Mahomedan or Gentoo), to sell and dispose of such Real Estate for the Payment of such Debts as aforesaid, and to convey and assure the same Estate to a Purchaser, in as full and effectual a Manner in Law as the Testator or Intestate of such Executor or Administrator could or might lawfully do in his Life-time.

III. And it is further declared and enacted, That in any Suit or Action to be commenced and prosecuted in any of the said Courts respectively, against such Executor or Administrator as aforesaid, for the Recovery of any Debt or Demand due and owing by such Testator or Intestate in his Life-time and and on the Time of his Death, such Executor or Administrator shall and may be charged with the full Amount in Value of such Real Estate as aforesaid, not exceeding the usual net Proceeds of such Estate when sold by the Sheriff, as Assets in the Hands of such Executor or Administrator to be administered.

IV. And it is further declared and enacted, That in any such Suit or Action against such Executor or Administrator as aforesaid, it is and shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively to award and issue such Writs of Sequestration and Execution against such Houses, Lands, and Real Effects of such Testator or Intestate, in the Hands of such Executor or Administrator as aforesaid, and to cause the same to be seized, appraised, and sold, or Possession thereof delivered under such Writs respectively, in the

An Act for altering and amending an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to regulate Madhouses in Scotland. [27th June 1828.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to regulate Madhouses in Scotland, which requires to be altered and amended in some respects: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for and in respect of any Licence to be granted by any Sheriff, for the Care and Confinement of any Madman or Madwoman, or Lunatic, within his County, in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, there shall be paid only Ten Shillings and Sixpence for every Person confined, in place of Two Guineas, as required by the said recited Act, to be accounted for in the Manner thereby directed: Provided always, that for so Licence to be so granted shall them be paid less than the Sum of Two Guineas.

II. And be it enacted, That a Book shall be kept in every House so licensed, in which shall be inserted the Name and Date of Admission of every Insane Person into such House, and also the Death or Discharge of every such Person, specifying the State of Mind in which such Person was at the Date of such Death or Discharge, and the Cause of his or her Death.

III. And be it enacted, That whenever any Confinement, Seclusion, or Restraint, beyond that of Solitary Confinement, shall be used towards any Person confined in such House, an Entry shall be made in the foresaid Book on the same Day on which such Confinement, Seclusion, or Restraint shall be first used, setting forth the Nature of such Confinement, Seclusion, or Restraint, together with the special Cause thereof; and it is further provided, that the Keeper of such House shall make or cause to be made an Entry in said Book on each succeeding Day during which such Confinement, Seclusion, or Restraint may be continued, shewing the Progress of the Disorder, and how far such Confinement, Seclusion, or Restraint has been increased, diminished, continued, or put an end to, as also the Reasons for the Continuance or Change of such Treatment.

IV. And be it enacted, That such Book or Books shall be produced to the Inspectors authorized to visit and inspect such Houses, which Inspectors are hereby required to mark therein the Date of such Inspection, together with any Observations which they may deem material as to the State of such House, or of all or any of the Persons therein confined; and any Keeper of such House who shall neglect to keep the Books hereby ordered, or to make therein any of the Entries hereby ordered, at the Time and in the Terms hereby prescribed, or who shall refuse or neglect to produce such Books when duly required, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for each Offence, to be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties may be recovered under the said recited Act.

V. And be it enacted, That no Insane Person shall be received into any Public Hospital or Public Lunatic Asylum without a Warrant from the Sheriff, such as is required by the said recited Act in the Case of a Private Madhouse; and the said Sheriff is hereby required to inspect such Hospitals and Asylums in the same way as Private Madhouses; and he is further authorized to order any Person to be discharged from such Hospital or Asylum, who, after due Inquiry and medical Inspection, shall be considered by him as improperly detained therein.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in every House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons there shall, if it contain One hundred Patients, be a resident Physician or Surgeon; and every such House containing less than One hundred Patients (in case such House shall not be kept by a Physician or Surgeon) shall be visited twice in every Week by a Physician or Surgeon; and such resident Attendant or visiting Physician or Surgeon is hereby respectively required to report to the Keeper the Condition of the House, and State of Health of the Patients, and shall once in every Week enter and sign the name in a Register, according to the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed; and such Register shall by the Keeper of such House be regularly laid before the Inspectors appointed by this and the before-recited Act, who are hereby required to sign the same in testimony of its Production.

Ministers empowered to visit Mad-Houses within their Parishes.

Regulations as to Persons with whom Lunatics are privately confined.

Secretary of State empowered to insert Name of Lunatic from Register.

Justices may appoint Three of their Number to inspect Hospitals, &c.

This Act and the recited Act to be construed together.

VII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the established Minister of the Parish wherein any House for the Reception of Insane Persons is situate, with the Consent in Writing of the Sheriff, shall have Liberty to visit all such Houses on any Hour between Eight in the Morning and Eight in the Evening; but notwithstanding such written Consent as aforesaid, the Keeper of any such House may refuse such Minister Access to any Patient, if he shall think such Visit prejudicial to the due Care or Recovery of the Patient, provided such Refusal, and the Grounds thereof, shall be duly entered in the Register, and reported by such Keeper to the Inspectors at their next ensuing Visitation.

VIII. And he it further enacted, That no Person shall receive into his exclusive Care and Maintenance, except he be a Relative, any one Insane Person, without first having an Order and Certificate signed by Two Physicians or Surgeons in Terms similar to that which is required on the Admission of any Insane Person into a Licensed House; and that every such Person so having received into his Charge any Insane Person as aforesaid shall, within Five Days thereof, transmit to the Sheriff of the County a Copy of such Certificate, and shall also state the Parish wherein such House shall be situate, and the Name of the Occupier thereof; and such Order and Return may be sealed, and indorsed "Private Return;" and also on the First Day of January, or within Seven Days thereof, in every Year, every such Person shall also transmit to such Sheriff a Certificate signed by Two Physicians or Surgeons, describing the then actual State of such Insane Person; and in case of the Death or Removal of such Insane Person, he shall forthwith certify the same to such Sheriff; all which said Certificates and Notifications shall be duly preserved; and the said Sheriff shall make or cause to be made therefrom a separate Register, containing the true Christian and Surname of such Insane Person so confined, together with the Place of Confinement; which Register shall be open to the Inspection of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or the Lord President of the Court of Session, or the Lord Justice Clerk, or to such other Persons as shall be authorized to inspect the same, by an Order under their respective Hands; and any Person receiving into his Care any Person contrary to this Enactment, shall incur a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered in the Manner before specified.

IX. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's said Principal Secretary of State, in all Cases in which any such Patient shall have been discharged cured, upon his or her Application, verified, as to the Identity of Person and other Facts, to the Satisfaction of such Secretary of State, to direct that the Name of such Patient shall be wholly erased from the said Register.

X. And he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of every County in Scotland to name and appoint, at a Court of Quarter Sessions to be held annually on the next Day on which the Annual Meeting of Freeholders takes place, if they shall think fit so to do, any Three of their Number to visit and inspect any Private Madhouses or Asylums for the Custody of Lunatics situated in such County; and each Three Justices so appointed, or any Two of them, shall have Power to visit and inspect any such Madhouses or Public Hospitals or Asylums in their County accordingly, and to report annually their answers to the Justices met in Quarter Sessions as aforesaid.

XI. And he it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of the said recited Act; and this Act and the said recited Act shall be construed together, in giving Effect to the said recited Act and this Act.

C. A. P. XXXV.

An Act to protect Purchasers for valuable Consideration in Ireland against Judgments not revived or re-docketed within a limited Time. [17th June 1828.]

WHEREAS great Difficulties are frequently found to arise in making out Title to Freehold Property in Ireland, by reason not only of the Number of old outstanding Judgments in the respective Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, in that Part of the United Kingdom, Kingdom, appearing or entitled as Defended, though considerable Numbers of the same have been actually paid off and discharged, but also by reason that in many Cases the Defendants in Judgments entered in the said Courts are not sufficiently described, so as to identify the Persons against whom such Judgments have been actually recovered, to the great Impediment of the due Transfer of such Freehold Property, and to the great Disquiet of Purchasers for valuable Considerations; and it is expedient that a Remedy be provided for the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Judgments which shall, after the passing of this Act, be entered or recovered in His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, in Ireland, shall, after the Expiration of Twenty Years from the Date of the Entry or Recovery thereof, be null and void as against Purchasers for valuable Consideration of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, unless the same be duly revived according to the Course and Practice of the said respective Courts, or re-docketed in manner hereinafter directed, and the Revival or Re-docketing thereof entered in the Manner hereinafter provided, within Twenty Years next before the Execution of the Conveyance, Settlement, Mortgage, Lease, or other Deed or Instrument vesting or transferring the legal or equitable Right, Title, Estate, or Interest in or to such Purchaser for valuable Consideration.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Judgments which shall have been entered or recovered in His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, in Ireland, within Twenty Years next before the passing of this Act, shall, after the Expiration of Twenty Years from the Entry or Recovery thereof, be null and void as against Purchasers for valuable Consideration of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, unless the same be duly revived according to the Course and Practice of the said respective Courts, or re-docketed in manner hereinafter directed, and the Revival or Re-docketing thereof be entered in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, within Twenty Years next before the Execution of the Conveyance, Settlement, Mortgage, Lease, or other Deed or Instrument vesting or transferring the legal or equitable Right, Title, Estate, or Interest in or to such Purchaser for valuable Consideration, or within Five Years from the passing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Judgments which shall have been entered or recovered in His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, in Ireland, Twenty Years or upwards next before the passing of this Act, shall be null and void as against all Purchasers for valuable Consideration of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, whether their Purchases shall have been made before or after the passing of this Act, unless the same shall be duly revived according to the Course and Practice of the said respective Courts, or re-docketed in manner hereinafter directed, and the Revival or Re-docketing thereof be entered in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, within Five Years from the passing of this Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when any Judgment shall be duly revived in any of the said Courts, according to the Course and Practice of the said Courts, respectively, an Entry of such Revival shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be made in a Book to be kept for the Purpose by the proper Officer of each of the said Courts respectively, and which he is hereby directed and required to keep in the Manner and Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and which Entry shall in all Cases be and be held to be Evidence of the due Revival of such Judgment, without producing the Judgment or Review thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That in order to the Re-docketing for the Purposes of this Act of any Judgment entered or to be entered in any of the Courts aforesaid, an Affidavit shall be made by the Attorney employed by the Party or Parties legally or beneficially interested in said Judgment or some Part thereof, which Affidavit shall be in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall be subscribed by and filed with the proper Officer of the Court in which such Judgment is or shall be entered or recovered; and thereupon such Officer shall, on such Affidavit being presented to him, make or cause to be made an Entry in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and which he is hereby directed and required to keep in Manner and according to the Form set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and which Entry shall in all Cases be and be held to be Evidence of the due Re-docketing of such Judgment within the Meaning and for the Purposes of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Sums of Stipends, and so more, shall be paid to the respective proper Officer of the said Courts for each such Entry so required to be made by him as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted and provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed or deemed or taken to extend, to set up or give Validity to any Judgment or Judgments which by the Lapse of Twenty Years from the Entry or Recovery thereof, without any Payment or Satisfaction being made on account, or any Proceeding being taken for Recovery thereof, is, are, or shall be legally or equitably extinguished and barred under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, intitled An Act for the more effectual quieting and securing Possessions, and preventing vexatious Suits at Law; and that the Re-docketing of any such Judgment or Judgments in manner aforesaid shall not be taken or deemed or construed as a Revival thereof, but solely as a Proceeding for the Purposes of this Act.

VIII. And for the Purpose of furnishing the Manner in all Cases hereafter to identify the Parties to all Judgments in the Courts aforesaid, be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Attorney employed for the Purpose of entering or making up any Judgment in any of the Judgments entered in the Courts in Ireland to be null and void unless re-docketed within Twenty Years before the Execution of Conveyance of the Estate.

Judgments entered in the Courts within Twenty Years before the passing of this Act to be null unless revived according to the Practice of the Courts, &c.

Judgments entered in the Courts Twenty Years before the passing of this Act to be null unless revived within Five Years from the passing of this Act.

Revolutions of Judgments to be entered in a Book according to the Form in the Schedule.

Affidavit to be made by the Attorney to the Party concerned in any Judgment.

Sum to be paid for each Entry.

This Act not to give Validity to any Judgments, except those made by Act 1801.

Attorney to give the Officer a Description of the Parties, and and their Place of Residence.

Officers not to be obliged to enter any Judgments until such Description is given.

Not to affect any Judgment between the

said Courts shall, previous to the entering thereof, deliver to the Officer whose Duty it is to cause such Judgments to be entered, a Note in Writing, stating the Degree, Quality, Profession, or Trade, and also the Place of Residence, of the several Parties thereto; and thereupon such Officer shall make an Entry of the said Particulars in the Margin of the Roll of the said Judgment.

X. And he is further enacted, That no Officer shall be obliged to enter any Judgment on the Rolls of any of the said Courts, until such Note in Writing shall have been delivered to him as aforesaid; which Note he is hereby directed to file and keep; and if after having received the same, he shall neglect or refuse to enter the Particulars desired in the Margin of the Roll of such Judgment, he shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds to any Person suing for the same: Provided always, that no Neglect, Error, or Omission of any Officer of any of the said Courts, with respect to the entering, in the Margin of the Roll of any Judgment, of the Degree, Quality, Profession, Trade, or Place of Residence of any of the Parties to the said Judgment, shall in any manner vitiate or affect the Validity of the same, or bind any Person except the Person against whom such Judgment was really obtained, and those deriving under him.

X. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any Manner to affect or prejudice any Judgment whatsoever as between the Parties thereto, their Representatives, or those deriving as Volunteers under them.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty for One Year certain Duties on Sugar imported into the United Kingdom, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

[27th June 1828.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,
 WHEREAS Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; and therefore do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties on Sugar, Brown or Muscovado, or Clayed, not being refined, which by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to alter and amend the several Laws relating to the Customs, and by a Table contained in the said Act, were made payable until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and which have been continued and are in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, shall be and the same are hereby continued from and after the Expiration of the Time limited as aforesaid, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, One Book of Register, in which all the Money that shall be paid into the said Exchequer from so much of the said Rates and Duties hereby granted or continued on Sugar as shall arise and be payable in Great Britain shall be entered and registered apart and distinct from all other Moneys paid and payable to His Majesty; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to issue and apply the same from time to time to such Services as shall then have been voted by the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in this present Session of Parliament; and that so much of the said Duties on Sugar as shall arise and be payable in Ireland shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer there, and shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

Duties imposed on Sugar by 74, c. 44, further continued until 25th July 1829.

Moneys paid into the Exchequer under this Act shall be entered separate from other Payments.

[The remaining Sections of this Act are the same (except as to Dates) as the 6th and Twelve following Sections of 7 & 8 G. 3. c. 7.]

C A P. XXXVII.

An Act to amend an Act of the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for preventing Depredations within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports, and for the Adjustment of Salvage; and for giving further Powers to the Deputy Warden of the Cinque Ports and Lieutenant of Dover Castle.

[27th June 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to restrain and amend certain Acts for preventing the various Frauds and Expences committed on Merchants, Ship Owners, and Underwriters, by Boatmen and others, within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports; and also for amending certain Edicts relative to the Adjustment of Salvage under a Statute made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, Power is given to the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports to nominate and appoint, in the Manner therein directed, Persons in each of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Members, to adjust and determine Differences relative to Salvage, and for the other Purposes in the said Act mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that the Powers given by the said Act to the said Lord Warden should be also exercised by the Deputy Warden of the Cinque Ports and Lieutenant of Dover Castle: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Deputy Warden of the Cinque Ports and Lieutenant of Dover Castle for the Time being, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to nominate and appoint such Commissioners, and to have the same Power, and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Act, as the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being may or may do.

14 G. 3. c. 16

The Deputy Warden may appoint Salvage Commissioners, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

Public Act.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Notices of the Local Tax Commissioners, and for appointing additional Commissioners, and indemnifying such Persons as have acted without due Authority in execution of the Acts therein recited.

[27th June 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to rectify Mistakes made in the naming or describing Persons appointed Commissioners by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into Execution several Acts, granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax

24 G. 3. c. 12.

"to be raised in Great Britain, and continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Professions, in England;" May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Persons hereinafter named shall and may and are hereby empowered and authorized to put in execution the said Acts, and all the Clauses, Powers, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners in and for the several and respective Counties and Places of Great Britain hereinafter severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, and properly described therein; (that is to say),

And no Miracle in the Spelling of the Christian or Surname of any Person, or of any Place, mentioned in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or the Act, shall be construed to violate the Appointment of such Person to be a Commissioner, so that the Person or Place mentioned be designated therein in common Interest and Understanding, or to subject any Person so designated to any Pen, Penalty, or Forfeiture for his acting in the Execution of the Act herein mentioned.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Persons appointed by the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, or by this Act, shall severally have the Qualifications required by an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight; and also of an Act of the same Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to alter and amend in much of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled 'An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight,' as relates to the Qualifications of Commissioners; and shall be subject to the several Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said Acts respectively.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where in any City, Liberty, or Place the Qualifications shall consist of Personal Estate, it shall be lawful for any Person having a Personal Estate of the Value required by the said Acts, or either of them, to act as such Commissioner in all Cases where such Person shall have been named, and shall have paid for such Personal Estate, by and upon the last Assessment there made for such City, Liberty, or Place, by virtue of any Act for assessing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Personal Offices, and Personal Estates, in England, passed before the making of such Assessments, any Thing in the said Acts, or either of them contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And Whereas several Persons may have acted as Commissioners for executing the said Acts without having been properly named as Commissioners by the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, and others named as former Acts of Parliament to be Commissioners may have been appointed in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, and may have acted as aforesaid before Notice of such Commission: And Whereas it is expedient that such Persons should be indemnified for such acting, and that all Acts by them done should be confirmed and made valid: Be it therefore enacted, That all Acts done by any such Persons in the Execution of the said Acts, or any other Acts to be executed by such Commissioners, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid, and that all personal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Prosecutions and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, are declared to be void by virtue of this Act, and shall be quashed and determined; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence.

V. And Whereas by the Acts relating to the Land Tax Three or more Commissioners are required to sign and seal the Assessments, and Duplicate thereof, and to hear and determine Appeals, and also to do and execute other Matters and Things in and by the said Acts prescribed and authorized in the Execution thereof; and it is expedient that Two or more Commissioners should be authorized and empowered to do and execute the same Acts respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That all Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever, which in and by the Acts relating to the Land Tax are directed, authorized, or required to be done, executed, or performed by or before Three or more Commissioners acting in the Execution thereof, shall and may, from and after the passing of this Act, be done, executed, or performed by and before any Two or more of such Commissioners; and all Acts, Matters, and Things as hereinafter to be done, executed, and performed by or before Two or more of such Commissioners, shall be as valid and effectual in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same Acts respectively were done, executed, or performed by or before Three or more Commissioners; any Thing in the said Acts or this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for the Preservation of the Salmon Fisheries in Scotland.

[15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland in the Year One thousand four hundred and twenty-four it was forbidden that any Salmon be slain from the Feast of the Assumption of our Lady until the Feast of Saint Andrew in Winter: And Whereas sundry other Laws and Acts were made and passed at divers Times by the Parliament of Scotland against the killing of Salmon, Kipper,

Red and Black Fish, in forbidden Time, and the killing and destroying of the Fry and Smolts of Salmon; which Laws and Acts were made, confirmed, and approved by an Act passed by the said Parliament in the Year One thousand six hundred and sixty-six, intituled, An Act against Killers of Black Fish, and Destroyers of the Fry and Smolts of Salmon: And Whereas it is expedient, for the Preservation of the Salmon Fisheries in Scotland, that the Penalties enacted by the said Acts should be augmented, and the Period of the forbidden Time altered and extended, and that sundry other Regulations should be made: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act passed in the Year One thousand four hundred and eighty-four shall be and the same is hereby repealed: and that no Salmon, Grilse, Sea Trout, nor other Fish of the Salmon Kind, shall be taken in or from any River, Stream, Lake, Water, or Estuary, whatsoever, on any Part of the Sea Coast, between the Fourteenth Day of September and the First Day of February in any Year, by any Person or Persons; any Law, Statute, or Provision to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That if between the Fourteenth Day of September and the First Day of February in any Year any Person shall wilfully take, fish for, or attempt to take, or aid or assist in taking, fishing for, or attempting to take, in or from any River, Stream, Lake, Water, or Estuary, or on any Part of the Sea Coast, any Salmon, Grilse, Sea Trout, or other Fish of the Salmon Kind, such Person shall forfeit and pay any Sum not less than One Pound and not exceeding Ten Pounds, for and in respect of each and every such Offence, over and above forfeiting each and every such Fish so taken, and each and every Boat, Net, or Engine by which the same may have been taken.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, after the Expiration of Two Months from and after the passing of this Act, trespass in any Ground, inclosed or uninclosed, or in or upon any River, Stream, Watercourse, or Estuary, with Intent to kill Salmon, Grilse, Sea Trout, or other Fish of the Salmon Kind, such Person shall forfeit and pay any Sum not less than Ten Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall wilfully take, by any Means or by any Device, in or from any River, Lake, Stream, Water, Estuary, or Sea Coast, or use, sell, purchase, or wilfully have in his Possession, the Spaw, Smolt, or Fry of Salmon, or of any other Fish of the Salmon Kind, or in any Way or by any Device wilfully obstruct the Passage of the said Smolt or Fry, or injure or disturb any such Spaw or Fry, or any Spawning Bed, Bank, or Shallow where the same may be, such Person shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than One Pound and not exceeding Ten Pounds for each and every such Offence.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall at any Time wilfully take, kill, destroy, or expose to Sale any Red or Black Fish, or other fish, salmon, or unsalmonable Salmon, Grilse, Sea Trout, or Fish of the Salmon Kind, such Person shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than One Pound and not exceeding Two Pounds for every Fish so taken, killed, or destroyed, or exposed to Sale.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person shall use any Light or Fire of any kind, or so for the taking or with Intent to take any Salmon, Grilse, Sea Trout, or other Fish of the Salmon Kind, such Person shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Two Pounds and not exceeding Ten Pounds for each and every such Offence.

VII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland in the Year One thousand four hundred and seventy-seven, intituled Actes Cruces, it is inter alia ordained, that they that bes Cruces in fresh Waters, gar keep the Lawes anent Anterlades Slop, and suffer them not to stand in forbidden Time; and that the back of the said Cruces be Three fathoms wide, and quite that long correct thereof, to pay Five Pounds: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Penalty of Five Pounds Scot Money should be augmented: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Owner or Occupier of Cruces shall offend against the said Law, such Person shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than Five Pounds nor exceeding Twenty Pounds Sterling for every such Offence.

VIII. C A P. XL.

An Act to amend the Laws for the Erection and Regulation of County Lunatic Asylums, and more effectually to provide for the Care and Maintenance of Pauper and Criminal Lunatics, in England. [15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Statutes now in force in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, relating to the Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, should be amended and consolidated into One Act, and that such other Provision should be made as will facilitate the Erection of County Lunatic Asylums, and improve the Treatment of Pauper and Criminal Lunatics: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, viz. an Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction, so far as relates to Lunatics to be confined by Warrant of Justices; and also an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England; and also an Act passed in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act to amend an Act of the Forty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, for the better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England; and also an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act for the better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England'; and also an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act to amend an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the safe Custody of Insane Persons charged with Offences; and also an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for making Provision for the better Care of Pauper Lunatics in England; and also an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend several Acts passed for the better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, except as to any Matters committed or done before the passing of this Act, which shall be dealt with as if this Act had not passed; and that all Asylums erected or established under the said recited Acts shall in future be regulated under the Direction of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the Peace in and for every County in England, present at any General Quarter Sessions for the said County, to direct public Notice to be given in some Newspaper or Newspapers circulated in such County, of their Intention of taking into consideration at their next Quarter Sessions the Expediency of providing a County Lunatic Asylum or Asylums, or House or Houses for the Reception of Insane Persons, or of appointing a Committee of Justices to treat with the Justices of any One or more of the adjacent Counties, or with the Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum heretofore built and established, or intended to be built and established, by voluntary Contributions, to unite with them for such Purpose.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace, after such Notice as given as aforesaid, shall at their next General Quarter Sessions proceed to take the same into consideration; and if it shall appear to the major Part of the said Justices then and there assembled (such major Part not being less in Number than Seven), that it is expedient that a County Lunatic Asylum, or House for the Reception of Insane Persons, should be erected in and for the said County, the said Justices shall nominate and appoint such Number of Visiting Justices as they shall think fit to superintend the Erection and Management of such County Lunatic Asylum, who from time to time shall report their Proceedings to the Court of General Quarter Sessions.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where it shall appear expedient to the said Justices, as assembled as aforesaid, to unite for the Purposes of this Act with any One or more adjacent Counties, or with any Lunatic Asylum heretofore built and established by voluntary Contributions, or as intended, to appoint any Number of Justices not exceeding Five, to be a Committee for treating with any Committee of Justices of any such County or Counties, appointed according to the Provisions of this Act, or with any Committee of any such Lunatic Asylum, to be appointed as hereinafter directed for such Purposes.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the major Part of the Subscribers to any such Lunatic Asylum, present at any Meeting of Subscribers to the same, to be called together by public Advertisement for the express Purpose of making such Appointment, to appoint any Number of Subscribers not exceeding Five, to be a Committee to treat with and enter into any Agreement with the Committee of Justices of any County for the Purposes of this Act, and that every such Agreement shall specify the Place at or near which such County Lunatic Asylum shall be situate, the Regulations under which the Expenses to be incurred shall be defrayed, and the Number or Proportion of the Agreement, with Committee of Justices.

Visitors to be appointed by the said County and Subscribers respectively, and, when signed by the major Part of the Committee of Justices aforesaid, and the major Part of the Committee of Subscribers so appointed aforesaid, shall be binding upon the said County and Subscribers, if subsequently approved of as hereinafter directed.

Agreement to be entered into where Counties shall be united.

VI. And be it further enacted, That where the Committee of Justices so appointed by any Two or more Counties shall think fit to unite the said Counties for the Purposes of this Act, and shall signify their Inclination and Desire so to do at a Meeting holden for that Purpose, an Agreement shall at such Meeting, or as soon as conveniently may be afterwards, be entered into by the said Justices so appointed as aforesaid, or the major Part of them, in the Form or to the Effect set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed (No. 1), which Agreement, when subscribed by the major Part of the Justices so nominated and appointed for each County, shall be binding upon the said County; and every such Agreement shall specify the Place at or near which such County Lunatic Asylum shall be situate, and the Proportions in which the Expenses necessary for the carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act shall be charged and assessed upon the several Counties so uniting, which Proportions shall be calculated by the said Justices so appointed upon the Numbers of the respective Population of the said several Counties and Places as shall have been stated in the last Returns of the said Population which shall have been made under the Authority of Parliament previous to the Union of such Counties.

Agreement to be reported to Quarter Sessions, and not to the said unless approved of.

VII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Agreement shall have been so entered into and signed as aforesaid, the Justices so appointed to be a Committee for each County so uniting shall respectively report the same to the Justices at their next General Quarter Sessions to be holden for each of the said Counties, and shall then and there deliver into Court a Duplicate of the said Agreement, to be by the Clerks of the Peace of the said Counties entered among the Records: Provided always, that no Agreement made by any Committee of Justices shall be valid until the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the Majority of the Justices of the Peace of the County, assembled at the next ensuing General Quarter Sessions which shall be holden after such Agreement shall have been entered into.

Appointment of Committees of Justices and Subscribers to form united Committee of Visitors for providing and managing a Lunatic Asylum.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever a County Lunatic Asylum has been provided under the Provisions of any former Act of Parliament, and in every Case in which it shall be determined that a County Lunatic Asylum shall be provided under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the Peace sitting in and for the County or united Counties at whose Expense, wholly or in Part, such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been or it to be provided, present at the General Quarter Sessions next after the passing of this Act, if a County Lunatic Asylum shall have been already provided, or present at the General Quarter Sessions where such Determination shall be made, or such Agreement as aforesaid shall be approved of, in the Case may be, if the County Lunatic Asylum is heretofore to be provided, and thereafter at the Mytholney General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County or Counties respectively in each Year, and for the major Part of the Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum erected or to be erected by voluntary Contributions, who may have united or who may heretofore united with any County or Counties under the Provisions of this or any former Act, present at a General Meeting to be holden in the Month of September or October in every Year, of which due Notice shall be given by public Advertisement in some Newspaper circulated within the County in which such Lunatic Asylum shall be situate, to elect respectively the Members of the Committee of visiting Justices, or Committee of Subscribers, to act together, for the providing, building, Erection, and Management of such County Lunatic Asylum; and that it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the Peace sitting in and for such County or Counties, such major Part not being less than Seven, present at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County or Counties respectively, or any Adjournment thereof, and for the major Part of the Subscribers to any such Asylum erected or to be erected by voluntary Contributions as aforesaid, present at any General Meeting to be called for that Purpose, of which due Notice shall be given as aforesaid, to fill up any Vacancy in the Number of such Committee as may have occurred by Death or Resignation of any Member of such Committee of Justices or Subscribers respectively: Provided always, that the Number of such Justices so appointed to be the Committee of Visitors as aforesaid shall be in proportion to the Share of Expense to be charged and assessed upon the County for which they shall act, but so that a Number less than Seven shall in no case be appointed for any County so united, and the Number of the Committee of Subscribers to any Lunatic Asylum uniting with any County as aforesaid, shall be in such Proportion as shall have been specified in the Agreement entered into between such County or Counties and the Subscribers to such Lunatic Asylum.

Mode of filling up Vacancies in the same.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if the Justices or Subscribers so aforesaid shall in any Year neglect or omit to make such Election, or to fill up any Vacancy which may have occurred as aforesaid, then the Committee of Visitors before appointed, or such of them as shall continue to act, shall be deemed and taken to be the legal Committee of Visitors for the providing, Building, Erection, and Management of such County Lunatic Asylum, until such Election as aforesaid shall have been made, or such Vacancy shall have been filled up.

Provision as to the Proportions of the Numbers of such Committees.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Visitors so nominated and appointed are hereby authorized and required, within Three Calendar Months after such Nomination and Appointment as aforesaid, to meet and assemble at such Place as shall appear most convenient for that Purpose (due Notice thereof being previously given to each Visitor by the Clerk or Clerks of the Peace of such County or Counties respectively); and that the said Visitors may adjourn the said Meeting from time to time, or from Place to Place, and meet as often as they shall think necessary; and the said Visitors, or the major Part of them,

If Appointment not made, the Visitors continuing to act shall be deemed the Committee.

them, are hereby authorized at their said Meetings to appoint a Clerk and a Surveyor for duly exercising the Powers of this Act, and from time to time to receive Plans and Estimates, and, subject as hereinafter mentioned, to contract for the Purchase of Lands and Buildings, and for Building, erecting, altering, furnishing, and completing such County Lunatic Asylums, and the Yards, Courts, and Outlets thereto belonging; and every such Contractor shall give sufficient Security for the due Performance of his Contract to the Clerk to such Visitors; and all Contracts, when made, and all Orders relating thereto, shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the Clerk to such Visitors; and when such County Lunatic Asylum shall be declared to be completed, then such Book shall be deposited and kept among the Records of such County Sale, or of such of the Counties so united for the Purposes of this Act as shall have paid the largest Quota or Proportion of the Expenses of providing such County Lunatic Asylum, to be inspected at all reasonable Times by any Persons contributing to the County Rates of such County or Counties respectively, or by any such voluntary Subscribers as aforesaid; and all Buildings or Land so to be contracted for and purchased shall be conveyed to such Person or Persons as the Visitors shall think fit, in Trust for the Uses and Purposes of this Act; and the said Visitors shall from time to time make their Report to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of such County or Counties respectively, of the several Plans, Estimates, and Contracts which shall have been made and entered into in manner aforesaid, and also a Report of the Sum or Sums of Money necessary to be raised and levied on such County Sale as the Expenses, or on each of such united Counties as the Quota or Proportion of the Expense, to be incurred in the several Accounts as aforesaid.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Visitor who shall, under the Authority of this Act, do any Matter or Thing in the Execution hereof, shall be capable of having any beneficial Interest or Concern whatsoever, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person in Trust for him, in any Contract or Agreement to be made under the Authority of this Act, or shall, for any Design or Plan he may deliver or produce, receive any Benefit or Emolument whatsoever.

XII. And be it further enacted, in order to defray the necessary Expenses for the Execution of this Act, That the Justices of the Peace at their General or Quarter Sessions may and shall assess and tax a special County Rate or Rates on all Places liable to contribute to the County Rate, which said special County Rate shall be collected, levied, and recovered in like Manner, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Powers, as any ordinary County Rate may by Law be collected, levied, and recovered.

XIII. And Whereas the Expenses of carrying this Act into Execution may in some Cases become very burthensome on the Occupiers of Land, and others the Contributors to the County Rate, in case of the said Expenses shall be raised in the Manner herein mentioned: Be it further enacted, That when it shall appear in the Report of such Visitors that the Charge and Costs of carrying this Act into Execution will exceed One Half of the Amount of the ordinary Annual Assessment for the County Rate for any County (such ordinary Assessment to be taken on a mean Proportion of the said Rate of the last Five Years preceding that), then and in that Case it shall and may be levied for the Justices of the Peace within the respective Limits of their Commission, so assembled in their Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, from time to time to borrow and take upon Mortgage of the Rates herein mentioned, by Instruments in the Form contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed (No. 2.), or to that or the like Effect, any Sum not less than Fifty Pounds each, at legal or lower Interest, as to them or the major Part of them (such major Part not being less than Five) shall seem necessary and expedient for the Purpose aforesaid, and to secure all and every such Sum and Sums of Money so borrowed upon the Credit of the Rates to be raised upon such County respectively; and the said Justices so assembled as aforesaid are hereby authorized to treat and agree with any Person or Persons for the Loan of any such Sum or Sums of Money, and by their Order to confirm and establish every such Agreement as aforesaid, and every such Agreement as established by such Order, and signed by the Chairman and Two or more Justices present at the Time of making such Order, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be effectual for securing to the Person or Persons so advancing any Sum or Sums of Money, his or their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, all and every such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest for the same, on such Terms as in and by such Agreement respectively shall be for that Purpose stipulated; and the said Securities shall be numbered in Order of Succession in which they shall be granted, and Copies or Extracts of all such Agreements or Securities shall be kept with the Clerk of the Peace, or other proper Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Quarter Sessions of such County respectively; and all and every Person and Persons to whom any such Security or Securities shall be made, or who shall be entitled to the Money thereby secured, is and are hereby empowered (by indorsing his, her, or their Name or Names on the Back of such Security or Securities) to transfer and assign the same, and his, her, or their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any Person or Persons, and every such Assignee may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so ad infinitum; and the Person or Persons to whom such Security or Securities, or any such Agreement thereof, shall be made, and his or their respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall be Creditors upon the said Rates in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference with respect to the Priority of any Monies so advanced.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices are hereby authorized and required, not only to charge the Rates to be raised upon such County with the Interest of the Money so borrowed on such Securities, but also with the Payment of a further Sum, equal at least with the Sum so charged for the Interest of such Securities, which said Sum shall be paid and applied, under the Direction of the said Justices, in Discharge of the Interest, and of so many of the Principal Sums to contract for the Purchase of Lands;

Contracts to be entered in a Book.

on the said Securities as such Money will extend to discharge in each Year, until the whole of the Money for which such Securities shall be made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices are required to fix One or more Days in each Year on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for the regular Payment thereof; and they are hereby required to appoint a proper Person to keep an exact and regular Account of all the Receipts and Payments under the Authority of this Act, in a Book or Books separate and apart from all other Accounts, and the same to adjust and settle in such Manner that it may easily be seen what Interest is growing, and what Principal Money has been discharged, and what remains due; and the said Book or Books, as adjusted and settled, to deliver into Court at every General Annual Michaelmas Quarter Sessions to be held for any such County, or at such other Period of the Year in any County in which General Annual Sessions shall be held; and the said Justices are hereby required, at every such Sessions, carefully to inspect all such Accounts, and to make Orders for carrying the several Purposes of this Act into Execution, in such Manner as to them shall seem meet; and if at any Time it shall appear to the said Justices that the Person so appointed has neglected the said Order, and has not duly applied the Money in his Hands to the Purposes hereby directed, such Person shall forfeit Double the Amount of the Money which shall not have been applied for the Purposes of this Act, to be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices; and the said Penalty, after the Charges of recovering the same, shall be paid to the Treasurer of such County Lunatic Asylum, to be applied to the Use of the same; and the said Justices, on a Day and Hour to be fixed at some General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County (of which Fourteen Days public Notice shall be given as aforesaid), shall, in open Court, cause all the said several Securities to be drawn by Lot, and numbered for Payment according to the Event of such Drawing, and the Securities so drawn and numbered shall be regularly discharged in succession, according to the Priority of such drawn Number.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace at their said General or Quarter Sessions, if they shall unanimously agree so to do, to direct that every Tenant at Rack Rent paying such Rent aforesaid may deduct and detain, out of the Rent payable to him or her Landlord or Landlords for the Premises in respect of which such Rent is payable, One Half Part of the full Amount of such Rate; and every Tenant at Rack Rent, having paid such Rate in manner as aforesaid, shall be and is hereby acquitted and discharged of and from the Payment of so much Money as such Half Part shall amount to, as fully and perfectly as if the same had been actually paid to any such Landlord or Landlords in part of the Rent due from such Tenant.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace in their respective Quarter Sessions shall and they are hereby required to make Provisions, by means of the Rates (which they are hereby authorized to make), and by their Orders and Directions (which they are hereby authorized to give), in such Manner that the whole Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act shall be fully paid and discharged within a Time to be limited, not exceeding Fourteen Years from the Time of borrowing the same.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and for all Bodies Politic and Corporate, and also for Guardians, Committees, Husbandmen, Trustees, and Attorneys of any Person or Persons, being Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, under Coverture or any other Disability, and also for all other Persons who are or shall be seized, possessed of, or interested in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, and Privileges which shall be deemed necessary for the Purposes of this Act, to contract and agree for, and to sell, convey, and assign such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, and Privileges unto such Person or Persons as shall be named by the Vendors, in Trust and for the Purpose of erecting or providing such County Lunatic Asylum, and the Yards, Courts, and Outlets thereunto belonging; and all such Contracts, Agreements, Sales, Conveyances, and Assurances shall be valid and effectual in Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall be agreed to be paid to any Corporation, Guardians, Committee, Husband, Trustee, or Attorney, for or on behalf of any Infant, Lunatic, Idiot, Person Covert, or Contingent Trusts, or to any other Person or Persons whose Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, and Privileges shall be granted in Settlement, for the Purchase of any such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, shall, in case such Sums of Money shall exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, be laid out by such Corporations, Guardians, Committees, Husbandmen, Trustees, Attorneys, or any Person or Persons seized or possessed of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, or Privileges scheduled in Settlement, as soon as conveniently may be, in the Purchase of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in Fee Simple, to be conveyed to or to the Use of such Corporations, Guardians, Committees, Husbandmen, Trustees, or Attorneys, and to and for such Person or Persons, and for such Estate or Estates, and to, for, and upon and subject to such Uses, Limitations, Reservations, and Contingencies as the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, or Privileges, for or in respect whereof such Purchase Money shall be paid as aforesaid, shall be raised, settled, and mortgaged at the Time such Purchase or Contract shall be made in manner aforesaid, or such as shall then be capable of taking Effect, the Charges of such Conveyances and Settlements to be paid in the same Manner as the other Expenses relating to the County Lunatic Asylum; and in the meantime, and until such Purchase or Purchases shall be made, such Money, whether the same shall or shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, shall be laid out by such Corporations, or other Persons for the Time being interested therein, in some Government Securities, in the Names of Two Persons, one to be nominated by the Party or Parties for the Time being interested therein, and the other by the Visitors aforesaid; and the Interest arising from such Securities shall be paid to such Person or Persons respectively as would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of such Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Easements, and Privileges, in case the same had not been sold, or would for the Time being be entitled to the Rents and Profits of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments so to be purchased, in case the same were purchased and settled as aforesaid.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case the Body or Person to whom any Sum of Money shall be contracted to be paid for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the Purposes of this Act, shall not be able to make a good Title to the Premises, to the Satisfaction of the said Visitors, or shall refuse to execute a Conveyance or Assignment thereof, or in case the Person to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be so contracted to be paid as aforesaid cannot be found, or be not known or discovered, then it shall be lawful for the said Visitors to pay the said Sum of Money into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his Account to the Credit of the Party, if known, who shall be interested in the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments (describing such Tenements or Hereditaments), but if not known, then to the Credit of the said Visitors, subject to the Order, Control, or Disposition of the said Court of Exchequer; which said Court, on the Application of any Body or Person making claim to any such Sum of Money, or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, shall be and the same is hereby empowered, in a summary Way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, or to order Distribution thereof, on Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Estate or Estates, Title, or Interest of the Body or Person making claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England who shall receive such Sum of Money as and are hereby required to give a Receipt for each Sum of Money, specifying for what the same is received, to such Person as shall pay any such Sum of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Body or Person named or possessed of or interested in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Share or Shares, Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests therein, or Charge or Charges thereon, as aforesaid, cannot be found, or shall not be known, or shall not be able to make a good Title to the Premises to the Satisfaction of the said Visitors, or shall refuse to execute a Conveyance or Conveyances thereof, then and in any of such Cases, upon Payment of such Sum of Money as shall have been contracted and agreed to be paid for the Purchase of the same Premises into the Bank of England, as heretofore directed (in case the same shall be required), for the Use of such Person as interested or entitled as aforesaid, such Tenements or Hereditaments, or Parts, Shares, Estates, Interest, or Charges, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, together with the yearly Profit thereof, and all the Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Use, Trust, Property, Claim, and Demand, in Law and Equity, of the Body or Person, or unknown Person, to whose Credit such Money shall be paid, in, to, and out of the Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premises to be purchased as aforesaid, shall from thenceforth vest in the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being, and his Successors in Office, of the County in which such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments shall be situated, who shall be deemed in Law to be in the actual Seizin and Possession thereof, to all Intents and Purposes, freed and discharged from all former and other Estates, Rights, Titles, and Interests, Claims and Demands, as fully and effectually as if every Body or Person having any Estate in the Premises had actually conveyed the same by Lease and Release, Bargain and Sale enrolled, Testiment with Livery of Seizin, Fine, Common Recovery, or any other Conveyance or Assurance whatsoever; and such Payment shall not only bar all Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand of the Body or Person, or unknown Person, of, in, or to the said Premises, in whose Credit such Payment or Tender shall have been made, but also shall extend to bar the Dower and Dowers of the Wife of such Person, and all Estate Tail and other Estates in Possession, Reversion, Remainder, Expectancy, or Contingency, and the Issue and Issues of such Person, and every other Person whatsoever; and the same Premises shall and may be thereupon made use of and employed for the Purposes of this Act, according to the Direction of the said Visitors, and under the Regulation of this Act.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, Where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Body or Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Part thereof, or of any Estate, Right, Title, Charge, or Interest in, to, or upon any Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased or taken in pursuance of this Act, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or to the Dividends or Interest thereof, the Body or Person who shall have been in the Possession of such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Parts, Shares, Estates, Interests, or Charges, at the Time of such Purchase, and all Bodies or Persons claiming under such Body or Person, or under the Possession of such Body or Person, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Parts, Shares, Estates, Interests, or Charges, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Exchequer; and the Dividends or Interest of, and the Capital of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, in Writing, or for His Majesty, by any Grant signed by the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, or for the Duke of Cornwall, by any Grant signed by the Chancellor of the Duchy of Cornwall for the Time being, to grant any Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and for a Site of a County Lunatic Asylum, and to be used therewith, and the said Visitors, and the Persons to be appointed by them, and their Successors, shall be and are hereby empowered and made capable of receiving and enjoying the Benefit of any such Grant for the Use and Purposes of this Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the said Visitors shall have full Power, Capacity, and Ability to accept and take from any Person willing to give the same, or otherwise to purchase, take, hold, and enjoy, any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and any Interest therein, and any Money issuing out of or charged upon or to arise from the Sale of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of and to any Value and Amount whatever; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which a County Lunatic Asylum shall be provided under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the Peace of any County or Counties united under this Act (such major Part not being less than Five), present at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held for such County or Counties, from time to time to fix and rank the Sums which may be expended on the Purchase of Lands or Houses, or in the Erection of new Buildings, or in the Extension or Alteration of existing Buildings, for the Purposes of such County Lunatic Asylum, or the Yards, Outlets, or Courts thereto belonging, as well on the first Establishment of such County Lunatic Asylum as at any Time during its Continuance; and it shall not be lawful for the Committee of Visitors appointed for the Building, Erection, and Management of such County Lunatic Asylum, to enter into any Contract or Contracts for the Purchase of Lands or Houses, for the Erection of new Buildings, or for the Extension or Alteration of existing Buildings, for the Purposes of such County Lunatic Asylum, or the Yards, Outlets, and Courts thereto belonging, at a Sum or Sums which may in the whole exceed the Sum so from time to time limited and appointed by the Justices assembled in Sessions as aforesaid; and no Contract so entered into by such Visitors shall be held to be valid or legal.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for, and the said Visitors, with the previous Consent of the major Part of the said Justices assembled in Sessions, shall have full Power and Authority to take a Demise or Grant of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, on the Site or Sites of which it shall be proposed to erect or maintain any such County Lunatic Asylum, as a Rent in the Nature of Fee Farm Rent; but such Grant or Demise shall contain a Power for such Justices to purchase the Fee Simple, free from Incumbrances, on Payment of any agreed Sum, not to exceed Thirty Years Purchase of the Rent reserved.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any County Lunatic Asylum so provided or so to be provided for any County or Counties, or any Part thereof, or any Addition to any County Lunatic Asylum already provided, shall be situate within the Limits of any other County, then and in every such Case the Justices of the Peace for the County or Counties to which such County Lunatic Asylum shall belong shall have full Power and Authority to act therein, so far as concerns the Regulation of the same, in the like Manner as if such County Lunatic Asylum, or the Additions thereto, were situate within the Bounds of their respective Counties.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all future Rates, Taxes, and Levies to be made for any Parish or Place in which any Land or Ground already purchased or to be purchased under the Provisions of this or any former Act, for the Purposes of any County Lunatic Asylum, shall be situate, such Land or Ground, with any Buildings to be erected thereon, shall not be assessed to any such Rates, Taxes, or Levies, at a higher Value and more improved Rent than the same Land or Ground was at the

Time of such Purchase; nor shall any Building or Buildings, which under this or any former Act has been or shall be erected on such Land, be assessed to any House or Window Tax; any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been established under the Authority of this Act, or any former Act or Acts, the major Part of the Visitors appointed as aforesaid to superintend the same, present at a Meeting duly summoned, such major Part not being fewer than Three, shall from time to time make such Regulations as to them shall seem expedient for the Management and Conduct thereof, in which Regulations shall be set forth the Number and Description of Officers and Servants to be kept, the Duties to be assigned, and what Salaries respectively shall be paid to them, and may appoint a Treasurer, and such other Officers and Servants, together with such Number of Assistants as they shall from time to time find necessary, in proportion to the Number of Persons confined in such County Lunatic Asylum, and may dismiss any such Officer, Servant, or Assistant, if they see Occasion; and shall from time to time fix a certain weekly Rate to be paid for each Person confined in such County Lunatic Asylum, which may be sufficient to defray the whole Expenses of the Maintenance and Care, Medicine and Clothing, requisite for such Person, and the Salaries of the Officers and Assistants: Provided always, that such Rate shall in no Case exceed Fourteen Shillings per Week; and that the said Visitors shall annually audit the Accounts of the Treasurer, and report the same to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the Counties at the Expense of which such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been erected.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if the aforesaid Rate of Fourteen Shillings shall be found insufficient, it shall be lawful for the major Part of the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County or Counties at whose Expense such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been established, present at any Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County or Counties, or any Adjournment thereof (such major Part not being less than Seven), to make such Addition to such Rate as to them shall seem fit and necessary, and to make an Order accordingly; which Order shall be signed by the Clerk of the Peace, or their Deputies, on behalf of the Court for their respective Counties, and forthwith published in some Newspaper circulated within the County or Counties; and such additional Rates shall be paid by the Owners of the Poor of the Parishes, Townships, or Places to which the Inmate Persons in such County Lunatic Asylum respectively belong, in the same Manner as is provided by this Act with regard to the weekly Rate from time to time to be fixed on by the Visitors for the Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Inmate Persons.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every Case where a County Lunatic Asylum shall be provided, a Chaplain shall be appointed for the same, which Chaplain shall be in full Orders, and shall be licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese; and the said Licence shall be revocable by the Bishop whenever he shall think fit to withdraw it; and such Chaplain shall perform on each Sunday, and on the great Festivals, the Divine Service of our Church, according to the Form by Law established.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That such Visitors may from time to time order all such Repairs or other Expenses as may be necessary for such County Lunatic Asylum, and shall direct the same to be paid by an Order upon the County Treasurer where such County Lunatic Asylum shall be established by One County only, or shall apportion the same as aforesaid among upon such County or Counties Asylum, when Two or more County or Counties and Lunatic Asylum are united, and shall make an Order upon the Treasurer of each of the said united Counties, and Treasurer of such Asylum, for the Payment of the Proportions to be paid by such County or Lunatic Asylum, and that such Treasurer shall immediately discharge the same out of any Money which may then be in his Hands, under the Penalty of Double such Sum as he shall be directed to pay, to be recovered from him. So the Benefit of such County Lunatic Asylum, by Action in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, by the Treasurer of the said County Lunatic Asylum, provided that an Order or Determination to be made at any Meeting of the Visitors which shall be held under this Act shall be made, nor unless due Notice of such Meeting shall have been previously given, according to the Provisions of this Act, or according to the Rules and Regulations made by the Visitors; and that all Acts, Orders, and Proceedings which by this Act are directed to be had, made, or done by or before the said Visitors, and all the Powers and Authorities by this Act vested in them generally, shall and may be made and done by the major Part of such Visitors present at the respective Meetings to be held by virtue of this Act, such major Part not being fewer than Three.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Committee of Visitors of any County Lunatic Asylum shall neglect to adjourn any Meeting held for the Purpose of this Act, or where any Circumstances shall occur rendering the Meeting of such Committee necessary within the Period to which their Meeting may have been adjourned, it shall be lawful for the Clerk to such Committee to convene a new Meeting by a Circular Letter to each Member of such Committee, informing him of the Time and Place of such Meeting, Ten Days at least before the same shall be held.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Visitors may sue and be sued in the Name of their Clerk, and that no Action that may be brought or commenced by or against the said Visitors, or any of them, by virtue of this Act, in the Name of the Clerk, shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Clerk, or by the Act of such Clerk without the Consent of the said Visitors, or any Five or more of them, but the Clerk to the Visitors for the Time being shall always be deemed Plaintiff or Defendant in such Action, as the Case shall be.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace acting in and for any County within England, at their several Party Sessions which shall be held once after the Fifteenth Day of August in each Year, shall and they are hereby required to issue their Warrants to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parishes within their respective Subdivisions, in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed (No. 5.), to return Lists of all Insane Persons chargeable to their respective Parishes, specifying the Name, Sex, and Age of each Insane Person, and whether such Insane Person be dangerous or otherwise, and for what Length of Time they have been disordered in their Senses, and where confined, or how otherwise disposed of; and the Overseers of the Poor as aforesaid shall, on the Receipt of such Warrants, forthwith prepare such Lists accordingly, in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed (No. 4.), and such Lists shall be verified on Oath before any One Justice of the Peace, and, accompanied with a Certificate as to the State and Condition of every Insane Person from a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, shall within Fifteen Days be transmitted by such Overseer to the Clerk of the Peace acting in and for such County, or his Deputy, to be by him laid before the Justices acting for such County at their next General Quarter Sessions; and any Overseer of the Poor to whom any such Warrant shall have been directed and delivered, who shall not return such List so verified on Oath, and so accompanied with such Certificate as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence be subject to a Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be levied by Warrant of Distress, under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices of the Peace; and it shall be lawful for such Overseers of the Poor, and they are hereby required, to delay the necessary Execution of the Examination of such Insane Persons by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, not of the Poor Rates of the Parish, Township, or Place to which such Insane Persons respectively belong, or where the legal Settlement of such Insane Person shall not have been ascertained, then out of the Poor Rates of the Parish, Township, or Place in which such Insane Person shall reside.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Overseer of the Poor of any Parish or Place to which any Insane Person shall be chargeable, shall for the Space of Seven Days wilfully neglect to give Information of the State of such Person to some Justice of the Peace acting within the Division of the County within which the said Parish or Place is situate, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum of Money not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings (Half to the Informer and Half to the Treasurer of the County, to be by him placed to the Credit of the County), to be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two Justices of the Peace for the County to which such Parish or Place is situate.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon its being made known to any Justice of the Peace of any County, that a Poor Person chargeable to any Parish or Place within such County is detained in his House, either by Notice from the Overseer of such Parish or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the said Justice, by an Order under his Hand and Seal, if he shall so think fit, to require the Overseer of the Poor of the said Parish or Place to bring the said Insane Person before any Two Justices of the Peace of the said County, at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by the said Order; and the said Justices are hereby required to call to their Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, at the Charge of the said Parish or Place; and if upon View and Examination of the said poor Person, or from other Proof, the said Justices shall be satisfied that such poor Person is insane, the said Justices shall make Inquiry into the Place of last legal Settlement of such Insane Person; and it shall be lawful for them, if they shall so think fit, by an Order under their Hands and Seals, directed to the said Overseer of the Poor, according to the Form in the Schedule (5.) annexed to this Act, to cause the said poor Person to be conveyed to and placed in the County Lunatic Asylum established under the Direction of this or any former Act, for the County, or District of United Counties, for which or any of which they shall act, and if no such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been established, then to some public Hospital or some House duly licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons; and it shall be lawful for the said or any other Two Justices of the Peace of the said County, from time to time, as Occasion may require, to make Order on the Overseer of the Parish or Place wherein such last legal Settlement shall be adjudged to be, for the Payment of all reasonable Charges of conveying such poor Person to such County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House; and if such poor Person shall be conveyed to such County Lunatic Asylum or public Hospital, for the Payment of such weekly Sum to the Treasurer of such County Lunatic Asylum, or proper Officer of such public Hospital respectively, as shall be from time to time fixed upon by the Visitors of such County Lunatic Asylum, or as may be required by the Regulations of such public Hospital; or if such poor Person shall be conveyed to such Licensed House, for the Payment of such weekly or monthly Sum to the Keeper of such Licensed House, for the Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such poor Person, as such Keeper shall be willing to accept, and as shall appear to the said Justices to be a reasonable Charge on that Behalf, and the said last-mentioned Overseer shall not remove such poor Person from the said House, without an Order for that Purpose made by Two Justices of the Peace for the County in which such House shall be situate, after due Inquiry into the Circumstances of the Case, unless such Person shall have been discharged as cured: Provided always, that the Overseer or other Person so conveying such Insane Person to such County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House as aforesaid, shall and is hereby required to deliver a Certificate from the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary so called to the Assistance of the Justices as aforesaid, which Certificate such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary is hereby required to give, according to the Form in Schedule (5.) annexed to this Act, to the Superintendent of such County Lunatic Asylum or public Hospital, or Keeper of such Licensed House, as the Case may be.

XXXIX. And

XXXX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where Application shall be made to the Visitors of any County Lunatic Asylum, by any Relative or Friend of a Pauper Lunatic Person confined therein, requiring that he may be delivered over to his Custody and Care, it shall and may be lawful for the Visitors aforesaid, if they shall think fit, upon the Undertaking of such Relative or Friend so aforesaid, to the Satisfaction of the Overseers of the Parish to which such Pauper Lunatic belongs, that he shall be no longer chargeable to such Parish, to discharge such Pauper Lunatic.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a Medical Practitioner, to be duly authorized and appointed at the Charge of any Parish, shall, with the Consent of the Overseers or Guardians and Directors of the Poor of such Parish, twice Liberty, Eight Times in every Year, between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and Six in the Evening, to visit and examine such Pauper Patients belonging to the said Parish as shall be confined in the public Hospital, County Lunatic Asylum, if any such County Asylum shall have been established, or in the House duly licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons, within which any Pauper Patient belonging to such Parish shall be confined, and to report to such Overseers, Guardians, or Directors of the Poor the Result of such Inspection and Examination.

XLII. And Whereas it sometimes happens that the Place of legal Settlement of such Insane Persons cannot be ascertained: Be it enacted, That in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Justices, by their said Warrant, to direct such Person to be confined in the County Lunatic Asylum for the County, or District of Counties, within which such Person shall have been found, if any such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been established, and if no such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been established, in some public Hospital or House duly licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons as aforesaid, and to direct that the reasonable Charges for the Removal, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Person shall be assessed and paid by the Treasurer of the County within which such Person shall be found, out of the County Rates, by Order of Two Justices so has directed for that Purpose.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the legal Settlement of any Insane Person, confined under any Order of any Two Justices at any County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or any Licensed House, has not been ascertained, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices acting in and for the County in which such County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House is situate, at any Time to inquire into the last legal Settlement of such Insane Person, and if satisfactory Evidence can be obtained as to such Settlement, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to make an Order upon the Overseers of the Parish or Township where such last legal Settlement of such Insane Person shall be adjudged to be, for the Reimbursement of the reasonable Charges of the Removing, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Insane Person, incurred within Twelve Calendar Months previous to the Date of such Order, such Charges having been first proved to the Satisfaction of such Justices, and the Amount thereof being set forth in such Order, and it shall and may be lawful for the said or any other Two Justices of the Peace of the said County, to provide for the future Expenses necessary for the Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Insane Person, in the Manner as has been heretofore directed for the Two Justices before whom such Person was originally committed.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where Two Justices are empowered to make an Order on the Overseer or Overseers of any Parish, for the Payment of reasonable Charges of Conveyance of Pauper Lunatics, or for the Payment of weekly or monthly Sums for the Maintenance, Clothing, and Care of such poor Persons, it shall be lawful for Two Justices of the County in which such County Lunatic Asylum shall be situate to make such Order on the Overseer or Overseers of any other County which shall jointly maintain such Asylum.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That upon its being made known to any Justice of the Peace that any Person wandering about and at large within his Jurisdiction is deemed to be insane, it shall be lawful for such Justice, by an Order under his Hand and Seal, if he shall so think fit, to require the Constable or Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Person is found, or some of them, to bring the said Person before any Two Justices of the Peace of the said County, at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by the said Order; and the said Justices are hereby required to call to their Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, at the Charge of the said Parish or Place; and if upon Examination of such Person deemed to be insane, or from other Proof, the said Justices shall be satisfied that such Person is so deranged in his Senses that it is dangerous for such Person to be permitted to go at large, the said Justices shall make Inquiry into the Circumstances and Place of last legal Settlement of such Insane Person, and it shall be lawful for such Justices to proceed in such Case in the same Manner as has heretofore been directed in the Case of a Person chargeable to any Parish within the Jurisdiction of the said Justices: Provided always, if it shall appear to the said or any other Two Justices, upon Inquiry, that such Person hath an Estate more than sufficient to maintain his or her Family, they shall, by Order under their Hands and Seals, direct the Overseers or Churchwardens of any Parish or Place where any Goods, Chattels, Lands, or Tenements of such Person shall be, to seize and sell so much of the Goods and Chattels, or revenue so much of the Annual Rent of the Lands and Tenements of such Person, as is necessary to pay the Charges of Removal, Maintenance, Clothing, Medicine, and Care of such Insane Person, according for the time at the next Quarter Sessions, such Charges having been first proved to the Satisfaction of such Justices, and the Amount thereof being set forth in such Order: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to restrain or prevent any Relative or Friend from taking such Insane Person under their own Care and Protection.

Visitors may deliver any Pauper to his Relations or Friends upon their order, taking them to such as no longer chargeable. Medical Practitioner appointed by Justices may visit Eight Times in the Year Pauper Patients confined in any public Hospital, &c.

Where the legal Settlement of Insane Persons is discovered, Justices shall send them to the Asylum, or other Place of Confinement for the County where found.

If Settlement has not been ascertained, Two Justices may inquire into the same, and if needed may make Order for Payment of the Expenses.

Justices of the County in which an Asylum is situate may make Orders upon Overseers of any other County jointly maintaining.

If Persons are wandering about and deemed to be insane, although not chargeable, Justices may proceed as in case of Persons chargeable, and make Order for Maintenance.

If the Estate of the Insane Person shall be sufficient, Overseers may levy for their Expenses.

Justice to make Order shall give his Reasons in Writing.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

Justices to make Return to the Quarter Sessions of the Cases brought before them.

Sums directed to be paid by Overseers to be levied by Distress if Overseers shall neglect to pay.

Records of Lunatics to have the legal Sanction of the Justices.

Lunatic Asylums not to be liable for the Reception of Lunatics chargeable to any Place which does not contribute to the Expence.

When any Asylum can accommodate more Lunatics, Visitors may order an Addition, whether Paupers or not, under certain Regulations.

Provision for Maintenance of Patients not being Paupers.

Provision for Persons being Lunatics in their own right, when they go out at large without an Order from the Justices.

XLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace shall refuse to make an Order for the Conveyance of any Insane Person to any County Lunatic Asylum, or Licensed House for the Reception of Insane Persons, on the Application of any Governor of the Poor for such Purpose, he shall deliver to the said Governor his Reasons in Writing for such Refusal.

XLVI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall feel aggrieved by any Order, or by any Refusal of an Order, of any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the County where the Matter of Appeal shall have arisen, the Person so appealing having given to the Justice or Justices against whom such Appeal shall be made Ten Days Notice of his or her Intention to make such Appeal, and the said Justices at such Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal in a summary Way, and to make such Determination as they shall think proper; and every such Determination shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Justice who shall have issued an Order for the Conveyance of any Insane Person to such County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House, or who shall have refused to issue such Order, on the Application of the Governor of the Poor of any Parish, shall make a regular Return to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the County in which such Parish shall be situate, of all such Cases brought before him, stating in all Cases of Refusal the Reasons thereof, and such Returns shall be regularly filed, and kept among the Records of each Court of General Quarter Sessions.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Overseer for the Time being of any Parish, upon whom any Order of Justices for the Payment of Money under the Provisions of this Act shall have been made, shall, for the Space of Twenty Days next after due Notice of such Order, refuse or neglect to pay the Sums so ordered to be paid, the said Sums, together with the Expences of recovering the same, shall be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Overseer so refusing or neglecting, or any of them, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two Justices of any their respective Counties.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That no Bastard Child which shall be born of any Insane Person in any such County Lunatic Asylum shall hereby gain a Settlement in the Parish in which such County Lunatic Asylum shall be situate, but that the Place of the legal Settlement of any such Child so born as aforesaid shall be in the Parish where the Mother of such Child was last legally settled.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to render any County Lunatic Asylum which may be provided under the Authority of this Act, for the Use of any County or united Counties, liable to the Reception of Insane Persons who may be chargeable to or apprehended in any City, Town, Precinct, Parish, Township, or Place situate within the Limits of such County or united Counties, but claiming Exemption and being exempt from contributing to the County Rate, unless such City, Town, Precinct, Parish, Township, or Place shall have agreed to write, and shall thereby have contributed to the Expence of the same.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Visitors of any County Lunatic Asylum, that the Space within such County Lunatic Asylum is more than sufficient for the Accommodation of Insane Persons, being Paupers, within the District for which such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been built, it shall and may be lawful for such Visitors to make Order for the Admission of so many Insane Patients as to them shall seem expedient, not being Pauper or Criminal, or being Paupers, but belonging to any other County, or to any Parish, Township, or Place within the County or Counties by which such County Lunatic Asylum shall have been provided, exempt from contributing to the County Rate of such County or Counties, and which shall not have united with such County or Counties, or contributed to the Expence of such Erection, under the Conditions and Regulations following: (that is to say,) that no such Insane Patient shall be admitted into such County Lunatic Asylum without an Order signed by One Visitor, directed to the Governor or Superintendent of such County Lunatic Asylum, nor without the Certificate, in Writing, of a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, certifying the Insanity of such Patient, nor without an Undertaking, signed by Two substantial Householders, or the Minister and One of the Churchwardens, or the Minister and One of the Governors of the Poor of the Parish or Place to which such Insane Person shall belong, for the due Payment of the weekly Allowance and other Expences contingent upon the Maintenance and Care of such Insane Person during his or her Continuance in such County Lunatic Asylum, as well as for the Removal of such Insane Person from such County Lunatic Asylum within Three Days after due Notice given, in Writing, by the Governor or Superintendent of such County Lunatic Asylum, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as other Penalties are directed to be recovered and applied by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that the weekly Penalties for the Maintenance of such Patients, not being Paupers, shall be fixed by the Visitors at such Rate as shall in their Judgment be sufficient to cover every Expence liable to be incurred on account of such Patient.

LII. And be it further enacted, That all Insane Persons committed to such County Lunatic Asylum shall be safely kept, and that no such Person shall be suffered to quit the said County Lunatic Asylum, or to be at large, until the major Part of the Visitors of such County Lunatic Asylum, present at a Meeting duly convened under the Authority of this Act, not being less than Three, shall order the Discharge of such Person, and shall signify the same in Writing under their Hands and Seals, or send any Two Visitors shall, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary usually attending in such County Lunatic Asylum, discharge from such County Lunatic Asylum any Lunatic committed therein, whose perfect Recovery may be certified by the said Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, Apotachary, by the his Order under their Hands and Seals; and that if any Officer, Servant, or Assistant in such County Lunatic Asylum shall, notwithstanding, through Neglect or Consequence, permit such Person in any Case to escape and be at large, without such Order as aforesaid, he or she shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, to be recovered by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two Justices of the Peace acting for the County in which such County Lunatic Asylum shall be situated, which Warrant such Justices are hereby required to grant upon the Confession of the Party, or upon the Information of any Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, which Oath such Justices are hereby empowered to administer; and the said Penalty, after the Charges of recovering the same shall be deducted, shall be paid, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Treasurer of the said County Lunatic Asylum, to be applied to the Use of the same.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That on the regular Discharge of any Pauper from any such County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House, the necessary Expenses attending the Removal of such Pauper shall be borne by the Parish in which such Pauper shall be legally settled; and such Expenses, being proved to the Satisfaction of and allowed by Two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County in which such Parish, County Lunatic Asylum, public Hospital, or Licensed House shall be situated, shall be paid by the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish out of the Money raised therein for the Relief of the Poor.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person shall be kept in Custody as an Insane Person by Order of any Court, or by His Majesty's Order subsequent thereto, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace of the County where such Person shall be so kept in Custody, to enquire into and ascertain, by the best legal Evidence that can be procured under the Circumstances of personal legal Disability of such Insane Person, the Place of the last legal Settlement, and the Circumstances of such Person; and if it shall not appear that he or she is possessed of sufficient Property which can be applied to his or her Maintenance, it shall and may be lawful for such Two Justices to make Order, under their Hands and Seals, upon such Parish where they adjudge him or her to be legally settled, to pay such weekly Sum for his or her Maintenance in such Place of Custody as One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, by Writing under his Hand, from time to time direct; and where such Place of Settlement cannot be ascertained, such Order shall be made upon the Treasurer of the County where such Person shall have been apprehended; but if it shall appear that such Person is possessed of such sufficient Property as aforesaid, then such Justices shall order and direct the same to be applied to pay and satisfy the Expense of the Maintenance of such Person, in the Manner herebefore directed: Provided always, that the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish in which the Justices, or the major Part of them, shall adjudge any Insane Person to be settled, may appeal against such Order to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County where such Order shall be made, in like Manner and under like Restrictions and Regulations as against any Order of Removal, giving reasonable Notice thereof to the Clerk of the Peace of such County, who shall be Respondent in such Appeal; which Appeal the Justices of the Peace assembled at the said General Quarter Sessions are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, in the same Manner as Appeals against Orders of Removal are now heard and determined.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person while imprisoned in any Prison or other Place of Confinement in England, under any Sentence of Imprisonment or Transportation, shall become insane, and it shall be duly certified by Two Physicians or Surgeons that such Person is insane, it shall be lawful for One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to direct, by Warrant under his Hand, that such Person shall be removed to such County Lunatic Asylum, or other proper Receiptable for Insane Persons, as His Majesty's said Principal Secretary of State may judge proper and appoint; and every such Person so removed shall remain under Confinement in such County Lunatic Asylum, or other proper Receiptable as aforesaid, or in any other County Lunatic Asylum, or other proper Receiptable, to which such Person may be removed by any like Order, until it shall be duly certified to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Two Physicians or Surgeons, that such Person has become of sound Mind; whereupon His Majesty's said Secretary of State is hereby authorized, if such Person shall still remain subject to be continued in Custody, to issue his Warrant to the Keeper or other Person having the Care of any such County Lunatic Asylum, or other proper Receiptable as aforesaid, directing that such Person shall be removed back from thence to the Prison or other Place of Confinement from whence he shall have been taken; or if the Period of Imprisonment or Custody of such Person shall have expired, that he shall be discharged.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Visitors of each County Lunatic Asylum shall, within One Month previous to the First Day of June in every Year, prepare a Report of the Patients confined therein, or who shall have been confined therein within the Twelve Months preceding, according to the Form in Schedule No. 7. hereto annexed; of which Report a Transcript shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the Visitors to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and the Clerk of each Visitor shall transmit a Copy of such Report to the Clerk of the Commissioners appointed under an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to regulate the Care and Treatment of Insane Persons in England, who shall enter the same in a Register to be kept by him for that Purpose, and the Names of all such Patients mentioned in such Report shall be by him entered in one general Alphabetical List, together with a Reference to the County Lunatic Asylum from whence such Reports shall have been respectively transmitted.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, if he shall see fit, to employ any Medical or other Person to inspect and enquire into the State of any County Lunatic Asylum, and to report to him the Result of such Inspection and Enquiry; every such Medical or other Person so employed shall be paid such Sum of Money for his Attendance and Trouble as to His Majesty's and Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall seem an adequate and reasonable Allowance; and such Expenses shall be defrayed in the same Manner and from the same Funds as the other Expenses attending the County Lunatic Asylum so visited.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Complaints and Informations of and for Offences against this Act, or any Order to be made in pursuance thereof, except in Cases where the Manner of hearing and determining thereof is heretofore otherwise directed, shall and may be made before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place wherein the Offence shall be committed, and such Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and empowered to take cognizance thereof, and to summon the Person or Persons complained of to appear before him or them, or upon Complaint upon Oath to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants for the Apprehension of any such Person or Persons, and upon appearing or not appearing of such Person or Persons pursuant to such Warrant, or upon such Person or Persons being apprehended with such Warrant, to hear the Matter of every such Complaint and Information, by Examination of any Witnesses upon Oath, and to make such Determination thereon as such Justice or Justices shall think proper; and upon Conviction of any Person such Justice or Justices shall and may issue a Warrant, under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, for levying the Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, by virtue of this Act imposed for such Offence, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person so convicted; and it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice or Justices to order any Person so convicted to be detained and kept in the Custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the said Offender shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, for his Appearance before the said Justice or Justices on each Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, each Day not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Justice or Justices as and are hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant of Distress it shall appear that an sufficient Distress can be had thereupon to levy the said Penalty or Forfeiture, and such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice, either by the Confession of the Offender or Offenders or otherwise, that the Offender or Offenders hath or have not sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith such Penalties, Forfeitures, Fines, Costs, and Charges may be levied, were a Warrant of Distress issued, such Justice shall not be required to issue such Warrant of Distress, and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they as and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture, and all reasonable Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, when recovered, shall, where the Application is not otherwise directed by this Act, be paid into the Hands of the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed; and the Oresplus, if any, arising from such Distress and Sale, after Payment of the Penalty, and the Costs and Charges attending the same, shall be returned, upon Demand, to the Owner of the Goods and Chattels so distrained.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons thinking himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Order or Judgment made or given, or by the Order or Determination of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act, may, within Four Calendar Months after such Order shall be made or given, complain to the Justices of the Peace at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, the Person or Persons appealing having first given at least Fourteen Days' clear Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and the Nature and Matter thereof, to the Person or Persons appealed against, and forthwith after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the said County, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order and Award of the said Court thereupon; and the said Justices, upon the Proof of such Notice and Recognizance having been given and entered into, shall, in a summary Way, hear and determine such Complaint at such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said County, or, if they think proper, adjourn the Hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said County, and if they see Cause may mitigate any Forfeiture or Fine, and may order any Money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such Order or Determination, and shall and may also award such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured, or such Costs to either of the Parties, as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such Determinations of the said Justices shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all Parties to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

LXVI. And, in order to remove Doubts as to the Meaning of certain Words in this Act, be it enacted, That the Word "Justice" shall be deemed to mean Justice of the Peace; and that the Words "Treasurer of the County" shall be deemed to include any Officer in any County, Riding, Division of the County of Lincoln, Liberty, Convey of a City, County of a Town, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, who

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be appointed a Commissioner as aforesaid shall, before he shall act in the Execution of his Duty as a Commissioner, take an Oath, or of a Quaker, make a solemn Affirmation, to the following Effect: (that is to say),

' I A. B. do swear (or solemnly affirm), That I will faithfully and impartially execute all the Trusts committed unto me by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Care and Treatment of Insane Persons in England.

' So help me GOD.'

Which Oath or solemn Affirmation it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, or one of His Under Secretaries, to administer to every such Commissioner so to be appointed as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be appointed Commissioner as aforesaid, who shall be, or who shall have been within the Two Years then next preceeding, directly or indirectly interested in the keeping any House licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons; and if any Person shall after his Appointment become so interested, and continue to act as such Commissioner, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and his Appointment as Commissioner shall thenceforth become null and void, and it shall not be lawful for him to act as such Commissioner.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That at all Meetings of the said Commissioners the Majority present shall choose a Chairman; and in case of an Equality of Votes, he shall have a Second or casting Vote.

VII. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department is hereby empowered, by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal, to appoint during Pleasure a fit Person to be Treasurer for the Purpose of this Act, and Clerk to such Commissioners, and to allow such Person such Salary for his Trouble as His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall think reasonable, exclusive of the Fees to be received by him under this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Clerk shall at the First Meeting of the said Commissioners next after he shall be appointed take the following Oath, to be administered by the Chairman of such Commissioners:

' I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute all such Trusts as shall be committed to my Charge as Clerk to the Commissioners for executing an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Care and Treatment of Insane Persons in England; and that I will keep secret all such Matters as shall come to my Knowledge in the Execution of my Office (except when required to divulge the same by legal Authority); and that I am not, nor have been at any Time within the last Two Years, directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in keeping any House for the Reception of Insane Persons.

' So help me GOD.'

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners or any Five or more of them, Two of whom at the least shall not be Physicians or Surgeons, shall meet at such Place as His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department may direct, on the First Wednesday in the Month of January, January, April, July, and October in every Year, in order to receive Applications from Persons requiring Licences to keep Houses for the Reception of Two or more Inmate Persons within the Cities of London or Westminster, and within Seven Miles of the same, and within the said County of Middlesex, and to grant the said Licences if they shall think fit; and in case on any such Occasion Five such Commissioners shall not be present, then the Meeting shall take place on the next succeeding Wednesday, and so on weekly, till such Quorum of Five shall be assembled for the above-mentioned Purpose; and the said Commissioners assembled at every such Meeting shall have Power to adjourn such Meeting from time to time, and to such Place, as they shall see fit.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all other Parts of England (except the Cities of London and Westminster, or within Seven Miles thereof, and the County of Middlesex) the Justices of the Peace assembled in General Quarter Sessions shall have Authority within their respective Counties to grant Licences, if they shall think fit, to Persons for keeping Houses for the Reception of Inmate Persons, to the same Manner as the aforesaid Commissioners within their Jurisdiction: Provided always, that no Justice of the Peace shall not in granting such Licence, who shall directly or indirectly be interested in keeping any such House for the Reception of Inmate Persons.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices shall, at the Michaelmas General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in every Year, appoint Three or more Justices of the Peace, and also One or more Physician or Surgeon or Apothecary, to act as Visitors of each House of Reception for Two or more Inmate Persons within the County; and the said Justices, Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, so appointed as Visitors for each House as aforesaid, or any Two of them, shall and are lawfully authorized and empowered to visit such House, in manner directed by this Act; and such Visitor, being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, shall be allowed and paid, for every Day he shall be employed in executing the Duties imposed upon him by this Act, such Sum out of the County Rates as the Justices in General Quarter Sessions shall be pleased to direct: Provided also, that in case of the Death of any Justice, Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary so appointed Visitor as aforesaid, or of his Barred or Inability by reason of Illness or otherwise to act as such, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, at any General or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, to appoint a Visitor in the Room of such Justice, Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, who shall die, or refuse or become unable to act as aforesaid, and the Names of all such Visitors so appointed at the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions, or at any General or Adjourned Sessions of the Peace, shall, within Seven Days after the Appointment, be published in some Newspaper circulated in the County wherein such House shall be situate: Provided always, that no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, interested in or employed in any such House, shall be appointed any such Visitor.

XII. And be it further enacted, That a Person duly appointed by the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions, shall act as Clerk to the Visitors so appointed as aforesaid, in the same Manner and for the same Purpose in the Execution of this Act as the Clerk to the said Commissioners is hereby directed to act; and shall at the first Meeting of such Visitors take the Oath required by this Act to be taken by the Clerk of the said Commissioners to be appointed under this Act en verbo matris, each Oath to be administered by one of such Visitors, and the said Clerk so appointed shall be paid out of the County Rate for his Services, as well in granting Licences as in attending the said Visitors, such Remuneration as the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled shall think fit.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall apply for a Licence for keeping a House for the Reception of Two or more Inmate Persons, shall give Notice to the Clerk for the Time being of the said Commissioners, or to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Fourteen Days at the least prior to any of the Quarterly Meetings of the said Commissioners, or to any General Quarter Sessions for the County, which Notice shall contain the true Christian and Surname of the Person so applying for a Licence, and the Place of Abode of every such Person; and in case such Person so applying does not propose to reside himself in the said House, the Name and previous Occupation of the Superintendent who is to reside therein; and such Notice, when given, upon Application for a Licence being first made, shall be accompanied by a Plan of every such House proposed to be licensed, to be drawn upon a Scale of not less than One Eighth of an Inch to a Foot, with a Description of the Situation thereof, and of every Room and Apartment therein, and a Statement of the greatest Number of Patients proposed to be received into such House; such Notice and Plan to be left with the said Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Peace, and to be by him laid before the said Commissioners at their Meeting, or before the Justices at their next General Quarter Sessions.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That Notice of any Additions or Alterations that shall have been made to any House licensed under this Act, shall be given to the Clerk of the Commissioners or to the Clerk of the Peace within One Calendar Month next after the Completion thereof, and a Plan of all such Additions and Alterations, to be drawn upon the Scale aforesaid, shall be within the same Time transmitted to the Clerk of the Commissioners, or the Clerk of the Peace of the County wherein such House shall be situate, by the Person to whom the Licence shall have been granted; and if any Person shall wilfully and with Intention to deceive omit giving a full and complete Plan of the whole of the House to be licensed, or of any and of all such Additions and Alterations as shall have been made, he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every such Licence shall be made out by the Clerk of the Commissioners or the Clerk of the Peace, as the Case may require, and the same shall be renewed every Year; and for the first and every annual Licence to be granted to any Person for keeping a House for the Reception of Two or more Inmate Persons, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Peace, exclusive of the Sum to be paid for the Stamp, the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence for every Parish Patient, and the Sum of Ten Shillings for every other Inmate Person specified therein as proposed to be received into such House: Provided always, that for no Licence to be so granted shall be paid less than Fifteen Pence, and that all Moneys to be received for such Licences shall be retained by the Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Peace, and from such Moneys all the Expenses required to be disbursed in the Execution of this Act shall be paid and defrayed, upon the Order of the said Commissioners or Visitors; and such Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Peace shall keep a true and correct Account of all such Receipts and Payments, which Account shall be made up, by the Clerk of the Commissioners, to the Thirty-first Day of May, and by the Clerk of the Peace, in the Day before the Michaelmas Quarter Sessions in every Year, and shall be signed by Five or more Commissioners and Two or more Visitors, as the Case may be, and the said Account, when made out by the Clerk of the Commissioners, shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, who shall thereupon, if they shall deem it necessary, direct the Balance to be paid into the Exchequer, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund, and if there shall be any Balance due to the said Clerk to the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby empowered, to cause the same to be issued and paid from time to time out of any Money in the Exchequer applicable to the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund; but the said Account, when made out by the Clerk of the Peace in any County, shall be laid before the Justices at their Michaelmas Quarter Sessions: and if it shall appear by the said Account that there is a Balance in the Hands of the Clerk of the Peace, the same shall forthwith be paid, by an Order of the said Visitors, to the Treasurer of the County, in aid of the County Rate; and when there shall be found to be any Balance due to such Clerk of the Peace, such Balance shall be paid to him by the Treasurer of the County out of the County Rate, as Order for such Payment being made and signed by Two or more Justices.

XVI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That all Licences to be granted by the said Commissioners or Justices shall be duly stamped with a Ten Shilling Stamp, and shall be under the Hands and Seals of Five or more of the said Commissioners, Two of whom shall not be Physicians or Surgeons, or of Three or more of the said Justices, as the Case may require; and every such Licence shall contain, as well the Christian and Surname, and the Profession or Occupation of the Person in whose the same shall be granted, as also the Christian and Surname of the Superintendent or Head Keeper of the House as proposed to be licensed, to cause the Person so applying does not intend to reside therein; and also the said Licence shall specify the greatest Number of Patients, distinguishing Parish from other Inmate Patients, to be received under the Authority thereof, in the House so licensed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if at any Time a Majority of any Five of the Commissioners appointed under this Act, (One whereof not being a Physician or Surgeon) or any Three Visitors appointed under this Act, shall recommend to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department for the Time being, that any Licence or Licences granted by virtue of this Act should be revoked, it shall and may be lawful for such Secretary of State, after making such Enquiries as he shall think necessary, to revoke the same by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal; such Revocation to take Effect at a Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months from the Time Notice thereof shall have been given in the London Gazette; and a Copy of such Instrument of Revocation shall be transmitted to the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted, his or her Executors or Administrators, by the Clerk of the Commissioners or Visitors in their respective Jurisdictions, before any such Publication shall take place: Provided always, that in case of such Revocation being proposed to such Secretary of State, Notice in Writing shall be given to the Parties so complained of, Seven Days previous to the Transmission of such Recommendation to such Secretary of State.

XVIII. Be it further enacted, That in case the said Commissioners or Justices shall refuse to re-new any Licence for keeping a House for Inmate Patients, Notice of such Refusal shall be given in manner heretofore mentioned in the Case of revoking any such Licence, and His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department for the Time being shall be empowered, upon the Representation of the said Commissioners or Justices respectively, by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal, to be delivered within One Month after receiving such Representation, to sanction and confirm the Refusal of the said Commissioners or Justices to re-new such Licence: Provided nevertheless, that the original Licence of such House shall remain in force until His Majesty's said Secretary of State shall have confirmed as aforesaid the Revocation of the said Commissioners or Justices not to re-new such Licence.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after the Commencement of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to keep a House for the Reception of any Two or more Inmate Persons, without a Licence for that Purpose first had and obtained in the Manner directed by this Act, and every Person so keeping such House as aforesaid, without having such Licence, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor: Provided always, that no One Licence for the Reception of Inmate Persons shall authorize any Person to keep more than One House for such Purpose, nor shall any Licence granted by virtue of this Act continue in force for any longer Time than Thirteen Calendar Months: Provided also, that all Licences which shall have been heretofore granted, or which shall hereafter be granted under this Act, for keeping Houses for the Reception of Two or more Inmate Persons, and notwithstanding the Death of any Person to whom any such Licence shall have been granted respectively, shall remain in full Force until the Period for which they shall have been granted shall ^bshall have expired, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, orders terminated by Resolutions by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department for the Time being, as herein mentioned.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every House licensed for the Reception of Two or more Insane Persons shall be visited by Three at least of the said Commissioners, One of whom shall not be a Medical Practitioner, within their Jurisdiction, or by Two at the least of the said Visitors appointed at Quarter Sessions, at least Four Times in every Year, on each Days and at each House of the Day between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and Six in the Evening from the Twenty-first of September to the Twenty-first of March, and between the Hours of Six in the Morning and Eight in the Evening from the Twenty-first of March to the Twenty-first of September in each Year, and with or without Notice, and for such Length of Time as they shall think fit; and they are hereby empowered to examine the Persons confined therein in such Manner as they shall see fit: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the said Commissioners or of the said Visitors to inspect or visit any of the Patients confined in such House.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if the Keeper or Superintendent of any such Licensed House, or any Keeper or Servant employed in the same, shall fraudulently conceal or attempt to conceal any Person detained as Insane in such House from the Sight, Knowledge, or Inspection of any such Commissioners or Visitors, or from any Medical or other Person authorized under the Provisions of this Act to visit and inspect any such House, and the Patients confined therein, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful and for the said Commissioners or Visitors, upon receiving Information upon Oath, which Oath they are or any One of them is hereby empowered to administer, that the Party making such Oath hath Cause to suspect and doth verily believe that some Malpractices have taken place in any House licensed under the Provisions of this Act, which Malpractices cannot be ascertained by Examination and Inspection during the Day, respectively to visit and to inspect any such House at such Hour of the Night as to them shall seem advisable, for the Purpose of examining into the Fact of such alleged Malpractices, but no farther or otherwise.

XXIII. And for the better enabling the Commissioners or Visitors executing this Act to enquire into the several Matters and Things by this Act referred to them, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Commissioners or Visitors from time to time, as they shall see Occasion, to require any Person to appear before them to testify the Truth touching any Matters relating to the Execution of the Powers given by this Act, and every Person who shall not appear before the said Commissioners or Visitors pursuant to such Request, (without accepting some reasonable Excuse for not appearing or appearing shall refuse to be sworn or examined on Oath or Affirmation, which Oath or Affirmation the said Commissioners or Visitors are hereby empowered to administer, and being thereof examined before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County in which such House is situated, upon Information thereof upon Oath made before any such Justice, shall for every such Neglect or Refusal forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds, as such Justice shall think fit and order.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That there shall be kept in every House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons a Book or Register, in which the said Commissioners and Visitors within their respective Jurisdictions, shall at every such Visitation make Minutes in Writing of the State and Condition of such Houses which they shall so visit, as to the Care of the Patients therein, and all such other Particulars as they shall think deserving of their Notice, together with their Observations thereupon.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Commissioners, and the Clerk of the Visitors respectively, shall make or cause to be made in Writing a Transcript of such Minutes, to be entered in a Register to be kept for that Purpose by the Clerk of the said Commissioners, or Clerk of the Visitors, and the same shall be approved and signed by Three at the least of the said Commissioners, or by the said Visitors, or any Two of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, and the Clerk of such Visitors shall, within Fourteen Days after such Visitation shall have been made, transmit a Copy of such Transcript or Minutes to the Clerk of the Commissioners, who shall enter the same into a General Register to be kept for that Purpose by the Clerk of the Commissioners.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Clerk of the Commissioners, and the Clerks of the Visitors, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall, within One Month previous to the First Day of June in every Year, prepare a full and complete Report of the several Houses within their respective Jurisdictions for the Reception of Insane Persons, and of every Patient confined therein, or who shall have been confined therein within the Twelve Months preceding, according to the Form in the Schedule (A.) hereto annexed; of which Report a Transcript shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the Commissioners, or the Clerk of the Visitors, to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; and the Clerk of such Visitors shall transmit a Copy of such Report to the Clerk of the Commissioners, who shall enter the same into a Register to be kept for that Purpose by the Clerk of the Commissioners.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Commissioners shall prepare from such Reports an Alphabetical List of all Persons confined, or who have been confined within the last Twelve Months, in such licensed Houses, together with a Reference to the same respectively.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a Transcript of as much of the said Report as shall have reference to Insane Persons who shall have been found Lunatic, Idiot, or of unsound Mind

Mind, under a Commission issued by the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain, being licensed by virtue of the King's Sign Manual with the Care and Consent of the Custody of the Peace and Estates of Persons found Lunatic, idiot, or of unsound Mind, shall be sent to the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Person, not being a Parish Patient, shall be received into any House kept for the Reception of Two or more Insane Persons in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, without a Certificate in the Manner directed by this Act; and if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully receive any Insane Person, or Person represented or alleged to be Insane, to be taken care of or confined in any such House licensed for the Reception of Two or more such Persons, without such Certificate bearing Date not more than Fourteen Days previous to such Reception, and shall not at the Time of receiving such Patient make a Minute Writing or Entry of the Christian and Surname, Occupation and Place of Residence of the Person or Persons by whom such Patient shall be brought, or by whose Authority such Patient shall be delivered to his Care, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate upon which any Order shall be given for the Confinement of any Person (not a Parish Patient) in a House kept for the Reception of Two or more Insane Persons, shall be signed by Two Medical Practitioners, each of them being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, who shall have separately visited and personally examined the Patient to whom it relates; and such Certificate shall state that such Insane Person is a proper Person to be confined, and the Day on which he or she shall have been so examined; and also the Christian and Surname and Place of Abode of the Person by whose Direction or Authority such Patient is examined, and the Degree of Relationship or other Circumstance of Connection between such Person and the Insane Person; and the Name, Age, Place of Residence, former Occupation, and the Asylum, if any, in which such Patient shall have been confined; and whether such Person shall have been found Lunatic or of unsound Mind under a Commission issued for that Purpose by the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid; and every such Certificate for the Confinement of any Person in a House licensed under this Act within the Jurisdiction of the said Visitors shall, if the same be not signed by Two Medical Practitioners, state the special Circumstances, if any, which shall have prevented the Patient being separately visited by Two Medical Practitioners; and any Patient may be admitted into any such licensed House upon the Certificate of One Medical Practitioner only under the special Circumstances aforesaid, provided such Certificate shall be further signed by some other Medical Practitioner within Seven Days next after the Admission of such Patient into any such licensed House as aforesaid; and any Person who shall, knowingly and with Intention to deceive, sign any such Certificate, unlawfully setting forth any such Particulars required by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; nevertheless, if any special Circumstances shall exist which may prevent the Insertion of any of the Particulars aforesaid, the same shall be specially stated in such Certificate: Provided always, that no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign any Certificate of Admission to any House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons, of which he is wholly or partly the Proprietor, or the regular professional Attendant; and any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, who shall sign or give any such Certificate, without having visited and personally examined the Individual to whom it relates, shall be deemed to be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Parish Pauper shall be received into any House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons without an Order under the Hands and Seals of Two Justices of the Peace, or an Order signed by One of the Overseers of the Poor and the officiating Clergyman of the Parish to which such Pauper shall belong, and also a Certificate signed by One Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, that such Person is a proper Person to be confined.

XXXII. And, to order that the said Commissioners and Visitors may know when any Patient is received into any House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons, be it further enacted, That the Keeper of any such House shall and is hereby required, within the Space of Seven Days next after the Day on which any Person shall have been received into such House, to transmit a Copy of such Order and Certificate as aforesaid to the Clerk of the Commissioners or to the Clerk of the Visitors; which Order and Certificate the said Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Visitors is hereby required forthwith to enter in a Register to be provided for that Purpose, with the Christian and Surname of each Insane Person so returned to him, and the Asylum or House in which such Lunatic is confined; and every Keeper of any such House who shall knowingly and wilfully neglect so to do shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Patient is confined in a House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons shall be removed therefrom, or shall die, the Keeper of such House shall, within Three Days next after such Removal or Death, transmit a written Notice thereof to the Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Visitors, or to a Justice of the Peace, as the Case may be; and every Keeper of any such House, who shall upon any such Removal or Death knowingly and wilfully neglect so to do, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall apply to One of the Commissioners, or any Justice of the Peace of the County in which any House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons is situated, in order to be informed whether any particular Person is confined in any of the said Houses of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons, and the said Commissioner or Justice shall think it reasonable to permit such Enquiry to be made, and shall sign an Order directed to the Clerk of the Commissioners, or Clerk of the Visitors for that Purpose, the said Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Visitors is hereby required, upon the Receipt of such Order, to make Search; and if it shall appear upon Search that the Person so required after is or has been confined in any of the said Houses, the said Clerk of the Commissioners or Clerk of the Visitors shall immediately deliver to the Person so applying, in Writing, the Name of the Keeper in whose House the Person so required after is or has been confined, the Situation of such House, and a Copy of the Order and Certificate upon which such Person was received into such House, upon Payment of the Sum of Seven Shillings, and no more, for his Trouble.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in every House of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons there shall, if it contain One hundred Patients, be a resident Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; and every such House, containing less than One hundred Patients, in case such House shall not be kept by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, shall be visited twice in every Week by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; and such Resident Assistant, or visiting Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, is hereby respectively required to report to the Keeper the Condition of the House and State of Health of the Patients, and shall, Once in every Week, enter and sign the name in a Book of Entries to be kept at every such House, according to the Form in the Schedule (B.) hereto annexed; and such Book of Entries shall by the Keeper of such House be regularly laid before the visiting Commissioners or Visitors for their Inspection, who are hereby required to sign the same in Testimony of its Production.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Person by whom or by whose Authority such Patient shall have been delivered to the Care of the Keeper of any such House, shall in Person, or by some Person duly appointed by him in Writing under his Hand and Seal, such Appointment to be renewed for each Time, visit the Patient so delivered as aforesaid, Once at least in every Six Months during his Confinement, and shall enter in the Journal kept at such House for registering the Visits of the Commissioners or Visitors respectively, as heretofore directed, his Name, and the Date of his Visit; and any Person so appointed as aforesaid shall deposit such Appointment with the Keeper of the said House.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear, after Three separate and distinct Visits to be made by the said Commissioners or Visitors within their respective Jurisdictions, Three of which Commissioners shall be Physicians or Surgeons, or One of which Visitors shall be a Medical Practitioner, Twenty-one Days at the least to intervene between each Visit, that any Person is detained in any such House without sufficient Cause, and Notice thereof shall have been duly given to the Keeper of such House, and to the Person by whose Authority such Person was sent, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners at One of their Quarterly Meetings, or at a Meeting specially summoned at Three Days Notice, or for the Justices in Quarter Sessions, or at a Meeting specially summoned at Seven Days Notice, to set such Person at Liberty, or otherwise to act under the Circumstances in the Case may seem to require: Provided always, that such Power shall not extend to the Case of any Lunatic who shall have been found of Insane Mind under a Commission issued for that Purpose by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal interested as aforesaid, nor to any Lunatic confined under any Order or Authority of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

XXXVIII. And Whereas the Hopes and Consolations of Religion may soothe and compose the Minds of Patients, and thereby tend to subdue the Malady under which they are suffering; Be it further enacted, That the Commissioners and Visitors upon their several Visitations heretofore mentioned, shall enquire whether and at what Times Divine Service is read and performed for the Benefit and Consolation of any of the Patients, or what Religious Aid they receive under any Circumstances of intellectual Improvement; and such Commissioners and Visitors shall state, in the Book or Register heretofore directed to be kept for registering the Visits of the Commissioners or Visitors respectively the Result of such their Enquiry, with such Observations as they shall think useful or necessary, and in those Houses where it shall appear that Divine Service is not performed, or that Religious Communication with any Minister is not permitted, the Keeper or Keepers of such House or Houses shall state in the said Book or Register the Reasons or Reasons thereof.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal interested as aforesaid, or the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, or the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, or His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, if he shall see fit, to employ any Commissioner appointed under this Act, or Medical or other Person, to inspect and enquire into the State of any Lunatic Asylum, Public Hospital, or other House or Place for the Confinement of Insane Persons, and to report to him the Result of such Inspection and Enquiry; and every such Medical or other Person so employed by him shall be paid or allowed such Sum of Money for his Attendance and Trouble, as to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall seem as adequate and reasonable Allowance, such Expenses to be charged on the Contingency Fund of the Home Office, or on the County Rate, as the Case may be.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall receive into his exclusive Care and Maintenance, except he be a Relative or a Committee appointed by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal interested as aforesaid, under Pain of being deemed guilty of Misdemeanor, any one Insane Person, or Person represented or alleged to be Insane, without first having an Order and Certificate signed by Two Medical Practitioners, each of them being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary,

city, as is required on the Admission of any Insane Person into a licensed House; and that every such Person as having received into his Charge any Insane Person as aforesaid, shall within Five Days thereof transmit to the Clerk of the Commissioners in London a Copy of such Order and Certificate, and shall also send the Parish and County wherein such House shall be situated, and the Name of the Occupier thereof, and such Order, Certificate, and Return shall be sealed, and indorsed "Private Return;" and also on the First Day of January, or within Seven Days thereof, on every Year, every such Person shall also transmit to such Clerk a Certificate signed by Two Physicians, Surgeons, or Apothecaries, describing the then actual State of such Insane Person; and in case of the Death or Removal of such Insane Person, he shall forthwith notify the same to such Clerk; all which said Orders, Certificates, Returns, and Notifications shall be filed and duly preserved, and the said Clerk shall make therefrom a separate Register, containing the true Christian and Surname of each Insane Person so confined, together with the Place of Confinement, which Register, together with the said Orders, Returns, Certificates, and Notifications, shall be open only to the Inspection of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and of the Lord High Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid, and of such other Persons as shall be authorised to inspect the same, by an Order under their respective Hands and Seals.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's said Principal Secretary of State, in all Cases in which any Patient shall die or have been discharged as cured, to direct, if he shall see fit, that the Name of such Patient shall be wholly erased from the said Register.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid, or His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, if they shall see fit, at any Time or Times, by any Order by either of them directed to the said Commissioners or to any other Person whom they shall think fit to appoint, to require the said Commissioners, or other Person so appointed, to visit and examine any Person confined as an Insane Person, who shall be confined in the Care of any Relative or Friend, or in the exclusive Care and Maintenance of any other Person, and to make a Report to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid, or to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, of such Matters as in such Order they shall be directed to inquire into: Provided always, that the said Secretary of State shall have no Authority under this Act to order a Visitation or Examination of any Patient under a Committee appointed by the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal intrusted as aforesaid.

XLIII. And, for the more easy and speedy Correction of Offenders against this Act, be it further enacted, That all Justices of the Peace, before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, shall and may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall happen; to-wit:

‘ BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord
 ‘ A. D. is convicted before us, _____ Two of His Majesty's ‘ Justices of the Peace for the County of _____, [specifying the Officer, and the Time and ‘ Place when and where the same was committed, as the Case shall be.] Given under our Hands and Seals
 ‘ the Day and Year aforesaid.’

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk of the Commissioners, or Clerk of the Peace of the County where any House for the Reception of Insane Persons is situate, and he is hereby required, to enforce the due Execution of this Act, and to see for and recover all Penalties or Forfeitures granted by this Act.

XLV. And Whereas it is not intended by this Act to give the Proprietors or Keepers of any House to be licensed as aforesaid, or any other Person concerned in confining any of His Majesty's Subjects therein, any new Jurisdiction, from their being able to prove that the Persons so confined have been sent there by such Direction and Advice as are required by this Act: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That in all Proceedings which shall be had under His Majesty's Writ of Habeas Corpus, and in all Indictments, Informations, and other Actions that shall be preferred and brought against any Person or Persons for confining or detaining any of His Majesty's Subjects in any of the said Houses, the Parties complained of shall be obliged to justify their Proceedings according to the Course of the Common Law, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Complaints and Informations of and the Offences against this Act, or any Order to be made in pursuance thereof, except in Cases where the Manner of hearing and determining thereof is heretofore otherwise directed, shall and may be made before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place wherein the Offence shall be committed, and such Justice or Justices it and are hereby authorized and empowered to take cognizance thereof and to summon the Person or Persons complained of to appear before him or them, or upon Complaint upon Oath or Issue by or their Warrant or Warrants for the Apprehension of any such Person or Persons, and upon appearing or not appearing of such Person or Persons pursuant to such Summons, or upon such Person or Persons being apprehended with such Warrant, to hear the Matter of every such Complaint and Information, by Examination of any Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, and to make such Determination therein as such Justice or Justices shall think proper; and upon Conviction of any Person, such Justice or Justices shall and may issue a Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands

Fines and Seals, for levying the Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture by virtue of this Act imposed for each Offence, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chancels of the Persons so convicted; and it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice or Justices in order any Person so convicted to be detained and kept in the Custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the said Offender shall give sufficient Security to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, for his Appearance before the said Justice or Justices on such Day as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, such Day not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Justice or Justices in and are hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant of Distress it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon to levy the said Penalty or Forfeiture, and such Costs and Charges as aforesaid, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice, either by the Confession of the Offender or Offenders, or otherwise, that the Offender or Offenders hath or have not sufficient Goods and Chancels whereon such Penalties, Forfeitures, Fines, Costs, and Charges may be levied upon a Warrant of Distress issued, such Justice shall not be required to issue such Warrant of Distress, and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, and he or they it and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture, and all reasonable Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied, and all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, when recovered, shall, where the Application is not otherwise directed by this Act, be paid into the Hands of the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed, and the Overplus (if any) arising from such Distress and Sale, after Payment of the Penalty and the Costs and Charges attending the same, shall be returned, upon Demand, to the Owner of the Goods and Chancels so distrained.

XLVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That any Person or Persons thinking himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Order or Judgment made or given, or by the Order or Determination of any Justice or Justices of the Peace in pursuance of this Act, may, within Four Calendar Months after such Order shall be made or given, complain to the Justices of the Peace at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the County wherein the Offence shall be committed, the Person or Persons appealing having first given at least Fourteen Days clear Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and the Nature and Matter thereof, to the Person or Persons appealed against, and forthwith, after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the said County, with Two sufficient Securities conditioned to try such Appeal and to abide the Order and Award of the said Court thereupon, and the said Justices, upon due Proof of such Notice and Recognizance having been given and entered into, shall in a summary Way hear and determine such Complaint at such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said County, or, if they think proper, adjourn the Hearing thereof until the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said County, and if they see Cause may adjudge any Forfeitures or Fines, and may order any Money to be returned which shall have been levied in pursuance of such Order or Determination, and shall and may also award such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured, or such Costs to either of the Parties, as they shall judge reasonable and proper; and all such Determinations of the said Justices shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all Parties, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced or brought against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the same shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and shall be laid or brought in the County, City, or Place where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere, and the Defendant in every such Action or Suit shall and may at his Election plead specially, or the General Issue: Not Guilty, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence in any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear to be so done, or that such Action or Suit shall be brought in any other County, City, or Place, or shall not have been commenced within the Time before limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant; and upon a Verdict being so found, or if the Plaintiff shall be acquitted, or discharge his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, then the Defendant or Defendants may recover Treble Costs, and have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant hath or have in any other Cause by Law.

XLIX. Provided always, and he it hereby further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person whatsoever to commence, prosecute, enter, mix, or prefer any Action, Bill, Plea, Information, or Indictment against any Person under or by virtue of this Act, unless the same be commenced, prosecuted, entered, filed, or preferred by Order of the said Commissioners at their said Quarterly Meeting, or by the Justices at their General Quarter Sessions within their respective Jurisdictions; and if any Action, Bill, Plea, Information, or Indictment shall be commenced, entered, filed, or preferred by or in the Name of any Person whatsoever, except upon such Order as aforesaid, the same, and all Proceedings thereupon had, shall be null and void, and the Court or Courts, Justice or Justices of the Peace, where or before whom such Action, Bill, Plea, Information, or Indictment is or shall be, or commenced, prosecuted, entered, filed, or preferred, shall not permit or suffer any Proceeding or Proceedings to be had; and no Commissioner or Justice shall in anywise be liable to any Criminal Proceeding or Civil Action for any Remedy to be given in the Execution of this Act.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem, or to any Building erected adjacent thereto for the Confinement of Criminal Lunatics, or to the Royal Military or Naval Hospitals, or to any Lunatic Asylum already erected and established under an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England, or hereafter to be erected and established under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Errection, Maintenance, and Regulation of County Lunatic Asylums, and to the Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, being Paupers or Criminals, in England.

LI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any public Hospital or Parts of public Hospitals, or other charitable Institutions, supported wholly or partly by voluntary Contributions, in which Lunatics are received, or to any Lunatic Asylum built and established by voluntary Contributions, and supported by applying the Excess of Payments of the more affluent to reduction of the Payment by Persons in more limited Circumstances, excepting in as far as relates to Certificate of Admission, and Visitation appointed by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper or Commissioners of the Great Seal, or the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, or the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, or His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and the Transmission to the Clerk of the Commissioners Annual Report, as herein- before directed.

LII. And, in order to remove Doubts as to the Meaning of certain Words in this Act, be it enacted, That the Word "County" shall be deemed to include any County, Riding, Division of the County of Lincoln, Liberty, County of a City, County of a Town, City, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate; that the Word "Parish" shall be deemed to include any Township, Hamlet, Vill, Tithing, extra-parochial Place or Place maintaining its own Poor: that the Words "County Rate" shall be deemed to include any Funds assessed upon or raised in or belonging to any County, Riding, Division of the County of Lincoln, Liberty, County of a City, County of a Town, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, in the Na- ture of County Rates, and applicable to the Purposes to which County Rates are applicable; that the Word "Visitor" shall be deemed to include all Justices, Physicians, Surgeons, or Apothecaries, appointed as a General or Adjoined Quarter Sessions to visit Houses of Reception for Two or more Insane Persons; that the Words "Insane Persons" shall be deemed to include any Lunatic or dangerous Miot: that the Words "Parish Patient" shall be deemed to include any Person sent to and maintained at any House licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons wholly or in part at the Expence of any Parish; that the Words "Clerk of the Peace" shall be deemed to include any Person acting as such, or any Deputy duly appointed; that the Word "Apothecary" shall be deemed to include any Person authorized to practise as such under the Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the better regulating the Practice of Apothecaries throughout England and Wales, or under an Act passed in the Sixth Year of George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and explain the said Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of His late Majesty; and the Words "Treasurer of the County" shall be deemed to include any Officer who has the Custody of any Funds assessed upon or raised in or be- longing to any County, Riding, Division of the County of Lincoln, Liberty, County of a City, County of a Town, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, in the Nature of County Rates, and applicable to the Pur- poses to which County Rates are applicable; and that the Word "Person" shall be deemed to include any Number of Persons; and that the Meaning of the aforesaid Words shall not be restricted, although the same may be subsequently referred to in the singular Number and masculine Gender only.

LIII. And be it enacted, That the Powers and Authorities granted by this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act †, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the several Matters and Things therein contained, shall commence and take effect from and after the First Day of August, and not sooner, and shall continue in force for the Term of Three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

CAP. 31.00

An Act to abolish Church Bells, and to provide for the better Collection and Application of voluntary Contributions for the Purposes of enlarging and building Churches and Chancels.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the better collecting Charity Money on Privy or Letters Patent, and preventing Abuses in relation to such Charities; and it is expedient to repeal the said Act, and to provide for the better Collection and Application of voluntary Contributions for enlarging, building, rebuilding, and repairing Churches and Chapels in England and Wales: And Whereas in the Year One thousand six hundred and eighteen a Society was instituted, by the Name of "The Society for promoting the Enlargement and Building of Churches and Chapels," consisting of Persons who had contributed or should contribute Twenty Guineas in one Donation, or Two Guineas annually; which Society, governed under certain Rules and Regulations, has tended greatly to promote the good and laudable Objects for which it was instituted, and would be enabled to promote the same still more effectually, if the said Society were incorporated, with such Powers and Privileges as are hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act of Queen Anne shall be and the same is hereby repealed, except so much therein inserted before the passing of this Act as are now in progress, with respect to which the said Act shall remain in Force.

2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032, 2033, 2034, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042, 2043, 2044, 2045, 2046, 2047, 2048, 2049, 2050, 2051, 2052, 2053, 2054, 2055, 2056, 2057, 2058, 2059, 2060, 2061, 2062, 2063, 2064, 2065, 2066, 2067, 2068, 2069, 2070, 2071, 2072, 2073, 2074, 2075, 2076, 2077, 2078, 2079, 2080, 2081, 2082, 2083, 2084, 2085, 2086, 2087, 2088, 2089, 2090, 2091, 2092, 2093, 2094, 2095, 2096, 2097, 2098, 2099, 2100, 2101, 2102, 2103, 2104, 2105, 2106, 2107, 2108, 2109, 2110, 2111, 2112, 2113, 2114, 2115, 2116, 2117, 2118, 2119, 2120, 2121, 2122, 2123, 2124, 2125, 2126, 2127, 2128, 2129, 2130, 2131, 2132, 2133, 2134, 2135, 2136, 2137, 2138, 2139, 2140, 2141, 2142, 2143, 2144, 2145, 2146, 2147, 2148, 2149, 2150, 2151, 2152, 2153, 2154, 2155, 2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, 2160, 2161, 2162, 2163, 2164, 2165, 2166, 2167, 2168, 2169, 2170, 2171, 2172, 2173, 2174, 2175, 2176, 2177, 2178, 2179, 2180, 2181, 2182, 2183, 2184, 2185, 2186, 2187, 2188, 2189, 2190, 2191, 2192, 2193, 2194, 2195, 2196, 2197, 2198, 2199, 2200, 2201, 2202, 2203, 2204, 2205, 2206, 2207, 2208, 2209, 2210, 2211, 2212, 2213, 2214, 2215, 2216, 2217, 2218, 2219, 2220, 2221, 2222, 2223, 2224, 2225, 2226, 2227, 2228, 2229, 2230, 2231, 2232, 2233, 2234, 2235, 2236, 2237, 2238, 2239, 2240, 2241, 2242, 2243, 2244, 2245, 2246, 2247, 2248, 2249, 2250, 2251, 2252, 2253, 2254, 2255, 2256, 2257, 2258, 2259, 2260, 2261, 2262, 2263, 2264, 2265, 2266, 2267, 2268, 2269, 2270, 2271, 2272, 2273, 2274, 2275, 2276, 2277, 2278, 2279, 2280, 2281, 2282, 2283, 2284, 2285, 2286, 2287, 2288, 2289, 2290, 2291, 2292, 2293, 2294, 2295, 2296, 2297, 2298, 2299, 2300, 2301, 2302, 2303, 2304, 2305, 2306, 2307, 2308, 2309, 2310, 2311, 2312, 2313, 2314, 2315, 2316, 2317, 2318, 2319, 2320, 2321, 2322, 2323, 2324, 2325, 2326, 2327, 2328, 2329, 2330, 2331, 2332, 2333, 2334, 2335, 2336, 2337, 2338, 2339, 2340, 2341, 2342, 2343, 2344, 2345, 2346, 2347, 2348, 2349, 2350, 2351, 2352, 2353, 2354, 2355, 2356, 2357, 2358, 2359, 2360, 2361, 2362, 2363, 2364, 2365, 2366, 2367, 2368, 2369, 2370, 2371, 2372, 2373, 2374, 2375, 2376, 2377, 2378, 2379, 2380, 2381, 2382, 2383, 2384, 2385, 2386, 2387, 2388, 2389, 2390, 2391, 2392, 2393, 2394, 2395, 2396, 2397, 2398, 2399, 2400, 2401, 2402, 2403, 2404, 2405, 2406, 2407, 2408, 2409, 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413, 2414, 2415, 2416, 2417, 2418, 2419, 2420, 2421, 2422, 2423, 2424, 2425, 2426, 2427, 2428, 2429, 2430, 2431, 2432, 2433, 2434, 2435, 2436, 2437, 2438, 2439, 2440, 2441, 2442, 2443, 2444, 2445, 2446, 2447, 2448, 2449, 2450, 2451, 2452, 2453, 2454, 2455, 2456, 2457, 2458, 2459, 2460, 2461, 2462, 2463, 2464, 2465, 2466, 2467, 2468, 2469, 2470, 2471, 2472, 2473, 2474, 2475, 2476, 2477, 2478, 2479, 2480, 2481, 2482, 2483, 2484, 2485, 2486, 2487, 2488, 2489, 2490, 2491, 2492, 2493, 2494, 2495, 2496, 2497, 2498, 2499, 2500, 2501, 2502, 2503, 2504, 2505, 2506, 2507, 2508, 2509, 2510, 2511, 2512, 2513, 2514, 2515, 2516, 2517, 2518, 2519, 2520, 2521, 2522, 2523, 2524, 2525, 2526, 2527, 2528, 2529, 2530, 2531, 2532, 2533, 2534, 2535, 2536, 2537, 2538, 2539, 2540, 2541, 2542, 2543, 2544, 2545, 2546, 2547, 2548, 2549, 2550, 2551, 2552, 2553, 2554, 2555, 2556, 2557, 2558, 2559, 2560, 2561, 2562, 2563, 2564, 2565, 2566, 2567, 2568, 2569, 2570, 2571, 2572, 2573, 2574, 2575, 2576, 2577, 2578, 2579, 2580, 2581, 2582, 2583, 2584, 2585, 2586, 2587, 2588, 2589, 2590, 2591, 2592, 2593, 2594, 2595, 2596, 2597, 2598, 2599, 2600, 2601, 2602, 2603, 2604, 2605, 2606, 2607, 2608, 2609, 2610, 2611, 2612, 2613, 2614, 2615, 2616, 2617, 2618, 2619, 2620, 2621, 2622, 2623, 2624, 2625, 2626, 2627, 2628, 2629, 2630, 2631, 2632, 2633, 2634, 2635, 2636, 2637, 2638, 2639, 2640, 2641, 2642, 2643, 2644, 2645, 2646, 2647, 2648, 2649, 2650, 2651, 2652, 2653, 2654, 2655, 2656, 2657, 2658, 2659, 2660, 2661, 2662, 2663, 2664, 2665, 2666, 2667, 2668, 2669, 2670, 2671, 2672, 2673, 2674, 2675, 2676, 2677, 2678, 2679, 2680, 2681, 26 for the Year ending, a Treasurer elected, and the Vacancies in the Committee filled up from a Double List prepared by the President and Vice Presidents, and that all such Elections and Appointments shall be by Ballot.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Order to be made and Act to be done by the Committee for the Time being of the said Society shall be made and done with the Consent of the Majority of the Members present at any Meeting of the Committee, such Meeting to consist of not less than Five, and the Committee, or the major Part of them at any such Meeting, shall have full Power and Authority to make all such Laws and Regulations, not being repugnant to the Laws of this Kingdom, or to the express Provisions of this Act, as to them shall from time to time seem expedient, for the Management and Government of the said Society, and for carrying its Designs into Effect; and shall have the sole Management, Control, and Disposition of the Estates, Funds, Revenues, and other Property which now or may hereafter belong to the said Society; and shall have the Power of affixing the Common Seal of the said Society, or directing it to be affixed, to such Instruments as the said Committee or such major Part of them shall think fit; and shall have the sole Control over and Appointments of all Officers, Agents, or Servants whom it may be thought expedient to employ in the Service of the said Society, or in any of the Concerns relating thereto: Provided always, that such Laws and Regulations so to be made as aforesaid shall not be of any Force or Effect unless the same shall be confirmed by the Members of the Committee, or the major Part of them, who shall be present at the next Meeting of the said Committee after the same shall have been first made, such next Meeting to consist of not less than Five.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Committee of the said Society, in the Selection of Parishes and Extra-parochial Places to which they shall grant any Part of their Funds towards the enlarging or building of any Churches or Chapels, shall have regard to the Amount of the Population, and also to the Disproportion between the Number of Inhabitants and the present Accommodation for Attendance upon Divine Service according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland; and in giving Preference among such Parishes and Extra-parochial Places, shall have regard to the Proportion of the Expence which shall be offered to be contributed or raised by such respective Parishes or Places, towards the Enlargement or Building of Churches or Chapels therein, and to the necessary Ability of the Inhabitants thereof.

IX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in granting Aid towards the Repairs of Churches and Chapels which have fallen into a State of great Dilapidation without Neglect or Fault of the existing Parsonage, and the entire Expence of repairing which the Parsonage shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Committee of the said Society, to be unable to defray, Reference shall be had to the Amount of Money raised by the Parsonage by Rates or Subscription, and to the Improvement which it may be proposed to effect in the Accommodation for the Poor.

X. And be it enacted, That as often as His Majesty shall be graciously pleased to issue his Royal Letters, directed respectively to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, authorizing the Collection of voluntary Contributions within their several Provinces, for the Purpose of aiding the enlarging, building, rebuilding, or repairing of Churches and Chapels in England and Wales, or in any Part thereof, in every such Case all the Contributions so collected shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the said Society, or his Order, and shall be employed by the said Society in carrying its Designs into Effect.

XI. And be it enacted, That Accounts shall annually be presented to His Majesty, of the Progress made by the said Society in the Execution of its Designs, stating the Number of Churches or Chapels enlarged, built, rebuilt, or repaired, or in the Course of being so, the Money expended, and for what Purpose, and all such other Particulars as shall be necessary for explaining the Progress made by the said Society, together with a List of all Officers, Agents, and Servants employed by the said Society, and a Statement of their respective Salaries.

XII. And be it enacted, That the said Society may receive and send all Letters and Packets relating to the Execution of the Powers and Trusts of this Act free from the Duty of Postage, provided that such Letters and Packets shall be sent to the said Society by the Post shall be directed to "The Incorporated Society for promoting the Enlargement, Building, and Repairing of Churches and Chapels;" and that all such Letters and Packets as shall be sent by the said Society shall be dated from their Office, and shall be signed on the Outside by such Person of the said Society shall appoint, with the Consent of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, under such Restrictions and Regulations as the said Commissioners shall think proper and direct.

XIII. And Whereas there is a certain Sum of Money remaining in the Hands of John Stevenson Salt Esquire, the Undertaker of Bricks, arising from Balances of Money collected upon Bricks which have not been wanted or required for the Purpose for which the same were collected: Be it therefore enacted, That such Sum shall be transferred to the said Society, and that upon such Transfer being made, the said John Stevenson Salt shall be released and discharged from all Claims and Demands in respect of such Sum, or of any Part thereof.

XIV. And Whereas George Humphreys is seized to himself, his Heirs and Assigns, of the Office of Clerk of the Bricks, for the Lives of himself and of Joseph Humphreys his Son, by Virtue of certain Letters Patent, and the Profits of the said Office will be extinguished by the Rupture of the said Act of Queen Anne, and Compensation should therefore be granted to the said George Humphreys for the Loss of such Profits: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Society shall, out of the Sum so to be transferred to them as aforesaid, grant such Compensation to the said George Humphreys, for his Interest under the said Letters Letters Patent, as shall be a full Equivalent for the Loss of the Net Profits of the said Office, such Net Profits to be calculated upon an Average of the last Seven Years.

XV. And Whereas there is a large Number of Briefs now in the Possession of the said John Stevenson Esq. which have been returned to him after the Collections made thereon: He is therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to make such Order as he shall think fit, respecting the Manner of disposing of the said Briefs.

XVI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

Secretary of State to make Order as to the Disposal of Briefs then held Public Act.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act for the better Regulation of Divisions in the several Counties of England and Wales.

[15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by divers Acts now in force it is enacted, that certain Matters and Things, in the same respectively mentioned, shall be transacted and determined within the Divisions or Limits within which the same shall arise, or the Parties therein concerned inhabit or exercise their Trade or Calling, and by or before One, Two, or more Justices of the Peace dwelling within or near to, or usually acting within, such Divisions or Limits respectively: And Whereas the Boundaries of such Divisions or Limits are in some Instances uncertain, and in many have become inconvenient, to the Inhabitants within the same, from the Change or Increase of Trade or Population, or from other Causes: And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Authority by which such Divisions or Limits may from time to time be constituted, defined, or altered; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and due Provision made for the constituting, defining, and regulating from time to time such Divisions or Limits, as the Convenience of the Inhabitants within the same may require: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any Time or Times after the next ensuing Quarter Sessions next following the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, or Division in England or Wales, having a separate Commission of the Peace, to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace a Statement in Writing, signed by such Justices, of the Parishes, Tithings, Townships and Places within the same, which, in the Opinion of such Justices, would form together a convenient and a proper Division within and for which Special Sessions should then or thereafter be held; or of any Parishes, Tithings, Townships, or Places, which, in the Opinion of such Justices, ought to be annexed, for the same Purpose, to any other Division in the said County than those as that of which at the Time of making such Statement they form Part: and that every such Statement shall, among other Things, set forth within what existing Divisions or Divisions, Limits or Limit, the several Parishes, Tithings, Townships, and Places enumerated in the same, are situated or deemed to be; and also whether One or more and what existing Divisions or Limits will be altered by such proposed new Divisions, or by the Change of any Place or Places from one Division to another; and also the Names of such Justices of the Peace as at the Date of such Statement are usually resident or acting as such within the Boundaries of such proposed new Division.

Justices to forward to the Clerk of the Peace a Statement of the Townships, Places, &c. then existing therein a proper Division for which Special Sessions should be held.

II. And be it further enacted, That at the Quarter Sessions next following the Receipt of every such Statement, setting forth such Particulars as are above enumerated, and not otherwise, the Clerk of the Peace shall and he is hereby required to lay the same before such Justices of the Peace in such Sessions assembled, and the Justices of the Peace for such County, Riding, or Division, having such separate Commission of the Peace, shall and they are hereby required (except in the Cases hereinafter provided for) to proceed, at the Quarter Sessions next following the laying of such Statement before them as aforesaid, to the Consideration thereof, and at their Discretion to adopt the same wholly or in part, or to reject the same altogether, or to adjourn their Determination thereupon to the next or any succeeding Quarter Sessions.

Statement to be laid before the Justices of the Peace at the next Quarter Sessions, who are to adopt or reject the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That immediately after the Quarter Sessions at which such Statement shall have been first laid before the Justices of the Peace, the Clerk of the Peace shall cause to be published a Copy of such Statement in three successive Numbers of One or more weekly Newspapers usually published or circulated within the same County, Riding, or Division, and in which the Advertisements of County Business are usually inserted: and at the Foot of each Copy shall also cause Notice to be given that such Statement has been laid before such Justices in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, and that the same will be taken into Consideration by the Court at the then next ensuing Quarter Sessions.

Clerk of the Peace to advertise Statement and other Particulars in the Newspapers.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the Justices of the Peace of any such County, Riding, or Division, having a separate Commission of the Peace, shall adopt wholly or in part any such Statement as laid before them, and shall determine to change any Parish, Tithing, Township, or Place, from one Division to another, or to constitute any new Division, within which Special Sessions shall then or thereafter be holden, the said Justices of the Peace shall thereupon make an Order for such Alteration, or for the constituting and defining such new Division, and in such last-mentioned Order shall particularly compass the several Parishes, Tithings, Townships, and Places to be comprised within such new Division, and shall also specify the Division or Divisions within which respectively any Parishes, Tithings, Townships, and Places, dismembered by such Order from any former Division, and not forming Part of such new Division, shall then or thereafter be taken to be, and also shall affix to such new Division the

If Justices approve, an Order to be made for constituting a new Division, and the Clerk of the Peace to publish the same.

the Name of some principal and convenient Parish, Township, or Place within the same, and also shall, in either of such Orders, as the Case may be, particularly set down the Day from which such Order shall take effect; and the Clerk of the Peace for such County, Riding, or Division, shall forthwith publish a Copy of such Order in Three successive Numbers of One or more such weekly Newspapers as aforesaid, and shall transmit a Copy of such Order to every High Constable within the Limits of such new or altered Division or Divisions.

New Order shall be constituted unless Five Justices at least shall be present to be agreed to by resolution therein.

New Division to be formed shall, they shall for holding Special or Petty Sessions, or other Meetings of Justices.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be taken to authorize, and that it shall not be lawful for any Justices in any Court of Quarter Sessions to make any Order constituting such new Division, unless upon due Proof before them made in open Court upon Oath, that for Two Years next before the making of such Proof there have been, and at the Time of making the same there are, at the least, Five Justices of the Peace residing in or usually acting within the Boundary Line proposed to be the Limits of any such new Division.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Day so specified in such Order, for the Term of Twenty-one Years, and until further Order of Sessions after the Expiration of that Time, and subject to an Alteration or Revision during such Term, except as hereinafter provided, all Matters and Things which by Law are now or hereafter may be required to be, or which now are, usually transacted or determined within the Division within which the same shall have arisen, or the Parties therein concerned inhabit or exercise their Trade or Calling, and by or before One, Two, or more Justices of the Peace dwelling or usually acting within the same, shall be transacted and determined, so far as the same Matters and Things arise within or concern the Inhabitants of such new or altered Division, or any of them, or the Persons exercising their Trade or Calling therein, within the Boundaries of such new or altered Division; and such new or altered Division shall thenceforward be, and be reputed and taken to be, for all Purposes, and as the Construction of all Statutes now in force or hereafter to be made, and extending to special Provision to the contrary, a lawful Division for the holding of Special Sessions; and all Bailiffs, Constables, Tithingmen, Surveyors, Officers of the Poor, and other Officers, Publicans, Keepers of Taverns, Coffee Houses, and Victualling Houses, and other Persons, shall and they are hereby thenceforward required to give their Attendance to and upon such Justices of the Peace at any Time assembled in such Special Sessions, within the same Division, as fully and effectually as by Law they had been bound to do when any Division repealed or taken before the passing of this Act to be a lawful and accustomed Division of Justices for the Purposes aforesaid.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That at the Quarter Sessions next after the laying of any such Statement before the Justices in such Sessions assembled, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices, if they shall deem it expedient and proper, not to proceed to the single Consideration of such Statement, but instead thereof to cause to be made an Enquiry and Examination into the Boundary Lines, Extent, and other local Circumstances of all the existing and accustomed Divisions for the holding of Special Sessions within the Commencement of such Justices; and at such or any succeeding Quarter Sessions, to which the Conclusion of such Enquiry and Examination may from time to time be adjourned, by Order of Sessions, to regulate, alter, new model, and subdivide all or any of such Divisions, in such Manner as shall appear to them proper and convenient, particularly specifying in such Order the Names of all such Divisions, whether newly constituted, altered, or unaltered, the several Parishes, Tithings, Townships, and Places to be comprised in each, and affixing or continuing to each the Name of some principal and convenient Parish, Township, or Place within the same.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace for any County, Riding, or Division in which such Order shall have been made as last aforesaid, shall forthwith publish a Copy of the same in Three successive Numbers of One or more such weekly Newspapers as aforesaid, and shall also forthwith transmit, by the Post, a Copy of the same to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of each Parish within the said County, Riding, or Division, to be by them affixed on the principal Door of the Church of such Parish; and at the Foot of every such Copy so published or transmitted shall add a Notice specifying at what Time such Order will be enrolled as hereinafter provided, and at what Time and in what Manner any Person or Persons, or Body Corporate, aggrieved by such Order, may petition against the same, or any Part thereof, as hereinafter provided.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in every such Order, some Time, not earlier than the Fourth Quarter Sessions next after the making thereof, shall be provisionally appointed, on which the same shall be enrolled as hereinafter provided, subject to such Alteration as may thereafter be made either in the Particulars of the said Order, or in the Time of its Enrolment; and that at any Court of Quarter Sessions preceding such Time, it shall and may be lawful for any One or more Person or Persons, or Body Corporate, jointly or severally, to present a Petition in Writing to such Court, against all or any Part of such Order, and to produce Witnesses in support of such Petition; and the Justices in such Court assembled shall and they are hereby required to hear and determine, in a summary Way, the Merits of such Petition, and to amend such Order so far as may, upon such Hearing, appear proper and convenient: Provided always, that no such Petition shall be received or examined into, unless after due Proof that a Notice in Writing, specifying the Grounds thereof, which upon the Hearing shall also be insisted into, hath been served, Ten clear Days before the Commencement of such Sessions, upon One of the Overseers of the Poor, or the Tithingman or Constable, or Two substantial Housekeepers of the Parish, Tithing, Township, or Place respectively, as the Case may be, wherein such Petitioner or Petitioners shall be resident at the Time of presenting such Petition, and also lodged, Twenty clear Days before such Commencement, at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, who shall and he is hereby required forthwith

Justices at Sessions to cause Enquiry into the Extent of Divisions, and also the same, and affix Names thereto.

Clerk of the Peace to publish a Copy of such Order.

Order to specify Time when it shall be enrolled.

Parties allowed to petition against such Order.

with to transmit a Copy thereof to each of the Justices usually acting within or for the District or Places or Place named in such Notice.

X. And he it further enacted, That no soon as all such Petitions against such Order shall have been discovered, and such Amendments made therein as shall have appeared necessary or proper, the Justices at each Quarter Sessions shall cause to be inserted therein some Day not earlier than One Month after such Session from which the same shall take effect, and shall cause the same Order to be cancelled, and the same shall remain an Order of Sessions, controlling any Order or Orders of Sessions heretofore made for the separate Constitution of any new Division, or the partial Alteration of any arrangement Divisions, under the former Provisions of this Act, and not subject itself to Reversion or Alteration of any kind for the Space of Ten Years thereof next ensuing; and during such Ten Years no such Statement shall be received or Proceedings had therein as above mentioned, but during all that Time, and until further Order of Sessions after the Expiration of that Time, the several Divisions, as limited, modified, or constituted in and by such Order, shall be and be taken to be, for all the Purposes to this Act mentioned, the lawful Divisions of such County, Riding, or Division, having such separate Commission of the Peace, for the Meetings of Justices in Special Sessions, under any Statute now in force, or hereafter to be made, and containing no special Provisions to the contrary; and all Bailiffs, Constables, Tithingmen, Surveyors, Overmen of the Poor, and other Officers, Publicans, Keepers of Taverns, Coffee Houses, and Victualling Houses, and other Persons, shall and they are hereby required therewith, during the Time last above limited, to give their Attendance to and upon the Justices of the Peace at any Time assembled in such Special Sessions, within the same Division respectively, as fully and effectually as by Law they have been bound to do within any Division reputed and taken before the passing of this Act to be a lawful and accustomed Division for the Meetings of Justices for any of the Purposes aforesaid.

XI. And he it further enacted, That immediately after the Enactment of such Order, the Clerk of the Peace shall and he is hereby required to cause to be published a Copy of the same in Three successive Numbers of One or more such weekly Newspapers as aforesaid, and shall also transmit One Copy thereof to each Justice of the Peace dwelling within or usually acting within and for such County, Riding, or Division, having such separate Commission of the Peace.

XII. And he it further enacted, That no Order to be made, nor any Proceeding to be had or taken, in pursuance of this Act, shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form, or removed by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed or taken to extend to the County of Middlesex in England, or to Scotland or Ireland.

C. A. P. XLIV.

An Act to provide for the Execution, throughout the United Kingdom, of the several Laws of Excise relating to Licences and Survey on Tea, Coffee, Cocoa, Pepper, Tobacco, Snuff, Foreign and Colonial Spirits and Wine, notwithstanding the Transfer to the Customs of the Import Duties on any of such Commodities. [18th July 1828.]

WHEREAS the Duties of Excise payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, at and immediately before the Commencement of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, upon the Importation into Great Britain and Ireland respectively of Coffee, Cocoa, Pepper, Tobacco, Snuff, Foreign and Colonial Spirits and Wine, have been repealed, and in lieu thereof Duties of Customs have been granted and made payable on the Importation of such Commodities respectively into any Part of the United Kingdom: And Whereas Dealers in and Sellers of Coffee, Cocoa, Pepper, Tobacco, Snuff, Foreign and Colonial Spirits and Wine, and Manufacturers of Tobacco and Snuff, were subject, under several Acts relating to the Revenue of Excise in force previous to the granting of the said Duties of Customs, and previous to the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, to the Payment of Duties of Excise upon Licences, and to the Survey of Officers of Excise, and to Regulations relating to such Survey, and to the respective Stocks of such Commodities in the Possession of such Traders, and to the granting of Permits for the Removal of such Commodities respectively, under and according to the several Provisions and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in and several Acts relating thereto respectively: And Whereas Duties have since been for such Regulations, or the Jurisdiction and Management, Powers or Authorities of the Commissioners and Officers of Excise in the Matters aforesaid, are or may be applicable or remain to be so: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Acts relating to the Revenue of Excise in force at and immediately before the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, with respect to Dealers in and Sellers of Coffee, Cocoa, Pepper, Tobacco, Snuff, Foreign and Colonial Spirits and Wine, and Manufacturers of Tobacco and Snuff respectively, and with respect to the taking and keeping Account of and Survey of all Stocks of such Commodities respectively in the Possession of such Traders respectively, and to the Manufacturers of Tobacco and Snuff, and with respect to the granting of Permits for the Removal of such Commodities as aforesaid respectively, have remained and continued, and are and shall be and remain and continue in full force and virtue, as Laws relating to the Revenue of Excise (save and except so far as any of such Act or Acts, or any Part or Parts thereof, may have been repealed or altered by any subsequent

Order to be extended as soon as Parliament agrees the same have been determined, and shall not be subject to Alteration for 10 Years.

Excise Laws in force before 1825, relating to Dealers in and Manufacturers of certain commodities. Acts in, shall continue in force notwithstanding any subsequent to repeal the Duties payable in respect of Spirits distilled in England, and of Licences for distilling, rectifying, or compounding such Spirits, and for the Sale of Spirits, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to provide other Regulations for the Collection of the said Duties, and for the Sale of Spirits, and for the warehousing of such Spirits, without Payment of Duty, for Exportation: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intimated, An Act to repeal several Duties payable on Excise Licences on Great Britain and Ireland, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to amend the Laws for granting Excise Licences, all the several Duties then payable on Excise Licences were thereby repealed, and other Duties were thereon imposed in lieu thereof: And Whereas so much of the said first-mentioned Act of the Third Year of His said Majesty as was not repealed as aforesaid has, by Two Acts passed in the Fifth and Seventh Years of the said Majesty, been further continued and remains in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight: And Whereas it is expedient that so much of the aforesaid Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid, and the several Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures therein contained, as respect or relate to the Rectification and compounding of Spirits, and to the Rectifiers and Compounders of and Dealers in and Retainers of Spirits, should be extended to Scotland and Ireland, and to establish the same in and throughout the United Kingdom; and that the heretofore recited Act of the Third Year aforesaid, so far as the same remains in force, should be continued for a limited Time; and that so much of the several Enactments and Provisions of the said Act of the Third Year as relate to the Prevention of private Distillation in Scotland should be made perpetual; and that so much of the said several Enactments and Provisions of the said Act as relate to the Rectification and compounding of Spirits, and to the Rectifiers and Compounders of Spirits, as are hereinafter mentioned, should also be made perpetual, and should be extended to the whole of the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, so much and such Part of the said heretofore recited Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid, intimated, As Act to repeal the Duties payable in respect of Spirits distilled in England, and of Licences for distilling, rectifying, or compounding such Spirits, and for the Sale of Spirits, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to provide other Regulations for the Collection of the said Duties, and for the Sale of Spirits, and for the warehousing of such Spirits, without Payment of Duty, for Exportation, and of the several Enactments, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures in the said Act contained, as are in force in respect of or in relation to the Rectification and compounding of Spirits, and to the Rectifiers and Compounders of, and to the Dealers in and Retainers of Spirits, except as to the Amount of Licence Duties payable by such Traders respectively, shall extend and be applied to, and shall be established, observed, executed, and put in force in and throughout Scotland and Ireland respectively, and in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in such and the like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if the said recited Act had in such respects been originally extended to the whole of the United Kingdom; any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the heretofore recited Act of the Third Year of His Majesty as shall be in force at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be and the same is hereby continued and shall be and remain in full Force until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; and that from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, so much of the said Act of the said Third Year, and the several Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures therein contained, as relate to the Prevention of private Distillation in Scotland, shall be and the same is and are hereby made perpetual; and that so much of the said Act as shall be in force as aforesaid, relating to the rectifying and compounding, and to the Rectifiers and Compounders of Spirits, not inconsistent with or repugnant to any of the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid, shall be and the same is and are hereby made perpetual, and shall be and the same are hereby extended and applied to, and shall be established, observed, executed, and put in force in and throughout England and Ireland, and in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Act of the said Third Year had in such respects been originally extended to the whole of the United Kingdom; any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, so much and such Parts only of any Act or Acts in force in Scotland and Ireland respectively, as relate to the Rectification or compounding of Spirits, and to the Rectifiers and Compounders of and Dealers in and Retainers of Spirits, and to the several Matters and Things expressly provided for by the said Acts of the Sixth Year and Third Year aforesaid, hereby extended to and established in and throughout the United Kingdom as aforesaid, and as are inconsistent with or repugnant thereto, but not otherwise, shall be and are hereby repealed, save and except so far as the said Acts or any of them repeal or repeal any former Act, or any Part or Parts of any former Act, and except also so far as the said Acts or any of them relate or relates to the charging, recovering, suing for, levying, paying, accounting for, allowing, or mitigating of any Duty, or any Arrears or Part thereof, or of any Penalty or Forfeiture for any Offence against the said Acts repealed, or any of them, which shall have been or shall be committed on or before the said Tenth Day of October aforesaid, all which Sums or other Proceedings, Matters, or Things, shall or may be had or proceeded on, and shall remain and be to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the said Acts had not been repealed in manner aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any Manner to alter or affect an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland.

IV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend certain Laws relating to the Revenue of Excise on Malt made in the United Kingdom, and for amending the Laws relating to Brewers in Ireland, and to the Allowance in respect of the Malt Duty on Spirits made in Scotland and Ireland from Malt only, it is enacted, that every Malterer or Maker of Malt shall, within the Space of Fourteen Days next after he or she shall have or ought to have made such Entry as in the said recited Act is mentioned, pay and clear off all the Duties which shall have been charged upon and which shall remain unpaid by such Malterer or Maker of Malt, for or in respect of any Malt by him or her made, unless such Malterer or Maker of Malt shall have given Bond as in the said recited Act is mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act as hereinafter mentioned: Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all Duty charged upon or in respect of any Malt which shall be made to be used and consumed only by Distillers or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, in Scotland or Ireland, in distilling Low Wines or Spirits made from Malt only, shall be paid and cleared off by the Malterer or Maker of such Malt within the Space of Fourteen Days next after such Malterer or Maker of Malt shall have or ought to have made such Entry as in the said recited Act is mentioned, whether any Bond or Security for the Payment of such Duties by such Malterer or Maker of Malt shall or shall not have been given, pursuant to the said recited Act, on pain that every such Malterer or Maker of Malt shall forfeit double the Amount or Sum of such Duties so neglected or refused to be paid within the said Space of Fourteen Days; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C. A. F. XLVI.

An Act to enable certain Hotel Keepers to be licensed to keep Hotels as common Inns, Ale-houses, and Victualling Houses, and to sell therein Beer and other Excisable Liquors, for the Remainder of the present Year. [12th July 1828.]

at G. 2. c. 113.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the more effectual Prohibition of selling Ale and other Liquors by Persons not duly licensed, it is enacted, that from and after the Twentieth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, if any Person shall sell Ale or Beer, or any other excisable Liquors, by Retail, or shall permit or suffer any Ale or Beer, or any other excisable Liquors, to be sold by Retail in his, her, or their House, Out-house, or Yard, Garden, Orchard, or other Place, in that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without being duly licensed so to do, and shall thereof be duly convicted, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and also the Costs and Expenses attending the Conviction, to be levied and recovered as therein is directed; and on and after a Second Conviction for the like Offence, shall also be rendered incapable of being thereafter licensed to keep as Alehouse, or to sell Ale or Beer, or other excisable Liquors, by Retail; and several Provisions are also contained in the said Act for the Recovery and Appropriation of the said Penalty: And Whereas certain Persons, being the Keepers of Hotels for the temporary Residence of Guests, and not being licensed to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, have, by supplying such Guests with Beer, or other excisable Liquors, for their daily Consumption, inadvertently incurred the aforesaid Penalty and Disability: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every such Person, so being the Keeper of any Hotel for the temporary Residence of Guests, who at any Time before the passing of this Act, by selling to and supplying any Guests in such Hotel with any Beer or other excisable Liquor, without being licensed to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, shall have thereby incurred the Penalty and Disability aforesaid, shall, on taking out such Licence as hereinafter mentioned, be altogether freed, acquitted, and discharged of and from every such Penalty and Disability, and all Proceedings for the Recovery thereof shall be null and void; and the said recited Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas the Days and Times appointed by Law for Justices to grant Licences to keep common Inns, Alehouses, or Victualling Houses, for the present Year, are now past, and it is expedient to make special Provision for granting such Licences to the Keepers of such Hotels as aforesaid for the Remainder of the present Year: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace or Magistrates, if they shall so think fit, of any County, City, Borough, Town, or Place in Great Britain, to grant their Authority or Licence to any Person keeping and selling, and who shall have kept and used any such Hotel as aforesaid, at and from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or at any Time between that Day and the passing of this Act, to keep such Hotel as a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House for the Remainder of the present Year for granting such Licences, and until the Time when the General Licences for that Purpose are according to Law in due Course renewable: provided the Hotel in respect of which such Authority or Licence as herein mentioned shall be applied for shall have been kept and used as such Hotel, either by the Person or Persons who at the Time of applying for such Authority or Licence shall so keep and use the same, or by his, her, or their Predecessor or Predecessors therein, and so continually from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight until the passing of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners, Collectors, and Supervisors of Excise to grant to every such Person, as authorized and licensed by any Two Justices as aforesaid, a Licence or Licences to sell Beer by Retail, or Cider or Perry, or other excisable Liquors, to be drunk or consumed in the Hotel for which such Licence or Authority shall have been granted, in the same Manner as if such Hotel had been licensed by the Justices for that Purpose under and according to the Acts of Parliament in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act; any thing in the said Acts, or any of them, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that every Person to whom such Authority or Licence shall be so granted by Two Justices as aforesaid, shall in all other respects whatsoever be subject and liable to the Rules and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall do and perform all Things whatsoever, which the Persons licensed or applying to be licensed by the Justices to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House shall by any such Act or Acts as aforesaid be required to do, or to which such Persons are made subject.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions thereof, may be amended, altered, or repealed in this present Session of Parliament.

Act may be amended this Session.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act for regulating the Board of excisable Articles and Commodities to Passengers on board of Passage Vessels from one Part to another of the United Kingdom. [18th July 1828.]

WHEREAS many Packets, Boats, and other Vessels are employed for the Carriage and Conveyance of Passengers from one Part of the United Kingdom to another Part thereof, and it would greatly tend to the Convenience and Accommodation of such Passengers, if the Master or Commander or other Person or of belonging to such Vessels were by Law authorized to provide for and to retail and sell to such Passengers Foreign Wine, Strong Beer, Cider, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, and Tobacco, to be consumed by such Passengers in and on board of such Vessels during the Voyage: As it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in England, and for the Commissioners or Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners of Excise in Scotland and Ireland respectively, at any Time to grant a Licence to any Master or Commander of any Packet, Boat, or other Vessel employed for the Carriage and Conveyance of Passengers from one Part of the United Kingdom to another or other Parts thereof, or to any other Person belonging to any such Packet, Boat, or Vessel, who shall be appointed and approved of by the Owner or Owners, or Director or Directors thereof, residing in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively, such Nomination and Approval being signified by their writing and subscribing a Certificate or Declaration, to be delivered by them to the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners of Excise of that Part of the United Kingdom in which the Owner or Owners, Director or Directors, reside, or to such Person as such Commissioners in England, or such Commissioners or Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners in Scotland and Ireland respectively, shall respectively appoint for that Purpose, to provide for and to supply, retail, and sell to the Passengers on board such Vessel, to be consumed by them in and on board thereof during the Voyage on which such Passengers shall be then carried and conveyed, Foreign Wine, Strong Beer, Cider, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, and Tobacco; and that such Licence shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of July next ensuing the Date thereof; and such Licence shall be transferable, by an Indentment thereon of such Transfer, subscribed by the Person to whom and in whose Name the same shall have been granted, his Executors or Administrators, or by any Assignee thereof, his Executors or Administrators, to any other Master or Commander, or any other Person or of belonging to the said Vessel, or in case of the Loss or breaking up of any such Vessel before the Expiration of any such Licence, to the Master, Commander, or any other Person or of belonging to any other Vessel of the same Owner or Owners, or Company or Companies, substituted in lieu of the said Vessel in respect of which such Licence was granted, and nominated and approved of by the Owner or Owners of such Vessel, or the Director or Directors of such Company or Companies, such Nomination, Approval, and Transfer being signified by the Subscription of such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or of such Director or Directors, to such Indentment; and that every such Licence shall from Year to Year be renewed before the Expiration of the Licence granted for the preceding Year, and shall fully authorize and empower the Person therein named, or his Assignee, to supply, retail, and sell Foreign Wine, Beer, Cider, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, and Tobacco, or any of them, to be consumed in and on board of such Vessel by the Passengers thereof, during any Voyage on which such Passengers shall be carried and conveyed while such Licence shall continue in Force; any thing in any Act or Acts in Force immediately before the passing of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That at the Time of granting such Licence as aforesaid the Owner or Owners, or Director or Directors of such Packet, Boat, or other Vessel in respect of which such Licence is Commander, &c. of Vessels and Boats, carrying Passengers from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, may be licensed by the Commissioners of Excise to retail Wine, Beer, Tobacco, &c. on board such Vessels.

Licence to be transferable;

and to be renewed yearly.

Every on Licence

applied for as aforesaid, shall pay or cause to be paid to the Commissioners of Excise in England, or Commissioners or Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners of Excise in Scotland or Ireland, to whom such Application shall be made, according to the Residence of such Owner or Owners, or Director or Directors as aforesaid, or to the Collector of Excise or other Person appointed as aforesaid to grant the same, a Duty of one Pound.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall retail or sell, on board any Packet, Boat, or other Vessel employed for the Carriage or Conveyance of Passengers from one Part of the United Kingdom to another Part thereof, any Foreign Wine, Strong Beer, Cyder, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, or Tobacco, without having taken out such Licence as is by this Act required, every such Person shall for every such Offence incur and be liable to a Penalty of Ten Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties by this Act imposed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties by this Act imposed (the Charges for raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid and carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in like Manner with other Duties of Excise arising from Licences.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal any Regulation, Penalty, or Forfeiture contained in or imposed by any Law or Laws in force at the Time of passing this Act, for or in respect of any Person carrying, removing, hiding, concealing, or landing any Spirits, or any other Goods or Commodities, on which the Duties of Excise chargeable and payable thereon have not been fully paid, or for or in respect of any Vessel used or employed for that Purpose; but that all such Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures shall remain in full force and virtue, this Act, or any Licence granted by Authority thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, that this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLVIII.

An Act to repeal the Excise Duties and Drawbacks on Plate Glass, Broad Glass, Crown Glass, Bottle Glass, and Glass Bottles, payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and to impose other Duties and to grant other Drawbacks in lieu thereof, throughout the United Kingdom; and to make perpetual, and so extend to the United Kingdom, several Acts relating to certain Duties on Glass. [15th July 1826.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that equal Duties of Excise should be imposed and made payable in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, upon Plate Glass, Broad Glass, Crown Glass, and Bottle Glass, and on the Materials, Metal, or other Preparations whatsoever used in making such Glass respectively; and that the Manufacture of the said Articles respectively, and the levying and collecting of the said Duties, and the making and paying of all Allowances and Drawbacks in respect thereof, should be conducted and carried on, in every Part of the United Kingdom, under and subject to the same Laws, Regulations, and Provisions; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, the several Duties of Excise payable, in Great Britain, upon or in respect of Plate Glass, Broad Glass, Crown Glass, and Bottle Glass, and on the Materials, Metal, or other Preparations whatsoever, used in making such Glass respectively, and the Duty on Glass Bottles made in Ireland, and the several Countervailing Duties on any such Glass or Glass Bottles made in Ireland, and imported into Great Britain, and the several Drawbacks payable in Great Britain or Ireland respectively on the Exportation of any such Glass or Bottle, under any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively immediately before the passing of this Act, shall cease and determine, and shall be no longer paid and payable, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed; except so far as relates to any Arrears of any Duties chargeable on any such Glass or Bottles, in Great Britain or Ireland, at any Time on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; and except so far as relates to any Drawbacks which may be or become payable, in respect of the said Duties, on the Exportation of any such Glass or Bottle; and except as far as relates to the Countervailing Duties on any such Glass or Bottle which shall have been made in Ireland at any Time on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and which shall be sent from Ireland into Great Britain at any Time after the said Day.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties, and there shall be allowed and paid the several Drawbacks, specified and set forth in the Schedule or Table to this Act annexed; and the said Schedule shall be taken as Part of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act imposed and granted and made payable shall be respectively raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed, throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in such and the like Manner, and in and by any or either of the general or special Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the former Duties and Drawbacks of Excise respectively heretofore repaid were or might have been raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, or allowed in Great Britain; except as far as such

C & P. XLIX.

An Act to amend the Laws in force relating to the Stamp Duties on Sea Insurances, on Articles of Clerkship, on Certificates of Writers to the Signet, and of Conveyancers and others, on Licences to Dealers in Gold and Silver Plate, and Pawnbrokers, on Drafts on Bankers, and on Licences for Stage Coaches in Great Britain, and on Receipts in Ireland. [13th July 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws in force relating to the Stamp Duties in certain Particulars: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, or any of their Officers (whenever they shall be thereto required), to stamp with any additional Stamp or Stamps any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper which may have been previously stamped, upon which any Policy of Insurance, commonly called a Mutual Insurance, may have been ingrossed, printed, or written, whereby divers Persons insure or agree to insure one another, without any Premium or pecuniary Consideration, from any Loss, Damage, or Misfortune that may happen to any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods, Merchandise, or other Property on board of any Ship or Vessel, or the Freight of any Ship or Vessel, or any other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Vessel which may lawfully be insured, although such Policy may have been previously signed, or underwritten by any Person or Number of Persons; any thing in an Act made in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of the late Majesty King George the Third, entitled An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Sea Insurances, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that at the Time when any such additional Stamp or Stamps shall be required, such Policy shall not have been signed or underwritten to an Amount exceeding the Sum or Sums which the Stamp or Stamps previously impressed thereon will warrant.

Policies of Mutual Insurance at Sea may be stamped with additional Stamps, if not underwritten to an Amount exceeding the Sum warranted by the former Stamps.

35 G. 3. c. 65.

Articles of Clerkship executed prior to 29th June 1828, may be stamped before the last Day of Hilary Term 1829, on Payment of Penalty of 2*l*.

Affidavits relating to such Articles of Clerkship may be filed, and Exhibits registered, before the same Day.

Articles of Clerkship in the Courts of Great Sessions, &c. may be stamped, on Payment of the Duty of 18*s* for Admission of the Parties on the Court or Writsday.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, or any of their Officers, at any Time before the last Day of Hilary Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, to stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which shall be ingrossed, written, or printed any Articles of Clerkship, Contract, Indenture, or other Instrument, whereby any Person, at any Time before the Twenty-second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, became bound to serve as a Clerk or Apprentice in order to his Admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in any of the Courts of Law or Equity, upon Payment to the said Commissioners, or their Officer, of the proper Duty payable in respect of such Articles, and of the further Sum of Five Pounds by way of Penalty; any thing in any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have served or become bound to serve as Clerk to an Attorney or Solicitor in Great Britain, under any Articles of Clerkship or Contract bearing Date at any Time before the said Twenty-second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, shall or may have neglected or omitted to cause any Affidavit or Affidavits of the Times of the Execution of such Articles to be made and filed, or shall or may have neglected or omitted to cause any such Articles to be verified or registered, it shall and may be lawful for such Person, at any Time on or before the last Day of Hilary Term One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, to cause One or more Affidavits to be made and filed in such Manner as the same ought to have been made and filed in due Time, and also to cause such Articles (being first duly stamped) to be verified or registered with the proper Officer in that Behalf; and every such Person as aforesaid shall be and he is hereby understood from all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities, and Disabilities in or by any Act or Acts imposed and incurred, or to be incurred, for or by reason of such Neglect or Omission; and every such Affidavit and Affidavits as to be made, and which shall be duly filed on or before the said last Day of the said Hilary Term, shall be as effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been made and filed within the respective Times when the same ought by the Laws in force for that Purpose to have been made and filed; any thing in any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon Payment of the Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds, being the Amount of the Duty imposed by Law on Articles of Clerkship entered into by any Person in order to his Admission in any of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, or any of their Officers, at any Time after the passing of this Act, whenever thereto required, and although more than Six Months shall have elapsed from the Date of such Articles, to stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which shall be ingrossed, written, or printed any Articles of Clerkship, Contract, Indenture, or other Instrument under which any Person may have served or become bound to serve as a Clerk in order to his Admission in any of the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, or of the Countess Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in any other Court of Record in England (not being one of His Majesty's Courts at Westminster), holding Pleas, where the Debt or Damage amounts to Forty Shillings, any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and thereupon the Person having so served shall be capable of being admitted an Attorney or Solicitor in any One or more of His Majesty's said Courts at Westminster: Provided always, that at the Time when such Articles of Clerkship shall be required to be stamped with the said Stamp denoting the Payment of the said Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds, such Articles shall have been previously stamped with a Stamp Stamp denoting the Payment of the Duty payable in respect of the same at the Date of such Articles of Clerkship.

V. And Whereas it is expedient that certain seal Certificates and Licences hereinafter mentioned, granted by the Commissioners of Stamps and their Officers, should expire at fixed Periods: Be it therefore enacted, That every Certificate which shall have been granted at any Time before the passing of this Act, or which shall be granted at any Time before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, to any Person admitted as a Writer to the Signet, or as a Solicitor, Agent, Attorney, or Procurator in any of the Courts in Scotland, or to any Person admitted or enrolled as a Notary Public in Scotland, or to any Sworn Clerk, Clerk in Court, or other Clerk or Officer in any of the Courts aforesaid, who, in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person, shall commence, prosecute, carry on, or defend any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding in any of the Courts aforesaid, or shall do any notarial Act whatever, for or in Expectation of any Fee, Gift, or Reward, as an Attorney, Solicitor, Agent, Procurator, or Notary Public, although not admitted or enrolled as such, shall cease and determine from the said Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

VI. And for regulating the Mode of issuing and entering the Certificates to be taken out yearly by Writers to the Signet, Solicitors, Agents, Attorneys, Procurators, and Notaries Public in Scotland, Be it enacted, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, every Person admitted in Scotland as a Writer to the Signet, or as an Attorney or Sworn Clerk in the Court of Exchequer, or as a Solicitor in the Supreme Courts, or as an Agent in the Court of Session, or as a Procurator or Solicitor in any other Court, or as a Public Notary, shall, between the Thirty-first Day of October and the First Day of December in each and every Year while he shall continue to act as a Solicitor or Agent, Attorney or Procurator in any Court, or as a Public Notary, and in the Case of Persons not admitted before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, then before any such Persons shall begin to act in any such Character or Capacity, and afterwards between the Thirty-first Day of October and the First Day of December in each and every Year, as aforesaid, deliver in to the Head Collector of Stamp Duties at Edinburgh, or to the Officer at the Stamp Office there, who may be authorized to issue such Certificates as aforesaid, or to the Distributor or Person duly authorized to act as a Distributor of Stamps for the District, Shire, Burgh, or Place wherein the Business of the Person requiring such Certificate shall be carried on, a Paper or Note in Writing, containing the full Name and Designation or Description of such Person, together with his usual Place of Residence, or the Place where his Business is carried on, which shall be deemed and taken to be the Place of his Residence, and shall be described as such in the said Paper or Note in Writing, and likewise stating whether his first Admission to act in any such Character or Capacity as aforesaid has been within or beyond Three Years; and thereupon, and upon Payment of the appropriate Duty imposed by Law, every such Person shall be entitled to a Certificate duly stamped, to denote the Payment of the said Duty, according to the Place of Residence described as aforesaid; which Certificate shall be immediately issued under the Hand of the said Head Collector or other proper Officer of Stamps to be for that Purpose duly authorized, and in such Manner and Form as the Commissioners of Stamps shall appoint.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate so to be obtained by any Person residing or carrying on Business within the City or Shire of Edinburgh shall, within the Time hereinafter specified, or before such Person shall begin to act as aforesaid, be entered in a particular Book, Roll, or Record, to be prepared and kept by an Officer whom the Judges of the Court of Session are hereby authorized and directed to appoint for that Purpose; and that every such Certificate as to be obtained by any Person residing or carrying on Business elsewhere shall, within the Time hereinafter prescribed, or before the Obtainer thereof shall begin to act as aforesaid, be entered in a particular Book, Roll, or Record, to be prepared and kept by the Clerk or Person duly authorized to act as Clerk of the Sheriffdom or Stewartry within which the Obtainer of such Certificate shall happen to reside or carry on Business; which said Officer appointed by the Court of Session, and the Clerk or Person duly authorized to act as Clerk of the respective Sheriffdoms or Stewartries, shall respectively from time to time, upon any such Certificate being exhibited or delivered in for the Purpose of being entered, and upon Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, enter the Name and Description of the Person mentioned in such Certificate, together with the Place of his Residence as therein described, in the said appropriate Book, Roll, or Record, in which the Names shall be entered in alphabetical Order, and to which all Persons shall and may at all reasonable Times have Access, without Fee or Reward; provided that only One Book, Roll, or Record shall be kept and used at one Time, for the Purpose aforesaid, within any One Shire or Stewartry in Scotland; and that it shall be incumbent upon the proper Officer appointed by the Court of Session, and the respective Sheriff and Steward Clerks or Persons duly authorized to act as such, upon receiving any such Certificate as aforesaid, to mark thereupon the Date of its being exhibited, and to re-deliver the same to the Party at any Time after the Expiration of Three Days, whenever the same shall be applied for, with a signed Note or Memorandum denoting it to have been duly entered in the said appropriate Book, Roll, or Record; and if any Officer appointed by the Court of Session, or Clerk or Person duly authorized to act as Clerk of any Sheriffdom or Stewartry, in whom any such Certificate shall be exhibited and delivered or tendered for the Purpose of being entered as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect or fail to enter the same, or shall neglect or fail to mark thereon the Date of its being exhibited, or the Entry thereof, or shall wilfully and knowingly mark thereon any false or erroneous Date, or shall refuse to re-deliver the same to the Party when the same shall be applied for, every such Officer or Clerk so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Offence.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Certificate to be hereafter issued in Scotland, between the Thirty-first Day of October and the First Day of December in any Year, shall bear Date on the First Day of November in such Year; and that every such Certificate issued at any other Time shall bear Date on the Day on which the same shall be issued; and that every such Certificate, at whatever Time of the Year the same shall be issued, shall have effect and be in force from the Day of the Date thereof, and shall cease and determine on the Thirty-first Day of October then next ensuing.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, if any Person whatever (not being entitled to any special Exemption from the Duties on such Certificates) shall, for or in Expectation of any Gain, Fee, or Reward, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other Person acting for him, and whether in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, sue out any Writ or Process, or commence, carry on, or defend any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, or do any Act whatever, in any Court in Scotland, as a Solicitor, Agent, Attorney, or Procurator of such Court, or shall act as a public Notary, or exercise the Office of a Notary in any Manner, or shall do any notarial Act whatever in Scotland, without having first duly obtained a proper stamped Certificate in the Manner hereinbefore directed, or without having caused the same to be entered in the appropriate Book, Roll, or Record as aforesaid, or shall deliver to the proper Officer of Stamps any Paper or Note in Writing, misrepresenting the Place of his Residence, or the Time of his first Admission in any such Character or Capacity as aforesaid, with intent to evade the Payment of any Duty or Rate of Duty payable on such Certificate, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and shall also be incapable of commencing or prosecuting any Action, Suit, or Proceeding in any Court of Law or Equity, for the Recovery of any Fee, Reward, or Emolument, upon account of or with relation to any Business, Matter, or Thing performed, executed, demanded, or conducted by him in any Character or Capacity requiring a Certificate.

X. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, for and on account of any Offence committed in Scotland, shall and may be sued for and recovered in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Edinburgh, in any Way or Manner in which Penalties incurred under any Act relating to the Stamp Duties may be sued for and recovered.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate which shall have been granted at any Time before the passing of this Act, or which shall be granted at any Time before the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, to any Person being a Member of One of the four Inns of Court in England, who in the Character of Conveyancer, Special Master, Draftsman, in Equity, or otherwise, shall, for or in Expectation of any Fee, Gain, or Reward, draw or prepare any Conveyance or any Deed or Instrument relating to, any Estate or Property, Real or Personal, or any other Deed or Contract whatever, or any Pleadings or Proceedings in any Court of Law or Equity, shall cease and determine from the said Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; and that any Certificate which at any Time after the Thirty-first Day of October and before the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or in any subsequent Year, shall be granted by the Commissioners of Stamps, or their proper Officer, to any Person who, in any of the said Characters, shall do or perform any Act, Matter, or Thing hereinbefore mentioned, shall bear Date on the First Day of November in such Year respectively; and that every such Certificate which shall be granted at any other Time in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or in any subsequent Year, shall be dated on the Day on which such Certificate shall be actually granted; and every such Certificate, whatever may be the Date thereof, shall have effect and be in force from the Day of the Date thereof, and shall upon the Thirty-first Day of October then next following, and shall then cease and determine.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Licence which shall have been granted at any Time before the passing of this Act, or which shall be granted at any Time before the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, to any Person trading in, vending, or selling any Gold or Silver Plate, or any Gold or Silver Goods or Wares, or to any Pawnbroker trading in, vending, or selling any Gold or Silver Plate, or taking or delivering out Pawns of such Gold, Goods, or Wares, or to any Refiner of Gold or Silver, in Great Britain, or to any Person for using or exercising the Trade or Business of a Pawnbroker in Great Britain, shall cease and determine from the said Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; and that every Licence which at any Time after the Thirty-first Day of July and before the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or in any subsequent Year, shall be granted by the Commissioners of Stamps, or their proper Officer, to any Person for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall bear Date on the First Day of August in such Year respectively; and that every such Licence which shall be granted at any other Time in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or in any subsequent Year, shall be dated on the Day on which such Licence shall be actually granted; and every such Licence, whatever may be the Date thereof, shall have effect and be in force from the Day of the Date thereof, and shall upon the Thirty-first Day of July then next following, and shall then cease and determine.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized and required, to make and pay, in such Manner and under such Regulations as they shall direct, to any and every Person who shall have obtained and be in Possession of any Certificate or Licence which under the Provision of this Act shall cease and determine before the Expiration of the full Term for which such Certificate or Licence shall have been originally granted, an Allowance of a proportionate proportionate Part of the Stamp Duty originally paid on each Certificate or Licence, according to the Term or Period then to come or unexpired thereon.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Allowance shall, in any Case be made to any Person, who shall not take out a new Certificate or Licence under the Provisions of the Act, nor unless the Certificate or Licence in respect of which such Allowance shall be claimed, shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners of Stamps, or their proper Officer, on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and the said Commissioners of Stamps, or their Officer, shall cancel all Certificates or Licences as delivered up, and on which such Allowance shall be made.

XV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Drafts or Orders for the Payment of any Sum of Money to the Bearer on Demand, and drawn in any Part of Great Britain, upon any Banker or Bankers, or any Person or Persons acting as a Banker, who shall reside or transact the Business of a Banker within Fifteen Miles of the Place where such Drafts or Orders shall be issued, shall be and the same are hereby exempted from any Stamp Duty imposed by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, any Thing in any such Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; provided the Place where such Drafts or Orders shall be issued shall be specified therein; and provided the same shall bear Date on or before the Day on which the same shall be issued; and provided the same do not direct the Payment to be made by Bills or Promissory Notes.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal Three Acts made in the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth and Forty-ninth Years of His present Majesty, for limiting the Number of Persons to be carried on the Outside of Stage Coaches or other Carriages, and to exempt other Regiments for carrying the Effects of the said Acts into Effect, whereby it is enacted, that all and every Person or Persons who shall be duly licensed to keep any Coach or other Carriage for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places in Great Britain, as and are respectively directed and required to print or cause to be printed on the Outside of each Door of each such Coach or other Carriage above described, or on some other conspicuous Part thereof, the Name or Names of the Person or Persons, or the Company of Proprietors, or Firm, to whom such Coach or other Carriage shall belong; and so much of the said entitled Act is hereby repealed accordingly as all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Clause or Provision contained in an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for regulating the Duties on Licences taken out by Persons driving Heaves for the Purpose of travelling Post, and on Heaves let to Hire for travelling Post and by Team, and on Stage Coaches, and for granting other Duties in here thereof, and also additional Duties on Heaves let to Hire for travelling Post and by Team whereby it is enacted, that all and every Person or Persons so licensed to use every such Coach or other Carriage as aforesaid shall mark, or print, or cause to be marked or printed, on the outside Panel of each Door thereof, in such Manner as in the said Act is mentioned, his, her, or their Christian and Surname, together with the Name of the Place from whence they set out and to which they are going.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to make further Regulations relating to the Licensing of Stage Coaches, shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to lay, make, and prosecute any Information before any Justice or Justices of the Peace against any Person or Persons, for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture made or incurred by virtue of the said Act, or of any other Act or Acts relating to Carriages or Vehicles kept, used, or employed to convey Passengers for Hire; and so much of the said entitled Act is hereby repealed accordingly, as all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as well with relation to any Offences committed at any Time before the passing of this Act, for which Informations or Proceedings may be depending or in Process at the Time of the passing of this Act, as with relation to any Offences which may be committed at any Time after the passing of this Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases where any Information shall have been laid or shall be laid before any Justice or Justices of the Peace in Great Britain, by any Person other than the Subcriber of Stamps in England or Scotland, or some Officer of the Stamp Duties, for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture made or incurred by virtue of any Act or Acts relating to any Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons against whom such Information shall have been or shall be laid to apply to the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom the Information shall have been laid, or to the Justices of the Peace at the General Quarter Sessions to which any Appeal shall have been or shall be duly made from any Conviction obtained or made on any such Information laid by any Person other than as aforesaid, to quash such Information or Conviction upon Payment by the Defendant of such Costs and Charges as to such Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable; and it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, if they shall think fit so to do, and such Justice or Justices are hereby authorized and empowered, upon such Application, to quash such Information or Conviction accordingly.

XIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to provide for the Collection and Management of Stamps, Duties on Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Receipts and Game Certificates in Ireland, Three several Penalties of Twenty Pence each, and One Penalty of Fifty Pence, are imposed upon Persons committing the several Offences specified in the said last-entitled Act, in relation to the Stamp Duties Allowance not to be made in certain Cases.

So much of 33 G. 3. c. 44. as directs the Number of Proprietors of Stage Coaches to be printed on the Doors thereof, repealed.

Nothing inserted to repeal or alter any Part of 25 G. 3. c. 22. as to Stages of licensed Persons being printed on the Doors of Coaches, &c.

So much of 7 G. 4. c. 22. as permits the Informations to be laid by any Persons as to Stage Coaches, repealed.

Justices may quash Informations laid by any other Person than an Officer of Stamps, on Payment of Costs.

Penalties of 20s. and 50s. under 55 G. 3. c. 100. as to Receipts in Ireland, repealed in 1828.

' on Receipts in Ireland.' Be it enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, any Person who shall have committed or shall commit any of the Offences in the said Act specified, in relation to the Stamp Duties on Receipts in Ireland, shall, upon Conviction for any such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds, and no more; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, so much of the said last-recited Act as declares that any Clerk or Person in the Employment of another, who shall commit certain Offences in the said Act mentioned relating to Receipts, shall, upon being convicted thereof, be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and be punished by Fine and Imprisonment and other corporal Punishment, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: and from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, any Clerk or other Person in the Employment of another, who shall have committed or shall commit any such Offence, shall, upon Conviction for any such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and no more, in addition to the Penalty to which the Employer or Employers of such Person is or are by the said last-mentioned Act or by this Act subject and liable in respect of such Offence.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the said several Penalties of Ten Pounds by this Act imposed on Offences committed in Ireland shall be recovered in the same Manner as any Penalty imposed by the Acts in force in Ireland with respect to Stamp Duties may be recovered.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Case in which any Suit, Proceeding, or Prosecution shall have commenced with relation to any such Offences under the said last-recited Act, and in which Judgment or a Conviction shall not have been obtained before the passing of this Act, such Suit, Proceeding, or Prosecution shall not be abated or affected in consequence of the Provisions of this Act, and it shall not be necessary to recommence such Suit, Proceeding, or Prosecution: but in case a Judgment or Conviction shall be obtained therein, the same shall be given only for the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties by this Act imposed, in lieu of the Penalty or Punishment under the said recited Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall be convicted of making a false Oath touching any of the Matters directed or required by this Act to be testified on Oath, such Per-son or Persons so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties in which Persons guilty of Perjury are liable by any Law in Force in that Part of the United Kingdom called England; and if any Person shall corruptly procure or suborn any other Person or Persons to swear falsely in any such Oath, such Person, being duly convicted of such procuring and suborning, shall for every such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of Perjury are respectively liable unto by any Law in Force in the said Part of the said United Kingdom called England.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said United Company shall have and be entitled to the same Rights, Powers, Remedies, and Methods of Suit as Law or in Equity, or by any Admiralty Process, to be commenced and prosecuted in the Name of the said United Company, in the several Courts of Jus-tice in the United Kingdom, and in the East India, and elsewhere aforesaid, for Discovery and Recovery of the Monies hereby directed to be paid over to the said Company, as the original Owners thereof now have, or are entitled to use or exercise; and all Courts of Law and Equity, and of Admiralty Jurisdic-tion, in the United Kingdom, and in the East India, shall have and exercise the same Jurisdiction, Powers, and Authorities for compelling all and every Person and Persons to account for and pay over the Monies hereby directed to be paid over to the said United Company, as any Court of Law or Equity, or of Admiralty Jurisdiction, may now lawfully exercise, with respect to any unclaimed Balances payable to the Treasurers of Greenwich Hospital and Chelsea Hospital respectively, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law, Usage, or Custom whatsoever; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Directors of the said United Company, and the several Governments of the Settlements Abroad of the said United Company, to exercise the same or the like Powers and Authorities, for the Recovery of the Monies hereby directed to be paid over to the said United Company, as may now be exercised by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force relating to Prize Money by the Treasurers of Greenwich Hospital and Chelsea Hospital respectively, so far as such Powers and Authorities related to the Recovery by them, and the Discovery of unclaimed Shares of Prize Money due and belonging to any Officers, Soldiers, or Seamen in the Service of His Majesty, and shall be applicable to the Objects of this Act, and all and every Agent, or Agents shall be subject to the like Penalties for Neglect or Default in not accounting for or paying over the Shares or Shares, which by the said revised Act or by this Act is or are made payable to the said United Company, as Agents are made liable to by any Act or Acts now in Force, for not accounting for or for not paying over Shares and Balances to the Treasurers of Greenwich and Chelsea Hospitals respectively.

IX. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect the Royal Hospital for Soldiers at Chelsea, nor the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich; nor to take away, repeal, diminish, or interfere with any Claim, Right, or Interest which by virtue of any Law or Laws now in Force may have been given, or are now existing, or may hereafter by virtue of the said Acts become vested in the said Royal Hospitals, or in the Treasurers thereof, on any unclaimed and forfeited Shares of Prize Money, or for the Recovery thereof, for the Benefit of the said Institutions, or for the Benefit of the Person or Persons entitled to any unclaimed and forfeited Shares of Prize Money; but the same shall continue and remain in the said Commissioners, and in the said Treasurers, as if this Act had not been made.

X. And

X. And he is further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall pay over to the said Company, or to any other Person or Persons by their Order or for their Use, any Sum or Sums of Money required to be paid under the Provisions of this Act, shall, from and after such Payment, be absolutely acquitted and discharged from all Claims and Demands whatsoever of all and every other Person and Persons to the same Moneys which shall be so paid over.

XI. And he is further enacted, That all Expenses incurred or to be incurred in executing this Act, and the Sums paid in remunerating the Officers or Persons employed on behalf of the said United Company, for their Care, Pains, and Trouble in performing the Regulations and Directions thereof, shall, as far as the same relate to those Officers or Persons, be subject to the Discretion of the Court of Directors for managing the Affairs of the said Company, and shall be paid out of the Principal Moneys to be recovered and discovered as aforesaid on account of such Shares respectively: Provided nevertheless, that no Person employed by the said United Company in executing the Regulations of this Act, shall act as an Agent for Prison, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the Business thereof, under the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds.

XII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to prevent any Person or Persons from resorting to any Remedy at Law or in Equity against the said Company, for the Recovery of Principal, without Interest, of any Money to which he, she, or they may be entitled, and which shall have been paid to the said United Company, or which shall have been carried over by the said Company to the Credit of either of the Funds heretofore mentioned, under the Directions of this Act; provided such Person or Persons shall have preferred his or their Claim thereto to the said Court of Directors, if such Money shall have been paid over to the said Company in England, or shall have been carried over from their Funds at Home, or to the Governor or Council of the Presidency where the same shall have been paid or carried over, if paid over to the said Company, or carried over from their Funds in India, within Six Years after the same shall have been so paid or carried over; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And he is further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act for erecting a Chapel of Ease at Killybeg in the Parish of Monkstown in the County and Diocese of Dublin, and for providing for the due Celebration of Divine Service therein.

[15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS the Parish of Monkstown in the County and Diocese of Dublin has of late Years become very populous, and a considerable Number of Inhabitants reside at Killybeg in the said Parish, at a Distance of Two Miles and upwards from the Parish Church, which is not sufficiently large to accommodate the increasing Population of said Parish; and the Parishioners dwelling in the Neighbourhood of Killybeg aforesaid are very much in need of a particular Place of Worship nearer their Homes, to which they may resort for the Service of God, at Morning and Evening Prayers, and for the Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper: And Whereas it will much tend to the Advancement of Religion in the said Neighbourhood if the Want of a proper Place of Worship should be supplied, and a Chapel of Ease be erected for that Purpose upon a convenient Site: And Whereas the Cure of Souls in the Parish of Monkstown is in the Perpetual Curate thereof; and the said Curacy is appropriated to the Rectory of the Cathedral of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, commonly called Christchurch, in the City of Dublin, and the Patronage and Nomination thereof belong to the Dean of the said Cathedral: And Whereas the Reverend Charles Lindsay is the present Ecclesiastical Incumbent or Perpetual Curate of the said Parish: And Whereas many Inhabitants of the said Parish have expressed an earnest Desire that such Chapel of Ease should be forthwith erected, and that it is in Contemplation to promote said Design by creating proper and sufficient Funds for the Purpose: And Whereas the Most Reverend Father in God William Lord Archbishop of Dublin and Ordinary of the said Diocese, the Dean of Christchurch aforesaid, to whose Patronage and Nomination the said Benefice of Monkstown belongs, the said Charles Lindsay the present Curate or Ecclesiastical Incumbent thereof, and the Parishioners of the same, have respectively testified their Consent to the erecting of the said Chapel of Ease, and to the Endowment of a Chaplain in manner hereinafter provided: And Whereas the said Parish of Monkstown does not come within the Provisions and Operation of the several Statutes in force in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, for the promoting and regulating the building of Chapels of Ease in the Cases therein provided, and it is necessary to have special Provision for the same, and it is also necessary, for the Purpose aforesaid, that a Piece of Land should be set apart and appropriated to the Vicinity of Killybeg, as a Site for the said intended Chapel, and that there should be an Endowed Chaplain of the said Chapel: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Proprietor of any Ground within the said Parish of Monkstown, or any Part thereof within the ancient Parish of Killybeg, now forming a Part of the said Parish of Monkstown, notwithstanding any such Proprietor may be asked only for an Estate for Life or in Tail therein, to grant and convey to the Perpetual Curate or Minister of the said Parish of Monkstown, and his Successors, a sufficient Quantity of Ground, not exceeding One Acre English Statute Measure, for the Purpose of building, erecting, and making a Chapel of Ease, with all Buildings necessary thereto, in like Manner and as fully and effectually as Persons are authorized to grant or set out Ground for such or the like Purpose by any Law now in being, such Grant and Conveyance to be in Trust for the Inhabitants of the said Parish for ever; and that the said Perpetual Curate or Minister of the said Parish be and is hereby enabled to take such Grant and Conveyance, the Statute of Mortmain or any other Law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if at any Time after the making of the said Grant and Conveyance of the said Ground, and before the building of the said Chapel, it shall be found necessary or convenient to change such Site of the said intended Chapel, it shall be lawful for the said Perpetual Curate or Minister of the said Parish, with the Consent of the Ordinary of the Diocese, the Dean of Christchurch, and the Proprietor who shall or may have granted any Ground for the Site for the said Chapel, to exchange such Ground to granted or a Site for the same for any Ground of equal or greater Quantity in the Vicinity of Killybeg aforesaid, which said Ground so given in exchange shall be conveyed to the said

Authorizing the Conveyance of Land for erecting a Chapel of Ease in Killybeg.

Incumbent for the Purposes aforesaid, and shall be and is hereby veined in the said Incumbent and his Successors, in like Manner as the Ground originally granted would have been had it remained for the Purposes aforesaid.

When Site has been chosen and granted, a Chapel of Ease is to be erected under the Direction of the Lord Archbishop of Dublin.

II. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as a proper Site shall have been chosen and granted, in manner aforesaid, for the Place of the said intended Chapel, that then and as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, it shall and may be lawful for his Grace William Lord Archbishop of Dublin, or his Successors, Archbishops of Dublin, to erect or cause to be erected upon the Ground so given and conveyed for the Purposes aforesaid a Chapel of Ease, with all necessary Accommodations: which Chapel, when built, shall be consecrated, and shall be dependent upon the Mother Church of the said Parish of Monkstown, as a Parochial Chapel of Ease annexed to said Church, and it shall and may be lawful to celebrate the Morning and Evening Service of the United Church of England and Ireland, and to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to preach the Word of God therein: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend as to to endow the said Chapel with any Right, Privilege, or Liberty of a Parochial Church or independent District Chapel, or to authorize the Performance therein of the Service of Confirmation, Matrimony, and Burial of the Dead, or any or either of these, but that all such Services shall continue as before to be administered in the Parish Church only.

A Chapel is to be appointed.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall be a Chaplain of the said Chapel, with constant and perpetual successive Chaplains, to be appointed, constituted, and endowed in manner hereinafter provided, for the due Celebration of Divine Service and preaching the Word of God in the said Chapel; which said Chaplain and his Successors shall be subject to the Visitation and Power of the Ordinary of the Diocese, and the Laws and Canons Ecclesiastical, in like Manner as Chaplains with Perpetual Succession usually are and of Right ought to be subject.

IV. And Whereas it is necessary to make a Provision for the Endowment of the said Chaplaincy, and for the Maintenance of the Chaplain and his Successors, and that the Dean of Christchurch aforesaid, and to whose Deanery the said Parish of Monkstown is appropriate, has proposed and is willing, as far as in him lies, and with the Consent of the Chapter of the said Cathedral, to give certain Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, belonging to the Deanery aforesaid, situate within the Parish aforesaid at Dalkey, consisting of Twelve Acres One Reed and Eight Perches English Statute Measure, described in a certain Lease bearing Date the Fifteenth Day of January in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and made between the Dean of Christchurch aforesaid of the one Part, and Henry Lindsay Esquire of the other Part, as Part Endowment of the said Chaplaincy, and to settle and convey the same as the Use of the first and other Chaplains thereof in Perpetuity, and Henry Lindsay, the Tenant in Possession of the said Land and Tenements, holding of the said Dean under the said Lease, has proposed and is willing to surrender his Lease and Interest in the same to the said Dean: He it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Dean of Christchurch, and his Successors, Deans of Christchurch, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to grant and convey to the said Reverend Charles Lindsay, the Incumbent or Perpetual Curate aforesaid, and his Successors, the aforesaid Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, belonging to the Deanery aforesaid, situate within the Parish aforesaid, of Dalkey, consisting of Twelve Acres One Reed and Eight Perches English Statute Measure as aforesaid, and for any other Proprietor of Land within the said Parish of Monkstown, notwithstanding such Proprietor may be seized only for an Estate for Life or in Tail therein, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to grant and convey to the said Reverend Charles Lindsay, the Incumbent or Perpetual Curate aforesaid, and his Successors, any Quantity of Land within the said Parish of Monkstown, or any of the ancient Parishes now forming the Parish of Monkstown, not exceeding Eight Acres English Statute Measure, in Trust and to and for the sole Use and Benefit of the first and other Chaplains to be constituted and appointed in manner hereinafter provided; and that so soon as any Chaplain shall have been duly appointed under the Provisions of this Act, then and from thenceforth the said Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, so granted or to be granted by the said Dean, and any other Proprietor of Ground in said Parish, to the Use of the said Chaplain, and all the Right, Title, and Interest therein of them the said Dean and such Proprietor as aforesaid, shall become veined in Possession in the said Chaplain and his Successors, Chaplains of the said Chaplaincy, for ever, and he and they shall thenceforth stand seized thereof in like Manner as if the said Grant and Conveyance or Grants and Conveyances had been made directly to themselves, any Statute of Mortmain or any other Law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, however, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to diminish, or in anywise affect, save as aforesaid, the Interest of any Tenant or Tenants of any of the Lands proposed to be conveyed, and now holding the same by virtue of any existing Deemance under the said Dean or such Proprietor as aforesaid.

Lands to be conveyed to the Chaplain.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case a Chaplain shall have been duly constituted and appointed, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, before the said Grants and Conveyances, or either of them, shall have been duly made and carried into Effect, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Dean and such other Proprietor, or either of them, to convey the said Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, and other Land, not exceeding Eight Acres English Statute Measure, in respect to such Proprietor, to such Chaplain and his Successors, to his and their own sole Use and Benefit; any Statute of Mortmain or other Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Endowed Chaplain to

VI. And Whereas the Value of the said Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, belonging to the Deanery aforesaid, proposed to be granted and conveyed by the said Dean to the Use and

Benefit

* Benefit of the first and other Chaplains aforesaid in Perpetuity, & could be much augmented and increased,
 * if the said Chaplain and his Successors, Chaplains of the said Chaplaincy, were empowered by Law
 * to grant Leases of the same, so as to bind their Successors for a Term of Years: He it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Chaplain and his Successors, when duly constituted and appointed in manner hereafter provided, with the Consent in Writing of the Archbishop of Dublin and the Dean of Christchurch aforesaid respectively for the Time being, to grant a Lease of said Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, or of any Part thereof, for any Term of Years not exceeding Sixty Years from the Time of the Execution of such Lease, at the full improved yearly Value of said Lands and Tenements with their Appurtenances, without taking any Fine, or any other pecuniary Consideration whatsoever: Provided always, that if any Fine or other pecuniary Consideration should be taken by said Chaplain or his Successors, or if he should grant a Lease of said Lands and Tenements, with their Appurtenances, or any Part thereof, without the Consent in Writing of the said Archbishop of Dublin and the said Dean of Christchurch respectively for the Time being first had and obtained, in such Case, or in either of such Cases, the said Lease so granted shall be ipso facto void, without any Process or Judgment of Law.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Patronage of the said Chaplaincy shall be in the Perpetual Curate of Monkstown, and his Successors: and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Charles Levinge, the now Perpetual Curate of the said Parish of Monkstown, or his Successors, Perpetual Curates of the same, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to nominate to his Grace William Lord Archbishop of Dublin, and his Successors, Archbishops of Dublin, a fit and proper Person, being a Priest in Holy Orders of the Established Church, and not being possessed of any other Cure or Benefice, or Ecclesiastical Preference with Cure of Souls, to be licensed and appointed to the Chaplaincy of the said Chapel of Killybeg; and that the said Chaplain, when so nominated, licensed, and appointed, shall be Perpetual Chaplain of said Chaplaincy, and shall officiate as such; and that thence and thereafter, and so often as the said Chaplaincy shall become void by the Death, Resignation, or other Removal of any first or other Chaplain filling the same, it shall be lawful for the Perpetual Curate of said Parish of Monkstown, and his Successors, to nominate to the Archbishop of Dublin for the Time being a fit and proper Person, being a Priest in Holy Orders, and not being possessed of any other Cure or Benefice, or Ecclesiastical Preferment with Cure of Souls, to be licensed and appointed as aforesaid, who shall thereafter and by virtue of such Nomination and Licence forthwith be entitled to officiate as Chaplain, and to take and receive to his own Use all the Fruits, Profits, Rents, and Emoluments whatsoever unto the said Chaplaincy belonging: and that the said Chapel, when built as provided, and the Chaplains thereof for the Time being, shall be for ever subject to the Visitation of the said Archbishop of Dublin, and his Successors.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the said Perpetual Curate of Monkstown shall omit or neglect, for the Space of Three Calendar Months, to nominate a fit Person to the said Archbishop and his Successors, to be licensed and appointed as aforesaid, that then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Archbishop of Dublin, and his Successors, Archbishops of Dublin, to appoint a Chaplain as in a Case of Lapse, and such Chaplain shall be the lawful Successor in the said Chaplaincy:
 Provided, however, that if any Chaplain shall die, resign, or be removed during any Vacancy of the said
 Perpetual Cure or Benefice of Monkstown, no Time running during such Vacancy shall be counted as a Lease of the Right of Nomination to such Chaplaincy, or as any Part of the Period of Three Months exceedingly a Lease, or as in any Manner defeating or running against the said Right of Patronage of the Incumbent of Monkstown, but that such Period of Time shall be counted only during the Pleasantry of such Benefice or appropriate Curacy of Monkstown, and begin to run only from the Time when the said Curacy or Benefice of Monkstown shall be full of a Curate or Incumbent.

IX. And be it enacted, That the said Chaplain, and his Successors, Chaplains as aforesaid, shall be and they and each of them are and is hereby incorporated and made One Body Politic and Corporate, by the Name of Chaplains of the Chapel of Killybeg in the Parish of Monkstown, and that they and every of them shall be capable to sue and be sued in all Courts and Places in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, and by such Name to take and receive any Lands, Tenements, or Property whatsoever, Real or Personal, not exceeding in the whole the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds, by Gift, Grant, Devise, or otherwise, in Augmentation of the said Endowment, and to the Use and Benefit of them and their Successors for ever; and that the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of the several Benefices of Ireland may grant to the said Chaplain and Chaplains, and any of them in Succession, any Sum of Money out of the Funds vested in them for Public Purposes, either by way of Gift or Loan, for the enabling said Chaplain, or any succeeding Chaplain, to build a House of Residence, and also for the enabling him to purchase any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as an additional Endowment of the said Chaplaincy: and that the said Trustees and Commissioners may exercise all such Powers and Authority in favour of the said Chaplain, and his Successors, Chaplains of the said Chapel of Killybeg, as they are empowered to do in favour of any Perpetual Curate by any Law now in being; and that all Laws and Statutes now in force in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, for and in relation to the Purchase, procuring, building, and improving of Glebe and Glebe Lands to be held, provided, and enjoyed by Perpetual Curates, shall be and are hereby enacted to extend to the said Chaplaincy of the Chapel of Killybeg, and the Lands, Houses, and Improvements to belong and to be made, erected, and procured by the Chaplains of the said Chaplaincy for the Time being.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Chaplain, and his Successors, Chaplains of the said Chapel of Killybeg, shall reside within the Parish of Monkstown, and as near as conveniently may be to said Chapel

And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of the Benefice in Ireland, to give any Sum of Money which may appear to them proper and sufficient for the building and completing of the said intended Chapel of East at Killybegs aforesaid, and to exercise for that Purpose all such Powers and Authority as are now vested in them, in respect of the building new Churches and Chapels in that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said Chapel of East, when built and completed, shall thenceforward be maintained and repaired, and bound in all needful Things, at the Expence of the said Parish of Meashamore, in like Manner as other Parochial Chapels of East are maintained, repaired, and provided by the Laws and Statutes now in being; and that the Ordinary of the Diocese of Dublin, in which said Parish of Meashamore is situate, and the Minister and Churchwardens of the said Parish, and the Inhabitants of the same in Vestry assembled, shall have and exercise all such Powers, and be subject to all such Duties in respect of said Chapel, as in like Cases Ordinaries, Ministers, Churchwardens, and Vestries are or are subject to by any Law now in being, or by any Statute hereafter to be enacted, and particularly under and by virtue of a certain Statute made in the Seventh Year of his present Majesty, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws which regulate the Levy and Application of Church Rates and Parish Rates, and the Election of Churchwardens, and the Maintenance of Parish Clerks in Ireland.

XIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Second Year of the Reign of King George the First, intitled An Act for the real Cloase and Division of Parishes, it is amongst other Things enacted, that all Acts of Parliament for the uniting or dissolving of particular Parishes or Parts of Parishes, or erecting particular Churches, shall be deemed as Public General Acts in all Courts; and by all Persons, and that no Fees shall be taken by any Person or Persons for passing any such Act of Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient that the like Provision should be made in this Case: Be it therefore enacted, That this present Act is and shall be deemed a Public and General Act, and shall be judiciously taken notice of as such in all Courts, and by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded; and that no Fees shall be paid or taken by any Person or Persons for passing the same.

an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, to explain and amend the heretofore recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for preventing the wilful and malicious Destruction of Dwelling Houses in Ireland; and the said several heretofore recited Statutes and Acts, and Parts of Statutes and Acts, are hereby repealed accordingly, so far as relates to Ireland, or to Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Ireland; save and except as far as the said Statutes and Acts, or Parts of Statutes and Acts respectively, or any of them, may repeal the Whole or any Part of any other Act or Acts; and save and except such Offences committed, and Punishments awarded, and other Matters done before or upon the said Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, which shall be dealt with, considered, and punished as if such Act had not been passed.*

II. And be it further enacted, That all Acts and Parts of Acts containing or perpetuating any of the Acts or Parts of Acts heretofore repealed, so far only as relates to such Commission or Perpetration, from and after the said Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise affect or alter such Part of any Act as relates to the Post-Office, or to any Branch of the Public Revenue, or to the Naval, Military, Victualling, or other Public Stores of His Majesty, or any Act relating to the Bank of Ireland; except so far as the said Act repeals Part of an Act of the Fifty-second Year of King George the Third, relating to Naval, Ordnance, and Military Stores.

C A P. LIV.

An Act for improving the Administration of Justice in Criminal Cases in Ireland.

[15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient, with a View to improve the Administration of Justice in Criminal Cases in Ireland, to define under what Circumstances Persons may be admitted to Bail in Cases * of Felony; and to make better Provisions for taking Examinations, Informations, Indictments, and Recognizances; and returning the same to the proper Tribunals; and to relax in some Instances the technical Strictness of Criminal Proceedings, so as to ensure the Punishment of the Guilty without depriving the Accused of any just Means of Defence; and to abolish the Benefit of Clergy and some Matters of Form which impede the due Administration of Justice; and to make better Provisions for the Punishment of Offenders in certain Cases: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Person shall be taken on a Charge of Felony, or Suspicion of Felony, before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the Charge shall be supported by positive and credible Evidence of the Fact, or by such Evidence as if not explained or contradicted shall, in the Opinion of the Justice or Justices, raise a strong Presumption of the Guilt of the Person charged, such Person shall be committed to Prison by such Justice or Justices in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only One Justice present, and the whole Evidence given before him shall be such as neither to raise a strong Presumption of Guilt, nor to warrant the Dismissal of the Charge, such Justice shall order the Person charged to be detained in Custody, and such Person shall be taken before Two Justices at the least: And where any Person so taken, or any Person in the first Instance taken before Two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with Felony, or on Suspicion of Felony, and the Evidence given in support of the Charge shall, in the Opinion of such Justices, not be such as to raise a strong Presumption of the Guilt of the Person charged, and to require the Commitment of such Person, or such Evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the Person charged as shall, in the Opinion of such Justices, weaken the Presumption of Guilt, but there shall, notwithstanding, appear to such Justices, in either of such Cases, to be sufficient Ground for judicial Enquiry into the Guilt of the Person charged, such Person shall be admitted to Bail by such Two Justices in the Manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any such Justice or Justices to hear Evidence on behalf of any Person so charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to such Justice or Justices to be meet and conducive to the Ends of Justice to hear the same.

II. And be it enacted, That Two Justices of the Peace, before they shall admit to Bail, and One or more Justice or Justices, before he or they shall commit to Prison, any Person arrested for Felony or on Suspicion of Felony, shall take the Examination of such Person, and the Information upon Oath of those who shall know the Facts and Circumstances of the Case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into Writing, and the Two Justices admitting to Bail shall certify the Bailment in Writing; and every such Justice shall have Authority to summon any Person within his Jurisdiction, whom he shall have reason to consider capable of giving material Evidence concerning any such Felony or Suspicion of Felony, and to examine such Person on Oath touching the same, and to bind by Recognizance all such Persons as know or declare any thing material touching any such Felony, or Suspicion of Felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, or other Court at which the Trial of such Offence is intended to be had, then and there to prosecute and give Evidence against the Party accused; and such Justice and Justice respectively shall subscribe all such Examinations, Informations, Bailments, and Recognizances, and deliver or cause to be delivered the same to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court; and in case any Person so summoned shall refuse to submit to such Examination or to enter into such Recognizance, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices to commit such Person to the public Gaol of the County, City, or Town, until such Person shall submit to such Examination, or shall enter into such Recognizance, or be discharged by due Course of Law; provided that no such Examination shall subject the Party examined to any Prosecution or Penalty, or be given in Evidence against such Party, save on any Indictment for having committed wilful and corrupt Perjury in such Examination.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any Person shall be taken on a Charge of Misdemeanor, or Suspicion thereof, shall take the Examination of the Person charged, and the Information upon Oath of those who shall know the Facts and Circumstances of the Case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into Writing, before he shall commit to Prison or require Bail from the Person so charged; and in every Case of Bailment shall certify the Bailment in Writing; and shall have Authority to bind all Persons by Recognizance to appear to prosecute or give Evidence against the Party accused, in like Manner as in Cases of Felony: and shall subscribe all Examinations, Informations, Bailments, and Recognizances, and deliver or cause to be delivered the same to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, in like Manner as in Cases of Felony.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Coroner, upon any Inquisition taken before him, whereby any Person shall be indicted for Manslaughter or Murder, or as an Accessory to Murder before the Fact, shall put in Writing the Evidence given to the Jury before him, or as much thereof as shall be material: and shall have Authority to bind by Recognizance all such Persons as know or declare any thing material touching the said Manslaughter or Murder, or the said Offence of being accessory to Murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, or other Court at which the Trial is to be, then and there to prosecute or give Evidence against the Party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same Evidence, and all such Recognizances, and also the Inquisition before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court.

And be it enacted, That whenever any Person, not having Privilege of Parsonage, being arraigned upon any Indictment for Treason, Felony, or Piracy, shall plead thereto a Plea of Not guilty, such Person shall, by such Plea, without any further Form, be deemed to have put himself or herself upon the Country for Trial, and the Court shall, in the usual Manner, order a Jury for the Trial of such Person accordingly.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person, being arraigned upon or charged with any Indictment or Information for Treason, Felony, Piracy, or Misdemeanour, shall stand mute of Malice, or will not answer directly to the Indictment or Information, in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper Officer to enter a Plea of Not guilty on behalf of such Person; and the Plea so entered shall have the same Force and Effect as if such Person had actually pleaded the same.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in all Inquests to be taken before any of the Courts in Ireland, wherein the King is a Party, howsoever it be, notwithstanding it be alleged by them that one for the King that the Jurors of those Inquests, or some of them, be not indifferent for the King, yet such Inquests shall not remain void for that Cause; but if they that one for the King will challenge any of those Jurors, they shall assign of their Challenge a Cause certain, and the Truth of the same Challenge shall be enquired of according to the Custom of the Court; and it shall be proceeded to in the taking of the same Inquisitions, as it shall be found, if the Challenge be true or not, after the Discretion of the Court: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the Power of any Court in Ireland to order any Juror to stand by until the Panel shall be gone through, at the Prayer of them that prosecute for the King, as has been heretofore accustomed; and that no Person arraigned for Treason or Murder, or for other Felony, shall be admitted to any peremptory Challenge above the Number of Twenty; and if any Person so arraigned for Treason or Murder, or for other Felony, shall peremptorily challenge more than Twenty, such excessive Challenge shall be rejected, and the Jurors so challenged beyond the Number of Twenty shall be sworn on the Inquest, and the Trial shall proceed as if such excessive Challenge had not been made or taken.

X. And be it enacted, That no Plea setting forth any Attainder shall be pleaded in Bar of any Indictment, unless the Attainder be for the same Offence as that charged in the Indictment.

XI. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be indicted for Treason or Felony, the Jury impanelled to try such Person shall not be charged to enquire concerning his Lands, Tenements, or Goods, nor whether he died for such Treason or Felony.

XII. And be it enacted, That Benefit of Clergy with respect to Persons convicted of Felony shall be abolished; but that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Joinder in any Indictment of any Counts which might have been joined before the passing of this Act.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no Person convicted of Felony shall suffer Death, unless it be for some Felony which was excluded from the Benefit of Clergy before or on the First Day of the present Session of Parliament, or which hath been or shall be made punishable with Death by some Act passed after that Day.

XIV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of a Felony which was not excluded from the Benefit of Clergy before or on the First Day of the present Session of Parliament, and which hath not been and shall not be made punishable with Death by any Statute passed after that Day, shall, after having suffered the Punishment awarded by the Court upon such Conviction, be a competent Witness.

XV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of any Felony not punishable with Death shall be punished in the Manner prescribed by the Statute or Statutes specially relating to such Felony; and that every Person convicted of any Felony for which an Punishment hath been or hereafter may be specially provided, shall be deemed to be punishable under this Act, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned beyond the Term for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person hereafter sentenced or ordered, or hereafter to be sentenced or ordered, to be transported, or who shall have agreed or shall agree to transport or batish himself or herself on certain Conditions, either for Life or for any Number of Years, shall be afterwards at large within any Part of the United Kingdom, without some lawful Cause, before the Expiration of his or her Term of Transportation or Banishment, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon; and every such Offender may be tried, either in the County or Place where such Offender shall be found at large, or in the County or Place at which such Sentence or Order of Transportation or Banishment was passed or made.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment or Information against any Offender for being found at large contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or of any other Act now in force or hereafter to be in force, whether such Offender shall have been tried before any Court or Judge within or without the United Kingdom, or before any Naval or Military Court Martial, it shall be sufficient to allege the Sentence

Sentence or Order of Transportation or Banishment of such Offender, without alleging any Indictment, Information, Trial, Conviction, Judgment, or any Pardon or Intention of Mercy, or Signification thereof, or of against or in any Manner relating to such Offender.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Court, or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Court where any such Sentence or Order of Transportation or Banishment shall have been passed or made, or his Deputy, shall, at the Request of any Person on behalf of His Majesty, make out and give a Certificate in Writing, signed by him, containing the Effect and Substance only (omitting the formal Part) of any Indictment, Information, and Conviction of such Offender, and of the Sentence or Order for his or her Transportation or Banishment (not adding for the same more than the Sum of Six Shillings and Eight-pence), which Certificate shall be sufficient Evidence of the Conviction and Sentence or Order for the Transportation or Banishment of such Offender; and every such Certificate, if made by the Clerk or Officer of any Court in Ireland, or by his Deputy, shall be received in Evidence upon Proof of the Signature of the Person signing the same; and every such Certificate, if made by the Clerk or Officer of any Court out of Ireland, shall be received in Evidence, if certified by the Seal of the Court, or by the Signature of the Judge or of One of the Judges of such Court, without further Proof.

XIX. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted of any Offence punishable under this Act, for which Imprisonment may be awarded, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction; and also to direct that the Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, or with such Imprisonment with hard Labour, as to the Court in its Discretion shall seem meet.

XX. And be it enacted, That whenever Sentence shall be passed for Felony on a Person already imprisoned under Sentence for another Crime, it shall be lawful for the Court to award Imprisonment for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Person shall have been previously sentenced, and where such Person shall be already under Sentence, either of Imprisonment or of Transportation, the Court, if empowered to pass Sentence of Transportation, may award such Sentence for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment or Transportation to which such Person shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate Term of Imprisonment or Transportation respectively may exceed the Term for which either of those Punishments could be otherwise awarded.

XXI. And Whereas it is expedient to provide for the more exemplary Punishment of Offenders who commit Felony after a previous Conviction for Felony, whether such Conviction shall have taken place before or after the Commencement of this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall be convicted of any Felony not punishable with Death, committed after a previous Conviction for Felony, such Person shall on such subsequent Conviction be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment; and in any Indictment for any such Felony committed after a previous Conviction for Felony, it shall be sufficient to state, that the Offender was at a certain Time and Place convicted of Felony, without otherwise describing the previous Felony; and a Certificate, containing the Substance and Effect only (omitting the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction for the previous Felony, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Court where the Offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or Officer (for which Certificate a Fee of Six Shillings and Eight-pence, and no more, shall be demanded or taken) shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender, be sufficient Evidence of the first Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; and if any Clerk, Officer, or Deputy shall utter any false Certificate of any Indictment and Conviction for a previous Felony, or of any Sentence or Order of Transportation or Banishment, or if any Person, other than such Clerk, Officer, or Deputy, shall sign any such Certificate as such Clerk, Officer or Deputy, or shall utter any such Certificate with a false or counterfeit Signature thereto, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male, to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XXII. And be it enacted, That all Offences perpetrated in the High Court of Admiralty of Ireland shall upon every first and subsequent Conviction be subject to the same Punishment, whether of Death or otherwise, as if such Offences had been committed upon the Land.

XXIII. And, for the more effectual Prosecution of Accessories before the Fact to Felony, be it enacted, That if any Person shall counsel, procure, or command any other Person to commit any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law, or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, the Person so counselling, procuring, or commanding, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and may be indicted and convicted as an Accessory before the Fact to the principal Felony, either together with the principal Felon, or after the Conviction of the principal Felon; or may be indicted for and convicted of a substantive Felony, whether the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice, and may be punished in the same Manner as an Accessory before the Fact to the same Felony, if convicted as an Accessory, may be punished; and the Offence of the Person without reference to Indictment.

Certificates of the Sentence or Transportation by the Clerk of the Court sufficient Evidence, &c.

The Court may award hard Labour or solitary Confinement as Part of the Sentence of Imprisonment.

On Conviction of Felony of a Person under Sentence for a former Crime, the Court may pass a second Sentence, to commence after the Expiration of the first Punishment for Felony (not expired) committed subsequent to a previous Conviction for Felony, Transportation, &c.

Proof of Indictment for the subsequent Felony.

Proof of the first Conviction by Certificate of Clerk of the Court.

Uttering a false Certificate of Conviction, Felony, punishable by Transportation.

so counselling, procuring, or commanding, however indicted, may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished by any Court which shall have Jurisdiction to try the principal Felony, in the same Manner as if such Offence had been committed at the same Place as the principal Felony, although such Offence may have been committed, either on the High Sea, or at any Place on Land, whether within His Majesty's Dominions or without; and in case the principal Felony shall have been committed within the Body of any County, and the Offence of counselling, procuring, or commanding shall have been committed within the Body of any other County, the last-mentioned Offence may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in either of such Counties: Provided always, that no Person who shall be Once daily tried for any such Offence, whether as an Accessory before the Fact, or as for a substantive Felony, shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same Offence.

XXIV. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Accessories after the Fact to Felony, be it enacted, That if any Person shall become an Accessory after the Fact to any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law, or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, the Offence of such Person may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished by any Court which shall have Jurisdiction to try the principal Felony, in the same Manner as if the Act by reason whereof such Person shall have become an Accessory had been committed at the same Place as the principal Felony, although such Act may have been committed, either on the High Sea, or at any Place on Land, whether within His Majesty's Dominions or without; and that in case the principal Felony shall have been committed within the Body of any County, and the Act by reason whereof any Person shall have become Accessory shall have been committed within the Body of any other County, the Offence of such Accessory may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in either of such Counties: Provided always, that no Person who shall be Once daily tried of any Offence of being an Accessory shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same Offence.

XXV. And in order that all Accessories may be convicted and punished in Cases where the principal Felony is not attained, be it enacted, That if any principal Offender shall be in anywise convicted of any Felony, it shall be lawful to proceed against any Accessory either before or after the Fact, in the same Manner as if such principal Felony had been attained thereof, notwithstanding such principal Felony shall die, or be pardoned, or otherwise delivered before Attainder; and every such Accessory shall suffer the same Punishment, if such Accessory be in anywise convicted, as such Accessory should have suffered if the Principal had been attained.

XXVI. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences committed near the Boundaries of Counties, or partly in one County and partly in another, be it enacted, That where any Felony or Misdemeanor shall be committed on the Boundary or Boundaries of Two or more Counties, or within the Distance of Five hundred Yards of any such Boundary or Boundaries, or shall be begun in one County and completed in another, every such Felony or Misdemeanor may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any of the said Counties, in the same Manner as if it had been actually and wholly committed therein.

XXVII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences committed during Journeys from Place to Place, be it enacted, That where any Felony or Misdemeanor shall be committed on any Person, or on or in respect of any Property, in or upon any Coach, Wagon, Cart, or other Carriage whatever, employed in any Journey, or shall be committed on any Person, or on or in respect of any Property, on board any Vessel whatever employed in any Voyage or Journey upon any navigable River, Canal, or inland Navigation, such Felony or Misdemeanor may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any County through any Part whereof such Coach, Wagon, Cart, Carriage, or Vessel shall have passed in the Course of the Journey or Voyage during which such Felony or Misdemeanor shall have been committed, in the same Manner as if it had been actually committed in such County; and in all Cases where the Side, Centre, or other Part of any Highway, or the Side Bank, Centre, or other Part of any such River, Canal, or Navigation, shall constitute the Boundary of any Two Counties, such Felony or Misdemeanor may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in either of such Counties through or adjoining to or by the Boundary of any Part whereof such Coach, Cart, Wagon, Carriage, or Vessel shall have passed in the Course of the Journey or Voyage during which such Felony or Misdemeanor shall have been committed, in the same Manner as if it had been actually committed in such County.

XXVIII. And in order to remove the Difficulty of stating the Names of all the Owners of Property, in the Case of Partners and other Joint Owners, be it enacted, That in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor wherein it shall be requisite to state the Ownership of any Property whatsoever, whether Real or Personal, which shall belong to or be in the Possession of more than One Person, whether such Persons be Partners in Trade, Joint Tenants, Partners or Tenants in Common, it shall be sufficient to name One of such Persons, and to state such Property to belong to the Person so named and another or others, as the Case may be; and whenever in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor it shall be necessary to mention, for any Purpose whatsoever, any Partners, Joint Tenants, Partners or Tenants in Common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the Manner aforesaid; and this Provision shall be construed to extend to all Joint Stock Companies and Trustees.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor committed in, upon, or with respect to any Church, Chapel, or Place of Religious Worship, or to any Bridge, Court, Court House, Sessions House, Gaol, House of Correction, Infirmary, Asylum, or other public Building, erected or maintained in whole or in part at the Expence of any County, County of a City,

City, or County of a Town, or on or with respect to any Goods or Chattels whatsoever, provided for or at the Expense of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, to be used for making, altering, or repairing any Bridge or Highway, or any Court or other such Building as aforesaid, or to be used in or with any such Court or other Building, it shall not be necessary to state such Church, Chapel, or Place of Religious Worship, or such Bridge, Court, Court House, Sessions House, Guild House of Corporation, Infirmary, Asylum, or other Building, or any such Goods or Chattels, to be the Property of any Person.

XXX. And for preventing Abuses from dilatory Pleas, be it enacted, That an Indictment shall be stayed by reason of any dilatory Plea of Misnomer, or of Want of Addition or of wrong Addition, of any Party offering such Plea, if the Court shall be satisfied, by Affidavit or otherwise, of the Truth of such Plea; but in such Case the Court shall forthwith cause the Indictment or Information to be amended according to the Truth, and shall call upon such Party to plead thereto, and shall proceed as if no such dilatory Plea had been pleaded.

XXXI. And in order that the Punishment of Offenders may be less frequently interrupted in consequence of technical Notices, be it enacted, That no Judgment upon any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor, whether after Verdict or Quodlibet, or by Confession, Default, or otherwise, shall be stayed or reversed for want of the Assent of any Matter unnecessary to be proved, nor for the Omission of the Words "as appears by the Record," or of the Words "with Force and Arms," or of the Words "against the Peace," nor for the Insertion of the Words "against the Form of the Statute," instead of the Words "against the Form of the Statutes," be it enacted, nor for that any Person or Persons mentioned in the Indictment or Information is or are designated by a Name of Office or other descriptive Appellation instead of his, her, or their proper Name or Names, nor for wanting to state the Time at which the Offence was committed, in any Case where Time is not of the Essence of the Offence, nor for stating the Time imperfectly, nor for stating the Offence to have been committed on a Day subsequent to the finding of the Indictment or exhibiting the Information, or on an impossible Day, or on a Day that never happened, nor for want of a proper or perfect Verdict where the Court shall appear by the Indictment or Information to have had Jurisdiction over the Offence.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Judgment after Verdict upon any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor shall be stayed or reversed for want of a Sufficer, nor by reason that the Jury Process has been awarded to a wrong Officer upon an insufficient Subpoena, nor for any Misnomer or Misdescription of the Officer returning such Process, or of any of the Jurors, nor because any Person has served upon the Jury who has not been returned as a Juror by the Sheriff or other Officer; and that where the Offence charged shall be an Offence theretofore created by any Statute, or subjected to a greater degree of Punishment, or excluded from the Benefit of Clergy, by any Statute, the Indictment or Information shall after Verdict be held sufficient, if it describe the Offence in the Words of the Statute creating the Offence or prescribing the Punishment or excluding the Offender from the Benefit of Clergy.

XXXIII. And be it declared and enacted, That where the Royal Mercy shall be extended to any Offender convicted of any Felony punishable with Death or otherwise, and either a free Pardon or a conditional Pardon shall by Warrant in due Form be granted to such Offender, the Discharge of such Offender out of Custody in the Case of a free Pardon, and the Performance of the Condition in the case of a conditional Pardon, shall have the Effect of a Pardon under the Great Seal for such Offender as to the Felony for which such Pardon shall be so granted: Provided always, that no free Pardon, nor any such Discharge in consequence thereof, nor any conditional Pardon, nor the Performance of the Condition thereof, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall prevent or mitigate the Punishment to which the Offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced on a subsequent Conviction for any Felony committed after the granting of any such Pardon.

XXXIV. And whereas the Practice of indiscriminately returning Recognizances for the Appearance of Persons to prosecute or give Evidence, or to answer for a common Assault, or in the other Cases of Larcinifer specified, has been found in many Instances productive of Hardship to Persons who have served such Recognizances: Be it therefore enacted, That in every Case where any Person bound by Recognizance for his or her Appearance (or for whose Appearance any other Person shall be so bound) to prosecute or give Evidence in any Case of Felony or Misdemeanor, or to answer for any common Assault, or to Articles of the Peace, shall therein make Default, the Officer of the Court by whom the Recognizance is made out shall, and such Officer is hereby required to prepare a List in Writing, specifying the Name of every Person so making Default, and the Nature of the Offence in respect of which every such Person, or his or her Surety, was so bound, together with the Residence, Trade, Profession, or Calling of every such Person and Surety, and shall to such List distinguish the Principals from the Sureties, and shall state the Cause, if known, why such such Person has not appeared, and whether, by reason of the Non-appearance of such Person, the Ends of Justice have been defeated or delayed; and every such Officer shall, and such Officer is hereby required, before any such Recognizances shall be returned, to lay such List, if at a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in any County, before One of the Justices of those Courts respectively, and if at a Court wherein a Recorder or other Corporate Officer is the Judge or One of the Judges, before such Recorder or other Corporate Officer, and if at a Session of the Peace, before the Assistant Barrister or Two other Justices of the Peace who shall have attended such Court, who are respectively authorized and required to examine such List, and to make such Order respecting the returning or putting in Process any such Recognizance as shall appear to them respectively

Public Buildings, Property need not be stated as being in any Person.

Indictments shall not be stayed by dilatory Plea of Misnomer, or of Want of Addition, &c.

When Defects shall not state an Indictment after Verdict, or otherwise.

C A P. LV.

An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny, and other Offences connected therewith. [15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS in the last Session of Parliament an Act was passed for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny, and other Offences connected therewith; and it is expedient that Provision should be made in Ireland for the like Purposes: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this present Act, and the several Matters herein contained, shall extend to Ireland, and not to England, Wales, or Scotland, except in the Two Cases hereinafter specially provided for; and that this Act shall commence and take effect in Ireland on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

II. And be it enacted, That the Distinction between Grand Larceny and Petty Larceny shall be abolished, and every Larceny (whatever be the Value of the Property stolen) shall be deemed to be of the same Nature, and shall be subject to the same Incidents in all respects, as Grand Larceny was before the Commencement of this Act: and every Court whose Power as to the Trial of Larceny was before the Commencement of this Act limited to Petty Larceny, shall have Power to try every Case of Larceny, the Punishment of which cannot exceed the Punishment hereinafter mentioned for Simple Larceny, and also to try all Accessories to such Larceny.

III. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Simple Larceny, or of any Felony hereby made punishable like Simple Larceny, shall (except in the Cases hereinafter otherwise provided for) be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

IV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases whenever any Person shall be convicted of any Felony, Crime, Misdemeanour, or indictable Offence punishable under this Act, for which Imprisonment may be awarded with or without any other Punishment, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction; and it shall also be lawful for such Court to direct that the Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the Whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, as to the Court in its Discretion shall seem meet.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Tally, Order, Exchange Receipt, or other Security whatsoever, evidencing the Title of any Person or Body Corporate to any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund, whether of the United Kingdom, or of Great Britain, or of England, or of Scotland, or of Ireland, or of any Foreign State, or in any Fund of any Body Corporate lawfully acting as a Company or Society, or to any Deposit in any Savings Bank, or shall steal any Debenture, Deed, Bond, Bill, Note, Warranty, Order, or other Security whatsoever, for Money or for Payment of Money, whether of the United Kingdom, or of Great Britain, or of England, or of Scotland, or of Ireland, or of any Foreign State, or shall steal any Warranty or Order for the Delivery or Transfer of any Goods or valuable Thing, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Felony of the same Nature, and in the same Degree, and punishable in the same Manner, as if he had stolen any Chattel of like Value with the Share, Interest, or Deposit to which the Security so stolen may relate, or of like Value with the Money due on the Security so stolen, or secured thereby and remaining unsatisfied, or with the Value of the Goods or other valuable Thing mentioned in the Warranty or Order; and each of the several Documents herebefore enumerated shall throughout this Act be deemed for every Purpose to be included under and denoted by the Words "valuable Security."

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall rob any other Person of any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, against which any such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felony; and if any Person shall steal any such Property from the Person of another, or shall assault any other Person with with Intent to rob him, or shall with Menaces or by Force demand any such Property of any other Person, with Intent to steal the same, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall accuse or threaten to accuse any other Person of any infamous Crime, as hereinafter defined, with a View or Intent to extort or gain from him, and shall by intimidating him by such Accusation or Threat extort or gain from him, any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Robbery, and shall be indicted and punished accordingly.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly send or deliver any Letter or Writing demanding of any Person, with Menaces, and without any reasonable or probable Cause, any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, or if any Person, with a View or Intent to extort or unlawfully gain any Money or Chattel or valuable Security, shall accuse or threaten to accuse, or shall knowingly send or deliver, or directly or indirectly cause to be received, any Letter or Writing accusing or threatening to accuse any Person of any Crime punishable by Law with Death, Transportation, or Pillory, or of any Assault with Intent to commit any Rape, or of any Attempt or Endeavour to commit any Rape, or of any infamous Crime, as hereinafter defined, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

IX. And for defining what shall be an infamous Crime within the Meaning of this Act, be it enacted, That the abominable Crime of Ruggery, committed either with Manhood or with Beast, and every Assault with Intent to commit the said abominable Crime, and every Attempt or Endeavour to commit the said abominable Crime, and every Solicitation, Persuasion, Promise, or Threat offered or made to any Person, whereby to move or induce such Person to commit or permit the said abominable Crime, shall be deemed to be an infamous Crime within the Meaning of this Act.

X. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Church, Meeting House, Chapel, or other Place of Divine Worship, and shall steal therein any Chattel, or having stolen any Chattel in or from any Church, Meeting House, Chapel, or other Place of Divine Worship, shall break out of the same, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

XI. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Burglary shall suffer Death as a Felon: and it is hereby declared, that if any Person shall enter the Dwelling House of another with Intent to commit Felony, or being in such Dwelling House, shall commit any Felony, and shall in either Case break out of the said Dwelling House in the Night-time, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Burglary.

XII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Dwelling House, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security to any Value whatever, or shall steal any such Property to any Value whatever in any Dwelling House, any Person therein being put in Fear, or shall steal in any Dwelling House any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security to the Value in the whole of Five Pounds or more, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall in any of such Cases suffer Death as a Felon.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Building, although within the same Curtilage with the Dwelling House, and occupied therewith, shall be deemed to be Part of such Dwelling House for the Purpose of Burglary, or for any of the Purposes aforesaid, unless there shall be a Communication between such Building and Dwelling House, either immediate or by means of a covered and enclosed Passage leading from the one to the other.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Building, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, such Building being within the Curtilage of a Dwelling House, and occupied therewith, but not being Part thereof, according to the Provisions hereinbefore mentioned, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that a Conviction for such Offence as herein last mentioned may be had either upon an Indictment for such Offence, or upon an Indictment for Burglary, Housebreaking, or stealing to the Value of Five Pounds in a Dwelling House, containing a Count or Counts for such Offence; and that in case of such latter Indictment the Prosecutor shall be permitted to proceed upon the Whole or any Part of such Indictment, without being put to any Election, before the Trial of such Offender, to proceed upon any one or more of the Counts in such Indictment.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Shop, Warehouse, or Counting House, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal the Value of Five Shillings any Linn, Muslin, or Cotton Yarn, or any Goods or Article of Silk, Woolens, Linen, or Cotton, or of any one or more of those Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, whole and, placed, or exposed, during any Stage, Process, or Progress of Manufacture, in any Building, Field, or other Place, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

Stealing Goods from a Vessel in a Port, River, or Canal, &c. or from Wharfs, Warehouses, &c.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Goods or Merchandise in any Vessel, Barge, or Boat of any Description whatsoever, in any Port of Entry or Discharge, or upon any navigable River or Canal, or in any Creek or Basin belonging to or communicating with any such Port, River, or Canal, or shall steal any Goods or Merchandise from any Dock, Wharf, or Quay adjacent to any such Port, River, Canal, Creek, or Basin, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

Pinching any Part of the Tackle or Cargo of a shipwrecked Vessel, Felony, with Death.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall plunder or steal any Part of any Ship or Vessel which shall be in Distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore, or any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles of any kind belonging to such Ship or Vessel, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: Provided always, that when Articles of small Value shall be removed or cast on Shore, and shall be stolen without Circumstances of Cruelty, Outrage, or Violence, it shall be lawful to prosecute and punish such Offender as for Simple Larceny, and in either Case the Offender may be indicted and tried either in the County in which, or in any County next adjoining the Place in which the Offence shall have been committed.

Persons in possession of shipwrecked Goods, not giving a satisfactory Account, shall pay a Penalty not exceeding £20.

XIX. And be it enacted, That if any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles of any kind, belonging to any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore as aforesaid, shall, by virtue of a Search Warrant, be granted as hereinafter mentioned, be found in the Possession of any Person, or on the Premises of any Person with his Knowledge, and such Person, being carried before a Justice of the Peace, shall not satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by the same, then the same shall by Order of the Justice be forthwith delivered over to or for the Use of the rightful Owner thereof, and the Offender, on Conviction of such Offence before any Two Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding Fifty Pounds, as to such Justice shall seem meet.

Shipwrecked Goods offered for Sale may be seized, and ordered by a Justice to be removed to the Owner, paying Satisfy.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall offer or expose for Sale any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles whatsoever, which shall have been unlawfully taken, or reasonably suspected to have been taken from any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or a wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore as aforesaid, in every such Case any Person to whom the same shall be offered for Sale, or any Officer of the Customs or Excise, or Peace Officer, may lawfully seize the same, and shall with all convenient Speed carry the same, or give Notice at such Seizure, to some Justice of the Peace; and if the Person who shall have offered or exposed the same for Sale, being duly summoned by such Justice, shall not appear and satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by such Goods, Merchandise, or Articles, then the same shall by Order of the Justice be forthwith delivered over to or for the Use of the rightful Owner thereof, upon Payment of a reasonable Reward (as be ascertained by the Justice) to the Person who seized the same; and the Person having offered such Goods, Merchandise, or Articles for Sale, shall, on Conviction of such Offence before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay the Amount of such Reward so ordered, and also such Sum of Money, not exceeding Thirty Pounds, as to such Two Justices shall seem meet.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall for any fraudulent Purpose take from his Place of Deposit for the Time being, or from any Person having the lawful Custody thereof, or shall unlawfully and maliciously obliterate, injure, or destroy any Record, Writ, Return, Panel, Process, Interrogatory, Deposition, Affidavit, Rule, Order, or Warrant of Attorney, or any original Document whatsoever, or any Part of any such Document, or of belonging to any Court of Record, or relating to any Matter, Civil or Criminal, begun, depending, or terminated in any such Court, or any Bill, Answer, Interrogatory, Deposition, Affidavit, Order, or Decree, or any original Document whatsoever, or of belonging to any Court of Equity, or relating to any Cause or Matter begun, depending, or terminated in any such Court, or any Part thereof respectively, or any original Document, or Part of any original Document, in anywise relating to or concerning the Business of any Person or Persons holding any Office or Employment under His Majesty, and removing or deposited for safe Custody in any Office appertaining to any Court of Justice, or in His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, or in any of His Majesty's Custom Houses, Post Offices, or other Public Offices in Ireland, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; and it shall not be necessary to allege in any Indictment, or to prove on any Trial for such Offence, that the Article in respect of which the Offence is charged is here been committed is the Property of any Person, or that the same is of any Value, nor shall it be the Subject of Enquiry at the Trial of any such Offence, whether the Thing charged to have been stolen is or is not of any intrinsic Value.

Stealing, &c. of Records and other Proceedings of Courts of Justice, Misdemeanor, punishable by Transportation, &c.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, either during the Life or after the Death of any Testator or Testatrix, steal, or shall for any fraudulent Purpose destroy or conceal, any Will or Codicil, or other Testamentary Instrument, whether the same shall relate to Real or Personal Estate, or to both, Stealing of Wills, a Misdemeanor.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, either during the Life or after the Death of any Testator or Testatrix, steal, or shall for any fraudulent Purpose destroy or conceal, any Will or Codicil, or other Testamentary Instrument, whether the same shall relate to Real or Personal Estate, or to both, both, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court shall award; and it shall not be necessary to allege in any Indictment, or to prove on any Trial for such Offence, that such Will or Coercion, or other Innuement is the Property of any Person, or that the same is of any Value, nor shall it be a Subject of Enquiry at such Trial whether the same is or is not of any intrinsic Value.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Paper or Parchment, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, bearing or containing Evidence of the Title, or of any Part of the Title to any Real Estate, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court shall award; and in any Indictment for such Offence, it shall be sufficient to allege the Thing charged to have been stolen to be or to contain Evidence of the Title or of Part of the Title of the Person, or of some One of the Persons, having an Interest, whether vested, contingent, legal, or equitable, in the Real Estate to which the same relates, and to mention such Real Estate or some Part thereof; and it shall not be necessary to allege or prove the Thing charged to have been stolen to be of any Value, nor shall it be required on a Trial what the Value thereof is, or whether the same is or is not of any intrinsic Value.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, relating to either of the Misdemeanors last aforesaid, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, shall prevent, lessen, or impeach any Remedy, at Law or in Equity, which any Party aggrieved by any such Offence might or would have had if this Act had not been passed, but nevertheless the Conviction of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against such Offender: Provided also, that no Person shall be liable to be convicted of either of the Misdemeanors last aforesaid, in respect of any Act done by him, by any Evidence disclosed by him in consequence of any compulsory Process of any Court of Law or Equity, in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding which shall have been lawfully initiated by any Party aggrieved, or by any Evidence disclosed by such Person in any Examination or Deposition before any Commissioners of Bankrupts.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Horse, Mare, Gelding, Colt, or Filly, or any Bull, Cow, Ox, Steer, Ballock, Heifer, or Calf, or any Ram, Ewe, Sheep, or Lamb, or shall wilfully kill any of such Cattle, with Intent to steal the Carcass or Skin or any Part of the Cattle so killed, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: Provided always, that where any Person shall be convicted of stealing any One Cow, Bull, Ox, Steer, Ballock, or Heifer, or any Number of Cows, Bulls, Oxen, Steers, Ballocks, or Heifers, not exceeding Two, or of stealing any One Calf, Sheep, or Lamb, or any Number of Calves, Sheep, or Lambs, not exceeding Ten, on all the Indictments which shall be preferred against such Person at one and the same Assizes, or Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or in the same Term, in the Court of King's Bench, or in case the Court shall, upon the Application of the Grand Jury at the said Assizes, or Sessions, or Term, by Proclamation in Writing for that Purpose, think any such convicted Person a fit Object of Mercy, then such convicted Person, instead of the Punishment aforesaid, shall and may be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for such Term of Years as the Court shall think proper: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Power of the Court (in any Case where a Grand Jury shall not make such Application) to order Sentence of Death to be recorded, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for enabling Courts to adjourn from prosecuting Sentence of Death on certain Capital Offences.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and wilfully commit, hurt, maim, or carry away, or kill or wound, or attempt to kill or wound, any Deer kept or being in any Park, Paddock, or enclosed Land wherein Deer shall be usually kept, every such Offender shall for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Deer, or the Head, Skin, or other Part thereof, or any Stags or Engines for the taking of Deer, shall, by virtue of a Search Warrant, be granted as hereafter mentioned, be found in the Possession of any Person, or on the Premises of any Person, with his Knowledge, and such Person being examined before a Justice of the Peace shall not satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by such Deer, or the Head, Skin, or other Part thereof, or that he had a lawful Occasion for such Stags or Engines, and did not keep the same for any unlawful Purpose, he shall, on Conviction by the Justice, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds: and if any such Person shall not, under the Provisions aforesaid, be liable to Conviction, then, for the Discovery of the Party who actually killed or stole such Deer, it shall be lawful for the Justice, at his Discretion, or the Evidence given and the Circumstances of the Case shall require, to examine before him any and every Person through whose Hands such Deer, or the Head, Skin, or other Part thereof, shall appear to have passed, and if the Person from whom the same shall have been first received, or any Person who shall have had Possession thereof, shall not satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by the same, he shall, on Conviction by the Justice, be liable to the Payment of such Sum of Money as is hereinafter last mentioned.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Dog, or shall steal any Beast or Bird ordinarily kept in a State of Confinement, not being the Subject of Larceny at Common Law, every such XXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall cut, break, root up, or otherwise destroy or damage, with Intent to steal, the Whole or any Part of any Tree, Sapling, or Shrub, or any Underwood, whereover the same may be respectively growing, the stealing of such Article or Articles, or the Injury done, being to the Amount of One Shilling at the least, every such Offender, being convicted before Two Justices of the Peace, shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay the Value of the Article or Articles stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and also such Sum of Money, not exceeding Five Pounds, as to the Justices shall seem meet; and if any Person so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any of the said Offences, and shall be convicted thereof in like Manner, every such Offender shall for such Second Offence be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such Term, not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months, as the convicting Justices shall think fit; and if any Person so twice convicted shall afterwards commit any of the said Offences, such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall cut, break, or throw down, with Intent to steal, any Part of any live or dead Fence, or any wooden Post, Pale, or Rail set up or used as a Fence, or any Mile or Gate, or any Part thereof respectively, every such Offender, being convicted before Two Justices of the Peace, shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay the Value of the Article or Articles so stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and also such Sum of Money, not exceeding Two Pounds, as to the Justices shall seem meet; and if any Person so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any of the said Offences, and shall be convicted thereof in like Manner, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such Term, not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months, as the convicting Justices shall think fit.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That if the Whole or any Part of any Tree, Sapling, or Shrub, or any Underwood, or any Part of any live or dead Fence, or any Post, Pale, Rail, Stile, or Gate, or any Part thereof, being of the Value of Two Shillings at the least, shall by virtue of a Search Warrant, to be granted as hereinafter mentioned, be found in the Possession of any Person, or in the Premises of any Person with his Knowledge, and such Person, being carried before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall not satisfy the Justice or Justices that he came lawfully by the same, he shall, on Conviction by the Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay the Value of the Article or Articles so found, and also any Sum not exceeding Two Pounds.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall destroy or damage, with Intent to steal, any Plant, Root, Fruit, or vegetable Production growing in any Garden, Orchard, Nursery Ground, Hot-house, Green-house, or Conservatory, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall, at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices, either be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, Labour, for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, or else shall forfeit and pay the Value of the Article or Articles stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and also such Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, as to the Justice or Justices shall seem meet: and if any Person so convicted shall afterwards commit any of the said Offences, such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall destroy or damage with intent to steal, any cultivated Root or Plant used for the Food of Man or Beast, or for Medicine, or for distilling, or for dyeing, or for or in the Course of any Manufacture, and growing in any Land, open or inclosed, and being a Garden, Orchard, or Nursery Ground, every such Offender, being convicted before Two Justices of the Peace, shall, at the Discretion of the Justices, either be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding One Calendar Month, or else shall forfeit and pay the Value of the Article or Articles so stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done, and also such Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Shillings, as to the Justices shall seem meet, and in Default of Payment thereof, together with the Costs (if ordered), shall be committed as aforesaid, for any Term not exceeding One Calendar Month, unless Payment be sooner made: and if any Person so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any of the said Offences, and shall be convicted thereof in like Manner, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such Term, not exceeding Six Calendar Months, as the convicting Justices shall think fit.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or rip, cut, or break, with intent to steal, any Glass or Wood Work belonging to any Building whatsoever, or any Lead, Iron, Copper, Brass, or other Metal, or any Utensil or Fixture, whether made of Metal or other Material, respectively then in or to any Building whatsoever, or any Thing made of Metal fixed in any Land, being private Property, or for a Fence to any Dwelling House, Garden, or Area, or in any Square, Street, or other Place dedicated to Public Use or Ornament, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny: and in case of any such Thing fixed in any Square, Street, or other like Place, it shall not be necessary to allege the same to be the Property of any Person: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any Enactment or Law for the Punishment of Persons guilty of stealing any such Property belonging to or vested in any Commissioners, or other Persons, under any Act for paving, cleansing, lighting, or improving any City, Town, or Place in England.

XXXVIII. And for the Punishment of Depredations committed by Tenants and Lodgers, be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Chattel or Fixture let to be used by him or her in or with any House or Lodging, whether the Contract shall have been entered into by him or her, or by her Husband, or by any Person on behalf of him or her, or her Husband, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny: and it shall be lawful in every such Case of stealing any Chattel, to prefer an Indictment in the common Form, as for Larceny, and in every such Case of stealing any Fixture, to prefer an Indictment in the same Form as if the Offender were not a Tenant or Lodger, and in either Case to lay the Property in the Owner, or the Person letting to him.

XXXIX. And for the Punishment of Depredations not punishable capitally, committed by Clerks and Servants, and such other Persons as hereinafter mentioned, be it enacted, That if any Clerk or Servant shall steal any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, belonging to or in the Possession or Power of his Master or Employer, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Three publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XI. And for the Punishment of Embezzlement committed by Clerks and Servants, be it enacted, That if any Clerk or Servant, or any Person employed for the Purpose or in the Capacity of a Clerk or Servant, shall, by virtue of such Employment, receive or take into his Possession any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, for or in the Name or on the Account of his Master or Employer, and shall fraudulently embezzle the same or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same from his Master or Employer, although such Chattel, Money, or Security was not received into the Possession of such Master or Employer, otherwise than by the actual Possession of his Clerk, Servant, or other Person so employed, and every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Three publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XII. And for preventing the Difficulties which have been experienced in the Prosecution of such Offenders, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to charge in the Indictment and to proceed against the Offender for any Number of distinct Acts of Embezzlement, not exceeding Three, which may have been committed by him against the same Master or Employer, within the Space of Six Calendar Months from the first to the last of such Acts: and in every such Indictment, where the Offence shall relate to any Money, or any valuable Security, it shall be sufficient to allege the Embezzlement to be of Money, without specifying any particular Coin or valuable Security, and such Allegation, so far as regards the Description of the Property, shall be sustained, if the Offender shall be proved to have embezzled to Corruption; for First Offence, by Imprisonment or Fine of 50*l*.; Second Offence, Felony, punishable as Larceny. Stealing, &c. Vegetables, or growing in Gardens, &c. First Offence, Imprisonment or Fine of 20*l*.; Second Offence, &c. Imprisonment, &c. Stealing Glass or Wood Work, or Pieces of any Metal, from Buildings, and Metal Furniture from Grounds, Felony, punishable as Larceny.

Tenants and Lodgers stealing any Property then in House or Apartment let to them, Felony, punishable as Larceny. Form of Indictment. Clerks and Servants (not punishable capitally) stealing Property of their Masters, Transportation or Imprisonment. Clerks or Servants receiving any Money, &c. on their Master's Account, and embezzling it, shall be deemed to have stolen it feloniously, although never in the Master's Possession. Indictment of Embezzlement may be charged in the same Indictment. Allegation and Proof of the Property embezzled.

Any Amount, although the particular Species of Coin or valuable Security of which such Amount was composed shall not be proved, or if he shall be proved to have substituted any Piece of Coin or any valuable Security, or any Portion of the Value thereof, although such Piece of Coin or valuable Security may have been delivered to him in order that some Part of the Value thereof shall be returned to the Regent within the same, and although such Part shall have been returned accordingly.

YLLI. And for the Punishment of Embezzlement committed by Agents intrusted with Property, be it enacted, That if any Money, or Security for the Payment of Money, shall be intrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, with any Direction in Writing to apply such Money, or any Part thereof, or the Proceeds or any Part of the Proceeds of such Security, for any Purpose specified in such Direction, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Purpose so specified, in anywise convert to his own Use or Benefit such Money, Security, or Proceeds, or any Part thereof respectively, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fifteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; and if any Chattel or valuable Security, or any Power of Attorney for the Sale or Transfer of any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund, whether of the United Kingdom, or of any Part thereof, or of any Foreign State, or in any Fund of any Body Corporate, Company, or Society, shall be intrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, for safe Custody, or for any special Purpose, without any Authority to sell, negotiate, transfer, or pledge, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Object or Purpose for which such Chattel, Security, or Power of Attorney shall have been intrusted to him, sell, negotiate, transfer, pledge, or in any Manner convert to his own Use or Benefit such Chattel or Security, or the Proceeds of the same, or any Part thereof, or the Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund to which such Power of Attorney shall relate, or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to any of the Punishments which the Court may award, as hereinafter last expressed.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing hereinbefore contained relating to Agents shall affect any Trustee in or under any Instrument whatsoever, or any Mortgagee of any Property, Real or Personal, in respect of any Act done by such Trustee or Mortgagee in relation to the Property comprised in or affected by any such Trust or Mortgage; nor shall it restrict any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, from receiving any Money which shall be or become actually due and payable upon or by virtue of any valuable Security, according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, in such Manner as he might lawfully do if this Act had not been passed; nor from selling, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any Securities or Effects in his Possession, upon which he shall have any Lien, Claim, or Demand, settling, in any Law, to be do, unless such Sale, Transfer, or other Disposal shall be lawfully and fraudulently extorted to a greater Number or Part of such Securities or Effects than shall be requisite for satisfying such Lien, Claim, or Demand.

XLIV. And be it covenanted, That if any Factor or Agent intrusted for the Purpose of Sale with any Goods or Merchandise, or intrusted with any Bill of Lading, Warehouse Keeper's or Wharfinger's Certificate, or any Receipt and Sold Note, or any Warrant or Order for the Delivery of Goods or Merchandise, shall for his own Deceit, and in violation of good Faith, deposit or pledge any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, as a Security for any Money, or negotiable Instrument borrowed or received by such Factor or Agent or at before the Time of making such Deposit or Pledge, or intended to be thereafter borrowed or received, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, as by both, as the Court shall award; but as each Factor or Agent shall be liable to any Prosecution for depositing or pledging any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, in case the same shall not be made a Security for or subject to the Payment of any greater Sum of Money than the Amount which at the Time of such Deposit or Pledge was justly due and owing, or lawfully supposed by such Factor or Agent to be due and owing, to such Factor or Agent from his Principal, together with the Amount of any Bill or Bills of Exchange drawn by or on account of such Principal, and accepted by such Factor or Agent, and of any other Engagement made by such Factor or Agent, or account of this Breach, and to the Payment of all such Fines or Amounts lawfully due;

MLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Proceedings, Correction, or Judgment, to be had or taken thereupon against any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent, or any such Clerk or Servant, or Person employed in the Capacity of Clerk or Servant, as aforesaid, shall prevent, lessen, or impeach any Remedy at Law or in Equity which any Party aggrieved by any such Offence might or would have had if this Act had not been made; but nevertheless the Collection of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against him; and no Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, or Clerk or Servant, or Person employed in the Capacity of Clerk or Servant, shall be liable to be convicted of any Offence of Embezzlement against this Act, in respect of any Act done by him, by any Evidence disclosed by him as consequence of any compulsory Process of any Court of Law or Equity, in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding which shall have been lawfully instituted by any Party aggrieved, or by any Evidence disclosed by such Person in any Examination or Deposition before any Commissioners of Bankruptcy.

XLVI. And Whereas a Failure of Justice frequently arises from the subtle Distinction between Larceny and Fraud; forasmuch thereof, be it enacted, That if any Person shall by any false Pretence obtain from any other Person any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, with Intent to cheat or defraud any Person of the same, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award: Provided always, that if upon the Trial of any Person indicted for such Misdemeanor it shall be proved that he obtained the Property in question in any such Manner as to amount in Law to Larceny, he shall by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted of such Misdemeanor; and as such Indictment shall be reasonable by Certiorari; and as Person tried for such Misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for Larceny upon the same Facts.

XLVII. And with regard to Receivers of Stolen Property, be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing or taking whereof shall amount to a Felony, either at Common Law or by virtue of this Act, such Person knowing the same to have been feloniously stolen or taken, every such Receiver shall be guilty of a Felony, and may be indicted and convicted, either as an Accessory after the Fact, or for a substantive Felony, and in the latter Case, whether the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice; and every such Receiver, however convicted, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person, however tried for receiving an abscond, shall be liable to be prosecuted a Second Time for the same Offence.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing, taking, obtaining, or converting whereof is made an indictable Misdemeanor by this Act, such Person knowing the same to have been unlawfully stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, every such Receiver shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be indicted and convicted thereof, whether the Person guilty of the principal Misdemeanor shall or shall not have been previously convicted thereof, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice; and every such Receiver shall on Conviction be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, knowing the same to have been feloniously or unlawfully stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, every such Person, whether charged as an Accessory after the Fact to the Felony, or with a substantive Felony, or with a Misdemeanor only, may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished in any County or Place in which he shall have or shall have had any such Property in his Possession, or in any County or Place in which the Party guilty of the principal Felony or Misdemeanor may by Law be tried, in the same Manner as such Receiver may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished in the County or Place where he actually received such Property.

L. And to encourage the Prosecution of Offenders, be it enacted, That if any Person guilty of any such Felony or Misdemeanor as aforesaid, in stealing, taking, obtaining, or converting, or in knowingly receiving, any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, shall be indicted for any Offence by or on the Behalf of the Owner of the Property, or his Executor or Administrator, and convicted thereof, at such Case the Property shall be restored to the Owner or his Representative; and the Court before whom any such Person shall be so convicted shall have Power to award from time to time Writs of Restitution for the same Property, or to order the Restitution thereof in a summary Manner: Provided always, that if it shall appear, before any Award or Order made, that any valuable Security shall have been lost, file paid or discharged by some Person or Body Corporate liable to the Payment thereof, or being a negotiable Instrument, shall have been lost, file taken or received by Transfer or Delivery, by some Person or Body Corporate, for a just and valuable Consideration, without any Notice or without any reasonable Cause to suspect that the same had by any Felony or Misdemeanor been stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, as aforesaid, in such Case the Court shall not award or order the Restitution of such Security.

LI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall corruptly take any Money or Reward, directly or indirectly, under pretence or upon account of helping any Person to any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, which shall by any Felony or Misdemeanor have been stolen, taken, obtained, or converted as aforesaid, shall (unless he can prove the Offender to be apprehended and brought to Trial for the same) be guilty of a Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Once, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

LII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall publicly advertise a Reward for the Return of any Property whatsoever which shall have been stolen or lost, and shall in such Advertisement use any Words purporting that no Questions will be asked, or shall make use of any Words in any public Advertisement purporting Obtaining Money, or by false Pretences, a Misdemeanor.

Where the principal Offender is a Felony, the Receiver of stolen Property may be tried either as an Accessory after the Fact, or for a substantive Felony, and punished by Transportation, &c.

Where the principal Offender is a Misdemeanor, the Receiver may be prosecuted for a Misdemeanor, whether the principal be convicted or not.

Receiver may be tried where the Principal is indicted, or where the Property is found in his Possession, or where the receiving takes place.

The Owner of stolen Property, procuring Theft or Receiver in Conspiracy, shall have Restitution of his Property.

Exception as to bond, file Payments or Transfer of valuable Securities.

purporting that a Reward will be given or paid for any Property which shall have been stolen or lost, without selling or making any Enquiry after the Person producing such Property, or shall promise or offer in any such public Advertisement to reward to any Person or other Person who may have brought or advanced Money by way of Loan upon any Property stolen or lost, the Money so paid or advanced, or any other sum of Money or Reward for the Return of such Property, or if any Person shall print or publish any such Advertisement, in any of the above Cases every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every such Offence, to any Person who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit.

LIII. And be it enacted, That where the stealing or taking of any Property whatsoever is by this Act punishable on summary Conviction, either for every Offence, or for the First and second Offences only, or for the First Offence only, any Person who shall receive any such Property, knowing the same to be unlawfully come by, shall, on Conviction thereof, before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, be liable, for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of receiving, to the same Forfeiture and Punishment to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence of stealing or taking such Property is by this Act made liable.

LIV. And be it enacted, That in the Case of every Felony punishable under this Act, every Principal in the Second Degree, and every Accessory before the Fact, shall be punishable with Death, or otherwise, in the same Manner as the Principal in the First Degree is by this Act punishable; and every Accessory after the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act (except only a Receiver of stolen Property), shall, on Conviction, be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and every Person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act, shall be liable to be indicted and punished as a principal Offender.

LV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Offence which is by this Act punishable on summary Conviction, either for every Time of its Commission, or for the First and Second Time only, or for the First Time only, every such Person shall, on Conviction before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, be liable, for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring, to the same Forfeiture and Punishment to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence as a principal Offender is by this Act made liable.

LVI. And for the more effectual Apprehension and Discovery of all Offenders punishable under this Act, be it enacted, That any Person found committing any Offence punishable, either upon Indictment or upon summary Conviction, by virtue of this Act, may be immediately apprehended without a Warrant, by any Peace Officer, or by the Owner of the Property on or with respect to which the Offence shall be committed, or by the Servant of or any Person authorized by such Owner, and such Offender shall and may be forthwith taken before some neighbouring Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law; and if any credible Witness shall prove upon Oath before a Justice of the Peace that there is reasonable Cause to suspect that any Property whatsoever, or on or with respect to which any such Offence shall have been committed, is in any Dwelling House, Outhouse, Garden, Yard, Crock, or other Place or Places, the Justice may grant a Warrant to search such Dwelling House, Outhouse, Garden, Yard, Crock, or other Place or Places for such Property, as in the Case of stolen Goods; and any Person to whom any Property shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, if he shall have reasonable Cause to suspect that any such Offence has been committed as or with respect to such Property, is hereby authorized, and, if in his Power, is required to apprehend, and forthwith to carry before a Justice of the Peace, the Party offering the same, together with such Property, to be dealt with according to Law.

LVII. And be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction under this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise, and the Evidence of the Party aggrieved shall be admissible in Proof of the Offence.

LVIII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of all Offences punishable on summary Conviction under this Act, be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged, on the Oath of a credible Witness, before any Justice of the Peace, with any such Offence, the Justice may, upon the Person charged to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, then, upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his usual Place of Abode, the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the Case ex parte, or may issue his Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing such Person before such Justice, or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace; or it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made of he shall so think fit, without any previous Summons (unless where otherwise specially directed), to issue such Warrant; and the Justice or Justices before whom the Person charged shall appear or be brought shall proceed to hear and determine the Case.

LIX. And with regard to the Application of all Forfeitures and Penalties upon summary Convictions under this Act, be it enacted, That every Sum of Money which shall be forfeited for or as the Value of any Property stolen or taken, or for or as the Amount of any Injury done, such Value or Amount is to be assessed in such Case by the committing Justice or Justices; and shall be paid to the Party aggrieved, if known, except where such Party shall have been examined in Proof of the Offence, and in that Case, or where the Party aggrieved is unknown, such Sum shall be applied in the same Manner as a Penalty; and every Sum which shall be imposed as a Penalty by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, whether in addition to such Value or Amount as aforesaid, or otherwise, shall be paid, under the Order of such Justice Justice or Justices, to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place wherein such Commission shall take place, for the Use of such Infirmary, in case there shall be any such Infirmary established within or for such County, City, Town, or Place, and in case there shall not be any such Infirmary, then to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of such other Public Charity within such County, City, Town, or Place, as such Justice or Justices shall by his or their Order for that Purpose direct: Provided always, that where several Persons shall join in the Commission of the same Offence, and shall upon Conviction thereof each be adjudged to forfeit a Sum equivalent to the Value of the Property, or to the Amount of the Injury done, in every such Case no further Sum shall be paid to the Party aggrieved than that which shall be forfeited by One of such Offenders only, and the corresponding Sum or Sums forfeited by the other Offender or Offenders shall be applied in the same Manner as any Penalty imposed by a Justice of the Peace is heretofore directed to be applied.

LX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace by or before whom any Conviction shall be made under this Act, to receive any Forfeiture or Penalty, or any Sum of Money payable as a Penalty, under this Act, to the Treasurer or Officer of any Infirmary or Public Charity, and to give a Receipt for the same, for the Use of such Infirmary or Charity, specifying the Name or Description of such Infirmary or Charity in such Receipt; and such Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Party by whom such Forfeiture or Penalty, or Sum of Money, shall be incurred and paid; and every such Justice shall, within Fourteen Days next after the Receipt thereof, pay the Amount of every such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary or Public Charity entitled to the same, and shall take Receipts for the same respectively from such Treasurer or Officer, specifying the Time when and the Person by whom such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money was paid to such Justice, for the Use of such Infirmary or Charity; and every such Justice shall, by himself or Clerk, keep an Account, in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, of the Amount of every such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money as received by him, specifying the Place and Time and Manner of the Adjudication or Order whereby such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money shall have been adjudged or imposed, and the Nature of the Offence under the Act for which the same was adjudged or imposed, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons on whom such Forfeiture or Penalty or Sum of Money was set or imposed, and the Name and Description of the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary, or the Name and Description of the Public Charity, and the Officer thereof, to whom such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money was paid, according to the Direction of this Act, and the Time when such Payment was made; and every such Justice shall, Fourteen Days previous to the Commission Day of the Spring and Summer Assizes in every Year, transmit to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town within which such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money shall have been imposed and made payable, an Account in Writing, stating all the several Penalties, Forfeitures, or Sums of Money which shall have been imposed and made payable by or before such Justice under this Act, at any Time between Fourteen Days before the Commencement of the then last preceding Assizes, and the Day of transmitting such Account, and showing which of such Forfeitures, Penalties, or Sums of Money have been received by such Justice, and from whom and for what Offences, and to whom the same have been respectively paid by such Justice, with the Dates of the several Receipts for the same respectively.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That every Account as kept by any Justice of the Peace in pursuance of this Act, and every Account transmitted by such Justice to the Clerk of the Peace, shall be produced to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place, or to the Treasurer or other Officer of any Public Charity within such County, City, Town, or Place where there shall not be such Infirmary, at all reasonable Times when such Treasurer or Officer may desire and require to inspect the same, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any and what Sums of Money may be due and payable to such Treasurer or Officer under this Act.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace to whom any such Account or Accounts shall be transmitted by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, of the Forfeitures, Penalties, or Sums of Money received under this Act, shall make or cause to be made an Abstract of all such Accounts in such Form as to show in the most distinct Manner the Name of every Justice of the Peace by whom, and the several Parties from whom all such Penalties, Forfeitures, or Sums of Money were respectively received, and for what Offences the same were payable respectively, and whether such Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures were received respectively for the Use of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place, or for the Use of any other and when Public Charity; and such Clerk of the Peace shall sign such Abstract with his Name as Clerk of the Peace, and shall post and affix such Abstract, or shall cause the same to be posted and affixed, on the Door of the Court House or Place in which the Assizes shall be holden, to be there and there kept posted and affixed during the whole of such Assizes; and within Fourteen Days next after the Conclusion of such Assizes such Clerk of the Peace shall cause a true Copy of such Abstract, signed with his Name as Clerk of the Peace, to be inserted in some one public Newspaper published or circulated within such County, County of a City, or County of a Town.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace who shall receive any such Forfeiture or Penalty, or Sum of Money, applicable as aforesaid, shall omit or neglect or refuse to give a Receipt for the same, or shall omit or neglect or refuse to pay the same to the Treasurer or proper Officer of any Infirmary or Public Charity entitled to the same as aforesaid, or shall omit or neglect to keep such Account as aforesaid, or shall omit or neglect or refuse to transmit any Account as aforesaid to the Clerk of the Peace, or if any Clerk of the Peace shall omit or neglect to make or sign, or post or publish an Abstract of all such Accounts as shall be transmitted to him, or to cause the same to be done, in

LXVIII. And he is enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; whilst,

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the County of _____ [or City, Town, or Place, as the Case may be], A. D. _____ convicted before me J. P., One of His Majesty's Justices [or before me J. P. and S. L., Justices] of the Peace for the said County [or City, &c.], for that he the said A. D. did [specify the Offence, and the Time and Place where and where the same was committed, as the Case may be], and, on a Second Conviction, state the First Conviction; and I the said J. P. [or we the said J. P. and S. L.] do adjudge the said A. D. for his said Offence to be imprisoned in the _____ [or to be imprisoned in the _____ and there kept to hard Labour] for the Space of _____ [or to forfeit and pay _____ here state the Penalty actually imposed, or state the Penalty, and also the Value of the Articles stolen, embezzled, or taken, or the Amount of the Injury done, as the Case may be], and [in any Case where the Costs shall be awarded] also to pay the Sum of _____ for Costs, and in default of immediate Payment of the said Sum [or Sums] to be imprisoned in the _____ [or to be imprisoned in the _____ and there kept to hard Labour] for the Space of _____ unless the said Sum [or Sums] shall be sooner paid; [or, and I [or we] order that the said Sum [or Sums] shall be paid by the said A. D. on or before the _____ Day of _____ and I [or we] direct that the said Sum of _____ [i. e. the Penalty only], shall be paid to _____ in the County [or City, Town, or Place, as the Case may be], to be by him [or them] applied according to the Direction of the Statute in that Case made and provided [or that the said Sum of _____ [i. e. the Penalty only] shall be paid to [Jr. or before], and that the said Sum of _____ [i. e. the Value of the Articles stolen, or the Amount of the Injury done] shall be paid to C. D. [the Party aggrieved, unless he is unknown, or has been examined in Proof of the Offence, or in which Case state the Fact, and assign of the whole like the Penalty, or before]; and [if such Justice or Justices shall think proper to award the Complement An. Coms.] I [or we] order that the said Sum of _____ the Costs shall be paid to _____ [the Complementor]. Given under my Hand and Seal [or our Hands and Seals], the Day and Year first above mentioned.

LXIX. And

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by this Act Two or more Justices of the Peace are authorized and required to hear and determine any Complaint, One Justice shall be competent to receive the original Information or Complaint, and to issue the Summons or Warrant requiring the Parties to appear before Two or more Justices of the Peace; and after Examination upon Oath upon the Merits of the said Complaint, and the Adjudication thereupon, by any such Two Justices, being made, all and every the subsequent Proceedings to enforce Obedience thereto, or otherwise, whether respecting the Penalty, Fine, Imprisonment, Costs, or other Matter or Thing relating to the Offence, may be enforced by either of the said Justices, or by any other Justice of the Peace for the same County, City, Town, or Place, in such and the like Manner as if done by the same Two Justices who so heard and adjudged the said Complaint; and where the original Complaint or Information shall be made to any Justice or Justices of the Peace, different from the Justice or Justices before whom the same shall be heard and determined, the Form of Conviction shall be made conformable and according to the Fact.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Sum adjudged to be paid on summary Conviction shall exceed Five Pounds, or the Imprisonment adjudged shall exceed One Calendar Month, or the Conviction shall take place before One Justice only, any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such Conviction may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions (which shall he holden not less than Twelve Days after the Day of such Conviction) for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen: Provided that such Person shall give to the Complainant a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, within Three Days after such Conviction, and Seven clear Days at the least before such General or Quarter Sessions, and shall also enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, conducted personally to appear at the said Sessions, and to try such Appeal, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and upon such Notice being given, and such Recognizance being entered into, the Justice before whom the same shall be entered into shall liberate such Person, if in custody, and the Court at such Sessions shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal, and shall make such Order thereon, with or without Costs to either Party, as to the Court shall seem meet; and in case of the Dismissal of the Appeal, or the Allowance of the Conviction, the Court shall order and adjudge the Offender to be punished according to the Conviction, and to pay such Costs, if any, as shall be awarded, and shall, if necessary, issue Process for enforcing such Judgment.

LXXXI. And be it enacted, That on such Conviction, nor any Adjudication made on Appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari, or otherwise, save any of His Majesty's superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Convictment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act shall transmit the Conviction to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden for the County or Place wherein the Offence shall have been committed, there to be kept by the proper Officer among the Records of the Court; and upon any Indictment or Information against any Person for a subsequent Offence, a Copy of such Conviction, certified by the proper Officer of the Court, or proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove a Conviction for the former Offence, and the Conviction shall be presumed to have been unperpetrated against, until the contrary be shown.

LXXXIII. And for the Protection of Persons acting in the Execution of this Act, be it enacted, That all Actions and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act shall be laid and tried in the County where the Fact was committed, and shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise; and Notice in Writing of such Action, and of the Cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant One Calendar Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and in any such Action the Defendant may plead the General Issue, or in case of any Action of Negligence, may aver generally that he took the Goods and Chattels in question under and by virtue of this Act, and may give the Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and no Plaintiff shall recover in such Action if Tender of sufficient Amounts shall have been made before such Action brought, or if a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court after such Action brought, by or on behalf of the Defendant or Accused; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Accused, or the Plaintiff shall become accout, or discontinue any such Action after Issue joined, or if upon Demurrer or otherwise Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Accused shall recover his full Costs as between Attorney and Client, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath by Law in other Cases, and though a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant or Accused, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be had shall certify his Approbation of the Action, and of the Verdict obtained thereupon.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That where any Felony or Misdemeanor punishable under this Act shall be committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Ireland, the same shall be dealt with, enquired of, tried, and determined in the same Manner as any other Felony or Misdemeanor committed within that Jurisdiction.

LXXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to England, Wales, or Scotland, except as follows; (that is to say,) that if any Person having stolen, or otherwise unlawfully taken any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing

An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to malicious Injuries to Property. [15th July 1828.]

c. 55.

This Act is extended to Ireland only.
Consolidation of Act.
Selling fire
in a House, Unlawfully Church, or Chapel, Police, with Death.

WHEREAS in the last Session of Parliament an Act was passed for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to malicious Injuries to Property, and it is expedient that Provision should be made in Ireland for the like Purpose: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this present Act, and the several Matters therein contained, shall extend to Ireland, and not to England, Wales, or Scotland; and that this Act shall commence and take effect in Ireland on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight.

II. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any House, Stable, Coach-house, Out-house, Warehouse, Office, Shop, Mill, Malthouse, Hop-pond, Barn, Hay-yard, or Granary, or to any Building or Erection used in carrying on any Trade or Manufacture, or any Bench thereof, whether the same or any of them respectively shall then be in the Possession of the Offender, or in the Possession of any other Person, or if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Church, Chapel, or Place for Religious Worship, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

III. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously cut, break, or destroy, or damage, with Intent to destroy or to render useless, any Goods or Article of Silk, Woollen, Mohair, or Cotton, or of any one or more of these Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, or any Framework-knit Piece, Stocking-horn, or Lace respectively, being in the Loom or Frame, or on any Machine or Engine, or on the Rack or Tenter, or in any Stage, Process, or Progress of Manufacture, or shall unlawfully and maliciously cut, break, or destroy, or damage with Intent to destroy or to render useless, any Warp or Shade of Silk, Woollen, Laces, Mohair, or Cotton, or of any one or more of these Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, or any Loom, Frame, Machine, Engine, Rack, Tackle, Tool, or Implement, whether fixed or moveable, prepared for or employed in carding, spinning, throwing, weaving, fulling, shearing, or otherwise manufacturing or preparing any such Goods or Articles, or shall by Force enter into any House, Shop, Building, or Place, with Intent to commit any of the Offences aforesaid, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be Caged, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

IV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously cut, break, or destroy, or damage, with Intent to destroy or to render useless, any Threshing Machine, or any Machine or Engine, whether fixed or moveable, or any Tool or Implement prepared for or employed in any Manufacture whatsoever (except the Manufacture of Silk, Woollen, Laces, Mohair, or Cotton Goods, or Goods of any one or more of these Materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other Material, or any Framework-knit Piece, Stocking-horn, or Lace), every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be Caged, Twice, or Thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Artificer, Workman, Journeyman, Apprentice, Servant, or Labourer, shall wilfully and unlawfully damage, spoil, or destroy any Goods, Wares, or Work committed to his Care or Charge, without the Consent of the Person by whom he shall be hired, retained, or employed, every such Offender, being lawfully convicted thereof before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay such Sum of Money as shall appear to the Justice or Justices to be a reasonable Compensation for the Damage, Injury, Spoil, or Destruction so committed, not exceeding in any Case the Sum of Five Pounds, which Sum of Money shall be paid to the Party grieved; and every Person so convicted shall, in default of immediate Payment, be committed to the Gaol of the County of the

as the Justice or Justices shall think fit, for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Sum and Costs be sooner paid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Case where the Party trespassing acted under a fair and reasonable Supposition that he had a Right to do the Act complained of, nor to any Trespass, nor being wilful and malicious, committed in burning, fishing, or the Pursuit of Game; but that every such Trespass shall be punishable in the same Manner as before the passing of this Act.

XXXI. Provided always, and he it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner affect, or be deemed or construed to affect, any of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for punishing such Persons as shall do Injuries and Violence to the Persons or Properties of His Majesty's Subjects, with Intent to hinder the Exportation of Corn; or in an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the same Reign, intituled An Act to prevent and punish lawless Rappings of Persons within this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; or in an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of the same Reign, intituled An Act for the more effectually punishing such Persons as shall by Violence obstruct the Freedom of Corn Markets and the Corn Trade, or who shall be guilty of other Offences therein mentioned, and for making Satisfaction to the Parties injured; or in an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-seventh Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act to prevent lawless Rappings and Assemblies, and for the more effectual Punishment of Persons guilty of Obtrusion, Riot, and illegal Convulsions, and of administering and taking unlawful Oaths.

XXXII. And he it enacted, That every Punishment and Forfeiture by this Act imposed on any Person maliciously committing any Offence, whether the same be punishable upon Indictment or upon summary Conviction, shall equally apply and be enforced, whether the Offence shall be committed from Malice conceived against the Owner of the Property in respect of which it shall be committed, or otherwise.

XXXIII. And he it enacted, That in the Case of every Felony, punishable under this Act, every Principal in the Second Degree, and every Accessory before the Fact, shall be punishable with Death, or otherwise, in the same Manner as the Principal in the First Degree is by this Act punishable; and every Accessory after the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act shall, as Correction, be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and every Person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act, shall be liable to be indicted and punished as a principal Offender.

XXXIV. And he it enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted of any indictable Offence punishable under this Act, for which Imprisonment may be awarded, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction; and also to direct that the Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for the whole or any Portion or Portions of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, as to the Court in its Discretion shall seem meet.

XXXV. And for the more effectual apprehension of all Offenders against this Act, be it enacted, That any Person found committing any Offence against this Act, whether the same be punishable upon Indictment or upon summary Conviction, may be immediately apprehended, without a Warrant, by any Peace Officer, or the Owner of the Property injured, or his Servant, or any Person authorized by him, and forthwith taken before some neighbouring Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law.

XXXVI. And he it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction under this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise; and the Evidence of the Party aggrieved shall be admitted in Proof of the Offence.

XXXVII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Offences punishable on summary Conviction under this Act, be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible Witness, before any Justice of the Peace, with any such Offence, the Justice may summon the Person charged to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and if he shall not appear accordingly, then (upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his usual Place of Abode) the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the Case ex parte, or issue his Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before such Justice, or some other Justice or Justice of the Peace; or it shall and may be lawful for the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made (if he shall so think fit) without any previous Summons (unless where otherwise specially directed) to issue such Warrant: and the Justice or Justices before whom the Person charged shall appear or be brought shall proceed to hear and determine the Case.

XXXVIII. And he it enacted, That where any Offence is by this Act punishable on summary Conviction, either for every Time of its Commission, or for the First and Second Time only, or for the First Time only, every Person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of such Offence shall, on Conviction before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, be liable, as the Case may be, for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring, to the same Punishment and Forfeiture to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence as a Principal Offender is by this Act made liable.

XXXIX. And with regard to the Application of all Forfeitures and Penalties upon summary Conviction under this Act, be it enacted, That every Sum of Money which shall be forfeited for the Amount of Justice may receive any Penalty payable to Treasurer of Infirmary, &c. and pay the same in them, keeping an Account thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, by or before whom any Conviction shall be made under this Act, to receive any Forfeiture or Penalty, or any Sum of Money payable as a Penalty under this Act to the Treasurer or Officer of any Infirmary or Public Charity, and to give a Receipt for the same for the Use of such Infirmary, or Charity, specifying the Name or Description of such Infirmary or Charity in such Receipt, and such Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Party by whom such Forfeiture or Penalty, or Sum of Money, shall be incurred and paid; and every such Justice shall, within Fourteen Days next after the Receipt thereof, pay the Amount of every such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary or Public Charity entitled to the same, and shall take Receipts for the same respectively from such Treasurer or Officer, specifying the Time when and the Person by whom such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money was paid to such Justice for the Use of such Infirmary or Charity; and every such Justice shall, by himself or Clerk, keep an Account, in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, of the Amount of every such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money so received by him, specifying the Place and Time and Manner of the Adjudication or Order whereby such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money shall have been adjudged or imposed, and the Nature of the Offence under this Act for which the same was adjudged or imposed, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons on whom such Forfeiture or Penalty or Sum of Money was so imposed; and the Name and Description of the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary, or the Name and Description of the Public Charity, and the Officer thereof, to whom such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money was paid, according to the Directions of this Act, and the Time when such Payment was made; and every such Justice shall, Fourteen Days previous to the Commencement Day of the Spring and Summer Assizes in every Year, transmit to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town within which such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money shall have been imposed and made payable, an Account in Writing, stating all the several Forfeitures, Penalties, or Sums of Money which shall have been imposed and made payable by or before such Justice, under this Act, at any Time between Fourteen Days before the Commencement of the then last preceding Assizes, and the Day of transmitting such Account, and shewing which of such Forfeitures, Penalties, or Sums of Money have been received by such Justice, and from whom, and for what Offences, and to whom the same have been respectively paid by such Justice, with the Dates of the several Receipts for the same respectively.

Such Account to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace previous to the Spring and Summer Assizes.

Accounts may be inspected by Treasurer of the Infirmary, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Account so kept by any Justice of the Peace in pursuance of this Act, and every Account transmitted by such Justice to the Clerk of the Peace, shall be produced to the Treasurer or other proper Officer of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place, or to the Treasurer or other Officer of any Public Charity within such County, City, Town, or Place where there shall not be such Infirmary, at all reasonable Times when such Treasurer or Officer may desire and require to inspect the same, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any and what Sums of Money may be due and payable to such Treasurer or Officer under this Act.

Clerk of the Peace shall make Abstract of Accounts, and give the same to the Court Mitter Door during the Assizes, and afterwards publish it.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace to whom any such Account or Accounts shall be transmitted by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, of the Forfeitures, Penalties, or Sums of Money received under this Act, shall make or cause to be made an Abstract of all such Accounts, in such Form as to shew in the most distinct Manner the Name of every Justice of the Peace by whom, and the several Parties from whom, all such Penalties, Forfeitures, or Sums of Money were respectively received, and for what Offences the same were payable respectively, and whether such Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures were received respectively for the Use of the Infirmary of the County, City, Town, or Place, or for the Use of any other and what Public Charity; and such Clerk of the Peace shall sign such Abstract with his Name as Clerk of the Peace, and shall post and affix such Abstract, or shall cause the same to be posted and affixed, on the Door of the Court House or Place in which the Assizes shall be holden, to be then and there kept posted and affixed during the whole of such Assizes; and within Fourteen Days next after the Conclusion of such Assizes such Clerk of the Peace shall cause a true Copy of such Abstract, signed with his Name as Clerk of the Peace, to be inserted in some One public Newspaper published or circulated within such County, County of a City, or County of a Town.

colours for the same, or shall omit or neglect or refuse to pay the same to the Treasurer or proper Officer of any Infirmary or Public Charity entitled to the same as aforesaid, or shall omit or neglect to keep such Account as aforesaid, or shall omit or neglect or refuse to transmit any Account as aforesaid, to the Clerk of the Peace; or if any Clerk of the Peace shall omit or neglect to make or sign, or post or publish, an Abstract of all such Accounts as shall be transmitted to him, or to cause the same to be done in manner required by this Act; or if such Accounts, or any of them, shall not contain or refer to all Sums of Money paid to or received by such Justice under this Act; or if any such Account or Abstract shall in any particular be untrue or deficient; every such Justice or Clerk of the Peace shall, for every such Offence, Neglect, or Omission of such Justice or Clerk of the Peace respectively, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, by any Person who will sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Ireland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in which no Pleading or Verdict or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparisonment, shall be allowed.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That in every Case of a summary Conviction under this Act, where the Sum which shall be forfeited for the Amount of the Injury done, or which shall be imposed as a Penalty by the Justice or Justices, together with Costs, if awarded (which Costs such Justice or Justices it and are hereby authorized to award), shall not be paid, either immediately after the Conviction, or within such Period as the Justice or Justices shall at the Time of the Conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for the convicting Justice or Justices (unless where otherwise specially directed) to commit the Offender to the Common Goal or House of Conviction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, according to the Discretion of the Justice or Justices, for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months where the Amount of the Sum forfeited or of the Penalty imposed, or of both (as the Case may be), together with Costs, shall not exceed Five Pounds, or for any Term not exceeding Four Calendar Months where the Amount of such Forfeiture or Penalty, or of both (as the Case may be), together with Costs, shall exceed Five Pounds and shall not exceed Ten Pounds, and for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months in any other Case, the Commitment to be determinable in each of the Cases aforesaid upon Payment of the Amount and Costs.

XLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Person shall be summarily convicted before a Justice or Justices of the Peace of any Offence against this Act, and it shall be a First Conviction, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices, if he or they shall so think fit, to discharge the Offender from his Conviction, upon his making such Satisfaction to the Party aggrieved, for Damages and Costs, or either of them, as shall be ascertained by the Justice or Justices.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to extend the Royal Mercy to any Person imprisoned by virtue of this Act, although he shall be imprisoned for Nonpayment of Money to some Party other than the Crown.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That in any Person convicted of any Offence punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, shall have paid the Sum adjudged to be paid, together with Costs, if awarded under such Conviction, or shall have received a Remission thereof from the Crown, or shall have suffered the Imprisonment awarded for Nonpayment thereof, or the Imprisonment adjudged in the first instance, or shall have been discharged from his Conviction in the Manner aforesaid, in every such Case he shall be released from all further or other Proceedings for the same Cause.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case shall require; to-wit,

“BE remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the County of _____ [or City, Town, or Place, as the Case may be] A. G. is convicted before us J. LI. And be it enacted, That no such Conviction, nor any Adjudication made on Appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari, or otherwise, into any of His Majesty's superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

LII. And be it enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act shall transmit the Conviction to the next Court of General Quarter Sessions which shall be holden for the County or Place wherein the Offence shall have been committed, there to be kept by the proper Officer among the Records of the Court; and upon any Indictment or Information against any Person for a subsequent Offence, a Copy of such Conviction, certified by the proper Officer of the Court, or proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove a Conviction for the former Offence, and the Conviction shall be presumed to have been unappealed against, until the contrary be shown.

LIII. And for the Protection of Persons acting in the Execution of this Act, be it enacted, That all Actions and Prosecutions to be commenced against any Person for any thing done in pursuance of this Act shall be laid and tried in the County where the Fact was or is charged to have been committed, and shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise; and Notice in Writing of such Action, and of the Cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant One Calendar Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and in any such Action the Defendant may plead the General Issue, or in case of any Action of Reprieve may avow generally that the Goods and Chattels in question were taken under and by virtue of this Act, and may give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at the Trial to be had thereupon; and no Plaintiff shall recover in any such Action if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action brought, nor if a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court after such Action brought, by or on behalf of the Defendant or Arresant; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Arresant, or the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue any such Action after Issue joined, or if upon Demurrer or otherwise Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Arresant shall recover his full Costs as between Attorney and Client, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath by Law in other Cases: and though a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be had shall certify his Approbation of the Action, and of the Verdict obtained thereon.

LIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain.

LV. And be it enacted, That where any Felony or Misdemeanor punishable under this Act shall be committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of Ireland, the same shall be dealt with, enquired of, tried, and determined in the same Manner as any other Felony or Misdemeanor committed within that Jurisdiction.

C A P. LVII.

An Act to provide for the Regulation of the Public Office for registering Memorials of Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, in Ireland. [18th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, entitled An Act for the public registering of all Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, that shall be made of any Houses, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, it was enacted, that One Public Office for registering Memorials of Deeds and Conveyances, Wills and Devises, should be established; and kept in the City of Dublin, to be managed and executed by a fit and able Person or his sufficient Deputy, such Person to be nominated and appointed by the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and to continue in the said Office for so long Time as he should faithfully and honestly demean himself therein; and divers Regulations for the conducting the said Office and the Business therein were made by the said Act, and by several Acts for amending the same: And Whereas the Right Honourable John Lord Viscount Alford is the present Registrar of the said Office, with divers Persons as his Deputies, and certain Clerks and Officers for the executing the Duties of the said Office; and it is just and expedient that Provision should be made for the future Regulation of the said Office, and also of the Business transacted in the said Office, and the Fees paid for the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so soon as may be after the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Lord Viscount Alford from the said Office of Registrar it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Ireland; for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and required, to regulate the Duty and Establishment of the said Public Registry Office: and that for such Purposes it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to nominate and appoint one efficient Officer or Person to be the Registrar of all Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, and of all other Instruments, Matters, and Things which by Law are or shall be required to be registered at the said Public Registry Office in Dublin; and also to appoint one other Person to be Assistant to such Registrar; and also to appoint such and such Number of fit and proper Persons as Clerks and subordinate Officers as may be sufficient and necessary to perform and execute the Duties to be done, performed, and executed in the said Public Registry Office; and to direct that such Registrar and Assistant Clerks and Officers shall perform the Duties of the respective Offices in Person; and that such Registrar shall give and enter into such Recognizances, by himself and Sureties, for the due Performance of the Duty of his Office, to such Amount as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury shall deem fit; and that such Registrar and his Assistant Registrar, and such Clerks and subordinate Officers, shall receive such Proportion of Fees, or such Salaries in lieu of Fees respectively, as shall be ordered and appointed by the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, in that Behalf; and that all Fees received in the said Office shall be disposed of and distributed in such Manner as such Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct and appoint; except being had in every Case to the Nature and Extent of the Duties to be performed, and to the Responsibility which may attach or belong to the several and respective Officers and Persons executing the Duties of the said Office respectively; and all such Regulations and Appointments when so made and established shall be and become and be put in full Force and Effect in relation to the said Public Registry Office, and to the said Registrar and Assistant Registrar, and Clerks and Officers respectively; and such Fees and Salaries shall be payable and paid and disposed of in Manner required and directed by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury: any thing in this and recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts, or any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall be deemed expedient by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in the Execution of the Act, after the Death, Resignation, or Removal from Office of the said John Lord Viscount Alford, that the Whole or any Part of the Duties of any Deputy or Assistant, or Clerk or Officer, in the said Public Registry Office may be discharged with, and that the Persons holding such Offices may be discharged from the Whole or any Part of the Duty of the said Office or either of them, or that the Salaries or Proportion of Fees received by any of the said Officers should be reduced, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to discharge the said Officers, or any of them, from the Whole or any Part of the Duties of the said Office respectively, or any of them, and to order that the Amount of Salaries or Fees receivable by the said Officers or any of them should be reduced or regulated accordingly; and it shall and may also be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, in any or either of the said Cases, to make such just and reasonable Compensation or annual Allowance to such Officers, their Clerks, or any of them, as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall in their Judgment think proper: and to direct the Payment of such Compensation out of the Produce of the Fees payable in the said Office, in such Manner and under such Regulations and Resolutions as shall be specified in any Order or Orders of the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, to be made for that Purpose: Provided always, that all the Persons employed as De-Justices, Assistants, or Clerks in said Office, at the Time of such Death, Resignation, or Removal of said Lord Lieutenant, shall thereafter be authorized and empowered to continue to perform their several and respective Duties in said Office, and to do all official Acts necessary for conducting the same, in as full and ample a Manner as if such Death, Resignation, or Removal had not taken place, until they shall be respectively discharged thereof as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That Copies of all Orders, Directions, Minutes, and Regulations of any Kind or Nature aforesaid, which, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be made by the Lord High Treasurer, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, touching or concerning the said Office of Registrar of Deeds in Ireland, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament at the Commencement of the Session next ensuing the Date or Dates of such Directions or Orders as aforesaid, or if Parliament shall be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days next after the Dates of such Orders, Directions, Minutes, or Regulations respectively; and that in case no legislative Provision shall otherwise be made in the Course of the Session in which such Copies shall be laid before Parliament, the said Minutes, Orders, Directions, or Regulations shall then, and not before, become final, and conclusive of all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being to grant such Leave and Licence to the said Lord Lieutenant, the present Registrar, to be absent from Ireland from Time to Time, and for such Period or Periods, and under such Restrictions, as such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors shall think fit; any Thing in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof contained notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Indices and Registry of all Memorials required to be registered at any Time before the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, shall be completed as soon as may be after the passing of this Act; and that all Books which at any Time before the passing of this Act shall have been used and kept in the said Registry Office, containing any Abstracts of or Indexes to the Contents of the Memorials registered on the said Office, shall continue to be kept and preserved in the said Office as Public Property, and shall not be removed therefrom; and then such Indices and Abstracts shall be completed as soon as may be up to the End of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act.

VI. And for the more effectually securing the Performance of the Duty of Registrar, and of the Deputies, Assistants, Clerks, and Officers in the said Office of Public Registry, be it enacted, That upon any Complaint made on Oath before any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Law in Dublin, of any Neglect, Default, or Misconduct by any Registrar, or Deputy Registrar, or Assistant Registrar, or any Clerk or Officer in the said Office, committed at any Time after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Court, or any Judges or Judge thereof, to hear and determine such Complaint in a summary Way; and also to ascertain how far the Registrar, or other superior Officer, ought to be answerable for the Neglect, Default, or Misconduct of any Deputy Assistant, Clerk, or inferior Officer, or may be guilty of any Conviction in such Neglect, Default, or Misconduct; and if the Court or Judge shall be of Opinion that Proof has been shewn of any such Neglect, Default, Misconduct, or Conviction, the Judge or sole Judge present at the Hearing of such Complaint shall forthwith cause a Copy of the Judgment of the Court to be laid before the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to order and direct that such Registrar, or Deputy or Assistant Registrar, or Officer or Clerk, or all or any of them, who shall appear to be guilty of any such Neglect, Default, Misconduct, or Conviction, shall be removed from his or their Office or Employment respectively; and every such Person shall be removed accordingly, and shall be and become incapable of continuing in or executing such Office or Employment.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, in and out of any Fee for the Performance of any Duty to be done or performed in the said Public Registry Office in Dublin, claimed or payable under or by virtue of any Act in Force before the passing of this Act, or otherwise however, there shall be paid and payable the several Fees mentioned, specified, and set forth in the Table marked (A.) to this Act annexed, and no others, on any Account or Pretence whatever; and if after the Expiration of the said Calendar Month, any Person in the said Public Registry Office shall demand or take any Fee, Gratuity, or Sum of Money greater or other than is mentioned and set forth in the said Table, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered with Costs of Suit by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in Dublin, by any Person who shall sue for the same, in which Action no Enquiry, Protection, Waiver of Law, nor more than One Imparison, shall be allowed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, there shall be kept in the said Registry Office One or more Book or Books, wherein every Fee or Sum of Money which shall be received by any Registrar, Deputy, Assistant, Clerk, or Officer in the said Office, for the Performance of any Duty required by Law to be done and performed by such Registrar or other Person, shall be duly and separately entered at the Time of the Receipt of any such Fee or Sum of Money; and every such Book shall be produced and verified by the proper Officer whenever the same shall be required by any Person interested in and demanding such Production, or by any Order of any of His Majesty's Courts, or of any Judge of any such Courts, or of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Registry Office shall be kept open for Business from the Hour of Ten in the Forenoon to the Hour of Four in the Afternoon of every Day in the Year, except only Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and Days of Public Fast or Thanksgiving; and that due Attendance shall be given therein on every such Day during said Hours by the said Registrar or his sufficient Deputies or Deputies; and that no Business shall be done or transacted in the said Office by such Deputy Registrars, or by any of his Assistants or Clerks or Officers, but such as relates to the Public Duties of the said Office, and the said Office shall be appropriated solely and exclusively to the Purposes of such Public Duties; and no Person not being an Officer employed in the said Office shall be allowed to inspect any Memorial in the said Office, except in the Presence of some Officer of the said Office, and acting in the Execution of his Duty in the said Office.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Registrar, or any Deputy or Assistant of such Registrar, or any Clerk or Officer in the said Office, to grant any Certificate of the Registry of any Memorial registered at any Time after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, unless such Memorial shall specify the Easement or Parish, or both, wherein any Lands or Tenements intended to be affected by such Registry are situate.

XI. And for the Purpose of enabling the proper Officer to ascertain the Amount of the Fee payable on the Entry of every such Memorial according to the Table annexed to this Act, and also to regulate the Payment to the Entering Clerk, be it enacted, That upon every Memorial of which a Registry shall be demanded, there shall be indorsed a Certificate of the Length of such Memorial, stating the respective Quantities of Words in such Memorial as not exceeding One thousand Words, or any superior Quantity of One thousand Words, or any fractional Number of Words exceeding or not exceeding Five hundred Words, and each Certificate shall be signed by the Person demanding such Registry; and if any such Certificate shall be untrue, so as to induce the Payment of any Fee less than the Fee payable according to such Table, the Person subscribing such Certificate shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered by Civil Bill by any Officer in the said Registry Office who will sue for the same.

XII. And for the more easy searching and referring to the Registry of all Memorials, be it enacted, That One or more Book or Books, such as to be denominated an Abstract Book, shall, from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, be kept in the said Office of Public Registry, wherein some Clerk or Officer, or Clerks or Officers, to be appointed for that Purpose, shall enter from each Memorial, of which a Registry shall be duly required, the Particulars of such Memorial specified and enumerated in the Form annexed (B.) to this Act annexed; and the Clerk or Officer making such Entry, or some other Clerk or Officer, shall compare the Particulars of each such Entry with the Deed to which such Memorial shall purport to relate; and if the several Particulars in each Deed and Memorial shall be found to correspond, but not otherwise, it shall then be lawful for and the Duty of the Officer to certify the Registry of such Memorial.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be made up and kept in the said Registry Office Indexes of the Names of every Grantor contained and specified in any and every Memorial which shall be registered after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act; and that such Volume of such Indexes shall comprise a Period of Ten Years, and shall contain only such Names as have the same Initial Letter; and each such Volume shall be subdivided into Portions, each distinguished by a Second Letter or alphabetical Order, under which Subdivisions the Names of all such Grantors shall be entered according to the Two First Letters of each such Name respectively; and that after the Name of each Grantor so entered, there shall be entered the Name of One Grantee and the Number of the Memorial wherein such Names occur, and the Number and Page of the Registry Book where such Memorial is entered, corresponding with the Entry in the Abstract Book heretofore mentioned.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That there shall also be made up and kept in the said Registry Office Indexes of the Names of all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments mentioned and specified in any and every Memorial which shall be registered after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act; and that a separate Volume of such Indexes shall be appropriated to each County or County of a City in England; and that each such Book shall contain separate Divisions under the Heads of the Barons comprised in any County, arranged alphabetically, with Subdivisions for Denominations of Lands, beginning with each Letter of the Alphabet; and each Denomination shall be entered under the Subdivision appropriated to the initial Letter of such Denomination; and opposite each Denomination so entered there shall be also entered the Name of One Grantor and of One Grantee, with the Number of the Memorial wherein such Names and Denominations are to be found, corresponding with the Number entered in the Abstract Book, and with the Number and Page of the Registry Book where such Memorial is copied; and each Book or Part of a Book appropriated as an Index for the Denomination of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in any City or Town, shall comprise Divisions for the several Parishes within each City or Town respectively, alphabetically arranged; and the Entries of the several Denominations (which Entries shall comprise the same Particulars as the similar Entries in the County Books, and also the Names of the Streets in such Cities or Towns wherein the Lands or Premises denominated are situate) shall be made in alphabetical Order under the Heads of the appropriate Divisions of Parishes, in like Manner as the Entries under the Heads of Barons in the County Books.

XV. And

Days and Hours of Attendance.
Office shall be applied only in Public Business.

Memorials to be inspected only in the Presence of an Officer.

Memorials shall specify the Easement, &c. wherein Lands are situate.

Length of Memorial shall be indorsed "Correct."

Abstract Book of Memorials to be kept according to the Form as Schedule (B.)

Alphabetical Indexes of Names of Grantors to be kept.

Index of Names of Lands, &c. to be kept.

No Book for private Information of Bankers, &c. shall be kept in Registry Office, nor any Information given but upon regular Searches.

Officers who are required shall make Searches and give Abstracts and Certificates.

Form of Certificate

Copies of Memorials (printed as Copies of other Records) may be produced in Evidence, unless objected to on Notice.

Nothing herein to give any Person any Right of Access to Books, &c. except under the established Regulations, or under Copies.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Book containing Entries or Abstracts of registered Mortgages or Annuity Deeds shall be kept in the said Registry Office for the private Use or Benefit or Inspection of any Bankers, Merchants, or others; nor shall any Copies of any registered Memorials of anonymous Partnership Deeds be given or delivered to any Bankers, Merchants, or others; and no Information whatever shall be given with respect to any Memorial or Registry of any Deed, or with respect to the Contents or Effect of any Deed, Matter, or Thing registered in the said Registry Office, otherwise than upon Applications duly made to the proper Officers at the said Registry Office, and on Searches and Certificates made in each individual Case by such Officers in due Form, and for which such Fees and no others shall be paid as are authorized by this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officers or Officers in the said Registry Office, whenever therein required in Writing by any Person, shall make Searches for the Memorials of all or any Acts done by any Person or Persons named, either concerning any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments generally within any specified Period, or concerning any specified Lands or Tenements within any specified Period; and for all or any Acts affecting any Land or Premises named within any specified Period; and whenever and so often as any Officer shall be required to make any such Search, such Officer shall make and certify such Search, and shall deliver an authentic Extract from the Registry Books or Abstract Books, setting forth Abstracts containing the several Particulars (under the Heads comprised in the Form marked (B.) to this Act annexed) of all registered Memorials coming within the Terms of the Requisition for such Search, and that such Officer shall keep and file every such Requisition for a Search; and that a true Copy of every such Requisition shall be made by such Officer, whereas the said Abstracts shall be subjoined, with a Certificate in the following Form, subscribed by such Officer:

‘UPON diligent Search made in the Registry Office at Dublin, I certify, That no Memorials coming within the Terms of the above Requisition are registered, whereof an Abstract is not herein truly set forth.’

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Proceedings before any Court of Justice, and for all Purposes whatsoever, a Copy of any Memorial entered and registered in the said Office, which shall be authenticated and proved in like Manner as Copies of any other Record, may and shall be received and taken as Evidence of the Contents of such Memorial, and as if the original Memorial were produced: and that where it shall be the Intention of any Party to produce such Copy of any Memorial as Evidence, such Party shall apply the adverse Party thereof by Notice, and if such adverse Party shall not assent thereto, but shall require the original Memorial to be produced, such adverse Party shall signify such Dissent and Desire by a counter Notice; and that the Expense of producing any original Memorial shall in any such Case be defrayed by either Party, as the Court in which such Proceeding shall be held, or the Taxing Officer of such Court, may determine.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed so extend to give to any Person whatsoever a Right of Access to any of the Books in said Office, except under such Regulations as shall be established therein, to be approved of by the Lord Chancellor and Master of the Rolls, for the due Preservation of the same, nor any Right whatsoever to any Person whatsoever, except an Officer or Clerk employed in said Office, to take a Copy or Copies or Extract or Extracts of or from the Memorials registered in said Office, or of or from any of the Entries contained in any of the Books thereof.

C A P. LVIII.

An Act to regulate the granting of Certificates, by Justices of the Peace and Magistrates, authorizing Persons to keep common Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses, in Scotland, in which Ale, Beer, Spirit, Wine, and other Excisable Liquors may be sold by Retail under Excise Licences; and for the better Regulation of such Houses; and for the Prevention of such Houses being kept without such Certificate. [14th July 1828.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force respecting Licences or Certificates to be granted by Justices of the Peace and Magistrates to Persons to keep common Inns, Alehouses, or Victualling Houses, for the Purpose of enabling them to obtain Excise Licences for the Sale of Ale, Beer, Spirit, Wine, or other Excisable Liquor, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed upon the Premises in which the same is sold, in Scotland, are defective, and require to be altered and amended: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, an Act passed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for more effectually preventing the Sale of Excisable Liquors in Scotland by Persons not duly licensed, and for altering the Times of granting Licences to sell such Excisable Liquors by Retail, and also an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His said late Majesty, for repealing the Stamp Duties on Licences granted by Justices of the Peace for selling Ale, Beer, and other Excisable Liquors by Retail, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and all other Laws and Provisions in force before and on the Commencement of this Act, respecting such Licences or Certificates to be so granted as aforesaid by Justices of the

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties in Scotland shall assemble, for granting such Certificates for their several Counties respectively, upon the first Tuesday of May and the last Tuesday of October in each Year with Power to them to adjourn such Meetings from Day to Day, as they shall think fit, during the Period of Seven lawful Days following and next after the Day of their first Meeting, and no longer: Provided always, that such Justices shall not have Power to grant such Certificates for the Royalty of any Royal Burgh, except as after mentioned: and if any such Certificate shall be granted contrary hereto, the same shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

Justices may divide Counties into Districts for the Purposes of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County, assembled at a Meeting to be held on the same Day on which the First Michaelmas Term Court of the County shall be held after the passing of this Act, to divide the County into Districts for the Purpose of this Act, within which such Justices shall assemble at a Place to be by them appointed, for considering and disposing of Applications under this Act, at the Times before specified, and Notice of the Place of meeting to be appointed, and of the Name and Residence or Office or Place of Business of a Clerk or Deputy Clerk within each District, with whom Applications and Recommendations may be lodged in Terms of this Act (as after mentioned), shall be given by Advertisement at the Church Doors of every Parish Church within the District, for Two several Sundays at least, before the first holding of such District Meeting as appointed. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of any County, at any Michaelmas Meeting as aforesaid, after previous Notice by Three Advertisements published One Month before such Michaelmas Meeting in any Newspaper or Newspapers circulated within the District to be affected by the Change proposed to be made, at any Time to alter or change any District or Place of District Meeting by those appointed, due Notice thereof being given, in like Manner as aforesaid, at every Parish Church before the next holding of such District Meeting.

Notice to be given thereof.

Justices may alter any District as like herein.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if in any Royal Burgh there shall not be a sufficient Number of Magistrates present who are qualified to grant Certificates according to the Directions of this Act, at any Time when such Certificates are hereby appointed to be granted, in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the County in which such Royal Burgh is situate to grant Certificates for such Royal Burgh, at the same Time and in the same Manner as they are hereby empowered to grant Certificates for the County: Provided always, that any Magistrates of such Burgh, so qualified, may and are hereby authorized and empowered in such Case to act along with such Justices in granting such Certificates.

If not sufficient Justices being for any Royal Borough, the Justices of the County may act.

Certificates to be granted.

VII. And be it further enacted, That at such General or District Meetings, or at any Adjournment thereof, within the respective Periods aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Justices and Magistrates respectively to grant Certificates for the Year next ensuing, commencing as after mentioned, to such and so many Persons as the Justices or Magistrates then assembled at such General or District Meeting, or the major Part of them, shall think meet and convenient, to keep common Inns, Alehouses, or Victualling Houses, within which Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, and other Excisable Liquors may, under Excise Licences, be sold by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in the Premises, within their respective Counties, Districts, or Royal Burghs; and such Justices or Magistrates shall deliver or cause to be delivered to every Person so authorized or empowered a Certificate, written or printed on Paper, in such Form as hereinafter directed: Provided always, that all such Meetings shall be held with open Doors, and that it shall not be competent to refuse the Renewal of any Certificate without hearing the Party in support of the Application for Renewal as open Court, if such Party shall think fit to attend: and that there shall be at least Two Justices of the Peace or Magistrates respectively present at such Meetings; and any Certificate granted otherwise than at such Meetings shall be void and of no effect.

Provision as to Meetings for granting Certificates.

VIII. And

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no such Certificate as aforesaid shall entitle any Person to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, or to obtain an Excise Licence for selling Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Exciseable Liquors, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in any other House or Premises than the House and Premises specified in such Certificate: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prohibit any Person who shall have obtained such Certificate from selling Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Exciseable Liquors, in Boats or Vessels moored in Rivers, at any Time, or in Houses, Inns, or other Places, at the Time and within the Limits of the Streets, Town, or Place in or upon which is holden any lawful Fair, in the same Parish with the House or Premises for which any Person shall have obtained a Certificate as aforesaid, or in any Parish immediately adjoining thereto.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every such Certificate as aforesaid shall be in force for One whole Year, commencing at the Term of Whitsunday, or for Six Months from Martinmas respectively, according to the Period of the Year at which such Certificate was granted, and no longer.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases Written or printed Application shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Magistracy of the Royal Borough, or of the Justices of the Peace for the County, at least Ten Days before the First Day of the General or Quarter Meeting for granting such Certificates, setting forth the Name and Designation of the Applicant, and specifying the House or Premises for which such Applicant craves that such Certificate may be granted, by the Name of the Street or Place, and the Number of the House, or other particular Description; and that a Fee of Two Shillings, and no more, shall be payable to the Clerk at lodging such Application.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices or Magistrates respectively, assembled at any such General or District Meeting as aforesaid, to make such Regulations and Rules as they shall think fit, not being inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, as to the Manner of making such Applications, as well for ascertaining the Character of the Applicants, as whether it be expedient to grant such Certificates in the Places in which they are sought to be obtained, and also as to the Mode of proceeding in transferring Certificates as hereinafter mentioned.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Names and Designations of all Persons who make Applications for such Certificates shall be entered in a Book or Register, to be kept by the Clerk of such Justices or Magistrates respectively, wherein the Names and Designations of new Applicants shall be entered separately, which Book or Register shall contain Columns for the Designations of such Applicants, for the Names of the Persons who recommended them, for the House and Place for which such Certificate is applied, for the Manner in which the Application is disposed of, and for noting a Memorandum of Conditions under this Act against such Persons respectively, and the Dates thereof; and the Cases of new Applicants shall not be considered until all the other Cases shall have been disposed of; and that at the End of the Meeting for each Day, a Deliverance shall be written in such Book or Register, specifying whether such Applications respectively were granted or refused, or continued for further inquiry, or how otherwise disposed of; and such Deliverance shall be then and there signed by the major Part of such Justices or Magistrates so assembled, or by the Prince of the Meeting, according to the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, therein designated by the Letter A., and it shall not be lawful for the Justices or Magistrates at any adjourned Meeting to alter any thing which was done at any previous Meeting in granting or refusing such Certificate; and the Clerk of such Justices or Magistrates shall make out a Certificate in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, designated by the Letter B., specifying the Date from which such Certificate shall be current.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in any County or Royal Borough, who is a Brewer, Malterer, Distiller, or Dealer in or Retailer of Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Exciseable Liquors, or who shall be in Partnership with any Person so a Brewer, Malterer, Distiller, or Dealer in or Retailer of Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Exciseable Liquors, shall act as such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate respectively in the Execution of this Act; nor shall any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate act in the granting of any Certificate when he shall be the Proprietor or Tenant of the House or Premises for which such Certificate shall be applied for; and every thing done by a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate respectively in any Case in which he is so disqualified to act shall be null and void; and every Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, who shall knowingly or wilfully offend in any of the Provisions aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered, by any Person who will prosecute for the same, before the Sheriff of the County, within Six Calendar Months next after the Offence has been committed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace, or Proprietor or Occupier of any House in respect whereof any such Certificate shall be applied for, shall be dissatisfied with any Proceeding of any Justices or Magistrates assembled for granting Certificates as aforesaid, whether in granting or refusing or otherwise disposing of any such Application, it shall be lawful to such Justice of the Peace, Proprietor, or Occupier, to appeal therefrom to the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County: Provided always, that such Appeal shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace within Ten Days after such Proceeding; and provided such Appellant, being a Proprietor or Occupier as aforesaid, shall find Caution to abide such Appeal and the Expenses thereof; and shall give Intimation of such Appeal to the opposite Party, and to the Justices of whose Proceeding he complains.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Person licensed to sell Exciseable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in his House or Premises, shall sell or otherwise dispose of all such Liquors by

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Transfer Certificate to be granted on such Death or Removal as aforesaid shall be in the Form contained in the Schedule annexed to the Body of this Act, and therein designated by the Letter C., and shall be held on the same Terms and Conditions, and in the same Manner, as a Certificate granted at any General or District Meeting, for which Transfer Certificate a Fee of One Shilling and no more shall be payable to the Clerk.

Penalties for offences against the Terms of the Certificate.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate to be granted under the Authority of this Act shall be and be held on the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions therein contained; and in case any Person or Persons authorized to keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House under such Certificate, and having Excise Licences for the Sale of Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Expendable Liquors, so licensed or authorized, shall offend against any of the Terms and Conditions contained in such Certificate, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and undergo the several Penalties

Penalties and Disabilities hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, for the First Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, to be ascertained upon Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Fourteen Days next after such Conviction shall have taken place, the Offender shall suffer Imprisonment upon his own Charges and Expenses, for a Period of One Calendar Month, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, unless he or she shall sooner pay such Penalty, and the Expenses of such Conviction, and of executing the same; and in addition to such Penalty, the Certificate granted to such Person may be declared to be forfeited and to become void and null; and for the Second Offence the Offender shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, to be ascertained upon Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Fourteen Days next after such Second Conviction shall have taken place, then the Offender shall suffer Imprisonment upon his own Charges and Expenses, for a Period of Two Calendar Months, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, unless he or she shall sooner pay such Second Penalty, and the Expenses of Conviction, and of executing the same; and in addition to such Penalty the Certificate granted to such Person may be declared to be forfeited and to become void and null; and for the Third Offence, the Offender shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, to be ascertained upon Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within Fourteen Days after such Conviction shall have taken place, then the Offender shall suffer Imprisonment upon his own Charges and Expenses, for a Period of Four Calendar Months, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, unless he or she shall sooner pay such Third Penalty, and the Expenses of Conviction, and of executing the same; and in addition to such Penalty, the Certificate granted to such Person shall be declared to be forfeited and to become void and null; and it is hereby provided and declared, that the several Penalties and Terms of Imprisonment before mentioned may be mitigated by the Court; provided always, that by such Mitigation such Penalties and Terms of Imprisonment respectively shall not be reduced to less than One Fourth Part thereof.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall have been convicted of any Breach of the Terms and Conditions of the Certificate held by him or her in one Year as a First Offence, and such Person shall, in the following or any subsequent Year within Three Years after, be charged with a Breach of the Terms and Conditions of any other such Certificate subsequently obtained by such Person, and be thereof convicted, such Conviction shall be deemed and taken to be a Conviction for a Second Offence; and so in like Manner, if such Person shall be again convicted within Three Years, it shall be deemed and taken to be a Conviction for a Third Offence within the Meaning of this Act; and that notwithstanding of such Second or Third Offence being in breach of other and different Terms and Conditions, or of other and different Certificates obtained subsequently to the Certificate for the Breach of the Conditions of which the First or Second Conviction took place.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to make Complaint unto and before the Sheriff, or before any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, or before the Court of any Royal Borough within whose Jurisdiction the Person complained against shall reside, stating in such Complaint that the Defendant is a Person keeping a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, under a Certificate to him or her in that behalf granted, and selling Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, or other Excisable Liquors by Retail under Tacite Licences, and setting forth the particular Breach or Breaches of the Terms and Conditions of the Certificate complained of, and also whether it is the First, Second, or Third Offence, as the Case may be; and thereupon the Sheriff or Justice, or the Justices to or before whom such Complaint shall have been made, shall grant a Warrant to the Officers of Court to summon the Party complained against to appear at a Time and Place to be specified in such Warrant and Summons (such Summons being served at least Six free Days before the Day of Appearance), to attend the Hearing of such Complaint, at which Time and Place, if the said Party shall appear and plead to such Charge, or in case of his or her not appearing, on Proof by the Oath of the Constable or other Officer of his having served such Summons in accordance directed at least Six free Days prior to the Day of Appearance, it shall be lawful for such Sheriff or Justice, or Two or more Justices of the Peace, to enquire into the Truth of the Allegations in such Complaint, and on the same being proved, either by the Confession of the Party complained against, or by the Testimony on Oath (or Affirmation, if a Quaker) of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or upon other legal Evidence, so pronounced Judgment, and convict the Party of the Offence complained against, without any written Pleadings or Record of Evidence; it being hereby provided, that a Record shall be preserved of the Charge and of the Judgment pronounced: Provided always, that if such Sheriff, Justice, or Justices shall see Cause, it shall be lawful to adjourn the Hearing of such Complaint to a subsequent Day, to be by them at that Time appointed: and it shall be lawful for any Sheriff, Justice, or Justices, before whom Proceedings shall be had for the Recovery of any of the Penalties before mentioned, to examine before him or them any Witnesses or Witnesses, and to require them to produce any such Writings or Entries as may be required for the due Decision of the Case before them; ~~and all writs, Records, to be so preserved, as aforesaid, shall be in the Power committed in the Schedule annexed to the Statute in this Act, Statute~~ ~~deposited by the Justice, or Justices, as aforesaid.~~

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That when any Warrant shall be issued for summoning any Person to appear and answer to any Complaint for committing a breach of the Terms and Conditions of the Certificate to him or her in that behalf granted, directing such Summons to such Person by the Name in which such Certificate shall have been granted, or by the Name by which such Person is or has been usually known, whether the same be the real or assumed Name of such Person, and the bearing a Copy of the Complaint and of the Warrant for summoning such Person, with a Citation annexed, subscribed by the Officer, at the House, Out-house, or Premises in which the Offence shall have been committed, or if Administrator cannot be obtained, the affixing a Copy thereof on the Door or other conspicuous Part of the Outside of such House or Premises, shall be deemed and taken to be as good, legal, and effectual a Summons as if the same had been personally delivered to the Party for whom such Summons was intended, and not when the same was intended to be served.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall consider himself or herself to be aggrieved by any Judgment, whether of Conviction or of Absolution, given upon any Complaint presented under this Act, by any Two or more Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful to such Person to appeal therefrom to the Justices assembled at the next Quarter Sessions held for the County in which the Judgment so appealed against was given, which Justices are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally adjudge such Appeal: Provided always, that no such Appeal shall be heard, unless the Appellant shall, within Eight Days next after such Judgment, lodge his Appeal with the Clerk of such Justices of the Peace, and shall find Caution with such Clerk to abide such Appeal, and to pay such Sum as shall be finally awarded, and shall give Indemnity of such Appeal by serving a Copy thereof upon the opposite Party within the said Period of Eight Days.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Process of Review by any Superior Court of the Judgments to be pronounced under this Act by such Justices of the Peace, Quarter Sessions, or Sheriff, shall be competent, either by Abatement, Supersedeas, Habeas Corpus, or otherwise.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of the Peace and Clerk of any Royal Burgh shall, when lawfully required, make out from those the Books to be kept by them as aforesaid a Duplicate or Counterpart of any Certificate issued by them, for which he shall be entitled to receive a Fee of One Shilling; which Duplicate, being duly certified by such Clerk, shall be admitted as sufficient Evidence of the Facts therein contained, and of the Terms of such Certificate, in all Courts and legal Proceedings, without Production of the particular Certificate originally granted.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Conviction under this Act for a Breach or Breaches of the Terms and Conditions of the Certificate granted under the Authority of this Act shall, within Six Days after such Conviction, be transmitted by the Person who shall officiate as Clerk to the Justice or Magistrates at such Conviction to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, or Town Clerk of the Burgh, where the Party convicted shall reside, under a Penalty of Five Pounds, to be recovered by any Person who will prosecute for the same before the Sheriff of the County, within Six Months next after the Time when such Transmissions ought to have been made; and such Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk respectively shall keep such Convictions among the Records of the County or Town respectively, and shall also enter in the Book or Register required to be kept by them as aforesaid, and opposite to the Name of the Person therein entered to whom the same applies, the Date of the Conviction, specifying therein whether the same is the First, Second, or Third Conviction; and the said Book or Register shall be produced by the Clerk of the Peace and Town Clerk at every General or District Meeting of Justices and Magistrates to be held in pursuance of this Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County, and the Town Clerk of every Royal Burgh, shall certify to the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or to the Collector or Supervisor of Excise in the particular Collection or District, the Conviction of every Person convicted of an Offence in Breach of the Conditions and Terms of his or her Certificate, by which Conviction such Certificate has theretofore been adjudged null and void, which Certificate of Conviction shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners of Excise, or Collector or Supervisor, within Six Days next after such Conviction shall have taken place, if such Clerk officiated as Clerk to the Justice or Magistrates at such Conviction, and if such Clerk did not so officiate, then within Six Days after such Conviction shall have been transmitted to him, on pain of the said Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, forfeiting for every Neglect so to do the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered, by any Person who will prosecute for the same, before the Sheriff of the County, within Six Months next after the Transmission by this Act ought to have been made; and such Certificate of Conviction shall be in the Form contained in the Schedules annexed in the Body of this Act, and designated by the Letter E.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Person in Scotland, who, after the Commencement of this Act, shall keep a common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, and sell Ale, Beer, Spirit, Wine, or other Excisable Liquors, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed as such Potation, or the Places immediately adjoining the same, without a Certificate to him or her in that Behalf granted, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall, upon his or her being convicted thereof, as hereafter mentioned, forfeit and pay for the First Offence the Sum of Seven Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, to be ascertained upon Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Four Days next after such Conviction shall have taken place, the Offender shall suffer Imprisonment upon his own Charges and Expenses, for a Period of Six Weeks, in the common Goal or House of Correction, unless he or she shall sooner pay such Penalty, and the Expenses of such Conviction, and of executing the same; and for the Second Offence the Offender shall forfeit the Sum of Fifteen Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, to be ascertained upon Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Four Days next after such Second Conviction shall have taken place, then the Offender shall suffer Imprisonment upon his own Charges and Expenses, for a Period of Three Calendar Months, in the common Goal or House of Correction, unless he or she shall sooner pay such Second Penalty, and the Expenses of Conviction, and of executing the same; and for the Penalties may be mitigated.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That any Person prosecuted for keeping a common Inn, Alchouse, or Victualling House, and residing as aforesaid, without such Certificate as aforesaid, may be legally convicted thereof on his or her own Confession, or on Proof by the Oath for Affirmation, if a Quaker, of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or other legal Evidence; and all such Prosecutions shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Provisions, as Prosecutions for Breaches of the Terms of a Certificate granted under or by virtue of this Act, in so far as the same are applicable thereto.

Persons prosecuted may be convicted on their own Confession, or on the Oath of One Witness.

Application of Penalties.

XXXII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Sheriff, Justice, or Magistrate, by whose Judgment shall be given for any Penalties under the Provisions of this Act, to award any Portion of the same, not in any Case exceeding One Moiety thereof, for the Use of the Prosecutor, and the Remainder to the Kirk Treasurer of the Parish within which the Offence was committed, or to any Public Asylum or charitable Institution, as the said Sheriff, Magistrate, or Justice convicting shall think proper.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIII. And he it further enacted, That every Action or Prosecution against any Sheriff, Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Constable, or other Person, on account of any thing done in Execution of this Act, shall be commenced within Three Months after the Cause of Action or Prosecution shall have arisen, and not afterwards.

Penalty on Clerk taking Bribe Fee.

XXXIV. And he it further enacted, That if any Clerk shall demand or receive any greater or additional Fee, or any other Reward, for any thing done under this Act, than is thereby expressly authorized, or than is authorized by the Schedule annexed to this Act, and designated by the Letter F, such Clerk so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds to any Person who may prosecute for the same.

XXXV. And he it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the Four Day of August next after the passing of this Act.

C A P. LIX.

An Act to regulate the Mode of taking the Poll at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Cities, Boroughs, and Ports in England and Wales. [18th July 1828.]

WHEREAS much Inconvenience hath arisen at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Cities, Boroughs, and Ports, from the Want of a sufficient Number of Booths and Polling Places, or Divisions thereof, for the Voters to poll at: And Whereas in many Instances the Duration of the Poll hath been vexatiously and unnecessarily protracted: And Whereas it is expedient to provide further Regulations respecting the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, at every Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City, Borough, Town, or Port in England or Wales, where the Number of Electors shall exceed Six hundred, if One or more Candidates beyond the Number which the City, Borough, Town, or Port is entitled to return as a Member or Members to serve in Parliament shall be put in Nomination, and a Poll demanded, the Returning Officer shall and he is hereby required, on the Requisition of any Candidate or his Agent, (such Requisition being in Writing, and agreed with the Names of such Candidate or his Agent,) to divide the Polling Place into Compartments according to the Number of Voters, so that, as nearly as can be calculated, there shall be a Compartment for every Six hundred Voters; and each Compartment shall be provided with sufficient and convenient Accommodation for the Poll Clerk, and for an Agent and Clerk for each of the Candidates, and also with a Gallery and separate Avenue for the Voters; and in all Cases where sufficient Space cannot be found in the Place where the Poll has been usually taken, the Returning Officer shall, when required as aforesaid, erect in some convenient Place as near as may be practicable to the Place where the Poll has been usually taken, and within the Precincts of the City, Borough, Town, or Port, a Polling Place or Booth, and shall divide it into Compartments in the Manner hereinbefore directed, and shall there take the Poll: Provided also, that to each Compartment the Returning Officer shall appoint a Clerk to take the Poll, and to administer to the Persons offering to vote (where required so to do by any Elector or Candidate, or Person acting on behalf of any Candidate) such Oaths as may by Law be required of them; and such Clerk shall receive a Sum not exceeding One Guinea per Day.

II. And be it enacted, That all reasonable Expenses of providing such Booths or Polling Places, and of paying such Poll Clerks as are hereinbefore mentioned, shall be defrayed by the Candidates in equal Portion; but if any Person shall be nominated as a Candidate, who if present shall not personally declare his Assent thereto at the Time such Nomination is made, or if not present shall not signify his Assent in Writing, addressed to the Returning Officer, before Proclamation of the Return is made, in such Case the Person putting such Candidate in Nomination shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be liable for the Payment of such Share of the Expense of providing Booths or Polling Places, and paying Poll Clerks, as the Candidate would have been liable to had the Nomination been assented to by him in the Manner hereinbefore directed.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That to prevent Delay or Obstruction in receiving Votes at the Place of polling, in consequence of Questions as to the Right of voting, the Returning Officer (or his Assessor) shall, at every Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City, Borough, Town, or Port in England or Wales, continue during the Time of polling in some convenient Place adjacent to that in which the Poll is taken, for the Purpose of deciding on the Validity of disputed Votes; and if the Vote of any Person shall be objected to by any Candidate or Person acting on his Behalf, the Poll shall not on that Account be delayed, but the Poll Clerk shall enter the Name of such Person on the Poll Book, but shall not then receive his Vote, and shall proceed to receive the Vote of the next Person who shall tender his Vote or offer to poll; and the Person whose Vote shall have been objected to shall be referred to the Returning Officer (or his Assessor), who shall decide with respect to the Validity of his Vote: Provided also, that the Returning Officer or Assessor shall keep a List of all Persons whose Votes are referred to him for Decision, and shall, in all Cases where the Votes are ready to be examined, proceed to decide with respect to the Validity of their Votes in the Order in which they have been referred to him.

IV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated An Act to limit the Duration of Polls and Scrutinies, and for making other Regulations touching the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Places within England and Wales,

• and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also for removing Difficulties which may arise for Want of Returns being made of Members to serve in Parliament, it is amongst other Things enacted, that from and after the first Day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, every Poll which shall be demanded at any Election for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough, or other Place within England, Wales, or for the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall commence on the Day upon which the same shall be demanded, or upon the next Day at farthest, unless it shall happen to be a Sunday, and then on the Day after, and shall be duly and regularly proceeded on from Day to Day (Sundays excepted) until the same shall be finished, but so that no Poll for the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament shall continue more than Fifteen Days at most (Sundays excepted); and if such Poll shall continue until the Fifteenth Day, the same shall be finally closed at or before Three in the Afternoon of the said Day: Be it enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as allows the Poll at any Election for a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City, Borough, Town, or Port within England, or for the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, to continue for Fifteen Days, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Polls to Close and Boroughs repeated.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Poll which shall be demanded at the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any City, Borough, Town, or Port in England or Wales, shall continue longer than Eight Days at most (Sundays excepted); and if such Poll shall continue until the Eighth Day, then the same shall be finally closed at or before the Hour of Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when the Poll shall finally be closed, and before Proclamation of the Return has been made, if any Candidate or his Agent, or Two Electors, shall certify to the Returning Officer that the Votes of any Persons offering to poll have been objected to, and referred to the Returning Officer or Assessor for Decision, in the Manner hereinafter directed, and that such Returning Officer or Assessor has not declared his Decision with respect to all such Votes, in that Case the Returning Officer shall not make Proclamation of the Return until Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Third Day following (unless he shall before that Time have decided on all such Votes as have been referred to him), but he (or his Assessor) shall continue to decide with respect to the Validity of such Votes in the Manner hereinafter directed, and shall cause the Names of all Persons whose Votes shall be adjudged valid to be added to the Polls: Provided always, that if at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Third Day following that on which the Poll shall have finally been closed there shall still remain any Votes on which no Decision has been made, the Returning Officer shall notwithstanding proceed forthwith to proclaim the Return.

Poll not to continue longer than Eight Days in Cities, Boroughs, or Towns.
Returning Officer not to make Proclamation of Return until he has decided on all objected Votes.

Provis.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That none of the Provisions of this Act shall extend to Scotland or Ireland, nor to the Cities of London or Westminster.

As to Scotland, Ireland, London, and Westminster.

C A P. LX.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn.

[15th July 1828.]

• WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to amend the Laws now in force for regulating the Importation of Corn: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn: And Whereas a certain Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to make Provision for ascertaining from time to time the Average Prices of British Corn: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should be repealed, and that new Provisions should be made in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Acts shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that all Acts or Parts of Acts, which by virtue of the above-recited Acts, or either of them, were repealed, shall still be deemed and taken to be and remain repealed: Provided also, that all Actions, Suits, and Prosecutions, now depending or hereafter to be brought for or by reason of any Breach or Non-performance of any of the Provisions of the said Acts, or for the Recovery of any Duties or Sums of Money payable under and by virtue of the same, shall and may be proceeded with, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this present Act had not been made.

32 G. 3. c. 25.

1 G. 4. c. 49.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 28.

Repealed Acts repealed.

II. And Whereas an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for granting Duties of Customs, whereby certain Duties were imposed on the Importation of Buck Wheat and Indian Corn: and it is expedient that the said Duties should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, as imposes Duties on the Importation of Buck Wheat and Indian Corn, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of 6 G. 4. c. 111. as imposes Duties on Buck Wheat and Indian Corn, repealed.

III. And Whereas it is expedient that Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour, the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of any Foreign Country, or of any British Possession out of Europe, should be allowed to be imported into the United Kingdom for Consumption, upon the Payment of Duties to be regulated from time to time according to the Average Price of British Corn made up and published in manner hereinafter required: Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be levied and paid to His Majesty, upon all Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour entered for Home Consumption in the United Kingdom from Ports beyond the Seas, the several Duties specified and set forth in the Table annexed to this Act: and that the said Duties shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in such and the same Manner in all respects

Foreign Corn may be imported on Payment of the Duties specified in the Table to this Act.

as the several Duties of Customs mentioned and enumerated in the Table of Duties of Customs heretofore annexed to the said Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, and by virtue and in pursuance of the several Powers and Privileges in that Act contained, and not otherwise.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour shall be shipped from any Port in any British Possession out of Europe, as being the Produce of any such Possession, until the Owner or Proprietor or Skipper thereof shall have made and subscribed, before the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Shipment, a Declaration in Writing, specifying the Quantity of each Sort of such Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour, and that the same was the Produce of some British Possession out of Europe to be named in such Declaration, nor until such Owner or Proprietor or Skipper shall have obtained from the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the said Port a Certificate, under his Signature, of the Quantity of Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour so declared to be shipped; and before any Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour shall be received at any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, as being the Produce of any British Possession out of Europe, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at the Port or Place of Importation a Copy of such Declaration, certified to be a true and accurate Copy thereof under the Hand of the Collector and other Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Shipment before whom the same was made, together with the Certificate, signed by the said Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs, of the Quantity of Corn so declared to be shipped; and each Master shall also make and subscribe, before the Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at the Port or Place of Importation, a Declaration in Writing, that the several Quantities of Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour on board each Ship, and proposed to be entered under the Authority of such Declaration, are the same that were mentioned and referred to in the Declaration and Certificate produced by him, without any Addition or Addition; and if any Person shall, in any such Declaration, wilfully and corruptly make any false Statement respecting the Place of which any such Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour was the Produce, or respecting the Identity of any such Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour, such Person shall become and become liable to pay to His Majesty the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and the Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour to such Person belonging, on board any such Ship, shall also be forfeited, and such Forfeitures shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and applied in such and the same Manner in all respects as any Forfeiture incurred under and by virtue of the said Act as passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign: Provided always, that the Declarations aforesaid shall not be required in respect of any Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour which shall have been shipped within Three Months next after the passing of this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to import, from Parts beyond the Seas into the United Kingdom, for Consumption there, any Mail, or to import, for Consumption, into Great Britain, any Corn ground, except Wheat Meal, Wheat Flour, and Oatmeal; or to export, for Consumption, any Corn ground into Ireland; and that if any such Article as aforesaid shall be imported contrary to the Provisions aforesaid, the same shall be forfeited.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall, once in each Calendar Month, cause to be published in the London Gazette an Account of the Total Quantity of each Sort of the Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour respectively, which shall have been imported into the United Kingdom; and also an Account of the Total Quantity of each Sort of the Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour respectively, upon which the Duties of Importation shall have been paid in the United Kingdom during the Calendar Month next preceding; together with an Account of the Total Quantity of each Sort of the said Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour respectively remaining in Warehouse at the End of such next preceding Calendar Month.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that any Foreign State or Power hath subjected British Vessels, at any Port within the Dominions of such State or Power, to any other or higher Duties or Charges whatever than are levied on National Vessels at any such Port, or hath subjected, at any such Port, Goods the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any of His Majesty's Dominions, when imported from any of such Dominions in British Vessels, to any other or higher Duties or Charges whatever than are levied on such or the like Goods, of whatever Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, when so imported in National Vessels, or both subjected, at any Port or Place within the Dominions of such Foreign State or Power, any Article of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions, when imported from any of such Dominions in British Vessels, or in National Vessels, to any Duties or Charges which would not be payable on the like Article being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any other Country, and imported from such other Country in National Vessels; or that any such Foreign State or Power hath granted any Bounties, Drawbacks, or Allowances upon the Exportation from any Port or Place within the Dominions thereof of any Article the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Dominions of any other Foreign State or Power, which hath not also been granted upon the Exportation from such Port or Place of such or the like Articles, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of His Majesty's Dominions; then and in any of the Cases aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by Him made, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to prohibit the Importation of all or of any Sort of Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour from the Dominions of any such Foreign State or Power; and it shall also be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke and to renew any such Orders or Order as aforesaid, as there shall be Occasion.

VIII. * And

Regulations to be entered upon shipping Corn from any British Possession out of Europe.

Regulations as to Corn imported by Importation.

Penalty for importing Mail or ground Corn, except as aforesaid.

Account of Corn and Flour imported, of the Duties paid, and of the Quantity in Warehouse to be published in the Gazette Monthly.

If any Foreign State shall subject British Vessels, Goods, &c. to any higher Duties or Charges than are levied on the Vessels, &c. of other Countries, His Majesty may prohibit the Importation of Corn from such State.

VIII. And Whereas it is necessary, for regulating the Amount of such Duties, that effectual Provision should be made for ascertaining from time to time the Average Prices of British Corn; Be it therefore enacted, That Weekly Returns of the Purchases and Sales of British Corn shall be made in the Manner hereinafter directed, to the following Cities and Towns; that is to say, London, Uxbridge, Hoxford, Kingston, Chelmsford, Colchester, Romford, Merton, Canterbury, Dartford, Clitheroe, Gainsford, Lewes, Rye, Bedford, Windsor, Aylesbury, Ipswich, Woodbridge, Sudbury, Havering, Hadleigh, Stowmarket, Bury, Saint Edmunds, Barchin, Basing, Lymington, Cambridge, Ely, Walsingham, Norwich, Yarmouth, Lynn, Thetford, Watton, Diss, East Dereham, Hasleholme, Holt, Aylsham, Fakenham, North Walsham, Lincoln, Grimsby, Grimsby Bridge, Louth, Boston, Skegness, Stamford, Spalding, Dork, Northampton, Leicester, Nottingham, Worcester, Coventry, Reading, Oxford, Walsfield, Warrington, Birmingham, Leeds, Newcastle, York, Bridlington, Beverley, Hornsea, Skidbald, Hull, Wurtly, New Malton, Darham, Stockton, Darlington, Sunderland, Barnard Castle, Middlesburgh, Belford, Mowbray, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Marsey, Alnwick, Berwick-upon-Tweed, Carlisle, Whitby, Cattermole, Peterborough, Epsom, Aylesbury, Killybegs, Keadell, Lispey, Ulverston, Lancaster, Preston, Wigan, Warrington, Manchester, Bolton, Chester, Northwich, Middlewich, Four Lane Ends, Denbigh, Wrexham, Corwen, Hanford, Winc, Carmarthen, Cardiff, Gloucester, Cirencester, Tisbury, Marlborough, Tisbury, Bristol, Taunton, Wells, Bridgwater, Frome, Chard, Mowbray, Abington, Clifton, Port of Spain, Exeter, Barnstaple, Plymouth, Tynan, Trowick, Kingsbridge, Truro, Brixton, Looe, Falmouth, Falmouth, Saint Aust, Blandford, Blandford, Dorchester, Sherborne, Melton, Woking, Wokingham, Andover, Basingstoke, Fareham, Havant, Newport, Alton, Southampton, Portsmouth; and for the Purpose of duly collecting and transmitting such Weekly Returns as aforesaid, there shall be appointed in each of the said Cities and Towns, in manner hereinafter directed, a fit and proper Person to be Inspector of Corn Returns.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of Corn Returns, and each and every Inspector of Corn Returns, or other Person who at or immediately before the Time when this Act shall come into Operation, shall hold any Office or Appointment under and by virtue of the Act so passed as aforesaid in the Seventh and Eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, or who shall be discharging any Duties required of him by such last-mentioned Act, shall and he is hereby authorized and required forthwith to act in such his Office or Appointment under and by virtue of this present Act, and to discharge the several Duties of and belonging to such his former Office or Appointment, in such and the same Manner and as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if he had been appointed to such his Office or Appointment as aforesaid under and by virtue of this present Act; and that the Person appointed to act as Inspector of Corn Returns for the City of London, under the Act so passed as aforesaid in the Seventh and Eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall, without further Appointment, continue to act as such Inspector under this Act, until he shall die or resign such his Office, or be removed therefrom by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London in manner aforesaid.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the said Comptroller of Corn Returns shall at any Time see Cause to believe that any Return so to be made as aforesaid in any such Inspector of Corn Returns for the City of London, or for any other such City or Town as aforesaid, is fraudulent or untrue, the said Comptroller shall and he is hereby required, with all convenient Expedition, to lay before the Lords of the said Committee of Privy Council a Statement of the Grounds of such his Belief; and if, upon Consideration of any such Statement, the said Lords of the said Committee shall direct the said Comptroller to visit any such Return in the Computation of such aggregate Weekly Average Price as aforesaid, then and in that Case, but not otherwise, the said Comptroller of Corn Returns shall and he is hereby authorized to visit any such Return in the Computation of such aggregate Weekly Average Price.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Corn Factor, Dealer, or other Person, who at or previously to the Time when this present Act shall come into Operation shall have made the Declaration required of him in and by the said Act so passed as aforesaid in the Seventh and Eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall and he or she is hereby required forthwith to make all such Returns touch several Inspectors of Corn Returns as aforesaid, and to perform and do all such Acts, Matters, and Things, and to comply with and observe all such Rules and Regulations, as are hereby required or directed of or in regard to Persons who have made any Declaration required of them in and by the present Act, although he or she may not have actually made such last-mentioned Declaration.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller of Corn Returns shall and he is hereby authorized from time to time, in pursuance of any Instructions which he shall receive in that Behalf from the Lords of the said Committee of Privy Council, to issue to the several Inspectors of Corn Returns any general or special Directions respecting the Inspection by any Person or Persons of the Books as directed as aforesaid to be kept by every such Inspector of Corn Returns; and no such Inspector as aforesaid shall permit or suffer any Person to inspect any such Book, or to peruse or transcribe any Entry therein, except in compliance with some such general or special Directions from the said Comptroller of Corn Returns as aforesaid.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That each and every Inspector of Corn Returns shall and he is hereby required on each and every Market Day to put up or cause to be put up in the Market Place of the City or Town for which he shall be appointed Inspecting, or if there shall be no Market Place in such City or Town, then in some other conspicuous Place therein, a Copy of the last Return made by him to the Comptroller of Corn Returns, omitting the Names of the Person who may have sold and bought the said Corn; and every such Inspector shall also again put up such Account on the Market Day immediately following that on which it shall first have been put up, in case the same shall from Accident or any other Cause have been removed, and shall take due Care that the same shall remain up for public Inspection until a new Account for the ensuing Week shall have been prepared and set up.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by any Warrant or Warrants to be for that Purpose from time to time made and issued, to settle and allow such reasonable and moderate Salaries as shall be paid and payable to the said several Inspectors of Corn Returns for the City of London, and for the several other Cities and Towns aforesaid, for and in consideration of the Duties so to be performed by them; provided that the Salary so to be allowed to the Inspector of Corn Returns in and for the City of London shall not in any One Year exceed the Sum of Three hundred Pounds, in consideration of which Salary he shall and is hereby required to keep and maintain a proper and convenient Apartment or Place of Business at or near to the said Corn Exchange in Mark Lane, for transacting the Duties of such his Office, and to defray all incidental Charges and Expenses of and attendant upon such his Office: Provided also, that the Salary to be granted to any Inspector of Corn Returns of any other of the Cities and Towns aforesaid shall not exceed Fifty Pounds in any One Year for such Inspection.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the Salaries aforesaid shall be paid by the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs or of the Excise in or for the City or Town for which such and every of the said Inspectors respectively may be so appointed, by Four Quarterly Payments; provided that no such Quarterly Payments aforesaid shall be made, unless the Inspector of Corn Returns, claiming the same shall first produce and deliver to such Collector, or other Chief Officer of the Customs or Excise, a Certificate under the Hand of the Comptroller of Corn Returns, certifying that such Inspector hath duly made the Returns required of him by this present Act during the Period in respect of which any such such Payment is to be made, and which Certificate such Comptroller is hereby required, on the Application of any such Inspector as aforesaid, to grant, unless any such Inspector shall, without good and sufficient Cause, have neglected or omitted to make such Return as aforesaid, or some of them: Provided also, that if the Duties of the said Office of Inspector of Corn Returns for the City of London shall, during any such Quarter of a Year as aforesaid, have been discharged wholly or in part by a Deputy, the Comptroller of Corn Returns shall in such Certificate as aforesaid specify the Length of Time during which such Deputy hath so acted, and the whole or a proportionate Part, on the Case may be, of any such Quarterly Payment, shall to that Case be paid to the said Deputy; and if the Duties of Inspector of Corn Returns for any other of the Cities and Towns aforesaid shall during any such Quarter of a Year be performed successively by Two or more Persons, the Comptroller of Corn Returns shall in like Manner specify the Length of Time during which each such Person hath so performed the said Duties, and a proportionate Part of any such Quarterly Payment shall in that Case be paid to the several Persons respectively performing the said Duties.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who is hereby required to make and deliver the Declaration or Declarations herebefore particularly mentioned and set forth, or either of them, shall not make and deliver such Declaration or Declarations at the Time, and in the Form and Manner, and to the Person or Persons, herebefore directed and prescribed in that behalf, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each and every Calendar Month during which he shall neglect or delay to make and deliver any such Declaration; and if any Person who is herebefore required to make any Return to any such Inspector of Corn Returns as aforesaid shall not make such Return to such Inspector, at the Time and in the Form and Manner herebefore directed and prescribed, every such Offender shall for each his Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Penalties aforesaid shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered by and to the Use of any Person who will sue for the same, before any Two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the City, Town, County, Riding, or Division within which the Offender shall have been committed; and upon Conviction of any such Offender before any such Justices of the Peace, either by the Confession of the Party offending, or by the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Justices are hereby authorized to administer), the Amount of such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be levied, together with the Costs attending the Information and Conviction, to be assessed and allowed by such Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices (which Warrant such Justices are hereby empowered and required to grant); and the Oath(s) if any, after such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, are deducted, shall be returned, upon Demand, unto the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels; and in case such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, then it shall be lawful for such Justices to order the Offender or Offenders so convicted to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the Offender or Offenders shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justices, for his or their Appearance before such Justices on each Day or Days as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, each Day or Days not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Justices are hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the Return of such Warrant it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had thereupon, then it shall be lawful for any such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, to cause each Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the City, Town, County, Riding, or Division where the Offender shall be or reside, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Fines, Penalties, and Fines, and all reasonable Charges attending the same, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee of Privy Council, by any Order to be made by them, and issued under the Hands of One of the Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, to vary the Proceedings upon any Information before any such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, for the Penalties aforesaid, or any of them, and that it shall also be lawful for any Justices of the Peace before whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act, if he or they shall think proper, to mitigate or reduce the Penalty incurred by such Person, so as such Mitigation or Mitigation do not exceed Two Thirds of the Penalty to which such Person would be liable under this Act.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before any Justices of the Peace, touching any Matter of Fact contained in any Information or Complaint for any Offence against this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecutors or of the Person or Persons accused, shall, after a reasonable Sum of Money for his or her Charges and Expenses shall have been paid or been tendered to him or her, refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for his, her, or their Neglect, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath and give Evidence before such Justices of the Peace, then and in either of such Cases such Person shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be recovered in the Manner herebefore provided for the Recovery of the several Penalties aforesaid.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall make any false and fraudulent Statement in any such Return as he is herebefore directed and required to make, or shall falsely and wilfully

An Act to regulate the granting of Licences to Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses, in England. [15th July 1828.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce into One Act the Laws relative to the Licensing, by Justices of the Peace, of Persons keeping or being about to keep Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses, to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Division of every County and Riding, and of every Division of the County of Lincoln, and in every Hundred of every County, not being within any such Division, and in every Liberty, Division of every Liberty, County of a City, County of a Town, City, and Town Corporate, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, there shall be annually holden a Special Session of the Justices of the Peace (to be called the General Annual Licensing Meeting), for the Purpose of granting Licences to Persons keeping or being about to keep Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses, to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises therein specified; and that such Meetings shall be holden in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey within the First Ten Days of the Month of March, and in every other County on some Day between the Twentieth Day of August and the Fourteenth Day of September inclusive; and that it shall be lawful for the Justices acting in and for such County or Place assembled at such Meeting, or at any Adjournment thereof, and not so hereinafter disqualified from acting, to grant Licences, for the Purpose aforesaid, to such Persons as they the said Justices shall, in the Execution of the Powers herein contained, and in the Exercise of their Discretion, deem fit and proper.

II. And be it further enacted, That in every such Division or Place as aforesaid there shall be holden, Twenty-one Days at the least before such such General Annual Licensing Meeting, a Petty Session of the Justices acting for such County or Place, the Majority of whom then present shall, by a Precept under their Hands, appoint the Day, Hour, and Place upon and in which such General Annual Licensing Meeting for such Division or Place shall be holden; and shall direct such Precept to the High Constable of the Division or Place for which such Meeting is to be holden, requiring him, within Five Days next ensuing that on which he shall have received such Precept, to order the several Petty Constables or other Peace Officers within his Constablenick to affix, or cause to be affixed on the Door of the Church or Chapel, and where there shall be no Church or Chapel, on some other public and conspicuous Place within their respective Districts, a Notice of the Day, Hour, and Place at which such Meeting is appointed to be holden, and to give to or to leave at the Dwelling House of each and every Justice acting for such Division or Place, and of each and every Person keeping an Inn, or who shall have given Notice of his Intention to keep an Inn, and to apply for a Licence to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, within their respective Districts, a Copy of such Notice.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices acting at the General Annual Licensing Meeting, and they are hereby required, to continue such Meeting by Adjournment, to such Day or Days, and to such Place or Places within the Division or Place for which such Meeting shall be holden, as such Justices may deem most convenient and sufficient for enabling Persons keeping Inns within such Division or Place to apply for such Licences: Provided nevertheless, that the adjourned Meeting to be holden next after such General Annual Licensing Meeting shall not be so holden in or upon any of the Five Days next ensuing that on which such General Annual Licensing Meeting shall have been holden as aforesaid; and that every Adjournment of the said General Annual Licensing Meeting shall be holden within the Month of March in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and of August or September in every other County.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Justices assembled at the General or Quarter Session which shall be holden at Nicholson next after the passing of this Act, and at the General Annual Licensing Meeting

open and keep as an Inn some other fit and convenient House, a Licence to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed therein: Provided always, that every such Licence shall continue in force only from the Day on which it shall be granted until the Fifth Day of April, or the Tenth Day of October next ensuing, as the Case may be: Provided also, that every Person intending to apply, in any of the above-mentioned Cases, at any such Special Session for a Licence to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in a House or Premises thereto belonging, in which excisable Liquors shall not have been sold by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, by virtue of a Licence granted at the General Annual Licensing Meeting next before such Special Session, shall, on some one Sunday within the Six Weeks next before such Special Session, at some Time between the Hours of Ten in the Forenoon and of Four in the Afternoon, affix or cause to be affixed on the Door of such House, and on the Door of the Church or Chapel of the Parish or Place in which such House shall be situate, and where there shall be no Church or Chapel, on some other public and conspicuous Place within such Parish or Place, such and the like Notice as is heretofore directed to be affixed by every Person intending to apply at the General Annual Licensing Meeting for a Licence to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in a House not theretofore kept as an Inn, and shall in like Manner serve Copies of the said Notice on one of the Overseers of the Poor, and on one of the Constables or other Peace Officers of such Parish or Place.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the Justices, as well as the General Annual Licensing Meeting as also at any Special Session to be holden under this Act, to demand and receive from every Person to whom a Licence shall be granted under this Act, for the Trouble of such Clerk, and for all Expenses connected therewith, the Sums following, and no more; to-wit: for the Party Constable or other Peace Officer, for serving Notices, and for all other Services hereby required of such Petty Constable or other Peace Officer, the Sum of One Shilling; for the Clerk of the Justices, for the Licence, the Sum of Five Shillings; and for preparing the Process, to be directed to the High Constable, and Notices to be delivered by the Petty Constable, as required by this Act, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence; and every such Clerk, who shall demand or receive from any Person for such respective Fees in this behalf any greater Sum or any thing of greater Value than the Sums herein-before specified, being in the whole the Sum of Seven Shillings and Sixpence, shall for every such Offence, on Conviction before One Justice, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Sheriff's Officer, or Officer executing the legal Process of any Court of Justice in any County or Place, shall be capable of receiving or using any Licence under this Act, and that every Licence granted or transferred to any Person exercising any such Office shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Licence for the Sale of any excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises of the Person licensed, shall be granted by the Commissioners of Excise, or by any Officer of Excise, to any Person whatsoever, unless such Person shall have previously obtained from the Justices a Licence under this Act, and which and Licence of such Justices shall be received by such Person after being produced to the Commissioners or Officers of Excise; and every Licence granted by the Commissioners of Excise, or by any Officer of Excise, contrary to this Provision, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall sell, barter, exchange, or for valuable Consideration otherwise dispose of, any excisable Liquor by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in his House or Premises, or shall permit or suffer any excisable Liquor to be sold, bartered, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of for valuable Consideration, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in his House or Premises, without being duly licensed so to do, and that every Person, being duly licensed, who shall sell, barter, exchange, or for valuable Consideration otherwise dispose of, or shall permit or suffer to be sold, bartered, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of for valuable Consideration, any excisable Liquor by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in his House or Premises, not being the House or Premises specified in such Licence; shall respectively for every such Offence, on Conviction before One Justice, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty nor less than Five Pounds, together with the Costs of the Conviction: Provided always, That no Penalty for such Sale, Barter, Exchange, or other Disposal of any such Liquor by Retail without Licence, shall be incurred by the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of any Person licensed under this Act, who shall die, become bankrupt, or take the Benefit of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, before the Expiration of his Licence, so as such Sale, Barter, Exchange, or other Disposal of such Liquor, be made in the House or Premises specified in such Licence, and take place prior to the Special Session then next ensuing, unless such Special Session shall be holden within Fourteen Days next after the Death, Bankruptcy, or Insolvency of the said Person, and in any such Case to the Special Session which shall be holden next after such Special Session aforesaid.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Person hereby licensed to sell excisable Liquors by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in his House or Premises, shall, if required, sell or otherwise dispose of all such Liquors by Retail therein (except in Quantities less than a Half Pint), by the Gallon, Quart, Pint, or Half Pint Measure, sized according to the Standard, and shall also, if required by any Guest or Customer purchasing such Liquor, retail the same in a Vessel sized according to such Standard; and in default thereof he shall for every such Offence forfeit the legal Measure, and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, together with the Costs of the Conviction, to be recovered within Thirty Days next after that on which such Offence was committed, before any One Justice; and such Penalty shall be over and above all Penalties to which the Offender may be liable under any other Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices sitting for any County or Place where any Riot or Tumult shall happen or be expected to take place, to order or direct that every Person licensed under this Act, and keeping any house situate within their respective Jurisdictions in or near the Place where such Riot or Tumult shall happen or be expected to take place, shall close his House at any Time which the said Justices shall order or direct; and every such Person who shall keep open his House at or after any Hour at which such Justices shall have so ordered or directed such House to be closed, shall be taken and deemed to have not maintained good Order and Rule therein.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person licensed under this Act, who shall be convicted before Two Justices, acting in and for the Division or Place in which shall be situate the House kept or otherwise kept by such Person, of any Offence against the Tenor of the Licence to him granted, shall, unless Proof be adduced to the Satisfaction of such Justices, that such Person had been theretofore convicted before Two Justices within the Space of the Three Years next preceding of some Offence against the Tenor of the Licence subsisting at the Time when such last-mentioned Offence was committed, be adjudged by such Justices to be guilty of a First Offence against the Provisions of this Act relative to the Maintenance of good Order and Rule, and to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, together with the Costs of the Conviction; but if Proof shall be adduced to the Satisfaction of such Justices, that such Person had been previously convicted before Two Justices, within the Space of the Three Years next preceding, of One Offence only against the Tenor of the Licence subsisting at the Time when such last-mentioned Offence was committed, such Person shall be adjudged by such Justices to be guilty of a Second Offence against the Provisions of this Act as aforesaid, and to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, together with the Costs of the Conviction; but if Proof shall be adduced to the Satisfaction of such Justices, that such Person had been previously convicted before Two Justices, within the Space of the Three Years next preceding, of Two separate Offences against the Tenor of the Licence subsisting at the Times when such last-mentioned Offences were committed, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, and they are hereby required, to adjourn the further Consideration of the Charge as made against such Person as aforesaid to the Special Session to be then next holden under this Act for the Division or Place in which shall be situate the House kept by such Person, or to the General Annual Licensing Meeting for the said Division or Place, if such Meeting shall take place before any such Special Session shall be holden; and such Justices shall issue their Summons to the Person so charged, to appear at such Special Session or at such General Annual Licensing Meeting, then and there to answer to the Matter of such Charge; and shall bid the Person who shall make such Charge, and any other Person who shall have any Knowledge of the Circumstances thereof, in a sufficient Recognizance, to appear at such Special Session or at such General Annual Licensing Meeting, then and there to prosecute and to give Evidence upon such Charge; and if Proof shall be adduced to the Satisfaction of the Justices assembled at such Special Session or at such General Annual Licensing Meeting, that such Person is charged in guilty of the Offence with which he is so charged, such Person shall be adjudged to be guilty of a Third Offence against the Provisions of this Act as aforesaid, and to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, together with the Costs of the Conviction; Provided always, that if at any Time before the Hearing of any such last-mentioned Charge, the Justices assembled as aforesaid shall in their Discretion think fit to direct that the Hearing of such Charge shall be adjourned to the General or Quarter Session of the Peace then next ensuing, there to be enquired of by a Jury, or if the Person so charged shall, in Writing under his Hand, request the said Justices to direct that the Hearing of such Charge shall be so adjourned as aforesaid, the said Justices are hereby required to direct that the Hearing of such Charge shall be so adjourned, provided that the Person who shall have made such Request shall, before such Justices so assembled, forthwith enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, personally to appear at the said General or Quarter Session, and to try such Charge, and to shew the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and the said Justices are hereby required to bind in a Recognizance to appear at such General or Quarter Session as aforesaid, then and there to give Evidence against the Person so charged, the Person who shall make such Charge, and any other Person who shall have any Knowledge of the Circumstances thereof; and it shall be lawful for the said Court of General or Quarter Session to direct a Jury then and there duly impeached to be sworn to enquire of the Offence so charged to have been committed, and upon their Verdict of "Guilty," to adjudge such Person to be guilty of a Third Offence against the Provisions of this Act as aforesaid, and such Verdict and Adjudication shall be final to all Intents and Purposes; and to punish such Offender by Fine, not exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or to adjudge the Licence granted to and held by or on behalf of such Offender to be forfeited and void, or to punish such Offender by such Fine as aforesaid, and to adjudge such Licence to be forfeited and void, and if such Offender shall be adjudged to be forfeited and void, it shall thenceforth be void accordingly; and every Excise Licence for selling any excisable Liquors by Retail, then held by or on behalf of such Offender, shall also be void; and if the Licensor of such Offender shall be so adjudged to be void, such Offender shall, from and after such last-mentioned Adjudication, be deemed and taken to be incapable of selling excisable Liquors by Retail in any Inn kept by him for the Space of Three Years, to be computed from the Time of such Adjudication; and any Licence granted to such Person during such Term shall be void to all Intents and Purposes; Provided also, that the Court may, upon sufficient Cause shewn, adjourn the Hearing of such Charge to the then next General or Quarter Session of the Peace, when the same shall be finally determined.

XXII. And

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which the Justices assembled at any Special Session or at any General Annual Licensing Meeting shall direct that the Charge against any Person licensed under this Act shall be adjourned to the General or Quarter Session, it shall be lawful for such Justices, if no other fit and proper Person shall appear to prosecute such Charge, and to carry on such Proceedings as may be necessary to obtain at such Session an Adjournment thereon, to order that the Constable or other Peace Officer of the Parish or Place in which shall be created the Hears kept by the Person so charged, shall carry on all Proceedings necessary to obtain such Adjournment as aforesaid, and so long such Constable or other Peace Officer is a sufficient Recognizance so to do; and it shall be lawful for the Justices before whom such Charge shall have been heard, to order the Treasurer of the County or Place in and for which such Justices shall then act, to pay to such Constable or other Peace Officer, and to the Witness or Witnesses on his Behalf, such Sum or Sums of Money as to the Court shall appear to be sufficient to reimburse such Constable or other Peace Officer, and such Witness or Witnesses respectively, the Expenses that he or they shall have been severally put to in and about such Prosecution; which Order the Clerk of the Peace is hereby directed and required forthwith to make out and to deliver to such Constable or other Peace Officer, or to such Witness or Witnesses; and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized and required, upon Sight of such Order, forthwith to pay to such Constable or other Peace Officer, or other Person authorized to receive the same, such Money as aforesaid, and the said Treasurer shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

Proceedings at the Sessions in remote Cases are to be carried on by the Peace Constable.

Expenses of Prosecution in the adjourned County Cases.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before any Justice touching any of the Matters aforesaid, either on the Part of the Complainant or of the Person accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place for that Purpose appointed, and who shall not make such reasonable Excuse for such Neglect or Refusal as shall be admitted and allowed by such Justice, or who appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath or Affirmation and give Evidence, every such Person shall on Conviction before such Justice forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalty on Witnesses not attending.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Penalty and Forfeiture imposed by this Act upon any Justice may be used for and recovered by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and one Moiety of every such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be paid to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him who shall sue for the same.

Penalties on Justices here to be recovered and applied.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which, under the Authority of this Act, any Justice shall adjudge that any Offender shall pay or cause to be paid any Penalty, and such Offender shall refuse or neglect forthwith, or within such Period as such Justice shall appoint, to pay such Penalty and any Costs which shall have been duly assessed and ascertained by such Justice, it shall be lawful for such Justice, if he shall think fit, to issue his Warrant, and to levy the Amount of such Penalty and Costs by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale; and in every such Case such Offender, if in Custody at the Time that such Warrant shall be so issued, shall be forthwith discharged, but if it shall appear to such Justice that the Goods and Chattels of such Offender are not sufficient wherewith to levy such Distress, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or to the House of Correction of the County or Place for which such Justice shall be then acting, for any Term not exceeding One Calendar Month, if the Penalty shall not be above Five Pounds; for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, if the Penalty shall be above Five Pounds, and shall not be more than Ten Pounds; and for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months, if the Penalty shall be above Ten Pounds: Provided nevertheless, that whenever such Offender shall have been committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, in consequence of his not having duly paid such Penalty and Costs, such Offender shall, if he pay or cause to be paid to the Keeper or Keeper of the House of Correction, or to whomever such Justice shall have appointed, the Penalty imposed, and Costs, together with all the Costs of the Apprehension of him, and of the Conveyance of him to the said Gaol or House of Correction, at any Time previous to the Expiration of the Time for which such Offender shall so have been committed, be forthwith discharged.

Other Penalties how to be recovered.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice, before whom any Penalty shall be recovered under the Provisions of this Act to award, if he shall think fit, any Portion of the same, not in any Case exceeding One Moiety thereof, to the Use of the Prosecutor, and the Remainder to the Treasurer of the County or Place for which such Justice shall then act; and the said Treasurer shall place the same to the Credit of such County or Place, and shall duly account for the same.

Part Penalties are to be applied.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any Act of any Justice, done in or concerning the Execution of this Act, may appeal against such Act to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace holden for the County or Place wherein the Cause of such Complaint shall have arisen, unless such Session shall be holden within Twelve Days next after such Act shall have been done, and in that Case to the next subsequent Session holden at aforesaid, and not afterwards, provided that such Person shall give to such Justice Notice in Writing of his Intention to appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, within Five Days next after such Act shall have been done, and Seven Days at the least before such Session, and shall within such Five Days enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, before a Justice acting in and for such County or Place as aforesaid, conditioned to appear at the said Session, and to try such Appeal, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court adjudged; and upon such Notice being given, and such Recognizance being entered into, the Justice before whom the same shall be entered may shall liberate such Person if in Custody for any Offence in reference to which the Act intended to be appealed against shall have been done: and the Court at such Session shall hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and shall make such Order therein, with or without Costs, as to the said Court shall seem meet: and in case the Act appealed against shall be the Refusal to grant or to transfer any License, and the Judgment under which such Act was done be reversed, it shall be lawful for the said Court to grant or to transfer such License, in the same Manner as if such License had been granted or the General Annual Licensing Meeting, or had been transferred at a Special Session; and the Judgment of the said Court shall be final and conclusive in all Intests and Purposes; and in case of the Dissuall of such Appellant, or the Affirmance of the Judgment on which such Act was done, and which was appealed against, the said Court shall adjudge and order the said Judgment to be carried into Execution, and Costs as ordered to be paid, and shall if necessary issue Process for enforcing such Order: provided that no Justice shall act in the Hearing or Determination of any Appeal to the Central or Quarter Sessions as aforesaid from any Act done by him in or concerning the Execution of this Act: Provided also, that when any Cause of Complaint shall have arisen within any Liberty, County of a City, County of a Town, City, or Town Corporate, it shall be lawful for the Person who shall think himself so as aforesaid aggrieved in appeal against any such Act as aforesaid, if he shall think fit, to the Quarter Sessions of the County within or adjoining to which such Liberty or Place shall be situate, subject to all the Provisions hereinafter contained.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Person shall have given Notice of his Intention to appeal as aforesaid, and shall have entered into Recognizance as hereinafter directed, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom such Recognizance shall have been entered into to summon any Person whose Evidence shall appear to him to be material, and to require such Person to be bound to Recognizance to appear at the said Central or Quarter Sessions, and to give Evidence in such Appeal; and in case any such Person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to obey such Summons, or shall refuse to enter into such Recognizance, it shall be lawful for such Justice as aforesaid to issue his Warrant to apprehend such Person so neglecting or refusing to obey such Summons, and to bring him before such Justice, and, if such Person shall continue to refuse to enter into such Recognizance, to commit him to the common Goal or House of Correction of the County or Place for which such Justice shall be then acting, there to remain until he shall enter into such Recognizance, or shall be otherwise discharged by due Course of Law.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where Notice of Appeal against the Judgment of any Justice in or concerning the Execution of this Act shall have been given, and such Appeal shall have been dismissed, or the Judgment so appealed against shall have been affirmed, or such Appeal shall have been abandoned, it shall be lawful for the Court to whom such Appeal shall have been made or intended to be made, and such Court is hereby required, to adjudge and order that the Party so having appealed, or given Notice of his Intention to appeal, shall pay to the Justice to whom such Notice shall have been given, or to whomsoever he shall appoint, such Sum, by way of Costs, as shall in the Opinion of such Court be sufficient to indemnify such Justice from all Cost and Charge whatsoever to which such Justice may have been put in consequence of his having had served upon him Notice of the Intention of such Party to appeal: and if such Party shall refuse or neglect forthwith to pay such Sum, it shall be lawful for the said Court to adjudge and order that the Party so refusing or neglecting shall be committed to the common Goal or House of Correction, there to remain until such Sum be paid; and that in every Case in which the Judgment so appealed against shall be reversed, it shall be lawful for such Court, if it shall think fit, to adjudge and order that the Treasurer of the County or Place in and for which such Justice whose Judgment shall have been so reversed shall have acted on the Occasion when he shall have given such Judgment, shall pay to such Justice, or to whomsoever he shall appoint, such Sum as shall, in the Opinion of such Court, be sufficient to indemnify such Justice from all Costs and Charges whatsoever, to which such Justice may have been so put: and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same, which shall be allowed to him in his Accounts.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Action against any Justice, Constable, or other Person, for or on account of any Matter or Thing whatsoever done or commanded by him in the Execution of his Duty or Office under this Act, shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Cause of Action or Complaint shall have arisen, and not afterwards; and if any Person shall be sued for any Matter or Thing which he shall have done in the Execution of this Act, he may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Conviction under this Act shall be on the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses: and that any Justice, not so heretofore disqualified, and acting in and for the County or Place in which the Offence complained of shall have been committed, is hereby authorized to administer the same.

XXII. And in order to prevent frivolous and vexatious Appeals, be it further enacted, That a Conviction in the Form or to the Effect following, namely, verdictum, as the Case may be, shall be good and effectual to all Intests and Purposes whatsoever, without stating the Case, or the Facts or Evidence, in any more particular Manner; that is to say, XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Justice before whom any such Conviction shall have been made shall return the same, or cause it to be returned, to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden for the County or Place wherein the Offence shall have been committed; and it shall be then and there delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, or other Person acting as such, to be by him filed or enrolled amongst the Records of the said Court; and the Certificate of the Clerk of the Peace of such Conviction, which he is hereby required to grant on Demand upon Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, shall be legal Evidence of every such Conviction.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Conviction under this Act, nor any Adjudication made on Appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for want of Form, or be removed, by Writ of Certiorari or otherwise, into any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Record; and no Warrant of Commitment shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, provided it be therein alleged that the Party has been convicted, and that there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence on the Tenth Day of October next ensuing the passing thereof; and that from and after the Commencement of this Act, as Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, intitled An Act for Keepers of Alehouses and Tyingling Houses to be bound by Regulations; and an Act passed in the First Year of the reign of King James the First, intitled An Act to restrain the unlicensed brewing and Tyingling in Inns, Alehouses, and other Tyingling Houses; and Two Acts passed in the Fourth Year of the same Reign, the one intitled An Act to restrain the Licences of Beer and Ale to Alehouse Keepers and Tyingling men licensed; and the other intitled An Act for repressing the selling and hawkinging of Drunkenness; and an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for Reformation of Alehouse Keepers; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for the better repressing of Drunkenness, and restraining the unlicensed hawkinging of Ale, Alehouses, and other Tyingling Houses, as provides, that any Person being an Alehouse Keeper, and who shall be convicted of any Offence against the said Act, shall be disabled from keeping an Alehouse for Three Years; and an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, intitled An Act for the further Reformation of Tyingling in Inns, Alehouses, and other Tyingling Houses; and an Act passed in the Third Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for better repressing of unlicensed Alehouse Keepers; and so much of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, for laying a Duty upon the retailers of Spirituous Liquors, and for licensing the Retailers thereof, as relates to the licensing of such Retailers, and to the Conviction of Persons selling Liquors by Retail without a Licence, and to the summing up of Excise Officers, for the more easy Discovery of such Offenders; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the same Reign, for granting an additional Duty upon Spirituous Liquors, and other Purposes, as relates to the Fees of Justice Clerks; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the same Reign, for preventing the fraudulent Removal of Tobacco, and other Purposes, as provides Justices of the Peace in certain Cases from granting Licences, and the Whole of another Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act for regulating the Manner of licensing Alehouses in the Part of Great Britain called England, and for the more easy recovering Penalties selling Ale and other Liquors without Licence; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the same Reign, as explains a Clause in the last mentioned Act; and so much of an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty's Duty upon Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, and other alehouseable Liquors, and for establishing a Method for granting such Licences in Scotland, and for allowing such Licences to be granted at a Petty Session in England, in a certain Case therein mentioned, as relates to continuing and renewing Licences; and so much of an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the same Reign, for (among other Purposes) preventing Gaming in Public Houses by Journeymen, Laborers, Servants, and Apprentices, as imposes a Penalty on the Keepers of Public Houses for suffering Gaming; and so much of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled *An Act for altering the Stamp Duties upon Admissions into Corporations or Companies, and for further securing and improving the Stamp Duties in Great Britain, as respects Retailers of unexciseable Liquors to exhibit their Licences, and Clerks of the Peace to deliver Lists of Persons licensed, and allowing the Purchaser of such Retailers selling without a Licence; and the Whole of an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act to amend so much of Two Acts made in the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, as relates to the licensing of Alehouse Keepers and Victuallers, and for better regulating Alehouses and the Manner of granting such Licences in future, and also of granting Licences to Persons selling Wines to be drunk in their Houses; and so much of an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act to amend several Laws of former times in Connection with Alehouses, Beer and Elder exported, Cattlekeepers and Drunkenness, Stamps on Hides and Skins, Drunkenness on Pines and Scurves, and Ale and Beer Licences, as exempts from the foregoing Penalty Persons selling Beer or Ale above certain Quantities; and the Whole of an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the same Reign, intitled *An Act for continuing the Rate of Duty to be paid for Retail Spirit Licences, and for authorizing the Justice of the Peace for any County beyond Licences to sell Ale, Beer, or other Liquors by Retail, in Cities and Places where a sufficient Number of Magistrates cannot be found qualified to grant

All Flax sold in Fairs or Markets to be of equal Cleanness and Quality, under Penalty not exceeding 1s. per Stone.

Magistrates may cause Flax to be examined.

Magistrates to Flax as here sold.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures of Ireland; and it is enacted that the said Act should be repealed, and that the Powers required by the said Act to be executed by or under the Authority of the Trustees for encouraging the said Manufactures should cease and determine, and that other Regulations should be made for encouraging and protecting the Linen Manufactures of Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said enacted Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed; except so far as the said Act repeals the Whole or any Part of any other Acts, and except as to Matters and Things done and performed under the Authority of the said Act at any Time before the Commencement of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all and singular the Appointments of Trustees for encouraging the said Manufactures, whether made before or since the passing of the said recited Act, shall cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby declared to be null and void; and that all Appointments made by the said Trustees of Officers and Servants, or Persons employed or deputed by such Officers and Servants to assist them in their respective Duties, save as hereafter mentioned, shall also cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby declared to be null and void; and that all and singular the several Powers, Authorities, and Duties assigned to the said Officers and Servants, or other Persons so employed or deputed by them, under and by virtue of the said recited Act, together with all Salaries, Allowances, or other Emoluments payable to the said Officers, Servants, or other Persons, under the Authority of any Appointment or Appointments made by the said Trustees, save as hereafter mentioned, shall cease and determine.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Flax of the Growth of Ireland, sold in open Fair or Market, and all Flax sold by Sample in Fair or Market, shall be of equal Cleanness and Quality throughout such Fair, upon Pain that any Person selling such Flax, or the Owner thereof at the Time of Sale, shall furnish and pay a Sum not exceeding the Amount of One Shilling for every Stone of Flax so sold which shall not be of equal Cleanness and Quality throughout such Parcel; and in all Cases of Fraud or false Representation in the Sale of Flax, whether the same shall have been sold in open Fair or Market, or otherwise sold, and in all Cases of Fraud or Neglect by Persons employed by the Owners of Flax in cleaning and preparing the same for Sale, whether such Flax shall have been afterwards sold in open Fair or Market, or otherwise sold, the Person selling such Flax, or the Owner thereof at the Time of Sale, or the Persons so employed to clean such Flax, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding One Shilling for every Stone of such Flax so sold as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of any Town in Ireland, before whom any Complaint shall be made in respect to Flax for not being of equal Cleanness and Fineness throughout, or on account of any Fraud having been practised in the Sale thereof, in all Cases where it shall seem to him or them to be expedient or necessary, and such Justice or Justices or Magistrate as and are hereby required, to examine before him or them Three Persons skilled in Flax, and in every such Person well and truly to examine the Flax which shall be the Subject of Complaint, and a true Verdict to give, whether such Flax be of equal Cleanness and Quality throughout, or whether it has been fraudulently made up, or whether there has been any Fraud or false Representation in the Sale thereof, or whether there has been any Fraud or Neglect in the cleaning or preparing of such Flax for Sale, and their Opinions thereupon shall be final and conclusive: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to, nor shall affect, affect, the Manufacture and Sale of Flax, unless the same be sold in open Fair or Market, or unless in Cases of Neglect in the Preparation of the same for Sale, or of Fraud or false Representation in respect to the Sale thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That all brown or unbleached or ungreyed Linen Yarn of Irish Manufacture, sold in open Fair or Market, shall be sold sufficiently open and made up into Hanks, each Hank to consist of Twelve Cuts, and no more; and every such Hank shall contain One hundred and twenty Threads, and no more; and every such Hank shall be One Yard and One Quarter in Length, or Two Yards and One Half in Circumference, and no more; and each such Cut in every such Hank shall be separated at the same shall be reeled, and not afterwards; and in setting such Linen Yarn, no more than One Thread at a Time shall be reeled; and all the Yarn contained in every such Hank shall be of Flax Yarn only, or Tow Yarn only, of the same Colour and Fineness throughout each Hank; and when the Hank or Twelve Cuts are reeled, the same shall be made up in such Manner as to admit of opening thereof at every Part, at Ten Inches at least, for the Purpose of spreading on the Bleach Green; and all Yarn of Irish Manufacture under the Size or Grist of Two Hanks in the Pound, commonly called Pound Yarn or Head Yarn, shall be reeled according to the above Regulations, and such contrary Description may be made up and sold in Half Hanks of Six Cuts, and no less; and in case any Person or Persons shall sell in open Fair or Market any Yarn which shall not be conformable to the above Regulations respectively affecting the same, or which shall be deficient in Quality, Length, or Count, the Person or Persons selling such Yarn, or the Owner or Owners thereof at the Time of Sale, shall forfeit a Sum after the Rate of not less than Two-pence and more than Four-pence for every Hank of such Yarn so sold as aforesaid; and that in all Cases of Fraud or false Representation in the Sale of Linen Yarn, whether such Yarn shall have been sold in open Fair or Market, or otherwise sold, the Person or Persons selling such Yarn, or the Owner or Owners thereof, shall forfeit a Sum after the Rate of Four-pence for every Hank of such Yarn so sold as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend or be construed to extend to Mill-spun Yarn, and that no Mill-spun Yarn shall be subject to the Regulations aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices, or the Chief Magistrate of any Town, before whom a Complaint shall be made in respect to Yarn not conformable to the Regulations contained in this Act, or on account of any Fraud having been practised in the Sale thereof, in all Cases where it shall seem to him or them to be expedient and necessary, and such Justice or Justices or Magistrate is and are hereby required, to summon before them Three Persons skilled in Yarn, and to request such Persons well and truly to examine the Yarn which is the Subject of such Complaint, and a true Verdict to give, whether such Yarn is conformable to the Regulations hereinbefore contained, or whether it be deficient in Quality, Length, or Count, or whether it is Mill-spun Yarn, or whether there has been any Fraud or false Representation in the Sale thereof, and their Opinion thereupon shall be final and conclusive.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Linen Yarn which shall be sold or bought in any Fair or Market shall be sold or bought within the Custom-Gate or Custom-Gate of such Fair or Market, and no Linen Yarn sold or brought to Sale in any Fair or Market shall be sold before the Hour of Eight of the Clock in the Morning on the respective Fair or Market Days; and any Person who shall sell or offer or contract to sell, or shall buy or offer or contract to buy, in such Fair or Market, otherwise than as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to a Penalty after the Rate of Two-pence on each Hank of Yarn so sold.

VIII. 'And Whereas Disputes frequently arise in Fairs or Markets between the Buyers and Sellers of Linen Yarn, in respect of Yarn bought or sold or agreed to be bought or sold; Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Seller of any Yarn in any Fair or Market, in all Cases where the Buyer of such Yarn shall refuse to pay the Person selling the same the Price agreed upon between them, or for the Buyer of such Yarn, if the Seller shall, without just Cause, refuse to deliver such Yarn to the Person buying the same, on being tendered the Price agreed to be paid for the same, to compel immediately or within Twenty-four Hours after to the next Justice of the Peace, or to the Chief Magistrate of the Town where such Dispute shall have arisen (and such Justice or Chief Magistrate respectively are hereby required and authorized to summon forthwith the Parties to appear either before such Justice and other Justices of the Peace, or before any Two Justices of the Peace, or before such Chief Magistrate; and if it shall appear to such Two Justices of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, that the Buyer of such Linen Yarn shall, without just and reasonable Cause, refuse or have refused to pay to the Seller of such Yarn the Price first agreed upon between them, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices of the Peace or for such Chief Magistrate, by Warrant under Hand and Seal respectively, to order such Yarn to be returned to the Seller thereof, and by such Warrant to direct any Penalty, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, to be levied off the Goods and Chattels of the Buyer of such Yarn; and if it shall appear to such Justices of the Peace or to such Chief Magistrate, that the Seller of such Yarn shall, without reasonable Cause, refuse or have refused to deliver up the said Yarn to the Person or Persons to whom he had sold or agreed to sell the same, such Justices of the Peace or Chief Magistrate may, by Warrant under their Hand and Seal respectively, order such Yarn to be delivered up to the Person who had bought or agreed to buy the same, and may also, by such Warrant, direct any Penalty, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, to be levied off the Goods and Chattels of the Seller of such Yarn: Provided always, that nothing hereinbefore mentioned shall extend or be construed to extend to, nor shall affect, the Manufacture and Sale of Yarn, unless the same be sold or offered to Sale in open Fair or Market, or unless in Cases of Fraud or false Representation in the Sale thereof.

And be it further enacted, That every Piece of brown or unbleached Linen Cloth which shall be exposed to Sale in open Fair or Market shall be so exposed in open Fields, and no ways tied at either End or in the Middle; and that every such Piece, excepting such as are generally known by the Name of Cambric or Dowlas, shall be also craped; and that every Single Piece of such Linen Cloth, not containing more than Twenty-two Yards in Length, shall be in Folds not exceeding Twenty-seven Inches in Length in each Fold; and that every Double Piece of such Linen Cloth, not containing more than Fifty Yards in Length, shall be in Folds not exceeding Thirty-six Inches in Length in each Fold; and that every Double Piece of such Linen Cloth, containing more than Fifty Yards in Length, shall be in Folds not exceeding Forty Inches in each Fold; upon pain that any Person exposing to Sale any such Linen Cloth contrary to the Directions aforesaid shall forfeit not less than Two Shillings and Sixpence nor more than Five Shillings for every such Piece so exposed to Sale as aforesaid.

Linen to be of
throughout.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, in open Fair or Market, sell any Piece of brown or unbleached plain Linen Cloth which shall be thicker or finer in the Salage than in the Body of such Piece, or which shall not be of equal Fineness and Thickness throughout every Part of the Length and Breadth of such Piece, under Penalty of Forfeiture of Double the Sum actually paid for such Piece of Linen so sold as aforesaid.

Linen not to be painted or stained.

Penalty.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall knowingly sell, in open Fair or Market, any Piece of brown or unbleached Linen, any Part whereof shall have been painted or stained, so as to make it look thick, or any Brown Linen dyed or stained, either in the Yarn or Cloth, with any Material which has a Tendency to render the Part so stained or dyed difficult to bleach, upon pain of forfeiting not less than Five Shillings nor more than Ten Shillings for every such Piece so sold as aforesaid.

Upon Complaint that

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justice, or Chief Magistrate of a Town, before whom any Complaint shall be made in respect to Linen not conformable to the Regulations contained in this Act, and such Justice or Justice or Magistrate is and are hereby authorized and empowered, in all Cases where it shall seem to them to be expedient and necessary, to summon before him or them These Persons skilled in the weaving and dressing of Linen, and to swear them well and truly to examine any and every Piece of Linen which is the Subject of Complaint, and a true Verdict to give, whether the same or any of them is thicker or finer in the Salage than in the Body of such Piece of Linen, and whether it be of equal Fineness and Thickness throughout every Part of such Piece, or whether it be passed or reported in manner before described, and their Opinion thereupon shall be final and conclusive.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Brown Linen which shall be sold or bought in open Fair or Market shall be sold or bought within the Customs Gap or Customs Gates of such Fair or Market; and that no Brown Linen sold or brought to Sale in any Fair or Market shall be sold before Ten of the Clock in the Morning on the respective Fair or Market Days; and if any Person shall sell or offer or contract to sell, or shall buy or offer or contract to buy, in such Fair or Market, otherwise than as aforesaid, every such Seller and Buyer shall be liable to a Penalty of Five Shillings on each Piece of Brown Linen so sold as aforesaid.

Place and Time of Sale of Linen.

XVI. And Whereas Disputes frequently arise in Fairs or Markets between the Buyer and Seller of Linen Cloth, in respect of Cloth bought or sold, or agreed to be bought or sold; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That if the Buyer of any such Cloth shall, without just Cause, refuse to pay to the Person delivering the same the Price agreed upon between them, or if the Seller shall, without just Cause, refuse to deliver such Cloth to the Person buying the same, or being tendered the Price agreed upon to be paid for the same, it shall be lawful for the Buyer or Seller of such Cloth respectively to complain immediately, or at any Time within Twenty-four Hours, to the next Justice of the Peace, or to the Chief Magistrate of any Town where such Disputes shall have arisen; and every such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate is hereby required and authorized forthwith to summon the Parties to appear either before such Justice and any other Justice of the Peace, or before any Two Justices of the Peace, or before such Chief Magistrate; and if it shall appear to such Two Justices of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, that the Buyer of such Linen Cloth shall, without just and reasonable Cause, refuse to have refused to pay the Seller of such Cloth the Price first agreed upon between such Buyer and Seller at such Fair or Market, such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate may, by Warrant under Hand and Seal respectively, order such Cloth to be returned to the Seller thereof, and may, by such Warrant, direct any Penalty, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, to be levied off the Goods and Chattels of such Buyer of such Cloth; and if it shall appear to such Justices of the Peace or to such Chief Magistrate, that the Seller of such Cloth shall, without reasonable Cause, refuse to have refused to deliver up such Cloth to the Person or Persons to whom he had sold or agreed to sell the same, such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate may, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, order such Cloth to be delivered up to the Person who had bought or agreed to buy the same, and may also, by such Warrant, direct any Penalty, not exceeding the Sum of Ten Shillings, to be levied off the Goods and Chattels of the Seller of such Cloth.

Disputes between Buyer and Seller of Linen in Fairs, how to be adjusted.

Penalty.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to, nor shall affect, Brown Linens not sold in open Fair or Market, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that all Persons may manufacture and make up Brown Linens in any Manner they may think proper, and sell the same, without being subject to any of the aforesaid Regulations, unless they sell the same in open Fair or Market.

Brown Linens not to be subject to Regulations, except sold in open Market.

XVIII. And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that fit and proper Persons should be provided to examine, measure, and stamp all brown or embroidered Linens sold in public Market, in all Cases where the Buyers of any such Linens shall require the said Linens to be examined, measured, and stamped by any such Persons, before they pay for the same; and to the end that no Inconvenience should be felt from the Want of any such Persons upon and immediately after the Commencement of this Act, Be it enacted, That all Persons who at any Time before the Commencement of this Act have been appointed Sealmasters of Brown Linen by the Franchises of the Lanes and Hempen Manufacturers, and who shall be acting in that Capacity at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, shall continue to act therein until the Appointment or Appointments of every such Sealmaster respectively shall be afterwards confirmed or renewed in manner directed by this Act.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being from time to time to nominate and appoint, in any and every County in which the Lanes Manufacturers or any Branch thereof is or shall be carried on, Twelve such Persons residing in such County, or buying or selling Linens therein, as shall appear to be fit and proper Persons to be a Committee for appointing, directing, and controlling the Brown Linen Sealmasters of such County, conformably to the Regulations, Provisions, and Directions prescribed by this Act, of which Nomination and Appointment public Notice shall be given in the Dublin Gazette, and in some Paper published in every such County respectively; and in case of the Death or Resignation of any Person appointed to be a Member of such Committee, and in case of any Removal made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being of any Person from the Situation of Member of the said Committee, whose Removal the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being is and are hereby empowered to make, it shall and may be lawful for such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being to nominate and appoint such other Person or Persons as he or they shall think fit, to be a Member or Members of such Committee, in the Room and Stead of the Person or Persons who shall have died or resigned, or who shall have been so removed; and Notice of every such Nomination or Appointment shall be given in the Dublin Gazette, and in any Newspaper of the County to which such Notice shall relate.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint a Committee in each County for regulating Sealmasters.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Committee appointed in any and every County for the Purposes before stated shall and may from time to time, and as often as they shall think fit, meet and assemble together in some convenient Place in such County, to settle and adjust such Matters as shall relate relate to the Objects of their Appointment, and it shall and may be lawful for such Committee, or any Five or more of them, as soon as they shall deem it necessary, to require every Person acting as a Sealmaster of Brown Lines in or for any Lines Market in such County, in return to such Committee, within a given Time, his Name and Place of Abode, and the Names and Residences of his Succesors; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Committee, or any Five or more of them, to discuss any Sealmaster who shall refuse or neglect to make such Return within the Time required.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Committee, having formed a List of all Persons acting as Sealmasters in the County for which such Committee shall be appointed, shall then proceed to revise the said List; and it shall and may be lawful for every such Committee, or any Five or more of them, upon such Revision, to dismiss any Person from the Situation of Sealmaster, whom they shall consider to be unfit for such Situation, and to appoint another in place of the Person so dismissed, and as from time to time to dismiss and appoint every such Person as such Committee, or any Five or more of them, shall then be right to dismiss from or appoint to the Office and Situation of a Sealmaster of Brown Lines, keeping or extending the Number of such Sealmasters according as it shall seem to such Committee to be expedient and necessary; and it shall and may be lawful for every such Committee, or any Five or more of them, to confirm the Duties and Authorities of every Sealmaster to such particular Lines Market or Markets in their respective Counties as they shall think proper, and to dismiss any Sealmaster who shall refuse or neglect to obey any such Rules, Regulations, and Directions as such Committee shall lay down for the Government of such Sealmasters; provided that nothing contained in the said Rules, Regulations and Directions, shall be contrary to any of the Provisions of this Act, and it shall be lawful for every such Committee, or any Five or more of them, as soon as they shall deem it expedient, to give public Notice to all Persons acting as Brown Lines Sealmasters in their County, under and by virtue of any Appointment formerly made by the Trustees of the Lanes and Thread Manufacturers, that from and after a Day to be named in such Notice no Person shall be permitted to act in their County in that Capacity, who shall not have previously been entered into a Security to such Committee, or to some Individual to be named by such Committee; and such Security shall stand in place and stead of any Security formerly given or required to be given to the Secretary of the Trustees for encouraging the Lanes Manufacture, and shall be for each Seal as such Committee shall think proper, in which said Security Two Sureties, to be approved of by such Committee, shall join and be bound, jointly and severally, for each Seal in the Whole as such Committee shall in every Case think fit to require; and the Condition of every such Security shall be, that such Person so appointed Sealmaster shall duly and diligently execute his Office, and shall not seal, stamp, or lay, nor suffer his Seal or Stamp to be put upon any Lines which is not sound, merchantable, and free from Moulds, Rotures, or any Fraud or Damage, except such Moulds, not exceeding Three in each Piece, as shall be exposed to View, and marked on the Outside thereof, and that such Sealmaster, his Executors or Administrators, shall duly and without Delay pay all such Fines as shall be imposed on him from time to time by any such Committee, or any Five or more of them; and that in case of the Death of any of his Sureties, such Sealmaster will, within One Month after such Death shall have come to his Knowledge, procure another sufficient Person to enter into a like Security; and that such Sealmaster, his Executors or Administrators, will surrender and give up his Seal or Stamp when thereunto required by such Committee, or any Five or more of them; and that he will not at any Time lend, hire out, or sell his Stamp or Seal, or suffer the same to be used by any Person but himself, or his known Servant or Assistant, in his usual Place of Residence.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or his or their Deputies, to order and direct that such Committee as aforesaid shall, within a Time to be specified, make a Report of the Grounds upon which any Disposal of any Sealmaster may have taken place by or under the Orders of such Committee, and which Report such Committee are hereby required to make accordingly, within such Time as shall be specified for that Purpose; and it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being to direct that the Matter of such Report shall be enquired into by any Person or Persons to be named, and appointed for that Purpose by such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; and according to the Result of such Enquiry, or in case no Report shall be made by such Committee within the Time as specified, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland either to confirm such Disposal, or to revoke the same, and to direct that the Person so dismissed shall be restored to his Situation of Sealmaster.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every such Committee, or any Five or more of them, to choose and prescribe the Form and Device of the Seal or Stamp to be used by the Sealmasters of their respective County, and to alter the same as often as such Committee shall think fit; and if any Person shall forge or counterfeit any Seal or Stamp of any Sealmaster appointed or to be appointed by such Committee, or any Five or more of them, in any Piece or Part of a Piece of Brown Lines, such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be imprisoned, with or without hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding One Year, at the Discretion of the Judge or Judges who shall try such Offence.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Sealmaster of Brown Lines, except such as are or shall be appointed to particular Markets, shall reside within the Parish mentioned on his Seal; and that One of the Persons who shall enter into Security for him aforesaid shall be resident within the same Parish, or in or within One Mile of the next Market Town thereto within the same County; and that a Sealmaster appointed appointed for any particular Market shall be at liberty to use his Seal or Stamp in respect to all Linens prepared for Sale in such Market, without reference to his Place of Residence.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Sealmaster of brown or unbleached Linens appointed as aforesaid shall carefully view, examine, and measure every Piece of such Linen which shall be produced and offered to him to be sealed; and if the same shall appear to him to be merchantable, and to be in every respect conformable to the Directions aforesaid, then, and not otherwise, such Sealmaster shall affix or cause to be affixed a fair Impression of such Seal as shall be appointed for him by the said Committee, with Lamp Black or Vermilion or Roman Blue and Silex or Common Oil, on the Middle of such Fold, at no more than Thirteen Inches from the End of such Piece: and shall likewise mark or cause to be marked, with such Impressments as aforesaid, on the Back or Outside of every such Piece, the Length of such Piece, and the Number of Inches it contains in Breadth, and also the Half Inch, if the same shall be in Breadth Half an Inch more than any Number of Inches, without regard to any linear Fractions of an Inch, together with the Name of such Sealmaster, and the Parish and County where he resides, or the Name of the Market Town for which he may be appointed to act: and if any Parts of such Piece shall be damaged or faulty, but not so damaged or faulty as to render the same unmerchantable, every such damaged or faulty Part shall be fairly exposed in the Lap or Bosom of such Piece, so as that the same may be easily seen; and opposite to such damaged or faulty Part, upon the Bosom of every such Piece, such Sealmaster shall affix or cause to be affixed an Impression of his Seal, with such Impressments as aforesaid, to denote such damaged or faulty Part; and such Sealmaster shall and may demand and take the Sum of One Penny, and no more, for every Piece of brown or unbleached Linen containing Twenty-five Yards or under, which shall be by him sealed as aforesaid, and so in proportion for a greater Quantity; and if any such Sealmaster shall offend, by neglecting or transgressing any one of the Regulations aforesaid, every such Sealmaster shall forfeit a Sum not less than Five Shillings nor exceeding Twenty Shillings for every such Offence.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, in open Fair or Market in Ireland, sell or expose to Sale, buy or agree to buy, any Pieces of brown or unbleached Linen which shall not at the Time of selling or exposing the same to Sale be sealed and marked as required by this Act, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of Five Shillings, for every Piece of Linen so sold or exposed to Sale.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Brown Linen shall be measured between Seal and Seal, and bad and inefficient Bards shall not be taken into the Length thereof; and such Linen shall be bought and sold by no other Measure than the Statute Yard, containing Thirty-six Inches, and no extraordinary Measure or Allowance, except the Breadth of a Thumb, as is now generally practised in every Yard in the measuring thereof, shall be made therein by the Seller to the Buyer, or required or accepted of or taken by the Buyer from the Seller, upon pain that every Person buying or selling any such Linen, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall forfeit not less than Two Shillings and Sixpence nor more than Five Shillings for every such Offence.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall sustain any Loss or Damage in the buying any Piece of brown or unbleached Linen, by any damaged Part being concealed in the Fold thereof, or by no not answering the Measure as to the Length or Breadth marked thereon by any Sealmaster, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person to sue for and recover from the Sealmaster of such Piece, or the Person who shall at the Time of such selling be bound as Security for his faithful Discharge of the Office of Sealmaster, the full Value of the Loss or Damage so sustained.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Weaver or other Person intrusted with any Linen or Linen Yarn, or Hempen Cloth or Hempen Yarn, or Cotton or Cotton Yarn, or with any Materials or working Tools for manufacturing the same, shall fraudulently sell or make or pawn the same, or any Part thereof, every such Offender, and the Receivers of any such Article knowing the same to have been so fraudulently concealed, shall forfeit Four Times the Value of the same.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Weaver shall well and sufficiently weave all sound and sufficient Linnen and Hempen Yarn to him delivered to be woven, within such Time, and in such Route, and into Cloth of such Breadth, as shall be agreed upon between the Owner or Owners of such Yarn and such Weaver, upon pain of forfeiting the full Value of such Yarn, or the full Price agreed upon for weaving the same.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every Justice of the Peace and Chief Magistrate to administer any Oath to, and to take any Affidavit required by Law from, any Person whatsoever, touching or concerning any Matter or Thing in any way relating to or concerning the Linen Manufacture, or any Branch thereof: and wherever any such Oath is required by Law to be taken, the solemn Affirmation of any Person being a Quaker shall be sufficient in the place of such Oath or Affidavit: and every Person who shall knowingly swear or affirm any thing false in any such Oath or Affirmation shall, upon Conviction, suffer such Punishment as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are by the Laws in force in Ireland subject to.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Complaints which shall be made of any Offence or Offences committed against any of the Regulations or Directions contained in this Act, the Penalty or Forfeiture in respect whereof shall not exceed in Value the Sum of Ten Pounds, shall and may be heard and finally determined before Two or more Justices of the Peace, whether acting as Petty Sessions or otherwise, within their Jurisdiction, or before the Chief Magistrate of any Town presiding in his Court in such Town: and it shall be lawful for any One Justice to examine any Party complained of, and any Witness, to appear before such Justice and any other Justice, or before any Two Justices, and for such Chief Ma-

An Act to amend Two Acts of the Third and Fifth Years of His present Majesty, for the Appointment of Constables in Ireland. [14th July 1828.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Appointment of Constables, and to secure the efficient Performance of the Duties of their Office, and for the Appointment of Magistrates, in Ireland, in certain Cases, which said Act was amended and extended to the County of Dublin by another Act passed in the Fifth Year of the same Reign: And Whereas the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being is and are by the said Acts authorized and empowered, by Warrant under his or their Hand, to appoint One Chief Constable for each and every of any Barony or Half Barony, or other Division of a Barony, or for any Two or more Baronies lying together and being in the same County in Ireland, and also, by Proclamation as he is directed in the Dublin Gazette, to require the Magistrates in the Commission of the Peace for any County in Ireland to nominate, in the Manner in the said Acts respectively prescribed, such Number of Constables and Sub-Constables in and for each County as shall be specified in such Proclamation, not exceeding in the whole, in any County, a Number after the Rate of Sixteen for each Barony or Half Barony, or other Division of a Barony, within each County, to be stationed in and through the several Baronies and Half Baronies in such Counties; and it is, amongst other Things, enacted by the said Act of the Third Year of His Majesty's Reign, that the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being may order and direct that any Person, having been appointed a Constable under the said Act for any County, shall go into and be a Constable in and for any Barony or Barones or Half Barony, or other Division of a Barony, in such County; and that any such Constable, or any Number of the Constables or Sub-Constables, appointed under the said Act, for any County, or any Barony or Barones, or Divisions of a Barony, at any Time or Times, shall go or repair to such Place or Places in any other County or Counties, or in any County of a City or County of a Town, or City and Liberties, or Barony or Barones, or Division of a Barony, in Ireland, as shall be mentioned in such Order; provided that not more than Two Third Parts of the existing Establishment of Constables for any such County, City, or Town shall be so removed or absent from such County, City, or Town at any one Time: And Whereas it is expedient that such Power of Removal should be extended and enlarged, and that the said Acts should in other respects be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being from time to time, when and as often as he or they shall think fit so to do, to order and direct that every or any Chief or other Constable, or that the whole or any Number of Chief or other Constables, or of Sub-Constables, appointed under the said recited Acts or either of them, for any County, or any Barony or Barones, or Division of a Barony, in any County in Ireland, at any Time or Times, shall go and repair to such Place or Places in any other County or Counties, or in any County of a City or County of a Town, or City and Liberties, or Barony or Barones, or Division of a Barony, in Ireland, as shall be mentioned in such Order, and shall remain there for such Length of Time, or remove to or remain at any other Place or Places in the same or any other County, City, or Town, for such Time and Times, and shall return to him or their original County, City, or Town, at such Time and Times respectively as shall be mentioned or directed in or by such Order, or by any other Order or Orders which may from time to time be made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being; and that such Chief and other Justices and Sub-Justices, when so removed, shall have the same Rights, Powers, and Authorities, and be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Orders, and be in all respects in the same Situation in the County or other Districts in which they shall be so removed, as if they had been originally appointed in and for each County or District.

Lord Lieutenant may order Chief Constable to act for any Part or District of a County.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, from time to time, as shall appear to him or them fitting, to order and direct that any Chief Constable already appointed or hereafter to be appointed shall be and act as a Chief Constable in and for each Part or District of, or in any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, as shall be mentioned and described in such Warrant, whether such Part or District shall or shall not consist of a Barony or Baronies or Half Barony, or other Division of a Barony, and in like Manner from time to time to enlarge, diminish, or alter such Districts, in any way which to him or them shall appear to be expedient; and that such Chief Constables shall, in each their respective Districts for the Time being, have, use, and exercise such and the like Powers, Duties, Rights, and Authorities, and shall be subject to the same and the like Rules, Regulations, Directions, and Limitations, in all respects, as such Chief Constables now have, use, exercise, or are subject to, or would have used, exercised, or been subject to, with respect to any Barony or Baronies or Half Barony, or Division of a Barony, under the said Acts or either of them.

Constable shall not resign without Leave of Chief Constable, or Queen's Bench's Notice of Resignation.

III. And Whereas Incompetence has frequently been experienced in consequence of the sudden Resignation of Constables under Circumstances in which their Services have been particularly required, Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Constable or Sub-Constable, who shall have been or shall be appointed under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, shall be at Liberty to resign his Office, or to withdraw himself from the Duties thereof, unless expressly authorized so to do, in Writing, by the Chief Constable for the Time being, or unless he shall have given to such Chief Constable One Month's Notice at least of his Intention of so resigning or withdrawing himself; and if any Constable or Sub-Constable shall so resign or withdraw himself, without such previous Permission, or without such Notice as aforesaid, he shall for such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds, upon Conviction before a Justice of the Peace; and it shall and may be lawful for such Justice, in case such Penalty shall not be paid, to commit such Person to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and all Penalties so to be levied shall be paid to the Paymaster of the County, for the Use of the Establishment.

Accounts of the Number of Constables of these Barons to be laid before Grand Jurors.

IV. And be it further enacted, That at each Spring and Summer Assize after the passing of this Act, there shall be laid before the Grand Jury of each County, City, or Town, an Account, signed by the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, or the Under Secretary, stating respectively the Number of Chief and other Constables serving in such County, City, or Town, and the Sum respectively paid since the preceding Assize for the Salaries and Expenses of such Constables, and for the providing or repairing the Arms, the Clothing, and the Accoutrements of the same.

An Act to extend the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of Two Acts for paving and regulating the Regent's Park, together with the new Street from thence to Pall Mall; and to amend the said Acts. [18th July 1828.]

5 G. 4. c. 200.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled *An Act for more effectually paving, lighting, watching, cleaning, and regulating the Regent's Park, together with the new Street from the Regent's Park to Pall Mall, and the new Streets and Improvements in the Neighbourhood of Parliament Street and Privy Gardens, and for maintaining a convenient Sewage for the same; and by the said Act Commissioners were appointed for paving, lighting, watching, cleaning, and otherwise for regulating and improving the several Streets, Squares, Courts, Gardens, Ways, Passages, Courts, and Places made and laid out, and thereafter to be made and laid out, within the Limits mentioned and described in the said Act, and for other Purposes of the said Act: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, entitled *An Act for extending the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners acting in execution of an Act of the Fifth Year of the present Majesty, for paving and regulating the Regent's Park, together with the new Street from thence to Pall Mall, and for other Purposes relating thereto; and by the said Act certain Parts of New Palace Yard, Margaret Street, and Old Palace Yard were, as to the paving, lighting, and cleaning thereof, placed under the Charge and Management of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said firstly-recited Act: And Whereas the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues have made and laid out certain Streets, Squares, Terraces, and Improvements upon Land and Ground belonging to His Majesty, lately the Site of Carlton Palace, and of the Gardens thereof, and Houses and Buildings have been erected upon such Land and Ground, and many more are in Progress; and the said Commissioners intend to make and lay out certain Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures for the Use of the Inhabitants of the said Streets, Squares, and Terraces; and have also constructed a new Common Sewer, with Dunes and Watercourses communicating with such Common Sewer, for the more effectual Drainage of the said several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Gardens, and Improvements, which said Common Sewer drains into and communicates with the Great Sewer extending from the Regent's Park to the River Thames, by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty placed under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners acting in execution of such Act: And Whereas the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues have made and laid out, on certain other Ground belonging to His Majesty, situate on the East Side of Princes Street, in the City of Metropolitan, certain Mews or Stables, and Coach-houses and Buildings connected therewith, which said Mews or Stables are called or intended to be called "The Westminster Mews:" And Whereas the said several Streets, Squares, Terraces, and Improvements, Gardens, Sculleries, and several small Inclosures, together with the said Mews or Stables and Buildings, called the Westminster Mews, being made and set out on Land belonging to His Majesty, it is expedient that the same should, as to the paving, lighting, watching, watering, cleansing, and regulating, maintaining, supporting, and keeping in order thereof, be placed under the Charge and Management of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Acts: and that the Powers and Authorities which by the said first-recited Act are vested in the said Commissioners, with respect to the Sewer and Drains thereby placed under their Jurisdiction, should be extended to the said new Sewer, and any Drains and Watercourses communicating therewith: And Whereas Parliament Street, or the greater Part thereof, and Bridge Street, and the Terrace or East Frontage of New Palace Yard, and the Passages and Places adjoining thereto, are, as to the paving, lighting, watching, and cleansing thereof, under the Charge and Management of the Committee for paving the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster; and it is expedient that the said Streets, Terrace, Passages, and Places should, as to such paving, lighting, watching, and cleansing, be placed under the Charge and Management of the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Acts: And Whereas the Company of a certain Road called the Albany Road, leading from the North Side of the Turnpike Road called the New Road to a certain Bridge over the Regent's Canal called the Colliatated Cut Bridge, or, as to the Maintenance, Repair, and watching thereof, under the Charge and Management of the Commissioners of the Metropolitan Turnpike Roads North of the Thames, appointed under an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for consolidating the Trusts of the several Turnpike Roads in the Neighborhood of the Metropolis North of the River Thames; which said Road (with other Roads round the Regent's Park afterwards) is coloured Purple on the Map or Plan marked No. 1. referred to in the said first-recited Act: and under the Authority of the said Act of the Seventh Year, aforesaid, certain Tolls are demanded and taken for Horses or other Animals passing through a certain Gate or Bar erected across the said Albany Road: And Whereas that Portion of the said Albany Road which extends from the North Side of the New Road to the Colliatated Cut Bridge aforesaid being in the Nature of a Street, and not of a Turnpike Road, it is desirable that such Portion of the said Road should be placed under the Charge and Management of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said first and second-recited Acts, and that the said Commissioners of the Metropolitan Turnpike Roads North of the Thames should be exonerated from such Charge and Management, and that the said Gate or Bar should be removed, and that the Authority to take Toll thereon should cease: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be so enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Commissioners for the Time being, acting in execution of the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise regulating and improving the several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Gardens, Stables, and Places made or laid out, or hereafter to be made or laid out, within the Limits herebefore mentioned, and hereinafter more particularly described, and for other the Purposes of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Streets called Parliament Street and Bridge Street, and the Terrace or East Frontage of New Palace Yard, and the Passages and Places adjoining thereto, which are now, as to the paving, lighting, watching, and cleansing thereof, under the Charge and Management of the Committee for paving the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and remain, as to such paving, lighting, watching, and cleansing, under the Charge and Management of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and also be and remain, to all Intents and Purposes, subject to and within the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority of the said Commissioners, in the same Manner as if the said Streets and Places had been included in and delineated and set out on the Plan marked No. 1. mentioned and referred to in the said first-recited Act; any Act heretofore passed to the contrary in express notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of January next after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as authorized the setting up or Continuance of any Toll Gate or Side Gate, and the collecting, levying, and receiving of any Toll or Duty in that Part of the Albany Road which extends from the North Side of the New Road to the Western End of the Bridge over the Regent's Canal called the Colliatated Cut Bridge, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and the Commissioners acting in execution of the said last-recited Act are hereby authorized and required, within the Space of One Month from and after the said First Day of January, to pull down and remove, or cause to be pulled down and removed, the Toll Gate and its Appurtenances, and any Side Gate, set up or continued, under the Authority of the said

Act.

Act, on or by the Side of each Part of the said Albany Road as aforesaid, and to sell and dispose of the Materials thereof, and apply the Proceeds for the several Purposes of the said Act; and the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act shall from and after the said First Day of January be exempted and discharged from the future Care and Management of each Part of the said Road.

IV. And be it further enacted, That each Part of the said Road called the Albany Road as is herein-before particularly described shall, from and after the said First Day of January next after the passing of this Act, be and remain, as to the Maintenance, Support, watching, cleansing, and Regulation thereof, under the Charge and Management of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and also be and remain, to all Intents and Purposes, subject to and within the Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority of the said Commissioners, in the same Manner as if each Part of the said Road had been included among the Roads the Carriageways of which by the said first-mentioned Act the said Commissioners were authorized and empowered to maintain, support, watch, cleanse, and regulate.

V. And Whereas, for ascertaining the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and defining the Streets, Squares, Terraces, Roads, Mables, Passages, and Places to be paved, maintained, repaired, lighted, watched, watered, cleansed, and regulated, and the Gardens and ornamental Inclosures to be maintained, supported, and kept in order under the Powers and Provisions of this Act, Three separate Maps or Plans have been made, for the Purpose of being deposited in the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, One of which Maps or Plans marked Number Five comprehends and describes the several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, and the Gardens and ornamental Inclosures, now laid out, and the Ground on which others may be hereafter laid out, on the Site of Charles Palace and Gardens aforesaid, which, so far as the same are coloured Blue on the said Map or Plan, are to be paved, lighted, watered, cleansed, and regulated, maintained, supported, and kept in order, according to the Directions of this Act, and so far as the same are coloured Red on the said Map or Plan are to be under the Control and Superintendence of the said Commissioners, as to the Manner of constructing and ornamenting, and as to the defining, showing, or using the Houses and other Buildings erected on or at the Sides thereof; and another of the said Maps or Plans marked No 6, contains and describes the said Mews or Stables called the Waterhouse Mews, the Interior of which is also to be paved, lighted, watched, cleansed, and regulated according to the Directions of this Act; and the Third Map or Plan marked No 7, contains and describes Parliament Street, Bridge Street, and the Terrace or Foot Pavement of New Palace Yard, and the Passages and Places adjoining thereto, which, so far as the same are coloured Blue on the said Map or Plan, are also to be paved, lighted, watered, cleansed, and regulated according to the Directions of this Act, and so far as the same are coloured Red on the said Map or Plan are to be under the Control and Superintendence of the said Commissioners, as to the Manner of constructing and ornamenting, and as to the defining, showing, or using the Houses and other Buildings erected on or at the Sides thereof; and the Road called the Albany Road is delineated and described on the Map or Plan marked No 1, referred to in the said first-mentioned Act, and is therein (with other Roads round the Regent's Park) coloured Purple; and that Part of the said Albany Road, which extends from the New Road to the Western End of the Bridge over the Regent's Canal called the Colliery Cut Bridge, is the remaining Part of the Streets, Roads, and Places to be maintained, repaired, watched, watered, cleansed, and regulated according to the Directions of this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Maps or Plans marked No 5, 6, and 7, after the same shall have been severally authenticated by the Signature of the Right Honourable the Speaker of the House of Commons, shall be deposited with and shall remain in the Custody of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and One Copy of each of the said Maps or Plans, signed by the Speaker of the House of Commons, shall be deposited in the Parliament Office, and One other Copy so signed shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, to the end that all Persons may at all reasonable Times have Liberty to inspect the same at their Will and Pleasure, paying the Sum of One Shilling for each Inspection, and to take Copies from the said Maps or Plans, or any of them, or from any Part or Parts thereof, paying the Sum of One Shilling for every Copy so taken, and the said Maps or Plans, and the Copies thereof, so signed and authenticated as aforesaid, together with the said Map or Plan marked No 1, referred to in the said first-mentioned Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of the present Majesty, and the Copies of the said last-mentioned Map or Plan, so signed and authenticated as in the said recited Act is mentioned, shall be received in Evidence in all Proceedings relating to the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and the Execution and Provisions of the Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause the Footways of the said several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, delineated and set out and coloured Blue on the said Map or Plan marked No 5, or of such as shall hereafter be made and laid out on the Ground contained and described and coloured Blue therein, to be paved; and the Carriageways of the same Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, and also of that Part of Poll Mall which extends in Front from the Eastern to the Western Side of Marble Place, and also the Foot and Carriageways of any Street or Passage which may hereafter be made on the Site of Two Houses respectively numbered 96 and 98, in Poll Mall, to be pitched or paved, or to be formed with broken Stone, Gravel, Flint, Gravel, or other firm and sufficient Materials, upon such Levels and in such Manner as they shall judge necessary: and such Footways and Carriageways from time to time to be amended and kept in good Repair, and also to cause such Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places to be lighted, watered, cleansed, and regulated, regulated, and the Sides thereof to be inclosed with Iron or other Rails in such Parts and Places and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think proper; and all Obstructions, Encroachments, Nuisances, and Annoyances therein to be removed; and Drains, Staks, Gutters, or Watercourses to be made, for conveying the Water from the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, in such Manner as they shall think proper; and if any Person shall, without the Consent of the said Commissioners, alter the Form or break up the Ground or Pavement of the Carriage or Footway of any of such Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, every Person so offending shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every such Offence, and shall also pay all the Expenses of restoring such Ground or Pavement to its former State.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to inclose, lay out, and form Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures, for the Use of the Inhabitants and Occupiers of the Houses and Buildings now existing or hereafter to be erected on the Ground delineated and described in the said Plan marked No. 3.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause the several Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures delineated and set out on the said Map or Plan marked No. 3., or which shall hereafter be set out on the Ground therein contained and described, to be inclosed with Iron or other Railings, and from time to time to mow such Railings, and to paint and repair the same, and to cause the said Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures to be maintained and kept in good Order and Condition, for the Use and Accommodation of the Inhabitants of the several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places to which the same Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures shall be respectively attached, and for that Purpose to appoint and employ proper Persons as Gardeners and Workmen for maintaining and keeping the same in order; and all such Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures shall be used and enjoyed by the Inhabitants in the several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places to which the same shall be respectively attached, in such Manner, and according to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as the said Commissioners shall from time to time direct and establish.

IX. And be it further enacted, That Rates or Assessments shall, for the Purpose of supporting, maintaining, and keeping in order the said Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures set out and delineated on the said Map or Plan marked No. 3., or which shall be hereafter set out on the Ground therein contained and described, be laid or assessed by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, on yearly or half-yearly Periods, or otherwise, if they shall judge it needful, upon all Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Coach-houses, Stables, Cellars, Vachels, Buildings, or Tenements, in the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places to which such Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures shall be respectively attached, in such Sums of Money as the said Commissioners shall order and direct; and separate and distinct Accounts shall be kept of the Monies to arise from such Rates and Assessments, which Monies shall be expended and laid out in the maintaining and keeping in order the Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures attached to the Street or Streets, Square or Square, Terrace or Terrace, Place or Place, upon which such Rate or Assessment shall be charged and assessed, and from which the same shall be collected. Provided always, that none of the said Rates or Assessments shall in any one Year exceed the Sum of Two Shillings in the Pound on the yearly Value of such Houses and other Premises.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Question shall arise as to what Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places the Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures delineated and described on the said Map or Plan marked No. 3., or which shall hereafter be set out on the Ground therein contained and described, shall be respectively attached as, within the Meaning of this Act, or as to what Streets, Squares, Canals, Terraces, Courts, Ways, Passages, and Places the Gardens and Terrace at Richmond Terrace, mentioned in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the several other Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Inclosures delineated and described on the said Map or Plan marked No. 3., or which shall hereafter be set out on any Part of the Ground therein contained and described, shall be considered as attached to, within the Meaning of the said last-mentioned Act, or as to what Streets, Squares, Courts, Terraces, Courts, Ways, Passages, or Places any Gardens, Shrubberies, or ornamental Inclosures which may be hereafter placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, pursuant to the Provision for that Purpose hereafter contained, shall be considered as respectively attached to, such Question shall be determined by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and their Determination shall be final.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause the Interior of the said Mews or Stables called the Fortinometer Mews, delineated and set out on the said Map or Plan marked No. 6., to be paved or pitched, or to be formed with broken Stone, Granite, Flint, Gravel, or other firm and sufficient Materials, upon such Levels and in such Manner as they the said Commissioners shall judge necessary, and to be from time to time mended and kept in repair, and to cause the Interior of the said Mews or Stables to be lighted, washed, watered, cleaned, and regulated, and all Obstructions, Encroachments, Nuisances, and Annoyances therein to be removed, and Drains, Staks, Gutters, or Watercourses to be made, for conveying the Water from the Interior of the said Mews or Stables; and if any Person shall, without the Consent of the said Commissioners, alter the Form, or break up the Ground or Pavement of the Interior

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Buildings, and Tenements, standing or erected on or by the Sides of or as much of the several Streets and Places as on the said Maps or Plans, marked N^o 3 and 7, respectively, is coloured Red, shall, as to the Manner of constructing, ornamenting, defacing, altering, or using the same, be under the Control and Superintendence of the said Commissioners, and shall be regulated according to the Provisions of this Act.

Part of the Albany Road to be kept in repair by the said Commissioners. Powers to water Streets.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Carriage-way of the said Road called the Albany Road as is hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and hath heretofore been kept in repair and cleaned by the said Commissioners of the Metropolitan Turnpike Roads North of the Thames, shall, from and after the said First Day of January next after the passing of this Act, be kept in repair, lighted, and cleaned by the said Commissioners for executing this Act.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall have the same Power of watering the several Streets and Places by this Act placed under their Jurisdiction, or any of them, and of digging Wells and making Pumps for that Purpose, as by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty is given to them for watering the Streets and Places by that Act placed under their Jurisdiction.

Property of Pavements, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Stones, Gravel, and other Materials forming the present Pavement of the several Streets and Places hereby placed under the

the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, the Property of which is now vested in the said Committee for paving the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, and also all Lamps, Lamp Irons, Posts, Rails, Fences, and Gates in and upon or belonging to the said several Streets and Places, the Property of which is now vested in the said Committee, shall be the Property of and vested in the said last-mentioned Commissioners; and that from and after the passing of this Act, the Stone, Granite, and other Materials forming the present Pavement of that Part of Ball Mill which extends in Front from the Eastern to the Western Side of Waterloo Place, the Property of which is now vested in the Committee for paving the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, shall be the Property of and vested in the said last-mentioned Commissioners; and also that from and after the said First Day of January next after the passing of this Act, the Stone, Granite, and other Materials forming the present Pavement of so much of the Abbey Road as is hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, the Property of which is now vested in the Commissioners of the Metropolitan Turnpike Roads North of the Thames, shall be the Property of and vested in the said Commissioners for executing this Act:

vested in the said Commissioners.

XXI. And Whereas such Part only of the Streets and Places by the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty directed to be paved or formed, and repaired, cleaned, and lighted, by the said Commissioners acting in execution of those Acts, as is comprised in the said Maps or Plans numbered 1. and 3. respectively, are watched by the said Commissioners; and it is therefore expedient that a Separate Rate should be made for the Purpose of watching such of the said Streets and Places as are so watched: Be it therefore enacted, That One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, shall, for defraying the Expenses of watching the several Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places set out or to be set out on the Ground delineated and described on the said Maps or Plans marked N^o 1. and 3. referred to in the said recited Act, including so much of the said Abbey Road as is hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, be laid and assessed by the said Commissioners, at yearly or half-yearly Periods, or oftener, if they shall judge it needful, upon all Houses, and all Cathedral, Collegiate, and other Churches, Parochial and other Chapels, Places for Religious Worship, Hospitals, Schools, and all Shops, Warehouses, Coach-houses, Stables, Cellars, and Yards, and all other Buildings or Tenements, public or private, and all Spaces of Ground in or fronting or abutting on or adjoining upon or to the said Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places, in such Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners shall order and direct, but so nevertheless as that such Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, do not exceed in the whole in any one Year the Sum of One Shilling in the Pound on the yearly Value of such Houses and Premises, or, in Cases where the Rates or Assessments shall, under the Provisions hereinafter contained, be made according to the Number of Square Yards of Pavement, the Sum of One Shilling for each such Square Yard; and the said Rates or Assessments shall be laid and assessed equally on the Houses and Premises in all the said Streets and Places according to the yearly Value of such Houses and Premises respectively, or, in Cases where the Rates and Assessments shall be made according to the Number of Square Yards of Pavement, then according to the Number of such Square Yards respectively; and the Monies to arise from such Rates and Assessments shall be applied in defraying the Expenses of watching the said several Streets and Places.

Additional Rates may be made for watching the Streets, &c.

XXII. And for defraying the Expenses of paving or forming, and repairing, cleaning, lighting, and watering, as well the several Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places, by the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty respectively directed to be paved or formed, and repaired, cleaned, lighted, and watered, by the said Commissioners acting in execution of those Acts, as also the several Streets, Squares, Terraces, Roads, Passages, and Places (except the said Westminster Abbey) heretofore directed to be paved or formed, and repaired, lighted, cleaned, and watered, by the said Commissioners, and for the Purpose of the other Pavements heretofore in that Behalf mentioned, and in Lieu and stead of the Rates and Assessments by the said recited Acts authorized to be made and collected for paving or repairing, cleaning, lighting, watering, and watching the said several Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places, be it further enacted, That One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, shall be laid and assessed by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, at yearly or half-yearly Periods, or oftener, if they shall judge it needful, upon all Houses, and all Cathedral, Collegiate, and other Churches, Parochial and other Chapels, Places for Religious Worship, Hospitals and Schools, and all Shops, Warehouses, Coach-houses, Stables, Cellars, and Yards, and all other Buildings or Tenements, public or private, and all Spaces of Ground in or fronting or abutting upon or to the said Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places set out or to be set out on the Ground delineated and described on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 1., referred to in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and in the Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places delineated and coloured Brown on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 2., referred to in the same Act, and directed to be paved or repaired, cleaned, lighted, and watered, by the said Commissioners; and in the Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places set out and delineated on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 3., referred to in the same Act; and in the Streets and Places, and Parts of Streets and Places, which are by the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; and in the Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places set out or to be set out on the Ground delineated and described on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 2., heretofore referred to, and

Rates may be made for paving and watering

in the Streets, Passages, and Places delineated and described in the said Map or Plan marked N^o 7, heretofore referred to, and in the said Road called the Milford Road; in such Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners shall order and direct; but as notwithstanding as that such Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, do not exceed in the whole in any one Year the Sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence in the Pound according to the yearly Value of the said Houses and Premises, or in any Case where, under the Provision hereinafter contained, the Rates or Assessments shall be made according to the Number of Square Yards of Pavement, the Sum of Two Shillings for each such Square Yard.

His Majesty, as Owner of public Buildings, shall be liable to be rated.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, as Owner or Owners of any public Building or Buildings which may be situate within the Limits of either of the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of His said Majesty's Bege, or of this Act, shall be liable to be rated and assessed in the several Rates and Assessments for the Purposes of such Acts in like Manner as the Owners or Proprietors of other Public Buildings within the Limits of the said Acts are liable to be rated and assessed.

Rates to be assessed equally, except in case any houses shall be watered where others are not.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That, subject to the Provisions hereinafter contained for making Assessments in certain Cases according to the Number of Square Yards of Pavement, the said last-mentioned Rates or Assessments shall be laid and assessed equally on the Houses, Cathedral, Collegiate, and other Churches, Parochial and other Chapels, Places for Religious Worship, Hospitals, Schools, Ships, Warehouses, Coach-Houses, Stables, Cellars, Vaults, Buildings, Tonnages, and Spaces of Ground in, abutting upon, or fronting all the said several Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, Places, and Parts of Streets and Places: Provided only, that if any one or more of the said Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, Places, and Parts of Streets, and Places, shall be watered, whilst any other or others of them shall not be watered, such additional Rate may be laid and assessed in such one or more of the said Streets, Squares, Circuses, Terraces, Roads, Ways, Courts, Passages, Places, and Parts of Streets and Places, as shall be so watered, beyond the Rate laid and assessed in the other or others of them, as the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall consider equivalent to the Expence of so watering the same.

Commissioners
under this Act may contract with the Commissioners of the Parish for paving, watering, &c. of Waterloo Place, Cockspur Street, and Charing Cross.

XXV. And Whereas it may be expedient that the paving, maintaining, repairing, and watering of that Portion of Pall Mall Eastward from Waterloo Place, and of Cockspur Street and Charing Cross Street, which are respectively under the Charge and Management of the Committee for paving, lighting, and cleaning the Parish of Saint James Westminster, and the Committee for paving the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, should be performed by the Commissioners for executing this Act; Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from time to time, to contract or agree with the said Committees, or with either of them, for the paving, maintaining, repairing, and watering the Carriageway of that Portion of Pall Mall Eastward from Waterloo Place, and of Cockspur Street and Charing Cross Street, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, at such a Price or Sum as may be agreed upon between the said Commissioners and the said Committees, or either of such Committees; and that in the event of any such Contract and Agreement, the Monies to be received by the said Commissioners in respect thereof shall be applied in defraying the Expences of such paving, maintaining, repairing, and watering as aforesaid; and any Surplus or Deficiency of such Monies shall be added to or defrayed out of the Monies to arise from the said last-mentioned Rates and Assessments.

Act not to prejudice the Right to recover Annuities of Rates.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice the Right of the said Commissioners for executing this Act to recover any Arrears which may be or become due in respect of any Rate or Assessment made by them under the Authority of the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reigne of His present Majesty, or of either of them.

Power of revised Act
5 G. 4. c. 126.
as to the making and collecting of the several Rates, related to this
Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the several Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reigne of His present Majesty, with reference to the making of the Rates by that Act authorized to be made, and with reference to the Payment thereof, and the Liability to pay the same, and with reference to the Recovery thereof when it arises, except as far as the same are by this Act expressly altered and repealed, shall be and the same are hereby extended and made applicable to the making of the several Rates by this Act authorized to be made, and to the Payment and Recovery thereof, and to the enabling the said Commissioners to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money on the Security thereof, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers and Provisions had been severally hereby repeated and re-enacted with reference thereto.

Corner Houses to be included in the Rates.

XXVIII. And to prevent any Question whether the Provisions in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reigne of His present Majesty contained, with respect to rating Houses and other Buildings standing at the Corners of Streets crossing the Streets and Places in respect of which Rates are to be made under that Act, is by the preceding Clause extended to Houses and other Buildings standing at the Corners of Streets crossing the Streets in which Rates are to be made under this Act, be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in laying and assessing the said respective Rates hereby authorized to be laid, and assessed by them, to include in such Rates, and to rate the Corner or Return Houses, or other Buildings or Tonnages standing and erected at the Corners or Angles of any Street, Square, Circus, Terrace, Court, Passage, or Way which shall cross at branch from any of the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, or Places, in or in respect of which such Rates or Assessments are to be made; and the cleaning of all such Corner or Return Houses, Buildings, or Tonnages, shall be performed by the said Commissioners.

XXIX. And

XXIX. " And Whereas several of the Houses, Buildings, and Premises in the Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places delineated, described, and coloured Blue on the said Map or Plan marked No. 2, show respectively in part on Streets, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places now under the Jurisdiction, Control, and Management of the Commission for paving, cleansing, and lighting the Parishes of Saint James, Westminster: Be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall from time to time pay a proportionate Part of the several Rates and Assessments to be respectively laid and assessed by virtue of this Act on the said last-mentioned Houses, Buildings, and Premises, unto the said Commissioners, for or in respect of the paving, cleansing, and lighting such Parts of the several Streets, Ways, Courts, Passages, and Places upon which the said several last-mentioned Houses, Buildings, and Premises, or the Sides or other Parts thereof, stand, such proportionate Part to be from time to time fixed by the said Commissioners.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as provides for and regulates the Rates or Assessments to be made upon each of the Houses and other Buildings mentioned in the said recited Act as shall at the Time of making such Rates or Assessments be empty or unoccupied, and the Amount of Rates or Assessments to be charged upon Premises which shall after the making of such Rates or Assessments become empty or unoccupied, and also the Payment of the said Rates or Assessments, and all Arrears due thereon, and also so much of the same Act as provides, that in all Cases where any Person shall remove from or quit any House, Building, or Terrace which shall be rated or assessed by virtue of the said Act, such Person shall be liable to pay such Rate or Assessment in proportion to the Time that he or she occupied the same, and that in all Cases where any Person shall come into or occupy any House, Building, or Terrace rated or assessed as aforesaid, out of or from which any other Person who shall have been rated or assessed for the same shall be removed, the Person coming into or occupying the same shall not be liable to pay any such Rate or Assessment in respect thereof, for a longer Period than Twelve Months prior to the Commencement of such Incoming Tenant's Entrance on the Premises, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act to rate and assess the Houses and other Buildings by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and by this Act authorized to be rated and assessed, to the full Amount by the said recited Act and this Act respectively authorized, although the Houses and other Buildings, or some of them, shall, at the Time of making such Rates or Assessments be empty or unoccupied; but the Half only of such full Rates or Assessments shall be payable in respect of such of the said Houses and other Buildings as shall be or shall become empty or unoccupied, for such Time as the same respectively shall remain empty or unoccupied; and then and in every such Case such Half of the said full Rates or Assessments, and all Arrears of such Half of the said full Rates or Assessments, computed from the Time such Houses or other Buildings respectively became empty and unoccupied, shall be paid by the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to such Houses or other Buildings, or by the less or any other Tenant or Occupier thereof; and such Tenant or Tenant, Occupier or Occupiers, shall and may and is and are hereby authorized to deduct and retain the same out of his, her, or their Rent or Rents respectively; and the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to the Rent of such Houses or other Buildings, immediately payable by the Occupier or Occupiers thereof, is and are hereby required to allow such Deduction, upon Receipt of the Receipt of his, her, or their respective Rent or Rents; and the said Tenant or Tenant, Occupier or Occupiers, shall be and is and are hereby acquitted and discharged of and from so much of his, her, or their Rent as the Payment by him, her, or them to that respect shall amount to.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and not hereby repealed, relative to the Rates and Assessments by that Act authorized to be laid and assessed, and to the Recovery thereof, and of the Arrears thereof, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend and the same are hereby extended to the Half of such Rates or Assessments, and to the Recovery thereof and of all Arrears thereof, in all Cases in which such Half shall be charged and payable under or by virtue of this Act.

XXXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the respective Rates or Assessments to be laid and assessed by the said Commissioners under or by virtue of this Act, upon or in respect of any Cathedral, Collegiate, or other Church, Chapel, Place of Religious Worship, Hospital, Public School, or other Public Building, or any Wall or void Space of Ground, instead of being ascertained according to the yearly Value thereof, shall be ascertained according to the Number of Square Yards of Pavement or Ground belonging to such Cathedral, Collegiate, or other Church, Chapel, Place of Worship, Hospital, Public School, or other Public Building, Wall, or void Space of Ground, measuring the same from such Cathedral, Collegiate, or other Church, Chapel, Place of Worship, Hospital, School, Building, Wall, or void Space of Ground, to the Middle of the Street, Square, or Place on which the same shall respectively stand; and in making the said Rates and Assessments hereby authorized to be made, the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall determine what Sum shall be assessed in respect of each Square Yard of Pavement or Ground belonging to such Cathedral, Collegiate, or other Church, Chapel, Place of Worship, Hospital, Public School, or other Public Building, Wall, and void Space of Ground, such Sum not exceeding in the whole in any one Year the Sum heretofore mentioned; and the Rates or Assessments to be laid and assessed upon or in respect of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church shall be paid by the Dean and Chapter thereof; and the Rates or Assessments to be laid and assessed upon or in respect of any other Church, or any Chapel, Place of Worship, Hospital, School, or other Public Building, Wall, or void Commissioners, to pay Part of the Rates for paving, etc. of certain Streets, &c. in the Parish of Saint James, Westminster, as the Premises under their Control.

So much of 5 G. 4. c. 102, as regulates the Rates upon empty Houses, and upon Outgoing and Incoming Tenants, repealed.

Empty Houses to be charged with Half Rates.

Powers of recited Act relative to the Recovery of Rates shall extend to the Recovery of Half Rates.

How Amount of Rates to be ascertained in respect of Cathedrals, Churches, &c. shall be ascertained.

void Space of Ground, shall be paid by the Churchwardens, Chapelwardens, Trustees, or Owners or Proprietors thereof respectively; but so nevertheless, that no such Rate or Assessment shall, by virtue of this Act, be laid or assessed upon or in respect of any Wall or void Space of Ground, unless the same shall abut upon or front some Street or Place to be paved or repaired, cleaned, lighted, or watched by the Commissioners for executing this Act.

Recovery of Rates from Outgoing and Incoming Tenants.

XXXIV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall remove from or quit any House or other Building rated or assessed by the said Commissioners, by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, which shall be immediately afterwards occupied by some other Person or Persons, such Person or Persons so removing or afterwards shall be liable to pay the Rates and Assessments so made upon the said House or other Building, in proportion to the Time that he, she, or they occupied the same, in the same Manner as if he, she, or they had remained in the Possession or Occupation of the same; and that any Person or Persons coming into or occupying any House or other Building rated and assessed by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act, shall be liable to pay the Rates and Assessments so made upon the said House or other Building, in proportion to the Time that he, she, or they shall occupy the same, in the same Manner as if he, she, or they had been the Occupier or Occupiers thereof at the Time when the same was so rated and assessed as aforesaid, and shall also be liable to pay all Arrears of any Rates and Assessments which shall not be recovered from the last or any other Person or Persons so removing or afterwards, and which shall have occurred within Six Calendar Months next preceding the Time when such Person or Persons so coming into or occupying any House or other Building as aforesaid shall come into or commence to occupy the same, but not any Arrears which shall have accrued more than Six Calendar Months previously to such Occupation: Provided always, that nothing heretofore contained shall extend or be construed or taken to extend to exempt any Tenant or Occupier of any House or other Building liable to be rated by virtue of this Act or of the said recited Act, who, under and by virtue of the Provisions heretofore contained, shall be liable to be charged with and to pay all Arrears of the Half of any Rates and Assessments made in respect of any of the said Houses or other Buildings which may be or become empty or unoccupied as aforesaid, from Payment of all such Arrears, whether the same shall have accrued within Six Calendar Months previously to his or their Occupation of such House or Building, or not.

Application of Rates.

XXXV. And he it further enacted, That the Monies to be collected and received by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, from the Rates or Assessments heretofore directed to be laid and assessed by them for defraying the Expenses of paving or forming, and repairing, cleaning, lighting, and watering, the several Streets and Places (except the said Westminster Marsh) by the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty and by this Act respectively directed to be paved or formed, and repaired, cleaned, lighted, and watered, by the said Commissioners, and for the Purpose of other Payments, shall be applied by the said Commissioners, in the first place, in paying and discharging the Expenses attending the obtaining and passing of this Act, in the next place, in paying from time to time the Interest of all Principal Monies which have been already borrowed under the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, or either of them, or under Two Acts of the Fifty-third and Fifty-sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, recited in the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or either of them, or which may heretofore be borrowed under the Powers of this Act, and, subject thereto, in defraying the Expenses of paving or forming, and repairing, cleaning, lighting, and watering, the several Streets and Places (except the said Westminster Marsh) by the said recited Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years aforesaid, and by this Act, respectively directed or authorized to be paved or formed, and repaired, cleaned, lighted, and watered, by the said Commissioners, and in paying off the said Principal Monies already borrowed or hereafter to be borrowed as aforesaid.

Power to Commissioners to borrow Money on Credit of the Paving Rates.

XXXVI. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act to borrow or raise any Sum or Sums of Money, on the Credit of the said last-mentioned Rates or Assessments, for any of the Purposes to which the Monies to arise from the said last-mentioned Rates and Assessments are hereby made applicable; and all the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, such references to the borrowing or raising of Money by the said Commissioners on the Credit of the Rates and Assessments to be collected by them under the Authority of that Act, and to the Transfer of the Securities for the same, except so far as the same are hereby altered or repealed, shall be and the same are hereby extended and made applicable to the borrowing and raising of Money by the said Commissioners on the Credit of the said Rates and Assessments on the Credit of which they are hereby authorized to borrow or raise Money, and to the Transfer of the Securities for the same, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers and Provisions had been severally hereby repeated and re-enacted with reference thereto.

Pounds.

XXXVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not borrow or raise, under the Authority of this Act, any greater Sum in the whole than the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds.

Appropriation to be made up.

XXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall, at the Time of making out the annual Accounts to be made out in pursuance of the said first-recited Act, cause a like Apportion of the Monies received and disbursed in the preceding Year, and the Amount of the Arrears of Rates then due under the Authority of this Act, and of the Balances of Cash then in their Hands, Houses, arising from the Rates to be assessed under this Act, to be made out; which Account it shall be lawful for all Persons rated or assessed, by the said Commissioners, under and by virtue of this Act, at the Rates or Assessments aforesaid, and all Persons interested therein, at all reasonable Times to inspect.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Expense of maintaining and repairing the Lodge erected, or any Lodge or Lodges to be erected, under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, at the Entrance to Richmond Terrace, shall be defrayed, and all Rates and Taxes payable in respect of such Lodge shall be paid, by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, out of the Monies to arise from the Rates to be made under the said Act, for supporting and keeping in order the Gardens and Terraces at the same Terrace.

XII. And Whereas it is expedient that Porticoes, Arcades, Colonnades, or other covered Ways, should be allowed to extend over the Footways of some of the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, Roads, and Places within the Limits of this Act and of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and that Bow Windows, Shop Windows, Alcoves, Balconies, and other ornamental Projections should be allowed to be advanced to the Front of Houses, provided such Porticoes, Arcades, Colonnades, or other covered Ways, Bow Windows, Shop Windows, Alcoves, Balconies, and other ornamental Projections, be made of Brick, Stone, Metal, or other imperishable Materials: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act to authorize and permit the erecting, and the building or erecting and making, of any Porticoes, Arcades, Colonnades, and other covered Ways, projecting from any Buildings or Houses which shall or may be built in or on any of the Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, Roads, and Places, and Parts of Streets and Places, by the said recited Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid, or by this Act, placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, extending over any Footways of the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, Roads, and Places; provided the same do not obstruct or inconvenience the Free Passage, and that the Footways under the stair be at least Nine Feet broad in the clear between the Columns, Piers, or other Supports of such Porticoes, Arcades, Colonnades, or other covered Ways, and the Walling of the Areas of the Houses or other Buildings before or on the Sides of which the same are placed; and provided such Colonnades, Arcades, Porticoes, and covered Ways be built of Brick, Stone, or Metal, or Stucco or Cement laid on Brick or Stone, except Stairs and Houses which form the Covering over the said Footways, which may be of Wood covered with Plaster or Stucco or other unburnable Composition; and so as that all such Porticoes, Colonnades, Arcades, and other covered Ways be made in such Manner, and upon such Plans, and of such Dimensions, as shall be ordered and directed by the said Commissioners in that behalf; and the same may, by the Authority of the said Commissioners, project and extend, either from the Front or the Side of such Houses and Buildings, or from the Back or any other Part thereof, as the said Commissioners shall authorize and direct, and notwithstanding the same may project into any Street or Place not within the Limits heretofore described; any thing in an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, (intituled An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the Streets of the Metropolis, and removing and preventing Nuisances and Obnoxious Harbours, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act to authorize and permit the erecting or making, or continuing or suffering to remain, the Front or Side or other Parts of any Houses or Buildings in any of the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, Roads, and Places, and Parts of Streets and Places, in such Manner as that the Front, Side, or other Parts of some of the said Houses or Buildings may recede behind or advance before other Houses, and with Bow Windows, Virandas, Alcoves, Balconies, Piazza, Columns, and Shop Windows, and other Projections, attached to such Houses or Buildings, either in the Front thereof or on the Side or Back Part thereof, as the said Commissioners shall authorize, notwithstanding the same may extend into or project over any Street or Place not within the Limits of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year aforesaid, or of this Act; provided that no Front, Side, or Back of any such House or Building, or any such Bow Windows, Viranda, Alcove, Balcony, Piazza, Column, Shop Window, or other Projection, advance beyond the Area of the House or Building to which it shall belong; and that the same be built of Brick, Stone, Metal, or Stucco or other Cement laid on Brick or Stone, except Shop Windows, with their Shutters and Decorations, which may be of Wood; any thing in the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of His late Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall make, or cause or procure to be made, any Key or Keys for the Purpose of opening any Lock or Locks affixed on or to any of the Gates of the Gardens, Shrubberies, or ornamental Enclosures formed or laid out, or hereafter to be formed or laid out, and hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, without the Permission in Writing of the said Commissioners, or of any Gardens, Shrubby, or ornamental Enclosure formed or laid out, or hereafter to be formed or laid out, in the Royal's Park, and under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, without the Permission in Writing of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or shall sell or cause or procure to be sold any such Key or Keys to any Person or Persons whomsoever, or shall knowingly use any Key or Keys to unlawfully make or sold in opening any Lock or Locks as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Five Pounds: and the said Commissioners for executing this Act, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any of them respectively, or the Gardener or Keeper of any of the said Gardens, Shrubberies, and ornamental Enclosures, appointed by such Commissioners, together with Lodge at Richmond Terrace to be maintained by Commissioners.

Porticoes and Colonnades, &c. may be authorized by the Commissioners.

with any Person or Persons, whom they or he may call to their or his Assistance, are and is hereby authorised and empowered to seize, detain, and keep any such Key or Keys as aforesaid, and to cause the Person or Persons so making or selling, or causing or procuring to be made or sold, or so using such Key or Keys as aforesaid, to be summoned before some Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, to be dealt with according to Law.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully commit any Spoil, Waste, Damage, Depredation, Annoyance, Disorder, or Nuisance in, to, upon, or about any of the Parks, Walks, Grass-plots, or Shrubberies of any of the said Gardens, Shrubberies, or ornamental Inclosures, or the Avenues or Approaches thereto, or shall, by riotous, disorderly, or wilful Misbehaviour, molest or interrupt the free Passage of any Person, usage or passing along the same; then and in every such Case the Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and such Offender shall and may be apprehended by any Gamester or Keeper of any of the said Gardens, Shrubberies, or ornamental Inclosures, or by any other Person or Persons whom he or they may call to be or their Assistance; and it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons so apprehending such Offender to carry such Offender before some Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, to be dealt with according to Law.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed, adjudged, deemed, or taken to alter the Inheritance or Property of any of the said Gardens, Shrubberies, or ornamental Inclosures set out and delineated on the said Map or Plan marked No.2, but the Inheritance and Property thereof shall remain in and belong to His Majesty, His Heirs, Successors, and Assigns, in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act to erect and set up Watchtowers within the Areas or enclosed Fronts of any House, Buildings, or Tenements situate in any of the Streets, Squares, Roads, or Places watched by them under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or of this Act, and to make any Gate or Gates to communicate with such Watchtowers: Provided always, that when such Watchtowers are erected and set up within any Areas or Fronts which are or shall be inclosed from the Foot or other Placement, the said Commissioners shall cause Gates to be made to communicate with such Watchtowers, and shall keep the same Gates continually locked during such Time as the Watchmen for whom the said Watchtowers shall be made shall not be upon Duty.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for executing this Act may from time to time direct and regulate such Stands for Stage Coaches, or for Hackney Coaches or Chariots, or Carriages on Two Wheels, plying for Hire within the Limits of the said recited Acts or of this Act, as the said Commissioners shall in their Discretion think proper.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Person to stand or ply for Hire with any Stage Coach, or Hackney Coach or Chariot, or any Carriage on Two Wheels, in any of the Streets, Squares, Roads, or Places by the said recited Acts or by this Act placed under the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, except in such Places as may be directed by the said Commissioners; and that if any Person shall stand or ply for Hire, with any such Coach, Chariot, or Carriage, within the Limits aforesaid (except as aforesaid), the Party so offending shall, on the Conviction thereof, by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, or before the Commissioners acting under or by virtue of the several Acts for the licensing and regulating of Hackney Coaches and Chairs in the Cities of London and Westminster, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings or less than Ten Shillings for every such Offence; one Moiety of which Penalty shall be paid to the Informer (who it is hereby declared shall not be an incompetent Witness by reason of his Interest in such Moiety of the Penalty), and the other Moiety to the Use of the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and if such Offender shall not pay the said Penalty immediately on Conviction, he shall be committed to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid: Provided always, that all such Offences shall be prosecuted within Seven Days after the same shall be committed.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That besides the several Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, heretofore particularly referred to, all and every other the Clauses, Powers, Provisions, Exceptions, Rules, Remedies, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Aids, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, (save and except such Parts of the same Act as are hereby altered or otherwise provided for) shall be and are hereby declared to be in full Force and Effect, and shall extend to, and be used, exercised, applied, enforced, and put in execution, in all Intents and Purposes, as in this Act, and the several Statutes and Things hereto contained, for passing, repairing, lighting, watching, watering, cleansing, and regulating, maintaining and supporting, the several Streets and Places, Gardens and Inclosures, hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and for carrying the several Purposes of this Act into Execution, in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes whatsoever, and the same had been severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof, with reference to the Streets, Squares, Roads, Places, Gardens, and Inclosures hereby placed under the Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners.

XLIX. And

Penalty on Persons committing any Damage or Nuisance, or interfering with a Party in the exercise of the Privilege aforesaid.

Inheritance or Property of Gardens not to be altered.

Power to erect Watchtowers within the Areas of Houses, &c.

Commissioners to regulate the Stands of Coaches, &c.

No Hackney Coaches to be permitted to ply within the Limits of this Act, except in Places directed by the Commissioners.

Powers of recited Act, &c. to 1000, generally extended in this Act, except as hereby altered.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners of Sewers for maintaining and keeping in repair, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to maintain and keep in repair, the aforesaid new Common Sewer, and also the other Drains and Watercourses communicating therewith, made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and also such other Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses as may be necessary for supplying a proper or more effectual Drainage to all or any of the said Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places set out and delineated on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 5, or which may be hereafter set out on the Ground therein contained and described, and the Houses and Buildings erected thereon; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are thereby authorized and empowered, to make and form any Drains, Watercourses, or Communications from any Part or Parts of the Ground delineated and described on the said Map or Plan marked N^o 5, or from any Houses or Buildings erected or to be erected within the Limits therein described, and also from any of the Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places within the said Limits, to carry off or draw the Water from all or any of the said Houses, Buildings, Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places, into the said new Common Sewer, and also to make such additional Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall judge necessary for affording a proper and effectual Drainage to any of the said Houses, Buildings, Streets, Squares, Terraces, Passages, and Places within the Limits aforesaid, as are not drained by the said new Common Sewer; and for those Purposes, or any of them, to stop up, divert, or alter any Sewers, Drains, Tunnels, or Watercourses which may be feared to making such new Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, and Communications, or which it may in the Judgment of the said last-mentioned Commissioners be expedient or necessary to stop up, divert, or alter.

L. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said new Common Sewer, with all the Drains, Watercourses, and Communications made or to be made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, together with all the Sewers, Drains, and Watercourses which shall be hereafter made by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, shall be under the sole Management, Survey, Control, and Direction of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and of no other Person or Persons, in such and the like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been expressly directed by any of the existing Statutes, or any Commission of Sewers, to be under their Survey and Authority; and the said Commissioners shall have all and every the same Powers, Jurisdiction, and Authorities to retain therein, to all Intents and Purposes, in as full, ample, and extensive a Manner, as are by the said last-mentioned Act vested in them with respect to the said Principal or Common Sewer thereby placed under their Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority.

LI. And be it further enacted, That in order to defray the Expenses of making, maintaining, supporting, and keeping in repair such Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, and Communications as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act to make any Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, by an equal Period Rate, from time to time, as they shall see Occasion, upon all Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Tenements which shall be drained by means of the said Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, and Communications, and by any Precept or Warrant under the Hands of any Three or more of them to authorize and empower any Person or Persons to collect the same Rate and Assessments from time to time, and out of the same to make or allow to every such Collector a reasonable Compensation or Salary for his Trouble; which said Rates shall be levied and recovered in the same Manner, and under the same Powers and Authorities, as any other Rate raised and assessed under the Authority of this Act.

LII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person paying to the Sewers Rate or Assessment raised and collected by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act shall, during the Continuance of the Payment of such Rate or Assessment, be subject or liable to the Payment of any other Sewers Rate or Assessment in respect of the Premises for which he or she shall have been rated or assessed under or by virtue of this Act.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or in this Act contained shall authorize or empower the Commissioners of Sewers, under the editing or any future Commission, to assess and collect Rates within their respective Districts from the Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers of any Houses, Buildings, or Lands in any of the Streets or Places made and laid out, or hereafter to be made and laid out, within the Limits of the Map or Plan marked No. 5. hereinafter referred to.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Sewer, Drain, Tunnel, or Watercourse which the said Commissioners for executing the Act may judge it necessary to stop up, divert, or alter, shall be stopped up, diverted, altered, or interfered with, otherwise than with the Consent and to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Sewers for the Time being for the District or Place drained by such Sewer, Drain, Tunnel, or Watercourse.

LV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, by any Writing under the Hand of the said Lord High Treasurer, or under the Hands of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, by any Writing under their Hands, or the Hands of any Two of them, to direct and appoint that any Street or Streets, Square or Squares, Circus or Circuses, Terrace or Terraces, Way or Ways, Court or Courts, Passage or Passages, Place or Places, Road or Roads, Drive or Drives, Garden or Gardens, Stridbery or Stridberies, ornamental Inclosures or Inclosures, which may

LVI. And Whereas a public Passage or Court called Chifley Court, running from the East End of a Post Mall, in the Parish of St. James, within the said Liberty of Westminster, in Lower Warwick Street within the same Liberty, was, in or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and eight, by the Permission of the Committee for paving, cleaning, and lighting the said Parish, stopped up, in consequence of various Reasons having been submitted therein, and the same continued to be stopped up to the present Time; but Doubts having arisen whether the said Committee had Power to permit the same to be continued to be so stopped up, and it being desirable that the said Court, and the Soil and Freehold thereof, should be vested in His Majesty, freed and discharged from all public or other Rights of passing or repassing over the same: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Court or Place called Chifley Court shall henceforth for ever hereafter cease to be a public Court, Way, or Passage, and that the Soil and Freehold of the said Court or Place shall remain and continue at all Times hereafter vested in His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, freed and discharged from all public and private Right of passing or repassing over and along the same.

Chifley Court, on the South of St. James, shall cease to be a public passage, and the Freehold thereof vested in His Majesty.

An Act to restrain the Negotiation, in England, of Promissory Notes and Bills under a limited Sum, issued in Scotland or Ireland. [18th July 1828.]

7 G. 4. c. 12.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to limit, and after a certain Period to prohibit, the issuing of Promissory Notes under a limited Sum in England; and Doubts may arise how far the Provisions of the said Act may be effectual to restrain the circulating in England of certain Notes, Drafts, or Undertakings made or issued in Scotland or Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, shall, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, by any Act, Device, or Means whatsoever, publish, utter, negotiate, or transfer, in any Part of England, any Promissory or other Note, Draft, Engagement, or Undertaking in Writing, made payable on Demand to the Bearer thereof, and being negotiable or transferable, for the Payment of any Sum of Money less than Five Pounds, or so which less than the Sum of Five Pounds shall remain undischarged, which shall have been made or issued, or shall purport to have been made or issued, in Scotland or Ireland, or elsewhere out of England, whosoever the same shall or may be payable, every such Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons, so publishing, uttering, negotiating, or transferring any such Note, Bill, Draft, Engagement,

After 5th April
1829, no Corporation or Person shall issue an England Note or Bill under 5l.
which have been made or issued in Scotland or Ireland,

Engagement, or Undertaking, in any Part of England, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, at the Discretion of the Justice of the Peace who shall hear and determine such Offences.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Penalties which may be incurred under the Provisions of this Act shall and may be recovered in a summary Way, by Information on Complaint, before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, and shall be levied and applied in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated An Act to restrain the Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Island Bills of Exchange under a limited Sum in England, with respect to the Penalties by the said last-mentioned Act imposed; and all and every the Clauses and Provisions in the said last-mentioned Act contained, relating to the Recovery and Application of the Penalties thereby imposed, shall be applied and put in execution for the Recovery and Application of the Penalties by this Act imposed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Clauses and Provisions had been herein repeated and expressly re-enacted.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to order and direct that the Whole or any Part of any Penalty which shall be incurred under this Act shall and may be remitted, or mitigated or abated to such Amount, and in such Manner and upon such Conditions as to such Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury may seem fit and proper.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to any Draft or Order drawn by any Person or Persons on his, her, or their Banker or Bankers, or on any Person or Persons acting as such Banker or Bankers, for the Payment of Money held by such Banker or Bankers, Person or Persons, to the Use of the Person or Persons by whom such Draft or Order shall be drawn.

C A P. LXVI.

An Act for repealing the Laws now in force relating to the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea.

[13th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intimated An Act for more effectually discovering the Longitude at Sea, and encouraging Attempts to find a Northern Passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the Northern Pole, divers Acts therein recited, and Parts of other Acts therein mentioned, are repealed, and various other Regulations and Provisions are enacted, for the Appointment of Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude, and for other Purposes therein specified: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for amending the said Act of the Fifty-eighth Year of His late Majesty: And Whereas it is deemed expedient to amend and repeal all the Powers and Authorities given by the said Acts; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Two recited Acts, and all other Acts now in force relating to the Appointment or to the Authorities and Powers of Commissioners, or to the Payment of any Reward, for the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea, or for any Invention or Proposal relating to the same, except so far as hereinafter is provided, shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be held or deemed to extend, to revive any former Acts or Parts of Acts which by the said recited Act of the Fifty-eighth Year of His late Majesty are repealed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend as abrogate or make void any Enactment now in force for the Payment to the Commander or Commanders, Officers, Seamen, and Mariners, of any Ship or Ships of His Majesty, or to the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, of any Reward or Rewards for the Discovery of a Northern Passage, or for approaching or attempting to approach the North Pole; provided such Ships shall have sailed from any Part of the United Kingdom before the passing of this Act.

II. And Whereas the Publication of the Nautical Almanack, constructed by proper Persons for the finding of the Longitude at Sea, is of great Importance to the Safety of Ships and Persons, and highly conducive to the general Interests of Commerce and Navigation: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, to cause such Nautical Almanacks, or other useful Table or Tables, which he or they shall from time to time judge necessary and useful in order to facilitate the Method of discovering the Longitude at Sea, to be constructed, printed, published, and vendid, free of all Stamp Duty whatever, in the same Manner as the Commissioners under the said Act of the Fifty-eighth Year of His late Majesty's Reign might or could do; and that every Person who, without the special Licence and Authority of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid for the Time being, shall print, publish, or vend, or cause to be printed, published, or vendid, any such Almanack or Almanacks, or other Table or Tables, shall, for every Copy of such Almanack or Table so printed, published, or vendid, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by any Person to be authorized for that Purpose by the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid (such Authority to be applied under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty as aforesaid), by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, as may of His Majesty's Courts Enacted Acts, and all other Acts relating to rewards for Discovery of the Longitude at Sea, repealed. Proviso as to Rewards for the Discovery of a Northern Passage.

Lord High Admiral may authorize the Publication of the Nautical Almanack.

Penalty for publishing said Almanack without such Authority.

of One Year, unless such Sureties are sooner found; and in case such Person shall so offend a Third Time, he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond Seas for Seven Years, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and in Scotland, if any Person shall so offend a First, Second, or Third Time, he shall be liable to be punished in like Manner as is hereby provided in such Case.

II. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be found upon any Land containing any such Offence as is hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Owner or Occupier of such Land, or for any Person having a Right or reputed Right of Free Warren or Free Chase thereon, or for the Lord of the Manor or reputed Manor wherein such Land may be situate, and also for any Gamekeeper or Servant of any of the Persons herein mentioned, or any Person assisting such Gamekeeper or Servant, to seize and apprehend such Offender upon such Land, or in case of Pursuit being made, in any other Place to which he may have escaped therefrom, and to deliver him, as soon as may be, into the Custody of a Peace Officer, in order to his being conveyed before Two Justices of the Peace: and in case such Offender shall assault or offer any Violence with any Gun, Crossbow, Fire Arms, Bludgeon, Stick, Club, or any other effective Weapon whatsoever, towards any Person hereby authorized to seize and apprehend him, he shall, whether he be his First, Second, or any other Offence, be guilty of a Misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond Seas for Seven Years, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and in Scotland, whenever any Person shall so offend, he shall be liable to be punished in like Manner.

III. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible Witness, or in Scotland on the Application of the Procurator Fiscal of Court, before any Justice of the Peace, with any Offence punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, the Justice may issue his Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before Two Justices of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence; and the Prosecution for every Offence punishable upon indictment, or otherwise than upon summary Conviction, by virtue of this Act, shall be commenced within Twelve Calendar Months after the Commission of such Offence.

V. And be it enacted, That the Justices of the Peace before whom any Person shall be summarily convicted of any Offence against this Act may cause the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, as the Case may require: (that is to say.)

BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord in the County of (or Riding, Division, Liberty, City, &c. or the Case may be,) A. G. is convicted before us (naming the Justices), Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, (or Riding, &c.) for that he the said A. G. did (specify the Offence, and the Time and Place when and where the same was committed, as the Case may be, and on a Second Conviction state the First Conviction); and we the said Justices adjudge the said A. G. for his said Offence to be imprisoned in the and there kept to hard Labour for the Period of and at the Expiration of such Period to find Sureties, by Recognizance, or Bond of Caution in Scotland, himself in the Sum of Ten Pounds, and Two Sureties in the Sum of Five Pounds each, or One Surety in the Sum of Ten Pounds, conditioned that he the said A. G. shall not so offend again for the Space of One Year next following; and we further adjudge the said A. G., in case he shall not find such Sureties as aforesaid, to be further imprisoned and kept to hard Labour for the Space of Six Calendar Months, unless such Sureties shall be sooner found. Given under our Hands, the Day and Year first above mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by any such summary Conviction may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions which shall be holden, not less than Twelve Days after the Day of such Conviction, for the County, Riding, or Division wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen; provided that such Person shall give to the Complainant a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, within Three Days after such Conviction, and Seven clear Days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also either reside in Custody until the Sessions, or within such Three Days enter into a Recognizance, or Bond of Caution in Scotland, with a sufficient Surety, before a Justice of the Peace, conditioned personally to appear at the said Sessions, and to try such Appeal, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Court; and upon such Notice being given, and such Recognizance or Bond being entered into, the Justice before whom the same shall be entered into shall liberate such Person if in Custody; and the Court at such Session shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal, and shall make such Order therein, with or without Costs to either Party, as to the Court shall seem meet; and in case of the Dismissal of the Appeal, or the Allowance of the Conviction, shall order and adjudge the Offender to be dealt with and punished according to the Conviction, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded; and shall, if necessary, issue Process for enforcing such Judgment.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no such Conviction, or Adjudication made on Appeal therefrom, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Certiorari, or otherwise, into any of His Majesty's Superior of Offence, to be liable to Transportation.

An Act to alter and enlarge the Powers of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for extending to Charing Cross, the Strand, and Places adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park, and for enabling the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace; and for other Purposes relating therein. [18th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to extend to Charing Cross, the Strand, and Places adjacent, the Powers of an Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park, and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to grant Leases of the Site of Carlton Palace, it was amongst other Things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for executing that Act, by and with the Consent and Approbation in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, absolutely to sell and dispose of all or any Part of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in the Lane of the Streets and Places respectively to be erected and built, altered, repaired, and improved, under or by virtue of the now-recited Act, or which should be purchased or acquired in therein mentioned, and should not be wanted for the Purposes of the now-recited Act; and also to convey in exchange, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, all or any Part of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, situate within any or either of the Parishes through which the said Streets and Places respectively to be erected and built, altered, stepped up, repaired, or improved, under or by virtue of the now-recited Act, extend, or which should have been purchased and taken in exchange under the Authority of the now-recited Act, and which should not be wanted for the Purposes of the said Act, in lieu of and in exchange for any other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which should be wanted for the Purpose of that Act, or with a View to the Acquisition by Exchange of any other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which might be required for the complete Purposes of the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient the better to effectuate the Purposes of the said in part recited Act, that the said recited Power of Sale and Exchange thereby given to the Commissioners for executing the said Act should be altered and enlarged: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners acting in execution of the said in part recited Act, by and with the Consent and Approbation in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, or any Three or more of them, absolutely to sell and dispose of all or any Part of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, situate, lying, and being in any or either of the several Parishes and Places within the Bills of Mortality, or any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be purchased or acquired under the Powers of the said in part recited Act or of this Act (and shall not be wanted for the Purposes of the said recited Act); and also to convey in exchange, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, all or any Part of said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, situate, lying, and being in any or either of the several Parishes and Places within the Bills of Mortality aforesaid, or which shall have been purchased or taken in exchange under the Powers of the said in part recited Act or of this Act, and which shall not be wanted for the Purposes of the said in part recited Act, in lieu of and in exchange for any other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be wanted for the Purposes of the said in part recited Act, or which it shall be deemed expedient to obtain with a View to the Acquisition by Exchange of any other Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which may be required for the immediate Purposes of the said in part recited Act.

II. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said in part recited Act to agree, on behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for the Receipt or Payment of any Sum of Money for equalizing any Exchange to be made under the Authority of the said last-mentioned Act or of this Act.

III. And he it further enacted, That all Conveyances and Exchanges which shall be made, under the Authority of this Act, by the said Commissioners for executing the said in part recited Act, of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments hereby authorized to be sold or conveyed in exchange, may be made according to the Form set forth in the Schedule annexed to an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for making a more convenient Communication from Mary-le-bone Park and the Northern Parts of the Metropolis to the Parish of Saint Mary-le-bone in Charing Cross within the Liberty of Westminster, and for making a more convenient Passage for the same, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and all such Conveyances and Exchanges shall be good, valid, and effectual, any Provisions, Restrictions, or Clauses contained in any Act or Acts relating to His Majesty's Land Revenue, or to any Property under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Practice, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

IV. And he it further enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions contained in the said in part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, with respect to Sales and Exchanges under the Authority of that Act, shall be and the same are hereby extended to Sales and Exchanges under the Authority of this Act, as fully and effectually, as all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been hereby specially repeated and re-enacted with reference to the said Sales and Exchanges under the Authority of this Act.

V. And Whereas it was by the said in part recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, amongst other Things, further enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Act to take or use, for the Purposes of the said Act, so much of the Burial Ground in the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields as lay on the South Side of the Church as might be required for the Purpose, and the Ground situate, and the Free Sepulchre and Inheritance thereof, should be and were thereby vested in the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Purposes of the said Act; and it was further enacted, that whenever it should be necessary, in pursuance and execution of the said in part recited Act, to open or disturb any Grave or Graves, or any Burial Vault or Vaults, in the said present Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, on the South Side of the said Church aforesaid, it should be lawful for the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Relations, or Friends of any Person or Persons who should have been interred or deposited in such Grave or Graves, Vault or Vaults, with the Consent of the Vicar and Churchwardens of the said Parish, or the major Part of them, to remove and carry away the Remains of any such Person or Persons, and place the same in such new Burial Ground as therein mentioned, or any other Churchyard or consecrated Ground, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person as he might appoint, should direct; and that the Expenses of such removing, carrying away, and placing (not exceeding in any one Case the Sum of Ten Pounds) should be paid, by the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said in part recited Act, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purposes of the said Act; and that the Remains of such Person or Persons as should have been interred or deposited in the Graves or Vaults so to be opened and disturbed as aforesaid, which should not be removed or carried away as aforesaid, should (except such Graves or Vaults should be finally closed up), at the Expense of the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Act, be paid out of the Monies to be raised by virtue of the said Act, be removed from such Graves or Vaults into and be interred in such new Burial Ground as aforesaid, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person or Persons as he should appoint, should direct: And Whereas in order to facilitate the Removal of the Remains of the various Persons who have been interred or deposited in the Graves or Vaults of the present Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, on the South Side of the said Church aforesaid, it is expedient, and would be of great Saving to the Public, if the said and Monies, for belonging to His Majesty, within the Bills of Mortality;

or to exchange them for Monies, the required for Purposes of recited Act.

Commissioners may agree for Receipt of Money for equalizing an Exchange.

Conveyances and Exchanges to be in the Form prescribed by 33 G. 3. c. 111.

Powers of recited Act, with respect to Sales and Exchanges, extended to this Act.

So much of P.G. 4. as relates to Removal of Remains of Persons from Graves, &c. repealed.

' Powers given by the said in part recited Act for the Removal of such Remains as aforesaid were repealed, and such new Provisions made in respect thereof as hereinafter is mentioned.' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act as much of the said in part-recited Act as relates to the Removal of the Remains of the various Persons who have been interred or deposited in the Graves or Vaults of the said Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, on the South Side of the said Church as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Commissioners empowered to remove Remains of Persons from the Burial Ground of St. Martin's.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whenever, at any Time after the passing of this Act, it shall be necessary, in pursuance and execution of the said in part-recited Act, to open or disturb any Grave or Graves, or any Burial Vault or Vaults, in the said Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, on the South Side of the said Church aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act, with the Consent of the Vicar and Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, or the major Part of them, to remove and carry away the Remains of any such Person or Persons as shall have been interred or deposited in such Grave or Graves, Vault or Vaults, and place the same either in such new Burial Ground as by the said in part recited Act the said Commissioners are empowered and required to provide, or in any other Churchyard or consecrated Ground, in such Manner as the Lord Bishop of London for the Time being, or such Person or Persons as he may appoint, shall direct; and that the Expence of such removing, carrying away, and placing, (not exceeding in any one Case the Sum of Ten Pounds) shall be paid by the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said in part recited Act, out of the Monies to be applied for the Purposes of the said Act.

For removing Deadst as in the Power of Commissioners of Woods and Forests to contract with any Person holding Houses, belonging to the Crown by Lease, for the Purchase of such Lease.

VII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to contract for the Purchase and Surrender of Crown Leases, and to sell the Majesty's Interest in the Threshill Estate in the Parish of Stalbridge in the County of Dorset, and in certain small Parcels of Land belonging to His Majesty's Subjects within the Royal Woods; and to remove Deadst as in Statute of the Crown, sold by Order of the said Commissioners, being exempted from the Auction Duty; it was (amongst other Things) enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Lord High Treasurer or any Three or more of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to contract and agree with any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons, holding any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, for any Term or Terms of Years, under any Letters Patent, Lease, Donation, or Grant from His Majesty or any of His Royal Predecessors, for the Purchase of any such Term, or the Surrender of any such Term, and such Letters Patent, Lease, or Grant, whether the Possession of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments comprised in any such Term or Terms, Letters Patent, Lease, or Grant, were wanted for the Public Service, or should or might be required with a view to the making any Alterations or Improvements therein, or in any other Houses, Buildings, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, near or contiguous thereto, or for any other Purpose, if the same should, by any Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, be deemed eligible to be purchased or bought up for any such Purpose, and to pay the Price or Consideration agreed to be paid for the same out of any Money which had arisen or which might thereafter arise from the Sale of any Property belonging to the Crown, under the Management or Control of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues; and in the said Act are contained various Provisions with respect to such Purchases and Surrenders: And Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were by the said Act authorized to contract and agree for the Purchase or Surrender of any Lease granted by His present Majesty; and also, whether Leases of Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to His Majesty, executed by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to improve the Land Revenues of the Crown, and of His Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, and for making Provision and Regulations for the better Management thereof, were Leases from His Majesty within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and it is desirable that such Doubts should be removed: Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were by the said Act empowered from time to time or at any Time, with such Approbation and Consent as therein mentioned, to contract and agree with any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons, holding at the Time of any such Contract or Agreement being entered into any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, for any Term or Terms of Years, under any Letters Patent, Lease, Donation, or Grant from the King for the Time being of the United Kingdom, or any of His Royal Predecessors, or under any Demise from the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the said recited Act of the First and Second Years aforesaid, for the Purchase or Surrender of any such Term or Terms.

Be made of Act 55 G. 3. as relation to

VIII. And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, with respect to the Purchase or Surrender of any Term or Terms of Years in any of the Possessions of the Crown, should be repealed, and the Powers and Provisions hereinafter contained be substituted for the same: Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said last-recited Act as relates to the Purchase or Surrender of any Term or Terms

Terms of Years in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Repeal of so much of the said last-mentioned Act as is hereby repealed shall not annul or prejudice any Purchase, Contract, Agreement, or other Act, Matter, or Thing, which at the Time of passing this Act shall have been made, done, or entered into under and by virtue of the said Act, but the same shall remain as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Act had not been hereby in any Manner repealed; and any Contract which may have been entered into before the Commencement of this present Act, under and by virtue of the said Act, which shall not have been fully performed or completed, may and shall be proceeded with, performed, and completed under the Provisions of the said Act, in the same Manner as if the same had not been hereby in any Manner repealed, unless the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue shall think it more expedient to proceed with, perform, and complete the same under the Provisions of this Act; and in that Case the same shall and may be proceeded with, performed, and completed under the Provisions of this Act.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Repeal of so much of the said last-mentioned Act as is hereby repealed shall not prejudice or affect the Right of any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, to any Purchase Money which may have been paid or agreed to be paid for the Purchase or Surrender of any Term or Terms of Years under the Powers and Provisions of the said Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, or any Two of them, at any Time to purchase or and from any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, any Lease or Term of Years which may for the Time being be subsisting of and in any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown, and to enter into such Contracts and Agreements for that Purpose as to the said Commissioners shall seem proper.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Bodies Public or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, and for all Trustees and Executors for the Time being, possessed of or entitled to any Lease already granted or hereafter to be granted of any Part of the Possessions and Land Revenue of the Crown, and for all Tenants for any Interest short of so absolute Interest in any such Lease, and for the Guardians or Guardian or Committees or Committee of any Person interested in any such Lease, who shall be an Infant, Lunatic, Idiot, or otherwise incapable of acting for himself or herself, to contract and agree with the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, for the Sale to them, on behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of such Lease, and to assign, transfer, or surrender the same accordingly; and every such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Transfer, and Surrender shall be as good, valid, and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were made by a Person absolutely entitled to such Lease, and under no Disability or Incapacity.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Money shall, under the Provision of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid, have been agreed to be paid or shall hereafter be agreed to be paid for the Purchase of any such Lease as aforesaid, which is or shall be held by or in Trust for any Body or Bodies Public, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having Power to sell the same, except under the Provisions for that Purpose contained in the said recited Act or under the Provisions heretofore contained, such Money shall, in case the same shall amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, with all convenient Speed be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to the Account of such Accountant General, or partly the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, without Fee or Reward; and such Money shall be applied under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be applied by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem fit, in such Manner as the said Court shall think just and equitable, for the Benefit of the Party or Parties who shall have been interested in or entitled to such Lease, and in the meantime and until the same shall be so applied, the said Money shall, by Order of the said Court of Exchequer, upon Application thereto, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities; and the Dividends and annual Produce of the said Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities shall from time to time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled under such Lease to the Possession or to the Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the Hereditaments therein comprised; but such Money, in case the same shall not amount to the Sum of Fifty Pounds, shall be applied in such Manner as the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue shall think fit, for the Benefit of the Party or Parties who shall have been interested in or entitled to such Lease.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to say Money to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer pursuant to the Directions of this Act, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Annuities, the Person or Persons who shall have been or be Possessors of the Hereditaments comprised in the Lease so purchased, or surrendered as aforesaid at the Time of such Purchase, shall be deemed to have been lawfully entitled to such Premises according to such Possession, and the contrary shall be shows to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Exchequer; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession or Receipt was wrongful, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Lease.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any subsisting Lease of any Part of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown hath been agreed to be purchased by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, or shall be agreed to be purchased by them under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners either to cause the same to be surrendered to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in order that the Remainder of the Term for which such Lease shall have been granted may merge in the Inheritance and become extinguished, or to cause the same to be assigned to any Person or Persons as a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in order that the same may be kept on foot distinct from the Inheritance.

XVI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for settling Articles of Agreement entered into by His Right Honourable Henry Hall Financet Gage, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenue, and for the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown, it was enacted, for the providing Funds for the Payment of the Purchase Money of the Estates, Manors, Lordships, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of that Act, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, from Time to Time to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of and absolutely to make sale and dispose of any Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown within the Ordering and Survey of the Exchequer in England, which did or should consist of any Regality, Honours, Hereditals, Manors, Lordships, or Townships, or any Rights, Members, or Appurtenances thereof, or thereof belonging or appertaining, or any Pines, houses, Amenities, Fruits, Dues, or Monies arising therefrom, or incident to or receivable in respect thereof, or any Messuages, Lands, Tithes, Rents, Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Wood Grounds, Fern, Muske, Waste Lands, or any other Tenements or Hereditaments whatsoever, or any other Revenues of or belonging to the Crown within the Ordering and Survey aforesaid, which should in their Judgment be desirable to be sold for the best Price or Consideration in Money which the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, be able to procure for the same: And Whereas Doubts have been suggested whether the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were by the said Act authorized to contract and agree for the Sale of any subsisting Lease, or any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, which might have been purchased or agreed to be purchased by them under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty; and it is desirable, for the Benefit and Security of Parties who have purchased or agreed to purchase Leases than the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid, that such Doubts should be removed: Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were by the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid authorized and empowered to contract and agree for the Sale of and absolutely to make sale and dispose of any subsisting Lease of and in any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, which at the Time of such Contract or Sale had been purchased or agreed to be purchased by the said Commissioners under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

XVII. And Whereas it is expedient to make fuller Provisions than those contained in the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for the future Sale and Disposal of Leases purchased or to be purchased by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Powers of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid, or of this Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, when they shall deem it necessary or expedient so to do, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Sale of and absolutely to make sale and dispose of, for such Sum or Sums of Money as to them shall appear a sufficient Consideration for the same, any Lease which shall have been purchased under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid or of this Act, and shall have been assigned to a Trustee or Trustees for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and kept on foot distinct from the Inheritance.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall have contracted and agreed with any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, for the Sale of and, or them of any subsisting Lease of any Part or Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, which shall have been purchased or agreed to be purchased by the said Commissioners under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid, or of this Act, the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Lease shall cause the Purchase Money to be paid into the Bank of England, and the Cashiers of the Bank of Leases purchased may be either merged or kept on foot.

England

Commissioners of Woods, do consent to sell any such Leases.

Made of carrying Sales into Effect.

England shall, upon Production of any Note, signed by the said Commissioners, specifying the Sum to be so paid in, and that it is to be paid in to their Account, accept and receive the same, and carry the same to the Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, being "The Woods and Forests Fund," and give a Receipt for the same without Fee or Reward; and the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues shall, on the Production of the Receipt of the Cashiers or One of the Cashiers of the Bank of England for the same, cause the Trustee or Trustees in whom the said Lease shall be then vested to assign the same to the Purchaser or Purchasers, or as he or they shall direct; and every such Assignment shall be good, valid, and effectual, and the Parties claiming under such Assignment shall hold the Lease thereby assigned discharged from any Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; and the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall in and by such Assignment, or by any separate Instrument, at the Option of such Purchaser or Purchasers, acknowledge the Payment of the Purchase Money.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Purchase or Sale of any Lease of any Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown shall be made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Powers of this Act, without the previous Authority of the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, to be signified by some Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands.

XX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Purchase of any Lease of any Part of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, which has been agreed to be sold by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, under the Authority or supposed Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid, or which shall be sold or agreed to be sold by the said Commissioners under the Authority or supposed Authority of this Act, shall be bound to enquire whether such Lease shall have been properly purchased, pursuant to the Provisions and Intent of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid, or of this Act, or not; or whether the same shall have been properly sold or agreed to be sold by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or not, or whether the said Commissioners shall have been duly authorised by a Warrant from the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the Time being, to purchase or sell the same, nor shall any such Purchaser be bound to see to the Application of the Purchase Money for the same, or answerable for any Misapplication or Non-application thereof; but every Assignment which shall be made of any subsisting Lease of any Part or Parts of the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, under the Authority or supposed Authority of the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid, or of this Act, with the Privity of the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them, shall, so far as regards the Parties claiming under such Assignment, be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and the Receipt of the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, for the Purchase Money for any such Lease, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge to the Party or Parties paying the same, and his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Purchase Money to be paid for the Purchase, by the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, of any Lease of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Households, which has been agreed to be purchased under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year aforesaid, or shall hereafter be purchased under the Authority of this Act, shall be paid by them out of any Monies in their Hands, arising from the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown; and that the Purchase Money to be paid in manner heretofore mentioned for the Purchase from the said Commissioners of any Lease which has been agreed to be sold by them under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid, or may be sold by them under the Authority of this Act, shall be applied to the same Purposes as the Monies arising from the Sales under the said recited Act of the Fifty-seventh Year aforesaid are by that Act directed to be applied to.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That no Conveyance, Surrender, Assignment, Covenant, Agreement, Contract, Receipt, or other Deed or Instrument which shall be executed, entered into, made, or given for the Purpose of carrying into Effect any Purchase, Sale, or Exchange under the Authority of this Act, or in any Manner relating thereto, shall be subject or liable to any ad valorem or other Stamp Duty whatsoever, imposed by any Act or Acts now in Force, or to be imposed by any future Act or Acts, unless the same be specially subjected thereto and specifically charged therewith in and by such future Act or Acts.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Deeds, Assignments, or Instruments, whereby any Lease which hath been or shall be purchased or sold by the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, for or on behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, under the Authority of this Act, or of either of the before recited Acts of the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-seventh Years aforesaid, shall be assigned to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for him or them, or to the Purchaser or Purchasers from the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, of any such Lease, shall, within Six Months after the Date of every such Instrument or Deed, be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor or Auditors, or the acting Deputy performing the Duty of Auditor, of His Majesty's Land Revenues for the District within which the Premises comprised therein shall be situate (or if such Premises shall be situate within more than One of the Districts for which Auditors of the Land Revenues of the Crown in England and

An Act to provide for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in the East Indies, until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three. [18th July 1828.]

' WHEREAS divers good Laws have of late Years been established within the United Kingdom of ' Great Britain and Ireland for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and it is right that Relief be given ' also to Insolvent Debtors in some Parts of the East Indies; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, there shall be holden, within the respective Limits of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, separate Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, which shall be Courts of Record, and shall be styled "The Courts for the Relief of " Insolvent Debtors;" and that His Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, shall from time to time appoint each of their Officers, or if the Officers of such Supreme Courts shall be found insufficient, such additional Persons as may be necessary to transact the Business of such Courts, and to act as Clerks, Assessors, Examiners, and Ministerial Officers of such Courts; and it shall be lawful for the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to administer Oaths, and examine Parties and Witnesses upon Oath or solemn Affirmation; and the said Courts, within and throughout the British Territories under the Government of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall have the like Powers of issuing Commissioners to take Evidence, and of enforcing the Attendance of Witnesses and the Production of Books, Papers, and Writings, and of summoning, examining, and enforcing the Appearance of any Insolvent Debtor, or his Wife, or any other Person who may be able to give Information respecting the Debts, Estates, or Effects of any such Insolvent Debtor, as are now possessed by the said Supreme Court, or as are possessed by Commissioners of Bankruptcy, in case of Bankruptcy, for the Purpose of summoning, examining, and enforcing the Attendance of Bankrupts and their Wives, and other Persons, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and intimated As Aforesaid to amend the Laws relating to Bankruptcy; and the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall also have the Power of doing in a summary Way, or of committing to the Common Gaol, all Persons guilty of Contempt of Court, and of doing in a summary Way and of removing any of their Officers who shall be guilty of Negligence or Misconduct; but the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall not have the Power of awarding Costs against any Person, except in Cases in which it is expressly permitted by this Act, or in which it shall be expressly permitted by some Rule which shall be made by the said Supreme Courts respectively, for the Purpose and in the Manner hereinafter stated: Provided always, that the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall not summon or examine any Native of the East Indies, otherwise than by Commission, in any Case in which such summoning or Examination shall appear to the said Court to be repugnant to the Customs and Usages of the Country.

II. And be it further enacted, That a Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall be holden once a Month at least throughout the Year, and oftener if need be, in Calcutta, and as often as may be found necessary within the Towns of Madras and Bombay, by any one Judge of the said Supreme Courts of Judicature respectively; and it shall be lawful for the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to adjourn from time to time as they may think fit, and for the said Courts, and the said Supreme Courts respectively, to be sitting at one and the same Time, and severally to act and proceed in the Exercise of their respective Powers; and every Advocate or Attorney of the said Supreme Courts at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, shall be admitted to practise in the Way of his Profession in the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors respectively, and so other Persons shall practise as Advocates or Attorneys in the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and the said Supreme Courts of Judicature respectively shall have Power from time to time to establish Rules to regulate the Proceedings of the Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to be holden within their respective Jurisdictions, and especially to prescribe in what Manner Notice shall be given to the Creditors of Parties applying for Relief under this Act, and in what Cases, besides those mentioned in this Act, Costs may be awarded; and

terested may petition the Court for the Relief of Insolvents.

V. And be it further enacted, That after the Time hereinafter appointed for this Act to take effect, any Person who shall be in Prison within the respective Limits of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, for Debt, Damage, Cost, or Money which such Person is solely, or jointly with any other or others, liable to pay, or for Contempt of any Court whatsoever, by the Nonpayment of Money only, may, at any Time within Fourteen Days next after the Commencement of the actual Custody of such Debtor, or afterwards, if the Court shall in any Case think it reasonable and proper to permit the same, apply by Petition to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors within the Presidency where such Insolvent Debtor shall then be; and in such Petition there shall be stated the Place wherein the Prisoner shall be then confined, the Time when he or she shall have been first charged in Custody, and the Parties by whom, and the Reasons and the Amount for which, he or she shall at the Time of presenting such Petition be detained; and the said Petition shall be subscribed by the Prisoner with his Name or Mark, and shall forthwith be filed in the Court to which it shall be presented, and if any Persons as imprisoned as aforesaid shall be jointly indebted, it shall be lawful for them to apply jointly by Petition, in such Manner as is hereinafter mentioned.

Insolvent Persons who can deliver up Property to the Amount of Half their Debt, and of a certain Value, may petition without being in Prison.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons being so indebted as aforesaid, and who shall reside within the Jurisdiction of either of the said Supreme Courts at Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, shall declare that he, she, or they is or are an Insolvent Commissionnaire, but that he, she, or they has or have some Estate and Effects of the Amount of Half his, her, or their Debt, of which certain Possession might be given to an Assignee, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, without being in Prison, to apply, jointly or severally, as the Case may be, by Petition to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to be holden at those Places respectively, and the Petition or Petitions shall be subscribed by the Insolvent or Insolvents with his, her, or their Name or Names, and shall be forthwith filed in the said Court.

Those who petition jointly may be required to file such Petition also.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any such joint Petition as is aforesaid mentioned shall be presented to any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall see fit, to require and compel each of the Insolvents to file a sole Petition also, in order that upon one Petition, and by the Proceedings to be thereon taken, the Court may dispose of the Estates and Effects belonging to all the Insolvents jointly, and that upon the other Petitions, and the Proceedings to be thereon taken, it may dispose of the Estates and Effects belonging to each Insolvent separately; and if there shall be any Residue of the joint Estate and Effects after Payment of the joint Debt, such Residue shall be duly divided and paid over to the several Assignees who shall have been appointed upon the sole Petitions of those to whom such joint Estate and Effects shall have belonged, and in like Manner if there there shall be any Residue of the separate Estate and Effects of any of the Insolvents after the Payment of his or her separate Debts, it shall be paid over to the Assignee or Assignees who shall have been appointed upon the joint Petition.

VIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That no Debt due to our Sovereign Lord the King, nor any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture whatsoever, nor any Recognition whereby a Debt is acknowledged to the King, nor any Debt due on account of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, nor any Interest, shall be deemed or taken to be such a Debt or Debt as to entitle any Person or Persons to petition as is before mentioned, nor shall any Person be entitled to receive any Dividend for the same under this Act, nor shall any such Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Recognitions, Debts, or Interests, be in any way discharged or affected by any thing done under this Act, otherwise than they might and would have been discharged or affected if this Act had not been passed.

IX. And he it further enacted, That the Person or Persons who shall present any such Petition as is hereinafter mentioned shall, at the Time of presenting the same, execute an Assignment to the Common Assignee in such Manner and Form as the Court shall direct, of all his, her, or their Real and Personal Estate and Effects, Rights, Dues, Claims, Chances in Action, and Interests, which he, she, or they shall then have or be entitled to, or which may in any way come to or be acquired by them before the Court shall have made its final Order in the Matter of his, her, or their Petition.

X. And he it enacted, That if any Person who by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, or by any Act hereafter to be passed, shall be deemed a Trader liable to become Bankrupt, having been arrested or committed to Prison for Debt, or on any Attachment for Nonpayment of Money, shall, upon such or any other Arrest or Commitment for Debt, be in Prison for Twenty-one Days, or having been arrested or committed to Prison for any other Cause, shall be in Prison for Twenty-one Days after any Detainer for Debt lodged against him and not discharged; or if any such Person shall depart from within the Limits of the Jurisdiction of any of the said Supreme Courts with Intent to defeat or delay his or her Creditors: it shall be lawful for any Creditor to whom such Person shall be indebted to the Amount of One thousand Scots Rupers, or for any Two Creditors to whom such Person shall be indebted to the Amount of One thousand five hundred Scots Rupers, or for any Three or more Creditors to whom such Person shall be indebted to the Amount of Two thousand Scots Rupers, to present a Petition to the Insolvent Debtors Court of the Presidency within which such Person shall have been imprisoned or have resided previously to such Departure as aforesaid, stating the Amount of the Debt or Debts due to such Creditor or Creditors from such Person, and the Nature of his trading, and such Act of lying in Prison or Departure as aforesaid, and praying that such Court should proceed in like Manner as if such Person had petitioned such Court for Relief under this Act; whereupon such Court shall enquire into the Truth of such Petition, and if such Court shall be satisfied thereof, such Court shall adjudge the same to be true, and that such Person has committed an Act of Insolvency.

XI. And he it enacted, That upon such Adjudication being made, such Court shall be invested with the same Powers and Authorities with which such Court would have been invested or might have exercised in case such Insolvent had presented a Petition for Relief under this Act, and all the Real and Personal Estate and Effects, Rights, Dues, Claims, Chances in Action, and Interests, which such Insolvent shall then have or be entitled to, or which may in any way come to or be acquired by such Insolvent before the Court shall have made its final Order in the Matter of such Petition, shall, by force of such Adjudication, be vested in the Common Assignee of the said Court, in like Manner to all Income and Profits as if such Insolvent had assigned the same under the Directions of the said Courts: Provided always, that in all Cases where any Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency shall have been pronounced by any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it shall be lawful for such Court, upon the Petition of any Person so adjudged to have committed an Act of Insolvency, complaining of such Adjudication, and upon Proof of Notice to the Creditor or Creditors upon whose Petition such Adjudication shall have been pronounced, to appoint an early Day for hearing such Petition of Complaint, and on such Day, or on any future Day to which such Hearing may be adjourned, to hear such Creditor or Creditors and such Complainant, by themselves or their Counsel respectively, and to examine the Evidence to be adduced by them respectively, and thereupon to revoke or confirm such Adjudication.

XII. And he it enacted, That the filing of every Petition by an Insolvent Debtor in any of the said Courts for Relief under this Act, whether such Insolvent shall be in Custody or not, and every such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency, shall be accounted and adjudged conclusive Evidence of an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Insolvent, from the Time of filing such Petition or of such Adjudication respectively, if such Insolvent shall be a Person subject to the Laws then in force respecting Bankrupts; and any Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent, whose Debt or Debts shall be of sufficient Amount to entitle him or them by Law to petition for a Commission of Bankrupt, shall at any Time within Two Months after Notice of such Petition or Adjudication shall have been given in the London Gazette, as hereinafter directed, be at Liberty to sue out a Commission of Bankrupt, in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, against such Insolvent, under which Commission all such Proceedings may be had and taken as are authorized and directed, or shall be authorized and directed, by the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, or by any other Act or Acts hereafter to be passed respecting Bankrupts, except as hereinafter provided.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That when any Creditor or Creditors resident within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company shall be desirous of suing out any such Commission of Bankrupt Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Recognitions shall not be deemed Debts for the Purpose of this Act.

At the Time of presenting Petitions Assignments shall be made in Persons appointed by the Court.

Lying in Prison 14 Days for Debt, or departing the Jurisdiction with Intent to defeat or delay any Creditors, shall be deemed an Act of Insolvency on which Creditors may petition.

Upon such Adjudications the Court is to be invested with the same Powers as if Insolvent had petitioned.

The filing a Petition of an Insolvent to be accounted an Act of Bankruptcy.

Commission may issue on Creditors of

against any such Insolvent, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to make Proof of his, her, or their Debt or Debts before such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, whose Proof, if satisfactory to such Court, shall be certified under the Seal of such Court; and the Certificate thereof, on Proof being made that the same is sealed with the Seal of such Court, shall be sufficient Evidence of a Petitioning Creditor's Debt to warrant the issuing of such Commission, and also to authorize the Commissioners under such Commission to proceed thereon.

Assignees presented for Admission prior to the Commission of Bankruptcy.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case of the issuing of any such Commission of Bankruptcy against any such Insolvent, such Commission shall not in any Manner affect, invalidate, or make void any of the Proceedings of any Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, nor any of the Acts or Proceedings of any Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court, respecting any Property or Interest whatsoever of such Insolvent, Real or Personal, within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company, nor shall the Assignee or Assignees appointed under any such Commission acquire any Right or Title to take Possession of, demand, sue for, or recover any Property or Interest whatsoever, Real or Personal, of such Insolvent, within the Limits aforesaid; but the Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall continue, and shall, notwithstanding such Commission of Bankruptcy, have full Power and Control over all the Real and Personal Property of such Insolvent within the Limits aforesaid, and the Distribution and Management thereof, as effectually as if such Commission of Bankruptcy had not issued; nevertheless it shall be the Duty of any Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court, and the Assignee or Assignees chosen under the said Commission, equally to come to account with each other, so as in the end that a Dividend shall be rateably and proportionally made among all the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whether resident within the Limits aforesaid or in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Creditors whose Debts have been allowed in Court to receive equal Dividend with Creditors under any Commission of Bankruptcy.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all the Creditors of any such Insolvent whose Debts shall have been allowed in any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall be admitted as Creditors under any such Commission of Bankruptcy, for the Purpose of receiving an equal Dividend upon the Estate of such Bankrupt with the Creditors who shall have proved their Debts under such Commission; and in like Manner all Creditors whose Debts shall have been duly proved under any such Commission of Bankruptcy shall be admitted as Creditors in such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, for the Purpose of receiving an equal Dividend upon the Estate of such Insolvent with the Creditors whose Debts shall have been allowed in such Court.

As to certificate of Persons declared bankrupt upon filing Petition to the Court only.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any such Insolvent shall be declared bankrupt upon the sole Ground of his having filed such Petition for Relief in the said Courts for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or of such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency as aforesaid, he shall not be required to surrender or be liable to any Penalty for not surrendering himself to be examined under his Commission, until Forty-two Days after he shall have come into some Part of the said United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Creditors and Commissioners may sign Certificate of Bankrupt, &c.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Creditors of such Insolvent, who shall have duly proved their Debts under any such Commission as aforesaid, and for the Commissioners under such Commission, if they shall be satisfied with such Examination of such Insolvent as shall have been held in any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, to sign the Certificate of such Bankrupt, and such Certificate shall have the same Force and Effect in all Places situate without the Limits aforesaid, and in respect of all Debts due to Persons resident at any such Places within the Limits aforesaid, at the Date of such Certificate, as if the same had been duly signed to the usual W^og, after such Bankrupt had duly surrendered and passed his last Examination.

No Insolvent Comable to vote in the Choice of Assignees, except the Petitioning Creditor of resident.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Creditor of such Insolvent who shall be resident within the Limits aforesaid, excepting only the Petitioning Creditor or Creditors, in case he, she, or they shall be so resident, shall be entitled to vote in the Choice of the Assignee or Assignees to be appointed under any such Commission of Bankruptcy or otherwise, respecting the Matters to be transacted under such Commission of Bankruptcy, nor shall be reckoned among the Creditors of the Bankrupt in Number or Value whose Signature is required by Law to the Certificate of such Bankrupt.

Partnership Debtors.

XIX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where any One Member of a Partnership to which any such Insolvent shall be indebted shall be resident within the Limits aforesaid, such Partnership shall be accounted and taken as a Creditor resident in the said Indies, for the Purpose of this Act.

Notice to be inserted in the Gazette of the Petitioners and in the London Gazette.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Principal Officers of the respective Courts for Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall cause Notice to be inserted in the Gazettes of the respective Presidences within which such Courts shall be holden, of every Petition which shall be filed in any of the said Courts by any Insolvent for Relief under this Act, and of every such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency, and of every Confirmation or Revocation thereof, forthwith after the filing of such Petition or presenting such Adjudication, or such Confirmation or Revocation thereof respectively; and that the Chief Secretary of the Government of the said Presidences respectively shall, without Delay, transmit to the Court of Directors of the said United Company, by different Ships, Two or more Copies at least of every such Gazette which shall contain any such Notice as aforesaid, who shall, without Delay, after the Receipt thereof, cause such Notice to be inserted in the London Gazette.

Production of the London Gazette containing any such Notice as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken by all Commissioners of Bankruptcy, and all Courts whatsoever, to be sufficient Evidence of the filing of the Petition of such Insolvent in such Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and of such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency, and of such Confirmation or Revocation thereof.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Production of the London Gazette containing any such Notice as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken by all Commissioners of Bankruptcy, and all Courts whatsoever, to be sufficient Evidence of the filing of the Petition of such Insolvent in such Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and of such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency, and of such Confirmation or Revocation thereof.

XXII. Provided

XXII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in all Cases where an Insolvent petitioning any such Court for Relief shall be possessed of any Real or Personal Estate in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and no Commission of Bankrupt shall be used on as heretofore mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent, appointed by any such Court, to proceed, either by himself or themselves, or by any Person duly authorized for that Purpose by Power of Attorney, to get Possession of such Real and Personal Estate; and to dispose of the same in the most beneficial Manner, and to administer the Proceeds thereof among the Creditors of the said Insolvent under the Provisions of this Act.

XXIII. And he it enacted, That after the making of any such Assignment as is heretofore directed, or after any such Adjudication of Insolvency as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any such Court to direct that as much of the Working Apparel, Household Furniture, Working Tools, and other Necessaries of the Insolvent or Insolvents, and of his, her, and their Family or Families, as shall be fitting and suitable to his, her, or their Condition and Circumstances, may be left in his, her, or their Possession until the further Order of the Court, not exceeding in Value in the whole the Sum of One thousand Sixty Rupees: Provided always, that when any Person or Persons shall have executed any such Assignment without being in Custody, he, she, or they shall be required forthwith to put the Assignee or Assignees into Possession of his, her, or their Effects of the Amount of Half their Debts; and the Assignee or Assignees who shall be so put into Possession shall, according to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, forthwith certify the same to the Court by which he or they shall have been appointed; and said such Assignee or Assignees shall have so certified, no such Order as is heretofore mentioned, for leaving Part of the Effects of such Insolvent or Insolvents in his, her, or their Possession, shall be made, nor any other Step taken towards granting the Prayer of the Petition of the Insolvent or Insolvents, or may Part thereof.

XXIV. And he it enacted, That when any Assignee or Assignees shall have as certified as is last heretofore mentioned, it shall be lawful for the said Courts for Relief of Insolvent Debtors at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, to grant and deliver, to the Person or Persons by whom such Estate or Effects shall have been given up, a Certificate or Certificates, of his, her, or their having delivered to his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees Property which is believed to be of the Amount of Half their Debts; and every such last-mentioned Certificate shall, until the said Courts respectively shall make Order to the contrary, have the Effect of protecting the Person to whom it shall be so given from being arrested for Debt within the Limits of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, or any other Place within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company to which such Person shall resort with Leave of the said Courts respectively, signed in Writing; and if any such Person shall, contrary to the aforesaid Provisions, be arrested for Debt, and the Officer who shall have arrested him or her shall, after having seen such last-mentioned Certificate and Leave, refuse to discharge such Person, he shall forfeit to the said Person Fifty Sixty Rupees for every Day he shall detain him or her, which Sum or Sums may be recovered by Action of Debt in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record within the Jurisdiction of which the Arrest shall have been made, and such Action shall be brought in the Name of the Person so detained, who, if he shall recover in such Action, shall also have full Costs of Suit.

XXV. And he it enacted, That when any Person or Persons bring in Custody shall have executed any such Assignment as is heretofore mentioned, if he, she, or they shall in like Manner put the Assignee or Assignees to whom the Assignment shall have been made into Possession of his, her, or their Estate or Effects of the Amount of Half their Debts, and the Assignee or Assignees of such Person or Persons shall have certified the same to the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, in such Manner as heretofore is mentioned, and the Court shall be satisfied of the Truth thereof, it shall be lawful for such Court to discharge such Person or Persons from Custody, and to grant and deliver to him, her, or them the like Certificate and Leave, which shall have the like Consequences and Effects as pertaining him, her, or them, from being arrested for Debt: Provided always, that it shall at all Times be lawful for such Court to revoke and annul such Certificate or Leave, if it shall appear to such Court that such Certificate or Leave hath been unlawfully obtained or improperly made.

XXVI. And he it enacted, That every such Assignment as is heretofore mentioned shall have the Effect of conveying or transferring to and of vesting in the Assignee or Assignees, who shall have been appointed by the Court and named in the Assignment, the whole Estate and Effects, Real and Personal, and all Rights, Duties, Claims, Chances in Action, Interests, and Property, whatsoever, which at the Time of executing the Assignment shall belong to the Insolvent or Insolvents, either solely or jointly with any other Person or Persons, or which shall come to or be required by him, her, or them, or to which he shall be or become entitled in Reversion, Remainder, or Expectancy, before the Court shall have made an Order for the Discharge of such Insolvent or Insolvents from all Liability as heretofore mentioned, and the Effect also of vesting and empowering the Assignee or Assignees to give such Discharges for Debts due to such last mentioned Person or Persons as may be requested; and every such Assignment as is heretofore mentioned shall be in Trust for the Benefit, in proportion to their respective Debts and just Claims, of all the Creditors of the Person or Persons executing the Assignment.

XXVII. And he it further enacted, That if any Insolvent at the Time of making any such Assignment as is heretofore mentioned, shall hold any Public Office, Appointment, or Benefice, Civil, Military, or Ecclesiastical, under the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or under the said United Company, and if his Interest in such Office or Appointment shall be such that he might lawfully sell the same, such Interest for the Purpose of Sale shall, by the Assignment, be transferred to and

When no Commission of Bankruptcy shall issue, the Assignee appointed by the Court may administer the Estate.

The Court may order Part of the Insolvent's Effects to be left in his Possession.

After Assignment made, Insolvent to put Assignee into the Possession of the Estate, and Assignee to certify the same.

The Court may, upon such Certificate, give the Insolvent in Protection from Arrest.

Upon Assignment being made and Possession certified, the Court may discharge Debtors from Prison.

vented in the Assignee or Assignees in Trust for the Benefit of his Creditors, and if his Interest therein shall not be such as he might lawfully sell, then it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the said Insolvent to pay such Proportion of his Receipts therefrom to his Assignee or Assignees as the said Court shall think just and right.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Insolvent who shall file his or her Petition for his or her Discharge under this Act, or any Trader who shall be adjudged to have committed an Act of Insolvency on the Petition of any such Creditor or Creditors as aforesaid, being in Insolvency Circumstances, shall voluntarily convey, assign, transfer, charge, deliver, or make over any Estate, Real or Personal, Security for Money, Bond, Bill, Note, Money, Property, Goods, or Effects whatsoever, to any Creditor or other Person whatsoever, or to any Person in Trust for or to or for the Use, Benefit, or Advantage of any Creditor or other Person whatsoever, every such Conveyance, Assignment, Transfer, Charge, Delivery, and making over, if made within Two Months before the Date of such Petition, or within the View or Intention, by the Party so conveying, assigning, transferring, charging, delivering, or making over, of preferring the said Court for his or her Discharge from Custody under this Act, or of committing such Act of Insolvency, shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be fraudulent and void as against the common or other Assignee or Assignees of such Person appointed under this Act.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That after any such Assignment shall be made by any Petitioner or Petitioners, as heretofore mentioned, or after any such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency as aforesaid, no Dividend for Rent due before the filing of such Petition or Adjudication shall be made upon the Goods or Effects of any such Insolvent or Insolvents before the final Order of the Court shall have been made in the Matter of the Petition before the Court, but the Landlord or Party to whom the Rent shall be due shall be allowed to come in as a Creditor, and receive any Dividend or Dividends in proportion to the Amount of any Rent due, in like Manner as other Creditors in proportion to the Amounts of their respective Debts.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That after any such Assignment or Conveyance as by the Provisions of the Act are required to be made to the Common Assignee of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or after any such Adjudication as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively, at any Time in their Discretion, to appoint some other Assignee or Assignees, and when such new Assignee or Assignees shall have signified to the Court his or their Acceptance of the Appointment, the Estate, Effects, Rights, Dues, Claims, Chances in Action, Interest, Trusts, and Powers, which shall have been assigned or conveyed, transferred to, or vested in such Common Assignee, shall immediately be assigned and conveyed by him to such new Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, upon the same Terms and for the same Purposes as they are before assigned and conveyed; and in case any Assignee or Assignees shall be unwilling to act, or in case of the Death or Incapacity or Abscondence of any Assignee or Assignees, it shall be lawful for the Court by which he or they shall have been appointed to order that any Assignment or Conveyance to him or them shall be vacated, and the same shall be vacated accordingly, but so nevertheless that no Act or Thing done prior to the Order whereby they are vacated shall be annulled or in any way affected thereby; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with the Powers and Authorities, and to oblige any Assignee or Assignees so removed, and the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns of any deceased Assignee, to account for and deliver up all such Estate and Effects, Bonds, Papers, Writings, Deeds, and all other Endowments relating thereto, as shall have come to his, her, or their Hands by virtue of any Assignment or Conveyance made under this Act, and the Decision of the Court thereupon shall be final and conclusive; and from and immediately after any such Appointment as is aforesaid of any new Assignee, all the Estate, Effects, Rights, Dues, Claims, Chances in Action, Interest, Trusts, and Powers assigned or conveyed to or vested in the Assignee or Assignees, in the Room of whom such new Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid shall have been appointed, shall by virtue of such Appointment be transferred to and become vested in such new Assignee or Assignees; and whenever an Assignee shall die or be removed, or a new Assignee or Assignees shall be appointed as aforesaid, no Action at Law or Suit in Equity brought or defended by him or them in the Character of Assignee or Assignees under this Act shall be thereby stayed, but upon the Suggestion of such Death, Removal, or new Appointment, such Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or defended in the Name of the existing Assignee or Assignees, and all such Assignments, Conveyances, and Appointments, as it is heretofore mentioned are to be made under the Directions of the Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, shall be entered in the Proceedings of the Court by the Order of which they shall be made.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That when any such Petition as is aforesaid shall be presented by any Insolvent or Insolvents to the said Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the Party or Parties presenting the Petition, at the same Time or within Thirty Days after, or within such further Time as the said Court may deem reasonable, shall deliver into the Court a Schedule containing a full and true Account of all his, her, or their Debts, whether due by him, her, or them solely, or jointly with any other Person or Persons, and of all Claims made upon the Insolvent or Insolvents for any such Debts not admitted to be due, together with a full and true Description of the several Persons to whom such Debts shall be owing, or by whom such Claims shall have been made, and also a true and perfect Account of all the Estates and Effects, Real and Personal, of the Insolvent or Insolvents, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder, or Expectancy, whosoever situate, and of all his, her, or their Rights, Dues, Claims, Chances in Action, and Interests, and of all Trusts and Powers which can in any way be available for the Benefit of his, her, or their Creditors; and such Schedule shall also contain a full and true Statement of the Names

Names and Places of Abode of the Person or Persons from whom any Debt or Debts shall be owing to the Petitioner or Petitioners, himself or themselves, or to him, her, or them jointly with any other Person or Persons, or against whom any Claim or Action may be brought, maintained, and enforced, and of the Witnesses who may be able to prove such Debt or support such Claim or Action, together with any other Particulars which may be required by any Rules to be established for the Practice of the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors respectively, or for giving further Effect to this Act in the Manner which is hereinafter set forth; and every such Schedule to be delivered as aforesaid shall be subscribed by the Insolvent or Insolvents delivering the same with his, her, or their Names, and shall forthwith be filed in the Court.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That after any such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Insolvent to file a Schedule in the Court by which such Adjudication shall have been pronounced, in like Manner as if such Insolvent had presented a Petition for Relief under this Act, which Schedule shall have the like Effect and be acted upon in the like Manner, and from which Schedule such Insolvent shall be entitled to the like Benefit, as if the same had been filed in consequence of a Petition for Relief presented by such Insolvent under this Act.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That after the Petition and Schedule of any Insolvent shall have been filed in any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and Assignment shall have been made as hereinbefore directed, and after any such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency shall have been pronounced upon the Petition of any Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent as aforesaid, the Court shall cause Notice thereof to be given to any Creditor or Creditors of the Insolvent at whose Suit he or she may be detained in Custody, or the Attorney or Agent of such Creditor or Creditors, and to the other Creditors resident within the British Territories in the East Indies, as the Court shall direct; and Notice to the like Effect shall be given at least published in the Gazette of the Presidency where such Court shall be holden; and the Court in such Notice shall appoint a Day and Place for the hearing of the Matters of the Petition of such Insolvent, or of any such Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent as aforesaid, after such convenient Interval of Time that all the Creditors resident within the British Territories in the East Indies may have sufficient Opportunity of examining and ascertaining the Truth or Falseness of the Insolvent's Petition and Schedule.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Day so appointed by the Court as aforesaid for the Hearing of any Petition, or on any future Day to which such Hearing may be adjourned, it shall be lawful for the Insolvent or Insolvents, and for any Creditor or Creditors of the Insolvent or Insolvents, to be heard, either by himself, herself, or themselves, or by Counsel in support of or in opposition to the Petition before the Court, and the whole Matter and Substance of the Petition shall be inquired into and examined by the Court, as well respecting the Claims of any Creditors who shall be absent, as of those who shall be present; and it shall be lawful for the Court to order any Insolvent who is in Custody to be brought before it as often as Occasion may require, and to examine any Insolvent who shall not be in Custody, and the Wife of any Insolvent, and any other Person, whether a Creditor or not, who is known or suspected to have any of the Estate or Effects of the Insolvent or Insolvents in his or her Possession, or any Person who is suspected to be indebted to the Insolvent or Insolvents, or any Person who is believed to be capable of giving any Information which will more easily enable the Court to dispose of the Estate and Effects of the Insolvent or Insolvents for the Benefit of his, her, or their Creditors; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to examine any Insolvent or his Wife, or any other such Person, whether a Creditor or not, who shall appear before the said Court, in the same Way as any other Witnesses are examined in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in the East Indies in any Suit at Law or in Equity, or according to any Rules which may be made for the Practice of the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors respectively, or for giving Effect to this Act in the Manner which is herein prescribed: Provided always, that every Witness summoned to attend before the Court shall have his necessary Expenses tendered to him, in like Manner as by Law is required upon Service of a Subpoena to a Witness in an Action at Law.

XXXV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Creditor or other Person shall reside more than One hundred Miles from the said Court, or shall be incapable of attending the said Court by reason of Sickness or Infirmary, to be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive the Affidavit or solemn Affirmation of such Creditor or other Person, and also, if the Court shall think fit, to permit Interrogatories to be filed for the Examination and Cross-examination of any Person making or joining in such Affidavit or solemn Affirmation.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That when there has been mutual Credit given by the Insolvent or Insolvents and any other Person or Persons, one Debt or Demand may be set against the other, and all such Debts, Demands, and Claims as may be proved under a Commission of Bankruptcy, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankruptcy, or may hereafter be provided under such Commission by virtue of any Act hereafter to be passed, may also be proved upon any such Hearing as is hereinafter mentioned, in the same Manner, and subject to the like Deductions, Conditions, and Provisions, as is the said last-mentioned Act are set forth and prescribed.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Petition shall have been presented under this Act to any of the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, either by an Insolvent or by any Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to whom such Insolvent shall be indebted, at any Time before or after the Discharge of such Insolvent, to make claim upon the Estate of such Insolvent, and to prove hence their Debt or Debts, whether due by such Insolvent solely, or jointly with any other Person or Persons, and shall be entitled to and receive a Dividend thereon ratably with the other Creditors of the said Insolvent, although the Name of such Creditor may have been wholly omitted by the said Insolvent in his or her Schedule, or may have been inserted for a smaller Amount than the Debt really due to such Person; and in the Case of an Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency under this Act, then although no Schedule shall have been filed by such Insolvent, and where any Objection to the Existence or Amount of such Debt is claimed shall be made by such Insolvent or any Creditor, such Court shall hear the same, and make such Order thereon as may seem meet and just.

Order of Court upon the Hearing.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Hearing of any such Petition it shall be lawful for the Court to adjudge that the Insolvent is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, and to order his immediate Discharge from Custody accordingly, or to dismiss or amend the Petition, or to order the Insolvent or Insolvents to attend his, her, or their Schedule or Schedules, or to adjudge the further Hearing of the Petition until a future Day, or to make a Reference to the Examiner or other proper Officer of the Court to make Enquiry into any Matter of Account, or into the Truth of the Schedule or Schedules, and to report thereon to the Court; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to remand the Insolvent or Insolvents to Prison until the further Hearing of the Petition, or until final Order be made in the Matter thereof, or to commit the Insolvent or Insolvents to Custody for any Debt or Debts, if he, she, or they shall not be in Custody at the Time of the Hearing, and to cancel or renew any such Certificate as is heretofore mentioned, which may have been given for the Purpose of protecting the Insolvent or Insolvents from Arrest, or to make any fresh Order for protecting the Insolvent or Insolvents from Arrest until final Order shall be made in the Matter of the Petition before the Court, and to order and direct that the Assignee or Assignees shall make some reasonable Allowance for Maintenance until such final Order, the Amount of which shall be fixed by the Court, and shall not exceed Five Shillings per Week: Provided always, that in case of the Court dismissing any Petition, the Act personally done by the Assignee or Assignees, or any Person or Persons acting under his or their Authority, in pursuance of this Act, shall be valid, but in such Case the Court shall make such Order for re-assigning and Redelivery to the Insolvent the Residence of his or her Estate and Effects, as the Case shall require, whereupon the same shall be re-vested in such Insolvent accordingly.

Public Notice shall be given of the Order.

Discharge may extend to Summ payable by way of Annuity.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Court by which any Order shall be made upon any such Hearing as is heretofore mentioned shall also order that the Assignee or Assignees shall give such Notice of such Order having been made as to the Court shall seem fit and convenient.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the Discharge of any such Insolvent so adjudicated as aforesaid shall and may extend to any Sum or Sums of Money which shall be payable by way of Annuity or otherwise, at any future Time or Times, by virtue of any Bond, Covenant, or other Security whatsoever; and that every Person and Persons who would be a Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent for such Sum or Sums of Money, if the same were presently due, shall be admissible as a Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent for the Value of such Sum or Sums of Money as payable as aforesaid; which Value the said Court shall, upon Application at any Time made in their behalf, ascertain, regard being had to the original Price given for such Sum or Sums of Money, deducting therefrom such Deduction in the Value thereof as shall have been caused by the Lapse of Time upon the Grant thereof to the Time of filing such Insolvent's Petition; and such Creditor or Creditors shall be entitled, in respect of such Value, to the Benefit of all the Provisions made for Creditors by this Act, without Prejudice nevertheless to the respective Securities of such Creditor or Creditors, excepting as respects such Insolvent's Discharge under this Act.

Any Action which may have been brought upon Claims admitted in the Schedule shall be discontinued.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if at the Time of any such Hearing and Order any Suit or Action shall be pending against the Insolvent or Insolvents in any Court within the British Territories in the East Indies, or for any Debt, Claim, Obligation, or Demand admitted in the Schedule of the Insolvent or Insolvents, or disposed as to Amount only, every Plaintiff in such Suit or Action shall discontinue the same, and shall pay all Costs incurred subsequent to his having Notice of such Hearing and Order; and in case of such Discontinuance, the Insolvent or Insolvents shall not, by virtue of any Reprehension, Nonsuit, or Judgment as in case of Nonsuit in any such Suit or Action, be relieved from the Debt, Claim, Obligation, or Demand for which it shall have been brought, or entitled to claim from the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs any of the Costs of any such Suit or Action incurred before the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs had Notice of the Hearing and Order aforesaid.

Assignees may seize the Property of the Petitioner.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Assignee as aforesaid, shall, with all convenient Speed, take Possession by himself, or by means of Messengers of the Court, or by other fit and proper Persons, of all the Real and Personal Estate and Effects of the Insolvent of which immediate Possession may be obtained, and shall use his or her best Endeavours to seize, obtain, recover, and reduce into Possession as speedily as possible the rest of such Estate and Effects, and all Debts, Claims, and Choses in Action which by such Assignment he shall have been empowered to obtain, recover, and get in.

The Court may sell the realty Property of the Petitioner.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Insolvent or Insolvents as are before mentioned, at the Time of filing his, her, or their Petition, or at the Time of any such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency as aforesaid, shall, by the Consent and Permission of the true Owner thereof, have in his, her, or their Possession, Order, or Disposition, any Goods or Chattels whereof he, she, or they is or are reputed Owner, or of which he, she, or they have undertaken the Sale, Alienation, or Disposition, as Owner, the Court in which the Petition shall have been filed, or by which such Adjudication shall have been been pronounced, shall have Power to sell and dispose of the same for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Insolvent or Insolvents; provided that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any Transfer or Assignment of any Ship or Vessel, or any Share thereof, made as a Security for any Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or Assignment, according to the Provisions of an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and intitled An Act for the registering of British Ships.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Insolvent or Insolvents shall have mortgaged, pledged, pawned, or deposited any Real or Personal Estate, or any Effects, Goods or written Instruments, with a Reservation to himself, herself, or themselves of a Power of redeeming the same, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees shall have the same Right and Power of Redemption as the Insolvent or Insolvents would have had if the Assignment had not been made.

XLV. And be it enacted, That if any Insolvent or Insolvents shall, at the Time of filing his, her, or their Petition for Relief in any such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or at the Time of any such Adjudication of an Act of Insolvency as aforesaid, or at any Time before he or she shall become entitled to his or her final Discharge according to this Act, have any Government Stock, Funds, or Annuities, or any of the Stock of any Public Company either in England, Scotland, or Ireland, standing in his, her, or their own Name or Names, in his, her, or their own Right, it shall be lawful for such Court, whenever it shall deem fit so to do, to order all Person whose Act or Consent is thereto necessary to transfer the same into the Name or Names of such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, and all such Person whose Act or Consent is so necessary as aforesaid are hereby intimated for all Things done or permitted pursuant to such Order: Provided always, that in all Transfers into the Name or Names of any such Assignee or Assignees, the Transferee or Transferees shall be described as Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of the Insolvent; and an Dividend shall be payable to, or any future Transfer made by, any Person of any such Stock, Funds, or Annuities, except under a Power of Attorney to the usual Form required for the Receipt of Dividends upon or transfer of such Stock, Funds, and Annuities respectively, duly executed by such Assignee or Assignees, and attested by Two credible Witnesses, one of whom shall be an Officer of such Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and to which Attestation the Seal of such Court shall be affixed.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That after the Hearing of any such Petition and Schedule as heretofore mentioned it shall be lawful for the Assignee or Assignees, by and with the Approbation of such Court, and by and with the Consent of any Creditors whose Claims after such Hearing shall appear to amount to more than Half of all the Debts due from the Insolvent to Persons resident within the British Territories in the East Indies, to take such reasonable Part of any Debts due to the Petitioner or Petitioners, as may by Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts, and to submit to Arbitration any Difference or Dispute between the Assignee or Assignees, and any other Person or Persons, for or on account or by reason of any thing relating to the Estate and Effects of such Petitioner.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Assignee or Assignees, by and with the like Approbation and Consent, to commence and prosecute or defend any Suits or Actions at Law or in Equity which the Insolvent or Insolvents might have commenced or prosecuted or defended, and to defray the Costs in which he or they may be put in respect of such Suits or Actions out of the Proceeds of the Estate and Effects of the Insolvent or Insolvents; and if there be any Partner or Partners of the Insolvent or Insolvents who hath out or have not joined in the Petition, it shall be lawful for the Court to authorize the Assignee or Assignees to join such Partner or Partners with himself or themselves as Plaintiff in such Suit or Action: and if such Partner or Partners shall execute any Release of the Debt or Demand for which such Suit or Action is brought, the Release shall be void: Provided always, that such Partner or Partners, if he, she, or they shall take no Part in the Prosecution or Defence of such Suit or Action, shall not be liable to pay Costs in respect of the same.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Powers vested in any such Insolvent or Insolvents as are here mentioned, which he, she, or they might lawfully execute, for his, her, or their Benefit, might be executed by his, her, or their Assignees, for the Benefit of his, her, or their Creditors.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That from time to time as Execution is obtained of any of the Estate or Effects of any Insolvent or Insolvents, the Assignee or Assignees shall with all convenient Speed make Sale of the same, subject nevertheless to the Direction and Control of the Court by Authority of which he or they shall have been appointed, in case any Application shall be made to such Court by any Insolvent, or any Creditor or Mortgagee, in all such Cases such Court shall have full Power and Authority to delay or postpone the Sale of any Property, and to make such other Order regulating the sale as to such Court shall seem meet.

L. And Whereas the Insolvents may be entitled to Annuities for their own Lives, or other uncertain Interests, or to reversionary or contingent Interests, or may have made Advances of Money for the Cultivation of Lands, or may be interested in Property in other Ways, in which the immediate Sale thereof for Payment of their Debts may be very prejudicial to them and to their Creditors, and it may be proper in some Cases to defer the Sale of such Property, and to put it under temporary Management, or to authorize the raising of Money by way of Mortgage for Payment of the Debt or Part of the Debts of an Insolvent, and for defraying the Expenses attending the Execution of this Act, instead of selling for such Purpose: Be it enacted, That so all such Cases it shall be lawful for the said Courts for Relief of Insolvent Debtors at any Time to take into Consideration all Circumstances affecting any Property of the Petitioner which shall have been assigned under the Provisions of this Act; and if it shall appear Assignees may relieve any Property of the Petitioner.

When a Petitioner is lawfully entitled to Stock, Court may order Transfer thereof.

Assignees may make Composition for the Rights and Shares of the Petitioners.

Assignees may commence and defend Actions at Law and Suits in Equity, with the approbation of the Court and Consent of Creditors.

Assignees may execute Powers vested in Insolvents.

Assignees shall sell the Property, unless the Court direct otherwise.

Court may defer the Sale of Property, if it shall think proper.

appear to any such Court that it would be reasonable to make any special Order touching the same, it shall be lawful for such Court as to do, and to direct that so much of the said Property as it may be expedient not to sell immediately, according to the Provisions of this Act, shall not be so sold, and from time to time to order and direct in what Manner such Property shall be managed, for the Benefit of the Creditors of such Insolvent, until the same can be properly sold, or until Payment of such Creditors be effected, according to the Provisions of this Act, and to make such Order touching the Sale or Disposition of such Property as to such Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors may seem reasonable and beneficial, and upon such Terms and Conditions, with respect to the Allowance of Interest on Debts not bearing Interest, or other Circumstances, as to such Court shall seem just; and if it shall appear that the Debts of any such Insolvent or Insolvents can be discharged by means of Money raised by way of Mortgage on any of the said Property of the said Insolvent or Insolvents, instead of raising the same by Sale, it shall be lawful for the said Court as to order, and to give all necessary Directions for such Purpose, and generally to direct all Things which may be proper for the Discharge of the Debts of such Insolvent or Insolvents, as may be most consistent with the Interest of such Creditor or Creditors, and of his, her, or their Creditor or Creditors.

Assignees to render Accounts to the Court.

LII. And be it further enacted, That the Assignee or Assignees of all such Insolvents as are heretofore mentioned shall keep Accounts of the Property, Debts, and Credits of such Insolvents, whether belonging or due to or from such Insolvents singly, or jointly with any other Person or Persons, wherein they shall enter all Property of the Insolvents received by them, and all Payments made by them, which Assignees any Creditors may inspect at all reasonable Times; and it shall be lawful for the Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors at all Times to summon the Assignees before them, and require them to produce all Books, Papers, Deeds, Writings, and other Documents in their Possession, which in any way relate to the Position of the Insolvent or Insolvents; and if such Assignee or Assignees so summoned shall not come before such Courts respectively at the Time appointed, or shall not bring with him or them such Documents as are afore mentioned, it shall be lawful for such Courts respectively to issue Attachments, and to cause such Assignee and Assignees to be brought before them, and to commit such Assignee or Assignees to Prison until he or they shall submit to the Court by which he or they shall have been summoned.

Court shall declare Dividends.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear by the Accounts of any Assignee or Assignees that a Dividend may be beneficially made amongst the Creditors, it shall be lawful for any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to summon before it the Assignee or Assignees, and to direct that such Public Notice as to the Court may seem meet shall be given of a further Hearing of the Petition on a Day certain, for the Purpose of making a Dividend; and on the Day so fixed the Insolvent or Insolvents, and Assignee or Assignees, and any Creditors who shall be willing to do so, shall attend the Court, and all Objections to the Schedule of the Insolvent or Insolvents, and to the Accounts or Conduct of the Assignees, and any Claims of any Creditors which shall not have been previously determined, shall be then heard and determined, either by such Court immediately, or upon a Reference to the Examiner or other proper Officer of such Court; and it shall be lawful for such Court to examine the Insolvent or Insolvents, Assignees, and any Witnesses, on Oath, and either at that Time to declare a Dividend, and to direct that the same shall be paid by the Assignee or Assignees, or to postpone such Declaration and Direction of the same until a further Hearing, and to make such Order in the Matter of the Petition, and respecting the same, as shall be most conducive to the Attainment of the Benefit intended by the several Provisions of this Act.

No Dividend to joint Creditors until separate Estates paid in full, nor if insolvent.

LIIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for such Court to order any Dividend to be made amongst the joint Creditors out of the separate Estates, until the separate Creditors shall have been paid in full, nor to order any Dividend to be made to the separate Creditors out of the joint Estate, until all the joint Creditors shall have been paid in full; in which latter Case it shall be lawful for such Court to order such Dividend to be made among the separate Creditors, out of such Interest in the joint Estate as such Insolvent shall appear to be separately entitled to.

A certain Part of an Insolvent's Property to be reserved for a limited Time.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That unless it shall appear, upon reasonable Proof to be made to the Satisfaction of such Court, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and be so certified by such Court, that all the Property of the Insolvent in estate, and all the Debts and Creditors resident, within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company, then, until the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months from the Notice in the London Gazette of the Petition of any Insolvent, as heretofore mentioned, the Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court shall reserve the full Amount of One Third Part of the Property of the said Insolvent collected in and received by such Assignee or Assignees, and shall make a Dividend among the Creditors of the said Insolvent to the Amount of the remaining Two Third Parts only, which Third Part so to be reserved as aforesaid shall in the meantime be disposed or disposed of in such Way as such Court shall order, and shall not remain in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees; and at the Expiration of the said Term of Twelve Calendar Months it shall be lawful for the Assignee or Assignees of such Insolvent to apply to such Court for a Return of the said Third Part so reserved as aforesaid, in order that the same may be so distributed among the Creditors, as to place them all upon an equal Footing; and upon such Third Part so reserved as aforesaid being restored to such Assignee or Assignees, such Assignee or Assignees shall forthwith proceed to take an Account of the Debts of the said Insolvent, and of the Sum or Sums which shall or may have been paid by way of Dividend to any of such Creditors, and shall distribute the Fund then in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees, so as to place all the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whether Debtors or Creditors, upon a just and and equal Parting, and so as that every Creditor shall receive a reasonable and proportionable Part of the Assets of the said Insolvent, according to the Amount of his Debt, and whether such Debt be inserted or omitted in the Schedule, or whether the same shall have been rightly inserted or not, and without reference to the Time at which such Debt shall have been claimed.

LVI. And he it further enacted, That if any Creditor whose Claim shall have been established in any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall not appear, by himself, his Attorney or Agent, on the making of any Dividend, nor shall make Application to receive his, her, or their Share thereof, the Assignee or Assignees shall certify the same in such Court at its First Sitting after the making of the Dividend; and it shall be lawful for the Court to direct in what Manner, and by whom, and upon what Conditions, the Money so due to such Creditor or Creditors shall be kept for or paid to him, her or them, or to his, her, or their lawful constituted Attorney.

LVI. And he it further enacted, That if any Assignee or Assignees shall neglect to account, or to pay any Dividends which shall have been ordered by any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or in any other respect shall neglect his or their Duty as Assignee or Assignees, it shall be lawful for such Court to restrain such Assignee or Assignees, and to require unto such Neglect, and if such Court shall be of opinion that the Insolvent or Insolvents, or his, her, or their Creditors, have suffered any Injury by the Fault of the Assignee or Assignees, it shall be lawful for such Court to order the Assignee or Assignees to make such Compensation for the same as to such Court shall seem fit; and in default of the Assignee or Assignees obeying the Summons of such Court, or making such Compensation as shall be ordered by such Court, it shall be lawful for such Court to commit the Assignee or Assignees who shall have so offended to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail until he or they shall obey the Order of such Court; or to levy, by Writ and Sale of the Offender's Goods, so much as shall be sufficient to make the Compensation which shall have been ordered by such Court.

LVII. And he it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, that any such Insolvent has fraudulently, with Intent to conceal the State of his or her Affairs, or to defeat the Objects of this Act, destroyed, or otherwise wilfully prevented or purposely withheld the Production of any Book, Paper, or Writing relating to such of his or her Affairs as any subject to Investigation under this Act; or kept or caused to be kept false Books, or made false Entries on, or withheld Entries thereon, or wilfully altered or falsified, any such Book, Paper, or Writing; or that such Insolvent has fraudulently, with Intent of diminishing the Sum to be divided among his or her Creditors, or of giving an undue Preference to any of the said Creditors, discharged or concealed any Debt due to or from the said Insolvent; or made away with, charged, mortgaged, or concealed any Part of his or her Property, of what kind soever: then it shall and may be lawful for such Court to adjudge that such Insolvent shall be so discharged, and so entitled as aforesaid, so soon as he or she shall have been in Custody, at the Suit of some one or more of the Persons to whose Debts and Claims such Discharge is so adjudged, for such Period or Periods not exceeding Three Years in the whole, as such Court shall direct, to be computed from the Date of his or her Return.

LVIII. And he it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to any such Court that such Insolvent shall have contracted any of the Debts fraudulently, or by means of Breach of Trust, or by means of false Pretences, or without having any reasonable or probable Expectation, at the Time when contracted, of paying the same, or shall have put any of his or her Creditors to any unnecessary Expence, by any resistance or frivolous Defence or Delay to any Suit for recovering any Debt or any Sum of Money due from such Insolvent; or shall be indebted for Damages recovered in any Action for Criminal Conversation with the Wife or for seducing the Daughter or Servant of the Plaintiff in such Action, or for Breach of Promise of Marriage made to the Plaintiff in such Action, or for Damages recovered in any Action for a Malicious Prosecution, or for a Libel, or for Slander, or in any other Action for a Malicious Injury done to the Plaintiff therein, or in any Action of Tort or Trespass, to the Person or Property of the Plaintiff therein, wherein it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Court, that the Injury complained of was malicious; then it shall and may be lawful for such Court to adjudge that such Insolvent shall be so discharged and so entitled as aforesaid forthwith, excepting as to such Debts, Sums or Sums of Money, or Damages as above mentioned; and as to such Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money, or Damages, to adjudge that such Insolvent shall be so discharged and so entitled as aforesaid as soon as he or she shall have been in Custody, at the Suit of the Person or Persons who shall be Creditor or Creditors for the same respectively, for a Period or Periods not exceeding Two Years in the whole, as such Court shall direct, to be computed as aforesaid.

LIX. And he it further enacted, That whenever any Creditor or Creditors opposing such Insolvent's Discharge shall prove, to the Satisfaction of any such Court, that such Insolvent has done or committed any Act for which upon such Adjudication as aforesaid he or she may be liable to remain in such Custody as aforesaid for a Period not exceeding Three Years, to be computed as aforesaid, such Court shall adjudge the Taxed Costs of such Opposition to be paid to such opposing Creditor or Creditors, out of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, by his or her Assignee or Assignees, before any Dividend made thereof, and in all other Cases of Opposition to an Insolvent's Discharge being substantiated or effectual, it shall be lawful for such Court to adjudge in like Manner, if it shall seem fit, and that in case it shall appear to such Court that the Opposition of any Creditor to any such Insolvent's Discharge was frivolous and vexatious, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to award such Costs to such Insolvent as shall appear to be just and reasonable, to be paid by the Creditor or Creditors making such Opposition, which shall be paid accordingly.

LX. And

Court to direct what is to be done with the Money of several Creditors.

Assignees to make Compensation to the Prisoners or their Creditors, for any Losses which may be sustained by their Misconduct.

To restrain Cases, Discharge to be at any Period not later than Three Years from petitioning.

In other Cases, Discharge to be at any Period not later than Two Years from petitioning.

SECTION 1. And Whereas the Estate, both Real and Personal, of any Person whose Discharge has been adjudicated under this Act, may not be sufficiently described or discovered in his or her Schedule as sworn to as aforesaid, or the Assignments of such Person may be necessary to adjudge, make out, recover, or manage his or her Estate and Effects, for the Benefit of his or her Creditors: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of any such Person whose Discharge shall have been adjudicated under this Act, in case such Person shall, upon Application to him or her for that Purpose, have refused or neglected to give the necessary Information, from time to time to apply to the Court by which any such Adjudication shall have been pronounced, that such Person may be farther examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his or her Estate and Effects by such Court; and thereupon, and also in case such Person shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Court at such Time and Place as shall be directed by such Order, or appearance shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such Questions as shall be put to him or her relating to the Discovery of his or her said Estate and Effects, then and in any of such Cases it shall be lawful for such Court, by Warrant, to commit such Person to Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until such Time as he or she shall submit himself or herself to the Order of such Court in that Behalf, and shall answer upon Oath or otherwise, as shall be required, to all such lawful Questions as shall be put to him or her, in pursuance of the same, for the Purpose aforesaid.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of any Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, upon the Application of any Insolvent, his Assignee or Assignees, or any of his or her Creditors, that the Estate of such Insolvent Debtor which shall have come to the Hands of the Assignee or Assignees shall have produced sufficient to pay and discharge Three Fourths of the Amount of the Debts which shall have been established in such Court, or that Creditors to the Amount of more than One Half in Number and Value of the Debts which shall have been so established shall signify their Consent in Writing thereto, it shall be lawful for such Court to enquire into the Conduct of the said Insolvent; and if it shall appear to such Court that the said Insolvent has acted fairly and honestly towards his or her Creditors, such Court shall be fully authorized and empowered thereupon to order that the said Insolvent shall be for ever discharged from all Liability whatsoever for or in respect of such Debts so established as aforesaid; and such Court shall, in the Order to be drawn up, specify and set forth the Names of such Creditors; and after any such Order shall have been so made, no further Proceedings shall be had in the Matter of the Petition before the Court, unless upon Appeal made to the Supreme Court of Judicature of the Presidency where such Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall be holden, as hereby authorized: Provided always, that no such Order as last aforesaid shall prevent any Creditor who shall not have been resident within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company at any Time between the filing of such Petition and the making of such Order as last-mentioned, and who shall not have taken part in any of the Proceedings under the said Petition, from bringing any Suit or Action in the said India, for the Purpose of obtaining Execution against the Goods, Estate, or Effects of such Insolvent, for any unsatisfied Claim of such Creditor, nor from bringing any Suit or Action for such Claim in any Court of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or elsewhere without the Limits of the said United Company's Charter, against such Insolvent, in the same Manner, and with the like Consequences and Effects, as if such Order as last mentioned had not been made.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That if after the making of any such Order as last aforesaid any Insolvent shall, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, be sued in any Court whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such Person to plead such Order, and to give an Office Copy thereof in Evidence; and if such Person shall thereupon obtain a Verdict or Decree in his or her Favour, or if the Bill shall be dismissed for Want of Prosecution, or there shall be Judgment of Nonsuit, the Defendant or Defendants shall also be adjudged to have Treble Costs.

XLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where it shall have been adjudged that any such Insolvent shall be so discharged and be entitled as aforesaid at some future Period, such Insolvent shall be subject and liable to be detained in Prison, and to be arrested and charged in Custody, at the Suit of any One or more of his Creditors with respect to whom it shall have been so adjudged, at any Time before such Period shall have arrived, in the same Manner as he or she would have been subject and liable thereto if this Act had not passed: Provided nevertheless, that when such Period shall have arrived, such Insolvent shall be entitled to the Benefit and Protection of this Act, notwithstanding that he or she may have been out of actual Custody during all or any Part of the Time subsequent to such Adjudication, by reason of such Prisoner not having been arrested or detained during such Time or any Part thereof.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where such Insolvent shall, upon such Adjudication as aforesaid, be liable to further Imprisonment at the Suit of his or her Creditor or Creditors, or any or either of them, it shall be lawful at any Time for the Court by which such Adjudication shall be pronounced, on the Application of such Insolvent, to order such Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit he or she shall be so imprisoned to pay to such Insolvent such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Rate of Five Shillings per Week in the whole, at such Times, and in such Manner, and in such Proportions as such Court shall direct; and that, on Failure of Payment thereof, as directed by such Court, such Court shall order such Insolvent to be forthwith discharged from Custody at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors so failing to pay the same.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Married Woman, being a Prisoner, or in insolvent Circumstances, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall petition to be discharged for any Debt or Debts under the Provisions of the same, it shall be lawful for any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors to which such Petition shall be presented to receive the same, without requiring such Married Woman to execute any Conveyance or Assignment as may be lawfully required for other Petitioners according to the Provisions of this Act, but instead thereof such Court shall require such Married Woman to execute a Conveyance and Assignment for vesting in an Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court, all Property, Real and Personal, to which she may be entitled for her separate Use, whether in Possession, Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or over which she shall have any Power of Disposition notwithstanding her Coverture, or which shall be vested in any Trustee or Trustee, or other Person or Persons, for her Benefit, and to deliver up all Personal Estate and Effects of which she shall have the actual Possession, except such as she may be permitted by such Court to retain, subject only to such Right, Title, or Interest as her Husband may have in the aforesaid Real and Personal Property, all which Acts she is hereby empowered to do without her Husband, notwithstanding her Coverture, so nevertheless as not to prejudice any Right of her Husband in such Real and Personal Estate and Effects respectively; and all such Estate and Effects, Real and Personal, in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, shall, by such Conveyance and Assignment as to be executed under the Order of such Court, be so effectually vested in the Assignee or Assignees as to be the same might have been vested in such Assignee or Assignees.

Court may in certain Cases discharge the Insolvent from all Liability in respect of the Debts specified.

Order of Discharge not to affect Creditors residing out of the Limits of the Time.

Remedy for unlawful Proceedings against Prisoner after final Order.

Where Adjudication of Discharge at a future Period, the Prisoner may be arrested, &c. till Period arrives.

Court may order defaulting Creditor to pay Prisoner a Sum not exceeding Five Shillings per Week.

Special Provision for Insolvent Married Women.

Assignment by the Comptroller or Assignment of such Women if she had been sole and unmarried, subject only to the Rights of her Husband therein as aforesaid; and all Provisions in this Act contained, touching the Real and Personal Estate of any Petitioner or Petitioner seeking to be relieved under the Authority of the same, shall apply to such Real and Personal Estate and Effects of such Married Woman, in the same Manner as the same would apply to such Personal Estate.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Prisoner for Debt as aforesaid shall be or become of unsound Mind, and be therefore incapable of taking the Benefit of this Act, in such Manner as he or she might have done if of sound Mind, the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison wherein the Prisoner shall be shall give Information thereof to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors of the Presidency wherein such Prison shall be situated, which Court shall thereupon send a Commissioner or some competent Person or Persons to enquire, examine, and report to such Court touching and respecting the State of the Prisoner's Mind; and such Court may either confirm or set aside the Report of such Commissioner or Commissioners, and may, if it think fit, make further Enquiry by Examination of Witnesses upon Oath; and if such Court shall conclude that the Prisoner is of unsound Mind, it shall be lawful for such Court, at the Instance of any Person or Persons on behalf of such Prisoner, to order Notice to be twice inserted in the Gazette of such Presidency, and in such Notice to specify and direct that Application will be made to such Court for the Discharge of such Prisoner on a Day to be specified in such Notice, being Twenty Days at least from the First Time of Publication of such Notice; which Notice, together with Service of the Notice on the Creditor or Creditors, at whose Suit such Prisoner shall be detained in Custody, or his, her, or their Attorney, shall be deemed sufficient to authorize such Court so proceed to the Discharge of such Prisoner, and such Court shall proceed accordingly, and discharge such Prisoner: Provided always, that all and every Estate, Right, Title, Interest in Law and Equity, Real and Personal, Power, Benefit, and Emolument whatsoever, which if such Prisoner were of sound Mind could and ought to be enjoyed by such Prisoner pursuant to the Provisions of the Act, shall, by force and virtue of the Order for the Discharge of such Prisoner, be vested in the common or other Assignee or Assignees appointed by such Court, as fully and effectually, and in the same Manner, and with all and every the same Consequence and Effect, both in Fact and Law, as if such Prisoner had been of sound Mind, and had duly conveyed the same to such common or other Assignee at the Time and in the Manner in this Act provided.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That after the Time appointed for this Act to take effect, every Warrant of Attorney to confess Judgment in any Personal Action, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, and every Cognovit Actionem given by any Defendant in any Personal Action which shall be pending in any of the said Courts, shall, within Six Weeks after the Execution of such Warrant or Cognovit, be filed, together with an Affidavit of the Time of the Execution thereof, with the Prothonotary or other proper Officer of the Court in which the Judgment is confessed or the Action is pending; and every such Warrant of Attorney and Cognovit Actionem as aforesaid, which shall not be so filed as aforesaid, shall be deemed fraudulent, null and void, to all Intents and Purposes; and if any Warrant or Cognovit which shall be so filed as aforesaid shall have been given subject to any Defence or Condition, such Defence or Condition shall be written on the same Paper or Parchment on which such Warrant or Cognovit shall be written, before the Time when it shall be filed, otherwise such Warrant or Cognovit shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That the Prothonotary or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Court of Record within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company shall cause every Warrant of Attorney and Cognovit Actionem in any Personal Action, filed in his Office, to be numbered, and shall keep a Book or Books in his said Office, in which he shall cause to be fairly entered an Alphabetical List of all such Warrants and Cognovits, according to the Form of a Schedule annexed to an Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for preventing Frauds upon Creditors by several Warrants of Attorney to confess Judgment; which Book or Books, and every Warrant of Attorney and Cognovit Actionem filed as aforesaid, shall be searched and viewed at all Times, upon Payment of the Fees lawfully established.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court in which any such Warrant or Cognovit is filed to order a Memorandum of Satisfaction to be written upon any such Warrant or Cognovit, if it shall appear to such Court that the Debt for which such Warrant or Cognovit was given as a Security shall have been satisfied or discharged.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in any Proceeding, Examination, Affidavit, or Affirmation had or taken under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm falsely, it shall be lawful for any Court before which any such Person shall be convicted of any such Offence by due Course of Law, to order and adjudge such Person, if convicted in the said United Kingdom, to be transported for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or if convicted in the East Indies, to be transported to such Place and for such Term as the Court shall direct, or in either Case to order and adjudge that such Person shall be imprisoned and fined, or imprisoned or fined only, for such Time, and to such Amount, and in such Manner, as the same Court shall direct.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor or other Person shall wilfully and fraudulently conceal or conceal any Part of the Real and Personal Estate or Effects of any Insolvent or Insolvents who shall have filed a Petition for Relief, or against whom any Petition shall have been filed in any of the said Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, such Person shall be guilty of a Misdemeanour; manner; and it shall be lawful for any Court before which any such Person shall be convicted of any such Offence by due Course of Law, to order and adjudge that such Person shall be transported to such Place and for such Term of Years as the said Court shall direct, or to order and adjudge that such Person shall be imprisoned and fined, or imprisoned or fined only, for such Term, and to such Amount, and in such Manner as the same Court shall direct.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person, or Persons shall have been ordered and adjudged, under the Provisions of this Act, to pay any Fine for any Forgery, Perjury, Embezzlement, or Concealment, and such Fine shall have been paid, it shall be lawful for any Assignee, or Assignees in whom the Estate and Effects of any Insolvent or Insolvents shall be duly vested, according to the Provisions of this Act, to apply to the Court by which such Fine shall have been imposed; and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the same Court that the Creditors for whose Benefit the said Assignee or Assignees shall hold in Trust the said Estate and Effects have been defrauded, or have incurred Loss, by means of such Forgery, Perjury, Embezzlement, or Concealment, the said Court by which the said Fine shall have been imposed shall pay the same, after deducting the Costs of Prosecution, to the said Assignee or Assignees for the Use and Benefit of the said Creditors: Provided always, that if no such Application shall be made by such Assignee or Assignees within One Year after any such Fine shall have been paid, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such Fine shall have been imposed, to appropriate, apply, and pay over such Fine to such Uses, Purposes, and Persons, and in such Manner as any other Fine imposed by the same Court for any Forgery, Perjury, or other Crime or Misdemeanour may be lawfully appropriated, applied, and paid over.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That all Affidavits and Affirmations to be used before any Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or any Officer of such Court, shall and may be sworn and affirmed before such Court, or any Commissioner or other Person appointed by such Court for that Purpose, or any Judge or Commissioner for taking Affidavits in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record within the Limits of the said United Company's Charter, or before any Master or Master Extraordinary in Chancery in England or Ireland, or any Magistrate authorized to take Affidavits or Affirmations in Scotland.

LXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have been at any Time discharged by virtue of this Act shall again be entitled to the Benefit thereof within the Space of Five Years after such Discharge, unless a Majority in Number and Value of the Creditors against whom such Person shall seek to be discharged by virtue of this Act shall signify his, her, or their Assent to such Discharge, or unless it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, in which Application for such Discharge shall be made, that such Person has since his or her former Discharge endeavoured by Industry and Frugality to pay all just Demands upon him or her, and has incurred no unnecessary Expence, and that the Debts which such Person has incurred subsequent to such former Discharge have been necessarily incurred for the Maintenance of such Person or his or her Family, or that the Insolvency of such Person has arisen from Misfortune, or from Inability to acquire Substantive for himself or herself, and his or her Family.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action of Escape, or any other Suit or Action, shall be brought against any Magistrate or Officer or any other Person for performing the Duty of his Office or Appointment in pursuance of this Act, he or they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall be convicted, or discontinues his or her Action, or a Verdict shall pass against him or her, or Judgment shall be given for the Defendant: upon Demand, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of the several Courts for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors shall, on the reasonable Request of any such Insolvent as aforesaid, or of any Creditor or Creditors of such Insolvent, or his or their Attorney, produce and shew to such Insolvent, Creditor or Creditors, and his, her, or their Attorney, at such Times as such Courts respectively shall direct, every Petition, Schedule, Order of Adjudication, and all other Orders and Proceedings made and had relating to such Insolvent, and all Books, Papers, and Writings filed in such Matter, and permit him, her, or them to inspect and examine the same, and shall provide for any such Insolvent, or Creditor or Creditors, or his, her, or their Attorney requiring the same, a Copy or Copies of such Petition and other Proceedings, or of such Part thereof as shall be required, receiving such Fee as such Court shall appoint for so providing the same; and that a Copy of such Petition, Schedule, Order, and other Orders and Proceedings, purporting to be signed by the Officer in whose Custody the same shall be, or his Deputy, certifying the same to be a true Copy of such Petition, Schedule, Order or other Proceeding, and sealed with the Seal of the said Courts respectively, shall at all Times be admitted in all Courts whatever, and before Commissioners of Bankrupts and Justices of the Peace, as sufficient Evidence of the same, without any Proof whatever given of the same, further than that the same is sealed with the Seal of such Courts respectively as aforesaid.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Conveyance, Assignment, Letter of Attorney, Affidavit, Certificate, or other Proceeding, Instrument, or Writing whatsoever, before or under any Order of any of such Courts for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, nor any Copy thereof, nor any Advertisement inserted in any Newspaper by Direction of any such Court, relating to Matters within the Jurisdiction of such Court, shall be liable to be chargeable or charged with the Payment of any Stamp or other Duty whatsoever, and that no Sale of any Real or Personal Estate of any such Insolvent as aforesaid, for the Benefit of his or her Creditors under this Act, shall be liable to any Auction Duty.

[25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS many wholesome Alterations have lately been made in the Criminal Law of England, and the Administration thereof, by Authority of Parliament, and it is expedient that some of the said Alterations should be extended to the British Territories under the Government of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence and take effect on and from the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and shall extend to all Persons and all Places, as well on Land as on the High Seas, over whom or within the Criminal Jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice created or to be created within the British Territories under the Government of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies does or shall hereafter extend.

From the 1st of March 1829
this Act is to take effect throughout all the Jurisdiction of the King's Courts
in the East Indies.

Who may be admitted to Bail on a Charge of Felony, and who may not.

II. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be taken as a Charge of Felony or Suspicion of Felony before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the Charge shall be supported by positive and credible Evidence of the Fact, or by such Evidence as if not explained or contradicted shall in the Opinion of the Justice or Justices make a strong Presumption of the Guilt of the Person charged, such Person shall be committed to Prison by such Justice or Justices in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only One Justice present, and the whole Evidence given before him shall be such as neither to make a strong Presumption of Guilt nor to warrant the Disposal of the Charge, such Justice shall order the Person charged to be detained in Custody until he or she shall be taken before Two Justices at the least; and where any Person is taken, or any Person is the first Instance taken before Two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with Felony or on Suspicion of Felony, and the Evidence given in support of the Charge shall in their Opinion not be such as to make a Strong Presumption of the Guilt of the Person charged, and to require his or her Commitment, or such Evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the Person charged as shall in their Opinion weaken the Presumption of his or her Guilt, but there shall notwithstanding appear to them, in either of such Cases, to be sufficient Ground for Judicial Enquiry into his or her Guilt, the Person charged shall be admitted to Bail by such Two Justices in the Manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any such Justice or Justices to hear Evidence on behalf of any Person as charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to him or them to be meet and conducive to the Ends of Justice to hear the same: Provided also, that in all Cases where any Person or Persons charged as aforesaid shall be brought before One Justice, at any Place beyond the local Limits of the Jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice created or to be created within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, it shall be lawful for such Justice alone either to commit such Person to Prison or to admit him to Bail as hereinafter directed.

Before any Person charged with Felony, he shall be brought or committed, the Justice shall take down in Writing the Examination,
&c. and bind Witnesses to appear at the Trial.

Examinations,
&c. to be induced to the Court.

Duty of Justice on Charge of Misdemeanor.

III. And be it enacted, That the Justice or Justices of the Peace, before he or they shall admit to Bail or commit to Prison any Person arrested for Felony or on Suspicion of Felony, shall take the Examination of such Person, and the Information upon Oath of those who shall know the Facts and Circumstances of the Case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into Writing, and the Two Justices shall certify such Bailment in Writing, and every such Justice shall have Authority to bind by Recognizance all such Persons as know or declare any thing material touching any such Felony or Suspicion of Felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or Guild Delivery, or Superior Criminal Court or Sessions of the Peace, at which the Trial thereof is intended to be, then and there to prosecute or give Evidence against the Party accused; and such Justices and Justice respectively shall subscribe all such Examinations, Informations, Bailments, and Recognizances, and deliver or cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any Person shall be taken on a Charge of Misdemeanor, or Suspicion thereof, shall take the Examination of the Person charged, and the Information upon Oath of those who shall know the Facts and Circumstances of the Case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into Writing, before he shall commit to Prison or require Bail from the Person as charged; and in every Case of Bailment shall certify the Bailment in Writing, and shall have Authority to bind all Persons by Recognizance to appear to prosecute or give Evidence against the Party accused, in like manner as in Cases of Felony; and shall subscribe all Examinations, Informations, Bailments, and Recognizances, and deliver or cause the same to be delivered to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, in the Manner as in Cases of Felony.

V. And

V. And be it enacted, That every Coroner, upon any Inquisition before him taken, whereby any Person shall be indicted for Murdering or Murder, or as an Accessory to Murder before the Fact, shall put in Writing the Evidence given to the Jury before him, or as much thereof as shall be material, and shall have Authority to bind by Recognizance all such Persons as know or declare any thing material touching the said Murdering or Murder, or the said Offence of being accessory to Murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or Goal Delivery, or Superior Criminal Court or Sessions, at which the Trial is to be, then and there to prosecute or give Evidence against the Party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same Evidence, and all such Recognizances, and also the Inquisition before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the proper Officer of the Court in which the Trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court.

VI. And be it enacted, That if any Justice or Coroner shall offend in any thing contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of these Provisions, the Court to whose Officer any such Examination, Information, Evidence, Bailment, Recognizance, or Inquisition ought to have been delivered, shall, upon Examination and Proof of the Offence in a summary Manner, set such Fine upon every such Justice or Coroner as the Court shall think meet.

VII. And for the more effectual Prosecution of Accessories before the Fact to Felony, be it enacted, That if any Person shall counsel, procure, or command any other Person to commit any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, the Person so counselling, procuring, or commanding shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and may be indicted and convicted either as an Accessory before the Fact to the principal Felony, together with the principal Felon, or after the Conviction of the principal Felon, or may be indicted and convicted of a substantive Felony, whether the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice, and may be punished in the same Manner as any Accessory before the Fact to the same Felony, if convicted as an Accessory, may be punished; and the Offence of the Person so counselling, procuring, or commanding, however indicted, may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished by any Court which shall have Jurisdiction to try the principal Felon, in the same Manner as if such Offence had been committed at the same Place as the principal Felony, although such Offence may have been committed either on the High Sea, or at any Place on Land, whether within His Majesty's Dominions or without; and that in case the principal Felony, and the Offence of counselling, procuring, or commanding, shall have been committed in different Places, the last-mentioned Offence may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, having Jurisdiction to try either of the said Offences: Provided always, that no Person who shall be once duly tried for any such Offence, whether as an Accessory before the Fact or as for a substantive Felony, shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same Offence.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall become an Accessory after the Fact to any Felony, whether the same be a Felony at Common Law, or by virtue of any Statute or Statutes made or to be made, the Offence of such Person may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished by any Court which shall have Jurisdiction to try the principal Felon, in the same Manner as if the Act by reason whereof such Person shall have become an Accessory had been committed at the same Place as the principal Felony, although such Act may have been committed either on the High Sea or at any Place on Land, whether within His Majesty's Dominions or without; and that in case the principal Felony, and the Act by reason whereof any Person shall have become Accessory, shall have been committed in different Places, the Offence of such Accessory may be enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, having Jurisdiction to try either of the said Offences: Provided always, that no Person who shall be once duly tried for any Offence of being an Accessory shall be liable to be again indicted or tried for the same Offence.

IX. And be it enacted, That if any principal Offender shall be in anywise convicted of any Felony, it shall be lawful to proceed against any Accessory, either before or after the Fact, in the same Manner as if such Principal Felon had been accused thereof, notwithstanding such principal Felon shall die or be pardoned, or otherwise delivered before Attainder; and every such Accessory shall suffer the same Punishment, if he or she be in anywise convicted, as he should have suffered if the Principal had been attainted.

X. And be it enacted, That in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor wherein it shall be requisite to state the Ownership of any Property whatsoever, whether Real or Personal, which shall belong to or be in the Possession of more than One Person, whether such Persons be Partners in Trade, Joint Tenants, Partners, or Tenants in Common, it shall be sufficient to name One of such Persons, and to state such Property to belong to the Person so named, and neither or others, as the Case may be; and whereas in any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor it shall be necessary to mention, for any Purpose whatsoever, any Partners, Joint Tenants, Partners, or Tenants in Common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the Manner aforesaid; and this Provision shall be construed to extend to all Joint Stock Companies and Trustees.

XI. And be it enacted, That no Indictment or Information shall be abated by reason of any dilatory Plea of Misnomer, or of Want of Addition, or of wrong Addition of the Party offering such Plea, if the Court shall be satisfied by Affidavit or otherwise of the Truth of such Plea, but in such Case the Court shall forthwith cause the Indictment or Information to be amended according to the Truth, and shall call upon both Party to plead thereto, and shall proceed as if no such dilatory Plea had been pleaded.

XII. And

Date of Comms.

Justice and Coroner.

Accessory before the Fact may be tried as such, or as a substantive Felony, by any Court which has Jurisdiction to try the principal Felon. If the Offence be committed in different Places, Accessory may be tried in any of the High Courts in India having Jurisdiction.

Accessory after the Fact may be tried by any Court which has Jurisdiction to try the principal Felon. If the Offence be committed in different Places, Accessory may be tried in any Court having Jurisdiction.

Accessory may be proceeded after Conviction of the Principal, though the Principal be not attainted.

In Indictments for Offences committed in the Property of Partners, it may be laid in any one Partner by Name, and others.

Indictment not to be abated by dilatory Plea of Misnomer.

What Defects shall not vitiate an Indictment after Verdict, or otherwise.

XII. And be it enacted, That no Judgment upon any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor, whether after Verdict or otherwise, or by Confession, Default, or otherwise, shall be stayed or reversed for Want of the Averment of any Matter unnecessary to be proved, nor for the Omission of the Words "as appears by the Record," or of the Words "with Force and Arms," or of the Words "against the Peace," nor for the Insertion of the Words "against the Form of the Statute," instead of the Words "against the Form of the Statutes," or vice versa; nor for that any Person or Persons mentioned in the Indictment or Information is or are designated by the Name of Office or other descriptive Appellation instead of his, her, or their proper Name or Names; nor for omitting to state the Time at which the Offence was committed, in any Case where Time is not of the Essence of the Offence, nor for stating the Time imperfectly, nor for stating the Offence to have been committed on a Day subsequent to the dating of the Indictment or exhibiting the Information, or as an impossible Day, or on a Day that never happened; nor for Want of a proper or perfect Venue, where the Court shall appear by the Indictment or Information to have had Jurisdiction over the Offence.

What shall not be sufficient to stay or reverse Judgment after the Verdict.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no Judgment after Verdict, upon any Indictment or Information for any Felony or Misdemeanor, shall be stayed or reversed for Want of a Sheriff, nor by reason that the Jury Process has been awarded to a wrong Officer, or upon an insufficient Subpoena, nor for any Misnomer or Misdescription of the Officer returning such Process, or of any of the Jurors, nor because any Person has served upon the Jury who has not been returned as a Juror by the Sheriff or other Officer; and that where the Office charged has been created by any Statute, or subjected to a greater Degree of Punishment, the Indictment or Information shall, after Verdict, be held sufficient to warrant the Punishment prescribed by the Statute, if it describe the Offence in the Words of the Statute.

A Plea of Not guilty shall put the Prisoner on his Trial by Jury.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person, being arraigned upon any Indictment or Information for Treason, Felony, or Piracy, shall plead thereto a Plea of Not guilty, he shall by such Plea, without any further Form, be deemed to have put himself upon the Country for Trial, and the Court shall in the usual Manner order a Jury for the Trial of such Person accordingly.

If he refuse to plead, Court may enter a Plea of Not guilty to his advantage.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Person, being arraigned upon or charged with any Indictment, Information, or Information for Treason, Felony, Piracy, or Misdemeanor, shall stand mute, or will not answer directly to such Indictment, Information, or Information, in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper Officer to enter a Plea of Not guilty on behalf of such Person, and the Plea so entered shall have the same Force and Effect as if such Person had actually pleaded the same.

Every Challenge to the legal Number shall be void.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person arraigned upon any Indictment or Information for any Treason, Felony, or Piracy shall challenge personally a greater Number of the Men returned to be of the Jury than such Person is entitled by Law to a challenge in any of the said Cases, every peremptory Challenge beyond the Number allowed by Law in any of the said Cases shall be entirely void, and the Trial of such Person shall proceed as if no such Challenge had been made.

Affidavit of another Crime not pleadable.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no Plea setting forth any Attainder shall be pleaded in bar of any Indictment, unless the Offence stated in the Plea be substantially the same Offence as that charged in the Indictment.

Jury not to enquire of Prisoner's Lands, &c. Benefit of Clergy abolished.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be arraigned upon any Indictment or Information for Treason or Felony, the Jury impeached by try such Person shall not be charged to enquire concerning his Lands, Tenements, or Goods, nor whether he had for such Treason or Felony.

What Persons only shall be capital.

XIX. And be it enacted, That Benefit of Clergy with respect to Persons convicted of Felony shall be abolished.

Persons not capital to be punished under the Acts, if any, relating thereto, otherwise under this Act.

XX. And be it enacted, That no Person convicted of Felony shall suffer Death, unless it be for some Felony which was excluded from the Benefit of Clergy before the Day heretofore mentioned for this Act taking effect, or which shall be made punishable with Death by this Act or by some Statute to be passed hereafter.

The Court may order hard Labour as ordinary Confinement as Part of the Sentence of Imprisonment.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of any Felony not punishable with Death shall be punished in the Manner prescribed by the Statute or Statutes specially relating to such Felony; and that every Person convicted of any Felony for which no Punishment hath been or hereafter may be specially provided, shall be deemed to be punishable under this Act, and shall be held, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as such Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be kept, whipped, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

If a Person under Sentence for another Crime is convicted of XXII. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be convicted of any Offence punishable under this Act, for which Imprisonment may be awarded, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the Offender to be imprisoned, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Goal or House of Correction, and also to direct that the Offender shall be kept in solitary Confinement for any Period or Periods of such Imprisonment, or of such Imprisonment with hard Labour, as to the Court in its Discretion shall seem meet.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That whenever Sentence shall be passed for Felony on a Person already imprisoned under Sentence for another Crime, it shall be lawful for the Court to award Imprisonment for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment to which such Person shall have been previously sentenced; and where such Person shall be already under Sentence either of Imprisonment or of Transportation, the Court, if empowered to pass Sentence of Transportation, may award sword such Sentence for the subsequent Offence, to commence at the Expiration of the Imprisonment or Transportation to which each Person shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate Term of Imprisonment or Transportation respectively may exceed the Term for which either of those Punishments could be otherwise awarded.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall be convicted of any Felony not punishable with Death, committed after a previous Conviction for Felony, such Person shall on such subsequent Conviction be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as such Court shall direct, for Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment); and in an Indictment for any such Felony committed after a previous Conviction for Felony, it shall be sufficient to state that the Offender was at a certain Time and Place convicted of Felony, without otherwise describing the previous Felony; and a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only (joining the formal Part) of the Indictment and Conviction for the previous Felony, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Court where the Offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or Officer (for which Certificate a Fee of Three Shill. Sixpence, and no more, shall be demanded or taken), shall, upon Proof of the Identity of the Person of the Offender, be sufficient Evidence of the first Conviction, without Proof of the Signature or official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; and if any Person other than such Clerk, Officer, or Deputy shall sign any such Certificate as such Clerk, Officer, or Deputy, or if any Person shall utter any such Certificate with a false or counterfeit Signature thereto, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding two Years, and if a Male, to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

XXV. And be it enacted, That all Offences prosecuted in any of His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty shall, upon every first and subsequent Conviction, be subject to the same Punishments, whether of Death or otherwise, as if such Offences had been committed upon the Land.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That whenever this or any other Statute relating to any Offence, whether punishable upon Indictment or summary Conviction, is describing or referring to the Offence or the Subject Matter thereof, or the Offender, or the Party affected or intended to be affected by the Offence, shall use Words importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only, yet the Statute shall be understood to include several Nations as well as One Nation, and several Persons as well as One Person, and Females as well as Males, and Bodies Corporate as well as Individuals, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; and wherever any Forfeiture or Penalty is payable to a Party aggrieved, it shall be payable to a Body Corporate in every Case where such Body shall be the Party aggrieved.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That whenever any Person shall be convicted of any Felony, except Murder, for which he shall by Law be liable to suffer Death, and the Court before which such Offender shall be convicted shall be of Opinion that the particular Circumstances of the Case do not require that Judgment of Death should be pronounced, but that such Offender is a fit and proper Subject either to be recommended to the Royal Mercy, or to be ordered to be transported under the Authority of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Court if it shall think fit so to do, to direct the proper Officer then being present in Court to require and ask, whereupon such Officer shall require and ask if such Offender hath or knoweth any Thing to say why Judgment of Death should not be recorded against such Offender; and in case such Offender shall not allege any Matter or Thing sufficient in Law to arrest or bar such Judgment, the Court shall and may and is hereby authorized to abstain from pronouncing Judgment of Death upon such Offender, and instead of pronouncing such Judgment, to order the same to be entered of Record, and thereupon such proper Officer as aforesaid shall and may and is hereby authorized to enter Judgment of Death on Record against such Offender in the usual and accustomed Form, and in such and the same Manner as is now used, and as if Judgment of Death had actually been pronounced in open Court against such Offender by the Court before which such Offender shall have been convicted.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That a Record of every such Judgment so entered as aforesaid shall have the like Effect to all Intents and Purposes, and be followed by all the same Consequences, as if such Judgment had actually been pronounced in open Court, and the Offender had been sentenced by the Court.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That when any Person shall be convicted of any Felony for which Judgment of Death shall be pronounced or recorded against him, it shall and may be lawful for the Court, instead of entering such Judgment of Death to be recorded on such Offender, to order such Offender to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, either for Life or for such Term of Years as the Court shall order.

XXX. And be it enacted, That where any Offender shall be ordered or sentenced to be transported by any Court, the Governor or Command of the Presidency, or other Chief Officer of the Place where this Conviction shall be had, shall and he is hereby required to take Order for the due Performance of such Sentence of Transportation accordingly: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any such Court to order the Transportation of any Person, being a Native of the East Indies and not born of European Parents, to the Eastern Coast of New South Wales, or any of the Islands adjacent thereto.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Offender who shall be ordered by any Court to be transported for any Term, of Life or Years, shall be found within any of the British Territories within the Limits of the said United Company's Charter, except the Place to which he shall have been so ordered to be transported, or shall come into any Part of this United Kingdom, before the End of his Term, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall be liable to be punished as a Person attainted of Felony, and to suffer Death accordingly: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so taken to prevent His Majesty from extending His Royal Mercy to any such Offender, and allowing his Return from such Place of Transportation.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That on any Prosecution by Indictment or Information, either at Common Law or by virtue of any Statute, against any Person, for forging or counterfeiting any Deed, Writing, Instrument, or other Matter whatsoever, or for uttering any Deed, Writing, Instrument, or other Matter whatsoever, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, or for being accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence, if the same be a Felony, or for aiding, abetting, or counselling the Commission of any such Offence, if the same be a Misdemeanor, no Person shall be deemed to be an incompetent Witness in support of any such Prosecution, by reason of any Interest which such Person may have or be supposed to have in respect of such Deed, Writing, Instrument, or other Matter.

XXXIII. And be it declared and enacted, That where the King's Majesty shall be pleased to extend His Royal Mercy to any Offender convicted of any Felony punishable with Death or otherwise, and by Warrant under His Sign Manual, countersigned by One of the Principal Secretaries of State, shall grant to such Offender either a free or a conditional Pardon, the Discharge of such Offender out of Custody in the Case of a Free Pardon, and the Performance of the Condition in the Case of a conditional Pardon, shall have the Effect of a Pardon under the Great Seal for such Offender as to the Felony for which such Pardon shall be so granted: Provided always, that no free Pardon, nor any such Discharge in consequence thereof, nor any conditional Pardon, nor the Performance of the Condition thereof, in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall prevent or mitigate the Punishment to which the Offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced on a subsequent Conviction for any Felony committed after the granting of any such Pardon.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That where any Offender hath been or shall be convicted of any Felony, and hath endorsed or shall endorse the Punishment which hath been or shall be adjudged or ordered in respect thereof, the Punishment so endorsed hath and shall have the like Effects and Consequences as a Pardon under the Great Seal, as to the Felony wherein the Offender was so convicted: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, nor the endorsing of such Punishment, shall prevent or mitigate any Punishment to which the Offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced on a subsequent Conviction for any other Felony.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That where any Offender hath been or shall be convicted of any Misdemeanor which renders the Parties convicted thereof incompetent Witnesses (except Perjury or Subornation of Perjury), and hath endorsed or shall endorse the Punishment to which such Offender hath been or shall be adjudged for the same, such Offender shall not, after the Punishment so endorsed, be deemed to be by reason of such Misdemeanor an incompetent Witness in any Court or Proceeding, Civil or Criminal.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Quaker or Moravian, who shall be required to give Evidence in any Case whatsoever, Criminal or Civil, shall, instead of taking an Oath in the usual Form, be permitted to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Words following: that is to say, "I, A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm," and that every Native of any Country within the Limits of the Charter of the said United Company, who may be required to give Evidence in any Case whatsoever, Criminal or Civil, and who shall object on the Ground of any religious Scruple to take an Oath in the usual Form, may, at the Discretion of the Court, be permitted to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration in such Manner and Form as the Court shall deem sufficiently binding upon his or her Conscience, which said Affirmation or Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect in all Courts of Justice and other Places, where by Law an Oath is required, as if such Quaker, Moravian, or Native had taken an Oath in the usual Form: and if any Person making such Affirmation or Declaration shall be convicted of having wilfully, falsely, and corruptly affirmed or declared any Matter or Thing which if the same had been sworn in the usual Form would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, every such Offender shall be subject to the same Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That all Persons who by any Laws are now required to take an Oath upon the Holy Scriptures, or in any other Manner, for the Purpose of acting or acting as Members of any Court, Civil or Criminal, or for any other Purpose whatsoever, may, instead thereof, be sworn according to the Form of their respective Religions.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case of any Felony punishable under this Act, every Principal in the Second Degree, and every Accessory before the Fact, shall be punishable with Death, or otherwise, in the same Manner as the Principal or the First Degree is by this Act punishable; and every Accessory after the Fact to any Felony punishable under this Act (except only a Receiver of stolen Property), and an Accessory after the Fact to Murder, shall, on Conviction, be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding exceeding Two Years; and every Person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Misdemeanor punishable under this Act, shall be liable to be indicted and punished as a principal Offender.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the Commission of any Offence which is by this Act punishable on summary Conviction, either for every Time of its Commission, or for the First and Second Time only, or for the First Time only, every such Person shall, on Conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring, to the same Forfeiture and Punishment to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence as a principal Offender is by this Act made liable.

XL. And be it enacted, That any Person found committing any Offence punishable either upon Indictment or upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act, may be immediately apprehended without a Warrant by any Peace Officer, or by the Party aggrieved, or by his Servant, or any Person authorized by him, and forthwith taken before some neighbouring Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law; and if any credible Witness shall prove upon Oath before a Justice of the Peace a reasonable Cause to suspect that any Person has in his Possession, or on his Premises any Property whatsoever, on or with respect to which any such Offence shall have been committed, the Justice may grant a Warrant to search for such Property, as in the Case of stolen Goods: and any Person to whom any Property shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, if he shall have reasonable Cause to suspect that any such Offence has been committed on or with respect to such Property, is hereby authorized, and if in his Power is required, to apprehend and forthwith to carry before a Justice of the Peace the Party offering the same, together with such Property, to be dealt with according to Law.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the Prosecution for every Offence punishable on summary Conviction under this Act shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of the Offence, and not otherwise; and the Evidence of the Party aggrieved shall be admitted in Proof of the Offence.

XLII. And be it enacted, That where any Person shall be charged on the Oath of a credible Witness, before any Justice of the Peace, with any such Offence, the Justice may summon the Person charged to appear at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, then (upon Proof of the due Service of the Summons upon such Person, by delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his usual Place of Abode), the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the Case ex parte, or issue his Warrant for apprehending such Person, and bringing him before himself or some other Justice of the Peace; or the Justice before whom the Charge shall be made may (if he shall so think fit) without any previous Summons (unless where otherwise specially directed) issue such Warrant, and the Justice before whom the Person charged shall appear or be brought shall proceed to hear and determine the Case.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That every Sum of Money which shall be forfeited for the Value of any Property stolen or taken, or for the Amount of any Injury done, (such Value or Amount to be assessed in such Case by the convicting Justice) shall be paid to the Party aggrieved, if known, except where such Party shall have been examined in Proof of the Offence; or when the Party aggrieved is unknown, such Sum shall be applied in the same Manner as the Penalty: Provided always, that where several Persons shall join in the Commission of the same Offence, and shall, upon Conviction thereof, each be adjudged to Refuse a Sum equivalent to the Value of the Property, or to the Amount of the Injury, in every such Case no further Sum shall be paid to the Party aggrieved than that which shall be forfeited by one of such Offenders only, and the corresponding Sum or Sums forfeited by the other Offender or Offenders shall be applied in the same Manner as any Penalty imposed by a Justice of the Peace in hereto directed to be applied.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That in every Case of a summary Conviction under this Act, where the Sum which shall be forfeited for the Value of the Property stolen or taken, or for the Amount of the Injury done, or which shall be imposed as a Penalty by the Justice, shall not be paid either immediately after the Conviction or within such Period as the Justice shall on the Time of the Conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for the convicting Justice (unless where otherwise specially directed) to commit the Offender to the Common Goal or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, according to the Discretion of the Justice, for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, where the Amount of the Sum forfeited or of the Penalty imposed, or of both (as the Case may be), together with the Costs, shall not exceed Fifty Sixpence Halfpenny, and for any Term not exceeding Four Calendar Months, where the Amount, with Costs, shall not exceed One hundred Sixpence Halfpenny, and for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months in any other Case, the Commitment to be determinable in each of the Cases aforesaid upon Payment of the Amount, with Costs.

XLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Person shall be summarily convicted before a Justice of the Peace of any Offence against this Act, and it shall be a First Conviction, it shall be lawful for the Justice, if he shall so think fit, to discharge the Offender from his Conviction, upon his making such Satisfaction to the Party aggrieved, for Damages and Costs, or either of them, as shall be ascertained by the Justice.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That in case any Person convicted of any Offence punishable upon summary Conviction by virtue of this Act shall have paid the Sum adjudged to be paid, together with Costs under such Conviction, or shall have offered the Improvement awarded for Negligence thereof, or the Improvement adjudged in the first Instance, or shall have been discharged from his Conviction in the Manner aforesaid, on every such Case he shall be released from all further or other Proceedings for the same Cause.

Death, or the Cause of Death only, happens within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter.

Punishment of Manslaughter.

LVII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Manslaughter shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, or to pay such Fine as the Court shall award.

Punishment of Manslaughter.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Punishment or Forfeiture shall be incurred by any Person who shall kill another by Misfortune, or in his own Defence, or in any Manner without Felony.

Excusable and justifiable Homicides.

LIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person unlawfully and maliciously shall administer or attempt to administer to any Person, or shall cause to be taken by any Person, any Poison or other destructive Thing, or shall unlawfully and maliciously attempt to drown, suffocate, or strangle any Person, or shall unlawfully and maliciously shoot at any Person, or shall, by drawing a Trigger, or in any other Manner, attempt to discharge any kind of loaded Arms at any Person, or shall unlawfully and maliciously stab, cut, or wound any Person, with Intent, in any of the Cases aforesaid, to murder such Person, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Attempting, by Poison or Violence, to murder.

LX. And be it enacted, That if any Person unlawfully and maliciously shall shoot at any Person, or shall by drawing a Trigger or in any other Manner, attempt to discharge any kind of Loaded Arms at any Person, or shall unlawfully and maliciously stab, cut, or wound any Person, with Intent, in any of the Cases aforesaid, to maim, disfigure, or disable such Person, or to do some other grievous bodily Harm to such Person, or with Intent to resist or prevent the lawful Apprehension or Detainer of the Party so offending, or of any of his Accessories, for any Offence for which he or they may respectively be liable by Law to be apprehended or detained, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: Provided always, that in case it shall appear, on the Trial of any Person indicted for any of the Offences above specified, that such Act of shooting, or of attempting to discharge loaded Arms, or of stabbing, cutting, or wounding as aforesaid, were committed under such Circumstances that if Death had ensued therefrom the same would not in Law have amounted to the Crime of Murder, in every such Case the Person so indicted shall be acquitted of Felony.

Shooting at, or stabbing, cutting, or wounding any Person, with Intent to maim, disfigure, or disable.

Proviso.

LXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person, with Intent to procure the Murthering of any Woman thus being quick with Child, unlawfully and maliciously shall administer to her, or cause to be taken by Administering Poison, or using any Means to procure the Marriage of any Woman quick with Child.

Using Means with Intent to procure Marriage, where the Woman is not quick with Child.

her, any Person or other Successor Thing, or shall use any Instrument or other Means whatsoever with the like Intent, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: and if any Person, with Intent to procure the Marriage of any Woman not being or not being proved to be three quick with Child, unlawfully and maliciously shall administer to her, or cause to be taken by her, any Medicine or other Thing, or shall use any Instrument or other Means whatever with the like Intent, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXII. And be it enacted, That if any Woman shall be delivered of a Child, and shall, by secret burying or otherwise disposing of the dead Body of the said Child, endeavour to conceal the Birth thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and it shall not be necessary to prove whether the Child died before, at, or after its Birth: Provided always, that if any Woman tried for the Murder of her Child shall be acquitted thereof, it shall be lawful for the Jury by whose Verdict she shall be acquitted to find, in case it shall so appear in Evidence, that she was delivered of a Child, and that she did, by secret burying or otherwise disposing of the dead Body of such Child, endeavour to conceal the Birth thereof, and thereupon the Court may pass such Sentence as if she had been convicted upon an Indictment for the Concealment of the Birth.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of the abominable Crime of Buggery, committed either with Manhood, or with any Animal, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of the Crime of Rape shall suffer Death as a Felon.

LXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any Girl under the age of Eight Years, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: and if any Person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any Girl being above the Age of Eight Years and under the Age of Ten Years, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for such Term as the Court shall award.

LXVI. And Whereas upon Trials for the Crimes of Buggery and of Rape, and of carnally abusing Girls under the respective Ages heretofore mentioned, Officers frequently escape by reason of the Difficulty of the Proof which has been required of the Completion of these several Crimes: for Remedy thereof be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary, in any of these Cases, to prove the actual Emission of Seed in order to constitute a carnal Knowledge, but that the carnal Knowledge shall be deemed complete upon Proof of Penetration only.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That where any Woman shall have any Interest, whether legal or equitable, present or future, absolute, conditional, or contingent, in any Real or Personal Estate, or shall be an Heiress presumptive or next of Kin to any one having such Interest, if any Person shall, from Matrices of Love, take away or detain such Woman against her Will, with Intent to marry or detain her, or to cause her to be married or defiled by any other Person, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, either for Life or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully take or cause to be taken any unmarried Girl, being under the Age of Sixteen Years, out of the Possession and against the Will of her Father or Mother, or of any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of her, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to suffer such Punishment, by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall maliciously, either by Force or Fraud, steal or take away, or decoy or entice away, or detain, any Child under the Age of Ten Years, with Intent to deprive the Parent or Parents, or any other Person having the lawful Care or Charge of such Child, of the Possession of such Child, or with Intent to steal any Article upon or about the Person of such Child, to whomsoever such Article may belong: or if any Person shall, with any such Intent as aforesaid, receive or harbour any such Child, knowing the same to have been by Force or Fraud lost, taken, decoyed, enticed away, or detained as heretofore mentioned, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person who shall have claimed to be the Father of an illegitimate Child, or to have any Right to the Possession of such Child, shall be liable to be prosecuted by virtue hereof, on account of his getting Possession of such Child, or taking such Child out of the Possession of the Mother, or any other Person having the lawful Charge thereof.

LXX. And be it enacted, That if any Person professing the Christian Religion, being married, shall marry any other Person during the Life of the former Husband or Wife, whether the Second Marriage shall have taken place in the East Indies or elsewhere, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years; and every such Offence may be dealt with, acquired or used, determined, and punished by any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice within the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, within the Jurisdiction of which the Offender shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if the Offence had been actually committed within such Jurisdiction: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Second Marriage contracted out of His Majesty's Dominions by any other than a Subject of His Majesty, or to any Person marrying a Second Time, whose Husband or Wife shall have been actually absent from such Person for the Space of Seven Years (last last past, and shall not have been known by such Person to be living within that Time, or shall extend to any Person who at the Time of such Second Marriage shall have been divorced from the Bond of the First Marriage, or to any Person whose former Marriage shall have been declared void by the Sentence of any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Master of a Merchant Vessel shall, during his being Aboard, force any Man on Shore, or wilfully leave him behind in any of His Majesty's Colonies or elsewhere, or shall refuse to bring Home with him again all such of the Men whom he carried out with him on any in a Condition to return when he shall be ready to proceed on his homeward-bound Voyage, every such Master shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being lawfully claustrated thereof, shall be imprisoned for such Term as the Court shall award; and the said Court is hereby authorized to issue One or more Commission, if necessary, for the Examination of Witnesses Aboard, and the Depositions taken under the same shall be received in Evidence on the Trial of every such Indictment or Information.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or shall utter or publish as true, or sell, offer, or dispose of, or give away, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited, or altered, any Deed, or any written Instrument for the Conveyance or Transfer of any Property or Interest in any Land, House, or Goods, or any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund established by Authority of Parliament or of the said United Company, or of any Foreign State, or in any Stock or Fund of any Body Corporate, Company, or Society, or for securing the Payment of Money, or any Will, Testament, Bond, Writing Obligatory, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, or any Indentment or Assignment of any Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, or any Acceptance of any Bill of Exchange, or any Acquittance or Receipt for the Money, or any Goods or valuable Thing, or any accountable Receipt of any Note, Bill, or other Security for Payment of Money, or any Warranty or Order for Payment of Money, or Delivery or Transfer of any Goods or valuable Thing, or any Decree, Order, Record, Certificate, Minute, Affidavit, Deposition, or other Writing which shall be or purport to have been enrolled, drawn up, filed, entered, issued, or delivered by any Court or Magistrate in any Proceeding, Criminal or Civil, with Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever, or any Corporation, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being thereof convicted, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall counterfeit any Gold or Silver Coin of any of the Territories under the Government of the said United Company in the East Indies, or any Gold or Silver Coin usually current and received as Money in Payment in any Part of the British Territories under the Government of the said United Company, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall utter or tender in Payment, or sell, or give in Exchange, or pay or put off to any Person, any such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, every such Offender, being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged by the Court to suffer Six Months Imprisonment, and find Sureties for his good Behaviour for Six Months more, to be computed from the End of the said first Six Months; and if the same Person shall afterwards be convicted a Second Time of the like Offence of uttering or tendering in Payment or selling, or giving in Exchange, or paying or putting off, any such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, such Person shall forthwith stand bound to suffer Two Years Imprisonment, and find Sureties for his or her good Behaviour for Two Years more, to be computed from the End of the said first Two Years; and if the same Person shall afterwards offend a Third Time, in uttering or tendering in Payment, or selling, or giving in Exchange, or paying or putting off, any such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false or counterfeited, and shall be convicted of such Third Offence, he shall be sentenced to Transportation for Life to such Place beyond the Seas as the Court shall direct.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall have in his Custody, without lawful Excuse, the Proof whereof shall lie on the Party accused, any greater Number of Pieces than Five Pieces of such false or counterfeited Coin as aforesaid, every such Person, being thereof convicted upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or if there shall be an Justice of the Peace duly qualified to act in the Place where such Offence shall be committed, before One of the Judges of His Majesty's Court there, shall forfeit and lose all such false and counterfeited Coin, which shall be cut in Pieces and destroyed by Order of such Justice or Judge, and shall for every Offence forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding in Value Forty shillings Ropes, or less than Twenty Seven Ropes, in the Currency of the Place in which such Offence shall be committed, for every such Piece of Silver or counterfeit Coin which shall be found in the Custody of such Person, one Month to the Inferior or Inferior, and the other Month to the Peer of the Presidency, Settlement, or Place in which such Offence shall be committed, and in each any such Penalty shall not be forthwith paid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Judge to commit the Person or Persons who shall be adjudged to pay the same to the Common Goal or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of Three Calendar Months, or until such Penalty shall be paid.

LXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any Licence authorizing any Ship or Vessel to proceed to any Place in the East Indies or Parts aforesaid, or any Licence or Certificate authorizing any Person to go to or reside at any such Place, or any attested Copy of any such Licence or Certificate, or shall utter or publish as true any such counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified Licence, Certificate, or attested Copy, knowing the same to be counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer for such Imprisonment, not exceeding One Year, and shall pay such Fine not exceeding in Value One thousand Nine Ropes in the Currency of the Place in which such Offence shall be committed, as the Court shall direct.

LXXVII. And be it enacted, That the Distinction between Grand Larceny and Petty Larceny shall be abolished; and every Larceny, whatever be the Value of the Property stolen, shall be deemed to be of the same Nature, and shall be subject to the same Incidents, in all respects, as Grand Larceny was before the Day of this Act taking effect.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Simple Larceny, or of any Felony heretofore made penalizable like Simple Larceny, shall, except in the Cases hereinafter otherwise provided for, be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Security whatsoever, uniting or evidencing the Title of any Person or Body Corporate to any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund, whether established by Authority of Parliament or of the said United Company, or of any Foreign State, or in any Stock or Fund of any Body Corporate, Company, or Society, or to any Deposit in any Savings Bank, or shall steal any Debenture, Bond, Bill, Note, Warrant, Order, or other Security whatsoever for Money or for Payment of Money, whether of the Territories under the Government of the said United Company or of any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or of any Foreign Country or State, or shall steal any Warrant or Order for the Delivery or Transfer of any Goods or valuable Thing, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Felony of the same Nature and in the same Degree, and penalizable in the same Manner, as if he had stolen any Chattel of like Value with the Share, Interest, or Deposit to which the Security so stolen may relate, or with the Money due on the Security so stolen or secured thereby and remaining unsatisfied, or with the Value of the Goods or other valuable Thing mentioned in the Warrant or Order, and each of the several Documents hereinafter enumerated shall, throughout this Act, be deemed for every Purpose to be included under and covered by the Words "valuable Security."

LXXX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall rob any other Person of any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon; and if any Person shall steal any such Property from the Person of another, or shall assault any other Person with Intent to rob him, or shall with Menaces or by Force demand any such Property of any other Person with Intent to steal the same, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXXXI. And be it declared and enacted, That if any Person shall accuse or threaten to accuse any other Person of any Infamous Crime, as hereinafter defined, with a View or Intent to extort or gain from him, and shall, by intimidating him by such Accusation or Threat, extort or gain from him any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of Robbery, and shall be indicted and punished accordingly.

LXXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly send or deliver any Letter or Writing, demanding of any Person, with Menaces, or without any reasonable or probable Cause, any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security; or if any Person shall accuse or threaten to accuse, or shall knowingly send or deliver any Letter or Writing accusing or threatening to accuse, any Person of any Crime penalizable by Law with Death, Transportation, or Felony, or of any Assault with Intent to commit any Rape, or of any Attempt or Endeavour to commit any Rape, or of any Infamous Crime, as hereinafter defined, with a View or Intent to extort or gain from such Person any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment.

LXXXIII. And

LXXXIII. And be it enacted, That the abominable Crime of Buggery, committed either with Man and or with any Animal, and every Assault with Intent to commit the said abominable Crime, and every Attempt or Endeavour to commit the said abominable Crime, and every Solicitation, Persuasion, Promise, or Threat offered or made to any Person, whereby to move or induce such Person to commit or permit the said abominable Crime, shall be deemed to be an infamous Crime within the Meaning of this Act.

What shall be deemed an infamous Crime.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person convicted of Burglary shall suffer Death as a Felon; and it is hereby declared, that if any Person shall enter the Dwelling House of another with Intent to commit Felony, or being in such Dwelling House shall commit any Felony, and shall in either Case break out of the said Dwelling House in the Night-time, such Person shall be deemed guilty of Burglary.

Burglary, capital.

LXXXV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Dwelling House, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, to any Value whatever, or shall steal any such Property to any Value whatever in any Dwelling House, any Person therein being at that time, or shall steal in any Dwelling House any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, to the Value in the whole of Fifty Sixty Rupees or more, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Housebreaking and stealing in a House, when capital.

LXXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Building, although within the same Cartilage with the Dwelling House, and occupied therewith, shall be deemed to be Part of such Dwelling House for the Purpose of Burglary, or for any of the Purposes aforesaid, unless there shall be a Communication between such Building and Dwelling House, either immediate or by means of a covered and inclosed Passage leading from the one to the other.

What Buildings only are Part of a House for capital Purposes.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Building, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, such Building being within the Cartilage of a Dwelling House, and occupied therewith, but not being Part thereof according to the Provision herebefore mentioned, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer as an Indictment for the same Offence, or upon an Indictment for Burglary, Housebreaking, or stealing in the Value of Fifty Sixty Rupees in a Dwelling House, containing a separate Court for such Offence, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

Building in a Cartilage with the same Cartilage as the Dwelling House, but not privileged as Part of the House.

LXXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall break and enter any Shop, Warehouse, or Counting-house, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to any of the Penalties which the Court may award as herebefore last mentioned.

Building in a Shop, Warehouse, &c.

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Goods or Merchandise in any Vessel, Barge, or Boat of any Description whatsoever, in any Part of Entry or Discharge, or upon any navigable River or Canal, or in any Creek, belonging to or communicating with any such Port or Canal, or shall steal any Goods or Merchandise from any Dock, Wharf, or Quay adjacent to any such Port, River, Canal, or Creek, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable to any of the Penalties which the Court may award as herebefore last mentioned.

Stealing Goods from a Vessel in a Port, River, or Canal.

XC. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall plunder or steal any Part of any Ship or Vessel which shall be in Distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore, or any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles of any kind belonging to such Ship or Vessel, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon: Provided always, that when Articles of small Value shall be stranded or cast on Shore, and shall be stolen without Circumstances of Cruelty, Outrage, or Violence, it shall be lawful to prosecute and punish the Offender as for Simple Larceny.

Plundering the Tackle or Cargo of a wrecked Vessel.
Felonies.

XCI. And be it enacted, That if any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles of any kind, belonging to any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore as aforesaid, shall by virtue of a Search Warrant, as is granted as herebefore mentioned, be found in the Possession of any Person, or in the Possession of any Person with his Knowledge, and such Person, being convicted before a Justice of the Peace, shall not satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by the same, then the same shall by Order of the Justice be forthwith delivered over to or for the Use of the rightful Owner thereof; and the Offender, on the Conviction of such Offence before the Justice, shall forfeit and pay, over and above the Value of the Goods, Merchandise, or Articles, such Sum of Money, not exceeding Two hundred Sixty Rupees, as to the Justice shall seem meet.

Persons in possession of stolen Goods not giving a satisfactory account.

XCI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall offer or expose for Sale any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles whatsoever, which shall have been unlawfully taken, or reasonably supposed so to have been, from any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on Shore as aforesaid, in every such Case any Person to whom the same shall be offered for Sale, or any Officer of the Customs or Excise, or Peace Officer, may lawfully seize the same, and shall with all convenient Speed convey the same, or give Notice of such Seizure, in some Justice of the Peace; and if the Person who shall have offered or exposed the same for Sale, being duly summoned by such Justice, shall not appear and satisfy the Justice that he came lawfully by such Goods, Merchandise, or Articles, then the same shall by Order of the Justice be forthwith delivered over to or for the Use of the rightful Owner thereof, upon Payment of a reasonable Reward (to be ascertained by the Justice) to the Person who seized the same; and the Offender, on Conviction of such Offence by the Justice, shall forfeit and pay, over and above the Value of the Goods, Merchandise, or Articles, such Sum of Money, not exceeding Two hundred Sixty Rupees, as to the Justice shall seem meet.

Seizure of Goods offered for Sale may be lawful.

XCVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or shall for any fraudulent Purpose take from its Place of Deposit for the Time being, or from any Person having the lawful Custody thereof, or shall unlawfully and maliciously obliterate, injure, or destroy, any Record, Will, Return, Panel, Process, Interrogatory, Deposition, Affidavit, Rule, Order, or Warrant of Attorney, or any original Document whatever, or of belonging to any Court of Record, or relating to any Master, Civil or Criminal, begun, depending, or terminated in any such Court; or any Bill, Answer, Interrogatory, Deposition, Affidavit, Order, or Decree, or any original Document whatsoever, of or belonging to any Court of Equity, or relating to any Cause or Matter begun, depending, or terminated in any such Court; every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, as by both, as the Court shall award; and it shall not in any Indictment for such Offence be necessary to allege that the Article in respect of which the Offence is committed is the Property of any Person, or that the same is of any Value.

Swearing or swearing of Witnesses.

XCVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall, either during the Life of the Testator or Testatrix, or after his or her Death, steal, or for any fraudulent Purpose destroy or conceal, any Will, Codicil, or other Testamentary Instrument, whether the same shall relate to Real or Personal Estate, or to both, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to any of the Punishments which the Court may award as heretofore has mentioned; and it shall not in any Indictment for such Offence be necessary to allege that such Will, Codicil, or other Instrument is the Property of any Person, or that the same is of any Value.

Witnesses relating to any Real Estate.

XCV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Paper or Parchment, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, being Evidence of the Title of or any Part of the Title to any Real Estate, every such Offender shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to any of the Punishments which the Court may award as heretofore has mentioned; and in any Indictment for such Offence it shall be sufficient to allege the Things stolen to be Evidence of the Title or of Part of the Title of the Person, or of some out of the Persons, having a present Interest, whether legal or equitable, in the Real Estate to which the same relate, and to mention such Real Estate or some Part thereof; and it shall not be necessary to allege the Thing stolen to be of any Value.

Swearing before any Will and Witnesses shall

swore in.

XCVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, relating to either of the Misdemeanors aforesaid, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, shall prevent, lessen, or impeach any Remedy of Law or in Equity which any Party aggrieved by any such Offence might or would have had if this Act had not been passed, but nevertheless the Conviction of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against him; and no Person shall be liable to be convicted of either of the Misdemeanors aforesaid, by any Evidence whatever, in respect of any Act done by him, if he shall at any Time previously to his being indicted for such Offence have disclosed such Act on Oath, in consequence of any compulsory Process of any Court of Law or Equity, in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding which shall have been lawfully instituted by any Party aggrieved.

Swearing Dogs, or Hounds or Bulls, kept in Confinement

XCVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal any Dog, or shall steal any Beast or Bird, ordinarily kept in a state of Confinement, not being the Subject of Larceny at Common Law, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before a Justice of the Peace, shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay, over and above the Value of the Dog, Beast, or Bird, such Sum of Money, not exceeding Two hundred Sixty Shillings, as to the Justice shall seem meet; and if any Person so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any of the said Offences, and shall be convicted thereof in like Manner, every such Offender shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for such Term, not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months, as the convicting Justice shall think fit; and if such subsequent Conviction shall take place before Two Justices, they may further Order the Offender, if a Male, to be once or twice publicly or privately whipped after the Expiration of Four Days from the Time of such Conviction.

Swearing Persons
Buildings, or Houses, or Gardens.

XCVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall steal, or clip, cut, or break with Intent to steal, any Glass or Wood Work belonging to any Building whatsoever, or any Lead, Iron, Copper, Brass, or other Metal, or any Utensil or Fixture, whether made of Metal or other Material, respectively fixed in or to any Building whatsoever, or any thing made of Metal fixed to any Land being Private Property, or for a Fence to any Dwelling House, Garden, or Area, or in any Square, Street, or other Place dedicated to Public Use or Ornament, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be punished in the same Manner as in the Case of Simple Larceny; and in case of any such Thing fixed in any Square, Street, or other like Place, it shall not be necessary to allege the same to be the Property of any Person.

Swearing Persons
from their Houses.

XCI. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk or Servant shall steal any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, belonging to or in the Possession or Power of his Master, every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment.

C. And

C. And be it enacted, That if any Clerk or Servant, or any Person employed for the Purpose or in the Capacity of a Clerk or Servant, shall by virtue of such Employment receive or take into his Possession any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, for or in the Name or on the Account of his Master, and shall fraudulently convert the same or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same from his Master, although such Chattel, Money, or Security was not received into the Possession of such Master otherwise than by the actual Possession of his Clerk, Servant, or other Person so employed; and every such Offender, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to any of the Punishments which the Court may award as heretofore last mentioned.

CI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to charge in One Indictment, and proceed under the same against the Offender for any Number of distinct Acts of Embezzlement not exceeding Twelve, which may have been committed by him against the same Master within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months from the first to the last of such Acts; and in every such Indictment, except where the Offence shall relate to any Chattel, it shall be sufficient to allege the Embezzlement to be of Money, without specifying any particular Coin or valuable Security; and such Allegation, so far as regards the Description of the Property, shall be sustained, if the Offender shall be proved to have embezzled any Amount, although the particular Species of Coin or valuable Security of which such Amount was composed shall not be proved, or if he shall be proved to have embezzled any Piece of Coin or valuable Security, or any Portion of the Value thereof, although such Piece of Coin or valuable Security may have been delivered to him in order that some Part of the Value thereof should be returned to the Party defrauding the same, and such Part shall have been returned accordingly.

CII. And be it enacted, That if any Money, or Security for the Payment of Money, shall be intrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, with any Direction in Writing to apply such Money or any Part thereof, or the Proceeds or any Part of the Proceeds of such Security, for any Purpose specified in such Direction, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Purpose so specified, in anywise convert to his own Use or Benefit such Money, Security, or Proceeds, or any Part thereof respectively, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place beyond the Seas as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; and if any Chattel or valuable Security, or any Power of Attorney for the Sale or Transfer of any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund established by Authority of Parliament or of the said United Company, or of any Foreign State, or in any Stock or Fund of any Body Corporate, Company, or Society, shall be intrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, for safe Custody, or for any special Purpose, without any Authority to sell, negotiate, transfer, or pledge, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Object or Purpose for which such Chattel, Security, or Power of Attorney shall have been intrusted to him, sell, negotiate, transfer, pledge, or in any Manner convert to his own Use or Benefit, such Chattel or Security, or the Proceeds of the same, or any Part thereof, or the Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund to which such Power of Attorney shall relate, or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to any of the Punishments which the Court may award as heretofore last mentioned.

CIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing heretofore contained relating to Agents shall effect any Trustee in or under any Instrument whatever, or any Mortgagee of any Property Real or Personal, in respect of any Act done by such Trustee or Mortgagee in relation to the Property comprised in or affected by any such Trust or Mortgage; nor shall restrain any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, from receiving any Money which shall be or become actually due and payable upon or by virtue of any valuable Security according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, in such Manner as he might have done if this Act had not been passed; nor from selling, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any Securities or Effects in his Possession upon which he shall have any Lien, Claim, or Demanded anything by Law as to do, unless such Sale, Transfer, or other Disposal shall extend to a greater Number or Part of such Securities or Effects than shall be requisite for satisfying such Lien, Claim, or Demand.

CIV. And be it enacted, That if any Factor or Agent intrusted for the Purpose of Sale with any Goods or Merchandise, or intrusted with any Bill of Lading, Warehouse-keeper's or Wharfinger's Certificate or Warrant or Order for Delivery of Goods or Merchandise, shall, for his own Benefit, and in violation of good Faith, deposit or pledge any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, as a Security for any Money or negotiable Instrument borrowed or received by such Factor or Agent at or before the Time of making such Deposit or Pledge, or intended to be thereafter borrowed or received, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; but no such Factor or Agent shall be liable to any Prosecution for depositing or pledging any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, in case the same shall not be made a Security for or subject to the Payment of any greater Sum of Money than the Amount which at the Time of such Deposit or Pledge was justly due and owing to such Factor or Agent from his Principal, together with the Amount of any Bill or Bills of Exchange drawn by or on account of such Principal, and accepted by such Factor or Agent.

GV. Provided always, and he it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, against any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall prevent him, or impeach any Remedy, at Law or in Equity, which any Party aggrieved by any such Offense might or would have had if this Act had not been passed: but nevertheless the Conviction of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against him; and no Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall be liable to be convicted by any Evidence whatever, as an Offender against this Act, in respect of any Act done by him; if he shall at any Time previously to his being indicted for such Offense have disclosed such Act on Oath, in consequence of any compulsory Process of any Court of Law or Equity, in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding which shall have been bona fide instituted by any Party aggrieved.

CVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall by any false Pretence obtain from any other Person any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security, with intent to steal or defraud any Person of the same, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award: Provided always, that if upon the Trial of any Person indicted for a Misdemeanor, it shall appear that he obtained the Property in any Manner amounting to Larceny, he shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted of such Misdemeanor, if the Offense be in any other respects substantially proved; and no Person tried for such Misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for Larceny upon the same Facts.

CVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing, taking, or obtaining whereof shall amount to a Felony, either at Common Law or by virtue of this Act, such Person knowing the same to have been feloniously stolen, taken, or obtained, every such Receiver shall be guilty of Felony, and may be indicted and convicted either as an Accessory after the Fact, or as for a substantive Felony, whether in the latter Case the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice; and every such Receiver, however convicted, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped, if the Court shall so think fit, in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person, however tried for receiving as aforesaid, shall be liable to be prosecuted a Second Time for the same Offense.

CVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing, taking, obtaining, or converting whereof is made an indictable Misdemeanor by this Act, such Person knowing the same to have been unlawfully stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, every such Receiver shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be indicted and convicted thereof, whether the Person guilty of the principal Misdemeanor shall or shall not have been previously convicted thereof, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice: and every such Receiver shall, on Conviction, be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Ten Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, knowing the same to have been feloniously or unlawfully stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, every such Person, whether charged as an Accessory after the Fact to the Felony, or with a substantive Felony, or with a Misdemeanor only, may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished in any Place in which he shall have or shall have had any such Property in his Possession, or in any Place in which the Party guilty of the principal Felony or Misdemeanor may by Law be tried, in the same Manner as such Receiver may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished for receiving such Property in the Place where he actually received the same.

CX. And be it enacted, That if any Person guilty of any Felony or Misdemeanor as aforesaid, in stealing, taking, obtaining, or converting, or in knowingly receiving any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, shall be indicted for any such Offense by the Owner of the Property, or by his Executive or Administrator, and convicted thereof, in such Case the Property shall be restored to the Owner or his Representative; and the Court before whom any such Person shall be so convicted shall have Power to award from time to time Writs of Restitution for the said Property, or in order the Restitution thereof in a summary Manner: Provided always, that if it shall appear, before any Award or Order made, that any valuable Security shall have been bona fide paid or discharged by some Person or Body Corporate liable to the Payment thereof, or being a negotiable Instrument shall have been bona fide taken or received by Transfer or Delivery by some Person or Body Corporate for a just and valuable Consideration, without any Notice, or without any reasonable Cause to suspect, that the same had by any Felony or Misdemeanor been stolen, taken, obtained, or converted as aforesaid, in such Case the Court shall not award or order the Restitution of such Security.

CXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall covertly take any Money or Reward, directly or indirectly, under pretence or on account of helping any Person in any Felony or Misdemeanor, or other Property whatsoever, which shall by any Felony or Misdemeanor have been stolen, taken, obtained, obtained, or converted as aforesaid, every such Person so taking Money or Reward (unless he shall cause the Offender guilty of the principal Felony of Murder to be apprehended and brought to Trial for the same) shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or three publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CXL. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall publicly advertise a Reward for the Return of any Property whatsoever which shall have been stolen or lost, and shall in such Advertisement use any Words purporting that no Questions will be asked, or shall make use of any Words in any Public Advertisement purporting that a Reward will be given or paid for any Property which shall have been stolen or lost, without stating or making any Enquiry after the Person producing such Property, or shall promise or offer in any such Public Advertisement to return to any Pawnbroker or other Person who may have bought or advanced Money by way of Loan upon any Property stolen or lost, the Money so paid or advanced, or any other Sum of Money or Reward for the Return of such Property, or if any Person shall print or publish any such Advertisement, in any of the above Cases every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Scots Pounds for every such Offence, to any Person who will sue for the same by Action of Debt, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit.

CXLI. And be it enacted, That where the stealing or taking of any Property whatsoever is by this Act punishable on summary Conviction, either for every Offence, or for the First and Second Offence only, or for the First Offence only, any Person who shall receive any such Property, knowing the same to be unlawfully come by, shall, on Conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable, for every First, Second, or subsequent Offence of receiving, to the same Penalties and Punishment to which a Person guilty of a First, Second, or subsequent Offence of stealing or taking such Property is by this Act made liable.

CXLV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Church or Chapel, or other public Place of Religious Worship whatsoever, or shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any House, Stable, Coach-house, Out-house, Warehouse, Office, Shop, Mill, Barn, or Granary, or to any Building or Erection used in carrying on any Trade or Manufacture, or any Branch thereof, whether the same or any of them, respectively shall then be in the Possession of the Offender, or in the Possession of any other Person, with intent thereby to injure or defraud any Person, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

CXLV. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously destroy, or damage with Intent to destroy or to render useless, any Goods or Articles in any Stage, Process, or Progress of Manufacture; or shall unlawfully and maliciously cut, break, or destroy, or damage with Intent to destroy or to render useless, any Loom, Frame, Machine, Engine, Rack, Tackle, or Implement, whether fixed or moveable, prepared for or employed in manufacturing or preparing any such Goods or Articles; or shall by Force enter into any House, Shop, Building, or Place, with Intent to commit any of the Offences aforesaid, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or three publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CXLVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person, knowingly and maliciously assembled together to the Disturbance of the Public Peace, shall unlawfully and with Force demolish, pull down, or destroy, or begin to demolish, pull down, or destroy, any Church or Chapel, or other public Place of Religious Worship whatsoever, or any House, Stable, Coach-house, Out-house, Warehouse, Office, Shop, Mill, Barn, or Granary, or any Building or Erection used in carrying on any Trade or Manufacture, or any Branch thereof, or any Machinery, whether fixed or moveable, prepared for or employed in any Manufacture or in any Branch thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

CXLVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to or in anywise destroy any Ship or Vessel, whether the same be complete or in an unfinished State, or shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to, cut away, or in anywise destroy any Ship or Vessel, or shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Goods being on board any Ship or Vessel as Cargo, with Intent to burn or destroy such Cargo or Ship, and with Intent thereby to prejudice any Owner or Part Owner of such Ship or Vessel, or any Owner or Part Owner of any Goods on board the same, or any Person that hath underwritten or shall underwrite any Policy of Insurance upon such Ship or Vessel, or on the Freight thereof, or upon any Goods on board the same, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

CXLVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously damage, otherwise than by Fire, any Ship or Vessel, whether complete or in an unfinished State, with Intent to destroy the same or to render the same useless, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or three publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

And be it enacted, That if any Person shall exhibit any false Light or Signal, with Intent to bring any Ship or Vessel into Danger, or shall unlawfully and maliciously do any thing tending to the immediate Loss or Destruction of any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or destroy any Part of any Ship or Vessel which shall be in Distress, or wrecked, or cast on Shore, or any Goods, Merchandise, or Articles of any kind belonging to such Ship or Vessel, or shall by Force prevent or impede any Person endeavouring to save his Life from such Ship or Vessel (whether he shall be on board or shall have quitted the same), every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

CXX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously break down or cut down any Sea Bank or Sea Wall, or the Bank or Wall of any River, Canal, or Marsh, whereby any Lands shall be overflowed or damaged, or shall be in danger of being so, or shall unlawfully and maliciously throw down, level, or otherwise destroy any Lock, Sluice, Floodgate, or other Work on any navigable River or Canal, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment; and if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously cut off, draw up, or remove any Pile, Chalk, or other Materials used in the Ground, and used for securing any Sea Bank or Sea Wall, or the Bank or Wall of any River, Canal, or Marsh, or shall unlawfully and maliciously open or draw up any Floodgate, or do any other Injury or Mischief to any navigable River or Canal, with Intent and so as thereby to obstruct or prevent the carrying on, completing, or maintaining the Navigation thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously break down or otherwise destroy the Dam of any Fishpond, or of any Water which shall be private Property, or in which there shall be any private Right of Fishery, with Intent thereby to take or destroy any of the Fish in such Pond or Water, or so as thereby to cause the Loss or Destruction of any of the Fish, or shall unlawfully and maliciously put any Lime or other noxious Material in any such Pond or Water, with Intent thereby to destroy any of the Fish therein, every such Offender, being convicted thereof before a Justice of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay, over and above the Amount of the Injury done, such Sum of Money, not exceeding Fifty Shillings, as to the Justice shall seem meet.

CXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously kill, maim, or wound any Cattle or Beast of Burthen, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct, for Life, or for any Term of Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CXXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any Stack of Rice, Corn, or other Grain, Pulse, Sugar Cane, Straw, Hay, or Wood, or to any Crop of Rice, Corn, or other Grain, or Pulse, or Sugar Cane, whether standing or cut down, or to any Part of a Wood, Coppice, or Plantation of Trees or valuable Plants, or to any Grass, Fern, or other like Ground Produce, whatsoever the same may be growing, every such Offender shall be guilty of Felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported to such Place as the Court shall direct for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Years, and if a Male to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit), in addition to such Imprisonment.

CXXIV. And be it enacted, That every Punishment and Forfeiture by the Act imposed on any Person maliciously committing any Offence, whether the same be punishable upon Indictment or upon summary Conviction, shall equally apply and be enforced, whether the Offence shall be committed from Malice conceived against the Owner of the Property in respect of which it shall be committed, or otherwise.

CXXV. And be it enacted, That all Acts and Parts of Acts which by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing various Statutes in England relative to Breach of Chage, and to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and to malicious Injuries to Property, and to Remedies against the Heavens, or by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Statutes in England relative to Offences against the Person, are, as to that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and as to Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, repealed, except as therein mentioned, shall, from and after the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, as to all Persons, Matters, and Things over whom or which the Jurisdiction of any of His Majesty's Courts of Justice created within the British Dominions under the Government of the said United Company extends, be repealed, except as far as any of the said Acts may repeal the Whole or any Part of any other Acts, and except as to Offences and other Matters committed or done before or upon the Day of this Act taking effect, which shall be dealt with and punished as if this Act had not been passed.

CXXVI. And be it enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for establishing further Regu- utions for the Government of the British Territories in India, and the better Administration of Justice within the same, as relates to the Transportation of Offenders; and so much of an Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the same Reign, intitled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term the Privileges of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, as relates to the minting or taking by Robbery of Securities for Payment of Money, to the falsly making, forging, counterfeiting, or altering, or so uttering, publishing, selling, offering, disposing of or putting away, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited, any Writings, Licences, Certificates, or attested Copies thereof, or to counterfeiting Coins, or to uttering, tendering in Payment, selling, giving in Exchange, paying, putting off, or having in Possession, forged or counterfeit Coins; and so much of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for providing Meeting and Detention of Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the East India Company, and to authorize Soldiers and Sailors in the East Indies to send and receive Letters at a reduced Rate of Postage, as requires that the Oaths to be taken by Members of General or other Courts Martial, or Courts of Requests composed of Military Officers, shall be taken upon the Holy Evangelists; shall, from and after the Day of this Act taking effect, in like Manner and with the like Exceptions, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CXXVII. And be it enacted, That all Persons, whether British Subjects or others, employed by or in the Service of His Majesty, shall be held subject and amenable to the Criminal Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts of Justice, created or to be created within the British Territories under the Government of the said India Company, for all Crimes and Offences to be by them committed as or from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, in the same Manner as Persons employed by or in the Service of the said United Company are now by Law subject and amenable to the said Jurisdiction.

- 40 G. 2. c. 101. ¹ King George the Third, intituled An Act for relieving the Term and Powers of Three Acts of His late Majesty, for repairing the Road between Hockliffe in the County of Bedford, and Stoney Stratford in the County of Buckingham: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for repairing the Road from Dunchurch to Stonebridge in the County of Warwick: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for repairing the public Roads in and through the City of Coventry: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more effectually repairing a certain Road called The Wotling Street Road, and other Roads therein mentioned in the Counties of Salop and Stafford: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for maintaining and improving the Roads leading through the Town of Sheffield, and the Road leading from Oulton Gates to Winton, in the Counties of Salop and Stafford, whereby the Powers and Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act of the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty were repealed so far as respects the Sheffield Division of the Roads therein mentioned: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for relieving the Term and Powers of Two Acts of His present Majesty, for repairing the Road from Gibbet Lane to Walworthampton in the County of Stafford, and several other Roads therein described, and for extending the said Road from King's Wood Common to the Turnpike Road leading from Wenman-under-Lincoln to Newcaston in the County of Salop: And Whereas it would be of great Public Benefit if the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland were authorized to advance to the Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said second Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, such Sum of Money as is hereinafter mentioned, to enable them to make other Alterations and Improvements in the Line of the Road from London to Hales: And hereinafter mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized, on Application being made to them by the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said second Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, to direct the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer to make forth and pass Debentures from time to time for issuing, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said Act of the Fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty-six thousand seven hundred Pounds, for the Purpose and upon the Terms and Conditions hereinafter mentioned.
- II. And be it further enacted, That upon any such Advance being made to the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said second Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or any Three of them, shall execute an Instrument in Writing, in such Form as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct and appoint, in which Instrument the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said second Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall acknowledge the Receipt of the Money for the Trust being advanced, and shall undertake to apply the Produce thereof in the Manner in which the same ought to be applied in pursuance of the Directions hereinafter contained; and shall also undertake to pay the same, and the Interest thereof, when and as the same shall be received by them, under the Provisions hereinafter contained, into the Exchequer, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund, as hereinafter directed; and shall also undertake to put in force, if necessary, the several Powers and Remedies hereinafter given them for obtaining Payment thereof.
- III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners acting in Execution of the said second Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall apply the Sums so to be advanced in the Manner following: (that is to say,) any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds in altering and improving the Road within the Limits and District of the Higgle Archway Company's Trust, and in repairing the same for the Space of Two Years after the same shall have been completed; any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Four thousand seven hundred Pounds in altering and improving the Road from Horliffe in the County of Bedford to Stoney Stratford in the County of Buckingham, the same being within the Limits and District of the Daneshurst and Stonebridge Trust, and in repairing the same for the Space of Two Years after the same shall have been completed; any Sum not exceeding the Sum of four thousand Pounds in altering and improving the Road from the Green Sars Public House at Whitby in the City of Coventry, and from thence to the Village of Allesley in the County of Warwick, the same being within the Limits and District of the Daneshurst and Stonebridge Trust, and in repairing the same for the Period of Two Years after the same shall have been completed; any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Eight thousand five hundred Pounds in making a new Cut or Piece of Road from the Coach and Horse Public House in Ridgway Street, in the Town of Walworthampton, in the County of Stafford, and passing from thence in nearly a direct Line, over Snow Hill, into Salop Street in the same Town, the same being within the Limits and District of the Walworthampton Trust, and in repairing the same for the Period of Two Years after the same shall have been completed; and any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds in making a new Cut or Piece of Road from the main Street in the Town of Sheffield

The Treasury may authorize the Auditor of the Exchequer to pass Debentures from for leading to the Commissioners under 4 G. 2. c. 74. the Sum of 100,000.

Such Commissioners themselves to execute an Instrument acknowledging the Advance, and undertaking to apply the same as herein directed.

Monies to which the said Advances shall be applied,

Slighfield in the County of Salop, and passing from thence in nearly a straight Line, over Premises belonging to Mister Brown and others, to the Cross Lane in the present Mail Coach Road near Milner Street, the same being within the Limits and District of the Slighfield District of the Wooling Street Road, and in repairing the same for the Period of Two Years after the same shall have been completed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall be found that any Sum which shall have been advanced, in pursuance of the Directions hereinbefore contained, by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be more than is required for the Purpose for which the same shall have been advanced, the Surplus thereof shall be applied by the said last-mentioned Commissioners in making such other Improvements as they shall think proper on any Part of the said Road from London to Malpas which shall be within the same Trust.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities given by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to the said Commissioners acting in execution thereof, either expressly or by reference to former Acts, and all the Clauses and Provisions therein contained, or such of the said Clauses and Provisions as are in any Manner applicable to the Purpose of this Act, shall be and they are hereby extended in such Manner as that the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said last-mentioned Act shall be enabled to make the Alterations and Improvements hereinbefore directed to be made, and shall have all Facilities and Advantages for enabling them to make the same, as fully, amply, and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Clauses, and Provisions were repeated and re-enacted in and by this present Act, with reference to the said Alterations and Improvements; and particularly that the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall have the same Power of taking and acquiring any Ground or Materials which may be required for the Purpose of making the said Alterations and Improvements, as in and by the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third is given to the Commissioners acting under that Act, of taking and acquiring any such Ground or Materials as may be necessary for repairing, altering, making, or constructing the Roads in that Act mentioned or referred to; and all the Clauses and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, with respect to the taking or acquiring of any Ground to be so taken or acquired by the Commissioners acting under that Act, shall be and they are hereby extended and made applicable to the acquiring or taking, by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, of any Ground which may be required for the Purpose of making the Alterations and Improvements hereinbefore mentioned.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several Clauses, Powers, and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty contained, with respect to the purchasing or otherwise acquiring of, and making Satisfaction for Injury or Damage to, the Houses, Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, and Grounds by that Act authorized to be purchased, acquired, used, or taken by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall equally apply to the purchasing or otherwise acquiring by the said Commissioners under the Powers of this Act, and to the paying and making Satisfaction for, the Houses, Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, Grounds, and Lands by that Act authorized to be purchased, acquired, taken, or used, in the same Manner, or as nearly so as Circumstances will admit, as they would if the same were so purchased, acquired, taken, or used by the said Commissioners under the Powers and Provisions of the said Act of the Seventh Year aforesaid, for the Purpose of this Act mentioned.

VII. And Whereas, for the Purpose of making several of the Alterations and Improvements hereinbefore directed to be made, it will be expedient and necessary to take down and remove the Houses described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and to take and make use of the Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, and Grounds attached to such Houses, or specified and described in the said Schedule: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to take down and remove all or any of the Houses described in the said Schedule to this Act annexed, and also to take and make use of any of the Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, or Grounds attached to such Houses as described in the said Schedule, if they shall deem it necessary or expedient to remove, take, or make use of the same for the Purpose of making the Alterations and Improvements in this Act mentioned; but the said last-mentioned Commissioners, previously to their removing or taking any such Houses, Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, or Grounds, shall give Six Months Notice in Writing to the Occupier or Occupiers thereof, of their Intention so to do; and shall also first make such Satisfaction to the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of such Houses or Houses, Gardens, Lawns, Orchards, or Grounds, as shall be agreed upon between him, her, or them and the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or as shall be ascertained by a Jury in the Manner directed by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any of the Houses mentioned and described in the said Schedule to this Act, or any of the Persons in whose Possession or Occupation the same or any Part thereof are or is stated or described to be, shall happen to be omitted, misnamed, or inaccurately described, then and in such Case, if it shall appear to any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, City, or Place wherein the same shall be situated, and be certified by Writing under their Hands, that such Omission, Misnomer, or inaccurate Description proceeded from Mistake, shall not prevent or retard the Execution of this Act, but the same Premises and every Part thereof shall and may be purchased and sold or assumed and valued in manner herein mentioned, and conveyed, disposed of, and applied for and to the Purposes of making the Alterations and Improvements heretofore mentioned, as fully and effectually as if the same was or were properly named and described in the said Schedule.

IX. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, after reciting that Part of the Land which would be required for making and completing the new Cut or Piece of Road from the Seven Stars Public House at Whitby to the Village of Almsley, and theretofore mentioned, was called Lanous Ground, over which the Freeman of the City of Conversy had a Right of Common from Old Lanous Day until Old Conduens Day, and other Part of the said Land was called Michaelens Land, over which the Freeman of the City of Conversy had a Right of Common from Old Michaelens Day until Old Conduens Day, it was enacted, that a Conveyance of such Lanous Ground or Michaelens Land, under the Powers and Provisions of the said Act, by the Person or Persons who should for the Time being be entitled thereto, subject to such Right of Common, or thereby authorized to convey the same, should be a good and sufficient Conveyance thereof to the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the Purpose of vesting in them the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, for the Execution of the now-recited Act, freed from such Right of Common, as fully and effectually as if every Person having Right of Common thereon respectively had executed such Conveyance; and it should be lawful for the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as aforesaid, to enter into an Agreement with the Churchwarden or Churchwardens for the Time being of the Parish wherein such Lanous Ground or Michaelens Land was situate, for the Purpose of ascertaining and settling what Sum of Money should be paid as or by way of Compensation for the Rights of Common upon such Lands respectively; and in case the Parties should not agree to the Amount of such Compensation, the same should be determined by a Jury in the same Manner as other Compenations under the now-reciting Act, and the Sum to be so agreed upon or awarded should be paid by the said Commissioners to the said Churchwarden or Churchwardens, and should be by him or them applied for such general and public Purpose within such Parish as a Vestry of such Parish, to be convened by such Churchwarden or Churchwardens for this Purpose, should direct: And Whereas it is expedient that the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act, as far as respects the Agreement with the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, and Payment and Application of the Compensation Money, should be repealed, and that other Provisions and Powers should be enacted in lieu thereof: And Whereas other Part of the said Land called Lanous Ground and Michaelens Land will be required for the Purpose of this Act, It is therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as aforesaid, which direct the entering into an Agreement with the Churchwarden or Churchwardens for the Time being of the Parish wherein such Lanous Ground or Michaelens Land is situate, and the Payment and Application of the Purchase Money thereof, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners acting under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as aforesaid, to enter into an Agreement with the Chamberlains of the said City of Conversy for the Time being, for the Purpose of ascertaining and settling what Sum of Money shall be paid as or by way of Compensation for the Rights of Common upon such Lands respectively in shall be required for the Purpose of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or of this Act; and in case the Parties shall not agree to the Amount of such Compensation, the same shall be determined by a Jury in the same Manner as other Compenations under the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty or this Act; and the Sum to be so agreed upon or awarded shall be paid by the said Commissioners to the said Chamberlains of the said City for the Time being, and to be by them appropriated in such Manner as the following Persons, Freemen of the said City (that is to say, George Ormond, Thomas Brown, John Robinson, Richard Knott Rotherham, Charles Lobb, John Whitton, Inez Johnson, William Fletcher, Adie Crump, Robert Saxony the younger, William Bray the younger (of New Street), Charles Gossin, and James Twiss, who have been appointed by the Freeman of the said City, at a Public Meeting held by them, as a Committee to act for and on behalf of the Freeman of the said City, or the Major Part of them, or their Successors, to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall order, direct, appoint, and think proper to appropriate and apply the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death of any one of the said Persons last heretofore named, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Survivors, or the major Part of them, at a Meeting to be held by them, to nominate and appoint another Freeman of the said City as a Member of the said Committee, and so from time to time as such Vacancy shall occur; and upon such Nomination and Appointments, such Person or Persons so to be appointed shall be invested with the same Power and Authority as though he or they had been originally nominated and appointed upon the said Committee at the said Public Meeting.

XII. And be it further enacted, That where the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall have purchased or shall be possessed of any Pieces of Ground not wanted for the Purpose of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Five or more of them, to sell and dispose of the same, subject to the same Provisions as are contained in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Majesty, with respect to the Sale by the said Commissioners of any Land not wanted for the Purpose of this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every new Piece of Road which shall be made, altered, or improved under the Provisions herein contained, shall be open to the Public, as soon as the same shall be completed, and shall, for the Period of Two Years after the same shall have been completed and open to the Public, be repaired, maintained, and supported by and under the Care and Superintendence of the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and after the Expiration of the said Period of Two Years every such new Piece of Road shall be deemed and taken to be and shall become, to all Intents and Purposes, a Part of that Road to which the old Road or Part of a Road in lieu of or for the Improvement of which such new Piece of Road shall have been made did belong before the making of such new Piece of Road, and shall be vested in the Trustees or Commissioners in whom such old Road or Part of a Road shall have been vested, and shall be maintained and repaired by them, and shall be subject to all such Trusts, and to all such Acts of Parliament, and to all such Provisions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, as such old Road or Part of a Road shall have been subject to immediately before the Expiration of the said Period of Two Years.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Highgate Archway Company, acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and they are hereby authorized and required, to demand and take, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, over and above and in addition to the other Tolls by the said last-mentioned Act directed to be taken, collected, and received by the said Company, at the several and respective Turnpikes or Toll Gates or Toll Houses, or Side Bars or Side Gates or Chains, which are or shall be standing and being or continued or erected by virtue of the said Act, or upon, across, or on the Side or Sides of the said Road or any Part thereof, the following additional Tolls; (that is to say,)

For every Horse or other Beast drawing any Coach, Chariot, Landau, Berlin, Chaise, Carriage, Chair, Waggon, Cart, Wain, or other Carriage, the Sum of One Penny;
For every Foot Passenger, the Sum of One Penny;

And the said additional Tolls shall be estimated to be taken and collected until the said Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds heretofore authorized to be applied in making the Alterations and Improvements in the Road within the said Trust, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be fully paid and satisfied.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Highgate Archway Company, and they are hereby authorized and required, to apply the Monies arising from the said additional Tolls to be so collected as aforesaid in repaying to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds, to be applied, under the Provisions heretofore contained, in making the Alterations and Improvements in the Road within the said Trust, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of advancing the same, so so much of the said Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds as shall be for the Time being due and unpaid; such Interest to be paid by Two Half-yearly Payments in every Year; and when and as soon as the said Sum of Fourteen thousand Pounds, together with the Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged, the said Highgate Archway Company acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, as aforesaid, shall cease to collect the said additional Tolls.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Tolls on the Highgate Archway Road shall be let, the said Highgate Archway Company shall keep distinct Accounts of the said additional Tolls, and of the ordinary Tolls by the said last-mentioned Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third authorized to be taken.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That in case the additional Tolls heretofore authorized to be taken, collected, and received by the Highgate Archway Company as aforesaid, shall not amount to the annual Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, it shall and may be lawful for the said Highgate Archway Company, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the original Tolls raised and levied by them within the Limits of their Trust under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty as aforesaid, to pay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty an aforesaid such annual Sum or Sums as will, together with the Produce of the said additional Tolls heretofore authorized to be taken, collected, and received by them, make up the said annual Sum of Eight hundred Pounds.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That during the Time that the said several Alterations and Improvements heretofore authorized and directed to be made in the Road within the Highgate Archway Trust as aforesaid are carrying on, the said Road shall be kept open to the Public.

XIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing heretofore contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to alter or lessen or in any way to affect any Bonds, Mortgages, or other Securities whatsoever granted for Money advanced on the Credit of the Tolls authorized to be taken and received by the Highgate Archway Company, acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, as aforesaid, under or by virtue of that Act, but that all such Bonds, Mortgages, or other Securities shall remain good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and all and every Persons and Person having lent or advanced any Money on the Credit of the said Tolls shall remain in the same State as if this Act had never been had or made; and all such Person or Persons so having advanced any such Money on the Credit of such Tolls shall have all such Remedies for the recovering of the Same as advanced, and of all Interest or Dividends payable thereon, as they now have under the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty as aforesaid, or any other Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees of Highgate and Stretford Road
to continue additional Tolls.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Highgate and Stretford Road, and they are hereby required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised, and now levied, for the Purpose of paying off the Sum of Seven thousand Pounds advanced under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, by the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, to the Commissioners for executing that Act, on account of and appropriated to the making of certain Improvements, Repairs, and Alterations, specified and described in the Schedule (A.) to the said Act, in the Roads within the Limits of the said Trust, and also the further Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds advanced under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, on account of the said Improvements, Repairs, and Alterations, and in making other Improvements between Highgate and Stretford, and all Interest due or to become due on the said Advances, until as well the said Sums of Seven thousand Pounds and One thousand five hundred Pounds as advanced, and all Interest due or to become due thereon respectively, as also the Principal Sum or Sums to be paid by the said Trustees of the Highgate and Stretford Road to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as hereinafter directed, together with all Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Trustees of Highgate and Stretford Road
to repay, out of additional
Tolls, the Sums advanced under the Act for Improvements within their District.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Highgate and Stretford Road, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said additional Tolls, (but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of the said several Sums of Seven thousand Pounds and One thousand five hundred Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively,) to repay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of the Act, and to be applied in altering and improving the Road within the said Trust, and in repairing the same, as hereinafter directed, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, as so much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid.

Trustees of the Dunwich and Stonebridge
Trust to continue additional Tolls.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Dunwich and Stonebridge Trust, and they are hereby required to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised, and now levied, under the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the Purpose of paying off the several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and Twelve thousand Pounds, in the said Act mentioned, and all Interest due and to become due on the said several and respective Sums, until as well the said several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, and Two thousand Pounds, and Twelve thousand Pounds, and all Interest due or to become due thereon respectively, as also the Principal Sum or Sums to be paid by the said Trustees of the Dunwich and Stonebridge Trust to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as hereinafter directed, together with all Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Trustees of the
Stonebridge
Trust to repay, out of additional Tolls, the Sums advanced under the Act for Improvements
within their Districts.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Dunwich and Stonebridge Trust, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said additional Tolls, (but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of the several Sums of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and Twelve thousand Pounds, and Interest thereof respectively,) to repay to the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of this Act, and to be applied in making Improvements in the Road within the Districts of the Dunwich and Stonebridge Trust, and in repairing the same, as hereinafter directed, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, as so much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid.

XXIV. And whereas by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty it is recited, that by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for improving the public Roads in and through the City of Coventry, the Trustees acting in execution of that Act were authorized to erect Toll Gates across or on the Side of the Streets and Lanes therein particularly mentioned, and across or on the Sides of any Roads to be made, widened, or continued under the Powers of that Act, and across the End of any Lane or Way leading into the same, and to collect at each Toll Gate the Tolls in the said Act mentioned, and requiring that as soon as so much of the new Piece of Road thereinafter directed to be made as lay between the Site of the late Walls of the City of Coventry and Greatford Street in the said City, and so much of the said new Piece of Road as lay between Saint John's Church in the said

City and the Village of Albury, should be respectively completed and opened to the Public, it would be expedient that the Toll Gates thereinafter mentioned should be erected, and the Tolls thereinafter mentioned should be collected; it was by the now-recited Act enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to erect a Toll Gate in the said City of County, across the new Line of Road near Little Park Street, and another Toll Gate across the said new Line of Road from County to the Village of Albury, near Saint John's Church aforesaid, together with any Side Gates on any Part of the said new Line of Road, with Toll Houses thereto: And Whereas the said new Piece of Road between Saint John's Church in the said City of County and the Village of Albury is now forming, and will be shortly completed and finished, and it will be expedient that the Toll Gate by the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty authorized to be erected across the new Road near Saint John's Church aforesaid shall be erected as soon as such last-mentioned new Piece of Road shall be completed and opened to the Public: It is therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid, as soon as the said new Line of Road now forming between Saint John's Church in the City of County and the Village of Albury aforesaid shall be completed, to erect such Toll Gate across the said new Line of Road at any Place within Half a Mile of Saint John's Church aforesaid, together with Side Gates on any Part of the said new Line of Road, with Toll Houses thereto.

When new Road completed between County and Albury, a Toll Gate to be erected.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and they are hereby authorized and required, from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, to demand and take, at the Turnpike or Toll Gate or Bar erected under or by virtue of the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, as aforesaid, at Moat Park Street in the City of County, in addition to the ordinary Tolls by the said last mentioned Act authorized to be collected and taken at the said Gate, the several Tolls following; that is to say,

After such Month Year, additional Tolls to be taken at the Toll Gate in Moat Park Street, County.

For every Horse, Mare, Gelding, Mule, or other Beast of Draught, drawing any Coach, Chariot, Chaise, Berlin, Landau, Calash, Gig, or Pleasure Carriage, the Sum of Three Halfpence.

Additional Tolls.

For every Horse, Mare, Gelding, Mule, or other Beast of Draught, drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Dray, the Sum of One Penny.

For every Horse, Mare, Gelding, Mule, or other Beast, not hereby otherwise charged, laden or unladen, and not drawing, the Sum of One Halfpenny.

For every Drive of Oxen, Cows, or Head Cattle, the Sum of Two-pence Halfpenny per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number.

For every Drive of Cattle, Hags, Sheep, or Lambs, the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons travelling through the City of County shall have paid Toll at the said Turnpike or Toll Gate or Bar called the Moat Park Street Gate or Bar, or at the Turnpike or Toll Gate heretofore authorized and directed to be erected across the new Line of Road heretofore mentioned, near St. John's Church aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall not be charged or liable in the Payment of Toll, on the same Day (each Day) to be computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock in the next succeeding Night, at the other of the said Turnpikes or Toll Gates, or at any other Turnpikes or Toll Gates or Bars erected or to be erected under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty as aforesaid, for or in respect of the same Horse, Beast, or other Cattle, or Coach, Chariot, Chaise, Calash, Berlin, Landau, or Pleasure Carriage, Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Dray, or any other Carriage, of what Name or Description soever; and where any Person or Persons travelling through the City of County shall have paid Toll at any Turnpike or Toll Gate or Bar erected or to be erected under or by virtue of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, as aforesaid, other than the said Turnpikes or Toll Gates or Bars at Moat Park Street and near St. John's Church aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall be only subject and liable, on the same Day (each Day) to be computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock in the next succeeding Night, for or in respect of the same Horse, Beast, or other Cattle, or Coach, Chariot, Chaise, Calash, Berlin, Landau, or Pleasure Carriage, Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Dray, or any other Carriage, of what Name or Description soever, to the Payment, at the Turnpike or Toll Gate at Moat Park Street aforesaid, of the said additional Toll heretofore authorized and directed to be levied and collected at the said Turnpike or Toll Gate, or at the Turnpike or Toll Gate to be erected near Saint John's Church aforesaid, of the Third Part only of the Tolls by the said recited Act of the said Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid authorized and directed to be levied and collected at such Turnpike or Toll Gate.

Persons travelling through County, having paid Toll at Moat Park Street, or St. John's Church Gate, not to be liable to Payment at the other Gates.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, until the Powers and Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act are carried into Effect, or until the Term limited by the said Act for the Continuance thereof shall expire, whichever shall first happen, and immediately after the happening of each one of the said Events as shall first happen, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Danesheld and Sandridge Trust, and they are hereby respectively required, to continue the Tolls to be imposed, raised, and levied by the said Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty as aforesaid, under the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of this Act, until as well the said Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds in the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty mentioned, and all Interest due and to become due thereon, as also the principal Sum or Sums to be paid by the said Trustees of the Danesheld and Sandridge Trust to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as hereinafter directed, together with all Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Application of the Tolls recovered under
22 G. 3. c. 118.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That during such Time as the said Tolls hereby authorized to be continued and collected as last aforesaid shall be collected by the said Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, all Monies arising therefrom shall, subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of the said Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereon, be applied in manner following; (that is to say,) One equal Third Part thereof shall be paid over by them to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, towards Satisfaction and Discharge of the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof; and the remaining Two Thirds of such Monies shall be applied in paying the Expenses of collecting the said Tolls, and in carrying into Execution the several Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and in paying the Principal and Interest of all Sums borrowed under the Powers and Provisions of the said Act, and during such Time as the said Tolls shall be collected by the said Trustees of the Danesheld and Sandridge Trust, the Monies arising therefrom shall, subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of the said Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereon as aforesaid, be applied in manner following; (that is to say,) in the first place in paying the Expenses of collecting the said Tolls, and in the next place in paying to the said Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the said Principal Sum of Four thousand Pounds to be so expended as aforesaid, and the Interest thereof.

Trustees of the Wilton Imposition Trust to continue additional Tolls.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Wilton-Imposition Trust, and they are hereby authorized and required, to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised, and now levied, for the Purpose of paying off the Sum of Nine thousand Pounds advanced to them by the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, as follows; (that is to say,) the Sum of Six thousand Pounds, which was advanced on or about the Twentieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and was secured by a Mortgage of the Tolls of the said Trust, at that Date, and a Charge of the same Date on the additional Tolls therein mentioned and referred to; and the further Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds, which was advanced under the Provisions of an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for further improving the Roads between London and Holyhead, by Coventry, Birmingham, and Shrewsbury; and the further Sum of Nine hundred Pounds, which was advanced under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and also of the Sum of Three thousand Pounds, which was advanced by the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, under the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and all Interest due and to become due on the said respective Advances; until as well the said Sums of Nine thousand Pounds and Three thousand Pounds as advanced, and all Interest due and to become due thereon, as also the Principal Sum or Sums to be paid by the said Trustees of the Wilton-Imposition Trust to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as hereinafter directed, together with all Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Trustees of Wilton-Imposition Trust to repay, out of additional
Tolls, the Sums
this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of the Wilton-Imposition Trust, and they are hereby authorized and required, with and out of the said additional Tolls, (subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of the said several Sums of Nine thousand Pounds and Three thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively,) to repay to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Sum or Sums to be advanced under the Provisions of this Act, and applied in altering and improving the Road within the District of the said Trustees, and repaying the same, as hereinafter directed, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of the advancing thereof, on so much of the said last-mentioned Sum or Sums as shall from time to time remain due and unpaid.

22 G. 3. c. 118

XXXI. And Whereas under and by virtue of the Powers and Authorities of the said recited Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for improving the Roads between London and Holyhead, a Sum of Two thousand Pounds was, by the Commissioners for the Issue of Exchequer Bills, acting in execution of Three several Acts passed, the First thereof in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to authorize the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor of Great Britain, in manner therein mentioned; the Second of the said Acts in the same Fifty-seventh Year, intitled An

22 G. 3. c. 119.

Act

Act to amend an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, for authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money, for carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor; and the last of the said Acts in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to amend and continue Two Acts passed in the Fifty-second Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for authorizing the Issue of Exchequer Bills, and the Advance of Money for carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor; and to extend the Powers of the Commissioners for executing the said Acts in Great Britain; advanced to the Commissioners for executing the said recited Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and applied by them towards making a Variation between Knowles Bank and Manspore Hill, from Knowles Bank to the Toll Bar, and from the Toll Bar to Manspore Hill, which said Sum of Two thousand Pounds was to be repaid out of certain additional Tolls to be raised and received by the Trustees of the Sligford District of the Worthing Street Road, as in the said last-mentioned Act is directed; And Whereas, in pursuance of the Provisions contained in the said Act, the said additional Toll has been collected, and the Moneys arising therefrom applied in or towards Payment of the Principal and Interest of the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds; And Whereas under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for further improving the Road from London to Holhead, the Sum of Four thousand Pounds has been applied by the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for further improving the Road within the Limits of the said Trustees of the Sligford District of the Worthing Street Road; and the said last-mentioned Trustees were by the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as aforesaid, required to continue the additional Tolls by them imposed and raised, and then levied, for the Purpose of paying off the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds and Interest, until as well the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds and all Interest thereon due and to become due thereon, as also the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds, together with all Interest thereon, should be fully paid off and discharged; And Whereas it will be necessary that some Provision should be made for the Repayment of the Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds heretofore directed to be applied in altering and improving the Road within the said Trust, and the Interest thereof, as heretofore mentioned, Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Trustees of the Sligford District of the Worthing Street Road shall, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, cease to demand and take the additional Tolls by the said recited Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty authorized to be taken, and by the said last-mentioned Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty directed to be continued as therein mentioned; and in lieu thereof the said Trustees shall and they are hereby authorized and required to demand and take, at the several Turnpike Gates, Bars, or Side Gates, or Chaises, which are or shall be standing and being or continued or erected by virtue of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for improving the Roads leading through the Town of Sligford, and the Road leading from Colton Gate to Wotton, in the County of Salop, and Sligford, or any other Act, upon, across, or on the Side or Sides of the said Road, or any Part thereof, being Part of the Holhead Mail Coach Road, besides the ordinary Tolls by the said last-mentioned Act authorized to be taken, the several Tolls following: (that is to say,)

For every Horse or Mule drawing any Coach, Chariot, Chaise, Chair, or such like Carriage, Threepence:
 For every Horse or Mule drawing any Waggon, Cart, or such like Carriage, with Wheels of less Breadth of Six Inches or upwards, Threepence:
 For every Horse or Mule drawing any Waggon, Cart, or such like Carriage, with Wheels of less Breadth than Six Inches, Fourpence:
 For every Ass or Ox, or other Neat Cattle, drawing any Carriage, Two-pence:
 For every Horse, Mule, or Ass, laden or unladen, and not drawing, One Penny:
 For every Cow, Bull, Calf, or Heifer, One Halfpenny:
 For every Calf, Pig, Sheep, or Lamb, One Farthing:

And the said additional Tolls shall be continued to be taken and collected until as well the said Two several Sums of Two thousand Pounds and Four thousand Pounds, with the Interest now due and to become due in respect thereof as so much thereof as still remains unpaid, as also the said Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds heretofore authorized to be applied in making the Alterations and Improvements in the Road within the said Trust, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be fully paid and satisfied.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees of the Sligford District of the Worthing Street Road, and they are hereby authorized and required, to apply the Money arising from the said additional Tolls to be so collected by them as aforesaid, in the first place, in Payment of the said Two several Sums of Two thousand Pounds and Four thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively, or so much thereof as still remains due and unpaid, in the next place, in repaying to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty the Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds, to be applied, under the Provisions heretofore contained, in making the Alterations and Improvements in the Road within the said Trust, together with Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be computed from the Time or respective Times of advancing the same, or so much of the said last-mentioned Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds as shall be for the Time being due and unpaid, such Interest to be paid by Two Half yearly Payments in every Year; and when and as soon as the said Sum of Five thousand five hundred Pounds, together together with the Interest thereon, shall be fully paid off and discharged, the said Trustees acting in execution of the said last-mentioned Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid shall cause to collect the said additional Tolls.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Tolls within the Highgate District of the Highgate Street Road shall be let, the said Trustees shall keep distinct Accounts of the said additional Tolls, and of the ordinary Tolls by the said last-mentioned Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty authorized to be taken.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all the said additional Tolls hereby authorized to be taken, collected, and received by the said Highgate Highway Company, the Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for improving the public Roads through the City of Canterbury aforesaid, and the Trustees of the Highgate District of the Highgate Street Road as aforesaid, shall and may be demanded, taken, collected, and recovered by the said Company and Trustees respectively, by and under all such and the like Powers, Authorities, Provisions, and Remedies as other Tolls now are demanded, taken, collected, and recovered on the several Roads now under the Management of the said Company and Trustees respectively, and all and every Act, and all Clauses, Exceptions, Privileges, Forfeitures, and Provisions relating to the several Roads within the Limits and Districts of such Company and Trustees respectively, and to the Tolls taken thereon, shall be in full Force, Operation, and Effect, as far as the same are applicable to the said several additional Tolls hereby authorized to be taken thereon respectively, and shall be enforced and put in force by the said Company and Trustees respectively, as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in and by this Act with relation to the said additional Tolls hereby authorized to be collected, and also that the several additional and other Tolls which are and which are to be continued to be levied and raised by the Trustees of the Highgate and Stratford Trust, the Trustees of the Daneshurch and Stratford Trust, the Trustees acting in the Execution of the Act of the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for improving the public Roads through the City of Canterbury, and the Trustees of the Waterchurche Trust, as hitherto is directed, shall, during the Time that they are hereby required to be continued, be levied and raised, and be accounted for and paid over, in the Manner and under the Powers and Provisions of the several Acts under which such additional and other Tolls are now collected and taken by such respective Trustees; and in case the said Company or Trustees, or any or either of them, shall refuse or neglect to levy, collect, or continue the said additional and other Tolls, or shall levy the same, or shall make Default in Payment of the Sums or Sums to be paid by them as hitherto is directed, or the Interest thereof, before the same Sums and the Interest thereof shall be fully paid off and discharged, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to enter upon and take Possession of the Toll Gates, Bars, and Toll Houses of the Company or Trustees making Default, and to collect, take, receive, and recover the Tolls owing on the Road under the Case of the Company or Trustees making Default, and to pay over the same in manner directed by the said several Acts under which such additional and other Tolls are now raised, collected, and taken by such Company and Trustees, and by this Act, and to execute all the Powers, Provisions, and Authorities in and by the said several Acts in such Case given, as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in and by this Act.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Sum which by the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty is made applicable to the making Alterations and Improvements in the Road between Old Stratford in the County of Northampton and Daneshurch in the County of Warwick, shall be found insufficient for the Purpose of completing the Alterations and Improvements proposed to be made at Old Stratford, between Old Stratford and Trameter, the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall certify the Amount of the Deficiency to the Trustees of the Stratford and Daneshurch Trust, and the said Trustees shall pay the Amount of such Deficiency, provided the same shall not exceed the Sum of One thousand Pounds, out of the additional Tolls to be collected on the Road within the said Trust, subject nevertheless to the Payment, in the first place, of the Two several Sums of Eight thousand Pounds and Five thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof respectively, or such Part thereof as may remain due and unpaid, to the Commissioners for the issue of Exchequer Bills, mentioned in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; any thing in the said recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And Whereas several new Pieces of Road have been made and completed by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty between Trameter and Forster's Booth in the County of Northampton, within the Limits and District of the Stratford and Daneshurch Trust: Be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of September next the said new Pieces of Road shall be made over by the said last-mentioned Commissioners to and vested in the Trustees acting in execution of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for continuing and amending Three Acts of His late Majesty, for repairing the Road from Old Stratford in the County of Northampton to Daneshurch in the County of Warwick, and shall be from thenceforth maintained, repaired, and supported by such Trustees, in the Manner, and under the same Powers, Authorities, and Provisions, as the old Roads in lieu of which such new Pieces of Road have been made was previously maintained, repaired, and supported.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money to be from time to time paid by the Trustees of the Highgate Highway Trust, the Trustees of the Highgate and Stratford Trust, the Trustees Distinct accounts to be kept of the said additional Tolls.

Tolls to be continued, subject to the existing Powers and Provisions, with Powers for the Commissioners of 45, s. 4 to take Possession of Toll Gates in case of Default.

If the Sums applicable to the Improvements in the Road between Old Stratford and Daneshurch shall be insufficient, the Deficiency, to the extent of £1000, to be paid out of the Tolls.

The new Pieces of Road between Trameter and Forster's Booth, to be made over to the Trustees of the Stratford and Daneshurch Trust.

Application of the Money paid by the Trustees of the Danversh and Stretebridge Trust, the Trustees acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for improving the public Roads through the City of Coventry, the Trustees of the Wolverhampton Trust, the Trustees of the Stafford District of the Watling Street Road, under the Provisions herebefore contained, to the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or the Registrar of the Money to be advanced pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, and the interest thereof, shall be paid by them the said last-mentioned Commissioners into the Exchequer at Westminster, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund; and that the Receipts of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or any Three of them, for any Sums of Money to be so paid to them, shall be sufficient Discharges to the Trustees by whom the same shall be paid, and shall protect them from being liable to sue to the Application thereof, or from being answerable for the Misapplication or Non-application thereof.

XXXVIII. And Whereas that Part of the Road from London to Holyhead which is situated between the Town of Shrewsbury in the County of Salop and Llangollen in the County of Denbigh, passing by or through Messford Bridge and Gumetwy, being the present Mail Coach Line of Road, and between the Messford Bridge, near the Town of Benger in the County of Cheshire, and Holyhead in the Isle of Anglesea, passing by the New Mersey Inn, Llangifer Toll Gate, and the new Embankments on Stratford Swale, being the present Mail Coach Line of Road, is liable to be damaged by Carts, Waggon, or other Vehicles passing over the same with projecting Nails on the Wheels: Be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, it shall not be lawful for any Person to drive any Cart, Waggon, or other Vehicle over or along the said Roads between Shrewsbury and Llangollen, and between Benger and Holyhead as aforesaid, or over or along any Part or Parts thereof respectively, the Wheels of which shall have Nails projecting beyond the Surface of the Tires, or have the Tires beyond the Breadth of Three Inches; and that the Gate Keepers on the said Roads, or either of them, shall not, after the said First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, allow any such Cart, Waggon, or other Vehicle to pass along the same or any Part thereof; and that if any Person shall drive any such Cart, Waggon, or other Vehicle over or along the said Roads, or either of them, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, after the said First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, he shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, which Sum shall be recoverable in the same Manner as Penalties and Forfeitures under the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty are by that Act authorized to be recovered, and shall be applied in the same Manner and to the same Purposes as the Tolls to be collected on the said Roads.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when the Alterations and Improvements hereinafter authorized to be made by the said Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the Line of Road within the Limits and District of the Hackliffe and Stretebridge Trust, shall be made and completed, the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as aforesaid shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to make over and convey all or any Part of the Ground which they may be possessed of, or which may be acquired by them in taking down the several Houses at Fenny Stratford in the County of Essex, mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, and which may not be wanted for the Purposes of this Act, to the said Trustees of the Hackliffe and Stretebridge Road, acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third as aforesaid; and the same shall therefor be vested in such last-mentioned Trustees, and shall and may be appropriated and applied by them in such Manner and for such Purposes as they shall think expedient.

XL. And Whereas by the said in part recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty it was (amongst other Things) also enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to enquire into the State of the several Trusts in which the several Roads forming the Lines of Communication by which His Majesty's Mails travelled between London and Holyhead, and between London and Liverpool, were composed, and to ascertain the Amount of the several Income from Tolls, and Expenditure, of such several Trusts, and of the Proportions of such Income and Expenditure repaid and expended in respect of maintaining and repairing the said several Roads forming the said Communications, and also to enquire into the Method in which the said Roads were maintained and repaired; and that for the Purposes aforesaid it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to summon before them any Surveyors, Treasurers, Clerks, or other Officers employed by the said Trustees or Commissioners in respect of the said Roads, and the said Surveyors, Treasurers, Clerks, or other Officers should, if required, produce all Books of Account, Plans, Maps, Papers, Documents, and Writings in their Possession respectively, and should allow the said Commissioners, or any or either of them, or any Person or Persons appointed for that Purpose by them or any Three of them, by any Writing under their Hands, to inspect, examine, and take Copies of or Extracts from the same or any or either of them: And Whereas it is expedient that some Provision should be made for defraying the Expenses incurred by any Treasurers, Surveyors, Clerks, or other Officers who may from time to time be required by the said Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to attend before them, in pursuance of the said recited Provision for that Purpose contained in the said last in part recited Act: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs.

WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs, and it is found necessary to make certain Alterations and Amendments therein; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, the several Enactments, hereinafter contained shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation, for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

II. ' And Whereas one of the said Acts was passed for the Management of the Customs, and it is expedient to amend the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, That no Comptroller or Assistant Comptroller of Customs, nor any Officer of Customs, or Person employed in the Collection or Management of or accounting for the Revenue of Customs, or any Part thereof, nor any Clerk or other Person acting under them, shall, during the Time of his acting as such Comptroller or Assistant Comptroller, or as such Officer, or of his being so employed as aforesaid, or of his acting as such Clerk or other Person as aforesaid, as the Case may be, be compelled to serve as a Mayor or Sheriff, or in any Corporate or Parochial or other Public Office or Employment, or to serve as any Jury or Inquest, or in the Militia, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the Contrary thereof notwithstanding.

III. ' And Whereas one other of the said Acts was passed for the general Regulation of the Customs, and it is expedient to amend the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as restricts the Importation of Wine except in certain Quantities, and also so much of the said Act as prohibits the Importation of Sugars in Packages containing One hundred Pounds Weight of Sugars, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. ' And Whereas it is expedient to prohibit the Importation of Clocks and Watches having false Marks or Names thereon; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall not be lawful to import any Clock nor any Watch impressed with any Mark or Stamp appearing to be or to represent any legal British Assay Mark or Stamp, or purporting by any Mark or Appearance to be of the Manufacture of the United Kingdom, or not having the Name and Place of Abode of some Foreign Maker Abroad visible on the Frame and also on the Face, or not being in a complete State with all the Parts properly fixed in the Case; and that such Prohibition shall be complied with and enforced in like Manner as if the same were set forth in a certain Table denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards," contained in the said Act for the general Regulation of the Customs.

Regulations.

V. And he it further enacted, That no Goods which are prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom from Foreign Countries shall be imported from any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Naxos, although the Manufacture of any of those Islands, if the Materials of which such Goods be made are the Produce of any Foreign Country; and that this Prohibition shall be obeyed and enforced in like Manner as if the same were set forth in a certain Table contained in the said Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, and denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards."

Prohibited Goods from Guernsey, &c.

VI. And Whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it is enacted, that an Overcharge of Duty shall be returned, unless the same be claimed within Three Years from the Date of the Payment; and much Inconvenience has arisen, as well from the Uncertainty in many Cases of the Proceeding which shall constitute a Claim, as from the Neglect of Parties, after a Claim or supposed Claim has been made, in prosecuting the Adjustment of their Demand according to the true Meaning of the Law; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, no Overcharge of Duty of Customs shall be returned, nor shall any Certificate or other Document be granted for the Return of any such Overcharge be paid, unless such Certificate or other Document be presented for Payment within Three Years from the Day on which such Duty had been paid.

Duties over-charged not to be repaid after Three Years.

VII. And Whereas one of the said first-mentioned Acts was passed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and it is expedient to amend the said Act: And Whereas by the said Act it is enacted, that Two Justices of the Peace may order any Person or Persons who shall have been arrested and detained for any Offence against any Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, to be detained a reasonable Time, as well before as after any Information shall have been exhibited against such Party: And Whereas great Difficulty has arisen in procuring the Attendance of the same Two Justices who ordered the Party to be detained, to hear and determine the Case; and it is expedient that One or more Justices should have the Power to direct such Person or Persons to be detained a reasonable Time, as well before as after any Information shall have been exhibited against such Party: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall be detained for any Offence against the Laws now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and shall be taken before One or more Justices of the Peace, to be dealt with according to Law, if it shall appear to such Justice or Justices that there is reasonable Cause to detain such Person or Persons, such Justice or Justices may, and he and they is and are hereby authorized to order such Person or Persons to be detained a reasonable Time, as well before as after any Information has been exhibited against such Party, and at the Expiration of such Time any Two or more Justices may proceed finally to hear and determine the Matter, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Smuggling.

Persons detained under the Smuggling Laws, One Justice may remove before hearing the Case.

VIII. And Whereas one of the said first-mentioned Acts was passed for the Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, and it is expedient to amend the said Act: And Whereas by the Law of Navigation contained in the said Act certain Ships built in the British Settlements at Honduras are, under certain Conditions and Regulations, entitled to the Privileges of British registered Ships in all direct Trade between the United Kingdom and the said Settlements, and it is expedient to permit such Ships to trade in like Manner with the British Possessions in America: Be it therefore enacted, That under the Conditions and Regulations aforesaid, contained in the said Act, such Ships shall be entitled to the Privileges of British registered Ships in all direct Trade between any of the British Possessions in America and the said Settlements.

Navigation.

Honduras Ships to trade with Possessions in America.

IX. And he it further enacted, That no Mediterranean Pass shall be issued for the Benefit of any Person, as being an Inhabitant of Malta or of Gibraltar, but not being a Person entitled to be an Owner of a British registered Ship, unless such Person shall have resided at Malta or at Gibraltar respectively upwards of Fifteen Years prior to the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven.

Mediterranean Passes issued to Inhabitants in Malta, &c.

X. And Whereas one of the said first-mentioned Acts was passed for granting Duties of Customs, and it is expedient to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That instead of the Duties imposed by the said last-mentioned Act upon the several Articles mentioned in the Tables contained in this Act, and denominated "Table of New Duties Inwards, 1822," and "Table of New Duties Outwards, 1822," the several Duties set forth in Figures in the said Tables shall, in respect of such Goods as are mentioned therein, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, in like Manner as if such Duties had been imposed in and by the said last-mentioned Act, and had been set forth in the Tables thereto annexed; (that is to say.)

31. And he is further enacted, That the several Duties now payable upon the Importation of Silk and Silk Manufactures, which by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to regulate the Importation of Silk Goods until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and to encourage the Silk Manufactures by the Export of certain Duties, are to be payable until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, shall be further continued until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in and upon the said Act for granting Duties of Customs, as extended to charge any Duty of Importation upon Cables, not being Iron Cables, or upon Cordage, or upon Sails respectively, is use of any Merrill Ship, being fit and necessary for such Ship, and in the actual Use of the same, and not otherwise disposed of, shall be and so much of the said Act is hereby repealed; and that whenever such Cables, Cordage, or Sails shall be otherwise disposed of, then, in lieu of the Duty now payable on the same respectively, there shall be paid a Duty of Twenty Pounds upon every One hundred Pounds of the Value thereof.

And he is further charged, that if any Mahogany which had been imported direct from the Bay of Honduras, in a Ship cleared out from the Port of Belize, into a free warehouse, and there warehoused, as having been imported direct from America, and exported thence to the Warehouse, and imported direct into the Kingdom, such Mahogany shall be subject in the United Kingdom to the same Duty as is said here before to be paid if it had been imported direct from the Bay of Honduras in a British Ship cleared out from the Port of Belize, provided it be shown to the proper Clearance of the Ship importing the same into the United Kingdom, that such Mahogany had been so warehoused and exported from the Warehouse as aforesaid.

And Whereas the duties of the said Commissioners of Arts was passed by the Warehousing of Goods, and it is expedient to amend the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs to permit any Stuffs or Fabrics of Silk, Lince, Cotton, or Woollen, or of any Mixture of any of the said with any other Material, to be taken out of the Warehouse, or to be cleared, refashioned, dyed, stained, washed, or bleached, or to be made up into Goods, for the Duty of Customs, under Security, nevertheless, be that to their Satisfaction, that such Goods shall be returned to the Warehouse within the Time that they shall appoint; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in like Manner and under like Security, to permit any Rice, the Produce of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, to be delivered out of Warehouse to be cleared, making such Allowance for Waste as to the said Commissioners shall appear to be reasonable.

17. And be it further enacted, That all Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour, or other ground Corn, may be imported into the United Kingdom to be warehoused under the Regulations of the said last-mentioned Act, or of any Act in force for the Time being made for the Warehousing of Goods, without Payment of Duty at the Time of the First Entry thereof, or notwithstanding that such Goods may be prohibited to be imported for Home Use; any thing in any Act in force in any Part of the United Kingdom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And Whereas one other of the said first-mentioned Acts was passed to grant certain Bounties and Allowances of Customs; and it is expedient to amend the said Act: And Whereas the several Bounties granted by the said Act on the Exportation of Linen from the United Kingdom are to be reduced from Year to Year by equal Tenth Parts, until the whole shall expire, and which will happen on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four: And Whereas Five such Tenth Parts will have ceased on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and it is expedient to suspend for a limited Time the further Reduction of the said Bounties, and fix on an earlier Time when the whole shall expire; and it is also expedient to reduce and to discontinue in like Manner the Bounty payable under the said Act on the Exportation of Sail Cloth: Be it therefore enacted, That the Proportions of the several Bounties on Linen which will be payable under the said Act on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine shall continue payable, without further Reduction, until the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and on the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two the whole of such Bounties shall cease, and no Part thereof shall thereafter be payable; and that on the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine one Half of the Bounty now payable on the Exportation of Salt Cloth shall cease, and that on the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two the whole of the said Bounty shall cease.

XVII. And Whereas by the said last-mentioned Act certain Drawbacks are granted on Deals and Timber used as therein mentioned, and Regulations are therein made for the issuing of Debentures to the Parties respectively Once only for each Year, and it is expedient to permit more frequent Payment of such Drawback to be made, Be it therefore enacted, That under the like Regulations it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to issue such Debentures Twice for every Year, (that is to say) Once after the Fifth Day of July, and Once after the Fifth Day of January. Provided always, that no Debenture for any such Drawback shall be paid after the Expiration of Three Years from the Day on which the Duty on any of the Deals or Timber mentioned in such Debentures had been paid: Provided also, that the same Amount of Drawback, and no other, shall be allowed in respect of such Deals and Timber when the same had been imported in a Foreign Ship, as is granted by the said Act in respect of such Deals and Timber when the same had been imported in a British Ship.

XVIII. And Whereas by the last-mentioned Act a Bounty is allowed on the Exportation of Double Refined Sugar, and it is expedient that the said Bounty should be allowed upon all Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar: Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be provided by and at the Expense of the Committee of Sugar Refiners in London, and in like Manner by and at the Expense of the Committee of Merchants in Dublin, as many Leaves of Double Refined Sugar prepared in Manner hereinafter directed as the Commissioners of Customs shall think necessary, which Leaves, when approved of by the said Commissioners, shall be deemed and taken to be Standard Samples, one of which Leaves shall be lodged with the said Commissioners respectively, and one other with such Persons or Persons as the said Commissioners shall direct, for the Purpose of comparing therewith Double Refined Sugar, or Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, entered for Exportation for the Bounty, and fresh Standard Samples shall in like Manner be again furnished by such Commissioners respectively, and in like Manner lodged, whenever it may be deemed expedient by the said Commissioners: Provided always, that no Leaf of Sugar shall be deemed to be a proper Sample Leaf of Double Refined Sugar as aforesaid, if it be of greater Weight than Fourteen Pounds, nor unless it be a Leaf complete and whole, nor unless the same shall have been made by a distinct Second Process of Refinement from a Quantity of Single Refined Sugar, every Part of which had first been perfectly clarified and duly refined, and had been made into Leaves or Lamps which were of a uniform Whiteness throughout, and had been thoroughly dried in the Sun.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in respect of Refined Sugar which is equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, the like Bounty shall be paid as is granted by the said last-mentioned Act in respect of Double Refined Sugar: Provided always, that no Sugar shall be entitled to Bounty as Double Refined Sugar, or as Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, unless it be in Leaves complete and whole, not weighing more than Fourteen Pounds each Leaf, nor unless it corresponds with or be equal in Quality to the Samples Leaves aforesaid.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Sugar which shall be entered in order to obtain the Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, or Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, shall, on Examination by the proper Officer or Officers, be found to be of a Quality not equal to such Standard Sample, all Sugar so entered shall be forfeited and may be seized.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the several Bounties on Refined Sugar granted by the said last-mentioned Act shall be granted equally in respect of all Refined Sugar, without regard to whether the same be made of Sugar the Produce of the British Plantations or of the East Indies, or of Sugar the Produce of any other Place; any thing to the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And Whereas one of the said last-mentioned Acts was passed to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad, and it is expedient to amend the said Act, Be it therefore enacted, That upon the Entry Outwards of any Goods in any of the British Possessions in America, to be exported to any other of such Possessions or to the United Kingdom, it shall be noted in such Entry whether that such Goods are the Produce of the British Possessions in America, or that they are of Foreign Production, as the Case may be; and if any Goods not being the Produce of any of the British Possessions in America be stated in such Entry to be such Produce, the same shall be forfeited; and that no Goods shall be stated in the Certificate of the Clearance of any Ship from any British Possession in America to be the Produce of such Possession, unless such Goods shall have been expressly stated as to be in the Entry Outwards; and that all Goods not expressly stated in such Certificate of Clearance to be the Produce of the British Possessions in America shall, at the Place of Importation in any other such Possession, or in the United Kingdom, be deemed to be of Foreign Production.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sorts of Goods hereinafter enumerated, having been warehoused in the United Kingdom, (that is to say) Corn, Grain, Seeds, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, Rice, Peas, Peckies, Woods of all Sorts, Honey, Wax, Tallow, Oils, Pitch, Tar, Resin, Turpentine, Ochers, Brimstone, Sulphure, Gums, Drugs, Vegetable Oils, Raw Sins, Dog Sins, Hops, Cork, Sars, Tapioca, Spunge, Sassafras, Cloves, Cider, Wax, Spices, Yellow, being imported into any of the British Possessions in America direct from the Warehouse in the United Kingdom, shall be so imported Duty-free; and that Heres, Mules, Axes, Nail Cattle, and all other Live Stock, shall be imported or brought into the said Possessions Duty-free; and that Tallow and Raw Hides brought by Land or by Inland Navigation into any of the said Possessions, shall be so brought Duty-free.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry of any Wheat to be warehoused in any Warehouse being Part in the United Possessions in America, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs instead of requiring that such Wheat shall be forthwith lodged in the Warehouse, to deliver the same to the Inspector or Proprietor thereof to be first ground into Flour, and also to deliver any warehoused Wheat to be ground into Flour, under Condition, by Bond to the Satisfaction of the said Officers, that within Three Months from the Date of the Bond there shall be lodged in the Warehouse One Barrel of good and merchantable Flour in return for every Five Bushels of Wheat so delivered; and such Flour so warehoused shall be held to be Flour imported and warehoused under the Conditions and Regulations of the said last-mentioned Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned Act as restricts the Importation of Wine, except in certain Quantities, into the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XXVI. And be it enacted and declared, That nothing contained in an Act passed in the Seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to alter and amend the several Laws relating to the Customs, &c. or doth repeal, or shall be construed to have repealed, so much of an Act passed in the Third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to regulate the Trade of the Province of Lower and Upper Canada, and for other Purposes relating to the said Province, as relates to the Appointment of Arbitrators to determine the Claims of the Province of Upper Canada upon the Province of Lower Canada, or as relates to the Powers and Duties of such Arbitrators, or to any Award to be made by them, or to the Payment of any Sum by them awarded, or to the Payment of Duties made payable under any Act or Acts of the Province of Lower Canada on the Importation of any Goods, Wares, or Commodities into the said Province.

XXVII. And Whereas one of the said last-mentioned Acts was passed for Regulation of the Trade of the Isle of Man, and it is expedient to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That no Spirits or Strong Waters shall be imported into the Isle of Man, other than such and so much as may and shall be imported with the Licence of the Commissioners of Customs under the Provisions of the said Act; and that this Prohibition shall be obeyed and enforced in due Manner as if the same were set forth in a certain Schedule contained in the said Act, and denominated "Schedule of Prohibitions;" Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant Licences from time to time for the Importation into the said Island in reasonable Quantities of perfumed or medicinal Spirits.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Goods shall be shipped to the Isle of Man for Exportation to the United Kingdom, as being the Produce or Manufacture of that Island, Proof shall be made by the written Affidavit of some competent Person, to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Shipment, that such Goods, describing and identifying the same, are the Produce or the Manufacture, as the Case may be, of the said Island, and in such Affidavit shall be stated the Name of the Person by whom such Goods are intended to be entered and shipped, and such Person at the Time of Entry (not being more than One Month after the Date of such Affidavit), shall make Oath before such Collector or Comptroller, that the Goods to be shipped in virtue of the Entry are the same as are mentioned in such Affidavit; and thereupon the Collector and Comptroller shall, on Demand, give to the Master of the Ship in which the Goods are to be exported a Certificate of such Proof of Produce or of Manufacture having been made in respect of such Goods, describing the same, and setting forth the Name of the Exporter and of the exporting Ship, and of the Master thereof, and the Destination of the Goods; and such Certificate shall be received at the Port of Importation in the United Kingdom, instead of the Certificate of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander-in-Chief of the said Island, required by one of the said last-mentioned Acts, intitled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs.

XXIX. And Whereas Steam Vessels according to their Register Tonnage afford greater Accommodation for Passengers than Sailing Vessels: Be it therefore enacted, That for the Purpose of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating Tonnage carrying Passengers between Great Britain and Ireland, every Steam Vessel which is of the Register Tonnage of One hundred and forty Tons or upwards shall be deemed to be a Vessel of Two hundred Tons or more.

An Act to amend the Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads.

[28th July 1828.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty, to amend the general Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in England: And Whereas the said Acts require to be further amended, and some Enactments thereof to be repealed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as enacts that all and every

Book and Books containing the Accounts and Proceedings of the Trustees and Commissioners for executing any Act for making or maintaining any Turnpike Road, or containing any Orders or Agreements made or entered into by them, such Book or Books being kept and signed in manner therein mentioned, should and might be given in Evidence in all Cases of Appeal, and in all Prosecutions, Suits, and Actions whatsoever, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Books kept for registering Mortgages or Assignments, and all Entries therein, and all Books containing the Accounts and Proceedings of the Trustees in the Execution of any local Turnpike Act, kept according to the Directions and Provisions of any such Act, or of the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or of this Act, and made Evidence thereby, shall be admitted in Evidence in all Courts, and by all Judges, Justices, and others, without proving the Facts therein contained, unless such Facts, or any of them, shall be first controverted, notwithstanding any former Act, under the Provisions of which such Books may have been originally kept, may be repealed; and all such Books shall be preserved and kept by the Clerk for the Time being of such Trustees, and shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of the said Trustees, and of any Creditor or Creditors of the Tolls, without Fee or Reward; and the said Trustees and Creditors, or any of them, shall and may take Copies of or Extracts from the said Book or Books, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, without paying any thing for the same; and in case the Clerk to the said Trustees shall refuse to permit, or shall not permit, the said Trustees, or such Creditors, or any of them, to inspect the said Book or Books, or to take such Copies or Extracts as aforesaid, such Clerk shall forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as directs that no Toll Gate shall be erected on the Side of any Turnpike Road, unless the same be ordered by the Trustees or Commissioners at a Public Meeting, in manner therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty as directs that it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road to order and direct any Turnpikes, Toll Gates, or Side Bars to be removed, as therein directed, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to continue all and every or any of the Toll Gates or Toll Houses now standing or being in, upon, or across any such Turnpike Road, or on the Sides thereof, and from time to time, at any special Meeting to be holden for that Purpose, of which Meeting Public Notice, specifying the Time and Place and the Purpose thereof, shall have been given in some Newspaper published or circulated in the County or Counties through which any such Turnpike Road passes, and also by affixing a Copy of such Notice on all the Turnpikes, Toll Gates, or Side Bars (if any) which shall be then standing on such Road, Fourteen Days previously to such Meeting, to order and direct, by some Order in Writing, to be signed by Three or more of the Trustees present at such Meeting, that there be erected and built, in, upon, or across any such Turnpike Road or any Part thereof, or upon the Sides thereof, or any Part thereof, when and where they shall judge necessary, such and so many Toll Gates, Turnpikes, Side Bars, and Chains, with Toll Houses, Outhouses, and other Conveniences thereby, and also to take in and inclose on the Sides of such Road, or any Part thereof, suitable Garden Spots for the use of such Toll Houses, not exceeding One Eighth of a Statute Acre to each Toll House, as the said Trustees shall direct or appoint; and also shall and may from time to time to three at any such Meeting, or at any other Meeting to be called as aforesaid, and by such Order as aforesaid, from time to time order and direct any of such Toll Gates, Turnpikes, Side Bars, and Chains to be taken down or discontinued, or to be removed and placed elsewhere, upon, across, or on the Sides of such Road, in such Situations as to them the said Trustees may appear fit or eligible: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize any Toll Gate, Turnpike, Side Bar, or Chain to be erected or built in any Place or Places where it is or may be provided by any local Turnpike Act there shall be no Turnpike, Toll Gate, Side Bar, or Chain erected, built, or placed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as directs the Payment and Recovery of any Sum or Sums of Money to be subscribed or agreed to be advanced for the making or maintaining of any Turnpike Road, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Persons who shall subscribe for or agree to advance any Money for or towards the making or maintaining any Turnpike Road or Roads, or Highway intended to be made Turnpike, shall and they are hereby required to pay the Sum or Sums of Money so subscribed, within such Time or Times, and in such Parts and Proportions, as shall be expressed in the Writing which shall be subscribed by them or on their Behalf, or as the Trustees of any such Turnpike Road shall order and direct; and the same shall be demanded by and paid to such Person or Persons as the said Trustees shall by any Writing under their Hands authorize to receive the same; and if any Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to sue for the same in the Name of any one of such Trustees or of their Treasurers or Clerk, and to recover the same, together with full Costs of Suit, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt or on the Case, by Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, wherein no Escaign, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparance, shall be allowed; and all such

X. And be it further enacted, That where, at the Time of the Expiration or Repeal of any Act for making and maintaining any Turnpike Road, any Monies which may have been borrowed, subscribed, or advanced under the Provisions of such Act shall be due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls thereby granted, the Term and Tolls to be granted by all and every subsequent Act and Acts for maintaining such Turnpike Road shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to the Payment of the Monies which shall so remain due and owing on the Credit of such Tolls, and of all Interest to grow due thereon, so fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Monies had been borrowed or become due on the Credit or Security of the Tolls to be granted by such subsequent Act or Acts: and all and every Person and Persons who may owe or be subject or liable to the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money to the Trustees for carrying any such former Act into Execution, shall be liable to the Payment thereof to the Trustees for executing any such subsequent Act or Acts, and such Monies shall be applied by them for the Purposes of such subsequent Act or Acts.

Roads, Convents, &c. to remain in full Force, notwithstanding the Repeal of any
Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Conveyances, Bonds, Covenants, Agreements, Contracts, and Securities, made or entered into by any Person or Persons to or with the Trustees for carrying any local Turnpike Act into Execution, or by any other Person or Persons on behalf of the said Trustees, according to the Provisions of any such Act, shall remain in full Force and Effect, notwithstanding the Expiration or Repeal of such Act, and shall be and continue available in all Courts, and before all Judges and Justices having Jurisdiction, as the Case may require, until the same are fully satisfied and performed, on Account and for the Benefit of the Trust to be created by any subsequent Act for maintaining the same Turnpike Road, or any Part thereof.

Trustees may cancel Mort-
ceive others.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees appointed by virtue of any local Turnpike Act may receive in and cancel all or any of the Mortgages granted under the Trusts of any former Act for the same Turnpike Road, or any Part thereof, and instead and in lieu thereof give and execute another Mortgage or other Mortgages, at the Expense of the Parties requiring the same.

And where

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who may be or shall have been employed, or who shall have received any Tolls or other Money on account of or for the Purposes of any Act for making or maintaining any Turnpike Road which may have expired or been repealed, or who may have or shall have had in their Custody or Possession any Money, Books, Papers, Writings, or other Things relating to any such Turnpike Road, shall account for and pay and deliver over the same, and every Part thereof, to the Trustees for executing any subsequent Act for maintaining such Turnpike Road, in like Manner and under the like Penalties as the several Collectors and other Persons receiving any Money by virtue of the said recited Acts of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of any local local Turnpike Act, are by the said recited Acts of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty required to pay or account for the same.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer, if appointed consistently with the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Third, Fourth, and Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and each and every Clerk, Receiver, Collector, Surveyor, and other Officer, appointed under or employed in the Execution of any Act for making or maintaining any Turnpike Road, which may have inspired or been repealed, shall hold and enjoy such their several and respective Offices and Employments until removed therefrom respectively by the Trustees for executing any subsequent Act for maintaining the same Turnpike Road; and each and every such Treasurer, Clerk, Receiver, Collector, Surveyor, and other Officer, shall have the like Powers and Authorities for the Purpose of any such subsequent Act, and shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties, and to the like Powers of Removal, and to the like Rules and Regulations in all respects whatsoever, as if he or they had been appointed under or by virtue of such subsequent Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if and shall and may be lawful for the Trustees of any Turnpike Road, or any Person appointed or continued to be appointed Collector of the Tolls to be taken by virtue of any local Turnpike Act, to demand and take every Day (such Day, for the Purpose of all local Turnpike Acts, being computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock of the next succeeding Night) the several and respective Tolls to be mentioned in any such Act, at the several and respective Toll Gates and Turnpikes, or Side Bars and Chains, which are or shall be continued or erected by virtue of this Act, or of any local Turnpike Act, in, upon, across, or on the Sides of any Turnpike Road, or any Part or Parts thereof; and which Tolls or Sums of Money shall be demanded and taken as aforesaid, before any Horses, Cattle, or Carriage whatsoever shall be permitted to pass through any Toll Gate or Turnpike, or Side Bar or Chain; and the Tolls or Sums of Money to be levied and collected by virtue of any local Turnpike Act shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Trustees of such Act for the Purposes thereof, in manner to be thereby directed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall claim or take the Benefit of any of the Exemptions mentioned in any local Turnpike Act, not being entitled to the same, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and so all Cases the Proof of Exemption shall be upon the Person claiming the same.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall or may be convicted of any Offence or Offences contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or of the said recited Acts, or of any local Turnpike Act, in a summary Way, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, after the Expiration of Six Months from the Time when any such Offence or Offences shall or may have been committed.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Provisions, Penalties, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts of the Third, Fourth, and Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty (and except such Parts thereof respectively as are varied, altered, or repealed) shall extend and be construed to extend to this Act; and all the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts of the Third, Fourth, and Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty (except such Parts thereof respectively as are varied, altered, or repealed), and all the Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Provisions, Penalties, Matters, and Things contained in this Act, shall extend and be construed to extend to every local Turnpike Act, and shall be applied and put in execution as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of such local Turnpike Act, and were made Part thereof, and that the said recited Acts and this Act shall not be deemed in any such local Turnpike Act, save and except as to such Powers, Authorities, Clauses, Provisions, Penalties, Matters, and Things as shall be expressly referred to for the Purpose of being varied, altered, or repealed by any such local Turnpike Act.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act or in the said recited Acts contained shall extend, or be construed, adjudged, deemed or taken to extend, to the Turnpike Road called the Commercial Road, or the several Branches leading from and out of the same, authorized to be made, repaired, and maintained under and by virtue of an Act passed in this Session of Parliament, intimated *An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the several Roads called the Cannon Street Road, the Commercial Road, the Horsebury Branch of Road, the East India Dock Road, the Darling Road, and the Shadwell and Mile End Branch of Road, in the Counties of Middlesex and Essex; and for laying down a Steamway on the said Commercial, East India Dock, and Darling Roads; or to affect, encrease upon, vary, alter, or interfere with any of the Tolls, Weights, or Duties created by virtue of such Act, or any of the Powers and Authorities given to or vested in the Trustees acting under or by virtue of such Act; nor shall extend, or be deemed, construed, or taken to extend, to an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intimated An Act for repairing the Road from the City of Glasgow to the City of Carlisle, or to Three several Acts ascending the same, passed in the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty.*

Tolls to be collected.

Penalty on Person claiming Claim of Exemption.

Offence to be brought within Six Months.

Power of former Acts extended to this Act.

Provisions of this Act to extend to all local Turnpike Acts.

Acts not to be recited unless for the Purpose of being altered.

This Act not to extend to the Commercial Road, (30 G. 3. c. 111.) or the East India Dock Road, (Glasgow to Carlisle, (1803. 2. c. 100.) and (1803. 3. c. 44. 18 G. 3. c. 20. 18 G. 3. c. 200.)

C A P. LXXVIII.

An Act for extending the Acts passed in the Forty-third and Fifty-ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the Sale and Mortgage of Estates of Persons found Lunatics by Inquisition taken in England and Ireland, so as to authorize such Sale and Mortgage for some Purposes; and for rendering Inquisitions on Commissions of Lunacy taken in England available in Ireland; and like Inquisitions taken in Ireland available in England. [25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, to authorize the Sale, Mortgage, Charge, or Incumbrance of the Estates of Persons found lunatic by Inquisition in England or Ireland respectively; and the said Act was extended by an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the same Reign: And Whereas it is desirable that the Powers of Sale, Mortgage, Charge, and Incumbrance of the Estates of Persons found lunatic or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing their Affairs, which were given by the said Acts should not be confined to the Objects expressed in the first of the said Acts; but that, for the Purpose of providing a Fund by means of which better Provision may be made for such Persons, or their Estates may be improved, or other beneficial Objects may be effected, more extended Powers of Sale and Mortgage of such Estates should be given: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That such of the Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Acts as authorize the Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition of Estates belonging to Persons found and to be found lunatic or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing their Affairs, and the doing and executing all such Acts, Deeds, Surrenders, and Assurances for effectuating any such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition, may extend to the Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition of such Estates, for the Purpose of raising Money for Payment of the Debts and Engagements of such Lunatics, the Discharge of any Incumbrances on their Estates, the Costs of applying for and obtaining the Commission of Lunacy, and in opposition thereto, and all Proceedings under the same Commission, or incurred by any Person or Persons under the Order of such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain and of Ireland respectively, being intrusted by virtue of the King's Sign Manual with the Care and Conservatorship of the Custody of the Persons and Estates of Persons found lunatic or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing their Affairs, and the Costs of such Sales, Mortgages, Charges, and Incumbrances and other Dispositions, or for any of such Purposes as such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners shall respectively direct; and that the Monies arising from any such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition may be paid, laid out, and applied in Payment of the Debts and Engagements of such Lunatics, the Discharge of any Incumbrances on their Estates, the Costs of applying for and obtaining the Commission of Lunacy, and in opposition thereto, and all Proceedings under the same Commission, or incurred by any Person or Persons under the Order of such Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, and the Costs of such Sales, Mortgages, Charges, and Incumbrances, and other Dispositions, in such Manner as the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners, intrusted as aforesaid, shall direct.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That on any Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition which shall be made in pursuance of this Act, the Person whose Estate shall be so sold, mortgaged, charged, incumbered, or otherwise disposed of, and his or her Heirs, next of Kin, Devisees, Legatees, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall have such and the like Interest in the Money raised by such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition, and which shall not be wholly applied and exhausted for the Purposes aforesaid, or otherwise, in pursuance of this Act, as he, she, or they would have had in the Estate by the Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition of which such Money shall be raised, if no such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, Incumbrance, or other Disposition had been made, and such Money shall be of the same Nature and Character as the Estate so sold, mortgaged, charged, incumbered, or disposed of; and it shall be lawful for the said Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom and of Ireland respectively, being intrusted as aforesaid, to make such Orders, and to direct such Acts and Deeds to be done and executed, as shall be necessary for carrying the aforesaid Objects into Effect, and for the due Application of such surplus Monies.

III. And Whereas it is desirable that in some Cases Inquisitions taken in England on a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatic inquirendo, and Writs of Superdamea of any such Commission, should be acted upon in Ireland in the same Manner as the same may be acted upon in England; and for that Purpose should be placed on Record in Ireland; and that Inquisitions on a like Commission executed in Ireland, and Writs of Superdamea of any such Commission, should be acted on in England, and for that Purpose should be placed on record there: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Person has been or shall be found lunatic or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing his or her Affairs, by any Inquisition on a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatic inquirendo under the Great Seal of Great Britain, it shall be lawful for the proper Officer, by Order of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, intrusted as aforesaid, to transmit a Transcript of the Record of such Inquisition to the Chancery of Ireland, and such Transcript shall thereupon be entered of Record, and be as of Record there; and in case a Writ of Superdamea

So much of recited Acts as authorize the Sale, Mortgage, or other Disposition of Estates of Lunatics in certain Cases, extended in aforesaid Sales, &c. for any Purpose which the Lord Chancellor, &c. shall direct.

The Person whose Estate is so sold shall have the like Interest in the Money raised by such Sale as he would have had in the Estate sold.

Lord Chancellor, &c. to make the necessary Orders.

Inquisitions on Commissions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and Writs of Superdamea, to be assembled at more than four different Towns or Places, then after taking out Three distinct Licences for Three of such Towns or Places, such Person or Persons shall be entitled to have all the rest of such Towns or Places included in a Fourth Licence; and that if any Person or Persons, after having taken out four distinct Licences under the Authority of this Act, shall begin to issue such unstamped Notes as aforesaid at any other Town or Place not named in any of the said Four Licences, it shall not be necessary to include such last-mentioned Town or Place in any Licence until the Twenty-fourth Day of March next following the beginning to issue thereof such Notes as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Licence granted under the Authority of this Act shall specify all the Particulars required by Law to be specified in the Certificate to be taken out by Persons in Ireland issuing Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, and allowed to be re-issued; and every such Licence which shall be granted between the Twenty-fourth Day of March and the Twenty-fifth Day of April in any Year, shall be dated on the Twenty-fifth Day of March; and every such Licence which shall be granted at any other Time, shall be dated on the Day on which the same shall be granted; and every such Licence shall notwithstanding any Alteration which may take place in any Partnership of Persons to whom the same shall be granted have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Twenty-fourth Day of March then next following, both inclusive, and no longer.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Banker or Bankers shall have taken out the Certificate required by Law for issuing Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand in any Town or Place in Ireland, and during the Period for which such Certificate shall have been granted, shall be desirous of taking out a Licence to issue at the same Town or Place unstamped Promissory Notes under the Provision of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, or their Officers, to cancel and allow as spoiled the Stamp upon such Certificate, and in lieu thereof to grant to such Banker or Bankers a Licence under the Authority of this Act; and every such Licence shall, during its Continuance in force, also authorize the re-issuing of all Promissory Notes payable to the Bearer on Demand, which such Banker or Bankers may have previously issued on Paper duly stamped, until the Twenty-fourth Day of March inclusive then next following, provided such Notes may as long be lawfully re-issued.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Banker or Bankers who shall take out a Licence under the Authority of this Act shall issue, under the Authority either of this or any other Act, any unstamped Promissory Notes for Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, such Banker or Bankers shall, as long as he or they shall continue licensed as aforesaid, make and issue on unstamped Paper all his or their Promissory Notes for Payment of Money to the Bearer on Demand, of whatever Amount or Value (not exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds) such Notes may be; and it shall not be lawful for such Banker or Bankers, during the Period aforesaid, to issue, for the first Time, any such Promissory Note as aforesaid on stamped Paper.

XII. And be it further enacted, That before any Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons to issue any unstamped Promissory Notes under the Authority of this Act, such Person or Persons shall give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with a Condition that if such Person or Persons do and shall from time to time enter or cause to be entered, in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose, an Account of all such unstamped Promissory Notes as he or they shall so as aforesaid issue, specifying the Amount or Value thereof respectively, and the several Dates of the issuing thereof, and in like Manner also a similar Account of all such Promissory Notes as, having been issued as aforesaid, shall have been cancelled, and the Dates of the cancelling thereof; and do and shall from time to time, when thereto requested, produce and show such Accounts to and permit the same to be examined and inspected by the said Commissioners of Stamps, or any Officer of Stamps appointed under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners for that Purpose; and also do and shall deliver to the said Commissioners of Stamps Half-yearly (that is to say, within Fourteen Days after the First Day of January and the First Day of July in every Year, a just and true Account in Writing, verified upon the Oaths or Affirmations (which any Justice of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer), to the best of the Knowledge and Belief of such Person or Persons, and of his or their Cashier, Accountant, or Chief Clerk, or of each of them as the said Commissioners shall require, of the Amount or Value of all unstamped Promissory Notes issued under the Provisions of this Act in Circulation, within the Meaning of this Act, on a given Day, that is to say, on Saturday in every Week, for the space of Half a Year prior to the Half-yearly Day immediately preceding the Delivery of such Account, together with the Average Amount or Value of such Promissory Notes as in circulation according to such Account; and also do and shall pay or cause to be paid to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties in Ireland, or to some other Person duly authorized by the Commissioners of Stamps to receive the same, as a Compensation for the Duties which would otherwise have been payable for such Promissory Notes issued as in Circulation during such Half Year, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence for every One hundred Pounds and also for the fractional Part of One hundred Pounds of the said Average Amount or Value of such Notes in Circulation, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and on due Performance thereof such Bond shall be void, but otherwise the same shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every unstamped Promissory Note issued under the Provisions of this Act shall, for the Purpose of Duty, be deemed to be in Circulation from the Day of the issuing to the Day of the cancelling thereof, both Days inclusive, excepting nevertheless the Period during which such Note shall be in the Hands of the Banker or Bankers who first issued the same, or by whom the same shall be expressed to be payable, or, in case of Copartnerships of more than Six Persons, which shall be in the Hands of the Public Officers of such Copartnership.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in every Bond to be given pursuant to the Directions of this Act, the Person or Persons intending to issue any such unstamped Promissory Notes as aforesaid, or such and so many of the said Persons as the Commissioners of Stamps, or their proper Officer in that behalf, shall require, shall be the Obligors; and every such Bond shall be taken to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or in such larger Sums as the said Commissioners of Stamps, or such Officer as aforesaid, may judge to be the probable Amount of the Composition or Duties that will be payable from such Person or Persons under or by virtue of this Act during the Period of One Year; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or such Officer as aforesaid, to fix the Time or Times of Payment of the said Composition or Duties, and to specify the same in the Conditions to every such Bond; and every such Bond may be required to be renewed from time to time, at the Discretion of the said Commissioners, or of such Officer as aforesaid, and as often as the same shall be forfeited, or the Parties to the same, or any of them, shall die, become Bankrupt or Insolvent, or reside in Parts beyond the Seas.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Alienation shall be made in any Copartnership of Persons who shall have given any such Security by Bond as by this Act is directed, whether such Alienation shall be caused by the Death or Retirement of One or more of the Partners of the Firm, or by the Accession of any additional or new Partner or Partners, a fresh Bond shall, within One Calendar Month after any such Alienation, be given by the remaining Partner or Partners, or the Persons composing the new Copartnership, as the Case may be, which Bond shall be taken as a Security for the Duties which may be due and owing or may become due and owing in respect of the unstamped Promissory Notes which shall have been issued by the Persons composing the old Copartnership, and which shall be in Circulation at the Time of such Alienation, as well as for Duties which shall or may be or become due or owing in respect of the unstamped Promissory Notes issued or to be issued by the Persons composing the new Copartnership, provided that no such fresh Bond shall be rendered necessary by any such Alienation as aforesaid in any Copartnership of Persons exceeding Six in Number, but that the Bonds to be given by such last-mentioned Copartnerships shall be taken as Security for all the Duties they may incur so long as they shall exist, or the Persons composing the same or any of them shall carry on Business in Copartnership together, or with any other Person or Persons, notwithstanding any Alienation in such Copartnership; saving always the Power of the said Commissioners of Stamps to require a new Bond in any Case where they shall deem it necessary for better securing the Payment of the said Duties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, who shall have given Security by Bond to His Majesty in the Manner heretofore directed, shall refuse or neglect, for the Space of One Calendar Month, to renew such Bond when forfeited, and as often as the same is by this Act required to be renewed, such Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt or relieve, from the Penalties or Penalties imposed by any Act or Acts now in force upon Persons issuing Promissory Notes not duly stamped as the Law requires, any Person or Persons who, under any Colour or Pretence whatsoever, shall issue any unstamped Promissory Note, unless such Person or Persons shall be duly licensed to issue such Promissory Note under the Provisions of this Act, and such Note shall be drawn and issued in strict Accordance with the Regulations and Restrictions herein contained.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties and Penalties which may be incurred under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall be recovered for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General in Ireland.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice, abate, or affect any of the Rights, Powers, or Privileges of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

XV. * And Whereas it may happen that Bankers who may be desirous to issue unstamped Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, under the Provisions of this Act, may have provided themselves with Stamps for such Notes, which may not have been used, and which may by this Act be rendered useless or unnecessary, and it is expedient to enable the Commissioners of Stamps and their Officers to cancel and allow such Stamps in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That where any Banker or Bankers who shall take out a License under the Authority of this Act shall have in his or their Possession Stamps for re-issuable Promissory Notes payable to the Bearer on Demand, which shall be rendered useless or unnecessary in consequence of such Banker or Bankers desisting to issue such Notes on unstamped Paper under the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps or their Officers, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cancel and allow such Stamps as so aforesaid rendered useless or unnecessary, and to repay the Amount or Value thereof in Money, deducting therefrom the Sum of One Pound Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds, and as so proportion for any greater or less Sum than One hundred Pounds of such Amount or Value, provided Proof be made, by Affidavit or Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that such Stamps have not been issued, and provided Application be made for such Allowance within Six Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act.

Bonds to be given on Alienations of Copartnerships.

Penalty on Bankers refusing to renew their Bonds.

This Act not to exempt from Penalties any Person issuing unstamped Notes not in Accordance herewith.

Penalties law and by whom to be recovered.

Not to affect the Privileges of the Bank of Ireland.

60.6.4.42.

XVI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of Corporations of certain Bankers in Ireland, any Certificate granted by the Commissioners of Stamps in Ireland, to any Society or Corporation of Bankers in Ireland exceeding Six in Number, of the Registry of the Firm and Name of such Society, is liable to the Stamp Duty payable by Law on Certificates to be taken out yearly by any Banker or Bankers in Ireland, that it is to say, a Stamp Duty of Thirty Pounds: And Whereas it is provided by the said recited Act, that a separate and distinct Certificate, with a separate and distinct Stamp, shall be granted for and in respect of every Town or Place where any such Bills or Notes as in the said Act are mentioned shall be issued by any such Society or Corporation: And Whereas it is expedient that no such Society or Corporation should be required to take out more than Four Certificates in any One Year, although it should issue such Bills or Notes as aforesaid at more than Four Towns or Places in Ireland, Be it therefore further enacted, That no Society or Corporation of Bankers in Ireland exceeding Six in Number, and carrying on the Trade or Business of Bankers under the Authority of the said recited Act, shall be obliged to take out more than Four Certificates in any One Year of the Entry and Registry of the Firm or Name of such Society or Corporation; and in case any such Society or Corporation shall issue such Bills or Notes as aforesaid, by themselves or their Agents, or more than Four different Towns or Places in Ireland, then after taking out Three distinct Certificates for Three of such Towns or Places, such Society or Corporation shall be entitled to have all the Remainder of such Towns or Places included in a Fourth Certificate; any thing in the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Society or Corporation of Bankers shall be obliged to take out more than Four Certificates in One Year.

Certificates to residents in Every notwithstanding any fresh Registry.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Certificate which hath been or shall at any Time hereafter be taken out by any such last-mentioned Society or Corporation as aforesaid, shall continue in force, for the issuing of such Bills and Notes as aforesaid at the Town or Place or the several Towns or Places therein named, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March next following the Date of such Certificate, notwithstanding any fresh Entry or Registry of the Name or Firm of such Society or Corporation; and that if any fresh Entry or Registry shall be made from any Cause whatever, after any such Society or Corporation shall have taken out Four such distinct Certificates as aforesaid, such Society or Corporation shall not be required to take out any further Certificate, in respect of any Town or Place not included in any of such Four Certificates, until the Twenty-fourth Day of March next following such fresh Entry or Registry.

Act may be altered.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. LXXXI.

An Act for making Promissory Notes payable, issued by Banks, Banking Companies, or Bankers, in Ireland, at the Places where they are issued. [23^d July 1828.]

WHEREAS divers Banks, Banking Companies, and Bankers, in Ireland, have made and issued Promissory Notes, without making the same payable in Cash at the Banks or the several Places respectively where such Notes have been issued or re-issued: And whereas it is expedient that in future all such Promissory Notes, and all Bank Post Bills, issued by such Banks, Banking Companies, or Bankers, should be made payable at the Places where the same shall be issued or re-issued: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, no Bank, Banking Company, or Banker, in Ireland, shall, by themselves, or by any Agent or Agents, Partner or Partners, or other Person or Persons whomsoever as their or his Belial, or on their or his Account, make, issue, or re-issue, in any Place in Ireland where such Bank, Banking Company, or Banker shall have any House or Establishment for Business, or any authorized resident Agent or Agents, any Promissory Note or Bank Post Bill of any Description whatsoever, being as purporting to be the Note or Notes, Bank Post Bill or Bank Post Bills of the Bank, Banking Company, or Banker, making, issuing, or re-issuing the same, which shall not be payable at the Places respectively where the same shall be made, issued, or re-issued by or on behalf of such Bank, Banking Company, or Banker; and in every such Note the Place where the same shall have been issued or re-issued shall be expressly mentioned: Provided nevertheless, that if any such Promissory Note or Bank Post Bill shall be issued as re-issued contrary to the Provision of this Act, the same shall nevertheless not only be valid against the Bank, Banking Company, or Banker issuing or re-issuing the same by any of the Ways or Means aforesaid, but such Bank, Banking Company, or Banker shall be liable and bound to pay, in the lawful Cure of the Receiver, double the Amount of the Sum specified in such Note or Bank Post Bill, (as he used for and recovered by the Holder thereof in any of His Majesty's Courts for the Recovery of Debts in Ireland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information,) either at the Place where the same shall have been issued or re-issued by or on behalf of such Bank, Banking Company, or Banker, or at any other Place where such Bank, Banking Company, or Banker shall have any House or Establishment for Business, notwithstanding such Note or Bank Post Bill shall not be expressed to be so payable, or shall be so expressed to be otherwise payable: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any such Promissory Note or Bank Post Bill from being made payable at several Places, if One of such Places shall be the Bank or Place where the same shall be so issued as aforesaid.

No Banker in Ireland to issue Notes which shall not express to be payable at the Place where issued.

Notes issued contrary herein shall be null against the Party issuing, who shall also be liable to double the Amount.

Not to prevent Notes being made payable at several Places.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act to make Provision for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of Cities, Towns Corporate, and Market Towns, in Ireland, in certain Cases. [25th July 1828.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act for amending, extending, and amending several temporary Statutes, and for empowering the Grand Jury of the County of Kilkenny, at the Assizes, to increase the yearly Salary of the Treasurer of the said County, certain Provisions were made with respect to the lighting and cleansing of Cities, for the lighting and cleansing of which no particular Provision was made by any Acts of Parliament then in force: And Whereas the said Provisions were amended by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for amending the Laws relative to the lighting and cleansing of several Cities, and for establishing of Market Juris therein, and for other Purposes: And Whereas the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, so far as the same relates to the lighting and cleansing of the said Cities, was further amended and continued by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intitled An Act for amending, extending, and amending several temporary Statutes: And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend several Acts heretofore passed for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of Cities, Towns Corporate, and Market Towns, the Regulations and Powers of the said heretofore recited Acts were extended to Towns Corporate and Market Towns, not being Cities: And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Forty-seventh Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, so much and such Parts of the said heretofore recited Acts as relate to the lighting, cleansing, and watching of any Cities, Towns Corporate, or Market Towns, in Ireland, for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of which no particular Provision is made by any Act of Parliament in force in Ireland, were continued for Twenty-one Years: and by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, so much and such Parts as aforesaid of the said several recited Acts are continued for One Year, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, unless Provision shall in the meantime be made by Parliament for the Renewal of the said Acts, or of any of them: And Whereas the Provisions so made have not answered the good Purposes thereby intended, and it would greatly tend to the Improvement, good Order, and Security, and much promote the Trade and Prosperity, of the several Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs, Market Towns, and other Towns throughout Ireland, if effectual Provisions were established for the Purposes aforesaid, in lieu of the Provisions contained in the said recited Acts, and also for the Purpose of paying such Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs, and Market Towns, and for such Purposes as are hereinafter mentioned: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much and such Parts of the said several heretofore recited Acts, or any of them, as relate to the lighting, cleansing, and watching of any Cities, Towns Corporate, or Market Towns, in Ireland, for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of which no particular Provision is made by any Act of Parliament in force in Ireland, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.*

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, upon the Application of Twenty-one or more Householdors residing in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town, in Ireland, the lighting, watching, cleansing, or paving of which is not provided for by or under any Act of Parliament, each of such Householdors occupying a Dwelling House or other Tenement of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds or more, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to authorize the carrying this Act into Execution, and for that Purpose to order and direct that the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of any such City, Town Corporate, or Borough, or any Two or more Justices of the Peace resident within Ten Miles of any such Borough or Market Town, or other Town, not being a Town Corporate, shall convene a Meeting for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution, and shall preside therein; such Orders and Directions to be supplied by the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary; and a Copy of such Orders and Directions, with the Names of the Parties signing the Application for the same, shall be inserted, under the Direction of each Chief Secretary, in the Dublin Gazette, and in some One or more public Newspaper or Newspapers published in such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town, if any be therein published, and if none be therein published, then and in such Case in the Newspaper published nearest to such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town.

III. And be it further enacted, That such Meeting shall be holden at some convenient Place within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town, and that the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices, as the Case may be, shall, within Ten Days after the Receipt of such Orders and Directions as aforesaid, appoint and certify a Time and Place for the said Meeting: and that the Time appointed for holding the said Meeting shall not be less than Ten Days and not more than Twenty-one Days from the Time of the first Notification of the same; and that such Notification shall be made by affixing a Notice on the principal outer Door or Doors of any and every Parish Church situate within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town or other Town, and also on the principal Market House or Place where Markets are usually holden in the same, and also on the Guild-

And be it further enacted, That at any Meeting convened as herebefore directed, every Person who shall reside within the City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town where such Meeting shall be hold, and who shall have been assessed or charged by the last Rate made at Vestry in the Parish wherein such Person shall dwell, for or in respect of a Dwelling House or other Tenement of the computed annual Value, according to the said Rate, of Five Pounds or more, shall be admitted and entitled to vote, and no other Person whatsoever; and that whenever it shall happen that the Limits of any Town may not be defined, every Person shall be admitted to vote who, being assessed as aforesaid, shall reside within the Distance of One English Mile from the principal Market House of such Town, if any there be, and if none, then within the Distance of One such Mile from the Yonge or Boundary of the Place where the principal Market of such Town is usually held.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when any Person shall have become liable to be rated in any such Parish at any Time after the making of the last preceding Rate, and shall consent to be rated in like Manner as if he had been actually rated for the same, such Person shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to vote as if he had been actually rated; and that every Person residing in any Extra-parochial Part or Place, and occupying therein a Dwelling House or Tenement of the annual Value of Five Pounds or more, shall be entitled to vote, although not charged in any Parochial Rate to the same; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Person who shall have refused or neglected to pay any Rate duly imposed at Vestry as aforesaid, and which shall have been demanded from him, shall be entitled to vote or to be present at such Meeting called as has been heretofore directed, until he shall have paid and satisfied such Rate.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Controversy shall arise at any such Meeting, as to the Qualification or Right of voting, or Eligibility of any Person claiming to vote or to be qualified or eligible, such Controversy shall be determined by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices, as the Case may be, presiding at such Meeting.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor, Chief Magistrate, or Justices (as the Case may be) or whom such Orders or Directions shall be given as aforesaid, shall preside at any Meeting assembled as heretofore directed, and shall read or cause to be read the Regulations whereupon he or they have constituted such Meeting, and shall require the Persons assembled thereat to determine, by Plurality of Votes, whether the Provisions of this Act, as hereinafter set forth, for the several Purposes of lighting, watching, cleaning, paving, and the other Purposes of the same, shall or shall not be adopted and acted upon within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, and the Liberties and Suburbs thereof, or any Part of such Liberties and Suburbs.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if such Meeting shall determine against adopting the said Provisions, such Meeting shall adjourn over Day, and it shall not be competent for any Householders within the same City, Borough, or Town to make any such Application as has been heretofore described, nor shall any such Orders and Directions as have been described here for concerning a like Meeting within the same City, Borough, or Town, for and during the Term of Three Years, computed from the Time of Adjournment aforesaid; and at and after the Completion of such Term it shall become again competent to make such Applications, and thereon to issue such Orders and Directions as aforesaid; provided that if at any Time after the Completion of such Term of Three Years a Second Application should be made, and such Orders and Directions a Second Time issued, and a Meeting thereupon convened, and that such Second Meeting should in like Manner determine against adopting the Provisions of this Act, such Meeting shall adjourn over Day, and it shall not be lawful to make such Application as has been heretofore described, nor thereupon make such Orders and Directions, for and during another Term of Three Years, to be computed from the Time of Adjournment of such Second Meeting, and so for ever until further notice; it being hereby intended, and it is hereby enacted, that no such Application shall be made, nor such Orders and Directions issued, nor Meeting thereupon convened, as has been heretofore described, within any such City, Borough, or Town for and during the Space of Three Years from the Time of the Adjournment of any former Meeting of the like Nature, such former Meeting having determined against the Adoption of the Provisions of this Act. Provided also, that upon the Completion of such Term of Three Years from any such Adjournment, the Powers, Ability, Compensatory, Authority, and Duties by this Act created or conferred, for the Purpose of bringing the Provisions of this Act into Operation within any such City, Borough, or Town, shall revert and be restored, and be of the same Force, Effect, Validity, and Obligation, as if no former Meeting had been at any Time convened.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any such Meeting convened as aforesaid should determine against adopting the Provisions of this Act for all and every the Purposes of the same, it shall and may be lawful for any Person entitled to vote at any such Meeting as aforesaid to propose the Adoption of the Provisions of this Act for any One or more of such Purposes, and if such Meeting should determine to adopt such Provisions for any One or more of the said Purposes, then and in such Case the Provisions of this Act shall be valid and effectual to accomplish, and shall and may be applied to, and all the Powers

by this Act conferred upon any Person or Persons shall extend to accomplish the Purpose or Purposes comprised in the Resolution of such Meeting only, as if any other Purpose or Purposes had not been mentioned in this Act: Provided also, that the Provisions of this Act, with regard to any Purpose or Purposes omitted or excepted out of such Resolution, may be proposed for Adoption and brought into Operation in the Manner before appointed, and subject to the like Provisions and Regulations appointed for bringing this Act into Operation generally.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if at any such Meeting it shall be determined that the Provisions of this Act shall be adopted for all or any of the Purposes of this Act, then and in such Case it shall forthwith be determined at such Meeting, that a Number of Commissioners, not being less than Nine nor more than Twenty-one, shall be elected to carry such Purposes into Effect, and upon such Determination such Number of Commissioners shall be elected in manner hereinafter mentioned; and every Person who shall reside within such City, Borough, or Town, and who shall have been initiated or charged by the last Rate made at Vestry in the Parish wherein such Person shall dwell, for or in respect of a Dwelling House or other Tenement of the computed annual Value, according to the said Rate, of Twenty Pounds or more, shall be eligible to be elected a Commissioner for the Purposes of this Act; provided nevertheless, that in the Case of any Town the Limits of which may not be defined, every Person assumed as aforesaid, who shall reside within One Third Mile of the principal Market House of such Town, if any there be, and if none, then within One sixth Mile of the Edge or Boundary of the Place where the principal Market of such Town is usually held, shall be eligible as aforesaid; and that every Person residing in any Extra-parochial Part or Place, occupying therein a Dwelling House or other Tenement of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds or more, although not charged in any Parochial Rate for the same, shall also be eligible as aforesaid; and provided further, that the Mayor, Chief Magistrate, or Justices presiding at such First Meeting and Election, shall not be eligible to be elected thereof, but shall and may be eligible at any subsequent Election under this Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners shall be elected in manner following; that is to say, such Candidates shall be proposed at the said Meeting by some Person duly qualified to vote thereon, and shall be seconded by some other Person in like Manner qualified, and if more Candidates than the Number of Commissioners required shall be proposed, and that a Poll shall be demanded by any Ten Persons qualified to vote on behalf of any of such Candidates, then the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices presiding, as the Case may be, shall adjourn the said Meeting until Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon of the Day next succeeding, unless such Day shall be Sunday, and in that Case to the Monday following, and shall at such Time and at the same Place open and proceed with such Poll, and in a Book or Books prepared for that Purpose, which Book or Books he or they is and are hereby required previously to prepare, enter or cause to be entered the Names of all such Candidates, and the Name of every Person duly qualified to be present and vote, who shall desire to vote, together with his Description and Abode, and shall register the Vote of every such Person for every, or any such Candidate as every such Person may respectively require; and if the Votes of all the Persons duly qualified and desirous to vote cannot be conveniently collected and registered by Four of the Clock of the same Day upon which the said Poll shall have been commenced, then the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices, as the Case may be, shall adjourn such Poll to the Day next succeeding, unless such Day shall be Sunday, and in that Case to the Monday following, and if such Second Day shall likewise prove insufficient, shall adjourn to the Day next succeeding, unless such Day shall be Sunday, and in that Case to the Monday following, and so proceeded, de Die in Diem, to collect and register the Votes of all Persons duly qualified and applying to vote; and on each Day to which an Adjournment shall be made, the Poll shall open at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and close at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; provided nevertheless, that the Poll shall finally close as soon as all the Persons duly qualified and desirous to vote shall have voted, or after the Lapse of One Hour without any Person offering to vote; and as soon after the Close of the Poll as may be possible, the Result thereof shall be proclaimed at the Place where the Election may have been held; and such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices, as the Case may be, shall forthwith, by public Advertisement, and by Notice to be given in manner hereinafter directed for convening the First Meeting, appoint and notify a Time and Place wherein the Persons so elected Commissioners as aforesaid shall assemble, and the Names of the Persons so elected shall, together with the Number of Votes given for each of them respectively, be set forth in such Notice, and the Time appointed for the assembling of such Persons as elected as aforesaid shall be not less than Seven Days, and not more than Fourteen Days, from the Date of such Notification; and the said Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justices, as the Case may be, shall, out of the First Monies raised by virtue of the Assessment hereinafter directed to be made, be reimbursed all such reasonable Charges and Expenses as may be incurred in providing Clerks and Books, and otherwise in the Performance of the Duties hereby prescribed to them, and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to make such Reimbursement of such Monies accordingly; provided that in case the said Meeting shall determine against the Adoption of this Act for all or any of the Purposes of the same, the said Mayor, Chief Magistrate, or Justices shall be reimbursed all such Charges and Expenses incurred as aforesaid by and out of the Funds applicable to such general Purposes, under the Direction of the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, and the said Chief Secretary is hereby empowered and required to direct such Reimbursement accordingly.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That over and above the Number of Commissioners appointed to be elected in any City or Town Corporation, the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of such City or Town Corporation

Case the Act is to be applied to each Purpose only, but may be afterwards extended to the Purposes omitted or excepted.

If Meeting determine to proceed in the execution of this Act, Commissioners shall be elected from Residents rated as 20s. a Year.

persons for the Time being, if not elected, to be a Commissioner by virtue of this Act, shall and may by virtue of his Office be one of such Commissioners, and shall and may attend and vote at all Meetings of the Commissioners; but such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate, if not elected to be a Commissioner, shall not be eligible to be Chairman of such Commissioners, nor shall he, unless elected as aforesaid, be subject or liable to any Fines or Penalties by reason of Nonattendance at any Meeting of the Commissioners, or to become disqualified or vacate his Place by reason of Absence from such Meetings for any Period; provided that in all Cases where in this Act Mention may be made of a certain Quorum or Proportion of the entire Number of Commissioners, as required to do or perform certain Acts and Functions, such Mayor or Chief Magistrate, although not elected to be a Commissioner, shall and may when present be reckoned for such special Purpose among the Persons making up the required Proportion of the whole Number of Commissioners.

Office on the 31st of July, at the End of every Three Years, but may be re-elected.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall be first elected Commissioners in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Town, at the First Meeting held under the Provisions of this Act, shall go out of Office on the Thirty-first Day of July in the Third Year from the said First Election, and in place of such Commissioners so going out of Office a like Number of other Commissioners, to be elected as hereinafter provided, shall come into Office, and remain in Office for a Term of Three Years, and at the Expiration of such last-mentioned Term of Three Years shall in the Manner go out of Office, and be succeeded by other Commissioners, who shall remain in Office for a like Term of Three Years, and so on for ever; Provided always, that any of such out-going Commissioners, except the Chairman of the said Commissioners who shall hold and preside at the Election of Commissioners as hereinafter directed, shall be re-eligible and may be re-elected, and shall in such Case continue to act and remain in Office; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That at all Meetings for the Election of Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, which shall be held subsequent to the First Election of Commissioners, saving and excepting the Elections hereinafter appointed to be made by the surviving or remaining Commissioners, in any City, Borough, or Town, every Person shall be admitted and entitled to vote who shall occupy, and who for Twelve Months then next previous shall have occupied, within such City, Borough, or Town, or the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, to which, as determined by the Commissioners for such City, Borough, or Town, in virtue of the Duresson hereinafter vested in them, the Purposes of this Act shall extend or be extended, a Dwelling House of the annual Value of Five Pounds at the least, and some other Person whatsoever, and the Registry hereinafter directed to be made shall be conclusive Evidence of the afore-mentioned Qualification; and the Chairman of the Commissioners for the Time being for the Execution of this Act shall, previous to the First Monday in July in the Year in which such Election shall take place, give due Notice, in manner by this Act required with respect to the First Meeting to be held under this Act, that a Meeting will be held on such First Monday in July for the Election of Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for the Three Years next succeeding; and such Chairman shall at and in such Meeting proceed in such Manner as the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justice presiding at the First Meeting to be held under this Act are hereinafter directed to proceed in the Election of the Commissioners to be first appointed for the Execution of this Act, and shall decide all Questions which may arise as to the Eligibility or Qualification of any Persons whatsoever, and as to all other Matters whatsoever connected with the said Election, and shall certify the Result of the same to the Commissioners for the Time being for the Execution of this Act in such City, Borough, or Town as aforesaid, where such Election shall be made.

any casual Vacancy, the Chairman shall, within Fourteen Days, call a Meeting of the Commissioners to supply such Vacancy.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Commissioner shall die, or become disqualified by Change of Residence or otherwise, or shall refuse or neglect to act, and in case of any casual Vacancy happening in any Manner whatever, it shall be lawful for the Chairman of the Commissioners for the Time being, and he is hereby required, within Fourteen Days next after a Vacancy shall so happen, to issue a Summons for an extraordinary Meeting of the surviving or remaining Commissioners, for the Purpose of electing a new Commissioner to supply such Vacancy, such Summons to be served on the said surviving or remaining Commissioners personally, or left at their respective Dwelling Houses; and the Time appointed for such extraordinary Meeting shall be not less than Seven and not more than Fourteen Days from the Date and Issuing of such Summons; and at such Meeting it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to elect a proper Person to be a Commissioner in the Room of the Person who shall have ceased to be such Commissioner as aforesaid; provided always, that until such casual Vacancy or Vacancies shall be supplied, the remaining Commissioners shall, notwithstanding any such Vacancy or Vacancies, be fully competent to do all Acts and Things which by this Act such Commissioners are authorized, empowered, or required to do; and the Commissioner elected upon any such casual Vacancy shall, shall, on coming into Office, occupy the Place of the Person in the Room of whom he shall have been elected, and remain in Office for the Balance of the Term during which the said Senior Commissioner might or would have remained in Office if such Vacancy had not occurred.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if such Chairmen of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act for the Time being shall neglect or refuse at such Time as has been heretofore appointed for the Election of new Commissioners, or be being thereto required by any Person included in the Registry heretofore directed to be made shall neglect or refuse, upon the Occurrence of any Vacancy among the Commissioners, occasioned by Death, Disqualification, or any other Cause whatsoever as hereinafter is provided, to notify the same, and to convene a Meeting for the Election of a new Commissioner or Commissioners, as the Case may be, and thereat and thereupon to proceed as herein directed, such Chairmen shall cease to be a Chairman or Commissioners, and shall forfeit to any Person, being a Householder in the same City, Borough, or Town, who shall sue for the same, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, such Sum to be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plein, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin, wherein respectively no Design, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparance, shall be allowed; provided that no such Sum be recovered, unless some Prosecution, Action, or Suit for Recovery of the same be commenced within Six Calendar Months after such Forfeiture shall have been incurred; and upon such Default of such Chairmen, the senior Commissioner (such Seniority to be determined by Priority of Election) shall convene such Meeting, and shall proceed to make and certify such Election, and shall convene such Meeting upon some Day not less than Seven Days and not more than Fourteen Days from the Expiration of the Time limited and appointed for the convening of such Meeting by such Chairmen, and shall notify the same and proceed thereat as the said Chairmen ought to have done, and the Election so made and held shall be to all Intent and Purpose a good and valid Election, as if made by the said Chairmen in conformity to this Act; and in Default of such senior Commissioner, the Commissioner next in Seniority shall convene such Meeting, and so on, the Duty and Competency to call such Meeting devolving upon each Commissioner successively on Default of the next senior Commissioner; and each individual Commissioner shall by his Default incur the like Disqualification and Forfeiture, to be recovered in the like Manner, as was incurred by the Chairmen upon his Default.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, at any Election subsequent to the First Election held pursuant to this Act, be eligible to be elected a Commissioner for any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, unless he shall occupy, and shall for Twelve Months next previous here occupied, an House of the clear annual Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards, situate within the same City, Borough, or Town, or the Suburbs or Liberties thereof, to which, as determined by the said Commissioners pursuant to the Power heretofore vested in them, the Purpose of this Act shall extend or be extended, and the Registry heretofore directed to be made shall be conclusive Evidence of the above-mentioned Qualification.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person duly elected to be a Commissioner under this Act shall refuse or neglect to attend some One of the Three first Meetings of Commissioners which shall be held immediately subsequent to his Election, and thence to take the Oath or make the Affirmation by this Act appointed to be taken or made by Commissioners, the Appointment of every such Person so refusing or neglecting shall become void, and his Place or Office shall be declared vacant, unless it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the other Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act in the same City or Place, that such Person was prevented from attending by some illness or other sufficient Cause, to be allowed by the Majority of such Commissioners present at any such Meeting; and if any Commissioner shall absent himself from the Meetings of the Commissioners for Six Calendar Months, the Clerk of the said Commissioners shall, in the first Summons or Notice of Meeting issued after the Expiration of such Six Calendar Months, insert a Notification to that Effect; and if such Person shall fail to attend the Meeting of Commissioners required to be holden by such Summons or Notice, he shall be deemed to have neglected to act as a Commissioner, and his Place shall be declared vacant, unless in the Case of illness or other sufficient Cause to be shown to and allowed by the Commissioners at the Meeting for which such Notice shall have been given: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for a Majority of the Commissioners to dispense with the Attendance of any One or more such Commissioners, not exceeding One Fourth Part of the whole Number of Commissioners, for more than Three Meetings, or for any Period of Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, in case of the necessary and bona fide Absence from Home of any such Commissioner or Commissioners respectively, but not in any other Case.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being for the Execution of this Act in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, under this Act, and they are hereby authorised, empowered, and required, to determine the Limits of such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, respectively, and of the Suburbs and Liberties thereof respectively, to which the Purpose of this Act shall extend; and to cause to be kept, and from time to time with all Diligence and Care, and upon reasonable Requests at all Times, to revise and amend a Registry of all the Householders resident within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Limits of the Suburbs and Liberties thereof respectively determined by such Commissioners as aforesaid, and occupying Houses of the annual Value of Five Pounds or upwards; and such Registry shall distinguish such of the said Householders as shall occupy Houses of the annual Value of Twenty Pounds or upwards, their Descriptions and Abodes; and such Commissioners shall Chairmen neglecting or refusing to do so, to forfeit 100*l*.

Upon such Default, Commissioners, according to their Seniority, employed to act, under the like Priority as the Chairmen—

Commissioners shall be disqualified of 20*l*. a Year.

Commissioners neglecting to attend Three first Meetings, or the Six Meetings, his Place shall be declared vacant, unless in case of illness, &c.

Commissioners shall define Limits of the respective Cities and Towns, and make out a Registry of Persons occupying Houses of 5*l*. per Annum or upwards, who shall shall cause a Ticket containing an Extract from such Registry to be prepared and delivered to every Person so registered who shall demand the same, and such Ticket shall be subscribed by the Chairman of the Commissioners and by the Clerk of the said Commissioners for the Time being; and no Person shall be admitted to vote at any Election, except the first Election held pursuant to this Act, unless such Person shall exhibit such Tickets at the Time of voting, if required so to do; and it shall be lawful for such Commissioners at their Discretion to take Measures to preclude the Admission of any Persons not provided with Tickets into the Place of Meeting.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That any Person exhibiting a forged Ticket, or personating the true Party named therein, or fraudulently procuring his Vote to be registered without having a Ticket, well knowing himself to be without a due Qualification, and who shall be thereof convicted before any One Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Offences may be committed, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and in default of Payment, shall and may be committed to the next Goal or Bridewell within such Jurisdiction, there to be kept to hard Labour for Six Calendar Months.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for executing this Act in any City, Town, Borough, or Place, shall meet on the First Monday in every Month, at Noon, at some convenient Place or Office previously publicly notified; and at such monthly Meeting it shall be lawful for any Householder residing within any such City, Town, Borough, or Place, or the Liberties or Suburbs thereof, to which the Purposes of this Act may be extended, to appear and prefer any Matter of Complaint which he may think proper, concerning any Matter or Thing done by force or in pursuance of or under Pretence of the Purvisions of this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners shall attend such monthly Meetings in Rotation, not less than One Third of the whole Number of such Commissioners attending at such Meeting; but it shall be lawful for any Commissioner to attend and vote at such monthly Meetings, if he thinks proper so to do, although it be not his Turn to attend; and if any Commissioner whose Turn it shall be to attend, shall fail to attend or to procure some other Commissioner to attend at his meet, such Commissioner so making Default shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be paid to the Treasurer or Clerk of the Commissioners; and if any such Commissioner shall fail or refuse to pay such Fine or Penalty within Ten Days after the same shall be demanded of him personally by the said Treasurer or Clerk, he shall thereupon cease to be and shall be disqualified from acting as such Commissioner, provided always, that in case of Sickness or other unavoidable Absence, such Fine or Penalty may be remitted at any Meeting of such Commissioners.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners shall meet at all other Times and so often as at any previous Meeting shall be determined upon; and it shall be at all Times competent for not less than One Third of the whole Number of such Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands, to require the Clerk of such Commissioners to summon the Commissioners for any special Purpose therein named, and for each Time as shall be therein named, subject to such Restrictions as is hereinafter provided; and that at all Meetings of such Commissioners any Number not less than One Third of the whole Number of such Commissioners shall constitute a Quorum for transacting Business, except upon such Occasions as are otherwise specially provided for by this Act; and the Chairman shall have a casting Voice, but shall not be allowed to vote unless the Commissioners present be equally divided.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all such Commissioners shall be summoned to every Meeting by Summons delivered to them personally or left at their respective Dwelling Houses at least Forty-eight Hours before the Time of Meeting, such Summons specifying the Business to be transacted at such Meeting as settled on the last preceding Meeting, or in case of a Special Meeting, as named by the Commissioners calling the same, and if any Matter other than that plainly and distinctly set out in such Summons shall be determined at any Meeting, such Determination may be rescinded at any subsequent Meeting, due Notice to that Effect being first given in the Summons concerning such subsequent Meetings: Provided, that the Minutes of any Meeting upon a Matter duly set out in the Summons concerning such Meeting shall be final, unless rescinded by a Majority of the whole Number of Commissioners at a Meeting of such Commissioners.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners first elected in any City, Town, Corporate, Borough, Market Town, or other Town, shall assemble at such Time and Place as shall have been appointed and notified by the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justice, in the Case may be, presiding at the Meeting for the Election of such Commissioners, and at such Time and Place such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justice, as the Case may be, shall attend; and it shall be lawful for each Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Justice, or either of them, and he and they in and are hereby authorised and required, to administer to any and every of the Persons elected Commissioners who shall be present at such Meeting, and every such Commissioner shall make and take and subscribe, an Oath to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

“ I, A. B. do swear, That I am duly qualified to act as a Commissioner under an Act made in the Ninth Year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act (here set forth the Title of this Act), and that I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly execute the Powers and Trusts reposed in me as a Commissioner appointed by virtue of the said Act, to the best of my Knowledge and Ability, for the Purpose in the said Act mentioned.”

“ So help me GOD.”

And if any Person elected a Commissioner shall be a Quaker, the solemn Affirmation of such Person to the

the above Oath shall be received instead of his Oath; and all Persons elected Commissioners, who shall not be present at such first Meeting, or who shall be elected Commissioners at any subsequent Election, shall take such Oath (or, if Quakers, make such Affirmation) at a Meeting of the Commissioners for the Time being, and any One of such Commissioners is hereby authorized to administer such Oath in the Presence of the other Commissioners at such Meeting; and the Form of such Oath or Affirmation shall be entered by the Clerk in a Book to be prepared for the Minutes of the Proceedings of the said Commissioners, and shall be subscribed in such Book by every Commissioner making or taking the same, and such Entry shall, upon Oath of any subscribing Commissioner, be received as conclusive Evidence that such Oath or Affirmation was duly taken or made; and if any Person at any Time elected a Commissioner shall vote, or shall do any other Act or Thing as a Commissioner under this Act, without having previously taken such Oath, or made such Affirmation, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person being a Householder within the same City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs and Liberties aforesaid, who shall sue for the same.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That immediately after taking such Oath, or making such Affirmation, the Commissioners first elected in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town or other Town, under this Act, shall proceed to elect, by Majority of Votes, One of such Commissioners to be their Chairman, who shall go out of Office on the Thirty-first Day of July next ensuing; and that on the First Day of August in every Year, the Commissioners for the Time being shall elect a Chairman for the ensuing Year, and in case any Chairman so appointed shall decline to act as Chairman, or shall die or become disqualified, or shall neglect or refuse to act as a Commissioner, or otherwise vacate his Place, a new Chairman shall be in like Manner elected to serve for the Residue of the Year for which such former Chairman was elected, and the Chairman for the Time being shall preside at all Meetings of the Commissioners at which he shall be present; and in case of Absence, such Chairman may constitute and appoint a Deputy Chairman, or if no such Deputy shall be appointed, the Commissioners present shall appoint One of their Number present at any such Meeting to act as a Chairman.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners elected in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, under this Act for the Time being, and they are hereby authorized and required to appoint, during Pleasure, such Treasurer and Clerk, and Collector or Collectors, and other inferior Servants, as they shall think necessary for effectuating the Purposes of this Act, and to hire and rent a sufficient Office or House or Houses for holding their Meetings and transacting their Business, and also to appoint suitable Salaries, Wages, and Allowances to and for such Treasurer, Clerk, Collector or Collectors, and other inferior Servants, and also to agree for a reasonable Rent for such Office or House or Houses, and to pay such Salaries, Wages, and Allowances, and such Rent, out of any Monies raised or levied by such Commissioners under the Authority of this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the said Commissioners shall not be capable of being the Treasurer or Collector under such Commissioners; and that it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to take and require from each and every of such Treasurer and Collectors a Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned for the punctual and faithful Discharge of their respective Trusts, in such penal Sum as such Commissioners shall think fit and proper, according to the Amount of Money to be received by such Treasurer or Collectors respectively; and if it shall appear that such Commissioners have taken such Bond from such Treasurer and Collectors to a sufficient Amount, and have, to the best of their Ability, ascertained the Solvency and Solvency of such Treasurer and Collectors, and of their respective Sureties, and that such Commissioners have, without Covin or Falsity, provided so far as in them lay for the safe and secure keeping of such Monies and Funds by the said Treasurer and Collectors, such Commissioners shall not be liable to make good the Amount of any Defalcation or Embezzlement on the Part of such Treasurer or Collectors: Provided always, that such Commissioners shall, and each of them shall, otherwise be liable to make good the Amount of any Defalcation or Embezzlement in or of any Monies and Funds raised or accruing under this Act, so if the same had actually been received by the Hands of the said Commissioners and each of them, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Collector shall from time to time, to such Commissioners any direct, and at all Times, or soon as his Receipts shall amount to One hundred Pounds, pay over to such Treasurer all Monies levied or collected by such Collector under or by virtue of this Act; and the Treasurer for the Time being, and none other Person whatsoever, shall have Power or Authority to receive such Monies from such Collector; and no Commissioner shall receive or meddle with any Monies levied or collected under this Act; and all Payments and Disbursements shall be made by the Hands of the Treasurer, and only upon an Order in Writing, subscribed by the Chairman and countersigned by the Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time being, or upon an Order issued pursuant to a Resolution of a Meeting of Commissioners, and expressed to be so issued, and subscribed by the Person who presided at such Meeting and by the said Clerk, provided that no Order for the Payment of any Sum exceeding Fifty Pounds shall be good, unless issued pursuant to a Resolution adopted at a Meeting whereat not less than Two Thirds of the whole Number of Commissioners shall attend; and any Order duly expressed and authorized as hereinbefore directed shall be in the Hands of the said Treasurer a good and sufficient Warrant for any Payment made pursuant thereto, and shall be as good as an Acquittance and Discharge of such Treasurer.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That at any Meeting of such Commissioners any Treasurer, Clerk, Officer, or Servant may be dismissed or fined for Negligence or other Misconduct, upon the Complaint of any Householder or on the Relation of any Commissioner; and in case of the Dismissal of any such Officer, he shall only be entitled to a reasonable Proportion of his Salary, Wages, or Allowance, and any Fine imposed upon him shall and may be deducted thereout; and the Salary, Wages, or Allowance of any Collector appointed under this Act shall not in the whole amount to a Sum exceeding Sixpence in the Pound on the Sum collected by such Collector.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners shall cause a Book or Books to be kept, wherein shall be entered an Account of all Monies raised or levied and paid under this Act, distinguishing the Sums raised on and levied and paid by each Individual; and also an Account of all Fines and Forfeitures imposed under this Act, with a Note of the Offence whereby incurred; and also an Account of all the Salaries, Wages, Allowance, and Emoluments of the Treasurer, Clerk, Collector or Collectors, and other Officers or Servants; and also of all Disbursements made, and all Charges incurred, of what Kind soever, each Item being distinguished, in effectuating the Purpose of this Act; and the Account in such Book or Books shall be regularly balanced up to the Thirty-first Day of July in each Year, and a Copy of the same shall be made out and printed, and delivered to each of the Commissioners, and also to any Person subject to any Assessment under this Act, who shall demand the same, paying for such Copy the reasonable Charge of printing the same.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners shall cause their Clerk to keep a Book or Books, in which shall be entered Minutes of all their Proceedings and Transactions; and the Chairman at each Meeting shall see the Entry of the Proceedings thereof duly made, and shall subscribe the same with his Hand, and the Names of the said Commissioners present at every Meeting shall be entered; and every Book containing such Entries shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of every Person subject to Assessment under this Act, and it shall be lawful for any such Person to peruse and to make any Extract Out of any such Book without Fee or Reward.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners first elected in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, under this Act, shall immediately on their entering into Office appoint a proper Person or Persons, who shall proceed with all Diligence to make a Survey, with an Estimate and a Valuation of the full improved yearly Value of all Houses, Shops, Warehouses, Cellars, Mills, Yards, Gardens, and Tenements situate within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, and the Suburbs or Liberties thereof, to which the Provisions of this Act shall be applied and extended; and such Estimate and Valuation shall be laid before and delivered to such Commissioners, and shall be verified upon the Oath or Affirmation of the Person or Persons making the same before such Commissioners, which Oath or Affirmation the Chairman of such Commissioners is lawfully authorized and required to administer; and such Commissioners shall forthwith cause One or more true Copies of such Estimate and Valuation to be prepared, and shall appoint some One or more convenient Place or Places within such City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town or other Town, or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof as aforesaid, wherein such Estimate or a Copy or Copies thereof shall be for Ten successive Days (Sundays not included in such Computations), and between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon of each Day, open to the Inspection and Examination of every Person subject to any Assessment under this Act; and such Place or Places, and such Period, appointed for the Inspection and Examination of such Estimate or Valuation, shall be notified by such Persons as is hereinbefore directed for the Notification of the First Meeting to be held under this Act; and every Person subject to such Assessment aforesaid, who shall demand a Copy of the Whole or any Part of such Estimate and Valuation, and shall tender the reasonable Charge of preparing the same to the Clerk of such Commissioners, shall be entitled to such Copy within Three Days after such Demand and Tender.
